

Fake Marriage 1121

Chapter 1121: Old Master Meng's Ending (4)

"Xiao Meng, I'm not a b*tch, am I?" Xiao Meng was her best friend. She would definitely tell her everything. She just needed to confirm if she had liked two men at the same time.

Li Meng, who was eating, almost choked on her words. "What are you saying? How are you a b*tch?"

"When I was married to Bo Junyan, did I like any other man?" She did not remember this man, but she felt a sense of familiarity toward him. She had lost only half a year's worth of memories, so if she had relations with the other male lead, it could only be while she was married to Bo Junyan.

"No!"

"Are you sure?"

"I'm 100% sure!" Li Meng said. "Why are you suddenly asking this?"

"Didn't I tell you before..." Mu Huan told Li Meng about the man called Tin. "Tell me, if I didn't like two men at the same time, why would I have such an indescribable sense of familiarity with him and an uncontrollable feeling of affection? Why would I have such feelings for both men!"

"If I didn't like two men at the same time, I wouldn't be feeling such things for two men at the same time..." Mu Huan suddenly widened her eyes at this thought. "Could it be that Bo Junyan is pretending to be Tin?"

The more she thought about it, the more likely it seemed.

First of all, although their appearances were different and the other man was a few centimeters taller than Bo Junyan, that difference could be achieved by wearing higher heels.

Secondly, if he was Bo Junyan, it would make sense if he did not dare to show his face. Previously, he had been afraid that she would remember something if she saw him, which was why he had disguised himself. There was also the time when she had met Bo Junyan in the airport departure lounge. That was the departure lounge for Country T. He had saved her in Country T's capital, and she had saved Bo Junyan. They were both in Country T at the same time. She could still remember the surprise in his eyes when he saw her, as if he was very surprised that it was her.

Now that she thought about it, it was because he had asked her to leave after completing her mission and before he was trapped. Hence, he did not expect her to still be in Country T.

Furthermore, Tin had said that he was a close friend of her senior brother, and Bo Junyan could also use Stargate to save him. There was so much overlapping information. No matter how she thought about it, the two of them were the same person.

And Xiao Meng was certain that Mu Huan did not like two men at the same time.

If she didn't like them both in the past, she wouldn't have such feelings for them.

Li Meng: "..."

Her Xiao Huan definitely did not like a second man. If she had such feelings for that man, then that man could only be Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan had actually put on makeup and approached Xiao Huan. He had concealed his identity just to help Xiao Huan control Rui Hui. Seriously...

How touching!

God Bo would always be on the front line of spoiling his wife!

She couldn't help but hope that Old Master Meng would die soon!

This was the first time, really, the first time she wished for someone to die sooner...

Master Meng was really too evil.

Someone like him should go to hell and not live well.

After Mu Huan officially took over Rui Hui, she held a press conference and announced to the public that she was going to take over as the CEO of Rui Hui. She wanted the shareholders to know the general direction of the company's future operations and stabilize Rui Hui's share price.

Because she was Chinese, when she took over Rui Hui, not only were there many television and newspapers reporting about it in Country Y, but even the mainstream television stations and newspapers in the country were reporting about her taking over as the CEO of Rui Hui.

Chapter 1122: Old Master Meng's Ending (5)

Mu Huan had recently won the highest honor in the pharmaceutical field. Now that she was taking over the top pharmaceutical company internationally, she could really be said to be standing at the top of the world!

There were too many reports about her in the country. It was hard not to see them.

Imperial City...

"Yo, Old Meng, isn't this the granddaughter-in-law you used to look down on?" An elderly man pointed at the photo of Mu Huan in the newspaper.

Old Master Meng's face darkened.

"That's true!" The other old man put on his glasses and took a closer look. It was indeed Mu Huan.

"Isn't she also the one who developed the life-extension medicine?"

"Yes! It's her!"

"Heavens... She's so young, but she's so capable!"

"Yes, it's not an ordinary ability!"

"Old Meng, you've always had good taste. Why did you chase away such a golden phoenix?"

"Old Meng, you've really become old!"

