

Fake Marriage 1061

Chapter 1061: Treat Each Day as Your Last Day of Love (4)

“Alright.” Bo Junyan had always liked her taking the initiative to ask for a hug.

“Hubby, I love you so much!” Mu Huan smiled sweetly at him.

In the past, she thought that time could wash away everything. No matter how deep her love was, though, it could not withstand the cruelty of time.

She didn’t even know when she had fallen in love with Bo Junyan. They had only been together for less than half a year, but that love was so deep that she couldn’t let it go no matter what.

If possible, everyone wanted to live happily. No one wanted their love to be in so much hurt and pain as they refused to let go.

Bo Junyan could no longer control himself and lowered his head to kiss her.

By the time Mu Huan had her candlelit dinner, it was already supper time.

The convenience of having money was that no matter what time one needed it, something could be delivered to one in a short time.

Hence, even though it was late at night...

Bo Junyan still managed to create a romantic candlelit dinner.

There were scented candles, red roses, top-notch red wine, and romantic music.

The atmosphere was so beautiful that it was moving.

However, no matter how beautiful everything was, it was not as good as the man in front of her. It moved Mu Huan even more.

“Hubby, meeting you is the best thing that has happened in my life.” It was probably because meeting him had exhausted all her luck that she was no longer lucky enough to continue with him.

After all, how could life be so blissful and perfect?

“Me too.” Bo Junyan did not know how to sweet talk. He had always only known how to take action.

But at this moment, he had the same feelings as her.

The best thing in his life was meeting her.

She had made his life colorful. She had made him understand what love was and what it meant to have the life he really wanted.

“Come, Hubby, let me give you a toast. Cheers!” Mu Huan toasted him and drank again.

Sometimes, alcohol was really a good thing.

At such a time, if she didn’t drink it, the beauty would be ruined.

Bo Junyan raised the cup in his hand.

At this moment, both were drunk...

“Hubby, let’s go skiing tomorrow!”

“Alright.”

In the Imperial Capital...

Meng Yueying felt that no matter how much Mu Huan hated the old man, she probably wouldn’t do anything ruthless. This was because she was such a kind young lady. Hence, she didn’t believe Old Master Meng at all when he said Mu Huan had used drugs on him to make him suffer.

Until she saw it with her own eyes.

With her own eyes, she saw that the old man, who had always been arrogant and proud and who could not let go of his arrogance, had curled up on the bed in pain. He grabbed her hand and begged her to help him get the antidote. Otherwise, he would take his life. He did not want to bear such pain for a second longer.

Even though Meng Yueying felt that no matter how much Mu Huan wanted to take revenge on her father, it was only right that he pay the price for killing someone, as her biological daughter, she started to cry when she saw her father in such pain.

Her father was already so old. If this continued, then...

Without waiting for Old Master Meng to ask her to look for Meng Yueman, she hurriedly went to Yun Cheng.

She knew that Meng Yueman would not listen or believe her when she called.

However, when she arrived at Yun Cheng on the helicopter, she heard from the butler that Meng Yueman and Bo Dingjing had gone overseas yesterday. This made her extremely anxious.

She hurriedly called Bo Junyan.

No matter what, that was his biological grandfather. He couldn’t just watch his grandfather suffer.

However, Bo Junyan’s phone was switched off.

She immediately called PA Wang.

“I’m sorry, Mrs. Huo. The CEO has left the company’s matters to Mr. Gong. I can’t contact the CEO either.”

Chapter 1062: Treat Each Day as Your Last Day of Love (5)

“How is that possible?! How could he leave the company and go missing?! You can definitely contact him! Hurry up and contact him. This is an urgent matter!” Meng Yueying did not believe that PA Wang, who was Bo Junyan’s most important confidant, could not contact him.

“Mrs. Huo, I’m not lying to you. I really can’t contact the CEO!” PA Wang really couldn’t contact his CEO.

That day, after he had tricked the CEO's wife into coming to the bar, he had never seen the CEO again.

