Chapter 26

Nathan was not scared because he had Haco Corporation to support him no matter what happened. "Who the h*ll are you? How dare you meddle in my business!" "Do you believe that I can make you unable to leave this hotel!" Cyrus said faintly, "I don't believe it." "D*mn! Do you want to die?!" Nathan took the wine bottle from the table and threw it at Cyrus. Cyrus could easily avoid the wine bottle that was flying toward him. He moved toward Nathan and kicked him. "Ah"

Nathan staggered backward and fell onto the dining table. "You... b*stard! Who the h*ll are you! Tell me your name!" Nathan was mad. He almost had his hands on Korah, but suddenly, someone showed up and ruined his plan. "I'm just a staff in Gardner Corporation."

After he finished speaking, Cyrus walked toward Nathan. How could an alcoholic and lustful person like Nathan be a match for him?

Bang!

Cyrus pressed Nathan's head hard on the table. Nathan's face almost got disfigured and stained with blood.

"Ah..."

Nathan kept screaming. "Gardner Corporation... I won't let you go!" "From now on, don't ever think of passing the quality control of any project!" "You're also doomed. I must let you die miserably!" Cyrus narrowed his eyes. If Korah did not come for tonight's meeting, he would have killed Nathan.

But if he killed Nathan now, Korah would be investigated. So, he could only get rid of Nathan after he returned home.

Pow! Pow!

Cyrus punched Nathan a few times and left an aura on his body. Nathan soon passed out from the pain.

"The four of you! Come in." Cyrus shouted at the door, and Korah's bodyguards walked in. These four bodyguards were skilled, but Nathan's men were much stronger. All the bodyguards had wounds on their faces, but they were staring at Cyrus in awe. "Don't tell her that I saved her. Also, don't tell her that I was here. The credit goes to all of you. Do you understand?" The leader of the bodyguards was stunned. He did not understand why Cyrus was doing this, but he was grateful to Cyrus. He replied seriously, "Understood!"

"Bring her into the car and send her home." When the leader heard this, he said, "Uhm... Sir, we do not dare to touch Ms. Gardner..."

Cyrus was speechless. He walked over helplessly, carried Korah into the car, and left. The leader looked at Cyrus and mumbled, "Someone as powerful as him exists... We have too little experience!"

In Room 2101 of Ember Hotel... Zedekiah and Redmond were chatting with a middle-aged man in his forties. "Mr. Penn and Redmond, this young man must be a special person because both of you praised him highly. I can't wait to see him."

Zedekiah smiled and said, "This young man is a nice person. He is currently working in Gardner Corporation. You're the person in charge of the project quality control in Fliton City. So, he should be dealing with your department quite frequently." The middle-aged man was Edmund Cartmill. All the personnel in charge of the project quality control in Fliton City were his subordinates.

Chapter 27

And this was the person Zedekiah wanted to introduce to Cyrus. Edmund smiled. "That's great. I should get to know such a talented man!" For Edmund, having a meal with Zedekiah and Redmond was like a pathway to success provided by God. Plus, if the news of him having a meal with Zedekiah and Redmond made its way into media reports, his status would improve greatly. And this was possible because of the young man named Cyrus, who worked for Gardner Corporation.

Edmund could tell that Zedekiah cared a lot about Cyrus.

Cyrus, who got treated well by Zedekiah, must have a unique background. Edmund wanted to grab this opportunity to get to know him!

Edmund knew that he needed to build a good relationship with Cyrus. Zedekiah smiled and looked at Redmond. "Could you give Cyrus a call to see if he is on his way? If not, you can go and pick him up." Redmond nodded. "Okay." He immediately called Cyrus. Edmund was shocked when he heard that Zedekiah was asking Redmond to go and pick Cyrus up.

Who is Cyrus...? And where did he come from?

On the other side, Cyrus received a call from Zedekiah.