“That’s right! You’re really old now. You didn’t like such a good granddaughter-in-law and forced her to leave. If you hadn’t, how much life-extension medicine could you have taken? Perhaps in the future, she might even be able to develop a medicine that can let you live longer. Just thinking about it makes people envious, jealous, and hateful. It’s just a pity... that you were blind and chased her away. Now, she’s beyond your reach!”

Outsiders thought that Old Master Meng had used his life to threaten Bo Junyan to divorce Mu Huan.

In addition, Old Master Meng was usually too arrogant and didn’t give others any face. Therefore, people took the opportunity to step on him when he was down.

“I heard that your filial grandson isn’t coming to visit you anymore.”

“Did they cut ties with you?”

“You said that you’ve been smart all your life, but in the end...”

“What you’ve done is truly regretful!”

“Old Meng, to live to this point, you’re really...”

“We all want to use Old Meng as a negative example! In the future, we must not interfere with the children’s freedom to love!”

“Yes, yes. What era is this? Who would still interfere with their children’s marriage? Only those senile people would do that...”

Old Master Meng was about to explode with anger. In the past, none of them dared to say a word in front of him. In the past, all of them were careful to please him when they saw him! Now, they actually dared to talk about him like this in front of him!

“By the way, Old Meng, didn’t you always want Bo Junyan to marry Ling Wei? You broke up your grandson and Mu Huan. Why didn’t you have him marry Ling Wei?”

“Didn’t Ling Wei commit suicide by jumping into the sea after killing someone overseas? How is he supposed to marry her if she’s dead? Is he going to marry a memorial tablet? I’m afraid she doesn’t even have a memorial tablet. I heard that Ling Feng has fallen to the point where he doesn’t even have a place to live and hasn’t gone overseas to collect Ling Wei’s corpse...”

“Tsk, my memory is really bad. I forgot about this!”

“Old Meng, the one you wanted to be your granddaughter-in-law so badly, her family went bankrupt and she became a murderer who jumped into the sea to commit suicide. You despised Mu Huan so much and tried so hard to chase her away, but she became so successful. Do you regret it? Or do you regret it so much that your intestines have turned green?”

“It’s useless even if he regrets it so much that his intestines turn green. That young lady Mu Huan will never return.”

“With that kind of ability and that kind of family background, why would she return?”

“Old Meng, I really didn’t expect that after being shrewd all your life, once you’re old... tsk tsk... If I were you, I wouldn’t keep being alive! It’s too embarrassing!”

Old Master Meng stood up and shouted angrily, “Shut up!”

These damned old things!

“What are you shouting for? Who do you think you are now? You’re just a smelly old man who’s despised by his family. Without Bo Junyan, who doesn’t care about you, what do you have? Do you think we need to be afraid of you?” One old man snorted.

“That’s right. Do you still think it’s like in the past?” Right now, Bo Junyan could not wait for his grandfather to die. So what if they offended him? There was nothing to be afraid of!

“Since you’re so stupid, the Bo family and even your biological daughter probably don’t want to see you anymore, right? As a human being, to be honest, there’s really no good life to live if you’ve already failed so badly.”

“You... you...” he said, trembling with rage.

“Alright, stop talking. If this person is angered to death, we will have to take responsibility as well. Stay away from him...”

“That makes sense... Let’s go!”

After he said that, the people surrounding Old Master Meng dispersed.

This was a top-notch banquet in the upper-class circle of the Imperial Capital.

In the past, when Old Master Meng appeared at such banquets, he would always be surrounded by people who fawned over him and flattered him. Today, not only was he mocked and ridiculed but he was also stepped on while he was down.

Now, they were even treating him like a plague.

This made him even more furious.

Never! He, Meng Dongsheng, had never been so embarrassed in all his years of life!

No one had ever dared to treat him like this before!

“Old Master, please calm down.” The butler, who was standing far away, saw this situation and hurried forward. He reached out to support the trembling Old Master Meng, telling him to calm down and not fall down in anger.

“I want her dead! I want her dead!” Old Master Meng gritted his teeth.

