

Fake Marriage 1081

Chapter 1081: Start Again (6)

“If you have time, let’s discuss your third research on the AZ virus together. I think...” Mu Huan had interacted with many geniuses before, so dealing with all sorts of top students and big shots would not be a problem.

Mu Huan’s reputation in the pharmaceutical field was known by everyone. Naturally, Lu Zichen knew about her background. He also admired Mu Huan’s knowledge. The papers she’d published were all very profound, so when he heard that she wanted to discuss research with him, he immediately agreed. “Alright, I have time.” Then, he added, “We can talk all night.”

In fact, when Lu Zichen found out that Mu Huan had also received this award, he had wanted to discuss it with her. This was because he had seen her thesis on life extension medicine and felt that if it were to be combined with his current research, his research speed might go much faster. It was just that he didn’t know how to ask her to discuss research. He didn’t expect her to ask him herself.

However, he would be returning to the country tomorrow morning, so he had no time to talk to her. It was definitely not enough to talk for an hour or two, so he added that they could talk through the night.

He’d spend the entire night talking about scientific research.

However, this made Bo Junyan’s face darken.

“Alright, let’s talk through the night,” Mu Huan said with a smile.

Bo Junyan’s face darkened further.

If Mu Huan and Lu Zichen had not brought along their assistants, with Mu Huan even calling a few other scientists to discuss the matter through the night, Bo Junyan would have done everything he could to prevent the two of them from having a discussion tonight.

Although they were purely talking about scientific research and it was a group of people discussing it together, after this night, news had spread in the pharmaceutical circles that Mu Huan was pursuing Lu Zichen.

There was rarely any gossip in the scientific research world. This was because most of the scientific researchers were involved in confidential projects. Furthermore, most of them were elderly and kept a low profile. Even if the media followed them, they wouldn’t be able to report much news.

Mu Huan and Lu Zichen were noticed by the media because they were both very young. They were both beautiful and handsome.

The two of them had brought glory to the country, and they looked so compatible with each other. This was the time when they were going viral in the entire country. The media would definitely have to focus on them and increase their own viewership ratings and views.

Since Mu Huan wanted to recruit Lu Zichen, she naturally took the initiative to look for him.

This made the media even more convinced that she was chasing after Lu Zichen. Lu Zichen was someone who focused on scientific research. If Mu Huan wanted to look for him, she would have to go to his research lab. Hence, every time, she would be photographed there.

Lu Zichen was an outstanding genius that every research institute wanted to recruit. His own research institute wanted him to stay.

Although Lu Zichen was very tempted by Mu Huan's suggestion, he had always been a lazy person who only wanted to quietly do research. It turned out that the people in the research lab were all people he was familiar with. They had been together for several years, so he didn't want to change his environment and have to familiarize himself with new people.

And the NST was so well known that they were full of excellent specialists. He'd heard that all of them had bad tempers. When the time came, they'd be hard to get along with. He was the most afraid of interpersonal relationships, so he couldn't decide whether to stay or go.

Mu Huan knew that Lu Zichen was tempted, so she naturally wouldn't give up easily. She would look for Lu Zichen the moment she had the time.

The rich and powerful Auction House...

What was being auctioned on the stage was the legendary natural red heart-shaped gem that would bring true love to people. This gem had not been cut and was born with a heart shape. Furthermore, since it was first discovered, every person who'd owned it had experienced perfect love.

Chapter 1082: Start Again (7)

Therefore, there was a lot of mystery to it, giving it a very good background that made people want to have it.

Today, its starting price was three million.

It was also Mu Huan's target for today.

However, after it started being auctioned, Mu Huan was still playing games on her phone and did not bid.

It was only when the number of bidders had decreased and there was only one person bidding that she got her assistant to bid twice the current price.

Based on her estimation, the person would not bid for the item again after she offered this price.

Unexpectedly, after she made her bid, someone offered only 10,000 more than her.

She asked her assistant to bid again. After the assistant did so, the other party offered another 10,000 yuan.

