

Fake Marriage 1031

Chapter 1031: Insurmountable Hatred (3)

Unable to push Mu Huan away in time, he could only use his body to shield her.

Mu Huan, who was helping Bo Junyan to treat Meng Yueman's wound, was shocked when she heard a bang. Then, her back sank and Mu Dongsheng fell on her.

When she turned around in shock, Mu Dongsheng slid down her body to the ground.

Mu Huan was stunned and her mind went blank. She could only watch Mu Dongsheng fall heavily to the ground...

Although it was only a few seconds, it felt like an entire century had passed...

Even Bo Junyan was stunned.

When he snapped back to his senses, he immediately got his father to treat his mother's wound.

He rushed forward to check on Mu Dongsheng.

At this point, Mu Huan, who was closest to Mu Dongsheng, was already helping him stop the bleeding. It was just that Mu Dongsheng had been hit on the aorta. No matter how hard she tried to stop the bleeding, she could not stop it...

Her hands were trembling in panic, and her tears fell. "Dad... Dad..."

Mu Dongsheng smiled at her. As a doctor, he knew very well what part of his body had been hit. This part was about to die, and no one could save it. "Xiao Huan... don't be sad... Actually, I've wanted to die for a long time, but I've never thought about how to die... Now that I can die like this, I'm so happy... so happy... You made my existence meaningful..."

Mu Dongsheng had never known the reason a person like him should continue living. Why did he still want to live? It wasn't until this moment that he knew the reason he'd kept on living. She had made his muddled life meaningful. He could finally protect her like a real father.

In the past, whenever he saw Mu Huan being abused, Mu Dongsheng wanted to rush out to protect her, but he did not dare to do so.

Finally, he was brave for once.

"Dad, don't speak. You'll be fine! You won't!" Mu Huan covered his wound forcefully.

She didn't want to hear him speak, as if he really wouldn't die if he didn't speak.

Just now, after Meng Yueman had collapsed, the person who had gone to get the first-aid kit happened to bring it over. Bo Junyan was in charge of emergency treatment for Mu Dongsheng, and the medical team that was staying at the Bo family's residence also ran in.

But...

“Xiao Huan, don’t... don’t blame the old man... I... I still have to thank him... He was the one who gave me this chance... It’s good that I’m dying. I... have always wanted to die... You and Junyan... You and Junyan... You have to be well... You have to be well...” Mu Dongsheng was afraid that his daughter would no longer be able to be with Bo Junyan because of his death. There was no meaning in his life. Only by protecting his daughter and dying would he have meaning.

It wouldn’t be worth it if his daughter lost her happiness because of him.

He wasn’t a good father and wasn’t worth her heartache and pain. If he died, she should forget him.

Bo Junyan was a good person. He hoped that she could be happy with him in the future.

“I’m sorry, Xiao Huan. I’m not a good father...”

“Kexin... and Zixuan... In the future... if they don’t do anything... or don’t go overboard, you... you help... Dad, take care of them...” As he was not valued by his father when he was young, Mu Dongsheng had once sworn that he would be a good father when he had a child.

However, he did very badly. No matter if it was by the woman he loved or by the woman he didn’t love, he didn’t take good care of any of his children.

He was the worst failure of a father.

Chapter 1032: Insurmountable Hatred (4)

“Dad... Dad...” Mu Huan choked on her words.

Before her granny passed away, she had told Mu Huan that she had wanted to die a long time ago, and she asked her not to blame herself and wanted her to be well. Now, her father also asked her not to place blames and live her life well. Why... why did something happen to them... Why did they all leave her like this...

“And... and your grandma...” No matter how bad of a person she was, she was still his biological mother. It was unfilial of him to not be able to take care of her in her old age as she took care of him...

Before one’s death, one would always have many things to say. Mu Dongsheng was the same. He still had many things to say, but he did not have the time to say them. He closed his eyes and forever closed them...