"I don't care if you're telling the truth or not. Think of a way. I want to speak to Bo Junyan within ten minutes. Otherwise, you're finished!" Meng Yueying said sternly.

PA Wang: "..."

This was the sorrow of being a nobody.

In his next life, he had to be the CEO!

However...

"Mrs. Huo, I really don't know, but since Mr. Gong can take over the CEO's job, he must know how to contact him!" He couldn't disobey an order and could only kick the ball out!

When Meng Yueying heard this, she hung up and called Gong Zeye.

Gong Zeye gave Meng Yueying a phone number. When Meng Yueying called it, she realized that it was Bo Junyan's number that she had saved. The phone was switched off.

After hanging up, Meng Yueying called Gong Zeye again. "I asked you to contact Bo Junyan. What do you mean by this?!"

"I only have Brother Bo's contact number," Gong Zeye said aggrievedly.

"How is that possible?! If you can't contact him, what if something important comes up?!" Meng Yueying didn't believe that he didn't have any other way to contact him.

"What important things can happen in the Bo Group now? Nothing can happen. Besides, my Brother Bo only wants to rest quietly for a few days." All these years, his Brother Bo had worked so hard. It was time for him to rest.

"Rest?! His grandfather's life is almost spent, yet he's still resting!" Meng Yueying said anxiously.

"Aunt Meng, don't worry too much. Old Master will be fine." Gong Zeye had heard about that matter from Bo Junyan. He knew that Mu Huan had made a move on Old Master Meng, but she would definitely not take his life now.

"What Old Master..." Meng Yueying suddenly stopped talking. "What do you mean by that? Do you know that Mu Huan used drugs on my father?"

"Yes."

"Then do you have a way to contact Mu Huan? Give me her contact details!" Meng Yueying wanted to have a good chat with Mu Huan.

"I don't know her contact details. Anyway, Old Master will be fine. Don't worry too much!" Gong Zeye said. "Aunt Meng, I'll go get busy now."

Meng Yueying was about to say something when the call was hung up. She called again, but he did not pick up.

This made her furious.

However, when she called home and heard that the old man had stopped hurting, she calmed down a little. She felt that it was impossible to find Bo Junyan, so she called Meng Yueman.

Although the old man was no good in every sense, he was their biological father. They could not watch him suffer.

Switzerland, ski resort.

When Mu Huan, who was dressed in a pink down jacket and a pink rabbit cap, appeared in front of Bo Junyan, he seemed to have seen a gentle and adorable little rabbit.

It was like the first time he saw her.

She sat there obediently like a little white rabbit.

Although she wasn't.

"Hubby, look at me! Am I not cute?!" Mu Huan said as she made a super adorable pose.

Bo Junyan smiled and said, "Cute!"

Chapter 1063: Treat Each Day as the Last Day of Love (6)

Just as Mu Huan was about to say something happily, she saw a little loli by the side. She had big eyes, eyelashes that were as long as fans, and porcelain skin. No matter how one looked at her, she was so adorable that one could not take their eyes off of her!

"Wow! Hubby, look, that little girl is the real cutie!" Mu Huan tugged at Bo Junyan to show him.

But Bo Junyan only had eyes for her.

No matter how cute other girls were, it was useless. He wouldn't even look at how young they were.

"Looking at her makes me want to have a daughter..." Mu Huan said.

Her husband was so handsome and she was so beautiful. If they were to have a girl, she would definitely be beautiful and adorable!

"Alright." In the past, Mu Huan was still young and she had ambitions to build her career. Bo Junyan had never thought of having a child. Now that she had grown up and had a successful career, they could totally have a child.

When Mu Huan heard his agreement, she snapped back to her senses and realized that she had let loose.

Their love was about to reach its end, but she actually wanted to have a child with him.

A child wasn't something that an adult could just abandon if they didn't want it. If she had given birth, she had to be responsible for the child and give her the best of everything. She couldn't even give the child the most basic family structure, let alone anything else.