After that, the other party would only add 10,000 yuan more to her bids. No matter how many times she increased the amount, he would definitely bid ten thousand more than her. Since he was so persistent, it was obvious that he was going to fight this out with her.

This caused Mu Huan to narrow her eyes and offer five times the price.

However, the other party still offered ten thousand more than her.

“Find out where this person is.”

This was a super VIP auction, unlike normal auctions where people would sit together below the stage. They were in a private room, so they had to look for the private room the other party was in based on the other party’s number.

Mu Huan was surrounded by talented people. Very soon, she confirmed the location of the other party’s private room.

“You can bid here as long as it’s the higher price compared to his. I’ll go take a look.” Mu Huan put away her phone and stood up to leave.

When Mu Huan arrived at the other party’s private room, she saw a man sitting inside. This man’s aura was very strong, but his face...

How should she put it?

To put it bluntly, it was not worthy of the aura he exuded.

This was the first time Mu Huan had met someone who looked so out of place.

However, she did not size him up. Instead, she smiled and said, “Sir, may I know if there’s anything between us?”

He was going against her like this, after all.

“I wonder what you mean by that, my lady.” The man’s voice was dark and low.

“The heart of true love,” Mu Huan said directly.

The man seemed to be a smart person. He immediately knew that she was the one who was bidding against him and understood what she meant.

“I just want this heart of true love.” He heard that she wanted to buy it for Lu Zichen.

“I want to give it to a very important person. It’s very important to me to bid for it. May I know if we can discuss this?” Mu Huan had always been a person who would be courteous before resorting to force. If there was a problem, she would settle it properly if she could. If she couldn’t, then she would settle it through other means.

“Most of the people who want to capture this heart of true love want to give it to their loved ones. Is the important person you are talking about your beloved?”

“Yes, a very important person I love. I really want to give this heart of true love to him. Sir, if you only want to collect it, please give it to me. Of course, I won’t let you give it to me for free.” Most people wanted to give this to their loved ones. She had to say she was giving this heart of true love to a very important person in order for others to feel that she really needed it.

After she said this, she suddenly felt the surrounding air become much colder.

This made her reevaluate the man before her.

When she took a closer look, she really saw some problems.

Hence, she walked closer to him and said, "Sir, I really need this heart of true love. I wonder..."

Then, when she was close enough, she reached out and grabbed the other party's face.

There was something wrong with this person's face.

Chapter 1083: Uncle, Don't Think of Eating Young Grass (1)

There must be something wrong with this person who was so obviously being at odds with her but did not show his true face.

Just as her hand was about to touch his face, he dodged in an instant. This caused a look of astonishment to flash across Mu Huan's eyes. She knew that this man in front of her was not an ordinary person, but to be able to dodge such a fast attack from her still surprised her.

She did not step forward and instead took a step back to keep a distance from the man.

Then, as if nothing had happened, she asked, "Sir, can we still discuss the Heart of True Love?"

The reason why Mu Huan wanted the Heart of True Love so much was because she wanted to give it to Lu Zichen. Lu Zichen's mother was the previous owner of the Heart of True Love. However, after her family went bankrupt, her mother sold it. The Heart of True Love was given to her by her husband and it represented the love between them. This made Lu Zichen's mother always think of the Heart of True Love. Lu Zichen was a very filial person. In addition, he was already very interested in her terms. If his mother could convince him, she would definitely be able to sign him on.

NST was weak in the area of AZ virus research. If Lu Zichen could join NST, NST would become even better.

Mu Huan's maternal grandfather was one of the founders of NST, and she was the successor to the exclusive sponsorship of NST. In addition, after the previous director retired, the other researchers preferred to focus on research and did not like to interact with others. Hence, she, a researcher in a different field, was in charge of NST matters.

A month ago, after having hotpot with Li Meng and the rest in the capital, Mu Huan flew to Country Y to look for Eisen for hypnosis.

Now, her memory was that she'd been forced to marry by her grandmother after she'd graduated from high school. But, because the two of them didn't have a good foundation, there'd been a conflict. She'd divorced and come to NST. Then she'd found out she was the heir to Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals. After that, she'd stayed in NST.

