

Fake Marriage 1151

Chapter 1151: You Only Learn How to Cherish Something Once You've Lost It (3)

Bo Junyan: "..."

Realizing that she seemed to be rejecting him and brushing him off, Mu Huan hurriedly added, "It's my senior brother's test. I just instinctively feel that this isn't a big deal and don't want to waste time on it."

Mu Huan had always been a person who said whatever she wanted. She didn't like misunderstandings. Once she felt that something was amiss, she would hurriedly explain and say what she was thinking.

She was completely different from Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan smiled when he heard this. He reached out and wanted to hug her, but he thought of something and only held her hand.

However, just holding hands with him made Mu Huan's heart race!

She could not help but feel nervous.

"What's wrong?" Bo Junyan sensed the abnormality in her emotions and looked at her.

Mu Huan: "..."

This was her ex-husband. She had been married to him for half a year. Furthermore, from what Xiao Meng said, the two of them used to have a good relationship. They must have done everything that they shouldn't have done.

If she were to say that her heart was racing and she was nervous because he was holding her hand...

Would he laugh at her?

As if realizing something, she did not answer, and Bo Junyan did not continue asking.

He only held her hand and walked out.

When she reached the door, Mu Huan suddenly thought of something. "By the way, how did you get in?"

"I pressed the doorbell, but you didn't respond, so I came in," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

It turned out that her security system was fake. The people from the Star Sect came in quietly, and he swaggered in.

She casually said, "It looks like I'll have to get someone to redo the security system."

The current security system was too unreliable. Someone had barged in and it did not even ring.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Mu Huan looked at him and wanted to say something, but when she saw him like this, she realized that she had said something that could easily be misunderstood. Hence, she said, "I'm not trying to guard against you. It's just that this security system that I've installed doesn't work. It's dangerous... It..."

"I know." Bo Junyan understood what she meant.

Seeing that he understood her very well, Mu Huan did not continue to explain. Instead, she looked at him for a while. "I had such good taste before!"

She'd actually found such a good-looking man who was so strong!

Bo Junyan smiled when he heard that. His little cutie was still as narcissistic as ever.

"You look really good when you smile!" Mu Huan looked at his smile and couldn't help but want to praise herself again. She was really capable! She actually made such a man like her! She had found such a handsome husband!

She had thought that by looking at her beautiful senior brother every day, she would become immune to the other handsome men in this world. She did not expect that there was such an existence like her ex-husband. This man really made her want to feel infatuated!

"Don't look at me like that." Bo Junyan had been suppressing his urge to pounce on her since he saw her yesterday. If she looked at him like that again, they wouldn't be able to go out.

Right at this moment...

"Little cutie, look at those useless rice buckets. They didn't kill her."

When Mu Huan and Bo Junyan heard this, they looked up and saw Yu Hansheng standing on the balcony upstairs, gently caressing his beloved cat.

"By they didn't kill her, do you mean me?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

"Yes."

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Freaking hell!

Are you kidding me?!

"Although you're my senior brother, you'd better give me a reason that I can accept. Otherwise, I'll make you lie on a bed for the rest of your life, unable to move!"

Chapter 1152: You Only Learn How to Cherish Something Once You've Lost It (4)

"Recently, there have been many people who have placed an order to kill you, and they all paid a huge sum of money. If I didn't accept them, there would definitely be others who will. As the saying goes, one shouldn't let one's own fertile water flow into anyone else's field. Since you would be killed no matter what, the money naturally has to be earned by me, your senior brother," Yu Hansheng said.

Mu Huan: "...!!!"

"But you're not easy to kill, so I have to let them practice more. I guarantee that they can kill you by the time I accept the assignment. I don't want the zero-failed-mission record of my Star Sect to be broken by you."

Mu Huan: "...!!!"

Didn't they say that martial siblings were as good as blood-related siblings? They were actually like this!

After a while...

Mu Huan said, "Why don't you do it yourself, Senior Brother? You can definitely kill me."

His skills were greater than hers.