He wanted Mu Huan dead! He wanted her dead!

All of this was because of her! If not for her, he would not have ended up like this!

His family wouldn’t have abandoned him and allowed him to be trampled on outside!

Since there was nothing he could do about it, he couldn't ask for a life-extending medicine.

If he couldn't live well, then she couldn't live well either!

If he died, she would die with him!

"Old Master..." The butler had been by his side for so many years and knew whom he was referring to when he said he wanted her dead.

"Let's go!" Old Master Meng said as he walked out.

Even if he had to go bankrupt, he would find the best killer to kill Mu Huan!

He was about to die anyway, so there was nothing else he could lose!

Rather than being humiliated like this and being laughed at by others, it was better to die earlier!

"Old Master, Young Master Bo loves Miss Mu deeply..." Seeing that he was really going to do that, the butler hurriedly advised Old Master Meng.

Putting aside the fact that Mu Huan was not easy to kill now, just the fact that Young Master Bo had separated from Mu Huan for the sake of the Old Master was already painful enough for him. If Mu Huan were to die, how much pain would he be in?

"How could he treat his own grandfather like this just for a woman? Do you want me to think about such an unfilial person?" Master Meng was utterly disappointed with Bo Junyan. He had never expected that his grandson, whom he had raised single-handedly, would treat him like this.

"Master..." The butler tried to persuade him.

Old Master Meng glared at him coldly. "Why? Do you also think that I'm old and useless and want to betray me?"

The butler hurriedly said, "I wouldn't dare. I'm loyal to Master!"

It was precisely because of his loyalty that he did not want the old man to continue making mistakes.

"Since you're loyal, go and contact someone for me!" Old Master Meng said. "Forget it, I'll contact someone myself!"

Chapter 1124: Old Master Meng's Ending (7)

The butler was probably trying to persuade him because he didn't dare to do it, so Old Master Meng wouldn't ask him to do it. He had to do it himself.

With Mu Huan's current status, he could only succeed the first time. Otherwise, he would be the one to die. He was not afraid of death, but he had to drag Mu Huan down with him!

She had ruined his honorable life and made him old only to be mocked like this. If he could not kill her, he would not die in peace!

After getting into the car, the butler thought about it and could not help but persuade him again, "Old Master, even if Young Master Bo is unfilial and doesn't deserve your heartache, what about Missy?"

Missy is already in this state because of you. If anything happens to you, if you... what will happen to Missy and Second Missy?"

Even if he didn't want to care about others, he had to think of his two biological daughters.

"Don't mention them to me. I trained them so hard, but in the end, what did they do to me? After she had her own family, she only cared about her husband and son. She completely disregarded me as her father! She allowed others to humiliate and bully me like that, especially her son. She didn't interact with me before, and after being hypnotized, she wasn't any better. Coming to see me was just a routine matter. She no longer has me as her father in her heart!"

The more Old Master Meng spoke, the more he felt that he had failed as a human being. In the end, he was betrayed by everyone. His daughter and grandson, whom he had spent so much effort loving, were all so ruthless to him.

And this was all Mu Huan's fault!

The more he thought about it, the more he wished he could kill Mu Huan right now.

The butler was speechless.

When a person got married, who wouldn't take their husband and son more seriously? After all, it was their husband and son who could spend the rest of their lives with them.

The two ladies were already unusual in their filial piety.

He wanted to say something else.

Old Master Meng glared at him fiercely. "Shut up and don't say another word. Also, don't leak this matter!"

The butler looked at his master, whom he had served all his life, and felt an indescribable sadness in his heart. Actually, not only could his master not stand being bullied and humiliated like this, he could not stand the environment he was in. Even he could not stand it. He used to be such a high and mighty master, but now...

He really could not bear to see this happen.

It was no wonder his master blamed Mu Huan. If not for her, he would not have fallen this low.

Who would have thought that such a little girl back then could cause such an impact?

If he had known earlier, everything would have been fine if he had gotten rid of her sooner.

Now...

The chances of getting rid of her were too low...