Her grandmother had passed away three years ago, and her father had died in an accident.

A while ago, she had gotten into a car accident and hit her head, causing her memories of the six months of marriage to be blurry. She could not remember anything and could not even remember what her ex-husband looked like. She only knew that he was called Bo Junyan because she had been brainwashed when she was under hypnosis to believe that this was the truth. Hence, she instinctively did not suspect anything when she woke up.

However, she felt that she remembered everything else except for that half a year. There was definitely nothing worth remembering. There was nothing to think about. The past was the past.

“There’s no room for discussion,” Bo Junyan said coldly.

“Alright.” With that, Mu Huan turned around and left. If they couldn’t get along, then so be it.

When she reached the door, the man behind her said, “You just want to recruit him into your research lab. It’s not appropriate to give him such a thing.”

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow at this and turned to look at Bo Junyan.

Her gaze made Bo Junyan realize that he had been impulsive.

He did not know what it meant to be impulsive since he was young, but he was actually impulsive over such a small matter.

Now, Bo Junyan could understand Mu Huan’s feelings when he and Ling Wei were in the newspaper. He knew that she was just trying to curry favor with Lu Zichen so she could get him to sign a contract with her. However, when he read about Mu Huan chasing after Lu Zichen in the newspaper, he couldn’t sit still and had flown over.

He knew he couldn’t let her discover him yet, suspect him, get close enough to study him, and then think of something to put that dead-end between them again.

Chapter 1084: Uncle, Don’t Think of Eating Young Grass (2)

However, not only did he fly over, but he even said those words impulsively.

With her intelligence, if he said something like that, she would definitely guess and find out who he was...

Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan for a while. “Although your face looks a little different now, you also attended the Wenbei Awards ceremony.”

The man looked at her with fanatical eyes.

I don’t know why he doesn’t use his real face to meet people.

But it didn’t matter why. It didn’t matter. She wasn’t going to have any more dealings with him.

Bo Junyan: “...”

She was really sharp.

After a moment of silence, he said, “Yes.”

Without waiting for Mu Huan to say anything, he continued, “I’ve been paying attention to you ever since you developed the life-extending medicine. I like you. I went to watch the Wenbei Awards for you, and I came here for you. You can’t give another man something that has this kind of meaning!”

He could not expose his identity, but he could expose his love for her. Besides, he could not hide it under such circumstances. Facing such a sharp person like her, if he tried to hide anything, it would only make her feel that he was strange and want to investigate. Instead, he would directly say that he was someone who was infatuated with her. In contrast, this would not make her suspect or think too much.

Mu Huan believed him because he gave off the feeling that he liked her and was jealous. This made her understand why the air had suddenly turned cold.

He liked her and was a fanatic. He could not bear to see her give other men things, but she said that she wanted to give it to the man she loved. Like this, he would definitely not let go of the Heart of True Love. If she explained it clearly, he might just let go.

So she smiled and said, "I was just joking. I don't like Lu Zichen. I'm not giving this to him. I'm giving it to his mother. His mother is the previous owner..."

"Since you know that I want to recruit Lu Zichen, you should also know that I've just taken over NST. I need to make some achievements. So, if you just don't want me to give something to another man, you can let it go."

There were many capable people in this world, so Mu Huan did not want to know how this man knew so much about her. She only wanted to take the opportunity to make him give up taking this jewel.

"I'll buy it for you," Bo Junyan said.

"That's not good. We don't know each other, so I can't accept something as valuable as that from you," Mu Huan said politely.

Out of habit, Bo Junyan said domineeringly, "Only I can give it to you, so I have no choice but to buy it for you."

Mu Huan: "..."

Only he could give it to her? Who did he think he was?

"Uncle, I don't like people older than me, and I won't accept gifts that I don't like. If you insist on buying this Heart of True Love, you can have it," Mu Huan said bluntly and left.

Even without this item, she could think of other ways to sign Lu Zichen.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Uncle, I don't like older people...