How could she bear a child for him like this...

However, she did not say anything.

She only smiled sweetly at him and said, "Hubby, let's go ski! I'll compete with you. Let's see who gets to the finish line first!"

"Alright." Bo Junyan's expression remained doting.

Bo Junyan knew what Mu Huan had been doing for the past three years, but even though he knew that Mu Huan's skills and stamina had improved rapidly under her senior brother's strict training over the past three years...

When he saw that Mu Huan's speed was about the same as his, he was still surprised.

His wife really learned everything quickly.

...

Meng Yueying contacted Meng Yueman and sent the video of the old man being tortured.

Even though Meng Yueman did not believe that Mu Huan's return would make the old man's life a living hell, after seeing that video, she had no choice but to believe that what her sister said was true. Mu Huan had really dealt a ruthless blow to her father.

She did feel that the old man deserved it. No matter who it was, it was only right for them to pay with their lives.

But even so, he was still her biological father.

For the past three years, she had not visited him, not seen him, and not cared about his whereabouts.

However, that was because she knew that he was safe with her sister. Her sister would take good care of Old Master.

Not like this.

Seeing him in so much pain, her heart ached terribly even through the screen...

She couldn't watch him being tortured like this!

She...

But how was she going to beg Mu Huan to let the old man off?

Meng Yueman should have paid with her life, but because of her husband and son, she did not die.

She had already let Mu Huan down. How was she going to beg for mercy now?

They couldn't bear to see their biological father suffer. Should they watch their own father leave with their own eyes, or should they protect him...?

How could she let go of her father's murderer?

“Sister, I know that our father has made a lot of mistakes. Everything is his fault. It’s all his fault. But killing someone is just a small matter. Mu Huan is making Dad feel pain again and again. This is...” Meng Yueying couldn’t say that Mu Huan was being too much.

But no matter what, she had to get Mu Huan to let the old man off, no matter what!

Chapter 1064: One Day, I Will Make You Regret It (1)

Country F...

After her archenemy became the deputy director and had a discussion with Mu Huan, Ling Wei resigned. Although she felt that Mu Huan was now different and that she had become much stronger, Ling Wei thought that she had the capability to go to another hospital and she would still be able to do well. Also, there were a few research institutes that had been poaching her and wanted her to participate in research projects.

But...

When she contacted those units that had once invited her, they had tactfully rejected her.

She knew that this situation was definitely man-made, but she couldn’t think of anyone who would make things difficult for her. This was because although Bo Junyan had a great influence in business, he didn’t have such a great influence in scientific research and medicine.

It was impossible for Bo Junyan to have done it, so Mu Huan was the most likely one.

However, she felt that Mu Huan shouldn’t have such an influence. After all, the people who invited her were all well-known research institutes. Very few people could influence such research institutes.

It was only through her connections that she found out that Mu Huan was the one who had developed the longevity medicine that had been trending all over the world and had made all the rich people in the world crazy.

She was shocked! She could not believe that Mu Huan had developed this drug!

Since ancient times, those in power had always wanted to live forever. Hence, since ancient times, people had researched medicine that could slow down aging, delay death, increase immunity, and supplement health.

However, none of those had any obvious effects. In the long history of mankind, there had never been such a drug that could accurately extend a person’s life. Only the drug that Mu Huan had developed had such an obvious effect.

Previously, there was a leader who was old and critically ill. All the doctors had determined that he only had half a year’s lifespan left at most. As his successor was still young, everyone wanted to snatch the highest position, so there was internal strife. Everyone felt that once the leader died, the entire country would be finished.

Unexpectedly, half a year later, not only did that leader not die, but he even appeared in an important movement in high spirits and settled the entire internal strife.

Not long after, it was rumored that this leader had taken a drug that could extend his lifespan. That was why his health suddenly improved.

Later on, a few well-known old scientists appeared. They were all close to death, but after taking that drug, they looked healthier and healthier.

As these real cases popped up one by one, this drug exploded, making the rich people around the world queue up to buy it.

