

Fake Marriage 1001

Chapter 1001: You Can't Even Die Without Regrets (2)

"Hubby, I feel that these people were coming for me, but... I couldn't have offended them. Someone who could make others come and kill me like this..." Mu Huan said as she lay in his embrace.

"It's not someone you've offended."

When Mu Huan heard this, she knew who the other party was. She immediately looked up and asked, "Who is it? Could it be that they're here for Long Feiting?"

"No, they're coming for me, and you're my wife." Bo Junyan had been ambushed on his way home. He had called Mu Huan to tell her that he would be back later, but he couldn't get through. Feeling that something was amiss, he broke out of the encirclement and came over to find Mu Huan. Fortunately...

He wasn't late.

"Hubby, your enemy?" No wonder those people were so lethal.

"Yes."

Mu Huan was about to say something when she suddenly felt that something was amiss with the place she was grabbing. She touched it carefully, and after confirming what it was, she exclaimed, "Hubby, you're injured!"

His arm was injured, but he was still carrying her!

"It's nothing. It's just a small injury. It's not a big deal." The people who had ambushed Bo Junyan numbered several times more than those who came for Mu Huan. He had fought his way out of the encirclement and ran over to save Mu Huan. It was just a small injury on his arm. Compared to those who had fallen, it was really not a big deal.

"No! No, quickly put me down!" Mu Huan struggled to get down.

Seeing this, Bo Junyan could only put her down.

The moment she got into the car, Mu Huan could not wait to pull Bo Junyan's arm over to look at his injury. When she saw that the blood had dyed his thick coat red, her eyes instantly reddened.

"Hubby, who are they? I'll kill them all!" If they could suddenly ambush them, then Mu Huan could also ambush them and poison them to death!

Previously, Mu Huan had said this when she saw that Bo Junyan was injured. At that time, Gong Zeye and the rest felt that Mu Huan was only saying it in a fit of anger. She was so petite and weak that she could not do anything.

But now, they knew that she wasn't saying those words out of anger. She might really be able to do it!

After all, she was still alive even though she was suddenly ambushed and those people were all top-notch killers with weapons.

“I’m fine. Don’t worry.” Bo Junyan reached out and caressed her head. He lowered his head and kissed her again. He didn’t like to see her so worried that she was about to cry.

When Long Feilei saw that his little brother was seriously injured and still had to see the two of them being so loving, he couldn’t help but say, “Mu Huan, the one you should be concerned about is over here. If you want to care for someone, you should also care about him and worry about him, alright?!”

Long Feiting: “...”

Bo Junyan: “...”

Mu Huan: “...”

“This time, my little brother saved your life!” Long Feilei snorted.

Last time, that wasn’t the case. This time, it was!

Mu Huan: “...”

Indeed.

But how should she care for him...

“Come over quickly and let Feiting hold your hand. This way, he’ll definitely have a stronger desire to live!” Long Feilei beckoned Mu Huan over.

Mu Huan: “...”

Bo Junyan’s expression darkened.

“Uncle Bo, don’t be angry. If it weren’t for my Feiting, Mu Huan might have died long ago. How can you still be like this? You can even get a hug and a kiss!” Long Feilei was deliberately provoking Bo Junyan.

Who asked the two of them to be so loving? Didn’t they know that there was someone with a serious injury here?!

Bo Junyan: “...”

If not for this, Long Feiting would have been well on his way already.

“Brother, don’t be like this...” Long Feiting, who was about to say something, suddenly fainted.

Chapter 1002: Bad Humanity (1)

This made everyone surround Long Feiting.

After Bo Junyan had checked his condition, he said, “He only fainted from blood loss. He won’t die.”

“Uncle Bo, from your words, it’s as if you’re looking forward to my younger brother’s death!”

“Yes.” He actually wanted his wife to kiss him!

Long Feilei: “...!!”

At the hospital...

Although Long Feiting's life was not in danger, because he had taken the bullet for her, Mu Huan had to watch him wake up before she could feel at ease.

Furthermore, Bo Junyan's injuries needed treatment.

"You can't indulge him too much just because he saved your life," Bo Junyan said.

In terms of the defense between men and women, his wife had done a good job. However, she was a person who valued friendship and loyalty. This life-saving grace was also the most important.

