

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes Chapter 400

At the door, there was a gentle smile on Viola's pretty little face. Her chest heaved up and down. She was breathing violently after the dash.

Javon was stunned and didn't say anything.

Lennon immediately reacted and begged for Javon's mercy. "Dad, Ms. McGraw is the person involved in this matter. Why don't we stay and listen to what she has to say first?

Maybe there is an inside story?"

Viola's eyes curved into a smile. Her little face was very pleasing to the elders.

Javon looked at her and agreed.

Ormand, who was still kneeling on one knee

in the middle of the hall, actually did not have the confidence to survive this punishment.

All his attention was focused on his back as he was getting ready to resist the pain. He did not hear Viola's voice at the door.

After he waited for a long time, what landed on his back was not the strict and ruthless

Discipline Whip.

Instead, the shirt and suit that he had just taken off rested on his shoulder.

The woman's slender but warm fingers wrapped his clothes around him to cover his muscular tan skin.

He snapped back to his senses and looked behind him, only to bump into Viola's eyes,

which were filled with displeasure.

"Why are you here?"

Viola suppressed the unhappiness in her heart and pulled him up. "If I didn't come over, would you hide it from me like how you did in Washington?"

Ormand didn't know what to say.

He lowered his head, unable to explain.

He just didn't want to make her worry.

As long as he could survive this punishment,

this matter would come to an end.

She had been troubled enough recently, and he did not want to add to her troubles.

How could she not know what he was thinking?

But she was a little angry and scolded him

softly, "If you like being whipped so much, I can satisfy you when we get back! But Ormand, no one can hurt you except me!"

Ormand lowered his head and didn't reply.

Viola was annoyed. She quietly pinched his waist and applied much pressure. "Did you hear that?"

"Hiss..."

He frowned in pain and nodded.

“Put your clothes on.” Viola rubbed his red waist. Her eyes reminded him not to take off his clothes casually and pay attention to his morality!

Javon saw the two of them flirting and was very pleased. When he spoke again, his tone became much softer.

“Viola, how do you want to speak up for Ormand today?”

Viola smiled and took out an examination sheet from her bag. “Mr. Hobson, look at this and you’ll know.”

Eason had already put back the box containing the Discipline Whip. He quickly went to get the piece of paper from Viola and handed it to Javon.

Javon looked at her suspiciously. He put on his presbyopia glasses. After he read the contents of the examination report, his eyes were instantly filled with joy.

“You’re pregnant? And you’re pregnant with two babies?”

His tone could not hide his excitement, and he laughed loudly.

The anger from a few minutes ago was all gone after he learned that he had two little great-grandchildren.

Eason said from the side, "Mr. Ormand did a great job! Mr. Hobson, in a few months, you will be able to have two great-grandchildren!"

The other elders laughed. "Congratulations, you are really lucky! Soon, you four generations will be able to live together!"

Lennon also said, "Congratulations, Dad! It's extremely lucky to get twins. Why don't we just forget about what Ormand did this time?"

Javon was very happy to be congratulated. He looked at Ormand with approval.

"Ormand, for the sake of these two great-grandchildren, this time..."

"Grandpa!"

Sammy quickly interrupted. Seeing that

Ormand was about to be able to walk out of the hall unscathed, he was very unwilling. He stood up emotionally.

“Ms. McGraw’s pregnancy is indeed worthy of celebration. However, it’s a different thing! If Ormand gives Ms. McGraw the Hobson Group’s shares because she is pregnant, then he will probably give her the entire Hobson family when the children are born!”

He reminded Javon seriously, “The shares are not for the children! They are for Viola! The McGraw family is her family. Who knows if she will bring the shares back one day!”

The atmosphere in the hall became heavy again because of his words.

When Viola heard the words “her family”,

her back stiffened slightly and she felt an inexplicable sense of irony.

Other than Viorin, what else place could she have?

Ormand sensed the change in her emotions and immediately hugged her shoulders, giving her a sense of security.

The matter at hand was more important.

Viola could tell what was more important and urgent. She immediately retracted her complicated thoughts and looked at Javon seriously.

“Mr. Hobson, actually, I came here today to talk about the shares.

“Ormand gave me all the shares. Although he will not agree to take them back, I have the right to decide how to distribute them.

“I plan to write an agreement. I promise that after the birth of the two babies, I will give half of the shares of the Hobson Group to each of them.”

The two babies would always be members of the Hobson family. If she gave the shares to them, the shares would still belong to the Hobson family.

Moreover, no one could raise a retort since she gave Javon’s great-grandchildren the shares as a gift.

Javon looked at Viola with satisfaction. He turned to Eason and laughed happily. "Viola is really a sensible good child! Ormand is so lucky to marry Viola!"

Eason smiled with relief. "Yes, Ms. McGraw is a sensible person. She even rushed over because of Mr. Ormand. She really values Mr. Ormand!"

The two of them smiled at each other, and the atmosphere in the hall returned to harmony.

Originally, things became particularly grave.

But everyone was filled with joy after they knew that Viola was pregnant with two babies.

Javon was so happy that he kept smiling. He asked Eason to prepare some money and handed the money to Viola in front of all the elders and Sammy.

He patted the back of Viola's hands with his wrinkled, dark yellow, and rough hands gently and said earnestly, "Viola, you are blessed. In the future, no matter what difficulties you will meet, you will definitely go through them in the end."

Viola didn't pretend to refuse the money. She obediently accepted the money. "Thank you, Mr. Hobson. With the babies protecting me, no matter how difficult things are, I can definitely turn the tables!"

When she said the last few words, her eyes lit

Ormand put his hands around her waist and carefully leaned over to ask, "Grandpa, do I have any rewards? I've also done a good job about your great-grandchildren."

Javon's face instantly turned cold. He used his walking stick to lightly hit Ormand's calf and seriously taught Ormand a lesson.

"You're going to be a father soon. You can't be so reckless and careless anymore!

"Also! Viola is now the most important person in our family. You have to listen to her and obey her. If you dare to bully her, I won't forgive you!"

Ormand pursed his lips and smiled. "I don't dare."

Javon looked at Viola again. "Viola, my dear, if he dares to make you unhappy, don't be afraid and just give him a lesson! I will always speak up for you!"

"Thank you, Mr. Hobson." Viola was touched and nodded repeatedly.

Coming out of the hall, Viola and Ormand returned to Viorin.

Viola didn't say a word to Ormand along the way.

Ormand asked nervously as he tugged at her clothes, "Viola, are you mad at me?"

She did not look back and went straight upstairs.

She said in a calm tone, "No. You almost suffered because of me.

"But you..." Ormand bit his lip, feeling wronged. He said in a low voice, "You are so cold to me..."
