

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes by Yvone Zabielski Chapter 103

Viola was silent for a moment before she smiled and said, "What goes around comes around. Orlando is no exception."

Hearing this, Stanley heaved a sigh of relief.

Viola seeks revenge on Orlando because of what happened in the past, but she never said that she wants me to pay the price because of Rebecca

So she still cares about me, right?

Now she is just mad at me because of Rebecca. I still have a chance!

After thinking it through, Stanley stood up happily. "Viola, don't worry, I will get the problems fixed. I am willing to wait. As long as you need me, I will always be there."

After Stanley finished speaking, he left.

Viola held her forehead and she felt quite helpless.

It seemed that Stanley still didn't fully understand what she meant...

Whatever. I'll explain it when I have the chance in the future.

In the next few days, Jaylin said that she needed to go to the construction sites for inspection, so she never showed up in the Caffrey Group again to report her work progress.

If Whitney called, Jaylin would say that she was busy.

Whitney was very unhappy with Jaylin's attitude.

If it wasn't for the fact that Whitney was currently in need of people, she would have flared up.

Just as Whitney was thinking, the phone rang. It was Alisha.

"Alisha, what's wrong?"

Alisha, who was on the other side of the line, was extremely dissatisfied and full of complaints.

"Why are you cutting my pocket money recently? It showed that I didn't have sufficient funds on my card when I went shopping with Karen and Molly from the Bayley family! It was so embarrassing!"

Whitney was a little guilty.

Now that all the money she had in hand was given to Jaylin in various projects, Whitney could only quietly reduce Alisha's pocket money.

"Mom! You said before that daughters needed to be raised well. How can you treat me like this..."

Whitney had no choice but to say what Jaylin had told her to comfort Alisha.

“My dear, the Caffrey Group has been in some financial difficulties recently. I have no choice. When things are better, I will double your pocket money. And I will buy you whatever you want!”

“Then I also want the pre-sale full set of limited edition skin care products from LC!”

“OK. No problem. The full set!”

After hanging up the phone, all Whitney thought about was Jaylin.

Neither seeing Jaylin coming back to the Callrey Group for reporting her progress nor receiving calls from her. Whitney felt that Jaylin was hiding something

Whitney was very worried. So she decided to take the initiative to call Jaylin.

As soon as she opened the contact list on her phone, the door was suddenly pushed open by her assistant, Jocy Bloom.

“Why don’t you knock on the door before you come in?” Whitney was in a bad mood.

Joey could only say anxiously, “Ms. Nelson, bad news! The engineering team of Lan Xi has come to make trouble. They have blocked the entrance of the building!”

“What?”

Whitney smote the table and stood up in shock, “What makes them so arrogant? Where are the security guards?”

“There are too many of them. More than a hundred people are down there. They said that the promised construction funds have not been transferred to the account until now. The person in charge was even fired by Ms. Haworth for lacking supervision! The workers now have no leader and they are holding the construction tools as weapons. They are clamoring for you to explain!”

The funds are not transferred to the account?

Then where is my money?

What the hell is Jaylin doing?

An extremely bad idea crossed Whitney’s mind. She was so scared that her face turned pale.

She could hardly believe that Jaylin dared to do this to her! Taylin was her biological niece!

To confirm, Whitney dialed Jaylin’s number with shaking hands.

The phone went through.

There were ringtones from far to near.

It seemed to come from outside the door.

Joey, who was standing to the side, also discovered that the door was not closed. As she was about to completely open it, the door was opened from the outside by a pair of slender hands.

Jaylin had exquisite makeup and was wearing a very eye-catching dress. Behind her was a man dressed like a lawyer.

Seeing that Jaylin was calm and even deliberately dressed up. Whitney could tell that she was prepared.

Seeing that the atmosphere was a little awkward, Joey secretly left.

In the office, Whitney was so shocked her eyes were bloodshot.

However, Jaylin laughed because of Whitney's expression.

"It's just a few days. I didn't expect you to miss me so much."

Whitney gritted her teeth, still holding a trace of hope in her mind, "Jaylin, why didn't you pay the workers the money for the Houston project? What exactly have you been doing all these days?"

"Didn't you already guess it just now?"

Jaylin smiled and walked to the seat opposite Whitney. "You didn't make it wrong. I didn't take out a single cent of those 15 billion dollars. All of it was secretly transferred to my account. By the way, at least half of the people in the Caffrey Group are my people now."

"You! How dare you!!!

Such a large sum of money! She has taken all of them!

How would she be able to change more than half of the staff of the Coffrey Group into her people if she premeditated?

Whitney was so angry that she felt an excruciating pain in the chest. She slid into the chair in pain. "How would Lawrence tolerate your shameless behavior? Or did you hide it from him?"

Jaylin sneered, "Whitney, have you forgotten that Lawrence is not in charge of my family? But in this matter, he is still very supportive of me. Just because you have married into the Caffrey family, you kept putting on airs when you returned. He hates you. Don't you know that?"

Whitney's family condition was not very good. Back then, she had relied on her campus romance and also the fact that she was a top student from the faculty of finance to have a chance to marry into the Caffrey family.

Whitney's brother, Lawrence Nelson, was not so lucky. He had taken a fancy to the beloved daughter of the Haworth family. Because of his family background, he could only marry into the Haworth family. Even his child could not take his surname

Whitney was so angry that she tightly grasped the clothes on her chest with both hands and helped herself to calm down. Only then did she barely recover from the suffocating feeling,

"You have stolen so much money from the Caffrey Group. What are you trying to do?"

Jaylin smiled and gestured for the lawyer to come forward.

The lawyer met Whitney's suspicious gaze and placed a contract on the desk.

Whitney took it and opened it. "Jaylin! You want to snatch the Caffrey Group?"

“How can you use the word ‘snatch?

Jaylin smiled teasingly and continued, “Whitney, have a careful look I’m willing to buy the management rights of the Caffrey Group for 1.6 billion dollars. You don’t know how to run a business. I think the Caffrey Group should be in my hands.”

16 billion dollars?

Whitney gritted her teeth. It seemed that the Haworth family was supportive of this. Apart from the 1.5 billion dollars, they had given Jaylin the rest o.1 billion dollars.

Heavens! This is my family! My biological brother and niece!

Whitney was so angry that she didn’t even know what to say. After a while, she continued with her teeth gritted.

“Dream on! The Caffrey Group is a joint-equity enterprise! The biggest shareholder is my son! If you want to buy it, you should ask him!”

“I have sent people to find Orlando. He has been missing for so long He must have died.”

“And Richard was also sent away by me. Tsk tsk. So only you, Orlando’s mother, can do the honor.”

Whitney was filled with grict and indignation.

Only then did she see through Jaylin's step-by-step plan. First, Jaylin had incited Whitney to sell her shares and mortgaged her house. So Jaylin could obtain a huge amount of money. Then Jaylin made big trouble for the Caltrey

Group so that she could get the ownership

Seeing that Whitney did not speak, Jaylin became a little impatient, "Whitney, it is useless for you to struggle. Why don't you just sign it? In the future, when the Caffrey Group and the Haworth Group were merged, we will get better status!"

Whitney was in despair.

Would the Caffrey Group be ruined by her?

She bit her lower lip and there was a row of blood marks on it. She took the pen with shaking hands.

An arrogant voice suddenly sounded from outside the door

"Ms. Haworth, don't be complacent. If you want to buy the Caffrey Group, you should ask me!"

Hearing this familiar voice, Whitney and Jaylin were both shocked!
