

ETERNAL SK 861

Chapter 861: Total Annihilation

Su Zimo had already vanished from his original position when the Creation Green Lotus killed the woman in makeup.

Swoosh!

The sound of water currents echoed. When the fiend demon of Silvermoon Valley glanced around, his eyelids twitched and he was scared out of his wits!

A pair of shuddering eyes filled with boundless killing intent had appeared right in front of him!

Instinctively, he wanted to turn and flee.

However, before long, the scene of the young master of Levitating Goat Peak's death flashed through his mind.

His true form was a Silvermoon Wolf and his speed within the Blood Sea would definitely be affected – there was no way he could escape from Su Zimo's pursuit!

If he chose to escape, there would be no chance of survival and he would definitely follow in the footsteps of the young master of Levitating Goat Peak!

"I've got to give it my all!"

The fiend demon of Su Zimo roared and lunged at Su Zimo with his sharp claws.

At the same time, he opened his mouth and chomped down at Su Zimo's neck!

He knew his chances of winning against Su Zimo in melee combat were slim given his strength.

His only hope was for the silver-robed man and another fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak at the side to attack at the same time and hold Su Zimo back!

However, his hopes were dashed.

Earlier on, there were six fiend demons. However, in the blink of an eye, three were killed.

If it was anybody else, they would have been stunned by such overwhelming means as well!

The silver-robed man and fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak were a major cultivation realm above Su Zimo. However, at that moment, there was a hint of hesitation in both their eyes.

Should they advance or retreat?

That single moment of hesitation was enough to declare the death of this fiend demon from Silvermoon Valley!

"You must have a death wish!"

Su Zimo did not dodge or avoid and strode forward. With lightning speed, he grabbed the lower jaw of the Silvermoon Wolf before him!

How powerful was Su Zimo's physique?

The Silvermoon Wolf could not close his mouth at all!

His wolf paws scratched against Su Zimo's chest and tore through the latter's green robes. However, the sound of metal could be heard and sparks flew everywhere!

The eyes of the Silvermoon Wolf widened in disbelief as he glared at Su Zimo's chest.

There were scarlet scales that could be seen faintly!

Su Zimo harrumphed coldly and circulated his blood qi. Green veins popped up on his arms and his flesh expanded as he exerted strength!

Shing!

Su Zimo ripped the Silvermoon Wolf into two by the mouth!

An Essence Spirit fled hurriedly within the blood mist.

Su Zimo caught up and destroyed it with a single slap before it managed to flee far away and it perished within the Blood Sea!

"Run!"

The fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak and the silver-robed man no longer hesitated. Both of them turned to flee in different directions with frightfully pale expressions!

As long as they could escape from the Blood Sea and spill the beans on everything that happened within, Mo was bound to die and nobody would be able to protect him!

"It's too late for you to escape now!"

Su Zimo's voice echoed behind the two of them in a chilling manner.

The fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak was fervently swimming up with all his might. Without any warning, he felt a sharp sense of danger pierce through his back!

Instinctively, he looked down.

Su Zimo was not chasing him. Instead, he was closing in behind the silver-robed man like a leech!

How could that be?

A question crossed the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak's mind.

Since Su Zimo was not chasing him down, where did the sensation of danger come from?

Could it have been his imagination?

In his bewilderment, Su Zimo who was hunting down the silver-robed man not far away suddenly turned and looked over!

The next moment, the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak's vision was filled with an extremely bedazzling luster!

It was as though a blazing sun lit up in Su Zimo's eyes!

It illuminated the depths of the Blood Sea for a moment!

A scorching column of light tore through the Blood Sea and shot towards the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak's head instantly with an incomparably frightening aura!

"That's a... visual technique!"

The thought crossed the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak's mind and he only had enough time to tilt his head slightly.

However, the column of light shattered the other half of his head!

His Essence Spirit could not survive against the focus of Illumination Eye.

Instantly, it disintegrated into ashes!

Far away, the fiend demons of Golden Flames Mountain and Vermilion Cloud Valley who were initially not involved in the fight felt chills run down their spines at the moment and broke out in shudders!

In slightly more than ten breaths, five fiend demons were buried in the depths of that bottomless Blood Sea!

...

On the flat plains.

Although the demons discussed among themselves, they watched the Blood Sea keenly.

Ever since the mighty gigantic vortex disappeared, the Blood Sea had not been peaceful.

None of them knew what was going on beneath. However, the surface of the sea surged with waves that crashed onto the shore from time to time.

The seven Overlords stood in the air and looked down into the Blood Sea as though they wanted to see what was going on within.

Even the old ape's expression was slightly solemn.

More than ten breaths later, the waves on the surface of the sea subsided.

Before long, the Blood Sea became peaceful again.

However, for some unknown reason, the tranquility caused the tension in the air to increase!

The tranquility resembled the calm before a storm!

All of a sudden!

A wolf's head popped out on the surface of the Blood Sea.

It was the silver-robed man!

That was the number one Territorial Lord of Silvermoon Valley!

All the demons had sharp gazes and recognized the identity of that wolf's head instantly.

The face of the wolf's head was filled with helplessness, anxiety, fear and horror!

"Save..."

The silver-robed man's head was barely exposed and he managed to shout a single word.

However, immediately after, in front of countless gazes, the silver-robed man's figure plummeted as though he was dragged into the Blood Sea by some force!

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley narrowed his gaze with a nervous expression; his fists were gripped tightly and even his arms trembled slightly.

All the demons were in an uproar!

The Blood Sea could block spirit consciousness and all sounds.

It was only at that moment that the demons were truly certain something huge had happened within the Blood Sea!

What could have afflicted the silver-robed man with so much fear?

The moment that thought crossed the minds of the demons, the surface of the sea opened up once more and an Essence Spirit escaped – it was as the silver-robed man's Essence Spirit!

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley was delighted and heaved a deep sigh of relief.

An escape of the Essence Spirit could ensure one's survival at least!

However, his heart skipped a beat before it could calm down.

Before the silver-robed man's Essence Spirit could escape far after it broke out from the surface of the sea, the waters churned and a gigantic hand of blood reached up and scooped!

Poof!

The gigantic hand of blood grabbed the silver-robed man's Essence Spirit and disintegrated it with a single squeeze!

Swoosh!

The gigantic hand of blood dispersed into blood and returned to the Blood Sea.

All the demons were dumbfounded.

Nobody expected the silver-robed man who was about to escape to die right in front of everyone – he could not avoid his death eventually!

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley's expression froze.

He was not the only one – the other six Overlords did not manage to react to it as well.

Everything had happened way too quickly.

Who could have expected the silver-robed man who had escaped the Blood Sea to be devoured by it once more?!

Instantly, questions filled the minds of the demons present.

Who dragged the silver-robed man down?

What was that gigantic hand of blood?

Apart from him, how were the other nine fiend demons in the Blood Sea doing?

Chapter 862: Fight of the Overlords

A deathly silence engulfed the vicinity around the Blood Sea!

Even the seven Overlords had grim expressions as they stood in the air and looked down at the Blood Sea; none of them dared to do anything reckless.

At that moment, they could not help but recall some of the legends pertaining to the Thousand Year Blood Sea.

Suddenly, the surface of the sea caved in and swiveled slowly.

Before long, a gigantic vortex was formed!

The vortex that had vanished earlier had reappeared!

Now that the silver-robed man was dead and the fates of the other people were unknown, who was the one who created this gigantic vortex?

The Blood Sea surged with raging tides and a frightening might, as though an ancient fiendcelestial in the depths of the Blood Sea was awakening!

Little Fox murmured softly with a worried expression, "Is he going to be fine?"

"Don't worry."

The spirit tiger replied, "First has a tough life. None of those fiend demons can threaten him."

Monkey said deeply, "I'm guessing that it's even possible that this gigantic vortex was created by him."

Right then, three figures flew out of the Blood Sea!

The demons were alarmed and turned to look.

"It's the fiend demon of Golden Flames Mountain!"

"Those are the two fiend demons of Vermilion Cloud Valley!"

All the demons exclaimed.

Worried that the same situation from before might happen once again, the Overlords of Golden Flames Mountain and Vermilion Cloud Valley reacted extremely quickly and decisively – both of them reached out to pull the three figures back instantly!

However, the gigantic hand of blood from earlier did not reappear.

“What’s going on?”

“What happened beneath?”

Before the Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain could ask, the Overlords of Silvermoon Valley and Levitating Goat Peak had already closed in with sharp gazes and stern looks on their faces.

“Dead! They’re all dead!”

As though he had received immense shock, the eyes of a fiend demon of Vermilion Cloud Valley were filled with boundless fright although he had already left the Blood Sea.

“Dead?”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak asked loudly, “Who is dead? Make yourselves clear!”

This fiend demon of Vermilion Cloud Valley shuddered from the holler and could not speak at all for a moment.

The other fiend demon of Vermilion Cloud Valley at the side composed himself gradually and gulped.

“Not long after cultivating in the Blood Sea, the young master of Levitating Goat Peak, the number one Territorial Lord of Silvermoon Valley and the other four fiend demons attacked Mo to contest for resources. However...”

The fiend demon paused briefly and took a deep breath. “However, the six of them were all killed by Mo and are now dead!”

“Ah!”

A series of exclamations could be heard from the demons.

They were greatly alarmed.

Six fiend demons encircled someone but all of them ended up dying with their Essence Spirits destroyed... that was indeed quite a tragic outcome.

In that case, the gigantic vortex before them should be the doing of Mo!

The Overlord of Vermilion Cloud Valley let out a breath of relief.

Thankfully, he instructed his two fiend demon underlings to avoid any fight that broke out within the Blood Sea.

“How is that possible?”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak grit his teeth with a steely expression and snarled word by word, “Look at the cultivation realms and combat strength of the six of them. If they use their Essence Spirit secret skills at the same time, how can that lowlife defend?”

The three fiend demons that escaped from the Blood Sea remained silent.

In reality, it was true that the six Essence Spirits secret skills did not manage to injure Su Zimo!

The old ape was relieved.

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain was relieved as well as he chuckled. "So, some people tried to go for wool and came back shorn. How deserving!"

The Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak, Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp had grim expressions and cold gazes.

The losses for them were way too immense this time round!

The few fiend demons that entered the Blood Sea had immense potential and might have even broken through to become high-level fiend demons within the next thousand years!

However, all six of them were buried in the Blood Sea right now!

"He has to pay with his life!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak said with a cold, murderous voice!

"That's right!"

The Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp's voice was metallic. "This demon is so ruthless and has no regards for us at all. Nobody will be able to protect him today!"

"Fufu."

Suddenly, the old ape laughed and said indifferently, "The entire situation has been explained properly. Your underlings were the ones that attacked first and wound up being killed because they were too weak. So, what do you mean by ruthless if that's the case?"

"Fighting and killing is prohibited within the Blood Sea. However, your underlings dared to make a move. Did they respect the rules of Thousand Demon Valley? Who gave them the courage to do so?!"

The old ape's tone became increasingly sharp.

His two long, white brows fluttered. Although he looked aged, he exuded a dominance that could not be ignored!

"There must be a reason why they attacked,"

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley said deeply, "I don't know what cultivation technique that demon released or treasure he has in his possession to create such a great commotion. How are the other fiend demons going to cultivate when he was absorbing the energy of the Blood Sea so brazenly?"

"Since he wanted to benefit from everything solo, he deserved to be rounded up by the other demons!"

"Hahahaha!"

At that point, the Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain could not help but burst into laughter. "Clearly, the few of you were the ones who plotted behind the scenes for those six juniors to snatch away the energy of the Blood Sea. But now, you're the ones calling foul!"

“No matter what, that demon has to die today!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak’s gaze flashed with a look of conviction.

“Huh?”

The old ape’s aura increased relentlessly as he said in a slow manner, “Anyone that touches him will be an enemy of mine. Don’t blame me for not showing mercy and going all out today!”

“Old monkey, you can’t protect him!” The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley turned around slowly.

There were at least four Overlords on their side!

“What if I’m included?!”

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain stood out.

The Overlord of Thousand Snake Island smiled gently in a nonchalant manner. “There’s only two of you even if you’re included.”

A few Overlords glanced to the side at almost the same time.

The Overlord of Vermilion Cloud Valley shook his head hurriedly and his meaty cheeks wobbled. “It’s none of my business. You guys can fight however you want.”

He had been watching coldly by the sidelines the entire time and had long recognized the stakes.

On the side of Levitating Goat Peak and Silvermoon Valley, apart from revenge, a greater reason why they wanted to kill Su Zimo was because they saw him as a threat!

This was a low-level fiend demon that possessed such terrifying combat strength. If they did not kill him while he was weak, they would definitely be doomed in the future!

Furthermore, the few Overlords could tell that there was probably some precious treasure in Su Zimo’s possession!

Everything else aside, his physical body alone was a peerless treasure!

Of course, with the old ape and Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain in the way, it was extremely difficult for the Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak and the other territories to kill Su Zimo!

The Overlord of Vermilion Cloud Valley chose to stand by the sidelines.

At the very least, he would not be targeted no matter which side stood victorious.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak said slowly, “Old monkey, hand that demon’s life to me and I can compensate you with a perfect-grade Dao Lord Dharmic weapon!”

The demons were all shaken.

Even in the cultivation world, a perfect-grade Dao Lord Dharmic weapon was extremely rare, let alone in the world of demons where they had no knowledge of weapon refinement.

The old ape laughed and shook his head. “Even if you give me a Dharma treasure, it’s worth less than his life, let alone a Dao Lord Dharmic weapon!”

“Since that’s the case, prepare to die with him!”

With that said, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak suddenly struck. He opened his mouth and spat out two spears, thrusting them towards the old ape’s head!

The moment the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak made a move, the Overlords of Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp made their moves as well!

A fight between the Overlords had broken out!

Chapter 863: Danger!

After one became an Overlord, they would gain many fiend demon underlings and a vast territory.

At their level and status, they would almost never fight unless there was an unresolvable feud.

Who would have thought that the trigger point of a fight between Overlords would be a low-level fiend demon!

“Scram!”

The old ape roared and his blood qi rumbled. He swung his fists like a pair of stone hammers against the two incoming spears!

Clang!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak shuddered and his palm felt numb; he almost lost his grip on his spears and they nearly flew.

“How strong!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak felt his heart skip a beat.

At the same time, the old ape swiped his waist and retrieved a pair of stone dumbbells that were shaped like ancient padlocks, waving them!

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley released his saber, the Overlord of Thousand Snake Island released her katars and the Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp released his dark-gold halberd; all of them struck and sparks flew everywhere!

Although it was one against four, the old ape was not disadvantaged with his Destiny Dharmic Weapon!

“Kill him!”

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley hollered and waved his arm.

All the high-level fiend demons of Levitating Goat Peak, Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp charged over – there were more than a hundred of them!

However, there were less than 30 high-level fiend demons on the side of Ape Chatter Ridge and Golden Flames Mountain.

One side had a few times more high-level fiend demons than the other!

“You guys, be careful!”

Yuan Ling'er glared at monkey and instructed before charging into the air to fight high-level fiend demons at the other side.

In midair, the high-level fiend demons converged to a fight.

It was chaos on the flat plains as well.

Many fiend demons took advantage of the chaos to rob others. With Solitary Cloud by their side, monkey and the others were able to protect themselves.

“Innate divine powers!”

“Divine strength!”

“Inner vitality!”

“Sprint!”

“Blood Drain!”

In midair, many high-level fiend demons reverted to their true forms and formidable, overwhelming powers burst forth from their bodies while divine powers spread everywhere.

The entire world was quivering!

Unlike human cultivators, demons could begin to comprehend divine powers the moment they become high-level fiend demons.

The deeper their cultivations were, the stronger the divine powers became!

Most fiend demons could only inherit a single divine power.

A rare few fiend demons could inherit two divine powers.

Those that could inherit three divine powers were almost the strongest and most frightening living beings in the world... such as the Primordial Nine Races!

Divine powers were released in the massive battle in midair. This meant that both parties were fighting with all their might without even testing the waters!

A high-level fiend demon on the side of Confusion Mist Swamp charged to the front, wanting to take the old ape head-on with his divine powers.

“Die!”

The old ape was enraged and smashed down with his stone padlocks, smashing the fiend demon into sludge – there wasn't even a corpse left!

Although the old ape was aged with white brows fluttering, every single move he made released a shocking combat strength!

The dignity of an Overlord was not to be challenged!

Although they were of the same cultivation realms, all the high-level fiend demons would definitely be knocked back if they tried to take the old ape head-on.

It would be lucky if they could get out with severe injuries and a mouthful of blood.

Otherwise, the normal outcome would be instant death!

During this short period of time, there were already close to ten high-level fiend demons that died in the old ape's hands!

Blood dyed the skies scarlet!

Only the Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak, Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp could stand against the old ape.

“Hahaha! Amazing!”

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain waved his gigantic, black three-pronged halberd that was drenched with blood and roared in laughter. “Brother, you're really something!”

The Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak, Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp exchanged glances.

Finally, they realized something.

All of them had underestimated the old ape's combat strength!

This old ape who seemed like he was in his twilight years was still the most frightening Overlord among the seven of them!

Even the four Overlords felt anxious at the sight of their high-level fiend demons perishing one after another.

The losses were way too immense!

Was it worth it to suffer great losses just for the sake of a low-level fiend demon?

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak glanced at the Blood Sea beneath and a cold glint flashed through his eyes.

The aim of this battle was not to kill the other parties in the fight.

The aim of this battle was that fiend demon in the Blood Sea!

“You guys, head inside the Blood Sea to capture that lowlife alive!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak changed strategies immediately and ordered seven high-level fiend demon underlings to enter the Blood Sea and capture Su Zimo alive!

“I’ll see who is able to enter!”

The old ape’s fur was already dyed red as he stood in front of the Blood Sea with a murderous aura, wielding his pair of bloodstained stone padlocks!

“Old monkey, there’s no need for me to defeat you. All I have to do is trap you here for the time being!”

With a single thought from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak, a cage the size of a palm flew out of his storage bag. It expanded with the wind and engulfed the old ape!

