

Fake Marriage 1141

Chapter 1141: It's Him (4)

However...

The next second, she was pulled into a firm embrace.

“Bo Junyan...”

Before she could say anything, Bo Junyan said, “Carry him up and send him for treatment.”

Then, two people stepped forward to carry Long Feiting. Without giving him a chance to struggle, they brought him away.

“Xiao Huan...” Long Feiting could only call out to her.

“Where are you taking him? His leg is injured...” Mu Huan’s next words were cut off.

He knew that things were different now. He shouldn’t be petty and jealous, but he couldn’t bear to see her protecting another man. Even if he knew that she didn’t like the other party, he couldn’t.

Mu Huan: “...”

Why was this man always like this?

Yun Cheng...

“Xiao Yu, come back to our house tonight. I’ll make dinner for you, alright?” Fu Siye looked at Shangguan Yu. His almost pleading eyes made one unable to bear to reject him.

However...

Shangguan Yu refused. “I’m meeting someone.”

In the past, Shangguan Yu only had Fu Siye in her life. She lived for him every day and everything revolved around him.

His every move and expression could affect her for days.

She didn’t want to go back to such a life.

It hadn’t been easy for her to leave such a tough life and slowly find joy in another life. She didn’t want to return to his life again. She didn’t want to return to that pain. That pain made her unable to breathe and made her...

The joy of life that she had finally found would disappear. There would only be endless pain and darkness.

“This is our last dinner. After this meal, our relationship will be over.” Fu Siye lowered his eyes and smiled bitterly.

When Shangguan Yu heard this, she looked up at him. After a while, she asked, “What do you mean?”

“After this dinner, we’ll get a divorce tomorrow.”

Although Shangguan Yu had always wanted to divorce him, her heart still trembled for no reason when she heard his words. However, she said, "Since you've already decided to divorce me, why do we still have to eat dinner?"

It only added to her sadness.

"I've thought about it. In all our years of marriage, you've always been the one preparing food, clothing, and accommodation for me. I've never done anything for you. Now that you don't need me for anything, I can only prepare a meal for you. There's no good beginning between us, but I want a good ending."

Without waiting for Shangguan Yu to say anything, he continued, "If you don't want to eat, we will continue with the lawsuit. You know that if I insist on not agreeing to the divorce, this divorce will drag on for a long time."

Shangguan Yu, who had wanted to say something, was silent for a while before saying, "Alright."

Anyway, she wouldn't change her mind no matter what. It was just dinner. There was no need for her to reject it.

Fu Siye looked at her. She was so kind that he didn't know if it was better to be happy or upset.

"I'm going to get busy." Shangguan Yu couldn't stand his gaze and stood up to leave.

Fu Siye looked at her, who used to only want to be with him. Now, she didn't want to stay with him at all. That familiar pain in his heart instantly surged up, and it hurt so much that he couldn't stand up.

The pain made him want her even more to return to the past.

Back when she only loved him and thought about him.

Give him another chance. He would cherish their relationship and love her well!

He would spoil her into being the happiest woman in the world!

Chapter 1142: It's Him (5)

Fu Siye had wanted to get Eisen to hypnotize Shangguan Yu so that she would forget the pain and only remember that she loved him.

But when he came back and saw that her life was so rich and colorful now, that the smile on her face was more than before, he hesitated, wondering if he should do this.

Furthermore, Mu Huan, who'd been hypnotized, only saw Brother Bo's face and already felt something.

He was afraid that hypnosis would also not be able to eradicate her pain and that she would quickly recall something. When that time came...

He was afraid and didn't dare to think about such a situation.

But in the end, he still decided that he wanted to do that. He wanted to take a gamble! He wanted everything to return to the past, even if...

In the end, there would be the consequences that he could not imagine.

He had to do this!

He would do it tonight and make her forget that she wanted to divorce him so that, tomorrow, she would once again be the woman who loved him deeply.

Shangguan Yu returned to the kitchen. In order to not think too much, she took out all her tools and prepared to make dessert. However, as she was doing it, her tears suddenly fell.