Then, he took a lift to Room 2101. "Mr. Penn." After entering the room, Cyrus saw three people sitting there. He greeted Zedekiah first when he entered. When Zedekiah saw Cyrus, he smiled and said, "We've been waiting for you. Come over and take a seat." Cyrus walked over and sat beside Redmond. Zedekiah asked, "Have you fulfilled your obligations?"

"I need a little bit more time. But I can do it after the meal." Zedekiah smiled and said, "What are you busy with? Just let me know if you need my help." Cyrus smiled and said, "I don't want to bother you for simple things like this."

Cyrus felt that it was not worth owing Zedekiah a favor because of an insignificant person like Nathan. When Zedekiah heard what Cyrus said, he did not press the issue. He introduced Edmund who was standing beside him. "Cyrus, this is Mr. Cartmill. Isn't Gardner Corporation in charge of some projects? Everyone who performs quality control checks is his subordinate." Cyrus was stunned. Quality control... In that case, Nathan, who schemed against Korah, was Edmund's subordinate?

Edmund did not dare to boast about himself. He stood up carefully and said politely, "Mr. Salazar, I am Edmund Cartmill. If you have any problems regarding project quality control, you can just look for me! I'll do my best to assist you!" "Do you know Nathan Zuniga?" Cyrus asked. "Nathan Zuniga..." Edmund was startled. "Does Cyrus know Nathan? That's great!" "Of course, I know him! He is one of my subordinates!"

Cyrus nodded and his expression turned cold. He felt that subordinates would reflect the character of their leader.

Since Nathan was a despicable person, Edmund was likely not much better than him. When Edmund saw that Cyrus' expression was a little gloomy and that he was giving him the cold shoulder, he became more aware and scared. D*mn it! By looking at Cyrus' expression, Edmund wondered if Nathan, that useless man, had offended Cyrus. Edmund's face became paler. If Nathan did some foolish things, even if he had a meal with Zedekiah, he would not have a chance to achieve greater success... Instead, it would be a h*ll-like catastrophe for him!

Zedekiah and Redmond had noticed Cyrus' indifferent attitude toward Edmund. But they did not say anything about it. "Cyrus, just order anything you want!" Zedekiah was treating Cyrus like his junior. Edmund became more worried when he saw this! At this moment, Edmund felt that he was on pins and needles. He wanted to end this meal desperately and asked Cyrus what kind of foolish things Nathan had done!

Chapter 28 Hiss!

Nathan woke up after being called by his men. His wounds had been cleaned and dressed by his subordinates. "Get lost! You guys are useless!" Nathan kicked away the subordinates who were beside him. He was furious when he thought about what had just happened. "He can fight, right? I want to see how well he can fight!" Nathan's expression was ferocious. He took out his phone and made a phone call. "Bring thirty men over and wait for me at the basement parking lot of Ember Hotel!" After he hung up, he could feel the pain in his back and face. He vented his anger by throwing things. 'Bloody h*11! That man ruined my plan! I won't forgive him!' He only got angrier as he thought about it. Then, he called his colleagues. "George, I remember that you had performed a quality check on the Gardner Corporation project, right? Tell me some flaws you found!" "Julius, aren't you in charge of one of the projects of Gardner Corporation? Get me some negative news about this project!" Nathan waited in silence. After making a few calls, Nathan's expression darkened. "Son of ab*tch, I will make you kneel in front of me!" "Scumbag, I want to see how many quality check crises the Gardner Corporation can handle!"

In Room 2101...

Redmond and Cyrus kept clinking their glasses. They were toasting with tea instead of wine. Cyrus also found out that Redmond was treating him with a much more obliging attitude. Cyrus thought about it and felt that it was likely because of Eos. Zedekiah and Redmond were truly cunning people. They were trying to test Cyrus without making their intentions clear. At first, Cyrus thought that Eos had come over to celebrate Zedekiah's birthday. After the meal, Cyrus, Zedekiah, and the others went to the basement parking lot. "Cyrus, I still need to attend a meeting tomorrow. So, I need to rush back to Wyndham City tonight."