The cage was grayish-white and made from the bones of an unknown fiend demon, giving off a chilling and sinister aura!

“Hmm?”

The old ape frowned slightly and did not dare to be careless.

Although the stone padlocks in his arms were 5 tons each, he was extremely agile and darted furiously.

In the blink of an eye, he vanished from the spot and shuttled to the other side.

“Watch out!”

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain shouted.

The old ape’s heart skipped a beat.

The moment he landed, a pair of grisly-white bone palms burst forth from the mud beneath and gripped his ankles!

That was the demonic art of Levitating Goat Peak’s Overlord!

Instantly, the bone palms left ten fingerprints on the ankles of the old ape and the area around it turned purplish-black in a sinister manner!

“Shatter!”

The old ape stood on the ground and his blood qi rumbled. His body expanded as the blood qi around his ankle rumbled and his flesh swelled – the tremendous amount of power shattered the bone palms instantly!

The purplish-black color around the ankles faded gradually.

Although the old ape managed to dispel the demonic art, the bone cage in midair had already descended and trapped him within!

“Break it!”

The old ape hollered and wielded his stone padlocks to release his divine powers. The power within his body exploded and struck a few bones before him violently!

The bone cage shook and the bones quivered as though they were about to shatter!

Levitating Goat Peak's Overlord's expression changed as he yelled hurriedly, "Guys, help me! This old monkey is way too strong!"

"Alright!"

The Overlords of Silvermoon Valley and the other two territories agreed and released streams of spirit consciousnesses into the bone cage.

The stone padlocks of the old ape smashed down once again.

However, this time round, the bone cage shone brightly and repelled the old ape, causing him to smash against the bones of the bone cage at the back before sliding down.

The old ape stood up and charged forward again.

However, he was repelled once more!

This bone cage was a trump card of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. Although it did not have much killing power, it was extremely difficult for those that were trapped within to break out.

Furthermore, right now, it was equivalent to a fight between the old ape and four other Overlords!

On the other side, the Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain was also surrounded by many high-level fiend demons and could not break free.

Seven high-level fiend demons broke out and with lightning speed, leaped into the gigantic vortex in the Blood Sea and vanished.

The Dharmic powers fluctuation caused by seven high-level fiend demons leaping into the Blood Sea was so strong that even the gigantic vortex was forced to stop!

The Blood Sea became peaceful once again!

At the sight of that, the demons lamented internally, "Mo is doomed!"

Two major cultivation realms apart, even a single high-level fiend demon could kill Mo, let alone seven!

Chapter 864: Dao of the Fiend

Outside the Blood Sea, a massive battle ensued.

Su Zimo who was within the Blood Sea was none the wiser.

Although the duration was not long, the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra was extremely domineering. With that fiend technique, he had already absorbed most of the energy within the Thousand Year Blood Sea.

After the breakthrough of the scarlet-haired Yin Spirit, the black-haired Essence Spirit had also broken through to late-stage Nascent Soul!

The continuous flow of energy surged into Su Zimo's body, tempering his body and refining his Essence Spirit.

Under the baptism of that energy, his body became much stronger!

His cultivation realm was rising rapidly as well!

The amount of energy that was enough to provide for ten mid-level fiend demons was now absorbed by Su Zimo entirely.

This effect could shock the entire world!

Su Zimo let out a deep growl and his flesh expanded continuously!

His figure grew rapidly at an uncontrollable pace as well.

Ten feet!

Twenty feet!

Before long, he was fifty feet tall!

Furthermore, his growth did not seem like it was about to stop!

If anybody was within the Blood Sea, they would discover to their shock that Su Zimo's skin had already split apart – it looked horrific with dense blood scars!

It was as though his body could explode at any moment!

In reality, it was lucky that Su Zimo was the one in this position. If it was anybody else, they would have exploded if they dared to absorb all the energy of the Blood Sea within such a short period of time.

His bloodline churned and his powerful regeneration capabilities healed the wounds on his body continuously.

Before he was fully healed, his wounds split apart again!

As his figure grew, more wounds opened up on that terrifying and muscular body!

He was riddled with immense pain.

However, there was no hint of suffering within Su Zimo's eyes. Instead, there was a sinister look of excitement!

The peak of late-stage Nascent Soul!

With the augmentation from such a large amount of pure energy, his cultivation realm exploded and within a short period of time, he was already at late-stage Nascent Soul realm!

It seemed as though his body was filled with boundless energy.

The feeling of control was amazing and intoxicating!

The reason why many fiend techniques were called fiend techniques was because their methods were extremely brutal and oftentimes, the person who cultivated them would receive immense power within a short period of time!

The increase in strength would also raise the cultivator's dependence on the fiend technique. If his foundation was not firm, his nature would change as well.

He would become cruel, bloodthirsty and resort to despicable means!

At the end, he would sink into the Dao of the fiends entirely.

At that moment, Su Zimo showed signs of sinking into the Dao of the fiends!

The Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra was domineering and sinister.

Su Zimo had always been resistant towards it from the depths of his heart.

That was the reason why he would not choose to use it most of the time.

However, after he killed the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak and the other five, Su Zimo realized that he did not have much time left.

It won't be long before the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak and the others found out about what happened within the Blood Sea.

Therefore, he could only rely on the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra if he wanted to absorb all the energy of the Blood Sea within the shortest period of time!

As he expected, with the absorption power of the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra, he had already absorbed at least 80% of the Blood Sea's energy!

His cultivation realm surged rapidly as well.

If he had been cultivating normally, it would take him dozens of years worth of effort to reach peak late-stage Nascent Soul from late-stage Nascent Soul.

However, with the boost of the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra, Su Zimo was already at this realm in less than 15 minutes!

This was the terror of a fiend technique!

Subconsciously, Su Zimo smacked his lips and his massive figure stood upright within the Blood Sea. His eyes were bloodshot and he resembled a fiend that had just walked out of Hell!

It was way too amazing!

In fact, thoughts crossed his mind one after another.

He wanted to charge out of the Blood Sea and kill all the living beings to devour their bloodlines completely!

As long as he could refine sufficient fresh blood, he could achieve breakthroughs within the shortest period of time and become a Void Reversion or even Dharma Characteristic!

Nobody in this world could stand in his way!

This world could not hold him back either!

With that, he would be able to catch up to Die Yue in the fastest possible speed and even get to meet her!

'Eh... how would Die Yue's bloodline taste like?'

Su Zimo jolted out of his stupor the moment that thought crossed his mind!

He felt chills all over his body and his hair stood on end. Although he was within the Blood Sea, he was drenched in cold sweat out of fear!

It was way too scary!

How could that be?

How could I have had such thoughts?!

Su Zimo's eyes were widened with terror, filled with bewilderment.

Although he had the same craving for blood when he released the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra in the past, his Dao Heart had never wavered.

He was somebody who inherited the essence of the immortal and Buddhist sects as well as cultivated their top-tier cultivation techniques.

He had even studied Buddhism at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley for 20 years and eventually severed his attachments to the mortal realm. Although the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra was domineering, it was not enough to taint him.

However, if the frightening thought of harming Die Yue had not crossed his mind earlier on, he might not have snapped out of his stupor.

In fact, there was a chance that he might fall into the Dao of the fiends forever, unable to crawl out of it ever again!

Su Zimo felt a lingering fear in his heart.

"Om... Ma... Ni... Pa... Mi... Hom!"

Sanskrit echoed through his mind.

The black-haired Essence Spirit assumed a lotus position on the Creation Green Lotus with a lowered gaze. He sang Buddhist sutras like an old monk and exuded a brilliant golden light!

Within his consciousness, there were rays of resplendent lights that filled the entire place in a dazzling manner. Immortal qi was abundant and Buddhist lights spread.

Under the continuous echo of the powerful Sanskrit, the blood glint in Su Zimo's eyes gradually faded and he regained clarity in his thoughts once more.

Su Zimo narrowed his eyes and his gaze flickered.

Earlier on, did he change because he had released the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra way too many times and everything accumulated till this point?

Did his Dao Heart waver because his cultivation realm had increased way too rapidly?

Or was it because... of some other reason?!

Su Zimo looked down slightly and caught sight of the bottomless, ghastly Blood Sea beneath him. Suddenly, the blood-colored human face flashed through his eyes once again!

The face seemed like it was smiling at him!

A sinister and frightening aura that could send shivers down one's spine spread through the Blood Sea!

Su Zimo shrugged his head.

Suddenly, he heard activity coming from the surface of the sea.

Thud! Thud!

After the splashing sounds, seven figures dove into the Blood Sea. They exuded an incomparably domineering aura and sped towards him!

These are... high-level fiend demons!

Su Zimo sensed it and was alarmed.

He could see it clearly – the seven high-level fiend demons should be from Levitating Goat Peak; none of them were from Ape Chatter Ridge or Golden Flames Mountain!

This was big!

It did not take Su Zimo long to realize that something massive must have happened outside the Blood Sea.

What should he do?

Su Zimo's mind spun as the seven figures approached rapidly.

Although he had many trump cards, he had almost nothing that could pose a proper threat to high-level fiend demons.

Although Barren of the Mystic Classic of the Twelve Demon Kings of the Great Wilderness could affect high-level fiend demons, it was not of much importance.

He had only comprehended the tip of the iceberg for Barren and had yet to realize its true essence. Even if he released it against the high-level fiend demons at close distance, he would only decrease their lifespans at the speed of a hundred years per breath.

For high-level fiend demons whose lifespans were up to 10,000 years long, a hundred breaths per breath was nothing much.

However, these high-level fiend demons could kill him ten times within a single breath!

Chapter 865: Bubbles in the Blood Sea

Escape!

That was his only shot at survival.

The difference in strength between two cultivation realms was great.

Ordinary escape techniques would not be useful against the pursuit of high-level fiend demons – he could only survive if he released Blood Escape!

Right then, Su Zimo swept his gaze and caught sight of an unsettling image.

One after another, gigantic bubbles appeared from the depths of the Blood Sea.

It was as though a living being was hiding in the depths of the dark sea and had just let out a breath!

Although the seven high-level fiend demons that entered the sea caught sight of it as well, none of them took it to heart.

The seven of them encircled Su Zimo in the middle expressionlessly with cold gazes as though they were looking at a dead person.

The gigantic bubbles that appeared from the bottom of the sea floated. Some of them brushed past Su Zimo but some of them engulfed the seven fiend demons!

The seven of them were unprepared.

Or rather, none of them saw the need to feel guarded against bubbles.

An uneasy feeling surged into Su Zimo's heart when he caught sight of the seven high-level fiend demons engulfed by the bubbles.

Immediately after, right under his very eyes, one of the fiend demons in the bubbles exploded into a blood mist!

Psst!

Su Zimo jumped in shock and almost swallowed the seawater around him!

He was dead!

A high-level fiend demon whose strength was equivalent to a Dharma Characteristic of the human race was destroyed along with his Essence Spirit right in front of Su Zimo!

Initially, the gigantic bubble was transparent.

However, at that moment, the bubble was dyed red with the blood that spewed out of the fiend demon's body!

The blood-colored bubble did not pop and continued floating upwards!

Su Zimo felt his neck go stiff and his limbs turn cold. A chill ran down his spine along with goosebumps.

Poof! Poof! Poof!

Immediately after, Su Zimo heard explosions.

The explosions sounded like marks of death and made him shudder!

A single possibility crossed Su Zimo's mind as he held his breath and turned around slowly.

Although he was prepared for it, his heart skipped a violent beat and his pupils constricted.

True enough!

The six high-level fiend demons that were initially surrounding him had already vanished, leaving six blood-colored bubbles that floated slowly upwards!

They were all dead!

The seven high-level fiend demons had just entered the Blood Sea but were destroyed along with their Essence Spirits by these unknown gigantic bubbles!

Immense fear filled his mind.

In Su Zimo's path of cultivation, he rose from the bottom and defeated all the paragons in his way. He overwhelmed powerful foes and was unmatched within the same cultivation realm!

He had escaped death countless times and had even wandered into a forbidden ground like the Dragon Bone Valley. Yet, he had never felt such fear before.

Was it pure coincidence that the bubble brushed past him earlier on?

Su Zimo did not dare to continue along that line of thought.

After a brief pause, he sped towards the surface of the sea in a flash!

...

The skies above the Blood Sea.

The Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak, Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp imbued the bone cage at the same time to trap the old ape.

The old ape fought with his full strength but could not break free.

The four Overlords could not injure the old ape who was within the bone cage either.

Although it seemed like both sides were in a stalemate on the surface, everybody could tell that the old ape was put in a passive position!

As long as the seven high-level fiend demons that entered the Blood Sea managed to capture Su Zimo, the old ape would have to admit defeat in fear of the consequences.

Although the battle was ongoing, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak and the others frowned slightly.

The seven high-level fiend demons had entered the Blood Sea for quite some time now, but why was there no activity?

Did the seven of them need to spend so much time against a low-level fiend demon?

Right then, as though they sensed something, the seven Overlords turned over and gazed at the Blood Sea not far away.

The surface of the sea was calm and peaceful.

Suddenly!

A blood-colored bubble rose from the surface of the sea and popped. Within it, a corpse could be seen faintly before it sank rapidly into the depths of the sea.

“That corpse...”

The Overlords present frowned slightly.

Although they could not see his appearance, the shape of the corpse seemed like he was one of the seven high-level fiend demons!

Immediately after, blood-colored bubbles rose from the surface of the sea one after another.

They exploded at the same time!

Six corpses could faintly be seen!

Coupled with the corpse earlier, there were a total of seven.

This time round, the seven Overlords saw everything clearly – the seven corpses corresponded exactly to the seven high-level fiend demons that entered the Blood Sea!

Almost at the same time, the terrifying rumors about the Thousand Year Blood Sea crossed the minds of the demons present.

These rumors were rarely taken seriously.

However, at this moment, the demons realized that there was a high chance that those rumors were real!

Many fiend demons shuddered and moved to increase their distance from the Blood Sea immediately.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a splash could be heard.

A tall and mighty figure leaped out of the Blood Sea!

All the demons were in an uproar!

Who would have thought that somebody was still alive within the Blood Sea when even high-level fiend demons had died within?!

If there was a single survivor from the Blood Sea, there was a high probability that this was the killer of the seven high-level fiend demons!

Who wouldn't be wary of this mysterious and powerful existence?

The demons exclaimed and scurried in all directions.

Even the Overlords present retreated by instinct!

In the blink of an eye, it was empty above the Blood Sea – not a single fiend demon remained behind.

“Eh? He looks familiar.”

“He looks like...”

“Goodness, it’s Mo! He’s still alive!”

The demons in the crowd exclaimed.

A hundred foot tall figure stood above the Blood Sea like a gigantic fiendcelestial. He had shoulder-length scarlet hair, piercing eyes and a torrential aura as blood qi spread!

Although his body undertook a significant transformation, there was no doubt from his appearance that he was Mo – the demons recognized him right away.

The Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak and the other territories had solemn expressions and did not charge over right away.

They could not make out who Mo truly was and how strong exactly was he.

One after another, spirit consciousnesses shot over.

Before long, the demons scanned Su Zimo’s cultivation.

Although his cultivation realm increased, he was still just a low-level fiend demon!

The Overlords of Levitating Goat Peak and the other territories exchanged glances and snapped out of their stupor before long.

Mo should have had nothing to do with the deaths of the seven high-level fiend demons!

It might have just been due to luck that he was able to make it out of the Blood Sea alive!

The reason for that was because they caught sight of a hint of panic and fear in Su Zimo’s eyes.

At that thought, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak’s face was filled with killing intent and he growled deeply. “The three of you, hold back this old monkey. I’m going to go slaughter that lowlife!”

By the time his sentence was completed, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak had already vanished from the spot.

“Old goat, how dare you!”

The old ape roared furiously and charged against the bone cage once more.

Boom!

The bone cage shook but was not damaged still.

Although the Dharmic power on the bone cage had weakened with one less spirit consciousness, it was still imbued with the full strength of the Overlords of Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp.

It would be extremely difficult for the old ape to break free within a short period of time!

After Su Zimo left the Blood Sea and caught sight of the situation before him, he composed himself quickly.

The old ape was trapped and the Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain was in a difficult position – nobody could save him if the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak insisted on killing him!

At that thought, Su Zimo was decisive and turned to flee right away!

The moment the killing intent rose in the heart of Levitating Goat Peak's Overlord, Su Zimo had already escaped.

"Hold him back!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak roared.

There were more than ten high-level fiend demons that had already withdrawn themselves to charge towards Su Zimo.

Chapter 866: Bird in a Cage

'You must be dreaming if you think that you can escape right under my watch!'

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak sneered internally.

More than ten high-level fiend demons had just made their moves when a streak of blood light flashed through the air at an extremely fast speed to escape in a frantic manner!

Su Zimo had already vanished from the spot.

Blood Escape!

"So fast!"

The demons were alarmed.

Some of the high-level fiend demons were quick to act and struck right away.

Mud and dust flew everywhere as a tornado that connected Heaven and Earth was formed from the flat plains. It had a massive aura and ripped towards Su Zimo.

Swash!

A saber created with Dharmic powers descended from the skies and almost split the voids into two!

Dharmic powers surged and rumbled. Instantly, more than ten demonic arts descended and threatened to drown Su Zimo!

Apart from demonic arts, there were even some spirit consciousness attacks blanketing over!

Be it the fiend demons on the flat plains or the fiend demons fighting in midair, everyone turned around at this moment and watched eagerly – they wanted to know the outcome of this attack!

"Young Master!"

"First!"

Little Fox, the spirit tiger and everyone else was alarmed and shrieked.

Swoosh!

The blood light tore through the air and escaped 500 kilometers away!

The speed of the blood light was way too fast!

The demonic arts of the high-level fiend demons were a step too slow.

Even the Essence Spirit secret skills could not catch up to the streak of light. The strength of the spirit consciousnesses weakened beyond the range of 500 kilometers.

In the blink of an eye, the streak of blood light had already escaped to the horizons!

Thankfully, this was a boundless flat plains with unobstructed vision.

Otherwise, the demons would have already lost sight of Su Zimo a long time ago!