She didn't know why she was crying. How could she still cry?

She thought that her tears had stopped flowing three years ago.

Now that everything was as she wanted, she shouldn't cry.

However, that salty liquid told her that they were tears. She was crying.

Besides, she knew that these were not tears of happiness. She was not happy that they were finally getting a divorce.

Instead, she couldn't control her heartache. She couldn't help but feel so upset that she wanted to cry.

She'd loved him for half her life. Ever since she was born, he had been in her life. After tonight, they would be complete strangers. If they didn't keep in touch, they wouldn't belong to each other anymore...

She felt that she was the most useless person in the world. Even though she no longer wanted to love and was covered in injuries and almost unable to live, she still could not completely let go.

She clearly wanted a divorce so much, but she still felt so upset because she was really about to get a divorce.

However, it was precisely because of this that she had to get a divorce.

She couldn't let herself return to that state again, to that kind of pain.

However, even though she knew this, her tears still fell uncontrollably.

Just then, a tall man walked in. When he saw her crying, he immediately went up and asked gently, "Xiao Yu, what's wrong?"

That poor painter from three years ago who was painting by the roadside was now a well-known great artist in the art world. A while ago, one of his paintings had sold for the highest price among modern artists. Furthermore, he wasn't really poor. He was a second-generation heir, an only son, and the only heir.

It was just that he didn't like business. He liked to draw and wanted to continue doing it. It was because his parents wanted him to inherit the family business and insisted on objecting to him drawing that he left home and ended up helping others draw portraits to earn money to support himself.

Now that he had made a name for himself in the art world, his parents no longer felt that painting was useless. Furthermore, he had been away from home for many years and had really decided not to go home. His parents were also afraid and no longer opposed his painting.

Because of Shangguan Yu's kindness to him back then, and because Shangguan Yu was his dream goddess type, even after he was thrown into a dark alley by Fu Siye and warned not to appear in front of her, he still came to look for Shangguan Yu from time to time all these years.

Then, his feelings for her grew deeper and deeper. Now, it had become love.

Every day, he hoped that Shangguan Yu and Fu Siye could get a divorce quickly. This way, he could openly woo his beloved goddess.

"Nothing." Shangguan Yu lowered her head and wiped her tears with the back of her hand.

Chapter 1143: Don't Remember the Past (1)

When the man saw her like this, he couldn't help but say, "Xiao Yu, don't be sad and upset over him anymore. As long as you open your eyes and look, you'll see that there are many good men in this world. There are many things that are worth doing. Don't let him affect your mood."

"Yes, I know," Shangguan Yu said with her head lowered.

"You know, yet you still..." She was crying so sadly.

Shangguan Yu interrupted him. "What's the matter?"

Sometimes, people knew, but they could not remain indifferent...

"I took your painting to the competition. You got first place!" The man was very excited.

He liked Shangguan Yu not only because of her appearance but also because of her talent. She was very talented in art. Furthermore, she understood his paintings very well. They were compatible mentally. He felt that he could never find anyone who understood him as well as she did...

Compared to his excitement, Shangguan Yu only smiled faintly. She did not want to achieve anything in painting. She only wanted to find peace in doing it.

"I've reserved a table at EY. Let's go there tonight to eat and celebrate. How about that?"

"I have an appointment tonight," Shangguan Yu said.

"With whom?" the man asked. He knew that Shangguan Yu didn't have many friends.

Shangguan Yu had never talked about her and Fu Siye, so she only smiled and did not speak.

The man was a little disappointed, but he did not probe further. "Then we'll celebrate tomorrow!"

"Okay." Although Shangguan Yu's focus in life had shifted a lot now and she had more interpersonal relationships than before, she did not make many friends. The painter was one of her few friends. Furthermore, she admired his talent and liked to talk to him about painting. Hence, even if she felt that there was nothing to celebrate, it was still good to have a meal and chat with friends.

Country Y...

Mu Huan and Bo Junyan sat opposite each other.

Then, the atmosphere became a little awkward.