Mu Huan had just found out that her father had actually always loved her. He had always been thinking for her. He could even give up his life for her. His love for her had never changed.

She would lose him forever.

She no longer had a father... Even if she still wanted him to ask her for money and wanted him to anger her to death, it would never be possible...

“Dad...! Dad...! Dad...!”

Each cry was more heart-wrenching than the last...

Bo Junyan wanted to pull her into his embrace, but he could not go forward...

Her father was...

Mu Huan, who was hugging Mu Dongsheng's corpse and crying, suddenly raised her head. Her scarlet eyes were filled with hatred and murderous intent, making her look like an Asura who had walked out of hell.

Old Master Meng, who had been targeted by her, suddenly collapsed to the ground.

Just as Mu Huan, who had lost her rationality, was about to stand up and kill him...

A hand grabbed her leg tightly.

"Xiao Huan... Xiao Huan... I know, I know your pain... But I beg you, I beg you, I'll repay you with my life... I'll repay you with my life, alright...?" Meng Yueman would not let anyone save her. She climbed up and grabbed Mu Huan's leg, begging her.

She knew that she had no right to beg Mu Huan, but as a woman, she would rather die than watch her father get into trouble in front of her.

"Xiao Huan... please... please..."

Mu Huan looked at Meng Yueman, who was begging her...

Finally, she fell to her knees beside Mu Dongsheng and hugged his corpse for a long time...

She did not shout or cry again.

She just knelt there and hugged her father. She made the world mourn...

Meng Yueman's heart ached when she saw Mu Huan like this. As a woman, she couldn't watch her father pass away. Mu Huan was also a daughter, but she could only watch her father pass away and die to save her...

"Don't save me... Don't save me..." When Bo Dingjing got someone to treat Meng Yueman's wound, she struggled and refused to let anyone save her.

It was all her fault, all her fault that her father did such a thing.

As she struggled, Meng Yueman fainted.

In the end...

Meng Yueman was saved and Mu Dongsheng was cremated.

From now on, he would no longer exist in this world.

No matter if he was scum, cowardly, or whatever, he had completely disappeared from this world...

At Mu Dongsheng's funeral.

Mu Zixuan grabbed Mu Huan's clothes and cried as he shouted, "Sister, it's my mother's fault that you killed her. It's Grandma's fault that you harmed her. But what did Dad do wrong? Why did you kill him too?! Why did you kill him?!"

Chapter 1033: Insurmountable Hatred (5)

Mu Kexin, who was standing beside him, shouted with reddened eyes, "Is he your father? Is that so?!

"Our family was ruined by you! Why didn't you die?! Why?!"

There were thousands of faces in this world. Mu Zixuan originally had a very happy living environment with his grandma and mother who doted on him. Although his father was a little cowardly, he was still his biological father and could be considered to be doting on him. But now...

He didn't have parents anymore, and Grandma was just lying on the bed.

And all of this was Mu Huan's fault.

"Sis... why are you doing this... Don't you feel pain in your heart? Don't you have any kinship for us at all?" Mu Zixuan was really sad. He was still young and his family was either dead or crippled. He really couldn't accept this.

Mu Huan did not move or cry. She just knelt there and let them pull her clothes, accuse her, and push her...

It was only after Bo Junyan had settled the important funeral procedures and returned to the spirit shed that the two of them let go of Mu Huan and cried sadly.

Bo Junyan did not let anyone touch them.

This was because if Mu Huan didn't want them to scold or touch her, no one could have touched her.

He did not speak, because it was useless to say anything more to comfort her now. He went to Mu Huan's side and knelt down, burning paper with her in the brazier.

After the funeral, Mu Huan had lost a lot of weight.

Her eyes were no longer as bright as before.

Bo Junyan's heart ached when he saw her like this, but his comfort was useless. In fact, she was very resistant to him and didn't want to see him.

No matter how tricky a business matter was, Bo Junyan could think of a way to resolve it. For example, when so many large corporations surrounded him, not only did they want his company, but they also wanted his life. However, they were all settled by him.