Mu Huan returned to her private room, intending to ask her assistant to stop bidding.

"Xiao Huan, we got it!"

Mu Huan raised her brows slightly. She had thought that that person would become even more furious and refuse to let go. Unexpectedly, he actually let go.

Before she left, Mu Huan bumped into that man again.

She knew that this was not a coincidence.

However, seeing that he had finally let go, she handed him a business card. "This is my business card. If your family or friends need life-extension medicine, you can give me a call. I'll give it my priority."

Chapter 1085: Uncle, Don't Think of Eating Young Grass (3)

Bo Junyan took the name card from her.

Just as Mu Huan was about to leave...

"Why don't you like someone older than you? An older person will dote on and pamper you. Isn't that good?" She couldn't not like someone older than her.

Age was really something.

"Even if I find a handsome younger man, he will still dote on me and pamper me!" Mu Huan did not have the heart to fall in love, but she had always been ruthless in rejecting others.

Because if you don't like someone, you shouldn't give them anything to make them feel hopeful.

Besides, this uncle probably didn't really love her like a man and a woman did. He might be like her other fans. Seeing that she was able to develop longevity pills and was young and beautiful, like a goddess, he was infatuated.

This kind of liking was similar to what a fan felt for their idol.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Yes, find a handsome younger man who will dote on you and pamper you, just like me!" The tall and handsome Long Feiting stood beside Mu Huan and looked at her affectionately.

He was young, charming, and handsome. When he stood next to Mu Huan, anyone would think that they were a good match.

Mu Huan had originally wanted to forget about Long Feiting, but because Long Feiting had been in frequent contact with her in the last three years, completely erasing his existence would cause some memories to be messed up. Therefore, she had not completely forgotten about him. She had only forgotten the six months they had spent together in school. Her memory of him was that he was the fat brother who had been kidnapped with her back then. All these years, he had been looking for her, and based on their past relationship, Long Feiting had become Mu Huan's best friend and number one suitor.

Bo Junyan looked at the two of them standing together, his gaze terrifyingly dark.

However, the two people standing in front of him were not afraid.

This was especially so for Long Feiting. Not only was he not afraid, but he was even more provocative. In the past, he was always at a disadvantage, but now, he finally had the upper hand. He had to provoke him properly. "Hey, uncle, quickly, go home so you could wash up and sleep. Don't dream of becoming an old cow eating young grass. My Xiao Huan doesn't like older people. She only likes young fresh meat like me!"

Mu Huan started to sweat but didn't argue with him.

After dealing with this uncle, they would talk about other things.

Bo Junyan's eyes darkened even more, but in the end, he turned around and left without saying or doing anything.

"That uncle is quite self-aware." Long Feiting laughed evilly.

At this moment, he really wanted to throw his head back and laugh out loud. Bo Junyan had nothing to stand on. Without the identity of Xiao Huan's husband, he's nothing!

Although Bo Junyan had disguised himself, Long Feiting knew that it was him.

"I don't think he has any self-awareness. He's just suppressing his anger and preparing to deal with you," Mu Huan said coldly.

A domineering man like him would never suffer a loss no matter what. He would never tolerate anyone provoking him. After what Long Feiting did just now, that man would definitely seize the opportunity to beat him up.

Upon hearing this, Long Feiting immediately hugged her arm and pretended to be scared. "Xiao Huan, I only did that to help you chase away the flies. If he wants to deal with me, you have to protect me! I want to live with you for the next few days!"

He really admired his wit! He could think of such a good reason to be with her!

Disgusted, she pulled her arm back. "What do you mean, chasing away flies for me? I can see you're clearly having problems with someone. The way you're deliberately provoking that person was too obvious."

Chapter 1086: Uncle, Don't Think of Eating Young Grass (4)

Long Feiting: "..."

Afraid that it would be dangerous to continue this topic, he hurriedly changed it. "Are you hungry? Let's go eat something delicious!"

"Okay." Mu Huan was indeed a little hungry.