Although she really wanted this man and missed him, facing him in this manner, she suddenly felt like she was facing a dragon.

Whether she liked him or not, she was just a little afraid. She didn't know how to get along with him and what they should talk about.

Bo Junyan was a man of few words to begin with. He wouldn't know what to say even if she asked him to speak first.

Their silence made the atmosphere even more awkward.

"About that... why don't we talk about it another day? I'll go take a look at Long Feiting's injury first."
Mu Huan was still thinking about Long Feiting's injury. Just now, Bo Junyan had treated Long Feiting, an injured patient, so violently. This made her a little worried.

It wasn't that she was afraid that Bo Junyan's men wouldn't take Long Feiting for treatment. It was just that Bo Junyan clearly didn't like Long Feiting. She was worried that his men would be more violent when treating Long Feiting.

Bo Junyan's expression darkened.

Seeing this, Mu Huan instinctively said, "Don't misunderstand anything. We're purely friends. He once saved me."

Long Feiting had saved her before and was her good friend. He was injured now because of her. It was impossible for her not to care about his injury.

"I know."

"You still have such a dark expression even though you know..."

"I'm jealous." After being separated for three years, she had forgotten about him again after only a short meeting. Now, she was so concerned about another man. Even though he knew that she didn't like Long Feiting, such concern still made him unable to control his bad mood.

Mu Huan: "..."

One really couldn't judge a book by its cover. She'd thought that someone like him was definitely a deeper person.

Chapter 1144: Don't Remember the Past (2)

However, he could actually say such things like that he was jealous.

He was so direct that she didn't know what to say.

After a while.

“Tell your men to treat him well. It’s not like I have to visit him,” Mu Huan said as she took a step back.

However, her words did not improve Bo Junyan’s expression. Instead, it made his expression turn even uglier.

He didn’t trust her...

Mu Huan said, “You threw him down just now. You treated him as your love rival, so I’m also...”

She believed that he would definitely get someone to treat Long Feiting and not let anyone hurt him.

But who would treat their love rival well? Hence, she could not be blamed for being worried.

“Alright.” Without waiting for her to finish speaking, Bo Junyan called PA Wang and asked him to take good care of Long Feiting and inform Long Feiting’s family.

When Mu Huan heard that he had called the Long family over, she was completely relieved.

The Long family cherished Long Feiting so much. With them taking care of him, she didn’t have to worry at all.

After Bo Junyan ended the call, the atmosphere became awkward again.

They were clearly in love with each other, and there was no longer any obstruction between them, but they were sitting opposite each other awkwardly.

Bo Junyan wanted to hug and kiss his wife so much, and he wanted to be alone with her. He didn’t want to care about anything and didn’t want to go out for a few days.

However...

Now, he couldn’t even hug her.

Forget about everything else.

In the end, it was Mu Huan who broke the silence first. “Has the matter that’s been separating the two of us been resolved now?”

Although she knew that his appearance in front of her meant that the matter had been resolved, that was only her guess. She had to confirm it.

“Yes.”

“Then there’s nothing for us to talk about. I’ll go look for Eisen and have him undo my hypnotic commands.” Mu Huan could not control the feeling she had for him. However, facing his intense feelings, she, who did not have any memories of the past, was not used to it. Hence, she felt a little awkward.

This feeling really made it seem like she was facing a dragon. She was clearly so obsessed and couldn't let go, but when she really came into contact with him, she was frightened by his passion. She felt like she had nowhere to put her hands and feet.

Without waiting for Bo Junyan to say anything, she continued, "When I woke up, I was told that I was in a car accident and had lost a certain amount of my memory. But I had really been hypnotized, right?"

"Yes."

"It's only been so long since I was told that I had lost my memory. What matter could have been resolved in such a short period of time, but I chose to forget anyway?" Mu Huan felt that this was very wrong. It was impossible for her to choose to forget something that could be resolved in such a short period of time.

Bo Junyan was silent for a while. "We didn't expect it to be like this."

"Oh..." It turned out that she did not expect the matter to be resolved so quickly. However, her estimations shouldn't be far off from the truth. That was, she shouldn't have chosen to forget and escape...

