

Fake Marriage 1071

Chapter 1071: Forget Everything (2)

Her hand trembled as she reached for his head. Her heart was aching.

She had just approached him when...

Bo Junyan opened his eyes and reached out to pull her into his embrace before hugging her tightly.

Just hugging her like this could make his fatigue dissipate.

Mu Huan reached out to hug him. After the two of them hugged quietly for a while, she asked, "Are you going to sleep for a while?"

"There's no need. Go and sleep for a while." Bo Junyan had to wait for his mother to wake up and finish that task before he could feel at ease.

After a moment of silence, Mu Huan said, "Hubby, you just told Dad that you'll resolve everything. Did you think of a solution?"

"Yes, so you don't have to worry. This won't happen again in the future." Bo Junyan lowered his head and kissed her lightly.

Mu Huan looked at him and remained silent for a while before saying, "Is Hubby's solution to find Dr. Eisen to have Mom hypnotized and make her forget such a grudge? Is it painful?"

Bo Junyan was stunned.

He had not told her about this.

"Dr. Eisen is my good friend." Although he did not tell Eisen why he was looking for him, he also did not stop her from continuing to attack Old Master Meng. He had contacted Dr. Eisen, the world's most formidable hypnotist. It was not difficult to guess what he wanted to do.

Also, such an unsolvable matter could only be completely forgotten by hypnosis.

"Okay." The solution Bo Junyan thought of was to get someone to hypnotize his mother and make her forget such grudge and pain. With his mother's filial piety, only by having her memory erased and then having new memories implanted would she no longer be in so much pain and not want to pay with her life.

"What do you plan to give Mom as her new memories?" Hypnosis could make people forget some pain that they could not let go of, but if some memories were erased out of thin air, people would definitely feel that something was amiss after they woke up. They would instinctively want to search for lost memories.

Hence, top-notch hypnosis was not the kind that only made people forget everything in the past. Instead, it would force such unrealistic memories into the brain of the hypnotized person, making the hypnotized person who woke up think that the things in her memories were real.

With no blank memory, she wouldn't think about whether she had forgotten something.

Bo Junyan was silent for a while before saying, "Let Mom think that you had nothing to do with Grandpa passing away due to illness."

His answer was similar to Mu Huan's guess.

As she looked at Bo Junyan, her eyes turned redder and redder. Her husband was really good to her. How could he just watch her do this to his biological grandfather?

Mu Huan knew that even if Bo Junyan knew that this wasn't her fault and that it was a punishment that his grandfather should bear, it was still his grandfather who had raised him. He must be feeling terrible seeing his grandfather in pain.

But for her sake, he could only watch helplessly.

He would rather suffer punishment, pain, and discomfort than persuade her to let go.

He loved her so much that he wanted her to feel fine.

Besides...

"Hubby, do you think that by letting Mom think that your grandfather died of illness, she'll believe it has nothing to do with me? Do you think that I'm such a good daughter-in-law? In the future, while she's with me, the enemy who killed her father, she'll treat me well in every way. She'll be so kind, so kind..."

"Can I live happily like that? Don't you think that such a life is very..." Most things in this world were two-sided. No matter how bad Old Master Meng was and how she felt that he deserved to die...

Chapter 1072: Forget Everything (3)

To his daughters, he was a good father. Her mother-in-law could go so far as to use her life in exchange for a few more years of her father's life. It could be seen how much she loved her father and wanted him to be fine.

If they made her forget that pain and made her treat Mu Huan, the person who had killed her father, as a good daughter-in-law and live happily with her...

Really, just thinking about it was impossible... She had no way to face her mother-in-law and live with her like that.

Bo Junyan clenched his fists tightly and said, "Don't keep thinking about how killing her father will make you her enemy. You wouldn't be killing Grandpa. You know that he won't be able to live for long. You're only making him suffer the punishment he deserves in his limited life."

"Junyan, you and I both know that with your grandfather's health, it won't be a problem for him to live for another three to five years. Although I won't kill him personally, he'll definitely commit suicide in the end because he can't stand the torture and will want to end his life early. This is no different from me taking action." Some things couldn't be said that way.

