She was also ashamed as everyone was watching her. Jaylin wished she could escape as quickly as she could

But Jaylin was too naïve.

Viola had always been a vengeful person. How could she let Jaylin off the hook?

"Miss Hawthorn, who should be ashamed now? You or me?"

Jaylin gritted her teeth in a fury, but she couldn't take it out on Viola because Elena's video call was still on and Russell was present. Viola got support from many big shots.

Jaylin could only force a smile. "It's my fault. I shouldn't have offended you."

"Is that all you have to say?"

Viola shook her head, chuckling. "You weren't sincere enough. I don't accept your apology."

She bit her lips and sobbed in a grievance. But Viola lifted her chin and lifted her head.

Viola examined the red marks closely and said, "Now that you have a taste of your own medicine, you should know how it feels. How many times have you framed me? Have you ever thought about being retaliated?"

Jaylin was so ashamed. She wanted to fight back. But her face was so swollen that she couldn't say anything