However, when she thought about how accidents were everywhere, she did not probe further. Anyway, she would soon regain her memory. When the time came, she would know everything. "Then let's go find Eisen!"

Since the matter had been resolved, she should quickly recover her memory and end this awkwardness as soon as possible.

She couldn't remember anything and instinctively rejected his closeness, making him feel very hurt.

Mu Huan stood up to leave, but Bo Junyan remained seated.

"What's wrong?" Didn't he want her to quickly regain her memories and have them return to the past?

Chapter 1145: Don't Remember the Past (3)

Bo Junyan looked at her, who didn't look like she was in pain at all. There was only brightness and no gloominess in her eyes. He felt that it was good for her to be like this now. Once she had regained her memories, she'd recall the pain. Her mental state definitely wouldn't be as relaxed and happy as it was now.

Even though she didn't love him as much as before and didn't believe in him, even though she was still not used to his intimate contact...

He could take it slow. As long as she was happy, he could tolerate it no matter how much he yearned for her.

Although in the end, she would still remember everything from the past, it was still better to let her be carefree and happy for a while.

"Xiao Huan, should we do this now?" He reached out to hold her hand.

Mu Huan was stunned. "What do you mean?"

“It’s not good to remember the past. If you’ve forgotten it, then let it be forgotten. Let’s start afresh.”
He looked at her, his dark eyes full of love.

Mu Huan: “...”

Start over again?

“We got married after seeing each other only twice. You’ve never been pursued by me properly. This has always been a regret in our hearts. Now, we have the perfect opportunity to make up for our hasty marriage.

“Let’s start over, from getting to know each other to loving each other. Alright?”

Mu Huan: “...”

What exactly happened between them in the past? He was so impatient before, but now he didn’t want her to remember and want to start afresh with her...

Because she was curious and wanted to know, Mu Huan couldn’t help but think about it.

At the thought of this, she frowned with a headache.

She couldn’t even think about it. This command was the strongest command. She must have asked Eisen to give her such a strong command. She didn’t want to recall the past. It must be something serious.

If it was so serious that she couldn’t let it go, could she just allow her past to be forgotten and be with him?

What if it was because she didn’t want to love him anymore and couldn’t accept him that she chose to forget him?

What if there was...

Mu Huan didn’t want to think about it, but she couldn’t help thinking about it. This made her head hurt more and more.

Instantly, she broke out in a cold sweat from the pain.

Seeing this, Bo Junyan hurriedly pulled her into his embrace and comforted her gently, “Baby, don’t think about it, don’t think about it...”

Mu Huan took a deep breath in his embrace for a while before she managed to control her thoughts and stop the pain.

Then, she got Bo Junyan to let go of her, stood up, and distanced himself from him.

The moment she left, Bo Junyan felt empty and wanted to grab hold of something.

But looking at her like this, he couldn’t go forward.

Mu Huan’s heart ached when she saw him looking like a big dog that had been abandoned by its owner. She couldn’t bear to see him like this and said, “I’ll think about it before answering you. You don’t have to be anxious. I’ll think about it soon!”

She needed to ask Xiao Meng if it was better for her to remember the past or to forget it. Xiao Meng was her best friend, and she knew everything about her. If she felt that she could still be with Bo Junyan, she wouldn't have to think about the past anymore.

This was because she still liked him so much and wanted to be with him.

Indeed, it was better to forget the past. It would save her from the pain of the past. Furthermore, if she wanted to be with him, her heart would hurt. If she wasn't with him, she wouldn't be able to let go. She would be in pain every day.

Bo Junyan was silent for a while before saying, "Okay."

After Mu Huan and Bo Junyan separated, she immediately went back to look for Li Meng.

"Xiao Huan, why are you back..." Li Meng, who had been woken up, rubbed her eyes and said, "Shouldn't you be doing something with God Bo at this time..."

Chapter 1146: Don't Remember the Past (4)

"It's usually the case that I won't be able to see you for a few days..."