"It's settled," Bo Junyan said forcefully. This was the only way to resolve the current situation.

Bo Junyan, who had always been able to resolve things perfectly, thought until his hair turned white. However, he could not think of a better solution for the time being.

“Junyan, I can’t live with Mom like this.” Mu Huan had no choice. She had no choice. If she lived with Meng Yueman like that, not to mention being happy with Bo Junyan, she would only be suffocated by the heavy guilt.

Her resolute tone made Bo Junyan lose control for the first time. “Then what? Do I have to choose between losing you and letting them die?”

This was something he could not bear.

Mu Huan looked at him and slowly reached out to touch his face. “Junyan, let’s get a divorce. Let me forget this hatred, let me forget the love between us, let me think that my dad died in an accident... Let me let go of my revenge...”

No matter what, she could not let go of her hatred. She could only forget it.

Only by forgetting all these could she let go and not let them suffer so much.

“No!” Bo Junyan hugged her tightly. She couldn’t forget him. She couldn’t leave him!

“Junyan, you know my personality very well. You know that if I do as you’ve arranged, not only will I not be happy, but I will also be in pain. I think you definitely won’t want me to be in so much pain...” Mu Huan didn’t want this to happen either. She wanted to remember everything between them so that she could rely on these beautiful memories to spend the rest of her life.

Now, she had to completely forget everything about him...

She really didn’t want this to happen, but she couldn’t watch his family be ruined or live with his mother like that. She could only do this.

Just as Mu Huan had said, Bo Junyan knew that Mu Huan would not be happy that way. But at present, he could only think of such a solution. He...

Bo Junyan, who did not know what to say to keep her, could only hug her even tighter.

“Junyan, you know that no matter how powerful a hypnotist is, they can’t guarantee that his hypnosis can continue to be effective. This is especially so if they don’t stay away from the environment where they want to forget things. It’s easy for them to recall things that they’ve forgotten after being hypnotized.

“Besides, my brain has a stronger sense of self-awareness. I’m one of those people who aren’t easy to hypnotize. Hence, I can’t just be hypnotized into letting go of the hatred after my dad’s accidental death and into not leaving this place and you.”

Chapter 1073: Forget Everything (4)

If a hypnotized person came into contact with people and things they wanted to forget every day, it would be easy for them to wake up. This was also the reason why Mu Huan could not live with her mother-in-law like that. What if one day, her mother-in-law woke up from the hypnosis and realized that the good daughter-in-law whom she had always doted on like her own daughter was actually the murderer who had killed her father? What would she do?

This kind of breakdown would be even more unbearable for her!

“And you’d hypnotize Mom, making Mom think that your grandfather died of illness. What about your aunt? Do you want to hypnotize her too? Even if you hypnotized your aunt, there are still your other relatives and friends. It’s impossible for you to change all their memories. The impact is too great, and it’s too unfair to others’ lives. On the other hand, I don’t have any relatives. If the friends around me want me to forget you, they’ll only agree with both hands. They’ll definitely not mention you in front of me in the future. This kind of hypnosis effect will be the best and last for the longest time.”

She was all alone and had no relatives. She only had a few friends. She was most suited to this.

“Besides, my father died for me, but letting go of that hatred to be with you just for love, this is something I can’t accept at the moment. Hence, Junyan, I can only forget all of this and leave you.”

Before Bo Junyan could say anything...

“I can’t accept your plan. But if I don’t get hypnotized, I won’t be able to break this dead knot. Mom’s body can’t take it anymore. When the two of them really leave, it’ll be too late no matter how much you’d have wanted to do this.”

With that, she cupped his face with both hands. “Junyan, our separation isn’t forever. It’s our only chance of survival. When your grandfather goes one day, you can look for me. If I can still fall in love with you even though I’ve forgotten about you, we can be together without any psychological burden.”

Don’t come looking for me while your grandfather is still alive. Otherwise, all of this might go to waste.

