

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 370

“This thing is rather complicated. I’ll tell you about it later in the future. In short, it’s not what you think it is. Viola is a very good girl. You will also like her in the future.”

Alina stopped talking

Ormand thought of Todd’s thing and continued, “Since you’re back, help you with something, will you?”

“What is it?”

Ormand’s eyes were burning. “I want to give Todd our family name and make him my father’s adopted son!”

“Alright, you’ve always been a smart kid. Since you’ve made up your mind, I’ll help you.”

Alina had always been very efficient.

It was a lucky day two days later. Alina got the respected elders of the family to watch the ceremony of including Todd in the Hobson family.

After all, this was their family business. Viola didn’t attend the ceremony but waited outside.

In the room, Todd bowed to Javon and handed him a glass of water. “Grandpa.”

Javon accepted the glass and took a sip. Then, he dipped the tip of his finger into the water and tapped the place between Todd's eyebrows.

After the complicated process, the elders of the Hobson family put "Todd Hobson" down as Ormand's father's son.

"Child, from now on, you are one of the Hobson family. You must behave yourself and not do anything that goes against the law. Remember to listen to the advice from the head of the Hobson family."

"Yes, grandfather," Todd obediently said.

"Go on." Javon hit the ground with his walking stick to tell Todd to go to Ormand.

Todd stood up and walked to Ormand.

"Sir!" In front of Ormand, Todd was no longer cautious but was smiling brightly

Ormand patted Todd's head in frustration. "I'm your brother from now on!"

Todd handed Ormand a glass of water and called out, "Ormand!"

Viola was watching silently from outside.

After the trip to Portugal, Todd gained a lot of things. And Viola was genuinely happy for him.

The complicated ceremony was finally over after an hour.

As a gift for joining the Hobson family, a small villa was given to Todd by Ormand, which was very close to Viorin and was only two streets away.

When Leia heard that Todd had gotten a house, she clung to him and congratulated him profusely. Then Leia took Todd away with her to buy things for the new house.

So the two left. Ormand also had things to do.

It was time for Viola to have a checkup. Ormand drove Viola to the hospital to see the gynecologist.

When the doctor was examining Viola, Ormand was not allowed to watch.

Ormand sat in the corridor and waited nervously.

Viola got pregnant when he still had the virus in his body. It was very likely that the child would be born with diseases or viruses. It might even pass the virus to the mother and make Viola sick.

The more Ormand thought, the more nervous he got.

He called Kolby.

Kolby was surprised by Ormand's sudden call. "What's up, Ormand? You rarely call me. Are you sick again?"

"Don't jinx it."

Ormand's face darkened. He didn't have the time to joke with Kolby and got to the point, "If our child has the virus, can we detect it now?"

Kolby asked, "How long is she pregnant?"

"Six and a half weeks." Ormand thought for a while and answered.

"Ormand, we can't. In our country, we usually use tests to detect it. But it is only an embryo now, and we can't do the tests. I'm afraid that we have to wait for it to be born."

But they waited until it was born, everything might be too late.

Ormand was silent for a while. After a long time, he finally decided to ask, "Can... Can we abort the child without harming the mother at all?"

"It's impossible, Ormand. As long as you abort the child, it will harm the mother."

Hearing this, Ormand sighed silently.

If only men could get pregnant too.

If possible, Ormand hoped he could suffer for Viola, and Viola only needed to be happy and healthy.

On the other end of the line, Kolby did not hear Ormand's answer and continued, "However, if the mother has just got pregnant, there are medicines on the market that are the least damaging to the mother. After taking it and taking a good rest for a period of time, the mother will be alright."

"What's the medicine?"

"Meefis. However, this is a new medicine from abroad. It is currently banned in the country. It won't be easy to buy it..."

"I see."

Ormand answered softly and immediately ended the call. He called

Todd.

“When you finish your work for these two days, take a trip abroad and buy something for me...”

Todd listened carefully.

Ormand didn't tell Todd what medicine would be used for, but Todd looked it up on the internet.

And Todd was shocked by what he saw.

“Ormand, are you serious? It's abortion pills! It will harm Viola!”

It was not an easy decision to make for Ormand, but nothing was more important than Viola's health.

Viola didn't need the suffering caused by Super 404.

Ormand didn't explain to Todd. “No more questions. I know what I am doing. Just do as I say.”

Todd said worriedly, “Ormand, you don't understand. This baby has a different meaning for Viola. During her time in Portugal, she stopped at nothing to protect this child under Jerry's nose.”

Ormand fell silent and did not speak for a long time.

Todd continued, “She really wants this baby. If you plan to secretly deprive her of the right to be a mother and apologize to her afterward, I'm afraid it won't work. She will be very sad, and she'll even hate you!”

The last few words hit Ormand's heart hard.

When Ormand's mind was in a mess, the lights of the examination room suddenly went out, and the nurse came out to tell him the good news.

"Congratulations, Mr. Hobson. Ms. McGraw is pregnant with twins!"

Ormand immediately hung up on Todd and went to Viola.

Ormand's expression was grim, and the news that he would soon be a father didn't bring any joy to his face, which stunned the nurse.

"Viola, are you feeling alright?"

Ormand carefully helped Viola up and checked nervously if the detector had hurt her.

Viola took his face in her hands and kissed him on the lips. Her face was filled with joy.

"Ormand, the doctor said that I'm suffering so much because I am pregnant with twins, so I have too many pregnancy hormones. However, I'm currently very healthy!"

Viola was in high spirits and handed the test result to Ormand, "Although they are only an embryo right now and can't be seen clearly, you will have two kids in only a few months! Are you happy?"

Ormand was slightly stunned. He stared blankly at the test result, then looked at the joy written all over Viola's face. Ormand couldn't say a word for a long time.