Not to mention Mu Huan's current status, her personal capabilities were not that easy to deal with.

However, he did not say anything else because he knew that it would be useless no matter what he said.

Along the way, the butler was hesitating and thinking hard.

When he returned, he thought about it for another night. In the end, he decided to tell Meng Yueying about this matter. He didn't want the master he had served for his entire life to make mistakes again and again. He didn't want him to end up with a bad ending.

When Meng Yueying found out that her father was going to hire someone to murder Mu Huan, she stood up in shock.

"He...!!!" She was about to explode. She did not expect that at this point, not only did her father not regret or feel that he had done something wrong, he even wanted to hire a murderer!

He was really...!!!

"Second Miss, please stop Master. Please don't let Young Master Bo know about this," the butler pleaded. He did not want Bo Junyan to hate his master even more.

Chapter 1125: Old Master Meng's Ending (8)

Meng Yueying rubbed her throbbing temples. "Okay, I got it. Go back and keep an eye on the Old Master. Let me know if anything happens."

After the butler left, Meng Yueying, who didn't know how else to look after him and how to make the Old Master stop doing anything wrong, had a headache.

Huo Yuqi, who had heard everything from outside the door, said as she walked in, "Mom, it's not that I want to say this, but you and Eldest Aunt are too foolishly filial. That's why my grandfather ended up like this. He's probably still thinking that no matter what he does, he's still your biological father. You can't just watch him die. That's why even though he's already fallen this low, he still doesn't regret it and still wants to kill Cousin-in-law."

Meng Yueying did not expect her to come back and even hear about this. Her head hurt even more. "When did you come back? Why didn't you tell me you were coming back!"

She added, "Don't tell anyone about this! Pretend you didn't hear it!"

"Why are you asking me to pretend not to hear? Also, are you just going to watch Grandpa do something wrong again?" Huo Yuqi had matured quite a bit over the past three years.

"I'm not," Meng Yueying snapped. How could she watch her father do something wrong again? "I'm just trying to think of something! My head is about to explode!"

Huo Yuqi could tell that her mother was so worried that her head was about to explode. Her tone became gentle as she said, "Mom, actually this matter isn't that difficult."

"What? You have a good idea?" Meng Yueying's eyes lit up.

"We can hypnotize my aunt and make her forget about that matter. We can also hypnotize Grandpa and make him forget about Cousin-in-law! After Grandpa forgets about Cousin-in-law, we can get someone to take Grandpa overseas. Then, we won't have to worry about him doing anything wrong again," Huo Yuqi said.

Meng Yueying thought that this was a good idea!

“Girl, you have finally become useful!”

“What do you mean by I’ve finally become useful? I’ve always been very useful!” Huo Yuqi’s face was full of pride as she continued, “Speaking of which, actually, in the past, Cousin could also have hypnotized Grandpa and make him stop objecting to Cousin and Cousin-in-law being together. Why didn’t he think of such a method before? If that was the case, there wouldn’t be such a situation now! It seems that even someone as smart as Cousin can fail sometimes.”

“It’s not that your cousin couldn’t think of it, but hypnosis isn’t omnipotent. For someone like your grandfather, even if the initial hypnosis made him forget about the marriage alliance with the Ling family, he would still want your cousin to be with other rich women. Back then, your grandfather wanted your cousin to get married and found him a matchmaking partner with great power, but your cousin was unwilling. Your grandfather didn’t force him because he was still thinking about Ling Wei.

“Later, when Junyan and Mu Huan registered their marriage, he didn’t jump out to object to their marriage because he had already contacted Ling Wei at that time. At that time, he was thinking that Mu Huan’s family background wasn’t good. Even if she’d married Junyan already, it would be easy to get rid of her after.

“For instance, once Ling Wei came back, he’d take Mu Huan away. If Ling Wei didn’t come back, he’d have waited to see who else was more suitable. Anyway, it’s easy to chase away that lass from the Mu family. It didn’t matter when he does it. He didn’t take Mu Huan seriously, and he didn’t take the two of them getting married seriously.”

He did not expect Mu Huan to be so difficult to handle.