"Cyrus, if you come to Wyndham City, don't forget to come and visit me." Cyrus nodded. "Okay, I will."

Zedekiah nodded happily and got into the car. Meanwhile, Redmond said, "If there is anything you need me to settle, just call me." Then, Redmond got into the driver's seat and left with Zedekiah. When Cyrus was about to leave, Edmund immediately asked, "Mr. Salazar, did you drive here?" "No. I will go out and hail a taxi." When Edmund heard that, he quickly spoke up. "I can give you a ride! I was hoping to ask you something. We can talk about it along the way!" "Alright then." Cyrus nodded and agreed.

He also wanted to ask Edmund about Nathan. Edmund was relieved when Cyrus accepted his offer. Then, he was excited and said, "Mr. Salazar, please give me a moment. I want to go to the bathroom!" He previously did not have the urge to pee because he was too nervous. However, now that he was at ease, he could not hold his pee any longer.

Cyrus waited for Edmund at the same place. After two minutes, there was a loud sound. In the next second, someone shouted angrily. "D*mn! It's you!"

Cyrus, who was waiting for Edmund, looked in Nathan's direction. It was Nathan Zuniga! But, there were tens of people beside Nathan, and they did not look like good people. "Nathan, is this the man you want us to get rid of?" A young man with scraggly hair who was standing beside Nathan asked rudely. "Yes! It was this son of a b*tch!" Nathan gritted his teeth and looked at Cyrus. "What the h*ll are you still doing here! Go and kill him!" At this moment, a loud noise rang out.

Chapter 29 "Stop it!"

Edmund immediately finished peeing and ran toward Cyrus. He had decided to keep a good relationship with Cyrus no matter the cost! But when he returned, Edmund saw Nathan ordering his men to attack Cyrus. He was startled when he saw what Nathan was trying to do.

"Nathan Zuniga! You, useless man! What are you trying to do to Mr. Salazar?!" Nathan felt a chill run down his spine. When he turned around, he saw Edmund. He stammered, "Mr... Cartmill..." The gangsters around him also stopped moving.

Edmund wore a gloomy expression. He stared at Nathan and was furious.

Bang! Edmund raised his palm and slapped Nathan hard. Nathan's face was already injured. This slap made him feel even more pain, causing his body to tremble vigorously. "Mr. Zuniga! You're very cool, huh?! You're even more impressive than me now!" Nathan trembled and said, "No..." Edmund glared at those gangsters fiercely, "Don't you know how to leave?" These people understood that they could not offend a person that Nathan was also scared of. So, they left immediately. Edmund took a deep breath. He wondered what would have happened to Cyrus if he came a little later. And if someone informed Zedekiah about this and he came back, Edmund would probably lose his life.

Edmund got even angrier when he thought about this! He immediately kicked Nathan to the floor. "Mr. Salazar, how did this b*stard offend you? Please tell me. I can handle it for you." Cyrus said airily, "He tried to drug Ms. Gardner and assault her sexually. He even wanted to take a video of it. Mr. Cartmill, how would you settle this matter?" Swish!

Edmund's expression changed significantly. He had not expected that at all. How could Nathan do such a despicable thing!

And Nathan was his subordinate! Mr. Salazar gave him the cold shoulder because of what Nathan had done. "Mr. Salazar, please rest assured. I will give a satisfying reply about this matter!" Edmund promised Cyrus. At this time, he needed to declare his position and keep his good image in front of Cyrus. Otherwise, everything would be over! Cyrus nodded faintly. "In that case, I'll leave this matter to you."

Cyrus felt that this was a better option. Although he could get rid of Nathan without anyone knowing, Korah would still be involved. At this time, Nathan was utterly stunned. He wondered why Edmund treated Cyrus so politely.

Unless Cyrus was an important person? "You can handle him. I'll head home on my own." "I can give you a ride!" "It's okay."