Even he couldn't do anything to Long Feiting. No matter how unhappy he was, he could only tolerate him, let alone his wife.

"Hubby, don't worry. I know that in my heart, there will always be only you, Hubby, You're the only one in my eyes!" Mu Huan was very clear about such matters of the heart. Whatever else happened, this was the case. No matter how great the favor was, she would not use love to repay it.

Besides, she had saved Long Feiting a few times. At most, she would be more forgiving toward him in the future.

It was absolutely impossible for her to repay him with her life.

"Be good..." Bo Junyan lowered his head in satisfaction and kissed her.

"By the way, Hubby, what kind of enemy is this? Why did they send so many people here?" To dare to ambush them so openly, the other party was really arrogant. His background must not be something to laugh at.

"Don't worry about this. It just so happens that it's the holidays. You can stay at home and play games for a while. By then, the matter will have been resolved." Bo Junyan didn't want her to be too worried because this matter was rather tricky.

"Hubby, I'm not a child. I can't just play games during the holidays. What can I do for you?!" There were so many people attacking him. Furthermore, she had heard Gong Zeye calling someone outside just now, saying that there were more people attacking her husband. They were so arrogant and aggressive. Furthermore, he had been asking her to play games at home for a while. This implied that if she went out, she too would be in danger. For this period of time, she had to stay home.

This meant that he was in a dangerous situation.

How could she ignore everything and play games at home?

Bo Junyan was about to say something.

"Hubby, I want to fight alongside you and not hide in your embrace as a little cutie. Also, it's better for me to know about some dangers. This way, I'll be prepared and won't be caught off guard. I'm not a weak person in my heart. I can withstand anything. I'll be fine!" What Mu Huan had always wanted was to stand with him. No matter what happened, no matter what wind and snow came their way, they would fight side by side. She wouldn't be like a little flower in a greenhouse that could only be carefully protected by him.

Even though Bo Junyan knew that Mu Huan was very good at fighting, he still habitually treated her as a little cutie. He had to protect her well and not let her see the evil, bloody, and terrifying things in this world. It was only at this moment that he realized that she didn't need him to hide and protect her like a little cutie. She was still his little cutie. It was just that she was very strong, very brave, and very capable.

After regaining his senses, he smiled and carried her onto his lap. "The enemy this time..."

No matter if she was a weak and gentle little cutie or a brave and capable little cutie, he loved her.

At Yun University.

"CEO Ling, CEO Bo has minor injuries. Mu Huan is fine. The one with the most serious injuries is Long Feiting."

Chapter 1003: Evil Humanity (2)

"Not only is Mu Huan not dead, but she's also not injured?" Ling Wei put down the pen in her hand.

"Yes."

"She's really capable."

"She shouldn't be that capable. I heard that it was Long Feiting who saved her," the assistant said.

When she heard this, a scheming look flashed across Ling Wei's eyes. "Go confirm it."

"Yes."

Long Feiting woke up the next afternoon.

He opened his eyes and searched for Mu Huan. When he saw Mu Huan, he also saw Bo Junyan hugging her.

Instantly, he felt a little stifled.

It would have been better if he'd died last night.

It would probably have been the happiest way for him to die while holding her hand.

Seeing this, Long Feilei looked at Bo Junyan and said, "Uncle Bo, I have something to talk to you about."

He knew that he shouldn't support a one-sided love like his younger brother's.

However, now that he was injured, it was better to comfort him a little.

"I have nothing to discuss with you," Bo Junyan said.

Long Feilei: "...!!"

This Bo Junyan!

If it weren't for the fact that he was stronger than the Long family, he would have killed him!

In that case, shouldn't he take this opportunity to join forces with others to destroy Bo Junyan so that his younger brother could have a chance to rise up?

Those who could stand tall in the business world and achieve a certain status all had their own special information channels. The Long family's business was huge to begin with, and the four sons of the Old Master of the Long family were all capable. Over the years, the Long family had expanded several times, so they had more information channels and were more accurate.

He knew that because Bo Junyan had interfered with someone else's source of income and benefits, he had been jointly dealt with.

Furthermore, the other party's backgrounds were all very big. Otherwise, they couldn't have sent someone to ambush them so openly.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that this was possible.