“Besides, hypnosis can’t make people completely forget. Take your aunt for example. There aren’t many things that she was made to forget, but even so, she often tells me that she feels that something is wrong. Even your aunt feels that way, let alone your grandfather!”

Chapter 1126: Old Master Meng’s Ending (9)

“Forgetting someone through hypnosis isn’t that reliable. When people think about it, they might remember it. Even if they can’t remember it, once they feel that something is amiss, they can still find out the truth.”

“But can you use it on him now?”

“Your grandfather’s health is much worse than it was three years ago, and he even contracted such an illness. If he doesn’t take longevity medicine to extend his life, he probably won’t have much time left. Besides, he’s getting old, and his mind is already a lot more muddled. He won’t be as smart as before and think of anything that isn’t right. Now, even if he slowly realizes something, he probably... won’t be able to do anything even if he wants to...”

Young people had bodies that would change drastically after three years, let alone an old man who was almost 80 years old.

Huo Yuqi thought about it. “That’s true.”

“I’ll get someone to contact Eisen,” Meng Yueying said as she stood up.

“Mom, let’s get someone to keep an eye on Grandfather first. Someone like him might start contacting people to hire thugs right now,” Huo Yuqi said.

“It’s really possible!” After Meng Yueying was reminded by her daughter, she hurriedly sent more people. She also contacted Eisen and arranged a time to go to Old Master Meng. She would only be at ease if she personally watched him.

Old Master Meng was in the midst of contacting someone online when he suddenly lost his connection. He made a call and his phone stopped ringing. He knew that this was definitely not an accident, not a coincidence.

Hence, when the butler brought him food, he slapped him!

“It’s you!” He must have leaked the secret! Who did he tell about him wanting to kill Mu Huan?!

“I’m sorry, Old Master.” The butler was prepared for him to find out, so he did not panic and just admitted it.

“You damned bastard!” Old Master Meng picked up his walking stick and hit him hard.

The butler did not dodge and allowed Old Master Meng to hit and scold him.

Until Meng Yueying came in and stopped him.

“Move aside! Let me beat this traitor to death!” Old Master Meng was so angry that he was trembling. He never expected that even his most loyal dog would betray him!

All of them had betrayed him! Damn it!

How could they all betray him!

How could he? Even his loyal dog betrayed him! How could he!

“What traitor! He did this for your own good. He doesn’t want you to have a bad ending! He wants you to live until you’re old!” Meng Yueying said angrily.

“What a dog...! Get lost! Otherwise, I’ll hit you too!” Old Master Meng said as he hit Meng Yueying with his walking stick.

After Meng Yueying was hit hard by the walking stick, her eyes turned red. She lost control and shouted, “Dad, why do you have to do this! Why do you have to do this! Why can’t you just live well and live peacefully! Why can’t you enjoy the happiness of having a family! Why must you do this!

“You’ve already caused so much trouble for Big Sister and her family! You’ve already caused Junyan so much pain! That’s your biological grandson and biological daughter! You’ve already caused them to become like this, yet you still... you’re still so stubborn! What exactly do you want? Do you want all of us to die?”

“Is this my fault? Is it my fault? This is Mu Huan’s fault! This is all Mu Huan’s fault! If not for her, our family wouldn’t have ended up like this! If not for her, our family would have had it so good!” He had two filial daughters, and his two sons-in-law listened to him and respected him greatly. His grandson was also one in a million.

Chapter 1127: Old Master Meng's Ending (10)

Everyone fawned over him when they saw him. They were all fawning over him!

He was so high and mighty.

And now?

Now, even a dog had betrayed him while he was down! His life had already come to this, so what was the point of him being alive!

What else did he have to look forward to?

“Why don’t you think about it? If you hadn’t done such a thing, with Xiao Huan’s current status, how great would it have been if she were still the daughter-in-law of the Bo family! Why do you push all the blame onto someone else and never think about your own mistakes! Things have come to this all because of you! You shouldn’t blame anyone at all!” Meng Yueying snapped.