A genius like Mu Huan had a consciousness that was very strong. If she didn’t want to be hypnotized, then even Eisen wouldn’t be able to hypnotize her. She was willing to let go of everything and wanted to be hypnotized. However, even if she was willing, if she were still allowed to live where he was, she was afraid that she would easily wake up. Then, they would fall into such a dead knot again.

Bo Junyan knew that she was coaxing him and promising him a good future so that he would agree to this.

The truth would be very cruel. Just like what she had said just now, his grandfather would live for at least three to five years. Would she still be his if he made her forget him and leave him for three to five years?

So many people liked her... and were eyeing her covetously...

The last time, he let go because he knew that she loved him and would definitely return to his side.

If he let her forget him, stop loving him, and leave him...

He was afraid that once he let go, he would lose her forever.

Also, three to five years was too long... too long...

It hadn’t been easy for him to survive these last three years... Until she returned...

He didn’t know how he should live his life after she left him, especially when she had forgotten about him and didn’t love him anymore...

Mu Huan looked at the pain in his eyes. After a moment of heart-wrenching pain, she said, "Junyan, you can actually forget your love for me."

He was ten years older than her. If he waited for three to five years... She would still not be that old, but he was older...

What if she fell in love with someone else because she forgot about him?

Chapter 1074: Forget Everything (5)

Her husband would be middle-aged...

Her heart ached at the thought of it.

Why not forget about each other? He was at a good age to get married and have children.

"No." He didn't want to forget his love for her. No matter what happened, no matter how tough and painful life was, he didn't want to forget his love for her. She was to him the most beautiful existence.

He would always want her to leave a deep impression in his heart and mind.

Everything he had with her was a memory he wanted to remember forever.

"Hubby...!" Although he had only said no, Mu Huan could see the strong affection in his eyes. His love made her hug him tightly. "I'll add the strong suggestion of remaining single while I'm hypnotized. As long as you can wait, I'll always be waiting for you to come and find me, waiting for you to make me fall in love with you again."

As long as he still wanted her, she would always be waiting for him.

If he couldn't wait, she would remain single for the rest of her life. She had planned to be alone for the rest of her life after leaving him.

"I don't want you to forget your love for me!" Only those who had love in their hearts would not look at others. Without love, no matter what was added, it was useless.

"Hubby, do you know..."

Bo Junyan didn't want Mu Huan to forget their love, but...

A week later, he still agreed.

Just as Mu Huan had said, this was the only chance for survival between them.

Only this way could they be together without any psychological burden in the future, even if the chances were very small...

But that was the only way...

There was only one path left between them.

Although Mu Huan had chosen to forget all of this and let go of her hatred and no longer take revenge on Old Master Meng, they still got Eisen to hypnotize Meng Yueman.

This was because Meng Yueman not only wanted her father to live well, but she also wanted Bo Junyan and Mu Huan to be together. If she were to find out that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had gotten a divorce because of her and that Mu Huan had forgotten her love for Bo Junyan, that they might not be able to be together again, she would definitely choose to die.

Her body really couldn't tolerate her doing this again.

Eisen hypnotized her and made her forget that Old Master Meng had killed Mu Huan's father. When she woke up, she had this memory. Her son had married the Mu family's daughter, but later on, because of Old Master Meng's objection, Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had all sorts of conflicts. Hence, the two of them got a divorce.

Because Old Master Meng interfered with her son's marriage and caused her son to get a divorce, she blamed him and was no longer as close to him as before.

They had already prepared such words for Meng Yueying, Old Master Meng, and all her family and friends. When the time came, they would not expose her.

On the other hand, the public had always felt that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan's marriage was like this. They would not expose anything and would not let Meng Yueman suspect anything in the future.

Why was she in the North Pole and why was she lying in a hospital bed? It was because Bo Dingjing had brought her on a holiday and she had eaten something poisonous that made her like this.

After she woke up, Meng Yueman, who had such a memory, no longer wanted to create a scene. Although she was still very weak, her mind had returned to the past. There was no longer the sorrow from the past three years between her brows, and there was no longer such conflict and pain in her eyes.