What Bo Junyan had told Old Master Meng was true. He could settle everything in a few days.

However, he did not believe Bo Junyan. No, it should be said that he believed him and just wanted to take the opportunity to chase Mu Huan away.

His ambition had single-handedly created the current tragedy.

Even such a difficult matter could not stump Bo Junyan. But facing such a Mu Huan, he did not know what to do.

Sometimes, there were some things that made one feel helpless.

For example, the pain of losing one's family, or the hatred borne of a father's killing.

No matter what anyone did, it was useless.

Mu Huan knew that this wasn't Bo Junyan's fault. He was also a victim, but even if she knew, she couldn't face it.

She did not know how to face Bo Junyan and everyone in the Bo family.

In the past, she had felt that nothing in this world could separate her and Bo Junyan. But now, she felt that she could no longer go on with Bo Junyan.

Or rather, she didn't know how to continue...

She didn't know. She really didn't know...

She couldn't accept it if she couldn't kill Old Master Meng, but if she took his life, the Bo couple would be finished...

She didn't know what to do or how to face it.

This was the first time she had chosen to run away. She hid in the Mu residence and refused to see anyone.

Every day passed in a daze.

Until one bright and starry night.

A tall man walked out from the darkness, carrying a white Persian cat. He was as tall and noble as the moonlight.

Mu Huan looked up at him and lowered her head.

She completely ignored the other party's devastatingly beautiful face.

She didn't care who he was or why he was here.

Did he want her life?

Right now, she felt that everything didn't matter.

Chapter 1034: Leave Everything to Time

The tall man gently caressed the cat in his arms and looked at Mu Huan lightly. "Do you want to leave with me?"

Mu Huan did not move at all. She only raised her eyes slightly. Then, she slumped back onto the table and became a pile of waste.

The man was not talkative. He threw something at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan looked up at the thing and was about to retract her gaze when she stopped.

After a long while...

“Alright.”

After Mu Huan and the tall man left, Bo Junyan walked out of the night.

Sometimes, the tighter one grabbed, the harder it was to hold on.

Some injuries could only be treated with time.

After Mu Huan left, Bo Junyan personally sent his grandfather to jail.

Three years later...

As technology became more and more advanced, more and more illnesses that could not be treated in the past were no longer terminal illnesses. Even more so, there were medicines that could extend a person's life!

It was said that as long as one had more than half a year to live, this medicine could allow one to live for another three years. If one was healthy, it could allow one to live for another six years!

In this world, there were people who couldn't live and wanted to die, but there were more people who didn't want to die, especially many people who were rich and capable. They felt that their lives were about to end before they even started. They still had many things to do, but they didn't have the time.

However, everyone knew that life and death were natural laws. There was no medicine for eternal life in this world. Hence, no matter how unwilling they were, they could only let time pass and slowly age and die.

But the more this was the case, the more one yearned to live longer.

Under such circumstances, a new drug could prolong a person's life and allow them to live for three more years. Who wouldn't want it for six years? Who wouldn't be crazy for it?!

If there was a medicine that could allow one to live a few more years, what could happen during those few more years?

Perhaps there would be an even more powerful drug! Although it was absolutely impossible for one to live forever and not die, it was still better to live a few more years!

Hence, everyone wanted this drug very much. However, this drug had to be specially made. Only the pharmacist could bring about such an effect upon tailoring the drug to the condition of the person who used it. Furthermore, not everyone could afford it.

Such a drug was sky-high! It was so expensive that it made people want to take a step back!

But even so, the queue for this pharmacist had already reached next year.

There were plenty of rich people in this world!

There was only one rule set by the pharmacist, and that was, that the highest bidder would get it! In other words, if you wanted to get the medicine as soon as possible, then you had to constantly increase the amount of money you were willing to pay. As long as the amount of money you paid was higher than the person in front of you, then your ranking could continue to advance.

There were many people who used to work hard to earn money. Now, in order to extend their lives, they could take out half of their assets!