Everything happened way too quickly that most fiend demons on the battlefield had only just reacted to things.

“Roar!”

The old ape roared and his figure expanded. Blood qi rumbled around his body and even his snow-white brows turned scarlet like blood.

“Lend me your rod!”

The old ape roared and his spirit consciousness surged.

On the flat plains, monkey felt a load lifted from his hands. Imminent transformed into a golden streak of light and burst into the bone cage in midair instantly, gripped tightly by the old ape!

“Break it!”

The old ape held Imminent with both hands and his terrifying spirit consciousness gushed within.

A golden glow burst forth and illuminated the world!

The old ape swung Imminent violently against the bone cage.

Boom!

A deafening noise echoed!

Crack! Crack! Crack!

Immediately after, cracks appeared one after another on the surface of the bone cage and spread continuously!

The figures of the Overlords of Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island and Confusion Mist Swamp shook. Their expressions were filled with horror – they had almost lost control of the bone cage completely!

At the sight of that, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak hesitated for a moment before a look of conviction flashed through his eyes. "Try to hold on, I'll go slaughter that lowlife in case he gives us trouble in the future!"

Before his sentence was finished, he disappeared in a flash and was already in pursuit of the streak of blood light with a cold killing intent in his eyes.

He knew very well that Su Zimo would definitely be a huge problem for them if they let him off right now!

More than ten high-level fiend demons followed swiftly behind with their full might.

However, the distance between them and the streak of blood light increased continuously!

All of them were extremely shocked!

The difference between them and Su Zimo was two cultivation realms and they had a complete advantage in terms of strength. Yet, they could not catch up to Su Zimo!

What escape technique could produce such a frightening speed?

In less than 15 minutes, they lost track of Su Zimo!

...

The wind howled in his ears and the shadows of trees flashed past his eyes in reverse.

Right now, what Su Zimo released could not be considered as Blood Escape. It was Dharmic Blood Escape that made use of Dharmic powers channeled from his Essence Spirits while burning his bloodline at the same time!

The speed of Dharmic Blood Escape was even faster than Blood Escape and its burst power was even more impressive!

That was also the reason why he could break out of the encirclement and shake off the tail of more than ten high-level fiend demons hot in his pursuit.

Su Zimo was calmer now but he continued forward without stopping.

The distance between them was not far enough.

He had a strong blood stench on him and the only way he could not be tracked by those high-level fiend demons hunting him was if he was a certain distance away.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat, as though he sensed something.

He frowned slightly and turned back as his pupils constricted.

Several thousand feet behind him, a tall, scrawny figure rode on the clouds and was hot on his tail!

It was the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

Su Zimo frowned deeply and was secretly alarmed.

To think that although he managed to shake off more than ten high-level fiend demons, he could not shake off the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

The distance between them did not shorten.

However, if the distance was maintained, it was almost impossible for him to escape from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak either!

Su Zimo did not know that he was not the only one shocked – the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was as well!

Initially, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak looked at Su Zimo's escape with disdain.

That was because a long time ago, he obtained an escape technique from a beast bone within an ancient ruin. Once released, he would become extremely fast and move with lightning speed – he could even catch up to the stars!

He might not have the strongest combat strength among the seven Overlords.

However, he was ranked number one in speed!

He thought that he would catch up to Su Zimo within a few breaths.

But now, the two of them were already sprinting for an hour and had left the high-level fiend demons far behind a long time ago. However, he was still unable to catch up to Su Zimo!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's expression was grim.

Dharmic powers surged from Heaven and Earth into his body continuously. He remained right behind Su Zimo the entire time without letting up at all!

This low-level fiend demon was hiding many secrets.

The potential of this demon seemed to be limitless. Because of that, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was extremely wary and even more determined to kill Su Zimo!

With a cold gaze, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak shouted as he chased, "Lowlife, even if you flee into the heavens or burrow underground, I'm going to kill you today!"

Su Zimo remained silent and merely continued fleeing dully.

"Fufu, why aren't you speaking?"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak sneered sinisterly, "You know it yourself. Everything you're doing right now is futile and is merely your final attempt at struggling!"

Su Zimo was clear that the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was trying to rile him with words.

If he was distracted or affected by fear, hesitation or cowardice, his speed would definitely drop.

At that time, he would die for sure!

However, more than that, Su Zimo was certain that the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was not just trying to scare him.

He was almost certainly dead now that he was targeted by an Overlord!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's eyes were filled with ridicule as he said coolly, "Lowlife, your escape technique sure is heavenly-defying. It's definitely taking a huge toll on your body and you won't be able to last long!"

As an Overlord, he had not lived in vain for thousands of years.

Although he did not understand much about Dharmic Blood Escape, he could almost guess the truth!

Su Zimo pursed his lips tightly and remained silent still.

To be fair, even if Blood Escape had no sequela, he was definitely incapable of comparing to an Overlord in terms of stamina or Dharmic powers.

The two of them continued sprinting one after another.

Perhaps because it was too long, Su Zimo's speed had indeed decreased and the distance between them narrowed as well!

At the sight of that, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was even more certain that he had not guessed wrongly.

"Lowlife, don't worry, I'm in no hurry,"

A cruel, playful look appeared on the face of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak as he roared in laughter. "I'll continue with this war of attrition and you won't be able to withstand it eventually! Hahaha!"

The moment he said that, the distance between them seemed to have narrowed further.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's gaze narrowed – he could clearly see that the back of Su Zimo's green robes was drenched with sweat!

His ears twitched and he could even hear heavy pants coming from Su Zimo!

Those were signs of fatigue!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was thoroughly relaxed.

To him, Su Zimo was now a bird in a cage that could not escape!

Chapter 867: Killing an Overlord!

The distance between the two of them narrowed constantly.

Su Zimo's figure started staggering, as though he was almost out of stamina.

Furthermore, the sequela of Dharmic Blood Escape seemed to be intense.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's eyes were filled with mockery as he let out a cruel smirk.

It was as though he could see the panic, fear and helplessness on Su Zimo's face right now...

However, in reality, Su Zimo's back was against him.

If the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak could see Su Zimo's face right now, he would discover to his shock that there was no panic, fear or helplessness on this refined face the same way he had imagined!

Instead, there was only a single expression on that face – calmness!

The more dangerous the situation was, the more one needed to be calm.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was filled with killing intent. However, it was the same for Su Zimo's eyes at that moment!

Given his capabilities, there was no way he could escape from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak at all.

His only shot at survival was to kill the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

Killing an Overlord!

That was truly an ambitious thought!

Even for the other Overlords, they could not guarantee that they could kill an Overlord for sure, let alone a low-level fiend demon.

However, Su Zimo dared to harbor such thoughts!

The situation was not completely hopeless for him.

He was definitely not a match for the Overlord in head-on combat.

However, he had many trump cards.

Among them, one of the most important trump cards he had was the Divine Phoenix Bone that Die Yue left behind in his body!

Within the cultivation world, it was no longer a secret that he had a Divine Phoenix Bone within his body – many cultivators knew that.

Previously, Dao Being Xuan Yu of Great Qian Ruins tried to kill Su Zimo in the Great Qian Ruins. At that time, he even avoided the Divine Phoenix Bone intentionally and severed Su Zimo's wrist.

However, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was none the wiser!

He did not even know Su Zimo's background properly, let alone know about the existence of the Divine Phoenix Bone!

If the power of the Divine Phoenix Bone was triggered, it would definitely be enough to threaten the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's life!

This was a massive gambit.

Naturally, if he won the gambit everything would be fine.

However, Su Zimo would die if he lost it!

He had no other choice.

Even with an utmost treasure like the Divine Phoenix Bone, it was extremely difficult for him to want to kill an Overlord.

The only way he could succeed was if the other party was careless!

Therefore, the sweat on Su Zimo's body and his signs of exhaustion were all faked.

His aim was to lull the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak into a false sense of security.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was not wrong – Dharmic Blood Escape did have an immense toll on Su Zimo and severe sequelae as well.

However, there was something he had missed out on.

Su Zimo had just exited the Blood Sea and there was a tremendous amount of bloodline energy within his body!

Su Zimo's body was almost filled to the brim. The amount of energy could not be released within a short period of time and was rampaging through his body wildly.

His body would explode if this continued on!

On the contrary, Dharmic Blood Escape provided an avenue for that energy to be released.

Therefore, this was the bloodline energy burned up by Dharmic Blood Escape and Su Zimo was almost completely unaffected!

The distance between them closed up constantly!

1,000 feet...

500 feet...

100 feet!

Su Zimo did not make a move still and his gaze turned increasingly cold.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak did not attack either.

To him, Su Zimo was already a dead person. He was in no hurry and even had thoughts of playing with the other party as he closed in constantly.

In the blink of an eye, they were 50 feet apart!

This was a relatively close distance.

However, Su Zimo held it in and continued to bide his time.

He wanted to wait for a perfect opportunity to launch a lethal attack on the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

30 feet... 20 feet...

Ten feet!

The distance between the two of them was ten feet now.

It was a reachable distance!

Right then, a ruthless glint flashed through Su Zimo's eyes as he spun around. His scarlet hair danced and he roared furiously at the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak with a lightning gaze!

"Roar!"

Behind Su Zimo, an illusory phantom of a dragon appeared and coiled into the air.

He had actually let out an earthshaking dragon roar!

At the same time, Su Zimo's right eye shone with a bedazzling glow. It intensified and burst forth instantly like a blazing sun!

He had released a vocal and visual technique at the same time!

These two secret skills had instantaneous release times and were Su Zimo's greatest trump cards.

There was no way to defend against them at this distance!

If it was any other high-level fiend demon, they might have been flustered or even severely injured against such a sudden move.

However, Su Zimo was facing an Overlord!

"Dragon race?"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak frowned.

In a flash, he raised his palm and shielded himself, blocking the incoming scorching beam of light in midair by a hair's breadth.

Shing!

Green smoke rose from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's palm.

Illumination Eye was frighteningly strong and even managed to burn the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's flesh.

However, the beam of light dissipated the moment it came into contact with the bloodline of an Overlord as well!

The two secret skills were dispelled by the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak with ease and he only suffered flesh wounds!

In all fairness...

The moment he heard that bright dragon roar, there was a hint of hesitance within the heart of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak.

The Dragon race was one of the Primordial Nine Races.

Although the bloodline of the Dragon before him was impure and was only a remnant beast, this was still not somebody he could afford to trifle with!

However, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak made his decision swiftly.

Kill!

The feud between them was already set.

If he let Su Zimo off this time round, it was no longer letting a tiger return to its mountain – he would truly be letting a dragon return to the sea!

As long as he killed this demon and erased every single trace of evidence, the Dragon race wouldn't be able to say anything even if they came knocking.

Furthermore, anybody from the Dragon race would definitely possess a ton of treasures.

If he made use of them properly, this would be an immense opportunity for him!

If he could drink the blood, eat the flesh and consume the marrow of a Dragon, he might become the first Grand Demon among the seven Overlords!

The gaze of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak burned slightly.

The moment the two secret skills were released, Su Zimo's eyes narrowed and he suddenly extended his right hand in the shape of a claw to grab the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's face!

He had already expected that his vocal and visual technique might not be able to hurt the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak.

Those two secret skills were only distractions.

His Divine Phoenix Bone was his true killing move!

However, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was none the wiser.

To him, Su Zimo's grab posed no threat at all and was more like the final struggle of a dying beast.

"Are you giving up?"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak sneered and said in an unhurried and patient manner, "I heard that you have a strong physique and you're extremely ferocious in melee combat. I'll let you witness the meaning of true strength today!"

Instead of avoiding or retreating, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak punched forward violently towards Su Zimo's extended palm!

Boom!

The fist and palm connected!

An incomparably domineering power struck Su Zimo's right hand and fresh blood splattered everywhere – his palm turned into a mess of flesh and blood instantly!

However, that amount of power triggered the Divine Phoenix Bone in his right hand as well!

“Screech!”

In midair, the sinister cry of a Phoenix echoed, piercing through metal and rock with a boundless might!

A Dragon's roar and a Phoenix's cry.

Both of them sounded from this person at the same time!

Where did that Phoenix's cry come from?

Instantly, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's gaze flickered and he felt a sense of uneasiness.

Immediately after, he experienced a shuddering aura that seemed like it could incinerate all life and destroy everything in the world!

Chapter 868: Inextinguishable Divine Flames

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's eyes were widened with horror and his pupils had already shrank into a dot!

Su Zimo's right hand had vanished completely and in its place was a gigantic, menacing claw. It was scarlet and burned almost transparent with a phenomenal divine flame!

The divine flames danced and even the voids became distorted, ripped apart by the burns!

The claw burning with divine flames seemed like it originated from a true godly being and could incinerate the entire world into ashes!

While the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was horrified, Su Zimo shuddered internally as well.

Previously, back in the elementary ancient battlefield when he was still a Foundation Establishment Cultivator, he managed to kill a Golden Core with the Divine Phoenix Bone by luck.

Back then, the Divine Phoenix Bone was not completely exposed and was still a blood-colored bone palm; the shape of his right hand could still be seen faintly.

But now, there was a menacing claw around his wrist that was filled with divine flames as though it could incinerate all living beings with a single sweep!

The Divine Phoenix Bone in his hand had finally revealed its true form!

Even at the Nascent Soul realm, Su Zimo was still unable to activate the power within the Divine Phoenix Bone.

Therefore, he took the risk to make use of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's strength to trigger the Divine Phoenix Bone and activate its retaliation!

However, the scene that unfolded before him was more frightening than he had imagined!

Although he had not seen a divine phoenix personally, Su Zimo believed that the claw before him was the true claw of a phoenix!

There was no Dharmic art or secret skill that could compare to the power of a divine phoenix's claw!

This was the power of a god.

A single slash could tear everything and incinerate all life!

A divine aura spread as the divine phoenix's claw descended; it was as though everything in the world had vanished and they had reverted to chaos!

The divine flames purged away the chaos and lit up the universe!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was horrified and his eyes were filled with boundless fear!

This power was enough to destroy him!

Furthermore, he could not muster any courage to resist in front of the divine phoenix's claw.

The aura possessed an absolute might and supremacy!

In fact, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak could sense the wrath of the divine phoenix's claw!

That was because he was the one that attacked and alarmed the divine phoenix's claw into igniting the divine flames!

The dignity of a divine being was not to be trampled on!

One had to endure the consequences of aggravating a divine being!

If it was any other high-level fiend demon, they would have been killed dozens of times by the divine phoenix's claw within that single second.

On the crucial brink of life and death, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak composed himself swiftly and made a decisive move that was worthy of his status as an Overlord!

He bit the tip of his tongue and spat out a stream of essence blood!

At the same time, his glabella shone and he tossed out his Destiny Dharmic Weapon to block the path of the divine phoenix's claw!

Under normal circumstances, be it human cultivators or fiend demons, there was a limit to their mental strength and the power of their Essence Spirit. As such, they could only imbue a single Destiny Dharmic Weapon.

That was the reason why most human cultivators and fiend demons would opt for an offensive Destiny Dharmic Weapon.

However, it was different for the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak.

His Destiny Dharmic Weapon was a completely defensive Dharmic weapon!

It was a Grand Demon Bone Shield!

As its name suggested, this was refined from the bone of a Grand Demon.

At the realm of a Grand Demon, which was equivalent to a human Conjoint Body, Dharmic powers cruised through the bloodline and the body. At that point, the cultivator was one with Heaven and Earth and every single move possessed the might of the universe!

Every single inch of the bone was refined using Heaven and Earth Dharmic powers and was indestructible.

This Grand Demon Bone Shield had accompanied him for thousands of years and saved his life countless times.

The reason why he was able to achieve his status as an Overlord today was all thanks to the Grand Demon Bone Shield as well!

The moment the Grand Demon Bone Shield was brought out, the essence blood from the tip of Levitating Goat Peak's Overlord's tongue splashed on it.

The aura of the bone shield surged and it expanded like a gigantic stone door that was ghastly white. With a loud thud, it descended between the two of them and shielded the Overlord from the divine phoenix's claw!

Clang!

There was a metallic sound when the divine phoenix's claw struck the Grand Demon Bone Shield!

With this chance, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak burst in retreat while casting his palm in reverse to smack down on Su Zimo's head!

This was the capability of an Overlord!

Even while he was retreating, he spared no chances and could still kill someone with his palm!

The distance between the two of them was too close.

It was difficult for the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak to escape unscathed. In other words, it meant that Su Zimo could not dodge the killing move of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak.

Su Zimo tossed his head fiercely and leaned back with all his strength to avoid fatal damage to his head. His blood qi rumbled and released an extremely terrifying aura!

"Roar!"

A dragon roar sounded loud and clear with an antiquated aura – the roar seemed as though it came from the primordial era!

In that instant, the entire world shook and the weather changed!

Su Zimo's tendons and bones sounded at the same time as his body underwent a transformation. His bones changed and his flesh expanded with scales appearing one after another!

Dragonification!

Su Zimo was transforming into a dragon once more after half a year!

However, unlike his dragonification in Myriad Phenomenon City, perhaps due to the Divine Phoenix Bone, the dragon scales on his body were not green this time round.

There was a hint of scarlet on them!

Furthermore, there were flames in the connection points of the scales. His scarlet hair danced and the dragon phoenix aura around him spread in an extremely frightening manner!

The difference between them was too great.

Su Zimo knew that even after dragonification, it was difficult for him to match an Overlord's strength.

However, he would be covered in scales post dragonification and his defense would increase rapidly. That way, he could survive against the devastating strength of an Overlord!

When the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's palm missed Su Zimo's head, it moved down with the momentum and struck Su Zimo fiercely on the chest!

Bang!

There was a deafening sound.

Su Zimo was sent flying and fresh blood splashed onto his body endlessly.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak burst in retreat and escaped from the range of the divine phoenix's claw as well!

Although the entire fight happened within a single breath, both parties exchanged blows countless times and released multiple killing moves – a single mistake would render them instant deaths!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak had a grim expression and panted heavily.

He managed to escape!

He felt a sense of trepidation when he thought about the terrifying claw that burned with divine flames.