He watched as the two of them got into the car and left. However, Bo Junyan, who was still in the car, exuded a strong cold aura that made PA Wang shiver uncontrollably.

"Capture that kid from the Long family."

"Yes."

Long Feiting was happily having dinner with Mu Huan.

"Xiao Huan, I have something important to talk to you about." Liu Changfeng sat down before the two of them could say anything.

Long Feiting frowned and said unhappily, "Can't you see that we're eating? You can talk about anything important later!"

He didn't like Liu Changfeng because Liu Changfeng was his love rival.

He always made use of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals to seek out his Xiao Huan.

"We have to talk now. Mr. Long, please excuse us." Liu Changfeng looked at Long Feiting.

"F*ck! Who do you think you are! If you want me out of your face, you go!" First come, first served. Didn't he know that? Even if he didn't, who did he think he was? Was he someone he had the right to chase away?

"Xiao Huan." Liu Changfeng looked at Mu Huan.

"I'm hungry. Let's talk after dinner." No matter what time it was, Mu Huan was never in the mood to go hungry. She would have to wait until she was full to talk about anything.

Upon hearing this, Long Feiting immediately looked at Liu Changfeng arrogantly. It was written all over his face. Look, to Xiao Huan, I'm the most important! She won't chase me away because of you! She'll only chase you away because of me!

Seeing that look, Mu Huan really wanted to pour cold water on him. Hence, she said, "Don't think too much. I'm just hungry."

Long Feiting instantly looked aggrieved. Can't you allow me to feel proud?

Mu Huan: "..."

After the meal, Mu Huan shot him a look and Long Feiting tactfully left.

Mu Huan looked at Liu Changfeng with an expression as if she wanted to say something.

"When are we going to register our marriage? There are only a few days left until the end of the month. If we don't register our marriage before the end of the month, Rui Hui will be donated." Liu Changfeng was also someone who supported Mu Huan with forgetting Bo Junyan. He also felt that Mu Huan forgetting Bo Junyan was his greatest chance.

It was written in the will that if the two of them were to get married, they would not be able to get a divorce for ten years. If they were to get a divorce or if the inheritor died from an accident, or if they fell sick and had no children, their family assets would also be donated.

This was originally the old man's condition to protect his successor, but now, it was especially beneficial to him.

They could not be divorced for ten years. He would be her fake husband for ten years, and there was a high chance that he could turn the fake into the real deal, not to mention that she had forgotten about Bo Junyan and no longer loved him.

There was no one she loved in her heart. He would definitely be able to conquer her heart.

Previously, Mu Huan had agreed to a fake marriage with him, let alone now.

In the past, due to the pain of losing her family, even though Mu Huan was strong-willed, she still had a lot of negative emotions. This made her not think highly of money. However, she, who had forgotten about the pain, now especially loved money. She would definitely not just watch as her assets were donated.

She would definitely register her marriage with him and persist in their marriage for ten years.

Therefore, he was filled with hope for their future.

That was why he did not take Long Feiting seriously. No matter how much he wanted Mu Huan, it was useless.

Because he and Mu Huan were about to get married.

Liu Changfeng thought for a while and said, "How about tomorrow? You don't have any plans tomorrow, and neither do I."

Chapter 1087: The Second Will

"Eh? Didn't I tell you earlier that we're not registering our marriage?" Mu Huan asked with a puzzled expression. She clearly remembered telling him about this.

Liu Changfeng: "..."

She did tell him about it, but that was before her memories were erased. After she saw Bo Junyan, she did not want to get a divorce anymore. But she should be thinking of faking a marriage with Liu Changfeng now. "Are you going to watch Rui Hui get donated?"

Didn't she love money now? Her little money-grubber look was adorable.

Liu Changfeng thought that the money-loving Mu Huan would definitely want to marry him more.

However, that was not the case.

Mu Huan loved money by nature, but she would not sacrifice her entire life in exchange for money unless she had to. She also did not like Liu Changfeng. Marrying him for the inheritance and being husband and wife for ten years was not worth it. Although the more money, the better, this was under the premise that it did not affect her happiness in life.

