

Ex-husband Goes Money Comes by Yvone Zabielski Chapter 94

However, she had not seen the name of the Barnett family on the list of participants.

If the Barnett family really wanted to get the land, then this bidding. It would be a bit difficult for the Caffrey Group to get it!

Whitney's face was darkened, but Alishia was focusing on another thing.

"Viola, you've been messing around with Orlando and you even had a close relationship with Russell. Now it looks like your relationship with Jason is not that simple either!"

Thinking about the fact that Jason had taken Viola to the welcoming banquet of the Callis family and the auction, Alisha gritted her teeth in jealousy.

"Does Russell know about these despicable things?"

Before Viola could say anything, Jason frowned and sneered.

"Look at your flat face, fishy eyes, and terrible voice. Of course, you can't understand why Viola is so popular."

"You're..."

Jason was young and he had a bad temper, so he was usually impatient with the person he hated.

Alisha was so angry that her face flushed.

She had always been confident about her appearance. She had always been praised and admired wherever she went, and this was the first time she had been so disliked!

The key was that this person was Jason, the popular idol!

No matter how angry she was, she could only vent all her anger on Viola.

“What have you done to them? Why are they so supportive of you?”

Viola just smiled and didn't answer.

However, Alisha just took her calm face as a provocation.

“I will let you pay the price!”

“I'll wait and see,” Viola said with a smile.

Alisha's words couldn't hurt her at all. Alisha could only glare at Viola fiercely, trying to suppress her from the

MO-CUIL

Jason walked in front of Viola and glanced at Whitney and Alisha impatiently.

“Let’s go. It’s unnecessary to talk to these despicable people.”

Then he drapped Viola into the venue.

Alishia was in a rage, glaring, at Viola angrily.

Whitney, on the other hand, seemed to be thinking about something

In the vchue...

The bidding had yet to officially beyin, and the representatives from each company were flattering each other.

Viola looked around the entire venue and finally found Lucille among the people.

Lucille also noticed Viola.

Lucille clanced at Viola as if they had reached an agreement.

Thien two of them looked somewhere elseas if nothing had happened at all.

Jason, who had been drarned there casually, did not notice it at all. He was looking at the details of the land in the western suburbs of the city and turned to ask Viola.

“Viola, do you want this land? If you like it, I can buy it and give it to you.”

“If you dare to buy it, your grandpa won’t let go of you,” Viola said with a smile.

“He won’t punish me, because it’s for you. He also wants to give you something.”

Jason smiled softly, then he looked at Viola with admiration. “Furtherinore, even if I were to be blamed, it would be worth it for you, my Lady Queen!”

“Don’t be naughty,” Viola said as she flicked his forehead.

Jason let out an “ouch” pretentiously, covering his forehead with a pitiful expression.

As the two of them were talking and laughing, the bidding began.

The representatives of the major companies all entered the main hall.

The arrangement of seats had been arranged beforehand. Viola walked directly to the first row and sat on the seat with her name.

With the host’s opening speech, the bidding officially began.

The waiters politely walked to the representatives and put away the bidding books and prices of the companies.

When it came to Jason and Viola, Jason waved his hand, indicating that they had nothing.

The waiter was shocked and skipped the two of them to collect information about other companies.

Whitney, who was sitting on the right side of the first row, saw everything that was happening

After confirming that Jason did not even have a plan and was wearing a relaxed expression, she finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Since the Barnett family did not intend to fight for the land, then it could only belong to the Caffrey Group!

Thinking of this, she stood up proudly. In front of everyone, she gracefully put the bidding book and project proposal of the Caffrey Group into the wooden box that the waiter held.

When the other companies saw her confident attitude, they gradually started to discuss.

“It seems that Mr. Barnett is here to join in the fun, but with Caffrey Group to be our competitor, I’m afraid that we can’t get the land in the west of the city.”

“That’s right. What a pity. I made this trip for nothing. I can only congratulate the Caffrey Group in advance.”

Everyone sighed.

Whitney heard their words and felt even more proud.

She stood up modestly and smiled at all the managers of the companies in the back row as if she was the lost.

“I’m so sorry, The Caffrey Group has decided on this land, so I have to get it today. But don’t worry. I won’t let you come here for anything. The companies that come to participate in the auction today will have the opportunity to cooperate with the Caffrey Group for the follow-up construction of the land.”

Hearing this, everyone had their eyes lit up.

“They originally didn’t have much hope of getting the land, but now they had a chance to cooperate with the Caffrey Group. That was unexpected luck for them!

Everyone started to flatter Whitney.

“You’re so generous, Ms. Nelson. With you in charge of the Caffrey Group, it will have a bright future!”

“That’s right. Besides, my company has the best reputation in this area. Ms. Nelson, you must consider my company!”

Whitney was so triumphant because of their flattery.

It turned out that it felt so good to be the president. No wonder everyone tried so hard to get the position!

It was so cool!

She suppressed the ecstasy in her licart and let everyone listen to liar.

“Everyone, all you need to do is hand over the proposal. The Caffrey Group will select three of the best proposals to cooperate with. Let’s win together.”

“Great! Let’s cheer up for Ms. Nelson!”

Whitney earned a good reputation for the Caffrey Group.

Alisha was also flattered.

She turned around and subconsciously glanced at Viola.

To her surprise, Viola was casually playing with her phone, as if she did not care at all.

Alisha snorted coldly as she walked over to Viola and looked at her arrogantly.

“Viola, when the host comes out, he will announce that the land in the west of the city belongs to the Caffrey Group, Look, everyone here is happy for the Caffrey Group. Why don’t you say a few words of compliment?”

Viola put down her phone and smiled. “Not yet. If it wasn’t for the Caffrey Group, then you would be embarrassed.”

Alisha was sure that the Caffrey Group would get the land. After all, no company present could compete with the Caffrey Group

In Alisha’s eyes, Viola was talking nonsense.

“Do you dare to make a bet with me?” Alisha looked at Viola sarcastically, with a vicious intention appearing in her