“You...!” Old Master Meng was so angry that he was trembling!

Look...

This was the good daughter he had raised. She was shouting at him like this, feeling that everything was his fault! Such unfilialness!

Meng Yueying looked at the butler and said, “Butler, go. From now on, you don’t have to serve my father. I will send someone else to serve him.”

The butler thought that staying in front of Old Master would only make him angrier, so he left without saying anything.

“Dad, just take it that I’m begging you... I’m begging you to know your place. Please, let us both live well, okay?” Meng Yueying did not want to be fierce to her father. She wanted to be filial to him while he was still alive. So, she begged him to stop.

Let them live well.

As the saying goes, when one is about to die, one’s words will be kind. Why couldn’t this old man just think of enjoying a peaceful life...

“Begging me to let you live well? I too want to beg you to let me live well! I beg you, I beg you on my knees. Can’t you let me live with dignity?” Old Master Meng was about to kneel down.

Meng Yueying hurriedly supported him. “Dad...”

“Turn on the Internet. I’m telling you, I have to do this thing. I—”

Meng Yueying wanted to persuade Old Master Meng, but he kept begging her to turn on the Internet for him. In the end, Meng Yueying realized that she couldn’t persuade him no matter what, so she could only leave and lock him up.

Anyway, Eisen would be flying over tomorrow afternoon. When he arrives, as soon as the old man was hypnotized, he would no longer want to do this.

This time, she decided, she would take her father and live abroad until he was gone. Then she would return.

After Meng Yueying left, Old Master Meng was so angry that he smashed things in the room. He didn't stop until he had smashed everything he could.

Late at night.

When everyone thought that Old Master Meng was asleep, he quietly got up from the bed.

Then he groped his way to the desk and turned something on it. He opened a small hidden compartment and took out a phone and a small tablet.

After his freedom of communication got controlled last time, he secretly went to buy a cell phone, then hid his tablet and internet card. The butler did not know about this.

Fortunately, he was on his guard. Otherwise...

Ha...

Indeed, in this world, other than himself, no one else was reliable. Everyone else would betray him!

Old Master Meng had been in the business world his whole life, so naturally, he had his own special channels and connections. He quickly contacted an organization that had never failed even once as long as they accepted a mission. Back then, this organization was the one that had caused a world-shaking assassination. The target was such a big shot with tight security, yet they had succeeded in their mission. Mu Huan would be nothing!

After discussing the price with the other party, Old Master Meng got up to take the bank card he had hidden away and paid the deposit.

His bank card was hidden high up.

Just as he was about to remove the bank card and get off the stool, he accidentally stepped on something. He waved his arms in an attempt to balance his body, but in the end, he fell and the back of his head hit the ground hard.

Chapter 1128: Old Master Meng's Ending (11)

After a moment of dizziness, he got up and wanted to quickly pay the deposit before he called for help. He was afraid that once he was hospitalized, he wouldn't have a chance to pay the deposit.

To his surprise, it was dark in front of him. He couldn't even crawl forward, let alone stand. But he forced himself to crawl forward.

Old Master Meng was almost eighty years old. If the back of one's head hit the ground, even young people could get into trouble, let alone an old man like him.

However, with his strong mentality, he did not realize the danger he was in. All he could think of was that he had to crawl over. No matter what, he had to pay so Mu Huan would die!

No.

It should be said that even if he realized the danger, he'd still want to pay the deposit first.

Just like now.

As his vision grew blurry, he realized that the situation was more serious than he had thought. However, he still had no intention of shouting for someone to come in and save him. He even tried to crawl forward. He wanted to crawl to the front, hold on to the chair, and stand up, then pick up his phone to pay.

However...

The chair was close to him, just where he could reach out and touch it. All he had to do was stand up, get the phone, and pay the deposit.

At such a close distance...

It was something that could be done so easily.

But he could no longer move!

No matter how hard he tried, he could not move at all.

At this moment, he wanted to call for help.

He still wanted to live on. He wanted to see Mu Huan die. He wasn't willing to die just like that!

However, he couldn't shout even if he wanted to.

