

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 244

All of them were on the quest list.

Rayna cleared her throat and shouted, "Welcome Mr. Wolf of Hosan Company, Ms. Blum of Starlightning Entertainment, Ms. Bailey of Twilighthouse 'Telefilms, and Mr. Ruff of Luckytronics Media to the Angle Group!"

Businessmen always prioritized their own interests. The big shots who tried to make excuses to turn Viola down all rushed here as fast as they could.

Lainey quickly helped Viola greet all the guests who had made it here in the last ten minutes.

Lily's face turned livid with anger. There were too many people arriving here, and there was already no empty space at the entrance.

Lily sat in the chair. She was swallowed up in the crowd and was even driven to the corner.

If it wasn't for the bodyguard supporting her, she would have fallen to the ground.

Everyone was busy trying to curry favor with Viola, so no one paid attention to her at all.

Lainey gave her a look with disdain. "There are too many guests here. I'm afraid Viola and I won't be able to take care of you. It doesn't feel good to be slapped in the face, right? If you can't stand it any longer, hurry up and get out of here."

"You!"

Being insulted so bluntly, Lily was so angry that she was speechless with anger.

She was unwilling to leave like this and continued to taunt, “Even if you have Ormand’s protection, so what? I heard that Ormand is a violent ugly man, and he is also very cruel to women. You have been the Hobson family to take care of him during this period of time. I’m afraid your life was not that easy, right?”

Viola was stunned. She chuckled and didn’t bother to explain.

Compared to bickering with Lily, greeting the guests was more important for her now.

But Lainey was different. She looked at Lily indifferently and said sarcastically with a gentle expression.

“Are you blind? I’m afraid Ormand will disappoint you. He is not only handsome but also responsible and considerate of Viola. Are you getting angry now?”

Lily was stunned.

But this was completely different from what the rumor said.

Lily did not know whether Lainey was telling the truth or not. She could only raise her voice and continued.

“Maybe, but he missed the dinner party last time. And today, he also didn’t attend the ribbon-cutting ceremony. I think he doesn’t care about Viola at all. I’m afraid this investment was Mr. Javon’s idea, right?”

Many people heard her words and whispered to each other.

Ormand and Javon meant different things

Although Javon had been in the business world for a long time and was considered the leader of the last generation. People respected him, but it was already in the past

Because Javon had already retired. The Hobson family was already taken over by Ormand, the new ruler.

If Ormand didn't like Viola and didn't want to marry her, the investment he gave to Angle Group would probably just pay lip service, and no one could be certain if he would really pay this sum of money.

Viola didn't speak

Because she really didn't intend to accept this investment from Ormand, nor did she intend to use the Hobson Group's 11ije.

But the ribbon-cutting ceremony was imminent, and she planned to talk to Ormand about the investment afterward.

She did not refute it, and some people already believed Lily's words and began to sway.

Mr. Ruff of Luckytronics Media took the lead to apologize to Viola and said, "I'm sorry, Ms. McGraw. I have an emergency to deal with. I wish you a successful ribbon-cutting ceremony today. I'm leaving first."

And soon, there were people who followed.

"I'm really sorry, Ms. McGraw. I have something to deal with too..."

"Don't get mad, Ms. McGraw. I do have something to handle in my company..."

Viola just nodded and agreed expressionlessly.

Lily snorted with her arms folded over her chest and looked extremely complacent.

However, just as the sixth company was about to apologize to Viola and leave, all of them heard the unique roar of the Shelby supercar come from the fountain

Everyone instantly focused their attention on this one and only black Shelby supercar in the United States. It was said that the cost of manufacturing this car was 13 million dollars, and one had to be influential and rich enough to purchase this car.

Just as everyone was exclaiming about the appearance of this car, the door car was opened.

The man slowly stepped out of the car, showing his long legs first. His manner was noble and dignified, and his aura was cold. The silver-gray ghost mask on his face made him very mysterious.

"Mr. Hobson!"

“It really is Mr. Hobson! He actually came to attend such a small event in person. He really dotes on his fiancée!”

“oh my! I’m so envious!”

There were many female companions present who were brought by other CEOs. Ever since Ormand got out of the car, their eyes had been fixed on him. They were so jealous.

There were a few businessmen who had just said that they were leaving yet still didn’t walk out of the building. Now that when they saw Ormand, they really regretted it.

They all glared at Lily

And Lily was also shocked, unable to say a word.

Along with the cheers of the crowd. Ormand walked towards Viola without even looking at the crowd.

Viola stared blankly at Ormand, who was walking towards her other than surprise, she was also a little angry.

She had told him not to stay in the villa to have a rest.

This man was too willful!

When Ormand walked up to Viola, all the noise stopped.

In the silence

Ormand picked up Viola's left hand gently and planted a kiss on the back of her hand. And then, he said in a low and deep voice, "Sorry for coming late."

Viola pursed her lips and raised an eyebrow at him. "Yes. When we get back, I'm going to punish you!"

"You say you want two nights? of course, Viola, anything you want," Ormand said with a smile.

All the ladies screamed.

It was too much! How could they display their affection in public like this?

Moreover, were they talking about what they were thinking?

It was so explicit! Was it something they could hear?

Viola didn't expect him to be so bold as to openly flirt with her in front of so many people.

She maintained her smile as she looked at him, but in her heart, she was already gritting her teeth.

Ormand chose the right timing to show up. As soon as his arrival, the ribbon-cutting ceremony began.

Because of his appearance, the ceremony was held by him and Viola together. Each of them cut side of the ribbon.

The atmosphere at the scene was also getting electric.

Lily was slapped on her face twice a day, especially the second time. She deliberately said it so loudly that everyone could hear her. Now she wished she could find a place to hide.

Then, she left dejectedly without being noticed

After the ribbon-cutting ceremony was successfully over, all the guests came to visit the building

Viola was tired from socializing. Since Ormand volunteered to come and also wanted to invest in the Angle Group, she ordered him to socialize on behalf of her. She and Lainey went to a quiet corner to take a break.

Lainey looked at Ormand, who was in the middle of the crowd, and said, "No matter what, he is still your investor. You can take a break, but you shouldn't burn him out."

Viola fixed her eyes on Ormand and said, "A disobedient man should work harder as punishment."

"Disobedient?" Lainey covered her mouth and laughed. "He looks quite obedient."

"He was just acting"

Viola didn't say much and pouted herself a glass of champagne

Not only was Ormand an actor, but he was also a liar!

However, Viola couldn't tell Lainey too much about this

But Lainey didn't avoid this topic and said, "Then you're talking to the right person. You have to teach your man if he is disobedient! I'm quite experienced in this field."
