

Fake Marriage 1181

Chapter 1181: I Like My Old Man (3)

He looked at the thick stack of documents in front of him that he could not finish. Then, he looked at Mu Huan, who was playing and eating snacks. She was very satisfied.

Bo Junyan's eyes darkened. He lowered his head and snatched the food that Mu Huan was about to put into her mouth.

Mu Huan looked up in surprise.

Bo Junyan looked at her dazed look and kissed her without restraint.

Mu Huan: "..."

"Mu Huan, are you stupid? Why are you standing there in a daze and not moving?!" Long Feiting shouted as he looked up. Then, he saw the two of them kissing.

Freaking hell!

Instantly, he felt as if ten thousand horses were galloping across his heart!

Gu Chenyi clenched his fists so tightly that he almost crushed the phone in his hand!

He couldn't bear to see such a scene!

He wanted it! He really wanted her to belong to him! She should be his too!

Just as Long Feiting was about to reach out and separate the two of them...

Bo Junyan pushed away his outstretched head with one hand and pulled the curtain to block their view.

In this first-class cabin, there were curtains between every seat.

Long Feiting: "...!!"

Gu Chenyi put away his phone and put on his earpiece. He turned around and looked at the clouds outside the plane, his eyes deep and unfathomable.

A few hours later, the plane landed.

Country F wasn't very big, and it was still under a hereditary system of rulers. Bo Junyan's friend was a noble in Country F.

When they received the news that Bo Junyan was coming, the other party led his men and came to the airport early to welcome Bo Junyan. The passage given by the airport was the highest standard for welcoming guests.

Although Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi knew that Bo Junyan didn't like it and didn't want them to follow him, they still shamelessly followed behind him.

After all, they were here for Mu Huan. If they didn't follow her, then there was no point in coming.

Country F was a place where energy and resources were limited. Bo Junyan followed the Country F aristocrat who had come to pick him up. Lin Tai had become a good friend because Bo Junyan had donated a lot of new energy to Country F for free. Later on, as they had more and more exchanges, they became good friends.

After a round of enthusiastic greetings, Bo Junyan and the rest were brought to Lin Tai's residence.

“Although I was the one who’d ordered the factory to be shut down and I can also restore the operations of the factory, I can’t ignore the wishes of the citizens. Hence, if you want to restore the operations of the factory, you have to first pacify the protests of the citizens.” Lin Tai knew why Bo Junyan and the rest had come. He did not beat around the bush and spoke very directly.

Mu Huan liked his straightforward personality.

“We know. We’re here this time...” Mu Huan and Bo Junyan knew the crux of the problem. Hence, they had discussed a countermeasure before coming.

After hearing everything, Lin Tai said, “This is indeed a solution. You can do whatever you want. I’ll give you the greatest support...”

“Thank you, then,” Mu Huan said gratefully.

“With my relationship with Junyan, Madam, you don’t have to be polite with me,” Lin Tai said with a smile. After saying that, he looked at Bo Junyan and said, “Junyan, when my lord cousin heard that you were coming over, he invited you to attend the spring banquet tomorrow night.”

“Okay.” Bo Junyan hummed lightly.

“You must be tired after flying for so long. You guys rest first, I’ll go get busy. I’ll see you at dinner.” Lin Tai was a person who didn’t speak much. After he finished speaking, there was nothing else to say.

“Sure.” Bo Junyan was even less of a talkative person.

Chapter 1182: I Like My Old Man (4)

Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi were also arranged to stay in guest rooms in the Lin residence.

Long Feiting was done unpacking and was about to go out for a walk when he saw Gu Chenyi coming out. “Where are you going?”

“For a walk,” Gu Chenyi said.

“Coincidentally, I want to go for a walk too. Let’s go together,” Long Feiting said.

“Why should I go with you? Are we close?” Gu Chenyi swept him a cold glance and walked past him.

Long Feiting: "..."

Initially, Long Feiting only felt that it was embarrassing and did not find anything strange about Gu Chenyi. Then, when he was strolling outside, he accidentally saw Gu Chenyi entering a residence with someone. His expression was a little mysterious, and it looked like he was deliberately hiding his whereabouts. His behavior made him feel very strange. He just happened to want to go to the building opposite to have coffee and asked for a cup of coffee to slowly wait for him to come out.

By the time he had finished his cup of coffee, Gu Chenyi had yet to come out.

Just as he'd asked for a second cup of coffee and snacks and was about to eat, Gu Chenyi came out. Seeing this, Long Feiting went downstairs and chased after Gu Chenyi. After catching up to him, he reached out and patted Gu Chenyi's shoulder. "What did you do in there?"

He was so mysterious!

Gu Chenyi was obviously shocked by Long Feiting's sudden appearance. When he heard him say, "What did you do in there?" his expression became even weirder. However, he quickly calmed down. "What does my going in there have to do with you? Why should I tell you? Are we close?"

With that, he strode away.

Long Feiting: "..."

But wouldn't he investigate if he didn't tell him?

With a snort, Long Feiting got someone to investigate where Gu Chenyi had gone and what he had gone in for.

Although Long Feiting did not have much power in Country F, he had money, and money could make ghosts work. Hence, his men quickly found out where Gu Chenyi had gone.

