

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 324

With Viola's soothing, Ormand calmed down a lot.

He held her hand tightly as if he had found a place where he could be put at ease.

"Viola, don't go to Jerry! Don't agree to his conditions."

Viola hesitated.

"Viola, promise me! We agreed on this."

Ormand tightened his grip on her hand, so tightly that, without his noticing, he had left a red mark on her hand.

"I promise I will never marry him, but... I'm sorry."

The moment Viola's voice faded, the other hand of hers ruthlessly struck the back of Ormand's head. She used all her strength to knock him out.

Viola held Ormand in her arms and pressed her face against his forehead, gently caressing him.

Tears slid down from the corners of her eyes and disappeared into her hair without a trace.

Viola murmured, "Sleep, Orin. Leave the rest to me."

Todd rushed upstairs again. When he saw Ormand in the corner of the wardrobe, he was shocked. "Ms. Zumthor, why is Mr. Hobson..."

Viola didn't have the time to explain. She said, "Come here and carry him. Let's go to the lab."

Without hesitation, Todd squatted down and took Ormand from Viola.

In a rush. They arrived at the laboratory. Then Kolby tested Ormand's physical condition at once.

The atmosphere in the room was solemn.

Kolby frowned and kept sighing. "Ormand's situation is very bad. The blue potion has failed. What's worse, it has brought side effects, making the virus spread faster.

"If we don't quickly use the next blue potion, or if we can't find the antidote that can completely cure him, he won't make it for more than one month."

Todd's expression changed. "What! Not even a month?"

In the solemn atmosphere, Viola appeared much calmer.

No one saw Viola's hands hidden in her sleeves. Her nails dug into her palms, making her tone as steady as possible. "Both of you take good care of Ormand. I have something to do and need to go out for a while."

Coming out of the laboratory, Viola sat in the car and called Jerry.

"Oh, I didn't expect you to call me so soon, Viola. Let me guess. Has the drug lost its effect now?" Jerry said happily.

Viola's eyes were filled with coldness as she suppressed the anger in her chest.

"Jerry, you are despicable."

"How am I despicable? I told you long ago, Viola, that you must make a decision as soon as possible. Now that bad consequences have appeared, I am not responsible for this."

Jerry sounded joyous. He believed that Ormand must be in a bad situation since Viola called him so anxiously.

Jerry's mood was exceptionally good.

"Where is the antidote?" Viola held back her urge to kill him.

"So you accept my conditions, right?"

Viola didn't respond to his question. Instead, she asked, "You don't even dare to tell me the name of the antidote. Why should I believe that you really know? I have to make sure that you don't play tricks on me before I promise you anything."

"Okay, I'll tell you. Anyway, without me, you won't be able to get it."

Jerry gave his answer right away. "The only drug on the market that can cure the biochemical virus, Super 404, is the Super Serum in Portugal."

Viola narrowed her eyes and silently memorized the name of the medicine.

Jerry continued, "If you consider agreeing to my conditions, come to Portugal to see me. I want to have a different exotic wedding with you."

“But I have to remind you that you are only allowed to come alone. If I know anyone, like Bobby and Bentley, dare to come with you, you will bear the consequences.”

Jerry sounded more and more threatening as he spoke.

Viola tried her best not to sound angry. “I’ll contact you again after I make sure what you said is true.”

“Alright, I’ll wait for your call. See you, Viola.”

After ending the call, Viola immediately phoned Bentley.

TIL

Bentley knew the medicine.

“This Super Serum was developed by a biological doctor many years ago. It has a miraculous effect on all biochemical viruses. But until now, there is only a small syringe available. It is hard to buy even if one pays millions of dollars,” Bentley explained.

“And Portugal is a monarchy. That medicine is owned by the royal family. It is difficult to see it even once. Viola, why do you suddenly mention this?”

Viola replied with a trace of a crying tone, "Bentley, I need you."

Perhaps it was the effect of the virus on his body, Ormand slept and didn't wake up for a whole day after he was knocked unconscious.

When he was unconscious, Viola was not idle.

She had done a lot of things.

Bentley went to a neighboring city for a business trip some time ago. It was not far, so he flew back to Salt Lake City in an hour.

Viola also called Bobby and Russell over. She entrusted Kolby to empty the meeting room in the laboratory and gathered all three brothers together there.

Now three men with different temperaments sat in their chairs and looked at Viola, who was standing on the carpet in the center.

Noticing Viola's red eyes, Bobby asked, "Viola, what happened?”

Viola pursed her lips. And without a word, she bent her knees and knelt.

The three men were confused.

Russell stood up and wanted to help her up. “Viola, what happened? Tell me. I’ll help you.”

Viola refused to get up. “This is the first time I have begged you in my entire life. Your aid is my last resort. I have to beg you to help me,” she said seriously.

The three men looked at each other and did not speak. Quietly, they listened to her “Ormand is infected with Super 404, a biochemical virus. He is dying. He became like this because of me, so I must save him. I need your help.”

Bobby and Bentley didn’t speak.

Russell asked, “How do you want us to help you?”

“I will go abroad in the next few days. While I am away, I hope Bobby can help me protect Ormand. He is the head of the National Bureau of Investigation. If he doesn’t appear in public for a long time, Ronian and Gregory will be suspicious.

Caves Brawa Because of the virus, his eyes have gone blind. I can't trust others, so I can only ask you to help me keep his condition a secret."

Bentley frowned and asked her, "So were you thinking of going to Portugal to help Ormand get the antidote when you asked me about the Super Serum today?"

It was true that the Super Serum would be able to cure Ormand.

However, it was not easy to get it.

Viola did not deny the fact.

Bobby's amber eyes sank, his face solemn. "No, it's too dangerous. You're not allowed to go."

Although Bobby had great power in the military, it was only useful in the United States.

Once Viola was out of the United States, Bobby couldn't protect her.

In particular, Viola was going to Portugal this time. It was almost impossible for her to successfully get the serum from the hands of the royal family and return unscathed.

“Bobby, I have already made up my mind. You know me. You can’t stop me once I make a decision.”

Bobby was very determined as well. “No means no. I didn’t expect Ormand to sacrifice so much for you. I am very grateful to him, but that doesn’t mean that I can watch you exchange your life for his!

“It doesn’t matter if you think I’m selfish or realistic. I only care about your life and safety. If you insist on going, I can only use forceful methods to tie you up and lock you up in the house.”

Bentley did not speak, seemingly agreeing with Bobby.

Russell had no right to retort in front of Bobby.

After a moment of hesitation, Russell looked at Viola and said, “Viola, why don’t we listen to Bobby...”

Viola was shocked and desperate in her heart.

Previously, Viola did not dare to tell her brothers. Firstly, she was afraid that the news would be leaked. Secondly, she was afraid that even if her brothers were grateful, they would stop her from continuing to be with Ormand.

Unfortunately, Viola was right