When Yu Hansheng heard this, he extended his hand as though he was admiring a piece of art. After admiring his hand for a while, he said, "My hands are so good-looking. They're not suited to such a bloody and vulgar job."

The corners of Mu Huan's lips twitched. Then, she gave a fake smile and said, "I think I'm quite suited to this kind of job."

With that, she threw something upstairs.

In the next second, the place where Yu Hansheng was exploded!

This frightened the Star Sect brothers who were hiding and looking around!

They thought that the relationship between the Sect Master and Boss Huan was not bad! Why did it turn out to be so troubled?!

One wanted his people to make the most ruthless move on her, and the other made him explode just like that!

If one didn't know better, they would have thought that there was a deep hatred between the two of them!

Just as everyone was feeling afraid that Yu Hansheng had been affected by the explosion, he had already carried his beloved white cat toward Mu Huan. His speed was so fast that it was strange.

"You scared my little cutie!" Yu Hansheng's gaze at Mu Huan was no longer teasing but cold.

Obviously, in his heart, Mu Huan was not as important as his beloved kitten.

"Who asked it to have a master like you? If you want to blame someone, blame yourself!" Mu Huan snorted coldly without any fear.

Yu Hansheng's gaze turned even colder as he attacked Mu Huan without warning at lightning speed!

Even someone as quick-witted as Mu Huan could not avoid it in time.

Just as she thought that she would at least be seriously injured by his punch...

Bo Junyan stopped this punch.

Next, Mu Huan and the hiding Star Sect brothers widened their eyes in shock!

This was because the scene they saw was too shocking! They knew that Yu Hansheng and Bo Junyan were very strong, but they didn't know that they could be so strong!

This was especially so for Mu Huan. Although she had not investigated the matters of the past, she had investigated Bo Junyan. She knew that he was a CEO and had a huge company under him. He was a very formidable businessman and one of the elites among elites. A person of such status should know self-defense. It was already unbelievable that he was better than her. And yet, now that he was fighting with Yu Hansheng, he actually had the upper hand!

This... this...

How was this possible?

Her senior brother was already so strong... and he was someone who specialized in this. It was impossible for him to not be good at martial arts.

And Bo Junyan... was only an amateur... He...

Right then, Bo Junyan quickly took out a needle and stabbed it into Yu Hansheng's acupuncture point. Instantly, he collapsed.

Bo Junyan did not help him up as he watched him collapse in front of him. Then, he turned around and walked toward Mu Huan to continue their journey as if nothing had happened. "Let's go."

Chapter 1153: You Only Learn How to Cherish Something Once You've Lost It (5)

Mu Huan looked at Yu Hansheng, who was lying on the ground. "..."

Bo Junyan did not speak. He pulled her up and continued walking out.

As the Star Sect brothers looked at Yu Hansheng, who was lying on the ground, they realized once again that Bo Junyan was an existence even more terrifying than their Sect Master!

After getting into the car...

"What's wrong with my senior brother today?" Mu Huan felt that Yu Hansheng was a little strange today. Although he usually loved money, he still took good care of his junior sister. Even if he just wanted her to remain vigilant by sneaking an attack on her, it would not have been like this.

"He's has an illness," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

An illness?

"He had a woman he loved in the past, but he forced her to death with his own hands. After that woman died, he developed a psychological problem. Such things are also an illness." What Bo Junyan did not say was that Yu Hansheng deliberately got close to that woman because she had killed his father. In the end, he successfully destroyed her, but he also fell in love with her. However, he deeply felt that one could not be with someone for whom they bore that kind of hatred. Hence, he ultimately dealt a ruthless blow to her.

However, because he loved her so much, he couldn't bear such pain. Hence, after the woman died, he especially couldn't bear to see people with family feuds being together and wanted to see couples break up instead.

Back then, when he and Mu Huan had reached this stage of their family feud, Yu Hansheng was actually gloating. Last night, when Bo Junyan received a call from his wife asking to go on a date with him, he clearly felt that Yu Hansheng's mood became strange.

They had the same kind of hatred between them, but now, they could start afresh.