This caused the pharmacist to amass an immeasurable amount of money. This was because the rich people in the world were queuing up. The amount of money they had to pay to compete in the front row was immeasurable.

Some people had heard that this pharmacist's income could exceed the interests of a world-renowned pharmaceutical company for a year.

A year's worth of benefits!

This made everyone feel that she was earning money faster than a cash-printing machine! She could practically burn money to cook!

Other than wanting to live a long life, what else did a person want? To stay youthful and make themselves look younger! This was especially so for women. Every woman wanted to look younger and prettier.

Chapter 1035: The Worst Is Suddenly Familiar

As for the Snow Cream produced by the pharmacist, although it could not make a person stay young forever, when used, it could make one's skin glow and become better. Its effect could make one see changes every day. This made all women go crazy!

All the female celebrities in the entertainment industry endorsed it for free, quickly making it popular worldwide.

Every time it went public, it would be snatched away.

In short, this pharmacist was rich, especially rich, super-rich!

Some people said that time was heartless and that it could take away all the sweetness. However, time was also sentimental. It could heal most of the pain, and it could make people's unbearable pain become a thing of the past.

When she thought about it again, she only felt a sharp pain in her heart. It was no longer devastating.

Time would also completely change a person, such as Old Master Meng.

Three years ago, all he wanted was power. When he was sent to jail, he was full of regret. He deeply felt that he was a classic example of a good card player who had played a lousy game. He didn't know how much he regretted his previous actions.

However, it was useless no matter how much he regretted it. His grandson was completely disappointed in him.

When he had a sudden illness and successfully applied for medical parole and could lead a good life in the hospital, he really wanted to live.

He wanted to live a few more years and use these few years to do something. Hence, when he heard from his ward mate that a new medicine that could extend a person's lifespan had appeared, he immediately got Meng Yueying to buy this medicine for him.

After that incident, Meng Yueman had cut ties with Old Master Meng.

Not only did Mu Huan not know how to face the Bo family, but even Meng Yueman did not know how to face her father. She also could not express how embarrassed she was to have survived and was unwilling to see Old Master Meng again.

Hence, when Bo Junyan sent Old Master Meng to jail, she did not even ask about it.

However, when her biological sister, Meng Yueying, came over to plead for Old Master Meng, she still softened her heart. She did not let Old Master Meng be sentenced to death but to a slow death. This slow death, coupled with the operation of the Huo family, meant that Old Master Meng would not die.

This spring, Meng Yueying used Old Master Meng's sudden illness to help him apply for medical parole and picked him up. Once he was picked up, he didn't have to go back.

Only when a person had lost their freedom would they feel that freedom was the most important. Only then would they know that nothing was more important than living freely. Old Master Meng, who had just obtained freedom, was greedy for everything in this world. Hence, when he knew that his illness would only get worse in the future, he was especially afraid and didn't want to die.

Hence, when he heard that there was such a drug, he couldn't wait to get Meng Yueying to get it.

The two sisters were filial.

Although Meng Yueying also felt that her father had done too much wrong that he shouldn't have, this was her father. No matter what he did, he was still her biological father! Hence, she still wanted to make Old Master Meng happy.

Hence, when Old Master Meng asked her to buy this drug, she immediately got someone to queue up.

She didn't know if she was lucky or if she had spent enough money. She quickly received good news and was asked to bring her father and his medical records to meet the pharmacist. She had to ask the pharmacist to make his medicine according to her father's condition.

After receiving such news, Meng Yueying happily brought Old Master Meng over.

There were no children who didn't want their father to live for a few more years.

As only the sick person could see the pharmacist, after arriving, Meng Yueying handed Old Master Meng to the assistant waiting at the door.

She was waiting on the sofa.

After Old Master Meng entered, he looked at the person sitting with her back facing him and suddenly felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity.

Chapter 1036: Settling Scores (1)

But he couldn't remember who this person could be.