After this drug was dropped, Ling Wei only knew that it came from NST. NST itself was the top research laboratory in the pharmaceutical world. Moreover, she had long heard that someone was researching lifespan extension drugs, so she did not pay much attention.

She had never expected that Mu Huan had been the one to come up with such a drug!

She was still so young, and it had only taken her how long to do it? This medicine was effective, and the leader who used it the earliest had used it half a year ago.

In other words, Mu Huan had only spent more than two years to develop such a drug...

Scary. She felt that Mu Huan was simply too scary!

For Mu Huan to have developed such a drug, she had to be the heir of a world-renowned pharmaceutical company. In other words, she had the most famous NST research laboratory behind her.

She had the backing to influence those other research institutes.

After all, there were many talented people in this world. There was no need for them to offend the big shots in the pharmaceutical industry because of Ling Wei.

Back then, she knew that if she did not kill someone like Mu Huan earlier, it would not be easy to kill her when she became stronger.

Chapter 1065: One Day, I Will Make You Regret It (2)

Indeed... this was the case!

She could only blame herself for not being ruthless enough back then. She only wanted to separate Bo Junyan and Mu Huan and did not want Mu Huan's life.

If she had taken her life back then, she wouldn't have sunk this far.

She should really have taken her life!

If a person could return to the past, Ling Wei would definitely take Mu Huan's life at the first instance!

People of different backgrounds wanted to stand at different heights.

Some people only wanted to be fed. They were very satisfied with having a house that belonged to them. They felt that their lives were already very good. But there were people like Ling Wei. She'd had everything since she was born. She was also a person with strength. She wanted to stand at an even higher height.

But now that she was middle-aged, not only did she not reach the height she wanted, but she was also forced to this level by a little girl who could have easily been trampled to death by her. This was a great humiliation to her, who had always been high and mighty!

She was indignant that her life had come to this!

She, Ling Wei, could have whatever she wanted. She was so good in all aspects. She shouldn't have sunk so low!

A while ago, she thought that if she had to live humbly, she would rather die!

But when she thought about how she could really die, what else could she not do and tolerate? She could not admit defeat just like that!

Even if Mu Huan was so formidable in the pharmaceutical industry, even if Bo Junyan was so formidable in the business industry, they were not invincible. There was someone who stood higher than them in this world!

She still had a chance to destroy them!

Especially since Mu Huan had such capabilities.

She was able to research longevity pills now, so what about in the future?

If she was caught and imprisoned, how much benefits could she create for others?

Who wouldn't want such benefits?

Thinking about this, Ling Wei sneered.

It was just that she did not have the time to make a move or formulate a plan.

The news that she was the big boss's lover had somehow spread.

While she was in class, the big boss's wife brought a group of people and broke into the school. Those tall and strong bodyguards in black came up and tore her clothes without a word.

Although she knew self-defense, she could not fight against so many people.

Soon, she was only left with her underclothes.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, she could only curl up in a corner and not dare to move.

At this moment, the main wife went forward and pulled her hair, forcing her to look up. "B*tch, didn't you shamelessly seduce someone else's husband? Since you're so shameless, why are you still hiding?!"

"It's a misunderstanding..." Ling Wei was about to explain.

"Misunderstanding?!" As soon as the wife finished speaking, she slapped Ling Wei's face a few times.

"B*tch! If you dare to appear in front of my husband again, I'll make sure you'll be bedridden for the rest of your life!" the wife said as she slapped her again.

The big boss's wife was the only daughter of a famous organization in Country F.

This organization was very powerful, and the wife was an especially ruthless woman.

Even the big boss could not easily offend her. Hence, even though the big boss no longer had any feelings for his wife, he only dared to secretly play with women and did not dare to get a divorce.

Actually, the main wife knew that he had a woman outside and she too had a young hunk. As long as they looked proper on the surface, she would not care.

However, this matter had caused an uproar. If she didn't do anything, she would lose face.