He looked at Bo Junyan and snorted inwardly. If you continue to be so arrogant and annoying, don't blame me for adding insult to injury!

After Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had asked about Long Feiting, they left.

Long Feilei looked at his little brother.

"Do you want to kill Bo Junyan?" If his little brother wanted to, he would take a risk and cooperate with others to kill Bo Junyan!

Although Long Feilei had made up his mind at the last minute, the more he thought about it, the more he felt that this was a good idea. This was because he knew that his younger brother was stubborn. All these years, he had been thinking about Little Star. Back when he didn't know that Mu Huan was Little Star, he had already fallen in love with her, let alone when he found out about it. That attachment was really uncontrollable.

Unless one could get over such feelings, it was very difficult to walk out of it.

It would have been fine if Mu Huan had married someone else, but it had to be Bo Junyan. No matter what, Bo Junyan was outstanding and difficult to surpass. His little brother was waiting for Mu Huan to break up with Bo Junyan, but there was no chance. Hence, it was only possible to kill Bo Junyan.

Long Feiting frowned. "Brother, what do you mean?"

"Don't ask me what I mean. You just have to tell me if you want Bo Junyan to die." Long Feilei suddenly felt that he shouldn't have asked his younger brother so impulsively. Although his younger brother was arrogant and despotic, he was kind and not ruthless. It probably wouldn't work if he told him about this.

Indeed...

"Brother, what are you trying to do to Bo Junyan?" Long Feiting was only a foolish son of the landowner in front of Mu Huan, but he was usually very smart.

Even if Long Feilei only asked this, he could guess what his brother wanted to do.

“Isn’t it good to do something to him?” Long Feilei had already said these words. If he couldn’t hide it, he wouldn’t hide it anymore. He tried to convince Long Feiting.

Chapter 1004: Evil Humanity (3)

“Do you even have a chance, Brother?” Long Feiting narrowed his eyes.

“Yes.”

Long Feiting: “...”

Did his brother want to work with the people who were dealing with Bo Junyan?

“This is a good opportunity. Opportunities cannot be missed.” The business world was like a battlefield. Opportunities were fleeting. If one hesitated, there would be no next time.

Long Feiting knew that this was an opportunity, and he really wanted it. However, when he thought about how much pain Mu Huan would suffer if he lost Bo Junyan, he didn’t want it anymore. Even if he felt stifled and upset whenever he saw Mu Huan and Bo Junyan together, he didn’t want her to feel upset.

He wanted to give her the best in the world, not hurt her.

“Brother, I want her to live a happy life, even if it’s not with me. If someone hurts her love, we should help her protect him.”

Long Feilei: “...!!”

If this wasn’t his own brother, he really wanted to scold him for being stupid! What was he doing?!

He liked her and loved her so much. Shouldn’t he do whatever it took to get her hands on him? He actually wanted to protect his love rival! Did he come out into the world without his head?

People in this world were all different. Love was also different. Some people would do anything to get their love, but there were others like Long Feiting. No matter how much he wanted it, he wouldn’t do anything to hurt Mu Huan. It wasn’t that he was a saint, but he knew that Mu Huan only had Bo Junyan in her heart. He couldn’t imagine what Mu Huan would do to him if he really took the opportunity to do something to Bo Junyan.

What he wanted was her love, not just her.

Also, if she didn’t like him, even if Bo Junyan died, she might not become his.

“Besides, let’s not even talk about our good relationship with the Bo family. It’s too immoral to add insult to injury. Even if we just talk about the probability of success, do you think the chances of eliminating Bo Junyan are high? If we can’t destroy him, we’ll be the ones to suffer.” Long Feiting made his brother take a step back.

Even if this was a chance to deal with Bo Junyan and there was a possibility of destroying him, he felt that this opportunity was at most 50%. It couldn’t be more. Like this, the risk was huge.

Long Feilei thought for a moment and said, "That's true. Although Bo Junyan has touched other people's source of benefits, he's smart enough to hand over the patents. As long as we don't ambush him to death, there's a high chance that those people will be dealt with by him."

"That's right. Hence, don't think about these crooked methods."

The corners of Long Feilei's mouth twitched. "What do you mean by crooked methods? I'm doing this for your own good!"