He could only judge from the other party's attire that she was a woman, and an extremely young one at that.

This made him frown.

He wondered if Meng Yueying had been cheated by the wrong person. Previously, he had heard that this pharmaceutical god's appointments had been booked until next year, but he had made an appointment right away. Now, this person even looked like a young woman.

Someone who could develop such a drug should be an old person, right?

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that Meng Yueying might have been cheated. Just as he was about to say something...

The person with her back facing him slowly turned around.

When he saw the other party's face clearly...

Old Master Meng widened his eyes in shock. It was...

It was...

It was Mu Huan...!

When she saw his shock, Mu Huan slowly smiled. However, that smile made Old Master Meng extremely frightened.

After she'd been gone for three years, her youthful aura had disappeared. Her aura was completely different from before. The current her made him, who had experienced too much, feel that the pressure on his body was so great that he could not breathe.

Not to mention, he was already a little afraid of Mu Huan. Three years ago, when her father died, she looked like she wanted to torture him to death.

He was really frightened.

When he thought about the past, Old Master Meng felt even more fearful when he faced Mu Huan now.

However, the old man, who had been strong all his life, would not show it even if he was afraid.

He took the initiative and said, "How could it be you?! What ulterior motives do you have for lying to Yueying?!"

"Lie?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

"That's right. Why did you lie to Yueying? Were you trying to get me here to kill me?" Although Old Master Meng was very afraid that Mu Huan was here to take revenge for what happened three years ago, he still took the initiative to say this.

With some things, just because you didn't say it, it didn't mean that it wouldn't come to pass. It didn't mean that she wouldn't do anything. Since she wanted to do something, he might as well just say it!

“Don’t forget that murder is illegal!”

If she wanted to kill him, she was finished!

Mu Huan did not speak and only looked at him with a smile. Her smile and expression made the old man, who had always been high and mighty, feel like a little bug on the ground for the first time. No matter how fiercely he bared his teeth, she could easily kill him.

This made him even more apprehensive. He instinctively explained, “Mu Huan, back then, I lost my rationality when I saw my daughter collapse. I aimed at you not because I wanted to kill you. At that time, I wasn’t aiming at your vital parts...”

All these years, other than feeling regretful, Old Master Meng had also been blaming Mu Dongsheng and his mental illness. If it weren’t for him suddenly blocking Mu Huan and making him hit an important spot, Old Master Meng would at most have hurt Mu Huan. He wouldn’t have become a murderer and things wouldn’t have come to this.

He could not be blamed for all this. If anything, it was Mu Dongsheng’s fault!

His words made Mu Huan’s mocking eyes darken. Instantly, it was as if a huge storm was coming. The entire world became terrifyingly dark!

Old Master Meng snapped back to his senses and realized that what he had just said was a little wrong. However, since he had already said it, he could not take it back. Also, although he felt that Mu Huan had changed, he would not humbly beg for mercy in this lifetime of being high and mighty.

He took out his phone, intending to call Meng Yueying and ask her to come in and push him out. However, there was no signal on his phone.

Chapter 1037: Settling Scores (2)

He was clearly in the city, but there was no signal. This made Old Master Meng feel even more that Mu Huan wanted to do something to him.

“Mu Huan, so many people were watching me being pushed in!” He didn’t believe that Mu Huan would dare to do anything so openly!

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow and mocked, “Are you afraid that I’ll take your life?”

“Don’t you want my life?” That look in her eyes back then had woken him up from his nightmares every time. He would dream of her killing him.

“Your life is not worth dirtying my hands.”

Old Master Meng was about to heave a sigh of relief when he heard her speak again.

“Someone like you who’s about to die, I’ll only make your life more painful before death comes.” Pain could be washed away by time so that people wouldn’t feel so much pain.

But hatred wouldn’t.

Watching her father collapse and die in front of her was Mu Huan’s nightmare all these years.

She used to be a vengeful person, and now, she was even more so.