Hence, she brought a group of people today to teach Ling Wei a lesson.

Ling Wei came from a good background and had been proud since she was young. She had been a goddess all this time.

Chapter 1066: One Day, I Will Make You Regret It (3)

All she'd received were admiration, respect, envy, jealousy, and hatred. When had she ever suffered such humiliation?

This made her eyes turn red with hatred!

"What's wrong? Are you unconvinced?" As the wife spoke, she slapped Ling Wei a few more times until her face was so swollen that one could not make out her original appearance.

She only stopped when the police arrived.

However, no matter which country one was in, a third party was always despised. If the main wife fought a third party, it would only be considered a personal grudge. The police would only advise the main wife to leave.

The main wife was angry enough and left without saying anything else.

Ling Wei had always been a goddess-like existence in this school. There were many boys who liked her, and there were so many people who were friendly to her. Yet when they saw her like this, none of them stood up to protect her and shield her. Instead, most of the students took out their phones to take pictures of her current sorry state.

All sorts of mocking and nasty words surged toward her.

All of this made Ling Wei's eyes turn redder and redder, like those of a demon that had crawled out of hell.

She wanted to destroy everything in front of her!

When a female police went up to put on her clothes for her, Ling Wei lowered her eyes and hid the murderous look in them.

She would not let anyone here off today! None!

Especially that fat woman!

No one, no one, could give her such humiliation! No one!

Because of this matter, Ling Wei was expelled from the school, saying that she was too bad of an influence.

She had suffered such humiliation, but it was still her fault. She still had to be punished. This made Ling Wei laugh hysterically in the principal's office.

When she was doing well, everyone fawned on her and begged her to come to class. They begged her to go to their research institute. When they saw that she was down and out, they all became like this, hitting a dog that had fallen into the water!

"I'll make you regret it!" One day, she would make all of them regret it! They would regret treating her like this!

The principal was frightened by her crazy smile.

Afraid that she would do something extreme, he hurriedly called the security officers over and invited her out. He even asked the security officers to pay more attention to her in the future and not let her enter and leave the school as she pleased.

She had been provoked to such an extent, and there were too many people already who had done something terrifying. They had to be on guard.

Just as the security officers were about to drag Ling Wei out...

Ling Wei shook them off and said arrogantly, "I'll leave by myself!"

Looking at her proud back, the principal felt a little regretful. Ling Wei was really flawless in her professionalism. She was very outstanding. He didn't know why she had come to this.

When Ling Wei left the school, she was stopped by the male teacher who used to chase after her.

"How much do you want for a night?" the man asked scornfully.

Ling Wei's gaze turned vicious.

"Never mind, this amount should be enough to buy you once, right?" As the man spoke, he stuffed the money into Ling Wei's hand. "Let's settle this in the car!"

In the past, he had treated her like a treasure. He felt that if he looked at her any more and touched her, he would pollute her. He didn't expect that she was actually a b*tch behind his back!

This kind of b*tch was not worth him cherishing her!

"Alright." Ling Wei followed him to the car.

The male teacher had only wanted to humiliate her, but he did not expect her to say yes. Although he now felt that Ling Wei was no longer worth cherishing and did not deserve having a goddess image in his heart, he had pursued the woman for so long. No matter what she was like, he would never have any regrets if he could have her.

Hence, he couldn't wait to drag Ling Wei to the car.

Chapter 1067: One Day, I Will Make You Regret It (4)

Not long after they got into the car, more and more shrill screams could be heard.

Then, Ling Wei, who was covered in blood, got out of the car.

She calmly walked toward her own car and drove it out of the school.

After she'd been gone for a long time, it was only when it was time to clock out that a teacher who was driving home discovered the male teacher's tragic state and immediately reported the case.

That night, the police searched the entire city for Ling Wei.

On the third night, they finally found her. At the edge of a cliff, everyone watched as Ling Wei jumped down.

The cliff was very high. Although it was the sea below, never mind how no one could survive falling from such a height, the sea beneath the cliff was the area with the most sharks. If one fell from there, they would be eaten in a few minutes.