Edmund did not insist on sending Cyrus home. He was worried that Cyrus might get annoyed. "Ah, by the way, I heard that he had a complicated relationship with Haco Corporation. Mr. Cartmill, you should pay more attention to that." Edmund's expression changed, and he said with a deep voice, "Please rest assured, Mr. Salazar!"

After Cyrus left, Nathan said in a scared tone, "Mr. Cartmill..." Edmund was agitated. He turned back and looked at him. Then, he slapped Nathan. "Trash! You almost got me into huge trouble!" Nathan did not dare to offend Edmund. He endured the pain, gritted his teeth, and said, "Mr. Cartmill, Cyrus only had Gardner Corporation supporting him. But Mr. Robinson was scarier than Gardner Corporation!" "You don't have to..."

Edmund did not want to bother with this fool anymore. "Haco Robinson? He is nothing compared to Mr. Salazar!" When Nathan heard that, he stared at Edmund with an incredulous expression. Edmund did not even want to waste his time talking with Nathan. He said sternly, "You're fired, effective immediately!"

Chapter 30

It was about 9 p.m. when Korah woke up. She sat up scared, looked around, and realized that she was home. What happened? Was she not at Ember Hotel? Why was she back? Delilah walked into the room. When she saw that Korah was finally awake, she worriedly, "Korah, how do you feel?" "Mom..." Korah calmed herself down and shook her head. "I'm fine... Why am I home now?" "Four bodyguards brought you home. It was too dangerous. You almost fell into the trap. If it weren't for them... I'm not sure what would have happened to you." When Mrs. Gardner remembered seeing the four bodyguards carry an unconscious Korah in, she was terrified! Korah sighed in relief. "I'm so grateful for them. If not for them, I would be..." Korah was also scared of what had almost happened. Nathan Zuniga was a b*stard! "Don't worry. Your dad has rewarded those four bodyguards. Remember to say thank you to them when you're back at the office tomorrow." "I will." Korah nodded. Korah was impressed that the four bodyguards were so strong. She had specially recruited them at a high price! Before Korah became unconscious, she saw that Nathan's men were overpowering her bodyguards. She thought everything was over. "Mom, I'm a little hungry..." "I'll make you some spaghetti." Mrs. Gardner immediately went downstairs. After a while, Korah also went downstairs. Cyrus also came back at this time. Korah frowned a little. She wanted to find a reason to scold Cyrus. But she felt a little embarrassed when she remembered that Cyrus had given her advice after she got off work. Then, she huffed, changed the topic of conversation, and said, "Don't be late tomorrow. Otherwise, I will cut your pay." Cyrus nodded. Delilah came out from the kitchen and gently asked, "Cyrie, you're back. Are you hungry? Do you want to have some spaghetti?" "No, thank you, Mrs. Gardner." "Why are you still calling me Mrs. Gardner? You should change how you address me!"

Korah's expression changed slightly and she interrupted. "Mom, where is the fresh beef? I wanted to add some to my spaghetti!"

"In the fridge..." Cyrus laughed out loud and immediately asked, "Where is Mr. Gardner?" Delilah answered, "They had an emergency to attend to at the company, so they went out." "Okay... Then, I will take a bath and head to bed."

Korah froze a little. She certainly knew that Cyrus purposely said that in front of her. When he saw that Korah was not protesting, Cyrus immediately went upstairs. The next day, Cyrus realized that the atmosphere in the car was dreary. "Dad... I'm sorry." In the passenger seat, Korah looked a little depressed. Wade sighed. "It's not your fault. We did not expect Nathan to act so boldly. He is so despicable

Cyrus frowned gently. He could not help but ask, "Did anything happen to the company?" Wade ignored Cyrus' question. Korah replied agitatedly, "You make it sound like you don't know!"

"It has nothing to do with you. Stop asking!" Cyrus frowned and did not understand. Was Edmund fooling him? Had Edmund not settled Nathan?

If that was true... Cyrus' gaze instantly became ruthless! At Team Four's office in the Project Department... "Cyrus!" Ekialde smiled and greeted him. He had returned to work. Cyrus nodded. "Are you feeling better?"