Besides, she didn't have to marry him.

"I didn't have the chance to tell you. Great-grandfather's lawyer came to me. The lawyer said that Great-grandfather has another will. The first will says that if the inheritor would rather not marry the person he has chosen, they'd be willing to donate all his family assets. The first will will be invalidated and the second will will be executed. The second will states that you are to be given 15% of Rui Hui's shares. The rest will be inherited by me."

Bo Junyan had many connections. The Liu family had not known about the second will all these years, but he did. Previously, when he said that he could use other means to let Mu Huan inherit the family fortune, he was referring to this will. After Mu Huan washed away her memories, he got his lawyer to look for her and tell her about the second will.

In case she wanted to get married to Liu Changfeng after losing her memories.

Liu Changfeng: “ ...”

He didn't expect Old Master to have made such a move. Seriously...

That night, the Liu family...

“How is it? Have you decided on the time to register your marriage with Mu Huan?” Mr. Liu asked when he saw his son return. He put down the newspaper in his hand.

Liu Changfeng gave a bitter, mocking smile. “I'm not getting married to Mu Huan anymore.”

His beautiful dream had completely collapsed.

Mr. Liu frowned. “What happened?”

Liu Changfeng told him about the old master he was loyal to and the second will.

After Mr. Liu heard that, his expression turned dark.

“Do you see that? This is the master you are loyal to. You didn't even come back for my mother's funeral because of his family business, yet he was so guarded against you!” If the first will was already very guarded against the Liu family, then the second will was even more outrageous.

The marriage between the two families turned into 15% as the Liu family's shares.

Mu Huan's deceased great-grandfather had 70% of Rui Hui's shares. If the two families were to get married, even if they were to get a divorce in the future, the Liu family would get half of the shares. If they didn't get a divorce, it would be the Liu family's child inheriting the shares.

And now, the second will only allowed the Liu family to get 15% of the shares!

This...!!!

For others, 15% of shares was already a lot because it was worth billions.

However, this was far from enough for the Liu family, who had been in control of Rui Hui for all these years and had always thought that Rui Hui would be their family's in the future!

“All these years, you have been working hard for Rui Hui, not stopping even for a day. What happened in the end? How did he treat you?” Liu Changfeng, who was in a bad mood, mocked.

What he cared about was not that the Liu family could not get Rui Hui. What he cared about was that because of this will, he had no chance to be with Mu Huan.

This made him, who already hated Mu Huan's great-grandfather, hate him even more.

Chapter 1088: Don't Challenge My Bottom Line (1)

Mr. Liu's expression was extremely ugly. He had long treated Rui Hui as his family's property, but now, he was only being given 15% of the shares!

This...

Was the old master trying to get rid of a beggar?

He had worked hard for him all his life, yet the old master was playing with his loyal subordinate!

In this world, there were very few good people. In front of benefits, most people would change.

There were very few people who did not want immense wealth and supreme power. Those who'd obtained these things would rarely want to hand them over.

Human nature could not be tested.

Three days later, Mu Huan signed Lu Zichen.

This caused the media to report on the two of them once again. This time, some powerful media outlets even found out that Mu Huan was the successor of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals. She had the management rights to all of NST's products.

A young girl had not only developed medicines that could earn money, like the skin cream and the life-extending medicine, but she was also the inheritor of the world-renowned Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals. This...

She was simply standing at the top of the world!

Imperial City...

Old Master Meng's eyes widened in shock as he read the news report. "This... this Mu Huan is really the successor of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals?"

"Yes." Meng Yueying nodded.

"No... No... How did she become the successor of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals?" Old Master Meng found it unbelievable.

Wasn't she a child of the Mu family? Her parents were both from Yun Cheng, how did she... become the successor of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals!

When Old Master Meng found out that Mu Huan was the creator of the longevity pills, he was already shocked and regretful.

And now...

She was actually the successor of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals, and the only one at that!

Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals had a lot of best-selling medicines, and their annual profits were tens of billions...

She was the only heir...

This...