The police did not dare to approach this sea area easily. Once they found adequate equipment to go in, all they found were some torn and bloodstained clothes. After the blood center verified it, the blood was found to be Ling Wei's.

In other words, she might have been eaten not long after she jumped down.

The professional salvaging boat worked for another two days. Apart from finding Ling Wei's shoes in the sea not far away, they did not manage to find anything else.

In the end, the person in charge of this case declared Ling Wei dead and closed the case.

...

After Mu Huan and Bo Junyan had finished skiing in Switzerland, they went to the North Pole to see the northern lights.

In this world, the most stunning scenery was the ones created by nature.

When standing under the extremely dazzling aurora, humans were tiny.

Mu Huan nestled in Bo Junyan's embrace and looked at the gorgeous aurora. For the first time in her life, she felt such romance. She thought unrealistically that it would be great if time could stop here. She would stop her life at this most beautiful moment and have herself stay in this happiness forever.

Humans were greedy.

She was no exception.

Initially, she only wanted the two of them to travel together and do some romantic things together. She wanted to leave behind beautiful memories and then rely on these to spend the rest of her life. As long as she thought about how she once had it and didn't care about the rest of her life, it was fine.

But now, the more things they did together and the more romantic their lives were, the more they couldn't bear to part. They couldn't bear to leave one another. They only wanted to be with each other forever.

She thought that time would pass slower and slower.

If they wanted it, they would stay here and stay out of worldly affairs forever. They would not think about those things and continue like this...

Even though she knew that this was impossible...

She couldn't help thinking about it.

She looked up at Bo Junyan and said with love, "Hubby, I love you!"

At the end of the day, she was only left with such cheap words.

It sounded casual every time.

It was as if she didn't care.

However, these simple words were filled with all her feelings.

"Love you..." Bo Junyan lowered his head and kissed her.

At this moment, they were so loving that the singles around them were envious. They really wanted to find someone they loved to hug and kiss under this beautiful aurora.

Just as Bo Junyan was about to deepen the kiss...

"Junyan!"

That familiar shout made the two people who were immersed in this beautiful scene freeze at the same time.

Sometimes, things would happen.

Such things wouldn't happen just because you didn't want them to.

They had to face what they had to face.

Happiness. Beautiful moments were always short-lived. They were short like fireworks, only for a moment.

Chapter 1068: As Long as You're All Fine (1)

As the former leader of the Bo Group, Bo Dingjing must have some capabilities that one could not underestimate. Hence, although Bo Junyan did not pick up the call, he still managed to bring Meng Yueman to where they were.

Only to find them at this beautiful moment.

It pulled Mu Huan back to reality from that beautiful moment.

Mu Huan had not seen Bo Dingjing and his wife since she returned. After three years, the two of them looked much older.

When she first met them three years ago, they were so young and energetic.

In just three years, they had aged so much.

It could be seen that they had been suffering for the past three years. Human emotions could affect a person's aging and lifespan the most.

After Meng Yueman called out to Bo Junyan, she walked forward but did not speak. This was because when she met Mu Huan's gaze, she, who was already unable to open her mouth to beg Mu Huan, could not say anything.

Meng Yueman couldn't even bear to see her father suffer such pain.

Why should Mu Huan let her father's killer off?

She had no right to beg for mercy.

Mu Huan looked at Meng Yueman, not knowing what to say.

In the past, she had wanted to live happily with such good in-laws and husband, but...

But now...

When they looked at each other, things were like this...

"Let's go to your place. It's too cold here," Bo Dingjing said.

Compared to Meng Yueman, Bo Dingjing, who was already in poor health, had aged even more severely these three years. Three years ago, one could still see the domineering and strong man from before. Now, he was like an old man in his seventies. In this cold weather, he could barely stand.

Mu Huan's eyes reddened.

She wanted so much for them to be fine.