His pampering had been called crooked by him. He was working hard for whom exactly?!

"I don't need this kind of good."

Long Feilei: "...!!"

He must have tortured and killed his little brother a hundred times in his previous life for him to have to repay him in this life.

At the Bo residence...

Mu Huan came out of the shower and saw Bo Junyan on the phone with a grave expression.

Although he hung up quickly after seeing her coming out, she could tell from his last two sentences that this call was related to her in-laws.

She walked forward and asked, "What's wrong with Dad and Mom?"

Bo Junyan was about to say that they were fine.

"Hubby, don't tell me they're fine."

Bo Junyan: "..."

Mu Huan thought of something and said, "Don't tell me Dad and Mom were also ambushed?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Her intuition was so accurate.

"Really?" Those people were too vicious! They even attacked the old man!

Chapter 1005: Evil Humanity (4)

"Yes, but it's fine. It's just a small injury. I've already increased the protection."

Mu Huan asked worriedly, "Who has minor injuries? Dad or Mom?"

"They're all lightly injured."

"They're all injured?"

"Yes." Bo Junyan then said, "They're all minor injuries. Don't worry too much. I'll fly over tomorrow to take a look."

After a moment of silence, Mu Huan said, "Just now, you told someone that they didn't have to come back. That you can go over yourself and take a look. Is it Mom who wants to come back?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Hubby, let Dad, Mom, and your grandfather come back!" Without waiting for Bo Junyan to say anything, Mu Huan said, "The human resources you can use overseas are definitely not as good as in the country. Fortunately, it's only a light injury. If..."

What if something had happened to her in-laws? How upset would he have been?!

"You said that their attacks will continue. If it's like that, only after they've returned to the country will our parents be able to receive the best protection."

Bo Junyan knew this, but his grandfather had yet to completely give up. He had originally planned to fly over tomorrow to see his parents and meet someone before telling Mu Huan about this matter. However, she took the initiative to say this. "Grandpa hasn't completely let go of that thought. He seems to be possessed."

His grandfather was really old. His brain was a little abnormal.

"It's alright. My granny has left now. Even if your grandfather still wants to kill me, there's nothing he can do." She no longer had her granny, no longer had a soft spot...

Bo Junyan reached out to pull her into his embrace and lowered his head to kiss her.

He knew that the thought of her granny would make her feel terrible.

"I'll send Grandpa away after the crisis is over."

"There's no need. It'll be fine as long as we don't stay together. There's no need to send him overseas. It's just me now. There's nothing much Grandpa can do to me." Mu Huan was already feeling that it wasn't good to let her in-laws stay overseas and not return. Now, there was really no need for them to continue staying overseas.

Without her granny, it was just her. No matter how the Old Master dealt with her, she could tolerate it. It was fine.

At this point, Mu Huan felt that no matter what the old man did, she could ignore him because of Bo Junyan. She could not think of anything that could not be tolerated.

Until that day, she did not expect...

In the Imperial Capital...

"Xiao Wei, do you know what's going on? I haven't been able to get through to your father's phone since yesterday! He should be home by now but he hasn't returned!" Xue Yun grabbed Ling Wei's arm as she said this anxiously.

Ling Feng had gone overseas on a business trip. He had said that he would be home this morning, but he had yet to return.

Xue Yun had called him yesterday because she wanted him to bring something back at the last minute. Why couldn't she get through? She couldn't get through to his secretary's phone either. She called again after a while had passed, but even until today, she couldn't get through to him. This had never happened before. This made her extremely anxious.

Ling Wei pinched the space between her eyebrows and said tiredly, "Something happened to Dad."

"What?!" Xue Yun was shocked. She tightened her grip on Ling Wei's arm, causing Ling Wei to feel pain. She frowned.

However, she did not shake Xue Yun off.

"What happened to your father?!"

"He attended a cruise banquet the night before yesterday. I don't know if he drank too much or something, but he fell into the sea. Whether he's alive or dead, it's unknown right now."

"What?!" When Xue Yun heard that his life was in danger, her face instantly turned pale. After a while, she said, "Quick, think of something! Save your father!"

If something were to happen to him, what would happen to the mother and son?