No matter how much Yu Hansheng regretted it, he would never be able to start afresh with the woman he loved. Hence, he was in a bad mood and could not control himself from looking for trouble.

To Bo Junyan, people who caused trouble for no reason were mentally ill.

"Are you close to my senior brother?" He actually knew about this!

"No," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

They weren't close, but he knew so much...

As his junior sister, she had never heard of these things. If he wasn't considered close, who was?

"Don't worry. I won't let him fall sick again," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

And he said they weren't close...

"What are we going to do?" Bo Junyan changed the topic.

Mu Huan: "..."

Although she had said that she wanted to go on a date, she did not know what to do.

Eat, shop, and watch a movie?

Would he not like this?

Hence, she looked at Bo Junyan and asked, "What do you want to do?"

"I want to go to a hotel," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

Yun Cheng...

Fu Siye made Shangguan Yu's memory stop at three years ago, before they lost their child. He made her forget everything that had happened in these three years.

Shangguan Yu went to their old home and fell asleep after drinking a glass of red wine. When Shangguan Yu woke up, she was already overseas.

When she opened her eyes, her mind was blank. As she looked at the ceiling in the room, she could not regain her senses for a while.

She didn't know if she was dreaming or something. In any case, this felt very strange.

Until Fu Siye appeared in front of her.

"Xiao Yu, you're awake." Fu Siye smiled gently at her.

Shangguan Yu looked at him and felt that she must be dreaming. This was because if it weren't a dream, he would definitely not have smiled at her so gently.

She liked him. This was the only thing in her life.

But he'd never liked her since she was young.

His gentleness made her reach out to touch his face.

Chapter 1154: You Only Learn How to Cherish Something Once You've Lost It (6)

Even though she knew that this was a dream, she still wanted to get close to him in the dream. Only in the dream could she get close to him like this, and only then would he look at her with such a gentle gaze.

However, this dream was different from her previous ones. This dream was so realistic!

That touch was so real that she thought she was really touching him. He was really looking at her with such deep affection.

Shangguan Yu looked at the man in front of her in infatuation. She cherished him so much that it was like she was caressing a treasure. She gently caressed his face.

Fu Siye was so excited that his eyes turned red.

It was his Xiao Yu! His Xiao Yu!

Only his Xiao Yu would look at him with such a gaze. This was the gaze that he had seen since he was young. It evoked a deep love that he could always see when he turned around.

"Xiao Yu, are you hungry?" More than 20 hours had passed since she fell asleep.

His voice was trembling slightly because he was too excited.

From the time he had lost her to now, when she had returned to the past and only had him in her eyes...

He would never lose her again. She would never treat him so coldly again.

He was really excited...

After losing such an ordinary life, he realized how precious it was.

“No...” Shangguan Yu said. She wasn’t hungry. She just wanted to look at him like this.

“How can you not be hungry? You’ve slept for more than 20 hours already.” Fu Siye reached out to touch her. In the past few years, although she had become more cheerful than before, she still lost weight every year. Her originally sharp chin had become even sharper now.

“Why does it feel so strange...” Shangguan Yu muttered, looking at him.

“What’s strange?” Fu Siye asked.

“The dream this time is so realistic. You actually asked me this... And the touch feels real...” Shangguan Yu said instinctively.

Fu Siye: “...”

Did she think she was dreaming?

He snapped back to his senses and said, “Xiao Yu, this isn’t a dream...”

“How is that possible? If this wasn’t a dream, why would you look at me like this? Why would you be so gentle to me? You hate me so much...” He hated how her love for him when he was young made him a laughingstock. He hated how she liked him even after she grew up and made it so that he couldn’t be with Gu Lingyin, whom he liked.

Right...

Gu Lingyin!

Gu Lingyin, she seemed to be back...

“I don’t hate you, Xiao Yu. I’ve never hated you...” He didn’t! He just liked her too much and didn’t know how to face it! It was just that he couldn’t lose her, so he couldn’t help but use such a method to hold on to her. It was too...

It was so stupid. It was only after she’d left him that he realized how much he loved her.