It was easier if a person didn't have feelings. When one had feelings, those feelings act like a double-edged knife. Even when they cut the other party, they would hurt you even more.

Bo Junyan and Mu Huan did not say anything and brought them to the hotel they were staying at.

Along the way, the four of them did not speak.

Because they didn't know what to say.

Bo Dingjing had wanted to come over and have a good chat with Mu Huan, but when he saw Mu Huan like this, he couldn't say any of the things he had thought of.

He couldn't let her compromise for them.

Their own family member couldn't be in pain and couldn't die. But did her family member deserve to die?

People shouldn't be like this.

The couple was really kind.

It was precisely this kindness of theirs that made Mu Huan unable to not care about them and unwilling to hurt them.

Everyone in the car had their own emotions.

After getting out of the car, they arrived at their house.

Bo Junyan turned to ask his father to go out for a chat.

Then, he saw blood slowly flowing out of the corner of Meng Yueman's mouth. After that, her body collapsed weakly. He was so shocked that his heart stopped beating!

He rushed forward and reached out to catch Meng Yueman's falling body. "Mom...!"

He called for his mother and hurriedly checked on Meng Yueman.

"Don't bother. I... took poison in the car just now. I can't be saved..." Meng Yueman couldn't beg Mu Huan to let her father off. However, as a woman, she couldn't watch her father suffer so much that he wanted to die. Hence, she could only die.

Meng Yueman had always been a decisive person. After confirming that she wouldn't be stopped, she pretended to cover her mouth and coughed in the car. She then drank the poison that she had prepared long ago. Now that the substance was inside her, she would die soon.

They couldn't save her.

Chapter 1069: As Long as You're All Fine (2)

When Bo Dingjing heard her words, he was trembling so much that he couldn't speak. After learning that Old Master was being tortured, he'd watched her twice more carefully. He was afraid that if she took things too hard, she would die. The two of them basically stayed together for 24 hours.

He did not expect that under his strict watch, she could still get the poison in her hand.

And right in front of him, she drank it...

He...

Bo Dingjing had promised her that he would come to look for them. He had wanted her to not be so worried and anxious that she wouldn't be able to take it. He had wanted everyone to sit together and discuss it. He was sure that he could temporarily ease the matter.

Unexpectedly, before he could discuss it with his son, she collapsed...

She was so determined to die.

He was trembling so much that he couldn't move.

It turned out that when a person really wanted to die, no one would even suspect it.

Meng Yueman really wanted to die...

However, she wanted Mu Huan to let her father off. Hence, she could only die in front of Mu Huan and have her let her father off because of her death.

Hence, after saying that, she looked at Mu Huan and said, "Xiao Huan... I know... I know that I don't have the right to beg you... I should have done this a long time ago. I've lived an ignoble life for three years. These three years, I've been in a lot of pain. I'm sorry. Now, I'm paying with my life. Let go... let me go..."

Before she could finish speaking, Mu Huan took the opportunity to stuff medicine into her mouth and forced her to swallow it.

Then, she took out the silver needles that she carried with her, tore open Meng Yueman's clothes, and plunged the needles into her.

Meng Yueman wanted to say, "Don't save me." She really didn't want to be saved again and continue to suffer like this.

She had lived long enough.

But before she could finish speaking, she lost consciousness.

Even though Mu Huan's medicine was given in time and Bo Junyan had been treating Meng Yueman...

The substance Meng Yueman took was too poisonous. Hence, her vital signs were still decreasing.

At the hospital, in the ICU.

Bo Dingjing looked at Bo Junyan. "If your mother still doesn't wake up, I'll go with her. Don't stop me. After I die, bury the two of us together."

Bo Dingjing was a devoted person. After he had Meng Yueman, he had never been with another woman. He was already so old. If his wife could not wake up again, there would be no meaning in him living. They could only live and die together. It was the best ending between them.

It wasn't that his tolerance was poor, but sometimes, when someone lost someone important, their life would be meaningless. There would be no point to living.