Chapter 1006: Evil Humanity (5)

"I've already used all my connections to search. I'll pack up and go over. I'll inform you if there's any news," Ling Wei said as she retracted her arm and walked upstairs.

"I... I'll go with you..." Xue Yun followed her, wanting to come along.

"I can go by myself. There's nothing you can do if you go. Besides, if you go, what about Xiao Xiao?"

"But..." Xue Yun was worried. She wanted to find Ling Feng quickly. "That's right! Xiao Xiao is on holiday. We can bring him along!"

Ling Wei looked at her and was silent for a while. "If you want to go, then let's go together."

"Thank you! Thank you!" Xue Yun did not expect that Ling Wei, who had always been cold to her and ignored her existence, would be willing to bring her along at such a critical moment.

Xue Yun, who was full of gratitude for Ling Wei, did not see the disdainful sneer on Ling Wei's face when she turned around and went upstairs.

After going upstairs to her room, Ling Wei called Meng Yueman.

"Aunt Man, I heard that you're injured. I wanted to visit you, but something happened to my father. I have to go over to take a look."

"My injury is fine. Besides, I'm going back soon. You don't have to come and see me," Meng Yueman said.

"You're coming back?" Ling Wei's lips curled up slightly. Indeed, you're coming back.

“Yes, that child, Xiao Huan, is too sensible. That’s great.” When Meng Yueman mentioned her daughter-in-law, it was evident that she felt that she was really good. She didn’t need her son to be put in a difficult position at all. Without waiting for him to say anything, she thought about it for their own good and took the initiative to let them return to the country to receive the best protection.

“Yes,” Ling Wei replied with a smile.

However, deep down, she felt that Meng Yueman was probably sick. They had been chased overseas by Mu Huan, yet she still felt that Mu Huan was good.

She did not have the dignity of a mother-in-law at all. It was useless.

“By the way, what happened to your father?” Meng Yueman asked with concern.

“I don’t know if it’s because he lost his footing and fell into the sea, or if it’s because... I have to go over and take a look to confirm the situation.” Ling Wei’s voice was full of fatigue.

Meng Yueman hurriedly said, “Then quickly go over and take a look. If there’s anything you need, tell me!”

“Yes.”

Meng Yueman, who was so concerned about her best friend’s daughter, never even suspected that their address overseas had been accidentally leaked by Ling Wei...

Ling Wei knew too much about the Bo family. The two families had worked together for many years, so she knew a lot about the internal affairs of the Bo Group. Her familiarity with the Bo Group was the greatest capital she had to cooperate with Bo Junyan’s enemy.

Xue Yun and Ling Wei searched for Ling Feng overseas for a week, but they couldn’t find him. Just like that, Ling Feng disappeared without a trace.

The two of them had hidden it from Ling Xiao and told him that they were here to play. They even asked someone to bring Ling Xiao out to play. However, Ling Xiao suddenly returned one day and overheard their conversation. He found out that his father might have died.

This made Ling Xiao very afraid.

“Boohoo... Mommy... What should I do... What should I do...” What should he do if he didn’t have a father anymore? Both his sisters hated him so much.

His mother was so weak.

Although Ling Xiao was young, the environment he had come into contact with made him not so naive as to not know anything.

He knew that Ling Wei had always wanted to monopolize the Ling family’s assets. He knew that because he had accidentally let Granny get hit by a car after he pushed her, Mu Huan hated him and was unwilling to see him.

The only person he could rely on was his father.

Chapter 1007: Evil Humanity (6)

Now that his father was gone, what should he do?

He was so scared... really scared...

He was even afraid that Ling Wei would chase him and his mother out of the hotel in the next second and make them live on the streets.

Xue Yun didn't know what to do either. She could only hug Ling Xiao and cry.

She didn't know what to do...

The greatest failure in Song Zhiwen's life had been to protect Xue Yun too well and dote on her until she became a delicate flower that needed to rely on someone to bloom.

Ling Wei pulled Ling Xiao up and said fiercely with reddened eyes, "Why are you crying? Why are you crying, little man? If Dad is no longer around, you'll be the pillar of the Ling family in the future. In the future, you'll be someone who will inherit half of the Ling family's assets. If you only know how to cry like this, take care because I might not give you anything!"

Ling Xiao and Xue Yun were so shocked by her actions and words that they forgot to cry.