He was really too stupid!

“This is indeed a dream...” Shangguan Yu said with a smile.

Only in a dream would he say these things to her.

Except... this dream was too real, too real...

Shangguan Yu’s love in the past was too humble. She had never, never dared to imagine that he would really look at her with such deep feelings and really say these things to her that she had always dreamed of.

Seeing her like this, Fu Siye did not speak further and kissed her directly.

Until...

Shangguan Yu was woken up again, this time by hunger...

Looking at Fu Siye, who was looking at her like that, she realized that this wasn't a dream.

Everything was real.

He really loved her. He really didn't hate her.

She also knew that she had lost her memory because of something, and he had almost lost her because of that something. Only then did he see his own heart and realize how much he loved her!

This situation was as beautiful as what was written in romance novels.

However, for some reason, there was a strange feeling in her heart that she could not describe.

Chapter 1155: Caught (1)

Fu Siye looked at her confused eyes and asked gently, "What's wrong?"

"I don't know why, but I have an indescribable feeling in my heart," Shangguan Yu said as she clutched her chest.

She didn't know what this feeling was, but even so, she, who had never hidden anything from him, still told him the truth.

Fu Siye's eyes darkened. "When a person forgets three years of memories, their heart will definitely feel empty and strange.

"Don't think about those things that you've forgotten. People should live in the present. As long as you focus on what's happening now, it's fine," he said as he pulled her into his embrace, telling her not to think about it. It's fine as long as she cared about him as much as she used to.

Shangguan Yu felt that what he said made sense, so she ignored that feeling and only looked at him and thought about him.

"Siye, is all of this real?" Even though she was sure that this was real and that she wasn't dreaming, Shangguan Yu was still afraid. She was still afraid that this was just a dream. After she woke up, she was still the same person who could only stay at home and wait for him.

"It's all true," Fu Siye said as he lowered his head to kiss her.

That real touch made the unrealness in Shangguan Yu's heart feel real. "Siye..."

Was her wait for him finally over?

Country Y...

Mu Huan would definitely not go to a hotel on her first date. She brought Bo Junyan to a famous scenic spot in Country Y to check in. Spring was also the most beautiful season here. The pink flowers on the trees on both sides of the road were blooming beautifully, making Mu Huan deeply understand what it meant to be surrounded by flowers.

A gust of wind blew past, and the pink petals danced along with the wind, spinning and falling.

The fluttering petals made one feel as though they had arrived in the world of comics. This moment was so beautiful that Mu Huan, who had never been emotional, could not help but reach out to take the petals. "So beautiful..."

Bo Junyan did not speak and only looked at her.

With her around, he couldn't see anything else.

No matter how beautiful the scenery in this world was, it couldn't compare to her beauty.

Mu Huan reached out to touch the petals. Suddenly, a scene flashed across her mind. She instinctively said, "Did we once hold hands like this and walk under a flower arch? Have I done this act before?"

"Yes."

Mu Huan looked at the beautiful scenery in front of her in silence for a while. "I suddenly feel that regardless of whether the past memories are painful or beautiful, it's better for a person to have their own memories."

Mu Huan was a person who would not waver after making a decision. However, this time, she was swayed and wanted to change her previous decision.

It was impossible for a life without memories to be complete, especially when one couldn't help but think about it.

And at that moment just now, she really wanted to remember the past between the two of them. Other than pain, there were more beautiful and sweet memories between them. She didn't want to forget those memories too.

Besides, without those memories, she felt that something was amiss. She even felt a little insecure.

As she spoke, she looked at Bo Junyan and said, "Also, I've forgotten the past, but you remember it deeply. This is too unfair to you."

She could tell that he was suppressing it. Also, her unfamiliarity and instinctive guard against him surely hurt him. She didn't want to see his hurt gaze again.

"It's not unfair to me. It's just that I don't want you to remember the past." With that, Bo Junyan paused for a moment. "But if you want to regain your memory, we'll go and find Eisen."