When people were about to die, they would magically know that they were about to die. He felt it too. He knew that if he closed his eyes, he would never be able to open them again.

He was indignant!

Unwilling! He'd die just like that. He'd die in his room. He'd die in such an aggrieved manner. He'd die in disgrace. He'd die by accident...

He felt very indignant. He would be dead, but Mu Huan would still be alive and well!

If he could even just pay to get people to chase after Mu Huan, he would feel much better.

But...

Right away. Just one step away. He could do it. He could make her die.

But...

Such an accident happened, and he could not pick himself up.

It was such a simple matter. He just had to do it right away...

He was indignant! He was really indignant!

However, no matter how unwilling he was...

No matter how hard he tried to crawl forward, he could not move at all.

Sometimes, just having willpower was not enough. Sometimes, no matter how unwilling you were, no matter how hard you tried, it was useless.

Unwilling to give up, he tried to crawl forward.

He didn't want to close his eyes like this.

He didn't close his eyes.

However, he could no longer move...

The ambitious Old Master Meng, who had once been so glorious and brilliant, had passed just like that.

He had stepped on something that he had smashed and thrown randomly. He had fallen off a stool and died.

He died in this quiet night. No one knew that he'd died just like that...

Just as he had said, it was an embarrassing death, an aggrieving death, an unexpected death...

His death was unacceptable to him.

But he still died.

Unlike other elders who had their children before them when they passed away, who died peacefully...

He had his eyes wide open, and his hands were still trying to crawl forward...

The next morning...

Meng Yueying came to deliver breakfast to Master Meng.

She knocked on the door for a long time, but no one answered. This made her feel uncomfortable. She hurriedly got someone to bring the spare key and opened the door to enter.

Chapter 1129: Old Master Meng's Ending (12)

When she entered the room, she saw Old Master Meng lying motionless on the ground.

Meng Yueying's face turned pale instantly. "Dad...!"

She stumbled forward and fell beside Old Master Meng.

His eyes were still open, but no matter how she shouted, he would not respond to her.

"Ah... Dad... Dad..." Meng Yueying knelt on the ground and cried.

No matter how bad a person was, there would still be people who cared about them. No matter what Old Master Meng had done, to Meng Yueying, he was her biological father, the father she loved very much...

Her father just passed.

She did not even see him one last time. She actually let him leave alone like this...

She...

“Ah... Dad... Dad...”

Country Y...

Yu Hansheng held a cat stick and played with his beloved kitten as he said, “I just received a mission.”

Bo Junyan did not say anything. He was wondering if Mu Huan had discovered something. Recently, the way she looked at him was a little different.

Yu Hansheng’s next words snapped Bo Junyan back to reality.

“What did you say?”

“Someone had offered a sky-high price to have Xiao Huan killed.”

“You took it?”

“Was I supposed to let all that money slip through my fingers?” Yu Hansheng raised his brows.

Although Yu Hansheng looked like an immortal from heaven and looked otherworldly, he actually loved money.

As long as he was given enough money, he would do anything.

Hence, Stargate had only one rule for accepting jobs. As long as one paid enough money, they would accept any mission.

Bo Junyan: “...”

“However, I don’t know why the other party hasn’t paid the deposit yet.” Yu Hansheng couldn’t help but feel heartache when he thought about how he would earn less if this business failed.

“Any information on the client?”

“This has to be kept a secret,” Yu Hansheng said. “We can’t disclose it. It’s a rule.”

Bo Junyan was about to say something when his phone rang. It was his mother.

“Junyan, come back quickly... Your grandpa... your grandpa... he... he passed away...” On the other end of the phone, Meng Yueman was crying so hard that she couldn’t breathe.

During the hypnosis, Bo Junyan had let Eisen dilute Meng Yueman’s feelings for Old Master Meng.

However, even if that was the case, perhaps because Meng Yueman was too filial, the effect did not hold too well. Old Master Meng’s sudden death still made her unable to bear it, and she was so sad that she could not control herself.

She cried until her voice was hoarse.

At that moment, Bo Junyan’s mind went blank.