Actually, Xue Yun was just as afraid as Ling Xiao. She was afraid that if anything happened to Ling Feng, Ling Wei would immediately chase the mother and son out of the house.

Now, from what she was saying, she... still wanted to follow their previous agreement?

"Don't worry. Even if Dad isn't around, I'll make sure you're both fine! I'll make sure the Ling family is fine too!" Ling Wei said impatiently.

However, her impatience made the mother-and-son pair feel exceptionally at ease.

All along, Ling Wei had been very cold and disdainful to the mother-and-son pair. If she were to suddenly treat them well, they would feel uneasy and be afraid that she had ulterior motives. But she was being like this...

She was clearly unwilling to take care of them and wanted to ignore them, but she felt that they were her responsibility. She would take care of them and bear all the responsibility.

Ling Xiao looked at Ling Wei and shouted in a choked voice, "Sister..."

Ling Wei said disdainfully, "Don't call me Sister. I don't have a useless brother like you. You're already so old, yet you'll only cry when you encounter trouble."

"I won't be like this anymore..." Ling Xiao choked.

"Ling Wei..." Xue Yun looked at Ling Wei and was about to say something.

"Alright, I have something to deal with." Ling Wei turned around and left.

Just like how she used to do.

This made the mother and son feel exceptionally at ease.

Ling Wei went out early and returned late every day for a few days, but there was still no news of Ling Feng. It was impossible for them to keep looking for Ling Feng here. Hence, no matter how much Xue Yun didn't want to and didn't believe that something had happened to Ling Feng, they could only return.

When Xue Yun was most afraid and helpless, Ling Wei reassured her and even comforted her awkwardly.

Furthermore, the pain of losing the most important person made their relationship much better after this trip abroad.

This made Xue Yun, who had always been afraid of Ling Wei and felt that Ling Wei would take the first opportunity to deal with them, feel that Ling Wei was actually a good person.

She looked heartless, but she was much more affectionate than her biological daughter, Mu Huan.

Sometimes, this was how human nature was. You could treat a person extremely well, yet once you did something bad to her, she would feel that you were heartless and evil. On the other hand, a person who had always been bad to her suddenly did not treat her so badly. It was just that he would not do bad things to her.

And yet, she would be so grateful that she would feel that the other party was good.

At the Bo residence...

As the enemy this time had a powerful background, the best protection was if they were gathered together. Bo Dingjing and his wife brought Old Master Meng to live with Bo Junyan, but they were staying in the villa next door.

"Junyan, Ling Wei said she wanted to come over and visit us," Meng Yueman said while eating.

Chapter 1008: You Are Important (1)

Bo Junyan's eyes darkened. "Let her come over."

Meng Yueman thought of something. "Oh right, something happened to Ling Feng. Do you know?"

"Yes."

"Although we're also facing troubled times, if you stumble across anything that can help her, give her some assistance. The Ling Group was in danger a while ago, and now that Ling Feng is in trouble, the Ling Group might not be able to survive."

Meng Yueman and Ling Wei's mother had a really good relationship. She had watched Ling Wei grow up. After so many years of having such affection, even when she was in danger, she was still worried about Ling Wei and wanted her to be fine.

With that, she looked at Mu Huan.

"Xiao Huan, I once promised Xiao Wei's mother that I would take good care of her. There's really nothing between Junyan and her. I hope you don't mind..."

"I know, Mom," Mu Huan said obediently.

“You’re so nice.” Although her married son did not lead a family life like Meng Yueman had imagined he would, it was all her father’s fault for being so stubborn. Hence, not only did Meng Yueman not dislike Mu Huan, but she also considered Mu Huan’s standpoint and sought her approval.

She wasn’t like other wealthy mothers-in-law who were high and mighty.

After dinner, Meng Yueman and Bo Dingjing went to accompany Old Master Meng.

“What happened to Ling Feng?” Mu Huan was on holiday at home and had not contacted Xue Yun recently. She did not know that something had happened to Ling Feng.

“He was overseas on a business trip and fell into the sea.”

“Where did it happen?”

“A yacht banquet.”

Mu Huan: “...”

This scene seemed to be a conspiracy.

Bo Junyan looked at her and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“I smell a conspiracy. Could his accident not be an accident?”