Chapter 1156: Caught (2)

Bo Junyan had always respected Mu Huan. It's true that he felt that the current her was very good and he wanted her to stay like this. He also didn't want her to recall the past. However, if she couldn't help but think about the past, always having the feeling that something was amiss and wanting to remember as a result, he would only respect her choice.

Mu Huan looked at the man in front of her and was a little moved. Previously, he had begged her not to think about the past and let them start afresh. She'd thought that if she said this, he would definitely persuade her to give up on such thoughts. But he respected her choice so much that he supported her decision without saying anything.

This made her want to recall the past even more. She wanted to remember every little thing between them, even if recalling the past might make her feel pain.

In life, many things had two sides. There were gains and losses, and what one wanted the most came hand in hand with what one had to bear.

Suddenly, Mu Huan tiptoed and kissed him.

Bo Junyan was stunned.

By the time he snapped back to his senses, Mu Huan had already released him with a smile.

"I'm hungry! Let's go eat! There's a super delicious restaurant nearby!" She held his hand and smiled more beautifully than a flower on a branch.

"Alright."

Mu Huan led him forward. After taking a few steps, she could not help but look up at him. She'd glance at him from time to time.

"What's wrong?" Bo Junyan asked.

"You're so handsome! I can't help but want to take a few more glances!" Mu Huan said bluntly. She couldn't control her infatuation.

Bo Junyan: "..."

If she continued to be like this, he really wouldn't be able to control himself.

His restraint toward her was almost zero. If she continued to do this...

It was enough to make his rationality collapse.

Mu Huan seemed to have noticed that he was about to crumble. She stopped looking at him and said, "Let's go quickly. There will be a lot of people later. We won't be able to get in line."

She let go of him and ran forward.

This made Bo Junyan, who was already planning to eat her up, instantly depressed.

However, when he saw her smiling so happily, her figure running under the flower tree, his depression quickly disappeared and turned into endless dotting.

Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had originally planned to find Eisen to help Mu Huan remove the hypnotic command that night.

Unexpectedly, Eisen was in a car accident and was in a coma.

Eisen was the most formidable hypnotist in the world. Other than him, no one else could undo the strongest command he had given. Only Mu Huan could force herself to think it through. However, before she could think about it, she would be tortured by the headache.

Although Mu Huan really wanted to recall the past, she didn't have to immediately recall it.

Hence, the matter of recovering her memory was set aside for the time being. She would wait until Eisen had woken up and recovered.

Rui Hui...

The project manager who had led the strike previously committed suicide at home. Before he died, he revealed to the largest television station in Country Y that Rui Hui had been illegally testing drugs in remote and backward countries for the past few years. He even recorded a video suicide note saying that Rui Hui's new CEO, Mu Huan, had forced him to be in charge of the new experiment. This project involved illegally testing drugs on kindergarten children.

This drug could cause immunodeficiency in children and cause irreversible harm to them.

Although he had done many illegal drug-testing projects in the past, those were not targeted at children. Children were the future of humans, and he himself had children. He really could not go against his conscience to use such drugs on children.

Chapter 1157: Caught (3)

However, Mu Huan had said that if he didn't do it, she would push all the charges of illegal drug testing on him and make him spend the rest of his life in jail.

No matter what, he couldn't do anything to hurt those children. There was no way out, so he could only commit suicide.

He hoped that the media would report this matter to the world and let everyone know about Rui Hui's ugly conduct and about the viciousness of the current CEO. He hoped that his death would protect those children.

He hoped that the person who was supposed to treat her patients' pain would be able to regain her pure heart. At the very least, she shouldn't lose her conscience! She shouldn't harm those innocent children!

The information, evidence, and last words he had revealed shocked the entire Country Y the moment the television station broadcasted them!

People's understanding of illegal drugs came from biochemical movies. For them, illegal drugs were a scary thing. Now, not only did they have evidence to prove that there were really illegal drugs, but they had even extended their claws on children!

This was simply too terrifying, and whoever's behind it deserved death!

Fortunately, someone had sacrificed himself to expose this matter. Otherwise, those poor children...

Kids these days were all so precious. No one dared to imagine the consequences if this had not been exposed. Just thinking about it made them break out in a cold sweat!