Old Master Meng was about to heave a sigh of relief when his heart tightened again. "Mu Huan, what are you trying to do?!"

What did she mean by saying he's about to die?!

Although his illness would become more and more serious, it wasn't a disease that was developing rapidly. Furthermore, he had the best medical conditions. He would at least be able to live for a few more years! How could he be someone who was about to die?!

"You don't have to be in a hurry to know. It'll be painful. You have to take it slow until it's painful enough," Mu Huan said with a smile.

The people who came looking for her were all people who didn't want to die. He didn't want to die? He wanted to live for a few more years? She shall make it that he would beg her to let him die in the future!

There was something in this world that was worse than death.

Her smile made Old Master Meng feel like he was looking at the smile of a death god.

His hand, which was holding the walking stick, could not help but tremble.

"What exactly do you want?! Don't forget that no matter what, I'm Bo Junyan's grandfather and your mother-in-law's father! Otherwise, it would have been impossible for me to come out!" Old Master Meng said.

Three years ago, when he was sent to jail, he had never seen Mu Huan again. He had asked Meng Yueying what had happened to Mu Huan after that. Meng Yueying said that Mu Huan had disappeared after that, but he had never heard that they had gotten a divorce.

If they didn't get a divorce, he would still be her husband's grandfather. She'd better not do anything to him!

Although Old Master Meng had been personally sent to jail by Bo Junyan, and Meng Yueshan had also said that she would cut off her father-daughter relationship with him, he was also very regretful that he had done such a thing back then and made things come to this point. However, he felt that no matter what, he was still their family.

Even if they didn't acknowledge him, he was still their family. Also, no matter how angry they were at him, there would be a day when they would forgive him. They would always protect him in their hearts.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to first slow down his death and then successfully be released.

He was released after being in jail for more than two years.

"You should have stayed in jail." While being punished by the law, he would have lived a better life than he would in the future.

When Old Master Meng heard her words, he was shocked again.

“Mu Huan, no matter what, I know that it’s all my fault. I shouldn’t have been so impulsive just because I saw my daughter injured. From now on, I won’t object to you being with Junyan anymore!”

Old Master Meng tried to reconcile with Mu Huan.

“What happened in the past is an accident. It’s all in the past. It’s useless to think about it. People should look forward. I know you want to live well with Junyan.”

Chapter 1038: Settling Scores (3)

Three years ago, the siege of those large corporations not only did not destroy Bo Junyan, but it also gave him the support of the G party. In these three years, the Bo Group had already reached a much higher level than Old Master Meng had imagined. He felt that anyone would want such a Bo Junyan.

If Mu Huan wanted to continue being with Bo Junyan, she couldn’t touch him.

After all, harming blood relations was the most unforgivable crime in this world.

“Do you think you have the right to object?” Mu Huan sneered.

Old Master Meng: “...”

Although he really didn’t want to admit it, no matter what methods he used in the past three years, he had never succeeded in getting Bo Junyan to visit him.

In the past, it was useless for him to object to being with Mu Huan, let alone now.

At this thought, Old Master Meng could not help but blame Mu Huan. It was all because of her! It was all because of her that their family had come to this point!

If it weren’t for her, why would things have turned out this way?!

“No matter what, if you want to be with Junyan, you’d better not do anything!” His grandson might really not care about him anymore, but his daughter definitely still cared about him.

Mu Huan did not speak and only smiled sarcastically.

Her contemptuous smile made Old Master Meng feel uneasy. He did not say anything else and stood up to leave.

However, he suddenly fell onto the chair.

There were waves of pain in his chest. That pain made him wish he was dead. He broke out in a cold sweat instantly!

He had never been in such pain before, and he wasn’t having a heart attack. He shouldn’t have suddenly become like this...

He...

Suddenly, Old Master Meng thought of something.

He looked at Mu Huan in horror. Was it her... Did she do something to him?

But...

She didn't even get close to him! How did she do it?!

As if she could see through his doubts, Mu Huan said coldly, "There are many colorless and odorless medicines in this world that can be expelled in the air."