He had truly escaped from the brink of death.

If he had reacted a tad slower, he might have been caught by the divine phoenix's claw and incinerated into ashes by now!

However, although he managed to avoid danger momentarily, his palm that struck the divine phoenix's claw could not be retracted at all.

The flesh on his palm burned away rapidly and in a flash, everything became ashes.

His palm was crippled entirely!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak ground his teeth with a seething gaze.

The immense pain on his palm triggered his mind and sent his hatred to a boiling point!

Right as he was about to move, he grunted dully and blood drained from his face.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood, turning much weaker.

He widened his eyes and looked.

His Destiny Dharmic Weapon, the Grand Demon Bone Shield, had already fallen to the ground with its surface pierced by the divine phoenix's claw!

The hole on the Grand Demon Bone Shield was still burning with flames and had no signs of extinguishing!

The divine flames were relentless and the hole was expanding!

This bone shield that could be compared to a connate Dao Lord Dharmic weapon was completely destroyed!

Right then, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak thought of something frightening and lowered his head by instinct.

His palm was already burned to a crisp but there was a wisp of flames around his wrist.

However, that wisp of flames was extending towards his arm at a frightening speed, enlarging rapidly as it blazed on!

Chapter 869: Turn of Tides

The flames blazed on relentlessly!

“Ah!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak released a maddened roar and his blood qi rumbled and surged. A blood mist spread and gushed towards the wound on his broken arm.

Sizzle!

However, the moment his bloodline surged to the area of his broken arm, it was burned into wisps of green smoke before it could even spray out!

Swoosh!

A tremendous amount of Dharmic power rumbled and crushed over the divine flames.

However, the divine flames shone and riddled the Dharmic power with holes, dispersing the latter instantly!

No matter how the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak circulated his bloodline and Dharmic powers, he could not extinguish the divine flames on his arm!

Only at that moment did the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak finally experience a sharp pain that was absolutely unendurable!

His forehead was filled with sweat and he looked on helplessly as his arm was consumed by the divine flames bit by bit!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak almost passed out from the pain.

In the blink of an eye, the divine flames burned to his elbow. However, it showed no signs of stopping and merely intensified!

If he had no other means, the divine flames were going to cruise up his arm and extend to his body. In fact, it might even be able to burn his body into ashes!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak grit his teeth with a bitter determination.

All of a sudden!

He withdrew a chilling saber from his storage and circulated his Dharmic powers with an icy expression. With a reverse slash, he cut down violently at his own elbow!

“Pfft!”

A blood mist spewed out!

An arm that was burning with flames was lopped high into the air. It fell onto the ground and turned into ashes before long.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak shuddered for a moment and his expression turned paler.

He had dismembered his arm!

In order to protect his physical body, he cut off his arm personally!

It was too ruthless!

There was no way he could have survived till today if he hadn't been so decisive and ruthless!

In the grass field not far away, Su Zimo endured immense pain and his bones felt like they were going to fall apart. His dragon scales had faded and his chest was in a mess of flesh and blood.

It was lucky that he managed to complete his dragonification at the final moment.

Otherwise, his chest would have been penetrated with that single counterattack from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

In fact, the Dharmic power that attack possessed could even penetrate his consciousness through his body to destroy his Essence Spirit!

Although Su Zimo managed to defend against the palm strike of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak, he did not have much combat strength left.

To be precise, he did not even have the strength left to escape.

He struggled to stand up and his right hand had already returned to normal with the divine phoenix's claw gone. Blood qi surged and tried its best to heal his internal injuries.

He gazed at the broken arm of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak and sighed gently internally, thinking about how regrettable it was.

In the end, he was a step away.

An Overlord was way stronger and harder to deal with than he had imagined!

Su Zimo wanted to retreat.

Although he looked wretched when he released Blood Escape earlier on, everything was a part of his plan.

In fact, at this final moment, he harbored a killing intent towards the Overlord and wanted to kill his way out of his situation in a heavenly-defying manner!

Unfortunately, he did not manage to succeed.

Now that the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak could not be killed even with the divine phoenix's claw, Su Zimo had no other choice but to retreat!

Su Zimo no longer had any trump cards that could threaten an Overlord.

However, he had two talismans in his storage bag that was given to him by the old monk at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley – the Major and Minor Transference Talismans.

The Major Transference Talisman was specially refined by a Talisman Grandmaster for the Great Qian Empire in the past. It could cross a major realm and transport him back to the Great Qian Palace.

However, it was unsuitable for him to release the Major Transference Talisman at this moment.

The situation at the Thousand Demon Meet did not seem optimistic.

Su Zimo was worried with the fate of monkey and the others unknown.

Furthermore, if he were to disappear randomly without monkey and the others knowing, they were going to go insane and might create huge trouble.

The Minor Transference Talisman would create a random teleportation.

Although the distance won't be too far, it could help Su Zimo escape from the threat before his eyes!

Previously, Lin Xuanji used a Minor Transference Talisman and escaped with Su Zimo and Night Spirit from one of the forbidden grounds, the Dragon Bone Valley.

Su Zimo made a decision and reached towards his storage bag.

Right then, something weird happened!

Before his hand made contact with his storage bag, demonic qi rumbled before his eyes. A gigantic anaconda with a grisly red forked tongue bared its sharp fangs and burrowed out of the ground!

Psst!

Su Zimo had a great shock.

His internal organs were severely injured thanks to the palm strike on his chest by the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. Even if he could react, his body's reaction time was a tad slower.

The anaconda slithered up swiftly from his ankle and coiled around him, rooting him on the spot.

Demonic qi dissipated.

Su Zimo lowered his head and saw that the anaconda was transformed from a rope-type Dharmic weapon – the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak had released it long ago.

The moment Su Zimo stood up, the Dharmic weapon descended and bound him firmly!

Although the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was careless at the start and his arm was crippled by Su Zimo, he was still way too far ahead be it in terms of experience or methods when he fought with his full strength!

Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat.

He had not expected the counterattack of Levitating Goat Peak's Overlord to be this decisive with so many variations!

He tried to shrink his tendons and bones. However, the rope on his body shrank together and did not accord him with any gap to escape with!

Without mistake, that rope should have been made from the tendon of an anaconda and was extremely elastic.

The moment one was bound, even their Dharmic powers would be restricted and they wouldn't be able to escape!

The Minor Transference Talisman was right in the storage bag on Su Zimo's waist. However, his hands were bound tightly and his Dharmic powers were sealed – he could not reach the Minor Transference Talisman at all!

The tides had turned!

The situation right now was far beyond his control.

Indeed, it would have been a decent outcome if his gambit to kill an Overlord had succeeded.

However, he would die if he lost – the price was way too great!

Su Zimo did not have time to regret his actions and spent all his energy pondering about how he should escape.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak walked over slowly with a cold gaze. He glared at the refined face not far away with boundless hatred in his heart!

No matter what, he was still the victor of this fight.

However, the entire process was extremely treacherous!

He nearly died in the hands of a low-level fiend demon!

Furthermore, he even lost an arm in order to kill a low-level fiend demon – the price was way too great!

The gaze of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak burned slightly.

If he could make use of everything Mo possessed, including the latter's blood, flesh, bones, marrow and secret skills, to attain a breakthrough in cultivation realm with one swoop to become a Grand Demon, he could regrow his broken limbs and revert his physical body to before!

At that time, he would be the true winner!

In the blink of an eye, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was already in front of Su Zimo.

He was skinny but tall and looked down at Su Zimo from above with a hint of coldness, excitement and cruelty in his eyes.

He was not worried that Su Zimo might counterattack.

After all, there was no way Su Zimo could retaliate when he was bound by the anaconda tendon!

Furthermore, after their exchange earlier on, the Overlord no longer underestimated this demon.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was fully focused and guarded even against Su Zimo who was restricted and was merely waiting to die!

Chapter 870: Futile Efforts

Even as the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak closed in, Su Zimo had not thought of any escape plan.

However, there was no fluster in his eyes.

Since he could not escape, he could only fight with his life!

Given his character, there was no way he was going to surrender without a fight!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak seemed to have sensed it and paused in his tracks.

Su Zimo's eyes were cold and a glint of killing intent flashed past!

Suddenly, a gigantic Bronze Square Tripod flew out of his glabella.

The tripod was rusted and filled with cracks, looking ancient and old – it seemed like it was created countless years ago.

Even the voids trembled as the Bronze Square Tripod descended. It swung along Su Zimo's hand towards the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak violently!

Immediately after, a green lotus platform that was shiny as jade appeared.

Five layers of petals spread with resplendent glows and chaotic qi spread fiercely, blanketing down the head of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak!

"The struggles of a trapped beast. Shatter it!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was prepared for this and harrumphed coldly. He did not panic nor hurry as he punched out with surging blood qi against the Bronze Square Tripod head-on!

"Ugh!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak grunted dully and actually retreated a step back.

Under normal circumstances, he should have been able to shatter the Perfected Lord Dharmic weapon of a low-level fiend demon casually.

Even a Dao Being Dharmic weapon might not be able to withstand his Dharmic power.

Furthermore, this gigantic tripod looked extremely battered. As such, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak thought that he would be able to shatter it with a single casual punch.

Unexpectedly, the Bronze Square Tripod was indestructible and caused his knuckles to be smashed instead.

“It’s just flesh wounds, nothing to be worried about!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was swift to react. Instead of a punch, he pressed gently against the Bronze Square Tripod instead to push it away.

At the same time, he slapped his storage bag and withdrew a long saber, slashing up against the Creation Green Lotus.

Clang!

The Creation Green Lotus was repelled.

A series of cracks appeared on the surface of the saber as well and it shattered after a split second!

The eyes of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak narrowed.

Although his saber was only an ordinary Dao Lord Dharmic weapon, it was not something that any casual weapon could shatter!

There was definitely something up with this green lotus platform!

“Another treasure!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak nodded to himself.

The more treasures and methods Su Zimo possessed, the more excited he was.

That was because he was going to steal all of those treasures and methods away!

The Creation Green Lotus was repelled by the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. However, rays of green light suddenly burst forth from the lotus platform.

45 lotus seeds burst forth and green light streaked everywhere with a boundless sharpness. They shot towards the consciousness of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak as though they could slice everything in the void!

It was a killing move targeted at the Essence Spirit!

Su Zimo realized that the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was severely injured with the destruction of the latter’s Destiny Dharmic Weapon as well – this was the moment when his Essence Spirit was at its weakest.

However, Su Zimo was bound by the anaconda tendon and the only things he could use were the two Destiny Dharmic Weapons in his consciousness!

“Puny tricks!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak sneered and his glabella flashed. A terrifying spirit consciousness was released and the waves of spirit consciousness fluctuations almost materialized!

Ripples appeared in midair.

Before the 45 streaks of green light could pierce his consciousness, they were dissipated by the spread of the ripples!

Although the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak’s Essence Spirit was weakened, this was the Essence Spirit of a high-level fiend demon after all – his strength was overwhelming and not to be underestimated!

With the release of that spirit consciousness attack, the aura of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak weakened considerably and he panted a few heavy breaths.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak’s eyes shone with excitement.

The green lantern platform was so mystifying. Not only was it powerful, the lotus seeds within could even release an attack that targeted one’s Essence Spirit – it was indeed a rare utmost treasure!

“Great, great! All of those treasures are going to be mine!”

Rather than enraged, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was excited instead.

However, the smile on his face froze immediately after.

A shuddering killing intent surged over all of a sudden and arrived instantly; his hairs stood on end and his scalp prickled!

How could that be?

This lowlife still has something up his sleeves?!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was shocked!

The two Essence Spirits within Su Zimo’s consciousness had fused together.

If the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak could enter his consciousness, he would be shocked at the sight greeting him.

Within Su Zimo’s consciousness, his Essence Spirit assumed a lotus position and sang scriptures. Behind him was the illusory phantom of a gigantic Buddha with a dignified expression – he looked down upon the world with rays of divine light hovering behind his head!

Su Zimo and the gigantic Buddha opened their mouths at the same time and chanted ancient sutras.

Their auras seemed to be fused together and Sanskrit reverberated through every single corner of the consciousness in a deafening manner!

Su Zimo's post-fusion Essence Spirit was forcefully channeling a secret skill!

It was a secret skill from the Great Day Rulai Sutra!

Given Su Zimo's wisdom root, he already managed to comprehend this Essence Spirit secret skill within a hundred years.

However, it was clearly stated in the Great Day Rulai Sutra that this Essence Spirit secret skill was extremely powerful and could only be released by a cultivator at the Dharma Characteristic realm.

Otherwise, the cultivator's Essence Spirit wouldn't be able to handle it!

Su Zimo's Essence Spirit was only at late-stage Nascent Soul realm.

Even after fusion, his Essence Spirit was only at the Void Reversion realm at the most.

It was not at the Dharma Characteristic realm at all.

However, he could not have so many reservations – the situation before him did not allow him any options.

This was his only chance!

The consciousness of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was linked to his Destiny Dharmic Weapon and the glow of his Essence Spirit was dim.

After his arm was snapped, his blood qi was weakened. Thereafter, he dealt with the successive attacks of the Bronze Square Tripod, Creation Green Lotus and even the lotus seeds – right now, he was at his weakest.

If the Essence Spirit secret skill could be released at this moment, there was an extremely high chance that it could kill the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's Essence Spirit!

“Rulai Dharmic Seal!”

Su Zimo spoke in Su Zimo and the voids trembled.

A golden light shone from his glabella and a swastika symbol gradually formed with a divine might as Buddha light radiated everywhere!

The ancient symbol descended with a brilliant golden light that seemed as though it could suppress the entire world!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's eyes widened with horror.

His eyes were overwhelmed by the golden light completely!

Within his consciousness, his Essence Spirit shivered against the Rulai Dharmic Seal and he even had an urge to kneel in prostration!

He could not imagine how a low-level fiend demon could wield such a terrifying secret skill!

Su Zimo's Essence Spirit was shivering continuously as well.

The toll on his Essence Spirit by releasing the Rulai Dharmic Seal was way too intense!

The rate of exhaustion was frightening and was beyond what he could endure!

All of a sudden!

A giddy sensation surged through Su Zimo's mind and his Essence Spirit shuddered. Its glow dimmed rapidly and it was on the verge of falling.

The swastika symbol on his glabella dimmed accordingly as well.

The golden light was dispersing.

The terrifying might was dissipating as well.

The swastika symbol quivered endlessly before it dispersed into golden spots of light and scattered into the air.

He could not manage to form the Rulai Dharmic Seal eventually!

Su Zimo's expression was dark and devastated.

To think that all his efforts were futile at the end of the day!

"Hahahaha!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak reared his head in wild laughter with a contorted expression.

He had survived!

Unknowingly, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak found himself drenched in sweat.

His life was hanging on a thread!

He could clearly sense the terror of that Essence Spirit secret skill.

If Mo was a mid-level fiend demon right now, he would have most likely died today!

However, that was only an if.

There was no way he would accord Su Zimo the chance to grow further!

"Lowlife, this is life!"

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak retracted his smile and said coldly, "It's your fate to die here today!"

Chapter 871: Death of an Overlord

"Don't fret, continue to gather your spirit consciousness and release your secret skill!"

Suddenly, a voice sounded in Su Zimo's mind.

The voice sounded familiar but he could not recall where he knew it from.

Immediately after, a tremendous amount of pure Essence Spirit power surged into his consciousness and helped him to stabilize the Rulai Dharmic Seal that was about to disperse!

The Essence Spirit power was rich and pure with a mild burning sensation.

Su Zimo's Essence Spirit seemed incomparably insignificant in the face of this amount of energy.

The swastika symbol on his glabella that had initially dissipated into golden spots and was scattered everywhere, on the verge of complete dispersion.

However, with the support of that Essence Spirit power, Sanskrit sounded in Su Zimo's consciousness once again and the phantom figure of the gigantic Buddha materialized.

The golden spots that were initially dispersed converged rapidly and formed an ancient symbol that radiated with a blinding golden glow!

The moment the golden symbol descended, the entire world seemed as though it was frozen!

The symbol carried a shuddering and frightening aura!

The voids were caving in!

There was no power that could stand in the path of the golden symbol!

The Rulai Dharmic Seal suppressed everything!

“Ah!”

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak shrieked and his eyes widened with disbelief.

There was no way a low-level fiend demon could release an Essence Spirit secret skill as such!

With no time to hesitate, the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak channeled his weakened Essence Spirit and released another Essence Spirit secret skill to meet the golden symbol that was floating over in midair.

The two Essence Spirit secret skills clashed in midair.

However, there was no sound!

The void around the collision distorted!

Right in front of Su Zimo's eyes, the Essence Spirit secret skill released by the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak was suppressed with ease by the golden symbol – it was crushed into dust and dissipated!

The golden symbol merely paused briefly in midair before it printed itself onto the glabella of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak and vanished within!

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak jolted.

The next moment, his gaze froze up and dimmed. His expression stiffened and his life force dissipated at a rapid pace!

Without Dharmic power to suppress the wound on his broken arm, it split open and blood gushed out in a stream.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak fell forward stiffly.

Bang!

He laid on the ground motionlessly. Although his eyes were widened, there was no light in them at all.

The anaconda tendon on Su Zimo's body slid down as though they were no longer controlled.

With his freedom returned to him, Su Zimo scanned his spirit consciousness across the body of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. All he felt was the stench of death without any lifeforce at all.

Su Zimo peered into the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's consciousness with his spirit consciousness and his heart skipped a beat.

The Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's consciousness was dried up and reeked of death. There was an Essence Spirit that was split apart and completely destroyed!

An Overlord had fallen!

Even after he recalled his spirit consciousness from the consciousness of the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak, Su Zimo was still in shock and could not recover for a period of time.

That was the power of an Essence Spirit secret skill!

Although the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak's head was completely fine without any wounds, his Essence Spirit was shattered completely by the Rulai Dharmic Seal!

Of course, this was not Su Zimo's power.

If the tremendous amount of pure Essence Spirit power had not surged in, he would have been the one dead on the ground at this moment!