When she saw her face that had aged a lot in the mirror, she even exclaimed and asked Bo Dingjing to quickly prepare a facial mask for her and get someone to help her beautify. She did not allow herself to age like this just because she was sick.

Chapter 1075: Forget Everything (6)

Seeing her like this, Bo Dingjing's heart that had been tightly clenched all these years finally relaxed. His eyes were a little red.

People said that death was a relief, and death was a good thing.

One might be able to live well, especially if they had someone they loved. They wouldn't want to die. Who didn't want to live as long as they could with the person they loved? This was especially so since they were in such good physical condition. Even if one of them was over 50 and the other was over 60, it wouldn't be a problem for them to live for 20 more years.

If she could live well...

Why would she want to die?

Mu Huan looked at the two of them through the glass. She was happy for them and felt assured.

She was also indignant.

Yes, indignant.

“Wifey...” Bo Junyan reached out to pull her into his embrace and was about to say something.

Mu Huan said, “Don’t try to convince me not to get hypnotized or forget about you.”

Bo Junyan froze.

Mu Huan looked up at him and said, “Do you know how I feel when I see your mother getting better and your father smiling? Apart from being happy, what else do I feel?”

Before Bo Junyan could say anything...

She said:

“I feel unwilling, I feel uncontrollable unwillingness! Uncontrollable dark emotions! Why did my father pass away just like that when they get to live well?! You know how much I yearned for my parents’ love. My father used to treat me so badly, yet I couldn’t bear to let him go and only wanted him to be well. But when I just found out that he still loved me that much, I suddenly lost him.

“And I’m even letting the person who killed him live well. Do you know how indignant I am?! Do you know how much I hate him? Junyan, I’m not a kind person. If I don’t forget, I’ll never let go! You’d better not let me remember him when he’s still alive. Otherwise, even if he only has his last breath, I’ll make him die in the most painful way in this world!”

Using hypnosis to forget, letting go of such hatred, and giving them a possible future was already her limit.

Don’t say anything else to her.

No, she didn’t want to do this if he asked her not to leave him.

If he continued speaking and she wavered, she would destroy the happiness he had now and make him be with her in pain. Or, she would make him forget everything and only remember his love for her.

Don’t force her. She could really do it!

She was really not a kind person.

Bo Junyan looked at her, who was in so much pain that she had lost control. “Sorry, Wifey...”

If it weren’t for him, she would definitely be able to take revenge happily.

She could stop being in so much pain.

Mu Huan realized that she had lost control. “I should be the one apologizing. You didn’t do anything wrong. You’ve already done very well. It’s me who can’t control my dark thoughts sometimes.”

She could not help but wonder why her granny and father died just like that.

But this wasn’t their fault, especially not Bo Junyan’s.

She shouldn't have lost control.

Bo Junyan was about to say something.

"This is the medicine that I've concocted for Mom and Dad. Take this box to Mom first. This box of medicine will allow her body to recover quickly. When she's done taking it, take this box. This box of medicine is for extending one's lifespan. Dad should also take this box of medicine first to treat his body's small illness. Then, have them take this box of longevity medicine. After taking these medicine, with their constitution, they'll be healthy until they're old." Mu Huan had recently made the medicine according to their physiques.

After giving him the last thing she could give him, it was time for her to leave.

Chapter 1076: Start Again (1)

Bo Dingjing, who had come out to get someone to prepare a facial mask for Meng Yueman, heard Mu Huan's words and looked at the medicine in her hand. His eyes, which were already red, turned even redder. Things had developed to this point, and Mu Huan was the one who suffered the most...

She claimed that she was not kind and not a good person.

But she could let go of that hatred for his son.

She had chosen to forget everything. It seemed a heartless thing to do, as if she was simply letting it all go, but she was the one who felt the deepest pain.

He stepped forward to say something to her, but nothing came out.

Sometimes, a heart full of gratitude is too heavy, and a person whose heart is heavy feels that no words can express their gratitude, so they can't say a word.