"You..." Old Master Meng wanted to say something, but he was in so much pain that he couldn't speak. This pain made him feel like he would die in the next second. He even rolled down from the chair in pain.

He curled up on the ground.

Just as he was about to beg Mu Huan for mercy from the pain, he saw Mu Huan sitting there, looking down at him indifferently.

She was neither cold nor sinister, but this made Old Master Meng even more afraid!

The person in front of him was Mu Huan, but it wasn't the Mu Huan he knew.

Although the Mu Huan he knew was ruthless enough, she would never have laid her hands on an old man and still look on indifferently.

She was inhumane...

Just as Old Master Meng felt that he was really going to die, the pain suddenly stopped.

"This is just the beginning. In the future, your life will be even more painful than today." She had many ways to make someone suffer.

Old Master Meng was about to say something when he fainted.

When he woke up, he was already at home.

"Dad, you're awake. How do you feel?" Meng Yueying saw that he was awake and wanted to sit up. She immediately went forward to help him up.

Old Master Meng looked at Meng Yueying, who looked as if nothing had happened, and then at his body, which did not have any traces of damage after the pain. He couldn't help but feel that everything was a nightmare.

"Have I been sleeping at home? Did I not go out?"

Meng Yueying was stunned for a moment before asking, "Dad, what do you mean?"

Chapter 1039: Settling Scores (4)

"I mean, did we not meet some pharmaceutical god?" He hoped that everything was a nightmare. He didn't want to experience such pain again, let alone into the future.

"Dad, what's wrong with you? Why would you say that?" Meng Yueying said worriedly. "We clearly went to see the pharmacist. Why do you feel like you didn't see them? Are you feeling unwell? Do you need to go to the hospital to have a checkup?"

Old Master Meng grabbed Meng Yueying's arm tightly and said with a pale face, "Are you saying that we really went today?"

"Yes." Meng Yueying nodded first before asking, "Dad, what's wrong?"

After Old Master Meng's face turned pale for a while, he suddenly said agitatedly, "You've been cheated! That person isn't some pharmaceutical god. That's Mu Huan! She lied to us and used drugs on me, making me suffer so much that I wanted to die! She came back to take revenge!"

"What?" Meng Yueying was stunned.

"She's really Mu Huan! I fainted from the pain inside!" After saying that, Old Master Meng continued, "After that, I lost my memory. This should mean that I've been in a coma all along! Didn't you find it strange when you saw me in a coma?"

Meng Yueying instinctively said, "The assistant who sent you out said that you were drugged and fainted. He told me not to worry."

"Scary! That Mu Huan is simply too scary!" Old Master Meng recalled the pain back then and his face turned even paler.

"Dad, are you sure that the pharmacist is really Mu Huan?" Meng Yueying asked in disbelief.

"I'm very sure!"

Meng Yueying was silent for a moment before sighing. "Back then, I'd thought that she was a capable person. That she would definitely be very promising in the future. I didn't expect her to be this promising!"

"Not only did she come up with a sacred item that can improve one's skin and slow down aging, but she also came up with a medicine that can extend one's life! She's only 22 now. She's really... amazing!"

"Amazing, my a*s! Didn't I say that she lied to you?! She's not that pharmaceutical god at all!" Old Master Meng felt that there was something wrong with her focus. He said that Mu Huan had come back to take revenge, and she had used drugs on him that made him wish he were dead.

But she was actually impressed by Mu Huan!

"Dad, I wasn't fooled. If you're sure that the pharmaceutical god is Mu Huan, then Mu Huan is the pharmaceutical god," Meng Yueying said firmly.

Seeing how sure she was, Old Master Meng's heart skipped a beat. "Are you sure?"

"I am, and I'm sure that she's really a pharmaceutical god!"

"How... how is this possible... She's still so young... She..." Old Master Meng could not believe that Mu Huan was really that pharmaceutical god.