Su Zimo took a deep breath and tried his best to compose himself. He surveyed his surroundings and asked in a probing manner, "Senior?"

"Collect this demon's storage bag and get out of this place first!"

The voice echoed in Su Zimo's mind once again, it was calm with a hint of antiquity.

Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat.

He was not clear of danger yet.

The commotion here was great. The high-level fiend demons they left behind earlier must have already noticed and were most likely on their way over.

The longer he lingered here, the more danger he would be in!

Su Zimo's Essence Spirit had just released the Rulai Dharmic Seal and his body received a strong blow from the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. As such, his bones and tendons were aching terribly.

Right now, his Essence Spirit and physical body were at their weakest.

A single high-level fiend demon could kill him right now, let alone the fact that more than ten were coming!

Su Zimo staggered and ran to the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak. He retrieved the latter's storage bag and put it away.

This was the storage bag of an Overlord and there was bound to be a lot of good stuff within!

Su Zimo pondered for a moment and cut off a leg from the goat and stashed it into the storage bag. He scanned his surroundings and fled in a direction.

As he sprinted, Su Zimo asked softly, "Senior, are you still there?"

"Yes."

"Where?"

"In your body."

Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat and he almost stumbled over.

This time round, the person did not send a voice transmission through spirit consciousness. Su Zimo could clearly hear that the voice came from within his body!

To be precise, it was his left wrist.

A spark jolted in Su Zimo's mind and he had a hunch.

Right then, the voice suddenly sounded, "Change your direction. There are two high-level fiend demons a hundred kilometers in front of you!"

Su Zimo paused hurriedly.

The voice reminded him again.

Without hesitation, Su Zimo sprinted to the left.

However, his Essence Spirit and physical body were both extremely weak and his movement technique was sluggish.

All of a sudden!

A tremendous spirit consciousness emanated from his left wrist and enveloped his physical body. It rode with the wind at an extremely fast speed and vanished from the spot before long!

The wind howled.

Su Zimo relaxed his body and saw the shadows of trees fleeting by him rapidly.

The spirit consciousness maneuvered him with twists and turns, avoiding countless dangers in the interim before finally settling down around a secluded cave.

Su Zimo understood what he needed to do and headed in.

The moment he entered the cave, Su Zimo looked at his left wrist delightedly. He suppressed his overwhelming emotions and asked softly, "Senior Extreme Fire, is that you?"

The moment he said that, a scarlet glow burst forth from the Mingwang Prayer Beads Su Zimo wore on his left wrist and stopped in midair.

The scarlet glow revealed its true appearance. It was the size of a thumb and seemed like it was burning with fire. Its aura was powerful as it looked at Su Zimo with a smile and a bright gaze.

This Essence Spirit was from Dao Lord Extreme Fire whom Su Zimo encountered more than a hundred years ago in the cold lake within Cang Lang Mountain Range!

Back then, Dao Lord Extreme Fire was inflicted with toxic poison and was on the verge of death. He was trapped motionlessly beneath the cold lake and endured bitterly for 5,000 years!

Eventually, he met Su Zimo and left behind some belongings and messages for Su Zimo. With that, he let go of his final attachments in life and departed in a carefree manner.

It could be said that a large part of Su Zimo's later accomplishments had to do with the legacy left behind for him by Dao Lord Extreme Fire!

Everything else aside, Night Spirit was left behind for Su Zimo by Dao Lord Extreme Fire.

Later on, Dao Lord Extreme Fire's Essence Spirit no longer had any lifeforce after due to the toxic poison.

The single Mingwang Prayer Bead on Su Zimo's hand turned warm. Su Zimo made a test attempt and the Essence Spirit of Dao Lord Extreme Fire transformed into a streak of light, absorbed by the Mingwang Prayer Bead.

Later on, there had been no activity.

Although Su Zimo had cultivated to the Nascent Soul realm, he was still unable to refine the Mingwang Prayer Beads properly. His spirit consciousness could not probe within and he naturally did not know about what was going on within.

To think that Dao Lord Extreme Fire was reborn and saved him once again at this critical juncture!

Chapter 872: Mystery of the Rebirth

"Senior, how are you..."

Although Su Zimo was delighted at Dao Lord Extreme Fire's rebirth, he had many questions in his mind.

How was the poison on Dao Lord Extreme Fire dispelled?

When did he awaken?

Has he recovered fully?

As though he could read Su Zimo's mind, Dao Lord Extreme Fire smiled gently and said, "Rest and recuperate first. I'll explain everything slowly."

Su Zimo nodded. After a momentary silence, he whisked out the gigantic goat leg he cut off earlier and chuckled. "I'll be fine after eating a roasted lamb leg."

He was not being a glutton.

The goat leg in his hands was the flesh of an Overlord and was a great tonic.

Furthermore, Su Zimo possessed frightening innate regeneration capabilities. As long as he absorbed the energy of an Overlord's flesh completely, his wounds would be mostly healed by then.

At the Nascent Soul realm, demons could consume the essence of the sun and the moon. Human cultivators are able to consume sunlight and dew as well and could achieve the state of inedia without consuming any physical food.

However, the goat leg was not only a great tonic, it was also a rare delicacy – there was no way Su Zimo would let this chance pass.

Su Zimo took out his Bronze Square Tripod and circulated his spirit consciousness to conjure a ball of flames. He tossed it into the tripod and hung the goat leg on it.

Before long, the cave was filled with the fragrance of barbecued meat.

Su Zimo reached out and tore a piece off without fear of burning his hand. He placed it in his mouth and chewed in huge mouthfuls, feeling the essence of blood qi enter his stomach and cruise through his limbs!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire was only an Essence Spirit without a physical body and naturally could not enjoy this experience.

When he looked at the flame within the Bronze Square Tripod, Dao Lord Extreme Fire seemed to have thought of something and looked at Su Zimo's right hand with a wary expression.

He asked, "Your right hand is a Divine Phoenix Bone, right?"

"Yes,"

Su Zimo nodded and did not lie.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said sternly, "When the Divine Phoenix Bone was triggered earlier on, the power it released was extremely scary and was at the Conjoint Body realm!"

Su Zimo was shocked.

Conjoint Bodies were almost the strongest existences in Tianhuang Mainland.

Conjoint Body cultivators were referred to as Mighty Figures and every single action they made possessed the might of Heaven and Earth!

Unfortunately, given his current cultivation realm, he could not trigger the power of the Divine Phoenix Bone.

He could not use the Divine Phoenix Bone trump card as and when he wanted either. It was mostly passive and its shocking effect could only be triggered by the strength of his opponent.

“There’s no need to hurry,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire consoled him, “Since this piece of divine bone is within your body, there will naturally come a day when you will be able to utilize its power on your own.”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire looked at Su Zimo and felt emotional when he recalled the circumstances of their first encounter.

To think that after more than a hundred years, the young man of the past would be at this stage right now!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire gazed into the distance with a nostalgic look in his eyes as he said slowly, “Actually, it’s all thanks to the Mingwang Prayer Beads on your hand that I’m able to survive.”

“There’s no wonder why the Mingwang Prayer Beads are treasures that are able to support Daming Monastery. They truly possess the ability of resurrection by altering fate against the heavens!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, “The Mingwang Prayer Beads were created from the trunks of immortal and Soul Nourishing Wood on Tianhuang Mainland. They have the extraordinary effect of nourishing one’s soul and Essence Spirit!”

“My Essence Spirit was initially doomed because of the toxic poison. To think that it was nourished after entering this prayer bead and managed to survive instead.”

When he spoke about that, Dao Lord Extreme Fire felt a surge of emotions.

Su Zimo gazed at the Mingwang Prayer Beads on his left wrist and recalled about the past as well.

Back then, he was still a Foundation Establishment Cultivator who entered the inheritance ground of the fiend sects with Demoness Ji and fought against the fiend heirs.

To think that an unforeseen event broke out later on – a skeleton crawled out from an ancient coffin in the blood pool and nearly killed all of them within!

He hid inside the stone coffin that the skeleton was buried in with Demoness Ji. It fell into the underground river and they managed to survive.

That Mingwang Prayer Bead was found within the stone coffin!

Suddenly, Su Zimo’s expression changed.

The old monk at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley had once explained to him the reason why the Mingwang Prayer Beads were lost.

Several dozen thousand years ago, two paragons, the Dao Lord Blood Fiend and Monk Daming fought. Eventually, both of them disappeared with their fates unknown.

The Mingwang Prayer Beads were lost because of that as well.

Later on, Daming Monastery retrieved three of them with another three missing outside.

One of them was the one Su Zimo found in the stone coffin!

Within that stone coffin, there was also an extremely evil cultivation technique, the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra.

The skeleton that crawled out of the stone coffin later on was incomparable domineering and consumed the flesh and blood of many living beings directly. The cultivation technique it used was the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra!

In that case, the identity of the skeleton was clear!

It was Dao Lord Blood Fiend!

The ultimate fiend that massacred the world dozens of thousand years ago had not truly died. Furthermore, there was a high chance that he was reborn!

It was not hard to imagine. After that earthshaking battle with Monk Daming, Dao Lord Blood Fiend lost and was severely injured. As such, he hid within the Mingwang Prayer Bead with his Essence Spirit and nourished himself within slowly.

It was most likely because of the Mingwang Prayer Bead that he was able to survive to this era as well.

That was also why Su Zimo was able to find that Buddha Bead in the stone coffin.

In that case, the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra in the coffin should have been etched by Dao Lord Blood Fiend as well.

Everything seemed to make sense.

However, Su Zimo was still puzzled.

Why was that Mingwang Prayer Bead left behind in the stone coffin – was it truly a coincidence?

Furthermore, when they first encountered the stone coffin, there were gigantic chains coiled around its surface – who left those chains behind?

It was clear that the purpose of the chains was to trap Dao Lord Blood Fiend.

However, why would there be a Mingwang Prayer Bead left behind in the stone coffin in that case?

Or rather, why did the cultivator that left behind the chains not kill Dao Lord Blood Fiend outright?

Naturally, Dao Lord Extreme Fire did not know what Su Zimo was thinking about at the moment and continued speaking, “The first time I awakened was actually at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley.”

“Hmm?”

Su Zimo was momentarily stunned.

He truly had not expected Dao Lord Extreme Fire to be awakened that early.

“Although my Essence Spirit was nourished after it entered the Soul Nourishing Wood, the poison in me was not dispelled and I was still in a comatose state,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, “The old monk at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley was the one who helped me to dispel the poison within.”

At that point, Su Zimo was enlightened.

Back at the bottom of the Dragon Burial Valley, the old monk exclaimed softly upon receiving Su Zimo's Mingwang Prayer Bead, as though he sensed something.

When Su Zimo asked at the moment, the old monk gave an ambiguous reply and did not explain things.

In hindsight, the old monk had already noticed Dao Lord Extreme Fire at that time and conveniently saved the latter!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, "Although I was awakened, my Essence Spirit was afflicted by the toxic poison for many years and was still extremely weak. I had almost no strength and could not offer you any help,"

"I've watched your journey and battles throughout all these years,"

"You did well. You did not disappoint the reputation of the human race back in Myriad Phenomenon City!"

Su Zimo shook his head gently with a dejected expression when he thought back about that battle. "Although I won that battle, countless cultivators caught sight of my demon form. There might be no place left for me in the cultivation world."

"There's no need to worry,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said deeply, "Other sects aside, I can make the decision for Hundred Refinement Sect to right your name and protect you from danger!"

Chapter 873: Dharma Characteristic Realm's Physical Body

Dao Lord Extreme Fire's words were firm, resolute and powerful; it was clear that he was not bothered by Su Zimo's demonic cultivation.

More than that, he did not even care about the major sects or factions that had feuds with Su Zimo.

Su Zimo was touched and expressed his gratitude hurriedly.

At that moment, he had yet to realize the weight of Dao Lord Extreme Fire's words.

He did not know what sort of a character Dao Lord Extreme Fire was in the cultivation world 5,000 years ago either!

After all, in Su Zimo's opinion, no matter how strong Dao Lord Extreme Fire was, the latter was merely a Dharma Characteristic Dao Lord. His cultivation realm was the same as the old immortal crane and there was no way he could protect Su Zimo.

Previously, in the battle of Ethereal Peak, the old immortal crane managed to achieve a breakthrough and became a high-level fiend demon that was equivalent to a Dharma Characteristic Dao Lord.

However, Ethereal Peak was insignificant against a massive force like Glass Palace!

Notwithstanding Glass Palace, even against the Ten Upper Sects of the North Region, Ethereal Peak was weak and had no right to speak at all!

Su Zimo truly had no other choice when he left the North Region previously.

In the battle at the Great Qian Ruins, he offended almost everyone from the Ten Upper Sects, aristocratic families and gentry clans. If he continued to stay on in the North Region, Ethereal Peak would definitely protect him with all their might.

However, that would also bring about great trouble for Ethereal Peak!

They would be destroyed instantly and the loss of their legacy would result in them disappearing from the cultivation world!

However, Su Zimo did not know that Hundred Refinement Sect was not the same as Ethereal Peak.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire was not the same as the old immortal crane as well!

Su Zimo noticed that Dao Lord Extreme Fire's Essence Spirit had a powerful aura and seemed like he had already recovered to the Dharma Characteristic realm. "Senior, has your cultivation recovered fully already?"

"Not yet, I'm only around 80% at best,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire smiled gently. "Initially, I thought that I would require several hundred years to recover my cultivation. To think that I benefited quite a bit from the opportunity you just received as well."

"Just?"

Su Zimo froze momentarily and was enlightened instantly.

It was no wonder why he felt a suction power from his left wrist within the Thousand Year Blood Sea as well.

At that time, he released the Blood Refinement Fiend Sutra and was encircled by the young master of Levitating Goat Peak and five others. Later on, he nearly became a complete fiend and did not think about the issue deeply.

To think that apart from the massive boost to his cultivation realm, the energy accumulated by the Thousand Year Blood Sea managed to benefit Dao Lord Extreme Fire as well!

"Actually, the energy accumulated within the Blood Sea originally was not enough to recover my cultivation,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, "However, seven high-level fiend demons entered the Blood Sea and died sinisterly later on. That caused the energy level in the Blood Sea to rise significantly and provided me with sufficient energy,"

"The reason why I did not make a move while you were escaping was because I was absorbing the tremendous amount of energy within the Blood Sea,"

"That Overlord was truly strong. If I did not recover at least 80% of my combat strength, it would have been difficult to kill him as well. That was the reason why I did not attack recklessly,"

At that point, Dao Lord Extreme Fire shook his head gently and lamented, “However, aren’t you a little too gusty? You’re only at the Nascent Soul realm and yet you wanted to kill an Overlord that was two major realms above you. Really now...”

Su Zimo felt a sense of trepidation when he recounted the events as well.

An Overlord was much stronger than he had imagined!

He released all his trump cards and even managed to trigger the divine phoenix’s claw by accident. Yet, he was still unable to kill the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak.

If not for Dao Lord Extreme Fire, he would have died already!

Although he gained immense benefits during this Blood Sea cultivation trip, it was extremely treacherous as well.

Not only was he hunted down by an Overlord, there seemed to be a latent danger within that sinister Blood Sea too!

The seven high-level fiend demons died in mysterious manners, killed with their Essence Spirits destroyed instantly by the bubbles from the bottom of the sea!

Was it truly just a coincidence that those seemingly harmless bubbles brushed past him?

Su Zimo felt a sense of trepidation when he thought about that scene.

“Senior, that Blood Sea...”

The moment Su Zimo spoke, Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s expression changed and he interrupted the former, “Don’t ever return to that place!”

“There’s definitely something extremely terrifying at the bottom of the Blood Sea!” Dao Lord Extreme Fire said solemnly.

If even Dao Lord Extreme Fire said so, Su Zimo realized that the secret within the Blood Sea was definitely not something he could deal with at his cultivation realm!

After a moment of silence, Su Zimo looked at Dao Lord Extreme Fire worriedly and asked in a soft voice, “Senior, what about your physical body?”

At the Void Reversion or Dharma Characteristic realm, one would not die even with the loss of their physical body.

However, their combat strength would weaken and they would not be able to release many Dharmic arts without their physical body.

Furthermore, without the protection of their physical body, one’s Essence Spirit would become extremely fragile exposed to the outside world.

It was like somebody who was floating in a turbulent ocean without the protection of a spirit vessel – he could die at any moment!

There were two ways of obtaining a physical body.

The first was through assimilation!

However, the requirements for assimilation were stringent and the assimilated being's cultivation realm must not be too low.

The assimilation process was extremely dangerous as well and one could be consumed instead if they were careless!

Furthermore, every cultivator could only attempt a single assimilation try in their lifetime.

The second was to obtain a perfectly intact physical body at the Dharma Characteristic realm.

However, that was no easy task at all.

What sort of existences were Dharma Characteristics?

It was extremely difficult to obtain their physical bodies.

Furthermore, let alone a perfectly preserved Dharma Characteristic physical body.

The greatest possibility for that was if a Dharma Characteristic cultivator was killed by an Essence Spirit secret skill. With that, their Essence Spirit would be destroyed with their physical body intact!

When he heard Su Zimo's question, Dao Lord Extreme Fire swept his glance onto Su Zimo's body and asked with a fake smile, "You're not worried that I might assimilate your body?"

Su Zimo froze for a moment and shook his head right away.

Back in Cang Lang Mountain Range, Dao Lord Extreme Fire saved his life.

Earlier on, Dao Lord Extreme Fire did it again.

Su Zimo did not believe that Dao Lord Extreme Fire would attempt assimilation on him.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire's expression was beguiling and his voice suddenly turned sinister as he said creepily, "Although the difference in cultivation realm between us is way too great, your physique and bloodline is almost perfect and unmatched in history!"

"It's an absolute gain for me if I assimilate you! As long as I cultivate further, I'll be able to recover to my initial self and my combat strength will be superior in fact!"

Su Zimo let out a chuckle and shook his head still.