“Yes.”

“Who is it? It can’t be Ling Wei, right? She wants to take the opportunity to swallow the Ling family?” Mu Huan said instinctively.

“She’s the most likely suspect,” Bo Junyan said.

“F*ck! If it’s really her, then that’s ruthless enough.” Even to her biological father, she could do such a thing.

Mu Huan continued, “Didn’t you say that the Ling Group is at a critical moment? By attacking Ling Feng, isn’t she afraid that the Ling Group will collapse?”

“Something happened to the Ling Group because a foreign company wanted to swallow the Ling Group and enter the domestic market. Ling Wei negotiated with the other party through a middleman. Under such circumstances, if Ling Feng had an accident and Ling Wei took over the Ling Group, she would be able to resolve the crisis of the Ling Group at the most critical moment. This way, she would obtain the support of all the shareholders and become the master of the Ling Group. She would be more legitimate and stable,” Bo Junyan said.

Since the Bo Group was always at the top, Bo Junyan’s information network was naturally extraordinary. He already knew everything Ling Wei could find out.

There were many things that seemed to go unnoticed, but in fact, there was no such thing as an impenetrable wall in the world.

After Mu Huan heard this, she said after a while, “I can only say that she’s ruthless!”

Ling Feng treated Ling Wei so well, yet she could even lay a hand on her biological father...

"She has always been ruthless." Bo Junyan was not surprised that Ling Wei could do such a thing.

Ling Wei knew Bo Junyan, but Bo Junyan knew her too.

Ling Wei was an only child. In the early days, the Ling Group was on par with the Bo Group. As the only heir and a girl, Ling Wei had received an even more cold-blooded education. In her life, benefits were the most important. For the sake of benefits, she could do anything, no matter the cost, no matter who the enemy in front of her was.

Chapter 1009: You Are Important (2)

"Then, my mom..." When Mu Huan thought about what had happened to Ling Feng, she realized her mother's situation had become awkward.

Bo Junyan's eyes darkened. "You can meet her or call her and see if she'll live with us."

Although he did not say it clearly and directly...

However, Mu Huan understood what he meant.

After a moment of silence, she replied, "Yes."

Bo Junyan could not bear to see her unhappy and dejected. He reached out and pulled her into his embrace. Not knowing how to comfort her, he kissed her directly and diverted her attention.

In the Imperial Capital...

For the past few days, the stock price of the Ling Group had been falling until it stopped. After Ling Wei returned, she had been going to meetings non-stop. Sometimes, she would even get someone to come home with her for a meeting. Xue Yun had seen how busy she was and how tired she was. She had worked so hard for the Ling Group.

She used to avoid Ling Wei, but now, she took the initiative to take care of her life.

Ling Wei, who had not returned for the entire night, arrived home in the morning. Her fatigue made Xue Yun's heart ache.

She stepped forward and said, "Don't work too hard. Your health is the most important."

"My health is not important. If I don't fight now, I won't be able to fight in the future."

Xue Yun: "..."

That was true, but she was really trying too hard.

Just as Xue Yun was about to say that she was going to get her something to eat, Ling Wei suddenly grabbed her arm. "Auntie Xue, there's something I can't tell anyone, but I can only tell you."

Xue Yun's heart skipped a beat. "What... what is it..."

“For the Ling Group to suddenly encounter such a crisis, it’s because a big overseas company wants to enter the domestic market and destroy the Ling Group. After that, he’d directly acquire the Ling Group. With the good foundation of the Ling Group, his development in the country will be even faster. It’s efficient. Previously, Dad’s investment mistakes were all caused by the other party.” When she didn’t know the truth back then, Ling Wei felt that there was a problem. Because her father had good taste, he shouldn’t have made so many mistakes.

Although Xue Yun didn’t know much about business, after being married to Ling Feng for so many years, she more or less understood what she meant. “Then, what should we do now?”

“After I found out the truth, I’ve been trying to make peace with the other party. However, since they can eat us up, they definitely won’t stop. After a few contacts, I finally found a breakthrough point. If we can do this, our Ling Group can turn the danger around. And if we want to do this, you’re the most important.”

“This... What... This kind of... big matter, how can I... become the most important...” Xue Yun could not think of what she could do.