He had always wanted his grandson to marry a woman with sufficient wealth and wanted to use the marriage to bring the Bo family to greater heights. However, he had personally chased such a golden phoenix out of the Bo family...

He...

Old Master Meng didn't know what to think.

He only felt that this world was too fantastic!

After a while...

"How could it be like this? How could it be like this?" He had tried so hard to get what he wanted, but he had actually gotten it long ago. In the end, he had destroyed it with his own hands. Now, his grandson was not seeing him, and his biological daughter had been forced to forget a lot. He...

Meng Yueying looked at her father and could not bear to say anything.

However, Huo Yuqi, who was sitting at the side, said, "Grandpa, are you regretting it so much now?"

Old Master Meng was speechless.

"I told you before that Cousin-in-law is a very capable person, and she's also such a good person. I told you to get along well with her because the Bo family will definitely become better in the future. However, you refused to listen to anyone. Now, you've caused Cousin to lose such a good wife! You even made Aunt sacrifice her life for you, causing her to have to recuperate in bed!"

Huo Yuqi had always idolized Mu Huan. As Mu Huan became more and more powerful, she idolized Mu Huan more and more, even more than when she idolized Ling Wei.

"Shut up!" Meng Yueying glared at her daughter. The past was in the past. It was useless to say anything now. There was no need to make the old master feel upset.

"Alright, I'll shut up and leave," Huo Yuqi said as she stood up and left.

She felt that since things had come to this, she had to blame her mother and aunt. Both of them were too filial and indulged her maternal grandfather too much. Even now, her mother would not even allow her to say a word. This could even be considered as foolish filial piety!

After Huo Yuqi left.

Old Master Meng grabbed Meng Yueying's hand. "Xiao Ying, go look for Junyan. Ask him to get Mu Huan back no matter what. Don't let anyone else marry her!

"That's not right. Go and arrange for me to get the lifespan extension medicine first. She doesn't remember me now, right? If she doesn't, she will definitely concoct the medicine for me!"

Other people would kill themselves if they did such a regretful thing, but not Old Master Meng.

Although he was filled with regret, he still wanted to live. He even wanted to take the opportunity to get Mu Huan to concoct longevity pills for him.

This was because the few old friends he knew were getting better and better after taking the medicine. They looked much younger!

He thought about the medicine he used to take; he could take as much of them as he wanted. Now, he had to spend a lot of effort to get this one. Old Master Meng's heart ached even more.

Back then, if he had known that Mu Huan would have such capabilities in the future, he would never have opposed them!

He would definitely have treated Mu Huan well! He would never have done those things!

“Dad, don’t think about the life-extension medicine. Or wait and see. Don’t forget that Mu Huan really wants your life. That life-extension medicine can only be concocted once she’s seen a patient. If she sees you and remembers anything, then...” Meng Yueying also wanted her father to live for a few more years, but if this stimulated Mu Huan to regain her memories... Forget about living longer, she was afraid...

Hence, she felt that her father should not think about extending his life.

“I’ve asked my old friends. They said that when Mu Huan sees a patient, she’ll just ask about their physical condition, look at their medical records, and check their pulse. They won’t ask anything else. We’ll just say that I’ve caught a cold and I’ll put on a mask. Then, I’ll deliberately change my voice so that she won’t discover anything!” Old Master Meng had already thought of what to do.

Meng Yueying: “...”

Just as she was about to say something...

A cold voice sounded.

“At the same time, Xiao Huan is also a very capable doctor. If you pretend to have a cold, she will expose you and suspect you even more. If Grandpa wants to die, please find another way to die.”

Old Master Meng looked up when he heard this.

When he met Bo Junyan’s cold eyes, his heart skipped a beat.

Now, he was more and more afraid of this grandson.

“Junyan...” Meng Yueying wanted to say something.

“Second Aunt, I have something to tell Grandpa alone.”

Meng Yueying thought for a moment, then stood up and left without saying anything.

Not long after she went out, Bo Junyan also exited.