Once the television station broadcasted such news, the official website of Rui Hui Pharmaceutical crashed. Immediately after, the headquarters of Rui Hui Pharmaceutical was surrounded by protesting people.

Everyone felt that Rui Hui Pharmaceutical was an evil pharmaceutical company. It was a company that deserved to go bankrupt and pay the price!

However, no one felt that Johnson was a bad person. They even felt that he was most heroic!

Although Johnson had done such a despicable thing before, he still had a conscience. Besides, he was only an employee. If the higher-ups didn't approve such an experiment, he definitely wouldn't have done it himself. Strictly speaking, he was the greatest victim!

Johnson's death had turned him from a shameless bad person to a great hero. A great hero who would rather sacrifice his life to protect an innocent child.

As people surrounded Rui Hui's headquarters and put up banners to protest against Rui Hui's evil practice, Rui Hui's share price began to plummet.

Compared to these, what was even more serious was that the police from Country Y had brought an arrest warrant to Rui Hui's headquarters to bring Mu Huan back for investigation.

Although there was no evidence as to whether Mu Huan was the one who had forced the person to die, Mu Huan was now the person in charge of Rui Hui Pharmaceutical. With such a matter being exposed, the evidence was sufficient. She had to take responsibility for this matter.

No matter how strong a person was, no matter how high their status or how good they were at fighting, they could not go against the law. Hence, Mu Huan did not resist.

“Xiao Huan, I’ll immediately convene a lawyer’s meeting. Don’t worry, I’ll definitely not let anything happen to you!” Mr. Liu said when Mu Huan was being taken away.

Mu Huan lowered her gaze and collected her thoughts. “Then I’ll have to trouble Uncle Liu.”

“Don’t stand on ceremony with Uncle. It’s Uncle who has let you down. This was all in the past, but now, you’re being held responsible. Seriously...” Mr. Liu looked guilty.

He sneered in his heart.

Little girl, I’ve given you a way out time and time again. If you don’t leave and insist on forcing me to be ruthless to you, then don’t blame me for being rude!

All this time, he had felt that Rui Hui would belong to the Liu family, which was why he had fought so hard. But in the end, it wasn’t his Liu family’s! If Mu Huan had been sensible and chosen to marry his son, he wouldn’t have fussed over it and would have let her live a good life.

Chapter 1158: Caught (4)

As long as she obediently married his son, she didn’t have to worry about anything at Rui Hui. She just had to focus on research and could have whatever she wanted. But she didn’t want it. She had to follow the second will!

Fine, he would let her use the second will!

At this point, he did not want to harm her. He only thought that if she did not marry into his Liu family, he would empty Rui Hui and let her take over an empty shell!

He had asked Johnson to make a scene with her because he wanted her to anger the public and force her to step down. When that time came, he would regain control of the company and he would be able to empty Rui Hui without anyone knowing. However, she had easily resolved that crisis! Johnson would not dare to continue making a scene and ruin his plan.

This way, he could only use a ruthless move!

So what if she had evidence to threaten Johnson and make him not dare to cause trouble? He could use Johnson to send her to jail!

No matter how capable she was, could she resist the law? Also, no matter how capable her ex-husband was, he was only capable in their country, and this was Country Y! No matter what kind of connections he had, Mr. Liu had long since built a wide network. Besides, the information that Johnson had exposed was all real!

If Rui Hui had really done those things, then Mu Huan, as the person in charge, could only plead guilty!

She was so against them doing these illegal experiments. But now, they, who had done those things in the past, were fine, but she had to bear such a crime.

What was this?

This was what they meant by the saying, only those who had the power and authority could speak.

When you have the ability, you can let things develop as you wish. If you say that she's guilty, she's guilty!

He had this ability because he had Rui Hui.

It was said that it is easy to go from frugal to extravagant, but it is difficult to go from extravagant to frugal.

This was the truth. When you stood at the top and could control the life and death of others at will, if you were asked to come down and become someone who could be controlled at will, you definitely wouldn't be able to take it. You wouldn't be able to accept it. You'd rather fight to the death against the other party than be chased off the stage.

