

THE POWER OF THE FIRST DAUGHTER, DOCTOR AND CONCUBINE DOMINATES THE WORLD

Chapter 7 Another Eye

The temple sent a table of vegetarian meals, vegetarian roast goose, goose skin, citron tofu, Luo Hanzhai, vinegared mandarin fish, roasted pigeon eggs, stewed sea cucumber...not to mention extremely rich, all of them are the signature vegetarian banquet of Famen Temple, the signature dish that will appear.

"Mother, this is Master Yizhichun's handicraft." Xie Zhiwei was so greedy that he drooled after just smelling it.

"Miss guessed it right, this is the vegetarian banquet made by Master Yizhichun from Famen Temple himself." Nanny Yu smiled from the side, "It was delivered by the Empress herself, and said it was for the eldest girl eat."

"Mother, Master Yizhichun once said, 'As long as there are some meat dishes, you can make vegetarian dishes with the same taste'. He has studied vegetarian food all his life, traveled all over the world to learn art, and only when he was old, he placed orders at Famen Temple. Yishou Vegetarian Banquet is well-known in the north and south, and now he is almost 80 years old, and his apprentice cooks the dishes on weekdays. Unexpectedly, I can still eat a vegetarian dish made by Master Yizhichun in this life.'"

No one will believe it if it is said.

However, it must be that Famen Temple wanted to curry favor with the empress, and she followed suit.

"How old are you, and you still have to spend your whole life." Yuan Shi thought it was funny, her stepdaughter is really powerful, since she has a relationship with the empress, she is not afraid that the old lady will not back down and compromise.

She is not in a hurry now. Living in Famen Temple, it is a good thing to be so close to the empress.

The mother and daughter sat at the table and ate a fast meal happily. Because Xie Zhiwei was tired today, she went to bed after washing up early.

The eldest princess managed to spend the night outside the palace, and she was going to come to play with Xie Zhiwei. Unexpectedly, the palace people said that the lights in Xie Zhiwei's yard had been turned off.

Early the next morning, the eldest princess came to find Xie Zhiwei, and the two had breakfast together. Xie Zhiwei went to take the empress's pulse again, and administered an injection.

There are overlapping layers of osmanthus flowers all over the mountain, including golden osmanthus, silver osmanthus and osmanthus osmanthus, each with its own characteristics and rich aroma.

"Sister Wei, I recognize you as my younger sister today. If you have any embarrassing things in the future, you must tell me. I am the princess of Dayong, and my people are not allowed to be bullied." The eldest princess stared at Xie Zhiwei, It would be best for her to say right now that her step-grandmother and step-mother are bullying her, so that she can openly ask her mother to admonish them.

Of course, Xie Zhiwei could feel the kindness and closeness of the eldest princess, she smiled, "Your Highness, you have to rely on yourself to live your life, and my daughter can be close to her highness, and I am honored to serve the empress. Naturally, they will weigh three points. But the empress and His Highness cannot protect the courtiers all the time, after all, the courtiers must stand up by themselves so that they will not be bullied." freewebovel.com

The eldest princess thought a little bit. Last night, the queen mother said the same thing to her. She also felt that the queen mother is really stingy. Sister Wei saved the lives of the queen mother and younger brother. Why can't the queen mother protect sister Wei more?

But now, she felt that what sister Wei said was really reasonable.

"You mean, you want to find a place for yourself?"

Xie Zhiwei was surprised, shouldn't Her Royal Highness live in a deep palace? Where did she learn this quack talk?

"Oh, don't care who I listened to, anyway, tell me what you plan to do?"

"His Royal Highness is really insightful. No matter who bullied the court lady, the court lady wants to return it by herself. However, if the court lady can't deal with it, she will definitely ask His Highness for help."

"Since that's the case, why do you still have a courtier?"

"Yes, Sister Yuan Jia!" Xie Zhi said with a smile.