When Dao Lord Extreme Fire saw how firm Su Zimo was, he no longer scared the latter and returned to his normal expression. "I'm relieved that you are able to trust me. However, I've still got to remind you,"

"At this point of your cultivation, your physique is frightening and unparalleled. There isn't any cultivator in the world that wouldn't be tempted, me included!"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire was speaking from the bottom of his heart completely by saying that.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire continued, "The cultivation world is extremely ruthless and only the fittest shall survive. Although I'm not going to assimilate you, it doesn't mean that other cultivators won't as well,"

“Although I saved you, there’s a chance that I might have other motives as well. You must be careful in the future and not trust others easily.”

Su Zimo nodded.

In truth, the reason why he was so firm was not only because Dao Lord Extreme Fire had once saved him.

More than that, it was because of his spirit perception!

After cultivating the Mystic Classic of the Twelve Demon Kings of the Great Wilderness, he was forced to survive in Cang Lang Mountain Range through countless bloodied battles. He walked past the gates of hell countless times on the brink of death and cultivated a unique sense that was unfathomable!

That was Su Zimo’s greatest backing.

He could not sense Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s killing intent at all through his spirit perception.

Chapter 874: Phenomenon Reappearance

“At the end of the day, assimilation is not righteous and I’m filled with nothing but disdain for it,”

Although Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s tone was calm, there was an indescribable pride within.

If it was any ordinary cultivator, they would most likely resort to any means possible if they lost their physical bodies. Be it assimilation or any other method, nothing mattered as long as they could obtain a physical body!

However, Dao Lord Extreme Fire was different.

Although he lost his physical body, he did not lose the pride in his heart.

Su Zimo said, “If you give up on the method of assimilation, there is only one other way. However, I don’t know where we could possibly find a Dharma Characteristic physical body,”

His heart skipped a beat as he continued, “There should be many people with the same circumstances as you, senior. I wonder if there are any cultivators selling the physical bodies of Dharma Characteristics.”

He had not cultivated to the Dharma Characteristic realm and was not at that level yet.

However, in his opinion, there was a high chance that there would be people selling such things since there were demands!

Furthermore, it was a lucrative trade that was not to be underestimated!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire nodded. “You are smart, there is indeed the trade of selling physical bodies within the cultivation world. Originally, Tomb Sect was the only one doing it. Later on, Corpse Refinement Cult joined in as well.”

“Tomb Sect?”

Su Zimo murmured, "I've got a friend in Tomb Sect. If I meet him again, I can ask about it for you, senior. However, his cultivation realm is similar to mine so he might not be able to get a physical body at the Dharma Characteristic realm."

"There's no need,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire shook his head. "Although I look down on assimilation, I don't wish to occupy a foreign body either. That way, even if I recover back to before, I won't be the same Dao Lord Extreme Fire anymore!"

Su Zimo nodded.

Even if the Essence Spirit was the same, there would still be a difference eventually.

"Furthermore, both methods have similar pros and cons,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire continued, "Be it assimilation or a traded Dharma Characteristic physical body, the origin of their flesh and bloodlines are both different from the Essence Spirit. As such, it will be difficult for anyone to return to their previous peak state."

Su Zimo roughly understood.

No matter what, the loss of one's physical body was an irreversible loss.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said in a deep voice, "Actually, there's a third method apart from those two! Gather universal materials to reconstruct the skeleton and recast the flesh!"

Reconstruct the skeleton and recast the flesh!

Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat at the mention of those words.

What sort of capabilities were those?

Dao Lord Extreme Fire explained, "Actually, this is an ancient weapon refinement technique. Using the bones as the foundation and the organs as supplements, the bloodline is nourished and finally, the flesh is recast!"

"Although the method sounds simple, the process is extremely complicated. The bones are reconstructed using universal materials and the better the quality of the bones, the stronger the bloodline that is born!"

"The stronger the organs are, the more terrifying the strength of the physical would be!"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire explained with clear details.

To begin with, Su Zimo had a deep understanding towards weapon refinement and he was immersed in the explanation.

Unknowingly, two hours passed and daybreak gradually approached.

Theoretically, this ancient technique of reconstructing a body was definitely a secret skill that was only passed down within Hundred Refinement Sect.

However, for some unknown reason, Su Zimo had a feeling that Dao Lord Extreme Fire was imparting him the ancient technique intentionally. Furthermore, the latter was extremely detailed in his explanation, as though he was worried that Su Zimo might not understand.

At that moment, Su Zimo was puzzled.

Not long after, he finally understood the true intention of Dao Lord Extreme Fire.

In order to reconstruct a body in the most ideal way, universal materials were the most important criteria!

The better the quality of the materials used for reconstructing the skeleton, the more superior the body created.

According to the words of Dao Lord Extreme Fire, if the spirit materials used for reconstruction of bones were connate treasures, there was a high chance that a set of connate bones could be created!

Connate bones were comparable to connate Dharmic weapons!

The bloodline and physical body created from the connate bones would create a connate Dao body!

Of course, that was an ideal situation and was not realistic.

Nobody in history had succeeded doing so either.

“What are your plans after this?”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire asked after explaining the method of reconstructing the bones and physical body.

“I’ve got to return and take a look at the situation of my sworn siblings,”

Su Zimo said deeply, “If they are fine, I’ll let them know that I’ll be leaving Thousand Demon Valley first to escort you back to Hundred Refinement Sect!”

He had already been in the Thousand Demon Valley for a hundred years.

He did not know how the cultivation world had changed after a hundred years.

Of course, more than that, Su Zimo was concerned about his old friends back in the cultivation world as well as Xiaoning and Night Spirit.

It was time to head back.

He continued, “Senior, don’t worry. I’ll definitely try my best to help you search for the nine crucial materials used for reconstructing a body and bones.”

To begin with, Dao Lord Extreme Fire specialized in fire techniques.

Therefore, the universal treasures he required to reconstruct a body were the nine materials of Tianhuang Mainland that possessed the strong fire attributes!

Of course, these materials were extremely rare to come across.

It was even more difficult if anyone wanted to gather the nine of them.

By now, Su Zimo had already consumed the flesh on the lamb's leg and there was only a bone left.

His injuries had mostly recovered.

"It's inconvenient for me to expose my Essence Spirit outside, it's better for me to remain hidden in the Mingwang Prayer Beads for now,"

With that said, Dao Lord Extreme Fire's Essence Spirit transformed into a streak of scarlet light and vanished into Su Zimo's left wrist.

Su Zimo tidied his attire and headed out of the cave.

More than two hours had passed and the high-level fiend demons that wanted to hunt him should have already left.

"I wonder how's the fight around the Blood Sea,"

Su Zimo murmured. He scanned his surroundings, determined his direction and decided to return to the vicinity of the Blood Sea to check things out.

Right then, Su Zimo's expression changed!

His heart raced without warning and the entire world seemed to have turned silent, as though something big was about to happen!

There was a murderous aura within the forest!

Su Zimo felt his chest turn stuffy and could not breathe properly.

Danger seemed to be lurking everywhere!

The most frightening thing was that his spirit perception seemed to be useless!

Even his spirit perception was engulfed completely by the murderous aura in the forest!

This sort of situation was extremely rare.

Right then, Su Zimo sensed something and spun around, glaring into the distance.

"Ah!"

His heart skipped a beat and he exclaimed.

In the horizon not far away, above the firmaments, ancient stars appeared one after another. They moved and spun in a chaotic trajectory!

Stars in daylight!

This universal phenomenon had reappeared once again!

However, this time round, it was extremely close to Su Zimo!

The stars in the firmaments shuffled chaotically and could not help but brush past one another, creating earthshaking sounds!

Lightning flashed and thunder boomed!

Countless debris fell from the collision of the ancient stars. Engulfed in flames, these meteors descended upon Tianhuang Mainland like a firestorm!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The ground quaked and the mountains shook, as though the heavens wanted to devastate this part of the world!

What happened was way too shocking.

Furthermore, everything happened right in front of Su Zimo!

The stars seemed to be hovering above his head with a terrifying might as they shifted, collided and brushed past one another!

The murderous aura filled the world. Instantly, it seemed as though all living beings in the Thousand Demon Valley kept silent out of fear!

Under normal circumstances, the stars above the firmaments naturally had their individual trajectories.

However, they would not brush past one another, let alone collide.

Yet, at that moment, the stars in the skies were in complete chaos, as though they were being controlled by an invisible power. When the firmaments were filled with trouble, devastation would descend upon all living beings!

“Could it be...”

Right then, the voice of Dao Lord Extreme Fire sounded.

A fiery scarlet streak of light floated out of the Mingwang Prayer Beads and Dao Lord Extreme Fire appeared once again. He looked up into the skies with a shocked expression and disbelief in his eyes.

Chapter 875: Three Great Sword Arts

Stars in daylight... this universal phenomenon had already appeared once before the Thousand Demon Meet and even the old ape did not know why.

From Dao Lord Extreme Fire's current expression, it was clear that he knew something!

Su Zimo could not help but ask, “Senior, what's the meaning behind this universal phenomenon?”

“Make a move first. I'll explain to you along the way,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire's Essence Spirit transformed into a scarlet streak of light and reentered the Mingwang Prayer Beads.

Su Zimo could tell that Dao Lord Extreme Fire's voice seemed to be quivering slightly.

He knew that this universal phenomenon was definitely far from simple!

Su Zimo raised his head and looked at the position beneath the firmaments.

It was extremely close to the Thousand Year Blood Sea; they might even come across monkey and the others if they rushed over now.

Su Zimo no longer hesitated and sped towards the direction in a flash.

A moment later, Dao Lord Extreme Fire's voice sounded; he seemed to have composed himself. "If I'm not wrong, a universal phenomenon as such means that an ancient sword art is about to be born!"

"Ancient sword art?"

Su Zimo muttered softly.

What sort of an ancient sword art would create such a great commotion and even trigger a universal phenomenon just with its appearance?

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said in a deep voice, "In the ancient era, there were three great sword arts that possessed the strongest killing powers. Each time one manual was born, there would be an accompanying universal phenomenon!"

"The three great ancient sword arts are the Heaven Slaying Sword Art, Earth Slaying Sword Art and Human Slaying Sword Art."

Su Zimo exclaimed softly and asked in a probing manner, "The three sword arts sound like they are connected?"

"You're not wrong,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire explained, "Legend has it that the three great sword arts were originally one back in the primordial era. They possessed frightening killing power and was the number one killing technique of the primordial era! In fact, it could slay immortals and fiendcelestials alike!"

"It's precisely because of the immense killing power of the sword classic that it was struck by karma and divine retribution. It was divided into three and was later on known in the ancient era as the three great sword arts!"

Su Zimo was alarmed.

Although the sword classic was divided into three, it could still become the three great ancient sword arts and bring about universal phenomenons – it was hard to imagine the original power of the sword classic!

"These are all enigmas of the primordial era that I had no access of originally,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire continued, "However, I entered a primordial ruin by accident 5,000 years ago. In there, I read about the records and legends of this matter."

Suddenly, Su Zimo was enlightened.

Back when he first met Dao Lord Extreme Fire in the cold lake in Cang Lang Mountain Range, the latter recounted to Su Zimo the tale of how he entered a ruin and was hurt and poisoned by the living beings inside such that he almost died from it!

So, the ruin was a primordial ruin!

In that case, since Night Spirit was brought out by Dao Lord Extreme Fire from that primordial ruin, there was a high chance that Night Spirit was a lifeform from the primordial era as well!

It was no wonder why Su Zimo could not find any records related to Night Spirit even after searching through all the ancient books in Ethereal Peak.

Most lifeforms from the primordial era have already gone extinct and there were no traces of them left.

Even many super sects in the cultivation world might not have any records of them and these lifeforms were merely described with brief sentences, let alone Ethereal Peak.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire seemed slightly emotional once again at the mention of the primordial ruin.

It was as though he still had a feeling of trepidation when he recalled his past experience!

Su Zimo steered the topic away and asked, "The Heaven, Earth and Human Slaying Sword Arts. From their names, it seems like the Human Slaying Sword Art is the weakest."

"You're mistaken."

Dao Lord Extreme Fire shook his head. "Among the three great sword arts, the Human Slaying Sword Art has the strongest killing power! It is said that the might of the Heaven Slaying Sword Art is comparable to divine powers!"

Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat.

The divine powers Dao Lord Extreme Fire were referring to were not the innate divine powers that were comprehended by fiend demons upon advancement to high-level fiend demons.

They were the divine powers that were comprehended by human cultivators after cultivating to the Mahayana realm to become Patriarchs!

The Human Slaying Sword Art possessed the might of the Mahayana realm!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said softly, "In the primordial ruin, there are three sentences describing the three sword arts. When the heaven's killing intent is released, the stars are shifted out of alignment; when the earth's killing intent is released, the dragon snake shall rise; when the human's killing intent is released, Heaven and Earth shall topple!"

Su Zimo gazed at the chaotic star alignments in the firmament and was suddenly enlightened, remarking softly, "The Heaven Slaying Sword Art is the one being born this time round!"

"That's right!"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire replied, "You must definitely get your hands on this sword art! If you're able to comprehend it, your combat strength will definitely explode!"

Su Zimo frowned slightly. "However, the commotion here is so great and the Overlords held the Thousand Demon Meet in the vicinity. It's probably too late for me to get there,"

“Furthermore, if I want to steal the Heaven Slaying Sword Art away from the watch of so many Overlords and countless fiend demons... that’s probably going to be extremely difficult.”

Su Zimo was clear that with his current strength, it was unrealistic to think that he could fight against the Overlords and so many fiend demons to get his hands on the Heaven Slaying Sword Art.

It was true that he had Dao Lord Extreme Fire assisting him now.

However, Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s combat strength was limited with the loss of his physical body. It was impossible for him to fight against the Overlords with just his Essence Spirit!

“No worries,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, “Don’t forget, the fiend demons of Thousand Demon Valley probably do not know the reason behind the stars in daylight yet. That is your true chance!”

Su Zimo’s heart skipped a beat and he nodded to himself.

During this short while, he had already rushed to the area beneath the firmament. Before him, a strong blood stench reeked.

Many living beings must have fallen there!

After sprinting for a while more, it could be seen in the distant skies ahead that there were several hundred fiend demons with gigantic bodies killing one another in midair!

“GRAWR!”

“Roar!”

The roars of the fiend demons rocked the entire world!

Even the void in the battlefield in midair was beginning to contort.

That was a massive battle between high-level fiend demons!

Among them, there were six figures that were particularly striking. Their auras were powerful and swept through the nine heavens; every single move they made caused the voids to vibrate!

There was an old ape that towered at over a hundred feet tall.

His fur was grayish-white and he looked like he was old and in his twilight years. However, his gaze burned and he overwhelmed everyone with a blinding golden rod in his hands!

Beside him, there was a bull engulfed in golden flames. He wielded a black three-pronged halberd and barged through the demons with an unstoppable edge!

The two Overlords fought together and their combat strength was torrential – it was clear that they had suppressed the Overlords of Silvermoon Valley, Thousand Snake Island, Confusion Mist Swamp and Vermilion Cloud Valley.

Su Zimo shifted his gaze down and heaved in a breath.

Beneath the six Overlords, the ground cracked and gigantic fissures appeared in a frightening manner, emitting a sinister black wind!

The ground was slowly protruding upwards!

It was as though there was a massive, unknown object that was trying to crawl out from underground!

Crack! Crack! Crack!

As time passed by, the protrusion on the ground enlarged and the number of fissures increased as well!

Countless fiend demons stood outside the perimeter and did not dare to advance.

An unknown period of time passed.

All of a sudden!

The world seemed to have gone silent.

The next moment, the ground exploded and mud overturned. Like the explosion of a volcano, rays of resplendent light shot forth in a powerful manner.

Instantly, divine lights filled the world and spread through the surroundings.

Chapter 876: Thousand Demon Tomb

Pshew! Pshew! Pshew!

The divine lights shot through the air and resplendent light shone everywhere.

Although Su Zimo stood in the distance, his eyesight was extremely powerful. When he focused his gaze, he could not help but froze on the spot.

The rays of resplendent light consisted of many Dharmic weapons – there were long needles, bone sabers, flying swords, bronze tripods and many other varieties!

“Pfft!”

A fiend demon that was caught unprepared was pierced through the body by a ray of light. Instantly, a hole appeared with blood gushing out as he shrieked.

Another fiend demon circulated his Dharmic art and demonic qi rumbled as he suppressed a ray of light. When he focused his gaze, his eyes lit up.

The ray of light was a flying sword!

It was a Dao Being Dharmic weapon!

Furthermore, there were five Dharmic patterns on it!

It was a perfect-grade Dao Being Dharmic weapon!

Even in the human cultivation world, a Dharmic weapon of this quality was extremely rare to obtain, let alone in the world of demons.

“Hahahaha!”

The demon gripped the flying sword and reared his head in abundant laughter.

Poof!

His laughter came to a stop.

The fiend demon’s head was pierced by a poisoned needle and his face turned green in the blink of an eye. His Essence Spirit was poisoned and died on the spot before it could escape from the physical body.

A woman from Thousand Snake Island picked up the perfect-grade Dao Being Dharmic weapon and fled swiftly.

The other fiend demons that caught sight of this soared into the air and used various methods to capture the divine streaks of light in the air.

“Mine is also a perfect Dharmic weapon!”

“Ah! It’s a supreme-grade Dharmic weapon!”

“You must have a death wish! How dare you take my Dharmic weapon!”

The exclamations of demons echoed as massacres broke out everywhere.

Some of the fiend demons were encircled by other fiend demons the moment they obtained a Dharmic weapon and the Dharmic weapons were taken away right away as well.

“Chi!”

A streak of light tore through the air towards Su Zimo’s direction and arrived instantly.

“Hmm?”

Su Zimo’s expression changed as he reached out to grab the streak of divine light.

It was not a Dharmic weapon, but a scarlet rock that gave off an incomparably scorching aura; it was slightly scalding to the touch.

Furthermore, Su Zimo gripped it with his right hand and the Divine Phoenix Bone within was reacting slightly.

“What’s that?”

He scanned it up and down but could not see anything from it.

“Hold on!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s voice sounded. “That’s a Scarlet Phoenix Blood Ore! It’s a rare material with utmost Yang and flame attributes in the cultivation world! Hurry and keep it!”