This was his mentality.

He was used to being in power and would never let himself return to the ranks of servants.

On the other hand, Mu Huan kept blocking his way and did not follow his plan at all. She insisted on forcing him to deal with her!

"Since Uncle Liu thinks that this is something from the past and that I wasn't the one in charge then, why don't you go along and explain the situation, Uncle Liu?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

When Mr. Liu heard this, his expression did not change. He said, "Xiao Huan, don't worry. I'll go over and explain the situation! I'll bring our best legal team over. I'll definitely not let anything happen to you!"

Mu Huan looked at him silently.

"It's time to go!" the person working the case urged, asking Mu Huan to leave with them quietly.

Mu Huan did not say anything else and left with him.

Just as they were about to enter the elevator, Liu Changfeng came out with a nervous and anxious expression. When he saw Mu Huan, he immediately went forward and grabbed her arms tightly. He said worriedly, "What's going on? Why did this suddenly happen?"

Why did she suddenly become the culprit that everyone wanted to kill?

She was clearly against such an experiment! But now, they wanted to lock her up and make her take responsibility for such a matter!

"I should go," Mu Huan said.

"But..." Liu Changfeng still wanted to say something.

The officer next to Mu Huan said, "Sir, please make way."

At this moment, Mr. Liu, who'd known that Liu Changfeng was coming, walked over and shouted, "Changfeng."

Liu Changfeng looked at Mu Huan and then at his father.

Chapter 1159: Caught (5)

When the officer asked him to move aside again, he did so.

Mu Huan glanced at the father-son pair and did not say anything. She followed the police officer into the elevator.

Once they left...

"Dad, what's going on? Why..." Before Liu Changfeng could finish speaking, Mr. Liu turned around and left.

Liu Changfeng knew that he wanted him to go to his office. He hurriedly followed him.

When he arrived at the deputy CEO's office, Liu Changfeng asked impatiently, "Dad, what happened? Why did it become like this?"

If Xiao Huan was brought in like this, she might not be able to come out.

"You don't have to know why this happened. You just have to learn more about how to run a business from now on," Mr. Liu said lightly. He told him not to interfere in this matter. What he should do was study well so that he could help him in business in the future.

When Liu Changfeng heard his words, he instinctively thought of something. "Was it you?! Did you do this, Dad?!"

"Go now." Mr. Liu picked up the document on the table and looked at it.

However, not only did Liu Changfeng not leave, but he even pressed down on the document he was about to look at and insisted, "Dad, was it you?"

He knew what kind of person Johnson was. He knew that such a bad person would never commit suicide out of guilt. He must have been forced into a corner by someone.

Mr. Liu couldn't continue reading the documents and said, "So what if it's me? So what if it's not me?"

Even if he had asked clearly, so what if he had plotted to harm Mu Huan?

Liu Changfeng: "..."

Now, he was 100% sure that his father had planned this.

"Dad, you said in the past that you wouldn't hurt her!" He had promised him in the past that he wouldn't hurt Mu Huan! But now, he was doing this! The evidence was real. This meant that Mu Huan might get sued and sentenced.

She had done nothing, but she was going to be locked up and sentenced.

This...

"You said it yourself. That was in the past," Mr. Liu said.

In the past, he would never have hurt Mu Huan. Now, he could only be ruthless to her. If he wasn't ruthless to her, he would have to be ruthless to himself!

"But Dad, by doing this, you've also seriously injured Rui Hui. Rui Hui might go bankrupt because of this. Our family is the second-largest shareholder of Rui Hui! If it's like this, we'll also suffer heavy losses!" Liu Changfeng said.

"You don't have to worry about that." Everything was under his control.

"Dad..." Liu Changfeng still wanted to say something.

"Don't bother yourself with this matter and don't ask anything more." Mr. Liu stood up. It was obvious that he was busy.

"Dad, you can't do this. If you don't think of a way to let Xiao Huan off, I'll go look for Bo Junyan! I have a lot of real information about the past. If I send these to him, what do you think will happen?"