Given God Bo's impatience, he would not have let Xiao Huan come back.

Mu Huan: "..."

Usually the case...

"What's wrong? What happened?" Li Meng, who had sobered up a little, realized that if Mu Huan was back and woke her up, something must have happened.

"Can I be with Bo Junyan?" Mu Huan asked.

Li Meng was stunned. "What do you mean?"

"Bo Junyan said that the matter has been settled, but he doesn't want me to regain my memory. He wants to start afresh with me.

"Perhaps I can't let go of the fact that I chose to forget. Can I still be with Bo Junyan after such a thing? Also, did I choose to forget him because I didn't want to love him and couldn't be with him?" Mu Huan asked in one breath.

Li Meng: "..."

She thought for a while.

"You can totally be with Bo Junyan because Bo Junyan is also a victim, and he's a victim who has suffered a lot! Furthermore, before you decided to forget him, you told Bo Junyan that if you still fall in love with him after you've forgotten him, the two of you can be together and be completely carefree!"

"Did I say that?"

“Yes, you told me about it before you forgot about him. I’m very sure,” Li Meng said firmly.

After a moment of silence, Mu Huan said, “Then do you think it’s better if I forget the past or remember it?”

Li Meng thought for a moment before saying, “I think it’s better for you to be like this.”

Previously, she was in so much pain that her eyes were gloomy and were no longer bright and happy.

And now, she was like the original her, confident, narcissistic, and happy. Her eyes were always bright, and there was no trace of gloominess in them.

Bo Junyan must have done this to prevent her from thinking about the past.

Although with Xiao Huan’s brain’s autonomous strength, even if she didn’t deliberately think about it in the future, she might slowly recall it. However, that might be a few years later. After such a long time, her pain would also have faded a lot.

It would be even better if she and Bo Junyan had a child in the next few years.

With someone more important in her life, her focus would be on her child. When that time came, it would be even more meaningless to think about those other things.

“Alright, since you think so too! Then I won’t recover my memory! I’ll choose to start afresh with him!”
Forget about the unhappy past!

As for not being familiar with him, wanting to be close yet feeling uncomfortable, this awkwardness would slowly get better, just like what Bo Junyan had said.

“Yes, start afresh! Be together well! Be happy together! Then, like a normal couple, you’ll start from the time you first met, fall in love, and get married. Then, you’ll have a super adorable baby! I want to be a bridesmaid, I want to be a godmother!” She wanted Mu Huan to live a happy and happy life like now.

“Alright!” Mu Huan had always been a decisive person. Once she made up her mind, she no longer hesitated.

At this moment, in the villa opposite...

Bo Junyan knew that Mu Huan had said that she was considering it and wanted to ask Li Meng first. Hence, after separating from her, he came here. Indeed, not long after she entered, the lights in Li Meng’s room lit up.

She thought about how she was now in the house, deciding their future.

Bo Junyan took out a cigarette from his pocket and lit it.

In the past, he rarely smoked.

Three years ago, he started smoking. He smoked very fiercely.

Chapter 1147: Don’t Remember the Past (5)

In the past, Bo Junyan felt that people shouldn't rely on material things other than their will to calm themselves. Now, he could only say that he had experienced too little in the past.

"Are you here to look for your wife again?" Yu Hansheng walked forward.

Bo Junyan did not respond. He only quietly smoked and looked at the light opposite him.

"I didn't expect a heartless person like you to be so affectionate." Yu Hansheng threw a can of alcohol to Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan took the alcohol and glanced at him before turning to look at the light opposite.

Yu Hansheng did not speak further.

The moonlight shone on them quietly, making them look like a painting.

Just as Bo Junyan was about to smoke his second cigarette...

His phone rang.

It was Mu Huan.

Yu Hansheng glanced at his phone and did not speak. He continued drinking.

Bo Junyan picked up the call and tightened his grip on the railing.

Then he heard Mu Huan say, "Let's go on a date tomorrow!"

Only then did he slowly loosen his grip. His lips curved into a smile that could instantly defeat all the scenery in this world.

"Alright."