If Dao Lord Extreme Fire wanted to reconstruct a set of skeleton that was suitable for his Dao and Dharmic powers, he would require nine rare materials with utmost Yang and fire attributes!

The Scarlet Phoenix Blood Ore was one of them!

Legend has it that the Scarlet Phoenix Blood Ore is a rock that has been soaked in the blood of a phoenix. Eventually formed after dozens of thousands of years, it was easy to see how rare this material was.

Even money might not be able to purchase such a rare material in the marketplace of the cultivation world!

Su Zimo had not expected to come across a piece of it in the Thousand Demon Valley.

Previously, he absorbed quite a bit of dragon vein back in the Astral Dragon Sputum Lair in the ancient battlefield. Unknowingly, the fortune augmentation on him must have had some effect as well.

“Hand over that treasure!”

Right then, the sound of clothes fluttering through the air echoed.

Seven fiend demons were charging over – they followed the divine light released by the Scarlet Phoenix Blood Ore!

Su Zimo swept his gaze and could not help but sneer when he sensed that the seven of them were mid-level fiend demons.

He flipped his palm and put away the Scarlet Phoenix Blood Ore immediately.

“You must have a death wish! What was that treasure you hid away?!”

A fiend demon approached with killing intent on his face as he pointed at Su Zimo and shouted.

The other few fiend demons encircled Su Zimo rapidly with hostile expressions as well.

“Eh?”

Before long, the expression on one of their faces changed. He pointed at Su Zimo with widened eyes of disbelief and asked in a quivering voice, “Y-You’re Mo aren’t you? You’re not dead?”

All the demons witnessed Su Zimo fleeing with Blood Escape previously with the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak hot on his tails.

To all of them, Su Zimo was definitely doomed since he was targeted by an Overlord!

However, to think that Su Zimo managed to return alive!

At the mention of ‘Mo’, the remaining few fiend demons also jumped in shock and retreated hurriedly.

Only a fiend demon from Levitating Goat Peak that stood at the front remained motionless. Instead, he looked at the remaining fiend demons with mocking expressions and declared loudly, “Why are all of you so scared because of a low-level fiend demon? How shameful!”

“Brother Yang, you arrived late and did not witness this demon’s capabilities...”

A fiend demon tried to explain hurriedly.

Unexpectedly, the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak interrupted with a stifled chuckle. “How capable can a low-level fiend demon be? If he doesn’t hand that treasure over to me today, I’m going to...”

“What are you going to do?”

A voice, calm and cold, sounded in the ears of the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak.

Psst!

The fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak gasped.

Unknowingly, Su Zimo had already appeared before him!

It was too fast!

Without hesitation, the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak wanted to condense an Essence Spirit secret skill. Unexpectedly, Su Zimo roared, “Get lost!”

His voice was like thunder!

The figure of the fiend demon of Levitating Goat Peak shuddered and he froze before he could complete his Essence Spirit secret skill.

In that brief period of time, Su Zimo had already advanced with the momentum and slapped the demon on the head!

Piak!

The demon’s head cracked open and the Essence Spirit within ruptured into pieces right away!

Su Zimo did not stop and had already sped forward.

By the time the few fiend demons snapped out of their stupor, all they were left with was a fleeing back view.

“Why are there so many Dharmic weapons flying out all of a sudden? What exactly is hidden underground?”

Su Zimo muttered softly.

This time round, even Dao Lord Extreme Fire did not reply, as though he was seemingly perplexed over what was going on as well.

Boom!

Right then, another explosion sounded from the ground.

The ground shook and the mountains trembled!

The already protruding ground exploded completely with a dark rumbling aura, revealing a large burial ground underneath!

Countless corpses that seemed to be from a long time ago were amassed within; the flesh on the corpses had already rotted.

Even their storage bags were destroyed.

Countless Dharmic weapons were scattered between the corpses.

Most of them were dim without light and only a few glowed faintly.

It was a huge tomb underground!

From the massive skeletons in the tomb, it could be deduced that almost all of the dead corpses originated from demons.

Something must have happened here in the past that caused so many demons to be buried in this huge tomb with corpses strewn everywhere. The ground in the surrounding was already dyed red and it was horrific!

The many high-level fiend demons and Overlords who were originally fighting in midair paused as well.

They gazed down at the tomb with solemn expressions; their gazes flickered with bewilderment.

Suddenly, the old ape reached out and grabbed hold of a blood-colored rock at the edge of the tomb. It was grisly red and reeked of blood!

“That’s the... Thousand Demon Blood Crystal!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s voice sounded in Su Zimo’s mind with a hint of shock.

“There must be at least several dozen thousand demons buried in this tomb for a Thousand Demon Blood Crystal to be formed! Only that amount of blood is enough to create a Thousand Demon Blood Crystal!”

Su Zimo’s heart skipped a beat.

This place was actually a pit buried with dozens of thousands of demons in the past and a torrential dark aura that was almost corporeal. Only after all this time did it finally see the day of light!

The stars above the firmaments became even more chaotic!

Countless stars flickered between light and darkness as though they were about to descend!

A murderous aura spread through the demon tomb.

Chapter 877: Birth of the Sword Art

The ground split open and a Thousand Demon Tomb was exposed. Apart from countless bones within, there were also many treasures!

Greed filled the eyes of many fiend demons.

Finally, somebody could not hold back any longer and charged forward right away.

Thereafter, all the demons swarmed forward towards the Thousand Demon Tomb!

Demonic qi rumbled.

Many demonic arts and weapons clashed in midair and chaos ensued!

Up in the skies, the six Overlords frowned.

All of them felt uneasy about something but could not pinpoint the reason why.

“Something is wrong.”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s voice sounded in Su Zimo’s mind. “The murderous aura of the Thousand Demon Tomb is way too intense. Many of those fiend demons swarming over are going to die!”

Su Zimo’s gaze was sharp as lightning and he scanned the place with a tense expression, as though he was searching for something.

A moment later, Su Zimo’s eyes lit up and he vanished from the spot in a flash.

Among the demons.

Monkey, the spirit tiger, Qing Qing, Little Fox and Solitary Cloud formed a five-men formation and followed the demons to charge into the Thousand Demon Tomb. The Rat King stumbled and followed behind them.

The spirit tiger asked softly as he sprinted, “Brother Monkey, will that old ape keep your rod for himself after using it?”

“No,”

Monkey shook his head. “Given his strength, he could have killed us a long time ago if he truly wanted to snatch it for himself. Why would he wait till now?”

“Don’t get worried for nothing,”

Qing Qing pursed her lips. “The Overlord has already asked Second to get closer with his granddaughter, why will he want to hurt Second?”

“True,”

The spirit tiger nodded.

Little Fox was worried and asked softly, “What about young master? Why is there no news of him after such a long time?”

“In a way, no news is good news,”

Solitary Cloud said in a deep voice, “At least, this means that the Overlord of Levitating Goat Peak has yet to succeed!”

During this period of time, monkey and the others had already arrived at the edge of the Thousand Demon Tomb. Right as they were about to leap in, a figure dashed before them!

“Who’s there?!”

Monkey and the others were alarmed and attacked before they could think twice.

Monkey’s flesh expanded and he hurled a punch forward; it slammed down instantly like a gigantic blood-red seal!

The spirit tiger reached out with his claws.

Clang! Clang!

Above the claws, four grisly white sharp fangs protruded and flashed coldly as he thrust at the figure at the front.

Qing Qing's azure green feather fan flapped and a ball of green flames were produced.

Solitary Cloud's cultivation surpassed monkey and the other two and his eyes lit up – he had already recognized who the intruder was.

Although Little Fox did not see the person's appearance clearly, she frowned and sniffed. When she caught scent of a familiar aura, she did not attack as well.

In the blink of an eye, monkey, the spirit tiger and Qing Qing's attacks descended!

The intruder released a punch and collided against monkey's gigantic seal.

He flicked out fingernails that were sharp as daggers with his other hand and a chain of sparks were produced as they clashed against the incoming tiger claws!

Monkey and the spirit tiger shuddered and retreated a half-step backwards.

In midair, the ball of green flames had already arrived. The intruder opened his mouth and blew forward, extinguishing the ball of flames!

"It's me!"

The intruder shouted softly, "Don't head over!"

The figure was none other than Su Zimo.

The place was extremely chaotic with demonic qi surging everywhere. Any spirit consciousness that was released would be dispersed immediately and it was impossible to make use of voice transmissions.

As such, Su Zimo could only make a move personally to hold back monkey and the others.

"First!"

"Young Master!"

"Master!"

Monkey and the others exclaimed with delighted expressions.

Su Zimo took a step forward and said, "This tomb is extremely dangerous, don't join them. Follow me first!"

With that, he led the way and retreated with monkey and the others.

Although there were some fiend demons among the demons that recognized Su Zimo, all of them were filled with greed with treasures right before them and none of them could be bothered with Su Zimo.

Outside the perimeter, Su Zimo said in a deep voice, "Something big is definitely going to happen soon. If you see me make a move, don't be worried. Take good care of yourselves and return to Howling Moon Mountain as soon as possible. When the time is right, I'll naturally return to look for you guys."

Monkey and the others saw Su Zimo's stern expression and felt their hearts skip a beat as they nodded in agreement.

Right then, a commotion sounded from within the Thousand Demon Tomb!

It was as though something was being ripped and sliced apart forcefully!

Tsk! Tsk! Tsk!

One after another, blinding white light shot out from beneath the Thousand Demon Tomb. They were incomparably sharp and ripped the tomb apart.

Many fiend demons that were fighting for the treasures in the tomb could not manage to react in time and were shredded into two by the streaks of white light. Splintered limbs flew everywhere and fresh blood spewed!

The white lights that burst out from beneath the tomb increased in quantity!

The Thousand Demon Tomb was already lined with dense cracks and warm corpses mounted on top of it with so much blood that could form a river!

In that single instant, more than 10,000 fiend demons were killed.

Their Essence Spirits could not even escape in time!

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said sternly, "When the heaven's killing intent is released, the stars are shifted out of alignment. The killing intent of this sword art is so strong that even stars can be shifted out of alignment. Those fiend demons that entered are merely sending themselves to death!"

"The Heaven Slaying Sword Art is about to be born and it's using the blood of the fiend demons as a tribute!"

The six Overlords in midair shouted at the same time, "All of you, hurry and retreat!"

Although they did not know what was going on beneath the tomb, the white lights released sent their hearts racing!

Was that sword qi?

What sword qi would be this powerful that even the six of them felt like they were going to be sliced apart!

Tsk! Tsk! Tsk!

The moment the six Overlords finished their sentence, an even denser sword qi burst forth from beneath the tomb. It was searing and burst into the clouds with a blazing white shade!

Few of the fiend demons that charged into the tomb were spared.

Monkey and the others stood from afar and felt a sense of trepidation as they watched the scene unfold.

If Su Zimo had not stopped them in time, the few of them would have become part of the corpses of Thousand Demon Valley!

Boom!

Suddenly, the Thousand Demon Tomb exploded!

A gigantic ball of light rose slowly from underground with a blinding brilliance. It was like a blazing sun and was surrounded by boundless sword qi!

The six Overlords were startled and burst in retreat!

The sword qi on that ball of light was way too terrifying. If they reacted slower and were drawn inside, they would have been killed with their Essence Spirits destroyed as well!

“What’s that?”

“What sort of a treasure is it to possess such a might that could trigger a universal phenomenon?!”

The gazes of the six Overlords flickered and they looked bewildered.

The ball of light was way too humongous.

Their bodies that were several hundred feet tall were as insignificant as dust when compared to the ball of light!

They could not see what was within the ball of light with their vision.

The moment their spirit consciousness descended upon the ball of light, it was sliced into particles by boundless sword qi!

“A withered and yellowed ancient manual,”

Suddenly, Su Zimo said softly as he gazed into the ball of light.

“Hmm?”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s heart skipped a beat and he asked hurriedly, “You’re able to see what’s within?”

The ball of light should have been created by the Heaven Slaying Sword Art. However, even with his cultivation, he could not peer through the veil of the body of light!

He could not see what was within at all!

“I can vaguely see something,”

Su Zimo nodded.

His right eye looked extremely sinister and was mostly white. It glowed in a blinding manner and everything was repressed within!

Unknowingly, he was already circulating Illumination Dragon Eye!

“This doesn’t make any sense,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire frowned. "Given your cultivation realm, you shouldn't be able to see through the ball of light even if you had cultivated Illumination Dragon Eye."

He paused for a moment and an idea struck his mind as he blurted, "I got it! It's the Illumination Stone!"

Chapter 878: Three Great Dao Lords

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, "If you can see through the veil of the ball of light, it means we've got the advantage!"

"Should we make a move now?"

Su Zimo asked.

"Wait a while more,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire was extremely calm and said in a deep voice, "There are other people around here!"

"Other people?"

Su Zimo furrowed his brows slightly.

He could clearly tell that Dao Lord Extreme Fire was not referring to fiend demons, but humans!

Right then, the old ape's two long brows fluttered without wind. He spun around violently and glared into the voids not far away with a gaze as sharp as a saber, hollering, "Who is hiding over there? Get out!"

"Fufu."

Mocking and teasing laughter filled the air and a relaxed voice sounded, "You are all nothing but a bunch of beasts. What can you guys do to me if I come out?"

Immediately after, a fluctuation appeared in midair.

A man dressed in luxurious robes rode over on the wind in a suave manner. He had elegant features and was dignified and handsome. Wielding a folding fan in his hands, there was an indescribable charm and grace to him.

"How dare you? Who are you calling beasts?!"

"Huh? Your aura..."

"A human cultivator!"

"This is a human cultivator!"

Many high-level fiend demons looked over and discovered before long that there was no hint of demonic qi on this person. Instead, there was the aura of a human cultivator!

The Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp said coldly, "You're nothing more than a Dharma Characteristic of the human race. You must have a death wish for coming here alone!"

The combat strength of a Dharma Characteristic was comparable to high-level fiend demons.

However, despite the menacing gazes of so many fiend demons, there was no hint of panic in the eyes of this man. Instead, he looked composed and curled his lips gently with a bewitching smile.

Su Zimo noticed the emblem on this man's robes a long time ago and knew that he was from one of the seven fiend sects – Cloud Rain Sect.

“To think that it's him!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire's voice sounded.

Su Zimo asked, “Senior, you know who he is?”

“His Dao title is Cloud Rain and he's the titular disciple of Cloud Rain Sect!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire seemed to dislike this person a lot and sneered, “Heh, to think that even after 5,000 years have passed, this sniveling thief is still at the same cultivation realm and has not grown at all!”

Despite Dao Lord Extreme Fire's remark, Su Zimo did not dare to underestimate this man.

The deeper one's cultivation was, the harder it would be for them to progress in the later stages.

At the Dharma Characteristic realm, one's lifespan extends to 10,000 years. It was only normal for somebody's cultivation realm to remain stagnant after cultivating for hundreds or even thousands of years.

Furthermore, the fact that this person, Dao Lord Cloud Rain, could remain as the titular disciple for 5,000 years meant that he was not someone easy to deal with!

“Let me correct two things,”

Dao Lord Cloud Rain looked at the Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp and smiled idly before saying in a slow and unhurried manner, “First, I'm not alone. Second, you can't kill me either!”

The moment he said that, a snowstorm appeared in the voids and the temperature dipped instantly!

Thereafter, countless snowflakes condensed in midair and formed a bridge of ice that extended to the distant horizons.

In the blink of an eye, she arrived!

It was another Dharma Characteristic of the human race!

“It's a cultivator from Snowdrift Valley,”

Su Zimo said deeply.

Dao Lord Extreme Fire nodded. “I don't recognize this woman so she should be my junior. However, since she's qualified to stand shoulder to shoulder with Dao Lord Cloud Rain, she should not be weak.”

“Someone else with a death wish!”

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain roared in laughter.

The Overlord of Thousand Snake Island laughed in amusement as she said in a flirting manner, “My, this is quite the beauty. Can you guys bear to kill her?”

Due to the cultivation techniques they cultivated, the female cultivators of Snowdrift Valley exuded coldness that made them seem like ice mountains that isolated themselves from everyone else.

However, this woman’s features were truly pure, peerless and ravishing.

“All of you had better give way!”

The female cultivator of Snowdrift Valley said coldly.

“Hehehe!”

The Overlord of Thousand Demon Valley could not help but laugh. “Ice beauty, this is the Thousand Demon Valley, not your sect! You’re at the wrong place if you want to throw a tantrum!”

The female cultivator of Snowdrift Valley did not speak anymore but her expression turned colder.

Su Zimo frowned and murmured softly, “What are they doing here? Could it be...”

“They should be here for the Heaven Slaying Sword Art,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire nodded. “I’m guessing that someone among them managed to tell that a sword art was about to be born judging from the universal phenomenon in Thousand Demon Valley!”

Originally, it was already extremely difficult for Su Zimo to snatch the sword art from the watch of many high-level fiend demons and six Overlords.

Now that two more Dharma Characteristics had appeared, it was even more difficult for Su Zimo to get his hands on the sword art!

The old ape asked deeply, “Why are the two of you here now?”

“Naturally, we’re here to retrieve something that belongs to the human race,”

Dao Lord Cloud Rain whipped out his folding fan and pointed to the ball of light that hovered in midair not far away.

“Hahahaha!”

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley roared in laughter as though he had just heard the greatest joke in the world. “This is a treasure that was born in the Thousand Demon Valley, who was the one who said that this belongs to the human race?”

“I did.”

Another voice sounded.

Pshew!

A streak of light shimmered from the distant horizons and the sound of sharp swords tearing through the air echoed, arriving instantly.

A white-robed cultivator stood in midair with a long sword behind his back. His long hair fluttered and he had a prideful expression. His gaze was sharp as a sword and he exuded an indescribable razor-edged aura!

It was a Dharma Characteristic from Sword Sect!

“This man isn’t simple either,”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire’s voice sounded.

Su Zimo nodded.

The fact that the three of them dared to venture deep into the Thousand Demon Valley was proof that their courage and boldness was unmatched by ordinary men!