She was born pink and jade-carved, the baby fat on her cheeks has not faded away, her pair of watery peach blossom eyes are like autumn water in the clear sky, her cherry lips are unstained and vermilion, and her head is paired with ruby ??beads, very cute .

In the previous life, in the future, she will also be beautiful and beautiful.

The eldest princess was very happy and couldn't help but rubbed her head, "So good!"

In a flash, three days passed.

The empress cannot stay in the temple for a long time, she is in a hurry to return to the palace.

After Xie Zhiwei performed acupuncture for the queen again, she raised her hand to wipe the sweat from her forehead. After all, she was young, and she had to pull out the poison from the queen's body in the shortest possible time. It really took a lot of effort. freewebnovel.com

"Okay!" Xie Zhiwei put away the needle, "Your Majesty's body is fine, and 70% to 80% of the poison in her body has been pulled out. After returning to the palace, you only need to take the medicine twice a day according to the prescription prescribed by the minister. , half a month later, the courtier will enter the palace once, to feel the pulse of the empress, and then see if it is necessary to take medicine according to the situation?"

The eldest princess was so worried, "Sister Wei, can't you enter the palace with me? I'm worried that something will happen to the queen mother."

"Sister Yuanjia, don't worry, your mother has a strong body, as long as you don't bump into it, or eat the wrong food, you will be fine."

"Okay, Yuan Jia, the empress is fine, the empress just caught a cold by accident, and she will be fine after taking two doses of medicine." The empress said to Xie Zhiwei kindly, "Wei girl, I still have to trouble you to enter the palace tomorrow. Gong wants to know how this poison got into my body."

Xie Zhiwei lowered her eyes, and she knew that the empress had no children, and she was able to secure her position in the middle palace not only because of her natal family's power. It seems that the empress did not intend to let the palace know that she was pregnant, so I don't know, who is the empress planning to plot against?

Xie Zhiwei's eyes flashed a dark light, this is a good opportunity, but it is not easy to plan well.

"Empress, I also want to enter the palace to play with Sister Yuanjia tomorrow. I heard that the palace is very fun."

The queen was very satisfied, "Wei girl, you don't need to hand over the sign when you enter the palace tomorrow. I will ask Nanny Xi to pick you up. I will leave for the palace in the afternoon, so you can go with me!"

"Yes, thank you, Empress Dowager!" Xie Zhiwei saluted with blessings, which was not bad at all.

Early in the morning, Feng received the news that the empress was going back to the palace and asked Yuan and Xie Zhiwei to accompany her back to the city. She couldn't sit still anymore and got up quickly, "Prepare the car, I will pick up her mother and daughter in person." Go back home."

She really didn't expect that Xie Zhiwei would have the ability to make the Empress treat her differently.

Feng Shi walked out while giving orders.

She must arrive before the empress leaves the temple, seize the opportunity, and go to say hello to the empress.

Mrs. Feng took Nanny Yu out of the yard quickly, and then, the carriage sped up all the way, and arrived in front of the mountain gate of Famen Temple before the Empress' Luan drove away.

From a distance, Mrs. Feng could see that the queen came out in a chariot, Xie Zhiwei was talking and laughing with the eldest princess, and Mrs. Yuan walked quietly beside her, smiling at Xie Zhi from time to time, with a motherly look on her face.

Feng's heart was extremely complicated, she was about to go up to meet her, but before she moved, a round-faced * came over and stopped her, "Everyone else, stay out of the way!"

The queen didn't even look this way.

After the queen got off the chariot, she got on the Luan carriage. After Xie Zhiwei said a few words to the eldest princess, the princess also got on the carriage with her skirt in her hand. Before she left, she glanced at Feng Shi and didn't let Mrs. Feng come forward to say hello.

"Empress, elder sister Yuan Jia, go slowly!" Xie Zhiwei took two steps back, the little girl's voice was clear and clear, like a yellow warbler coming out of the valley.

The car rumbled away.

Feng could only watch the car drive away, she couldn't help taking a deep breath, suppressing the anger in her heart, and walked towards Yuan's mother and daughter.