“You absolutely can’t ask Xiao Huan for medicine. If Second Aunt hears Grandpa’s words again in the future, just pretend that you didn’t hear him,” Bo Junyan said.

“But...”

“No buts, unless you want me to send Grandpa back to prison.”

Meng Yueying: “...”

After a long silence, she nodded.

She nodded, relieved.

This was because she knew deep down that it was too dangerous to ask Mu Huan to concoct the life-extension medicine for her father. Her sister, Mu Huan, and Junyan had all paid such a huge price in order for things to end up like this. They really couldn't afford any more accidents. However, if her father insisted on it, she couldn't reject him. She was afraid that she would eventually help him think of a solution. If anything were to happen, she would become a great sinner.

Now that Bo Junyan was being so strict about not allowing this matter to happen, she could only be firm and not waver so the old master won't be sent back to prison.

At night, the moon was as cold as water.

Long Feiting was hanging upside down in the cold night.

Chapter 1090: Don't Challenge My Bottom Line (3)

All of a sudden, he fell from the sky into the middle of a pool. Just as he was about to suffocate, he was pulled up. He fell down again and again until he started choking on the water.

He was dragged to the side of the pool and ended up sprawled on the ground.

After a long while, he finally raised his head and looked at the tall man standing in front of him. "Bo Junyan, kill me if you dare!"

He was actually torturing him on such a cold day!

"You want to die? Alright."

The people standing beside Long Feiting picked him up and threw him into the water again.

Long Feiting hurriedly said, "Bo Junyan, if you kill me, Xiao Huan will definitely avenge me! I'm now one of her best friends!"

However, his words did not stop people from throwing him down.

Then, a few more rounds.

After dragging him out...

"Do you still want me to kill you?" Bo Junyan asked condescendingly.

Long Feiting: "..."

Damn it! He really should have listened to his elder brother back then and worked together to destroy Bo Junyan! It was really true—being kind to the enemy was being cruel to oneself!

"This is just a warning. Don't challenge my bottom line in the future." With that, Bo Junyan gave him a cold glance and turned to leave.

After he and his men got into the car and left, Long Feiting finally regained his composure. He held on to the side of the pool and stood up. Then, he realized that this was a scenic spot in the wilderness...

Was he trying to freeze him to death on such a cold winter night?

Damn it! Bo Junyan was really ruthless!

Fortunately, he had the waterproof watch phone. Otherwise, he would really freeze to death here!

Long Feiting wanted to call his men to pick him up, but after some thought, he dialed Mu Huan's number.

Mu Huan, who was in the midst of a competition, was killed because of his call. "Long Feiting, you'd better have something important on. Otherwise, I'll kill you!"

"I'm going to die even without you killing me."

She sat up at his words. "What is it?"

"I'll send you my location. Take a look at where I am. Come and pick me up. Otherwise, I'll freeze to death here..." Long Feiting sent her his location after saying that.

"What are you doing there in the middle of the night?" Mu Huan picked up her coat and walked out.

"I didn't run here. I was captured and brought here..." Long Feiting explained briefly about how he had almost been tortured to death.

Mu Huan: "..."

She knew that that man would definitely teach Long Feiting a lesson, and she even told him to be careful...

In the end, he was still caught.

However, the fact that the man had dared to lecture Long Feiting like this showed that he had a powerful background.

In the past three years, the Long family had also developed rapidly. After all, there were many members of the Long family. Long Feiting's three older brothers were all very capable.

"Xiao Huan, come over quickly... I feel like I'm going to cry from the cold... I'll freeze to death soon..." Long Feiting used to think that crying from the cold was an exaggeration, but now, he truly understood what it meant to cry from the cold.

"I'll go over right away. You should start exercising too." The weather outside was a few degrees below zero right now. If he just waited for her, he might get sick even if he didn't freeze to death.

"Yeah."

When Mu Huan arrived, Long Feiting was running around the pool, half-naked and wearing shorts.

His thick clothes were drenched, and he felt extremely heavy in them. When gusts of cold wind blew over, it made him feel like he couldn't run anymore. It was also unbearably wet.