Bo Junyan clenched his fists tightly. The veins on the back of his hands bulged horribly through the sterile gloves.

"Don't blame yourself and don't feel upset. Anyway, we're already so old. When it's time to die, there's no difference if you leave earlier or later. You shouldn't be estranged from Xiao Huan because of this. It's not Xiao Huan's fault. Dad and Mom really hope that you and Xiao Huan can continue living well and live happily.

"You know that your mother has been suffering because you couldn't be with Xiao Huan for the past three years. You can tell from the speed at which she has aged.

"It's actually a good thing that we're doing this now. This way, we'll be free and won't have to live such an uncomfortable life," Bo Dingjing said with a smile as he patted Bo Junyan's shoulder. "Child, don't be upset. It's best for us if you can live well."

Bo Dingjing and Mu Dongsheng were fathers who loved their children very much. They only wanted their children to live happily.

Nothing else mattered.

Chapter 1070: Forget Everything (1)

Mu Huan's eyes reddened when she heard his words.

Bo Dingjing's words reminded her of what her father had said before he died. When she thought about how he had passed away just like that, her heart ached so much that it was unbearable.

That pain was still fresh in her memory. She didn't want Bo Junyan to suffer such pain.

She didn't want him to lose his parents.

As parents, they felt that as long as their children were happy, their lives and deaths were not important. It did not matter. It was a good thing to die, but to the children, it was not like that.

As children, how could they watch their parents leave and be happy?

"Mom will be fine. She'll definitely wake up. Dad, don't think too much. I'll settle everything." Bo Junyan had already thought of a solution and was taking action.

He wanted to call his father to discuss his arrangements when he returned to the hotel, but they came instead.

He thought that with his father's strict supervision, his mother would be fine for the time being, but...

Man proposes, God disposes.

Bo Dingjing glanced at his son and did not speak further. He was not a talkative person and had said all that he needed to say.

He did not ask Bo Junyan how he planned to resolve this because all of this would have to wait until his wife woke up. If she did not wake up, everything would be in vain.

He did not want to hear his solution now. If he had a solution but his wife left first, he would only feel regret and pain, and he would collapse.

Bo Dingjing did not speak, and Bo Junyan did not speak either.

This was the most dangerous night. If Meng Yueman's vital signs could not be stabilized tonight, she would never wake up again.

Mu Huan now had the best connections in the medical world. After the incident, she had contacted several medical experts. Furthermore, she was also an expert in medicine. However, with so many top experts around, Meng Yueman's vital signs were still decreasing. It was not easy for her condition to be stabilized, and she would soon be in danger again.

The substance she had taken was too poisonous. Furthermore, it had been in her system for a long time. If it weren't for the excellent antidote that Mu Huan had given her, she would have died long ago.

Hence, it was difficult for her state to stabilize.

When the machine that was testing Meng Yueman's vital signs sounded the alarm again and the experts rushed forward to save Meng Yueman, Bo Dingjing was so anxious that he fainted.

A portion of the people who were trying to save Meng Yueman was sent out to save Bo Dingjing. Fortunately, Bo Dingjing only fell unconscious due to excessive emotional fluctuations and blood pressure. His life was not in danger.

For the next ten hours, everyone tensed up until...

Meng Yueman's vital signs completely stabilized.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief and slumped to the ground.

After another two hours, Meng Yueman's vital signs were not only stable but there were also signs of improvement. Everyone was finally relieved.

At this moment, the sun had already set outside the window.

Mu Huan came out of the washroom and saw Bo Junyan sitting on a long bench by the window with his eyes closed. She walked toward him and wanted to let him rest on the bed for a while. However, when she got closer, she saw that his sideburns had turned white overnight.

He was a person who didn't like to speak much and kept all his emotions in his heart. He had always been so calm and strong. No matter what happened, he rarely revealed his emotions, let alone lost control.

If such a person could not vent his emotions, the pressure he felt would become even greater.

However, how much pressure and anxiety did he have to bear to have white hair overnight?