Imperial City...

Three years ago, the Ling family had already been on the decline. In the past three years, although Bo Junyan did not deal with the Ling family, everyone in the business world knew that the Ling family had offended the Bo family. No one dared to collaborate with the Ling family so easily. This was akin to destroying the Ling family. Before Mu Huan returned, she had already used her connections to deal with the Ling family.

In terms of business, Mu Huan did not have any direct ability. However, she had the longevity medicine in her hands. Whether it was the elderly, the young, or the strong middle-aged, they all wanted this medicine very much. Therefore, she did not need to pay any capital. All she needed to do was mention their queue quota and there would be a large number of people helping her deal with the Ling Group.

Faced with such fierce attacks, the Ling Group, which was already barely holding on, soon faced bankruptcy...

"It's all your fault! If it weren't for you, things wouldn't have turned out this way!" Ling Feng slapped Xue Yun.

Xue Yun staggered back a few steps from the slap and almost fell. However, Ling Xiao, who was standing beside her, didn't help her up. He only felt the same hatred towards her as Ling Feng did.

"Mom, because of you, I lost the right to even go to my classmates' house to play!" This year, Ling Xiao was already 11 years old. This was the time when children competed with each other, but he had dropped from being high above to being inferior compared to the classmates he had looked down on in the past. He also felt extremely resentful.

Faced with the blame of her two loved ones, Xue Yun cried. "I'm sorry. It's all my fault. It's all my fault..." She was the one who'd caused them to lose everything. It was her... It was all her fault...

If not for her, the Ling family would not have ended up like this.

"What's the use of apologizing! Go look for Mu Huan and die in front of her!" Didn't Mu Huan not care about her biological mother? He wanted her to die in front of her daughter and see if the latter could remain unmoved!

Ling Feng had originally thought that he would keep Xue Yun as she was Mu Huan's biological mother. With her around, both Mu Huan and Bo Junyan would ensure the Ling family's safety. He had not expected that not only did they not protect Xue Yun, but the Ling family was completely destroyed because of her!

"If I'd known this would happen, I wouldn't have saved you in the first place! You scourge! You damned scourge!" Ling Feng truly regretted his actions now. His Ling family originally had a lofty existence, but because of this woman, they had been ruined!

If he had known, he would not have saved her. Without her, he would not have become like this!

After the fact, people always liked to say words like, if they had known earlier. They always felt that things would definitely be different if they hadn't made such a choice.

However, this was only how humans comfort themselves. Even if one thing had not happened, there would be other things, and those that were destined for destruction would eventually walk towards destruction.

"I'm sorry... I'm sorry..."

Chapter 1077: Start Again (2)

Xue Yun could only apologize.

"Get lost! Get out and find Mu Huan! Go and die in front of her!" The more Ling Feng saw Xue Yun, the angrier he got. He walked up, raised his leg, and kicked her ruthlessly.

However, his kick did not knock Xue Yun down. Instead, he was sent flying toward the table and fell heavily!

He fell to the ground, his face full of anger.

Xue Yun was also shocked silly. After regaining her senses, she ran over to Ling Feng's side. "Hubby, are you alright...?"

Earlier, Ling Feng had hit her like that and told her to die. However, her heart still ached for Ling Feng. In fact, she wasn't angry at him at all because she also felt that she was the one who'd caused this. No matter how he hit her or scolded her, it was only right.

Mu Huan looked at Xue Yun and lowered her head, her lips curling into a self-mocking smile.

"Do I look like I'm fine?" Ling Feng waved his hand at Xue Yun.

Xue Yun fell to the ground after being pushed by him and did not dare to help Ling Feng anymore.

"Mu Huan, what are you doing here? Are you here to see if our entire family is dead?" Ling Feng pushed himself to his feet and glared fiercely at Mu Huan.

He, Ling Feng, had never suffered such humiliation in his life. He was ruined by a woman, and she even beat him up!

A slow smile curved her lips as she looked up. "Yes."