Meng Yueying's younger daughter was about the same age as Mu Huan. When she thought about how her daughter had yet to graduate from university and only knew how to play all day, she thought about Mu Huan and couldn't help sighing. "That's right, she's still so young..."

With that, she couldn't help but say, "Dad, it's really not that I want to criticize you, but back then, I advised you not to make things difficult for Mu Huan and not to object. Mu Huan is a capable person. She will definitely be very promising in the future, but you refused to listen to me!

"Look at the benefits in front of you. Now, not only has Junyan disowned you, but my sister has also cut ties with you. Mu Huan has even become such a god-like person. Do you know how much Mu Huan can earn in a day? Do you know that with a drug like hers, she surely has a good relationship with all the rich people in the world? How terrifying is her network of connections?"

Chapter 1040: Settling Scores (5)

"What she could have brought to Junyan, never mind the Ling family now, but even the Ling family in the past couldn't have compared to ten of her! You had such a good granddaughter-in-law! You're really..." Meng Yueying couldn't even say anything about her father.

Back then, it wasn't only Meng Yueman. Meng Yueying had tried all sorts of ways to persuade Old Master Meng to stop, but she couldn't persuade him. Hence, she couldn't help but want to say something to him now.

He was against such a good granddaughter-in-law no matter what. He didn't want her and did all sorts of things.

Great!

"Stop exaggerating..."

"I'm not exaggerating. You've heard yourself how formidable this pharmaceutical god is! You can think about it yourself. There are so many rich people who need such a drug from her. How much can she earn?! If she has such capabilities, wouldn't everyone treat her as an honored guest?! Also, she's only so young, but she already has such capabilities. What about in the future? I don't even dare to think about it. I can't think about it!"

The more Meng Yueying spoke, the more she felt that Mu Huan's future would be too scary!

"This is especially so since scientific researchers who have such capabilities usually belong to large pharmaceutical groups. Mu Huan, on the other hand, doesn't belong to any large pharmaceutical groups. She's a lone individual with such a drug that can influence the entire world, yet she's doing fine. Just think about it, you can imagine how capable she is!"

In this world, whether it was rare energy, rare medicine, or anything else, they were all targets to be fought over.

This was especially so for outstanding researchers, especially those who could come up with such a drug. Most of them were controlled by a certain organization, but Mu Huan was not. It could be seen that not only was she very good at scientific research, but she was also very strong in other aspects!

Without needing Meng Yueying to say anything else, Old Master Meng knew how capable Mu Huan was to be able to do this. He could also imagine how much money she could earn now and how much influence she could bring!

If he had not done such a thing back then, he would not be regretting things so much. His heart ached at the thought of how good the Bo family would have been now and how good he'd have it!

Regret, he really regretted it! He felt regret that he had never felt before!

"You thought that she's not good enough for Junyan because of her poor family background, but look at what happened now. She has nothing but money. It's no exaggeration to say that she doesn't even have to worry about burning money to cook every day!"

Don't bully the poor. This was the truth!

Old Master Meng was already regretting it, but she still said that to him. This made him fly into a rage out of humiliation. "She's about to kill me! And you're still praising her like this! Do you not want me as your father anymore?!"

"Dad, to be honest, if you weren't my biological father, I really wouldn't want you anymore. I've never seen you be so good at acting and turning a good life into this!" Meng Yueying really felt that her father was too pretentious!

"You..." Old Master Meng was so angry he couldn't breathe!

After a while, he shouted, "She's trying to kill me!"

As his daughter, shouldn't she be worried about him, concerned about him, and think of ways to stop her and take revenge?!

"Aren't you fine now?" Meng Yueying felt that Mu Huan was a kind person. Besides, now, she didn't need to dirty her hands. A person had such a glorious life. Why would she have to kill him and make herself a murderer?

Old Master Meng became even angrier when he heard her words. "She wants me to live a life worse than death. She almost made me die of pain today! She even said that this was only the beginning. She will do even more terrifying things in the future!"