"Then rest early. Good night!" With that, Mu Huan hung up.

Bo Junyan looked at the call that had been hung up and his smile deepened.

All the gloominess in his heart vanished.

A man's happiness was that simple.

Yu Hansheng looked at the happy smile on his face and suddenly felt a little displeased. Then, just as Bo Junyan was about to have a good drink with him, he turned around and left arrogantly.

Bo Junyan did not call him either.

He called PA Wang to come up.

When PA Wang found out that Bo Junyan had asked him to come up to drink with him, he was instantly overwhelmed.

At the hospital...

Long Feilei looked at Long Feiting's injured leg and his heart ached terribly. "Previously, you told me that if Mu Huan forgot about Bo Junyan and you still couldn't make her like you, you would give up. Now, can you give up?"

Although he could not control his feelings for her and Mu Huan was also an outstanding person, no matter how good she was, she did not belong to his little brother. It was useless for his little brother to keep chasing her and giving so much.

It would only make their loved ones feel heartache.

Especially when every time he got hurt, it was because of Mu Huan.

Being by her side always hurt him, both physically and mentally.

Long Feiting did not speak. Right now, he only wanted to get drunk, but he could not drink.

"If you really can't do it, then hypnotize yourself and forget it! Forget everything related to Mu Huan!" Long Feilei said.

Long Feiting: "..."

Mu Huan wanted him to forget, and so did his brother!

He knew that they were doing this for his own good.

But if one were to forget their most beautiful memories, even the only thing that he wanted to live for, the only motivation he had, how would he live in the future? Like a zombie?

He seemed to have seen through his thoughts.

Long Feilei said, "Wait until you forget her. A great world, a vast world, and a lot of beauties. Your life will be so rich and colorful that you won't be able to imagine it! It'll be very beautiful! Very beautiful!"

His little brother had fallen in love too early. When he was 11 years old, he had wanted to find his Little Star. From the time he was 11 years old, he had treated her as his one and only. This kind of relationship, his persistence, was too deep. If he tried to let it go just like that, he would definitely not be able to.

But he couldn't let go.

What now?

Was he going to suffer for the rest of his life and watch Bo Junyan and Mu Huan be happy and loving?

No!

His little brother couldn't be so pitiful!

Hence...

Long Feilei's eyes darkened.

Chapter 1148: Don't Remember the Past (6)

Long Feiting: "..."

He didn't think that such a world would be good at all. He only felt that if he forgot about her, his world would only be left with desolation.

Life would become meaningless.

No matter how painful it was, he wanted to remember her.

Country S...

"How is it? Isn't it similar?" The man brought the woman in front of the mirror and showed her the brand new her.

"Yes." Ling Wei looked at the mirror.

She looked at the unfamiliar face in the mirror.

She was her, but it wasn't her.

"From now on, you're her. Use her identity to stand at the top of the world. From now on, no one will dare to bully you. You can destroy those who've hurt you!" The man reached out and pulled her into his embrace.

She was his most perfect and outstanding work. He couldn't bear to part with her.

Ling Wei did not speak and only looked at herself in the mirror, who was completely different from who she used to be.

She had never thought that she, Ling Wei, would ever need to change her face to survive!

She, Ling Wei! She, Ling Wei! She should have been living so high and mighty, but now, she had to live such an ignoble life! She had to give up her face and put on another! She...!!

Although the face in front of her was not ugly and was even very beautiful...

No matter how beautiful she was, she wasn't her.

To the world, she, Ling Wei, was already dead.

She, Ling Wei, was still alive, but she was already a dead person.

She, Ling Wei...

Ling Wei was a very proud and arrogant person. Her arrogance and dignity made her unable to accept that she had actually fallen to this point and had had to rely on someone else's face to survive...

She hated them so much!

She hated Bo Junyan and Mu Huan!

They were the ones who'd destroyed her, Ling Wei! They killed her, Ling Wei!

The man looked at the devastating hatred in her eyes and smiled. He lowered his head and kissed her lightly.

“Use this face. Use this face to destroy everyone you hate.” With this face and her capabilities, it would be easy for her to take revenge.