When Xue Yun heard this, she was afraid that Mu Huan wanted to do something to Ling Feng and her son. She hurriedly got up and pleaded, "Xiao Huan, all of this is Mom's fault. I'll die, I'll do whatever you want me to do. Don't treat your Uncle Ling like this. He didn't do anything wrong, and the Ling Group didn't do anything wrong either. If you destroy the Ling Group like this, it will implicate the innocent!"

She knew that she was in the wrong. Everything was her fault!

Whatever Mu Huan wanted to do, it should all be directed at her. She shouldn't hurt the innocent like this.

"That's right, what did I do to you? How could you destroy my family like this!" Ling Feng also followed up, as if she was a heinous villain.

"I don't like you, so I wanted to ruin you." Mu Huan raised an eyebrow. So what if she was evil?

He didn't do anything to her? He'd hired someone to kill her. Did he think she couldn't find anything on him?

Stunned, Xue Yun immediately said, "Xiao Huan, you can't do this. You're a good child."

How could she say such things so confidently?

How could she harm others for no reason?

"I'm not. I'm a bad person." She was a bad person. A bad person could be unscrupulous.

She would do whatever she wanted.

"Xiao Huan, you..." Xue Yun did not know what to say.

At this moment, Ling Feng rushed to a nearby table. He picked up a fruit knife and stuffed it into Xue Yun's hands. "Didn't you say you wanted to die? Come, let her see you die!"

He did not believe that she could stand by and watch her mother die.

If she wanted to destroy his family, he would also destroy her last family member!

Xue Yun held the knife he had given her, her hands trembling terribly.

“Didn’t you say that everything was your fault? Didn’t you always feel sorry for your daughter? Come, die for her to see! Pay with your life! Let her have enough!” Ling Feng saw that she was trembling so much that she almost couldn’t hold on to the knife in her hand, so he went up to her and held her hand tightly.

“I...” Even when Xue Yun was suffering from depression previously, she did not really want to die by jumping into the sea. She’d slipped and fell. Even more now, she did not want to die at all.

Xue Yun, who was unable to do anything, looked at Mu Huan and shouted with a trembling voice, “Xiao Huan...”

Her eyes were filled with pleading, begging Mu Huan to save her.

Chapter 1078: Start Again (3)

Mu Huan stepped forward and broke Ling Feng’s arm.

The pain made him scream like a pig being slaughtered.

Xue Yun was so frightened that the knife in her hand fell to the ground. Ling Xiao was so frightened that he took a few steps back.

Ling Feng miserably cried out. This time, he wasn’t angry but horrified!

He was also a skilled person, but when she grabbed him just now, he didn’t even have a chance to resist before his arm broke.

Xue Yun snapped back to her senses and shouted angrily, “Xiao Huan, how could you hurt your Uncle Ling like this?! How could you be so evil?! I admit that I did something wrong. You should blame me and hate me. You can come at me! Why did you do this! You...”

She was so angry that she could not breathe.

In the end, she picked up the fruit knife from the ground in agitation and wanted to give it to Mu Huan. “Since you hate me so much, come, I’ll give this to you. Kill me! Kill me!”

Mu Huan looked at Xue Yun like that. Finally, she released Ling Feng and turned to leave.

Ever since she had made her decision, she had been hesitating about whether she should weaken her mother as well. Hence, she came over to take a look. She knew that she should not have any hope, but she still had some hope in her heart. Now, she knew that it was impossible for her to see what she wanted to see in her.

She didn’t have to hesitate anymore.

Xue Yun and Ling Feng were stunned to see Mu Huan leave just like that. They didn’t know why she came here. Was she here to see how miserable they were? However, she didn’t say anything.

But whatever her reason for being here, her departure was a relief.

The Mu Huan now was really too scary.

After leaving the Ling residence.

Mu Huan stopped in her tracks and turned to look at the woman behind her. "From now on, you'll be responsible for taking care of her from the shadows."

No matter what, Xue Yun gave her life, so she'd support her for the rest of her life.