He passed away? His grandfather passed away? He suddenly... left?

Family. Exactly. No matter what they did to make one miserable, one still couldn't easily let go of one's feelings for them.

Bo Junyan had always thought that with the old master's physical condition, he could live for another three to five years.

But now, he had suddenly died...

It was so unexpected.

"What happened to you?"

Yu Hansheng had walked up to him to ask him what was wrong.

Bo Junyan snapped back to his senses. "I'm going back to the country for a while. Help me find an excuse to tell Xiao Huan."

With that, he turned around and left.

As Yu Hansheng watched him leave, the corners of his lips curled up. Then, he lowered his head and looked at his beloved kitten. "Shall we eat braised fish for lunch?"

The kitten was speechless.

If it could speak, it would definitely tell him that it did not like to eat braised fish!

Especially the braised fish he made!

It felt that he would poison it sooner or later...

Chapter 1130: Untitled

Before Old Master Meng died, he was holding on to his bank card. On his tablet, there was also a message from him contacting the killer organization.

Hence, Bo Junyan knew that he was the one who had offered a sky-high price to have Mu Huan killed.

This made his feelings even more complicated...

His heart, which was originally feeling a little uncomfortable, could no longer stand it.

He did not know why the elder he'd once respected would become like this.

Why did it have to be like this in the end?

Meng Yueying also knew what Old Master Meng had wanted to do before he died.

It was also because of the surroundings that she deduced that Old Master Meng fell and got into trouble because he wanted to pay with his bank card.

This made her sad and uncomfortable, but at the same time, it also gave her an indescribable feeling.

This feeling washed away her sadness.

It even made her feel that perhaps this was the cycle of karma. He'd wanted someone else's life, but in the end, his own was taken.

In short, though Old Master Meng's death made them feel bad, their sadness got diluted because he was really...

In this world, there were two people who really did not want Old Master Meng to die. It was not the two sisters but Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi.

With Grandpa Meng here, they still had hope. Once he'd died, then they...

It felt like they hadn't had time to do anything.

Old Master Meng died so suddenly... so suddenly... that it made the two of them want to explode!

Country Y...

Mu Huan wanted to gain control over Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals. Other than wanting to develop the industry the way she envisioned, the most important thing was that she had previously investigated Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals and discovered that some of the drugs that were in clinical trials would be used on children in remote areas without informing the test subjects.

Every medicine needed to be clinically tested on a human body to determine its safety and effectiveness before it could be put on the market. The normal human body testing procedure involved finding patients with these illnesses and giving them money and supplements so that they could test the medicine on them voluntarily. It was very wrong to test medicine without the consent of the subjects, be it health supplements or anything else. The consequences would be very serious.

She had once told Liu Changfeng's father about this matter, but he didn't stop the experiments. He only did them more discreetly.

She knew that only when she was in charge could she completely prevent such a thing from happening.

Hence, the first thing she did after stabilizing her position was to stop doing this.

Her order made many of the executives and shareholders of Rui Hui, who were already unhappy with her, oppose her even more.

There were fewer and fewer people willing to be experimental subjects nowadays, which resulted in a huge price to pay if they went through the proper procedures. Although Rui Hui was earning 10 billion in US dollars annually, the cost of developing drugs and experimenting was also very high. There were many times when the investment was huge, but the research results had failed. Therefore, in order to ensure there'd be benefits, there were many things that were necessary.

For example, experimentation on remote, poor, and ignorant people.

If she gave the order to stop such projects, they would have to pay a higher price to do testing. In fact, even if they paid a higher price, they might not be able to recruit people. Therefore, there was a huge wave of opposition.

Mr. Liu appeared to support Mu Huan on the surface, but he was actually dragging her down in private.

She'd talked to him about this before, and he hadn't stopped the project. He'd known she'd do this once she took over.

Hence, he did not take any action and waited for her to seek death.

Sure enough, she started, still putting a stop to it with such a tough attitude.

Everyone was not satisfied with her to begin with. Now that the benefits were being interfered with, they would definitely oppose her even more.