Ling Wei did not beat around the bush and said directly, “The daughter of this big company’s CEO has taken a fancy to Bo Junyan. She wants to be with Bo Junyan. As long as we can make the two of them be together, the other party will let the Ling Group off.

“And the key to making the two of them get together is to make Mu Huan detested by Bo Junyan. You’re Mu Huan’s biological mother.”

When Xue Yun heard this, she instantly panicked. “I... I... I’m Xiao Huan’s mother. I can’t do anything. Not to mention how the two of them have such a good relationship that I can’t destroy it, I can’t even see Xiao Huan...”

“Something has happened to my father. As your biological daughter, she’ll definitely be worried about your current situation. She’ll definitely call you. It’s not difficult for you to want to see her now. Once you see her, it’s even easier for you to do whatever you want. And you don’t have to worry about what you have to do. You just have to do as I say.”

Chapter 1010: You Are Important (3)

“But... but...” Xue Yun hesitated for a long time. “Even if... I can do it... and make Xiao Huan be hated by Bo Junyan, then... Bo Junyan might not necessarily get together with that CEO’s daughter...”

She did not ask what Ling Wei wanted her to do. She was afraid that she would really be persuaded to do something.

She tried to persuade Ling Wei to give up on her plan.

After all, no matter how Mu Huan treated her, she was still her biological daughter whom she carried for ten months. She couldn’t do anything to hurt her.

“The Ling family is in danger now, and the Bo family isn’t any better. You haven’t contacted Mu Huan recently, so you might not know that she and Bo Junyan have already fended off assassination attempts many times. Even Bo Junyan's parents have been targeted. Now, they're back here injured," Ling Wei said.

"What?!" Xue Yun was shocked. Something had happened to the Bo Group? Bo Junyan was so formidable! How could something have happened to the Bo Group?!

"Actually, you letting Mu Huan leave Bo Junyan now is for her own good. Bo Junyan's enemies are very strong. There will be endless assassination attempts, and it's not something he can resolve in a short time. It's safest for her to leave Bo Junyan now.

"Hence, what I asked you to do should be for the sake of your daughter. You don't have to think so much about it. You don't have to blame yourself for letting Mu Huan down."

Xue Yun was not so stupid as to be convinced with just a few words. "If it's really like what you said, why would that CEO's daughter still dare to be with Bo Junyan? Isn't she afraid of danger?"

"Do you think the other party that can destroy the Ling Group is a small company? If his daughter wants Bo Junyan, he will naturally think of a way to help Bo Junyan resolve the current crisis. It can be said that as long as you do as I say, not only would you save Mu Huan, but you'd also save Bo Junyan."

Xue Yun had never thought of whom she could save. After all, she was a person who led a stable life. She could even save Bo Junyan!

"Impossible... Bo Junyan is so formidable..." How could he not protect himself and his family?

"Bo Junyan is formidable, but you know that there's always someone better. There are many formidable people in this world. Furthermore, this time, he has interfered with the interests of several big companies. The other party has joined forces to destroy him. It's already not easy for him to last until now. If he didn't have a strong power to increase the stakes and help him, the Bo Group wouldn't have been able to last much longer than the Ling Group. Furthermore, this is only a commercial blow. The Bo Group still has assassination attempts to deal with. Once Bo Junyan dies, Bo Dingjing's body won't be able to take it, and the Bo Group will collapse even faster.

"Also, you should know that there are very few people in this world who offer help in times of need, and there are many people who kick a man when he's down. If one can reshuffle the cards, divide the forces, and divide the territory, anyone would want to get involved. Hence, Bo Junyan is not only facing foreign forces but also competitors in the country."

"This... is impossible..." The Bo family had always been a high and mighty existence. Why was it that when she said this, it was like they're a fragile sandcastle that was destroyed in an instant?

"Nothing is impossible. If you don't believe me, you can call Mu Huan and ask her if she was ambushed." Ling Wei shrugged.

This world was a cruel one to begin with. Everyone was born for benefits, and everyone wanted to be the boss. With the collapse of the Bo Group and the reshuffling of the market, everyone had a chance to be the boss. There were many people who wanted to take the risk.

Hence, the Bo Group's current situation was not much better than the Ling Group's.