The Dao Lord of Sword Sect pointed to the ball of light in midair and said indifferently, “That item belongs to us humans and now, I want to take it away. Which of you wants to stand in my way?”

His statement was extremely unreasonable and arrogant, as though he looked down on all the demons in the Thousand Demon Valley completely.

“I do, what about it!”

A high-level fiend demon of Silvermoon Valley stood out and his gigantic wolf body streaked through the void. He glared keenly at the Dao Lord of Sword Sect with olive-green eyes that were filled with sharp killing intent.

“Whoever stands in my way shall die!”

The Dao Lord of Sword Sect spoke slowly.

Before he completed his sentence, he withdrew his sword.

Thereafter, a frightening sword light surfaced and tore through the layers of void, descending upon the head of the fiend demon from Silvermoon Valley instantly!

Everywhere the sword qi passed by, the life force in the air seemed to be reaped!

“Lifeless Sword Art!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire exclaimed softly.

“Pfft!”

Before that fiend demon of Silvermoon Valley could make any move, his glabella was penetrated by the sword light and his life force was drained rapidly. In the blink of an eye, his entire body withered!

A high-level fiend demon was killed instantly by a sword strike!

Su Zimo felt his scalp prickle at the sight of that.

Although he was only watching from afar, he could not muster any form of resistance against that sword strike.

All of his trump cards seemed insignificant in the face of that sword strike!

The power of the Divine Phoenix Bone was probably the only thing in his possession that could defend against that sword strike.

However, Su Zimo knew extremely well that the sword strike could kill him before he could bring out his Divine Phoenix Bone!

“Lifeless Sword Art. A single sword strike that could annihilate all lifeforce. That is truly an incredible sword strike!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said slowly, “Legend has it that the Founder Master of Sword Sect once obtained one section of the three great ancient sword arts. The Lifeless Sword Art was derived from that single section of the ancient sword art!”

Chapter 879: Massive Battle

Su Zimo was startled at that statement.

If the Lifeless Sword Art was derived from one of the three great ancient sword arts, how frightening was the power of the three great ancient sword arts?

Su Zimo was filled with boundless hope towards the Heaven Slaying Sword Art.

“Back in the past, the ancient sword art was a huge reason why the Founder Master of Sword Sect was able to reign as the emperor of the Sword Dao and establish the number one Sword Sect in Tianhuang Mainland!”

Dao Lord Extreme Fire said, “However, nobody knows which of the three sword arts the Sword Emperor had in his possession.”

The entire battlefield descended into a momentary silence with the death of a high-level fiend demon and the obliteration of his Essence Spirit through a single sword strike.

Everyone, the six Overlords included, were stunned by that sword strike!

A moment later, the old ape’s white brows fluttered and he locked his gaze onto Dao Lord Cloud Rain, saying indifferently,

“If I’m not wrong, you should be Dao Lord Cloud Rain, the number two of the Dharma Characteristic Ranking 5,000 years ago.”

“You’re pretty knowledgeable,”

Dao Lord Cloud Rain flapped his folding fan gently and smiled with a bewitching charm.

The Dharma Characteristic Ranking!

There were three ranking lists that were renowned in Tianhuang Mainland.

They were the Golden Core Phenomenon, Heaven and Earth Dharma Characteristic and Supreme Divine Powers Rankings. All of them were released by Enigma Palace and encompassed almost all the paragons and monster incarnates in history.

In other words, they were the most authoritative and renowned ranking lists!

Among them, the Golden Core Phenomenon Ranking was refreshed every hundred years.

The Heaven and Earth Dharma Characteristic Ranking was refreshed every thousand years.

As for the Supreme Divine Powers Ranking, only the most terrifying supreme divine powers in history were recorded.

Unless divine powers that could surpass the might of past divine powers were created by the future generation, the Supreme Divine Powers Ranking was almost never refreshed otherwise.

“The Daos of the seven fiend sects are different. For example, Overlord Palace specializes in body tempering while Illusion Fiend Cult specializes in mental state cultivation. As for Cloud Rain Sect... humph!”

Dao Lord Cloud Rain seemed to be in disdain and harrumphed. “All in all, the combat strength of Cloud Rain Sect cultivators are ranked last within the seven fiend sects!”

“Previously, he was indeed capable to suppress many paragons of the immortal, Buddhist and fiend sects and kill his way to the number two position of the Dharma Characteristic Ranking,”

“However, I don’t know if he has grown after all these years.”

In midair, the old ape shifted his gaze towards the man and woman from Snowdrift Valley and Sword Sect respectively and said in a slow manner, “I’m sure the two of you are not nobodies to be able to accompany Dao Lord Cloud Rain here on the same footing.”

“I haven’t exited the valley in recent years. Indeed, I’ve become rather ignorant and can’t tell who the two of you are,”

Naturally, Dao Lord Cloud Rain and the other two could tell that among the six Overlords, the old ape had the most reserved aura and his combat strength was the most unpredictable.

However, the female cultivator of Snowdrift Valley had an aloof nature. Even against human cultivators, she might not bother to reply to them, let alone a bunch of fiend demons.

The man from Sword Sect was even prouder.

His hands were behind his back and unknowingly, his sword had already been returned to his sheath. He looked up into the sky as though he had not heard the old ape’s question at all.

On the other hand, Dao Lord Cloud Rain smiled and said, “This fairy’s Dao title is Snowdrift.”

He paused intentionally at the mention of that.

Everyone realized that this was another titular disciple!

The smile on Dao Lord Cloud Rain's face deepened as he continued, "Fairy Snowdrift was the number one of the Dharma Characteristic Ranking 2,000 years ago!"

The expressions of the six Overlords changed slightly.

As Overlords, they naturally knew of the cultivation world's Dharma Characteristic Ranking.

There were a total of 72 spots on the Dharma Characteristic Ranking. The combat strength of Fairy Snowdrift was obvious to all if she was able to be the number one of the Dharma Characteristic Ranking!

The reputation of the two of them was enough to kill someone!

They were the number one and two of their respective Dharma Characteristic Rankings.

It was equivalent to Su Zimo and Di Yin back in the ancient battlefield.

If the two of them had appeared together, which Golden Core wouldn't be fearful?

Dao Lord Cloud Rain pointed to the man of Sword Sect and quipped with a chuckle, "I'd advise you guys not to provoke this guy. He is the number one of the previous Dharma Characteristic Ranking and the current titular disciple of Sword Sect with the Dao title of Immortal Sword."

"Nobody can survive against his sword; lifelessness ensues from his sword!"

Two number ones and a number two of the Dharma Characteristic Ranking as well as three titular disciples. The reputation of any single one of them could shock the entire world!

Now that these three Dao Lords were gathered in the Thousand Demon Valley, it was obvious what they were after!

"So, you guys are Dao Lords on the Dharma Characteristic Ranking. It's no wonder why you're fearless,"

The Overlord of Silvermoon Valley said coldly, "However, we don't know if you're going to live up to your reputations just yet!"

"I don't care who you guys are, nobody who tries to steal something from Thousand Demon Valley shall be allowed to leave alive!"

The voice of the Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp was metallic and resolute.

Many high-level fiend demons present were stunned by the reputation of the three Dao Lords.

However, what sort of characters were the six Overlords?

All of them reigned over a region with countless demons under their charge; all of them had firm mental states that were almost unshakable.

There was no way the six Overlords would fear opponents that were at similar cultivation realms as them!

Furthermore, the ball of light was clearly extraordinary if three Dao Lords of the human race were willing to venture deep into the Thousand Demon Valley and brave the dangers for it – that fact alone made the six Overlords even more curious about the ball of light and they were bent on getting their hands on it!

The six Overlords exchanged glances.

Although they were fighting earlier on, at this moment, all of them had a tacit understanding and harbored the same thought.

No matter who had their hands on the ball of light eventually, it must not be the three Dao Lords of the human race!

Thousand Demon Valley could not afford to be disgraced as such either!

Suddenly, the world went silent.

Many fiend demons, the six Overlords and the three Dao Lords remained motionless.

To begin with, the birth of the Heaven Slaying Sword Art filled the area with a shuddering murderous aura.

Now that both parties were in a stand-off, the killing intent in the void was even more intense and startling!

“Attack!”

After a brief silence, the six Overlords roared at almost the same time.

“Roar!”

“GRAWR!”

Within the world, countless demons roared and the heavens quaked while the earth rumbled. Mountains shook and dust flew everywhere with gravel mixed in!

The six Overlords reverted to their true forms and struck Dao Lord Cloud Rain’s group at the same time; the other high-level fiend demons moved in to form an encirclement as well.

Instantly, Dharmic powers howled, surged and rumbled!

Countless demonic arts tore through the air and descended with an engulfing, frightening might. They were everywhere and even the weather changed because of them!

Even mid-level fiend demons would be destroyed instantly in the aftershock if they rushed forward, let alone low-level fiend demons.

From all directions, fiend demons retreated constantly and hid as they watched the battle from afar.

Dao Lord Cloud Rain focused his gaze and a demonic glint shone in his eyes; it was as though countless threads were weaving in an increasingly dense manner.

“Seven Emotions Threads!”

Dao Lord Cloud Rain shouted.

In midair, colorful, pretty threads spouted in midair around all the high-level fiend demons Dao Lord Cloud Rain swept his gaze across.

The threads coiled around them endlessly!

They increased in number and coiled even tighter!

Furthermore, all of these threads were connected to Dao Lord Cloud Rain's palms in a dense manner.

"The Seven Emotions Threads. To think that I would see this Dharmic art again after 5,000 years,"

Dao Lord Extreme Fire sounded sad and emotional.

"The Seven Emotions Threads is the ultimate skill of Cloud Rain Sect and there are extremely few cultivators who managed to cultivate it successfully. Dao Lord Cloud Rain is one of them,"

"Be it human cultivators or fiend demons, all of them possess the seven emotions and six desires. The Seven Emotions Threads are meant to trigger the seven types of emotions that all living beings harbor within their bodies,"

"The more emotional one was, the more they would be affected and the greater the damage they would suffer!"

As Dao Lord Extreme Fire described the skill, Su Zimo witnessed blood seeping out from the bodies of the high-level fiend demons bound by the Seven Emotions Threads!

The Seven Emotions Threads cut into their bodies in a frightening manner!

Chapter 880: Overlord Versus Dao Lord

Many high-level fiend demons were in a bloodied state coiled by the Seven Emotions Threads. Before they could release any demonic arts, they were already in unendurable pain as they sank deeper and deeper!

The Seven Emotions Threads were connected to Dao Lord Cloud Rain's palms on the other end.

All of those high-level fiend demons were like puppets of Dao Lord Cloud Rain; they were neither in control of their bodies or their fates!

Su Zimo was secretly stunned when he heard the background of the Seven Emotions Threads.

As his cultivation deepened, the level of things he interacted with increased and the Dharmic arts and secret skills that he encountered were more powerful as well.

In fact, there were Dharmic arts that were unfathomable and impossible to defend against!

The Seven Emotions Threads was one of those.

Be it human cultivators or fiend demons, as long as they were living beings, they would possess the seven emotions of joy, anger, worry, longing, despair, fear and shock.

There would be no life without the seven emotions, such as a rock.

However, even when a rock becomes sentient and turns into a demon, it would possess the seven emotions to a certain extent.

According to the words of Dao Lord Extreme Fire, one would inevitably be controlled by the Seven Emotions Threads as long as they possessed the seven emotions.

Within this massive battle, the more furious, worried or frightful one was, the more Seven Emotions Threads that would be produced within their bodies. As such, they would sink deeper into their emotions until they were dead!

“Pfft!”

There was already a high-level fiend demon that was minced to death after struggling too intensely and producing too many Seven Emotions Threads. He turned into a mist of blood without any corpse left!

Even his Essence Spirit could not manage to escape in time!

It was a truly horrifying Dharmic art!

The most frightening thing was that Dao Lord Cloud Rain was targeting all the fiend demons by releasing the Seven Emotions Threads and nobody was spared!

How bold did he have to be to attempt to suppress everyone singlehandedly?!

The six Overlords were included as well!

Of course, since Dao Lord Cloud Rain targeted all the fiend demons, his strength was definitely divided; there was still a degree of difficulty if he wanted to contain the six Overlords with the Seven Emotions Threads.

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain’s body blazed with raging flames and burned the Seven Emotions Threads continuously.

Although the Seven Emotions Threads appeared constantly, they could not bind his body!

The Overlord of Thousand Snake Island was already cut by the Seven Emotions Threads and dark green blood seeped out.

Her blood tainted the Seven Emotions Threads and corroded them before long!

The other Overlords released various methods and broke free from the Seven Emotions Threads as they charged at Dao Lord Cloud Rain together!

Although the old ape looked sluggish, he was the most intense at dealing with the Seven Emotions Threads!

His flesh grew, causing his body to expand as he broke free from the Seven Emotions Threads directly. Although he was cut and blood gushed out all over, his expression did not change.

“Kill!”

The old ape strode forward and swung Imminent violently towards the head of Dao Lord Cloud Rain.

Instantly, a blinding golden radiance filled the air!

Dao Lord Cloud Rain narrowed his gaze and retreated, seemingly unwilling to take the attack head-on.

Two rays of resplendent light streaked through the air, shot from the eyes of the Overlord of Vermilion Cloud Valley. They cut through the never-ending Seven Emotions Threads directly!

Many high-level fiend demons seized the opportunity to break free.

“Heaven and Earth Snowstorm!”

A cold, chilling voice sounded and the temperature on the battlefield dipped instantly – Fairy Snowdrift had attacked!

Without warning, snowflakes filled the air.

Every single snowflake was hexagonal with extremely obscure emblems and runes carved on them. They were beautiful and sparkled brightly.

Although the snowflakes were beautiful, they were merciless!

The snowflakes appeared too densely and a high-level fiend demon could not dodge in time. A snowflake landed on his shoulder and caused a stream of blood to spurt out!

Similar scenes appeared all over the place.

The entire world was filled with snow that resembled geese feathers as well as tragic fresh blood!

The howls of fiend demons sounded everywhere!

Unlike the sinister scene of Dao Lord Cloud Rain’s attack, Fairy Snowdrift’s Dharmic art looked more sorrowful and surreal, as though it was not from this world.

Fairy Snowdrift stepped on the snow and traveled through the air with her white blouse fluttering in an incredibly beautiful manner. She waved her hand and all the demons looked up – it was a truly shocking scene!

Su Zimo gazed at the scene with a yearning feeling.

He did not know when he would be able to cultivate to that level.

Dharma Characteristics were almost at the top of the cultivation world and had noble statuses. No matter which sect or faction they were at, nobody would dare to disrespect them!

The fact that Dao Lord Cloud Rain’s group could barge into the eight demon realms and fight against so many demons in a massive massacre was truly enviable.

This was the Thousand Demon Meet!

Right now, almost all the strongest high-level fiend demons in Thousand Demon Valley were gathered here.

How bold did the three Dao Lords have to be to venture so deep into this place?!

“Behold my Demonic art!”

The Overlord of Golden Flames Mountain roared and his glabella shone. The Dharmic powers around his body surged and raging flames shot into the skies, engulfing the entire firmament!

Swoosh!

The golden flames enveloped the skies with a frightening might and burned countless snowflakes!

Fairy Snowdrift was expressionless, neither troubled nor enraged, when her Dharmic art was dispelled.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

A series of blinding sword lights flashed through the air.

The sword qi streaked overbearingly and there was no life to be seen everywhere it passed!

Lifeless Sword Art!

Dao Lord Immortal Sword had attacked once again!

Unlike Dao Lord Cloud Rain and Fairy Snowdrift, Dao Lord Immortal Sword’s attack was filled with killing power.

Within a few breaths, more than ten high-level fiend demons who were engulfed by his sword qi were decapitated with their Essence Spirits destroyed!

The old ape and the Overlord of Confusion Mist Swamp had to attack at the same time before most of the sword qi in the air was dispersed.

Many fiend demons felt their hearts race at the sight of this battle.

Overlords versus Dao Lords!

This was a clash between top-tier Dharma Characteristic experts of the human and demon race.

If not for the birth of the Heaven Slaying Sword Art, this would be an extremely rare sight!

Su Zimo’s gaze was fixed and he narrowed his eyes tensely, observing every single detail on the battlefield.

He was different from everyone else.

The other fiend demons merely wanted to watch the show.

However, he wanted to get his hands on the Heaven Slaying Sword Art!

He would definitely be mocked if his thoughts were known to others.

This was a fight between top-tier Dharma Characteristic experts. A low-level fiend demon like him would be killed by the aftershock of their strength before he could get close.

He was definitely daydreaming to think that he could steal the Heaven Slaying Sword Art right under the noses of so many Dharma Characteristic experts!

As of now, Su Zimo had no plan.

The only thing he had backing him was Dao Lord Extreme Fire.

He was still waiting for an opportunity!

In midair, the battle intensified as time passed.

Although there were many fiend demons in Thousand Demon Valley, they could not take down the three Dao Lords with their encirclement. Instead, many fiend demons were dying instead!

In truth, if the six Overlords had not taken most of the power released by the three Dao Lords, the remaining high-level fiend demons would have died a long time ago!

Gradually, both parties reached a stalemate.

Although the ball of light was right in front of them, it was extremely difficult for anyone to withdraw from the battlefield.

Dao Lord Immortal Sword frowned deeply.

This was the Thousand Demon Valley after all. Now that there was such a great commotion here, there was a high chance that other top-tier experts from Thousand Demon Valley would be drawn here the longer things dragged on!

If a Grand Demon appeared, the consequences would be unimaginable!

At that thought, Dao Lord Immortal Sword spoke as he attacked, "Fellow Daoists, please fight with your true strength and help me hold out for a moment. I'm going to head over and retrieve what's inside."

"In the name of my Dao title, I promise the two of you that I will definitely repay you guys immensely in the future if I manage to get my hands on it!"

Although Dao Lord Immortal Sword looked composed, he was getting a little flustered internally.

"Alright!"

Dao Lord Cloud Rain agreed to it loudly.

The fact that he could obtain this promise from Dao Lord Immortal Sword made his trip here worthwhile!