Liu Changfeng had been hesitating about whether he should stand on his father's side. Just as he was about to make a decision...

His father had made the first move and even made such a ruthless gambit to send Xiao Huan to jail!

"You b*stard! Do you know what you're saying?!" Mr. Liu said angrily. Who was he working hard for? What a good son...! He actually threatened him because of an outsider!

"I know." Liu Changfeng paused for a moment before saying, "Dad, don't treat Xiao Huan like this..."

Even if he couldn't get married to Mu Huan and she didn't like him, he couldn't bear the pain. He might want to help his father snatch Rui Hui, but he couldn't watch her go to jail...

"If I don't treat her this way, we'll be the ones left with nothing!" Mr. Liu said.

Chapter 1160: Obeying Instinct (1)

"How can we have nothing? We're the second-largest shareholder of Rui Hui! The better Rui Hui is, the better we'll be in the future! You don't have to think that Xiao Huan will deal with us. From the start, Xiao Huan has clearly expressed that she wants to work hand in hand with us and win. We can tell her sincerity from the fact that she's willing to give us an additional five percent of the shares!"

Liu Changfeng was indignant that he couldn't get Mu Huan, but he couldn't deny Mu Huan's sincerity, nor could he feel that Mu Huan would want to harm them.

She had made it very clear that she wanted to live harmoniously with them and win hand in hand. If they did not deal with her, she would definitely not let them lose everything!

"That's because she hasn't gained a foothold in Rui Hui yet. Why don't you let her try to gain a foothold? Who would like someone to be in the way while executing their power? Besides, even if she doesn't, do you want me to follow her orders from now on?"

"If it weren't for my desperate efforts, Rui Hui would have been finished long ago! I've expanded it to this extent, but the old man was so guarded against me. All my hard work has been given to someone else. How can I accept it willingly?!"

Because of that first will, he'd worked so hard. In the end...

Since the old man was so heartless, then don't blame him for being unfair!

Liu Changfeng was about to say something.

But Mr. Liu said, "You should know that no matter what you do now, it's impossible for her to like you and marry you."

Liu Changfeng was silent.

Yes.

No matter what he did, she would never marry him.

Initially, he thought that her losing her memory was his greatest chance. Unexpectedly, after she lost her memory, she did not even want the fake marriage that they had agreed on previously.

And now, she had fallen in love with Bo Junyan so quickly.

Now that Bo Junyan's grandfather was dead, they could live together without fear.

Although he didn't want to admit it, under such circumstances, he really didn't have any chance.

"With such evidence, as the person in charge of the company, Mu Huan has taken on a lot of public pressure this time. There are also other reasons. If she were to be sentenced, it would be for at least five years. Do you think Bo Junyan can wait five years for her?" Mr. Liu raised an eyebrow.

Liu Changfeng seemed to understand what his father meant. He clenched his fists tightly.

“She’s too arrogant now. She can have whatever she wants. Naturally, she doesn’t know what it means to give in and attach herself to someone. After she’s sentenced and has nothing left, she’ll have a lot of desire and needs. At that time, if you satisfy her, won’t she be yours? Some people have to have their wings broken before someone could attain them.” A woman who had nothing and had been in jail would settle for anything!

“Hence, the most important thing for you to do now is to improve your ability. Once you stand at the highest point, you will realize that whatever you want will come easy.”

Liu Changfeng did not speak, but his heart wavered.

Just as his father had said, some people had to have their wings broken before someone could attain them.

He could have her only if she had nothing.

In the reception room...

“How’s the situation outside?” Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan.

“Liu Dongxu has called for an emergency press conference and expressed that he will investigate this matter thoroughly. Also, he will temporarily take over the position of CEO,” Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan sighed. “There’s really no end to human greed. Apart from giving him an additional five percent of the shares, I’ve also given him 60% of NST’s benefits. Most of the benefits of Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals come from NST’s research and development. The benefits I’ve given him far exceed the benefits that Liu Changfeng and I could have brought to the Liu family if we got married...”
