

THE POWER OF THE FIRST DAUGHTER, DOCTOR AND CONCUBINE DOMINATES THE WORLD

See Chapter 20

Listen to the strings and know the elegance.

The queen's eyes lit up suddenly, but she also had some worries. If she couldn't find that person, she would be in danger all the time, and couldn't even fall asleep.

Xie Zhiwei naturally understood what the queen was thinking. She glanced at a pot of orchids by the window, and asked seemingly unintentionally, "Does the empress like orchids very much?"

The queen was taken aback for a moment, she saw that Xie Zhiwei looked at the orchid with some deep meaning in her eyes, and said, "My boudoir name has the word 'lan' in it, and I have a relationship with orchid, and I have liked growing orchids since I was a child."

Xie Zhiwei has also heard that there is a Zhuangzi in the suburbs of Beijing in Wu'an Houfu. There is a flower farmer known as the "Orchid King" in the Zhuangzi. He has bred many orchid varieties, one of which is called Phalaenopsis, which blooms like an orchid. A butterfly that only spreads its wings to fly, and the flowers bloom in many colors.

In the previous life, Xie Zhiwei had the honor to meet him once, she was very beautiful and elegant.

Beside the window is a pot of autumn bills, with beautiful flowers and a quiet fragrance, which makes people have a long aftertaste.

"My lady, all flowers smell good, some are poisonous, some are not poisonous, but some non-poisonous flower fragrances may become poisonous once they are combined with other scents. The empress is less than three months pregnant now, and everything is still in place. Take care first. You must be extremely careful when wearing incense and eating, and the minister thinks that some things that can be saved should be saved for the time being."

What Xie Zhiwei said, the empress would naturally not ignore it. She once secretly asked Xu Yi to take her pulse. In the beginning, Xu Yi did not detect any abnormality. It was not until she told Xu Yi what Xie Zhiwei said, and Xu Yi checked the pulse again. After being shocked, he said to her, "I heard that the Cui family's pulse and acupuncture techniques are extraordinary, and today I have finally seen it."

In this way, what else can the queen not believe?

Although Xie Zhiwei is a little younger, in ancient times, there were Gan Luo who worshiped his prime minister at the age of nine, Wen Ji who debated strings at the age of six, and Jun Meng Chang who taught his father at the age of five. The queen didn't think that it was a young child with excellent medical skills. The Xie family and the Cui family had been a family for more than a hundred years and had a profound heritage. Only such a stunning and beautiful eldest daughter could be justified.

Nurse Xi hurried over and blessed her body, "Mother, this pot of orchids is full of sunshine, and the slaves move out to bask in the sun?"

The empress nodded, Xie Zhiwei knew that this pot of orchids might not come back after moving out, she said hastily, "Empress, I wonder if my daughter is lucky enough to be rewarded by your mother for this pot of orchids?"

The empress liked Xie Zhiwei's intelligence very much, and she was courteous everywhere, she smiled, "Since you like it, just take it with you when you go back."

Xie Zhiwei bent down and saluted, "I thank the empress for the reward, my daughter."

The queen was a little bit sorry, "Wei girl, you saved my life, and the dragon child in my stomach was also saved because of you. I should have rewarded you heavily, but right now, the time has not come yet, so you won't blame me. This palace, right?"

Xie Zhiwei has a big conspiracy, so he naturally knows that if she gets a big reward from the queen at this time, it is not a good thing if people know that she has excellent medical skills and become a thorn in the side. The queen's heavy reward was not what she wanted originally, and she also knew that if the reward was delayed, the more she would get in the future.

"Empress Empress, by the time of the winter solstice, Empress Empress will be three months pregnant."

The queen took a deep breath, nodded and said, "Yes, it will be three months at that time. On the winter solstice, I will call you into the palace again."

At this time, a palace maid outside the door was asking, "Empress, Your Highness asked Miss Xie if she changed her dress?"

"Empress, it is estimated that the second younger sister of the court lady is worried, and the court lady has to leave first."

It is indeed not suitable for her to stay forever. This palace, even the Fengzhi Palace, is not like an iron bucket.

"Go, today's affairs must not be said a word to the outside world." The queen is still a queen, fierce and majestic as a mountain.

When Xie Zhiwei came to Chengrui Pavilion with Xie Zhiwei, the eldest princess and Xie Zhihui were no longer here, and Xie Zhiwei knew that the queen could not leave Xie Zhiwei and said, "Xi mother, you go to work first, Aunt Muxiang will lead me." It's the same as going to find the eldest princess."

Mu Xiang is also a palace man who is close to the princess.

"You take good care of Miss Xie, you must not neglect it, you know?" Nanny Xi beat the wood incense a bit before leaving worriedly.

Xie Zhiwei is not worried at all, she has lived in the palace for more than ten years, and she is very familiar with the palace.

The two of them walked downstream along the small lake, wearing flowers and brushing leaves, and just passed a camellia flower garden, when they saw Xiao Changxuan approaching with his hands behind his back. White jade to bring, on the left is a white jade fish lotus scarf and ring, on the right is a white jade engraved purse-style sachet, powder-soled soap boots, matched with his already handsome face, and his whole body is indescribably romantic. Elegant.

In the previous life, Xiao Changxuan invited the emperor to give her a marriage. When she didn't know it, she became Xiao Changxuan's fiancée with a letter of edict. All the women in the capital do not envy her, they all say that the Fourth Prince caught her eye and begged her personally.

And he has also become the beloved man in her boudoir. He originally thought that even if the husband and wife raised the case as equals, he would respect her as his first wife. It wasn't until Xue Wanqing climbed into bed that she knew that before they got married, he had already promised Xue Wanqing the promise of being a mother.

Looking at Xie Zhiwei's eyes that were gradually deepening, Xiao Changxuan found it interesting. In his memory, this was the second time he saw Miss Xie, and the way she looked at him was really special.

"Thank you, Miss!"

Xie Zhiwei was like waking up from a dream. She was startled, took a deep breath, and suppressed the churning emotions in her chest bit by bit. She kept telling herself, be sure to hold on, hold on, don't act rashly, and slowly bend your knees, saluted Xiao Changxuan as usual, "See Your Highness the Fourth Prince!"

Mu Xiang saluted behind Xie Zhiwei.

"Free gift!"

Xiao Changxuan held the ring pendant by his side, twirling his thumb and index finger gently, and looked at Xie Zhiwei with interest, "Miss Xie, have you and I met before?"

"Never!" Xie Zhiwei said.

"Oh, you and I have met twice today. I saw that you looked at me differently from others, and thought you and I were old acquaintances!"

Xie Zhiwei's heart skipped a beat, she almost jumped out of her chest, she knew that Xiao Changxuan was never a fool, he was very sharp, and the city was as deep as the sea, so it was not easy to be fooled.

Xie Zhiwei raised her head and smiled at Xiao Changxuan. At that time, she was only a ten-year-old girl. Even if she behaved a little out of line, it was not wrong. She just said innocently, "Before the minister enters the palace, listen to the younger brothers in the mansion. It is said that the names of the four princes were selected in the capital, and the four princes are said to be outstanding in appearance, so the courtiers will inevitably take a second look, and if it is impolite, I will also look at the four princes Haihan!"