"Yes."

Mu Huan got into the car and was about to close the door when Long Feiting, who had appeared out of nowhere, squeezed his way in.

The first thing he said was, "Xiao Huan, are you really going to get hypnotized into forgetting Bo Junyan?"

For the past three years, Mu Huan had not seen Bo Junyan. On the other hand, she'd kept in touch with Long Feiting, because no matter where Mu Huan went, she would always bump into him.

Long Feiting was using the entire Long family's power to create opportunities for the two of them to interact.

He was not taking advantage of her.

No, he wanted to take advantage of her!

If Mu Huan and Bo Junyan were happy, he would stand guard by the side. However, they were not happy and could not be together. Of course, he had to fight for a chance for himself!

He had already done nothing to separate her from Bo Junyan, but if he let her be snatched away by someone else, he would really have to die!

However, for the past three years, even though there was an uncrossable hatred between her and Bo Junyan, and even though they had not met for three years, she had never thought of giving up on Bo Junyan.

This made Long Feiting unable to make any progress despite using all his tricks. Just as he ran out of ideas, Mu Huan was about to forget Bo Junyan! When he heard this news, he was so excited that he felt like he was about to fly!

The biggest advantage that Bo Junyan had was that Mu Huan fell in love with him first, her heart filling to the brim with just him. As a result, Long Feiting had stood no chance to conquer her at all. Now, she wanted to forget Bo Junyan and her love for him!

This...

Damn, this was a golden opportunity! God had pity on him and gave him a chance to have her!

She glanced at him. "Even then, I wouldn't like you. Don't even think about it."

Chapter 1079: Start Again (4)

"Yes, I wasn't gonna. I'm just concerned about you," Long Feiting said with a smile. She would definitely say that she didn't like him now. Once she forgot about all of this and there was no one she loved in her heart, she wouldn't think that way anymore. When that time came, he would definitely make her fall in love with him!

In the past, he was the one who'd met her first. But he did not seize the opportunity, and she became Bo Junyan's. Now, he would definitely not miss this opportunity that God had given him!

She glanced at him again but said nothing.

She knew what he was thinking.

Until now, he had been thinking that she had fallen in love with Bo Junyan first before she could fall in love with him. He had always felt regretful that he had found her too late. All sorts of obsessions made him sink deeper and deeper into her.

This was a chance for him to let go completely.

Long Feiting had saved Mu Huan before. She hoped that he could live well and have his own happiness.

She ignored Long Feiting, but he was still enjoying himself. "Let's go eat hotpot! I found a super delicious hotpot restaurant!"

He knew that all these years overseas, what Mu Huan wanted to eat the most was authentic hotpot in the country.

After saying that, he instructed the chauffeur to go to the place he had mentioned.

The driver looked at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan nodded and made a call, asking Li Meng and Wu Xingye to go there as well.

She didn't have any family, and she only had a few friends. If she gathered them together and talked about this, she could completely forget everything.

Just as Mu Huan had said...

When they heard that Mu Huan was planning to divorce Bo Junyan and hypnotize herself into forgetting everything about the Bo family, her friends all agreed.

Ever since her granny passed away, her mood had become so heavy that she was not like her former self anymore. After her father passed away, she became even more depressed. After three years, it would have been fine if she could have taken revenge, but she could not. This made her feel very pained and her heart feel heavy.

They didn't want to see her like this. They hoped that she could be the same sunny, energetic, and cheerful person she used to be. They also wanted to see her arrogant, narcissistic self.

They wanted her to laugh so hard that she could put all the beautiful scenery in this world to shame.

"Xiao Huan, as long as you don't forget us, you can forget everything else!" Wu Xingye raised his glass to Mu Huan.

"I won't." Mu Huan had chosen to forget because she had only spent half a year with Bo Junyan. He was not a part of her previous life, and he had not been with her these last three years.

Erasing half a year's worth of memories would not make her think too much about it when the time came.

Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan for a long while before he made up his mind. "Forget about me!"