Ling Wei did not speak, but the hatred in her eyes burned even more!

She wanted them dead!

All of them should die without a burial site!

Of the four seasons in a year, Mu Huan liked spring the most. She felt that the flowers in spring were more delicate and beautiful than those in other seasons. And now, it was springtime.

At this moment, she was also moved.

Just like a little girl who had just fallen in love, she picked up her clothes and put them on. She even put on pink-peach makeup.

When she came to the living room to wait for Bo Junyan, Mu Huan suddenly felt that losing her memory was actually quite good. Without the deep love and familiarity of an old couple, now, she had come to know the feeling of falling in love at first sight as described in books.

This beautiful feeling made her heart race.

She wanted to get close, but she was also a little afraid of getting too close. She yearned for it, but she was also afraid that he would be too passionate.

Just as she was getting anxious...

Suddenly, someone attacked her.

She hurriedly turned around and hid behind the sofa. Unexpectedly, someone else attacked her from behind.

After dodging several sneak attacks, Mu Huan hid under the table.

She looked at her torn dress and cursed in her heart.

F*ck! She'd spent more than two hours picking out a dress and it was torn! How was she going to leave the house like this?!

It would take more time to pick out more clothes!

It was their first date, and it was embarrassing to make him wait!

F*ck!

Who the f*ck would send someone to ambush her at this time? Don't let her catch them, or else they're dead!

Chapter 1149: You Only Learn How to Cherish Something Once You've Lost It (1)

Suddenly, footsteps approached her.

Mu Huan reached out to take out a bottle of drugs and was about to throw it out, but she thought that the person who had sneaked into her house must know about her situation. So then, they might have covered their noses.

Hence, she chose another type of drug and threw it out. This drug would make one's body itch. It was an upgraded version of the one before. No matter what kind of person it was, as long as they came into contact with this drug in the air, they would immediately be unable to withstand the itch and their combat strength would instantly decrease by half.

Last time, when she was surrounded by people, she almost lost her life. This made Mu Huan remember that no matter where she went, she had to bring some self-defense drugs with her.

Not long after she threw the drug out, she heard all sorts of sounds.

She knew that the drug had taken effect. Those movements were from the people hiding in the dark and could not bear the attack.

When she felt that it was about time for her to go out and deal with those people...

"Boss Huan, please get the antidote!"

"Boss Huan, please get the antidote!" Following these shouts, more and more footsteps surrounded her.

Mu Huan's lips twitched. She crawled out from under the table and saw a group of people from the Star Sect. They'd pulled down their masks and looked at her anxiously for the antidote.

"What the f*ck! Are you guys tired of living?" How dare they ambush her!

"We have no choice but to obey the Sect Master's orders!" Everyone's face was full of indifference. We're innocent, we're only following orders.

Mu Huan: "...!!"

This senior brother of hers was really...

In the past, he was like this too...

Mu Huan's thoughts suddenly stopped.

Was he like this in the past?

Had something like this happened before?

Just as she was wondering when such a thing had happened before...

"Boss Huan, give us the antidote... Boss Huan..." The people from the Star Sect felt so itchy that they were about to explode! If they continued to hold on, they were afraid that they would not be able to resist scratching their skin until it rotted!

They called Mu Huan Boss and respected her so much not because she was the junior sister of the sect leader but because she knew how to use drugs. Her drugs were too vicious!

No matter how tough a person was, they wouldn't be able to take it. Hence, they respected Mu Huan and listened to her as their leader. This time, no one had wanted to take on the mission of ambushing her. However, since the sect leader wanted them to go, they had to go. This was because the sect leader was even more vicious!

Their shouts interrupted Mu Huan's thoughts and made her stop thinking in time.

"Give you the antidote? You guys can just continue to itch!" They had caused her to tear the dress that she had spent a long time choosing. It was almost time for the date, and she still had to change her dress. They still had the cheek to ask for the antidote!

"Boss Huan, don't... Boss Huan... It's really not our fault..." The group of men surrounded Mu Huan and begged her in all sorts of ways.

