C7 Relatives Who Have No Humanity

Lin Wanyan held the cup tightly in her hand until her joints turned white before she let go.

Actually, even if he didn't say it, she would still eat it. Because Lin Wanyan knew that this position did not belong to her.

She would return Mrs Ling's identity to Lin Yunxi sooner or later.

Five years later, she would no longer belong here. At that time, she would no longer have any relationship with Ling Ouwen, so she did not have a child and would not be involved. At that time, she could be considered to have left cleanly.

Ling Ouwen was only here to give Grandpa an explanation. According to his instructions, Ling Ouwen would come to the villa once in a while. He would force a relationship with her and then force her to eat the birth control pills. He wanted to prevent Lin Wanyan from giving birth to the children of the Ling Family in the future, and she would have a conflict with the Ling Family in the future.

Nanny Chen sighed helplessly. She felt that it was not worth it.

"You should hurry and eat breakfast. He really is. You are beautiful and you are so kind. I really don't know why he doesn't like you. "

Lin Wanyan looked at the sumptuous breakfast and instantly lost her appetite.

She waved her hand and revealed a bitter smile. Her heart ached so much that she almost could not breathe.

"I am already used to it. "

Nanny Chen was about to say something when her phone suddenly rang.

When Nanny Chen saw the number, she immediately panicked. She carefully looked at Lin Wanyan and then she put down her breakfast. She forced herself to be calm and said, "Sorry, I will take the call first. You eat first. "

Then Nanny Chen quietly left.

Lin Wanyan's heart skipped a beat. She vaguely felt that it was him calling. Then she followed Nanny Chen's footsteps and stood at the door. She saw Nanny Chen standing not far away from the corridor. She used a very soft voice to say to the person on the other side of the phone, "Don't worry, she has already eaten just now. "

Lin Wanyan felt her body stiffen and her heart began to feel a faint pain.

So he called to confirm whether she had taken medicine or not. He was very concerned about this kind of thing.

Ling Owen was indeed very nervous. He was nervous that she would get pregnant and nervous that she would give birth to his child. He was afraid that she would cause trouble for him. If that was the case, Lin Wanyan would not be able to easily be Mrs Ling.

After Lin Wanyan finished breakfast, she changed her clothes and went to the hospital to see her father as usual.

Although Lin Yan was not her biological father, she still took on the responsibility of taking care of him.

Because the villa was rather remote, she needed to walk for 20 minutes before she could get on the bus. She was like this every day.

Nanny Chen looked at Lin Wanyan's back as she left and silently sighed. She felt that Lin Wanyan did not have the appearance of a wealthy Young Madam and Lin Wanyan's life was not even as good as hers. She had to work until dawn every day before coming back. When she went out, she still had to take the bus. Even the basic living expenses had to be earned by her. She was really too pitiful.

Lin Wanyan had just reached the door of Lin Yan's ward when she heard an argument coming from inside. She was stunned for a moment and rushed forward. She looked very anxious.

"Yan has been in the hospital for a year. You don't know anything. You don't know how to manage the company. Why do you have so many shares? Why don't you give them to me? Do you want to see Yan's company collapse? " The one who said this was Lin Yan's elder brother. He was also Lin Wanyan's uncle, and his name was Lin Zheng.

A year ago, when Lin Yan went to the factory for inspection, there was a sudden collapse. He did not manage to escape in time and became disabled. He stayed in the hospital for a year and did not recover.

Lin Zheng had always wanted to take the company shares from Lin Yan and Wang Chunlee.

"It's useless for you to take these shares. You might as well give them to us. Look, you have to take care of Yan in the hospital again. How can you have the time to manage the company? I guarantee that after you hand over the shares to us, the medical expenses and your living expenses will be on us. Oh right, and your son's tuition fees. " Yao Chunhua held Wang Chunlee's hand. She pretended to be friendly and said.

Wang Chunlee said with tears in her eyes, "Our family only has this bit of shares left. You can't do this. Now the company is under your control. . . "

Before Wang Chunlee finished speaking, Yao Chunhua said unhappily, "What do you mean by this? Do you mean I robbed Yan's company? Think about it. Yan has been lying in bed for a year. I have been helping him manage the company. I am doing it for your own good. I am tired every day. If I can't get a good word out of it, don't blame me for being heartless. If you don't hand over your shares, then you'll pay for Yan's hospitalization fees. "

After Lin Wanyan heard Yao Chunhua's words outside the house, she finally could not hold it in anymore. She directly broke into the house. Her eyes were filled with anger as she said, "What do you mean by that? Is there anyone like you who robbed money in broad daylight?"

Not only did Yao Chunhua rob the company, but she also wanted to rob their shares now. Before Lin Yan got into trouble, they had been freeloading at Lin Yan's house. They were actually not satisfied. Now that Lin Yan got into trouble, they immediately snatched Lin Yan's company and became the boss.

"I thought someone came. It turns out to be you. How did your mother educate you? How can you yell at me? Do you think you are his woman after marrying Ling Ouwen? Everyone knows that you are just a nominal person. The person he really wants to marry is not you. "

Finishing, Yao Chunhua gave Lin Wanyan a contemptuous look.