She treated him like a brother right now. If she remembered him, she would still treat him as a brother in the future. They might as well start anew!

Mu Huan looked up at him. After a moment of silence, she said, "Okay."

"Cheers!" Long Feiting raised his cup excitedly.

They could start from scratch and start anew!

Li Meng looked at his excited expression.

She hoped that this landowner's foolish son would seize this opportunity.

If her Xiao Huan could be together with Long Feiting, she would be happier in the future...

As if he could tell what she was thinking, Wu Xingye whispered into her ear, "If Long Feiting gets together with Xiao Huan but recovers her memories, what do you think she would do next? Will she choose to love Bo Junyan or Long Feiting? Wouldn't that be very painful for her?"

Li Meng: "..."

Damn...

Chapter 1080: Start Again (5)

It seemed to be very painful!

Instantly, she didn't know what to think or hope for.

She could only say that everything would be up to fate!

A month later, at the venue of the award ceremony for the highest award in the pharmaceutical field, Wenbei.

This was an award that very few Chinese people could win. This year, there were two Chinese winners. One of them was Mu Huan, a genius doctor who had developed a longevity drug, and the other was Lu Zichen, a genius doctor who had developed a drug that could effectively suppress the AZ virus.

Why were they called geniuses? Because they were both very young, only 22 years old this year.

They were the youngest winners in the history of the Wenbei Award. They were only 22 years old, yet they already had such achievements. This made all the seniors in the pharmaceutical field feel inferior.

Mu Huan received the trophy from a senior from the pharmaceutical industry. Just as she was about to step forward to give a speech about winning the award, she felt an unusually fiery gaze on her.

She instinctively looked in that direction.

She saw a man, a very ordinary man. When she looked into his eyes, she saw fiery admiration. She thought it was just fanaticism, so she looked away and began her speech.

She looked away.

The man's gaze deepened, but he did not dare to reveal that emotion again.

His wife was too sharp.

No matter when it was, she was always sharp and could easily see through things.

PA Wang, who was sitting next to Bo Junyan, saw that his CEO had pushed aside all his important work and flown here for more than ten hours. He endured it and put on makeup that he had never put on before. He came here to watch his wife's award ceremony, but his wife did not recognize him. She only glanced at him once before looking away.

He couldn't help but want to cry.

He felt that his CEO's life was truly bitter.

He'd just wanted to find a wife and live a good life. He only wanted to dote on his wife and love her, but...

Bo Junyan did not feel sad. He looked at Mu Huan, who was standing on the stage, radiant and full of confidence. He felt that it was the right decision to agree with her in the first place. It would save her from that painful and heavy heart and restore her to her former glory.

It was as if a dusty pearl had been cleared of dust, leaving only a dazzling glow.

When it ended.

Bo Junyan walked toward Mu Huan.

Sometimes, people were like that. Even when they knew they couldn't get close enough to be discovered, even when he'd put on makeup to hide himself from her, they couldn't help but get closer, afraid of being discovered, but wanting to. She could see him, see his difference, remember him.

However, she did not even look at him when he brushed past her.

Bo Junyan could not help but feel conflicted.

At this moment.

Mu Huan stopped Lu Zichen. "Little Brother Lu, do you have time to have supper together?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

PA Wang: "..."

He looked at Mu Huan's sparkling eyes as she looked at Lu Zichen. Although he didn't want to say it, he couldn't help but say it in the end.

"CEO, Madam seems to be interested in him."

Bo Junyan: "..."

PA Wang was right.

Mu Huan indeed had designs on Lu Zichen. However, her goal was to recruit Lu Zichen into her research lab. Lu Zichen specialized in the AZ virus. Other than developing drugs that could effectively suppress the AZ virus, he was also researching the vaccine for AZ. She had high hopes for him.

Coincidentally, his contract with his research institute had ended.

"I don't eat supper." Lu Zichen was a straight-laced guy. He was a nerd and a top student. He only had scientific research in his world. In order to maintain the best state of his brain, he was very scientific in his health-consciousness. He never ate too much at night, let alone supper.