The corners of Mu Huan's lips twitched. When they first met, she'd felt that the people from Star Sect were very mysterious. They were all experts and were very aloof. Now...

Look at them now...!

She couldn't bear to look at them!

"Weren't you following my senior brother's orders? Go ask him for the antidote!" With that, Mu Huan pushed away the people blocking her way and went upstairs to change. If she didn't change, there wouldn't be time.

"Boss Huan!" The group of people followed her up.

Mu Huan turned around and swept a cold glance at everyone. "Whoever dares to follow me, double the dosage!"

The brothers hurriedly stopped in their tracks.

But... if they didn't follow, would they feel so itchy?

They'd feel itchy to death!

"Boss Huan...! Boss Huan... please take pity on us!" Those who didn't dare to go forward could only plead pitifully.

Mu Huan: "..."

Where was their integrity?

"Boss Huan... please..." everyone shouted in unison.

Mu Huan: "..."

She knew how itchy these drugs could be. They were used to deal with enemies.

"There won't be a next time! Otherwise, not only will I not give you the antidote, but I will also make you suffer more than you do now!" When they ambushed her just now, every attack was fatal. She would have died if she had not been careful! No matter the reason, they were so ruthless that they even destroyed her clothes. If it were anyone else, she would have made them die from itchiness! For the sake of her fellow disciples, she gave them this chance!

At the thought of this, she felt that she had to repay her senior! What was he doing for no reason?! Sneaking up on her like this! If he was sick, she had plenty of drugs he could take!

“Thank you, Boss Huan...” Everyone only dared to thank Mu Huan. They didn’t dare to promise that they wouldn’t do it again.

This was because they could not disobey the Sect Master’s orders. If the Sect Master were to give such an order again in the future, they could only follow it. Although Boss Huan was very ruthless, compared to the Sect Master, Boss Huan was more soft-hearted and easy to talk to. No matter what, she would not really take their lives. However, their Sect Master was different. No matter what kind of order he gave, if they did not obey, they would really die!

Just as Mu Huan was about to give them the antidote...

Bo Junyan, who had come to pick Mu Huan up, looked at the mess on the ground and frowned. “What happened?”

When Mu Huan heard his voice, she instinctively turned around. When she saw his frowning handsome face, she suddenly realized that her current image was very pathetic. It was her first date, but he saw her like this. This...

When she snapped back to her senses, she hurriedly said, “Wait for me, I’ll be right down!”

With that, she hurried upstairs.

Bo Junyan: “...”

After she went upstairs...

Bo Junyan looked at the group of people who wanted to take the opportunity to slip away, his gaze turning cold. “What’s going on?”

Everyone: “...”

If they were to say that they had ambushed Boss Huan and almost killed her, would Bo Junyan let them off?

Definitely not!

Bo Junyan was an existence more terrifying than their Sect Master!

Hence...

“We’re not too sure either. Mr. Bo, the Sect Master has ordered us to return to the team quickly. We’ll be leaving first!” With that, the people from the Star Sect quickly retreated. In less than a minute, not a single person was left.

Bo Junyan narrowed his eyes slightly. He knew that things were not as they had said, but he did not have anyone chase after them. Anyway, no matter what had happened, they could run away, but they could not escape.

Mu Huan said that she would come down very soon. She really came down very quickly after changing her clothes.

As she didn't like it when others were waiting for her, especially when she was late for a date, she didn't pick any clothes when she went up. She casually picked a dress that matched her makeup and changed into it. It only took a few minutes.

When she came down and met Bo Junyan, she smiled awkwardly. "I'm sorry. It was an emergency and I was delayed."

Bo Junyan: "..."

Although his wife still liked him a lot, she was polite and unfamiliar with him.

This made him feel a little bitter even though he knew that he was a stranger to her and this was what he chose.

He gathered his thoughts and asked, "What happened?"

Mu Huan casually said, "Nothing."

No matter why her senior brother suddenly got people to ambush her, this was between the two of them. She instinctively did not want to say anything else.