When he heard that it was to a famous tarot card fortune-teller in Country F, he broke out in a cold sweat.

He'd thought that Gu Chenyi had gone in for such a long time to stir up some big trouble, but he did not expect that he was actually there to have his fortunes read!

This...

Although it was very reasonable, Long Feiting still felt that there was something else.

He had wanted to get someone to follow Gu Chenyi and see if there was really a problem with him.

But when he thought about it, there was no point. Not to mention how Gu Chenyi could not cause any big trouble in the first place, even if he could, it would be good.

At this thought, he did not get anyone to follow Gu Chenyi.

It was just that Long Feiting had previously felt that Gu Chenyi's deep thoughts were all an act. He had done so to imitate Bo Junyan so that Mu Huan could accept him.

And now, he felt that Gu Chenyi was no longer imitating Bo Junyan. He had really become profound.

After Lin Tai left...

Bo Junyan and Mu Huan did not rest. Instead, they discussed the specific implementation plan. After all, it was urgent for the factory to return to normal operations. Many people were waiting for this batch of medicine to be saved.

"The influenza in Country F is quite serious. I think we can give out the medicine for free and provide specialist treatment." Even though Mu Huan wasn't in charge of Rui Hui in the past, what the company had done was still wrong. Rui Hui had indeed done such a thing. Since they had done it, they had to admit their mistake and compensate the other party.

"This is a solution, but the results will be too slow. The pharmaceutical factory can't wait," Bo Junyan said.

"Then what should we do?"

Chapter 1183: Strangely Familiar (1)

"Give out food and money," Bo Junyan continued. "Last year, there was a drought in Country F, and the autumn harvest had decreased. Now, they have no supplies. Many people can't eat their fill. If we give them food and money, the effects will be immediate."

"Tomorrow, we'll go see the leader and discuss some conditions. The factory should be able to resume operations the day after tomorrow."

"Send more money as well to those who have been tested on. Set up a file and arrange for a specialized medical team to follow up and observe," Mu Huan said after some thought.

"Yes, the free drug will be distributed at the same time."

After discussing all the details...

"I'm so hungry! I'm so hungry!" Mu Huan protested.

"Let's eat some fruits and snacks first." They were having dinner with Lin Tai tonight. It wasn't appropriate for them to go out to eat now. Furthermore, this place was two hours ahead of Country Y and such a banquet would start late. Dinner would be in two and a half hours. She definitely wouldn't be able to last until then.

"Alright," Mu Huan said as she went to get some fruits and snacks.

After bringing them over, she placed some by Bo Junyan's hand and said, "I'm busy with the last test and can't use my hands to eat. Feed me."

With that, she leaned back into Bo Junyan's embrace and took out her phone. She opened her mouth and waited for him to feed her.

She looked so pleased.

When Bo Junyan saw this, he only wanted to kiss her. He had also taken action.

It was just a whim.

Unexpectedly, this kiss took on a different feeling.

However...

Mu Huan suddenly pushed him away. "No, I'm hungry.

"If you want to eat meat, you have to feed the pigs first."

When Bo Junyan heard this, he smiled and picked up a piece of beef jerky before placing it into her mouth. "Alright, I'll feed my baby pig first."

Mu Huan: "..."

What did she compare herself to just now?

She must have gone crazy...

But she still opened her mouth and ate it. "I'm not a pig!"

"Yes, you're not," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan looked up and gave him a knowing look. Then, she lowered her head and continued to test the last level of her game.

For the first time, Bo Junyan did not do anything else. He only focused on watching her eat. When she was done swallowing, he would immediately feed her another mouthful.

"I keep feeling that this place is weird, but I can't say what's weird about it. I just feel that this scene isn't that perfect." After Mu Huan had lured out the big boss and looked at that cool scene, she felt that there was something lacking.

When Bo Junyan heard this, he lowered his head to look at her phone and said, "I feel that the fluctuation and color of this big move aren't perfect. Also..."

When Mu Huan heard his words, a look of realization appeared on her face. So these things were off. No wonder she kept feeling that something was amiss.

"Hubby, you're the best! I love you so much!" She kissed him on the cheek happily and immediately made a call to the R D team to tweak the spots Bo Junyan had mentioned.

After she completed the game...

"Are you full?" Bo Junyan asked.

"No, I'm just not that hungry anymore," Mu Huan said.

Bo Junyan looked at the empty plate and could only say that his wife had a good appetite.

"Lin is too addicted to delicacies. His family's chef is a top chef in Country F. I've eaten their food once, and it's very delicious," Bo Junyan suddenly said.

"If you're saying that, then the food must definitely be delicious!" Mu Huan was now looking forward to tonight's dinner even more.

“So, shouldn’t you digest what you’d just eaten? You’ll be able to eat more later then. What if you got full before having your fill?”

Chapter 1184: Strangely Familiar (2)

Bo Junyan picked her up as he spoke.

Mu Huan: “...”

The next day...

The current leader of Country F was a person who knew how to enjoy himself. Today’s spring banquet was extremely extravagant.

It was so extravagant that Mu Huan couldn’t help sighing softly. “Indeed, no matter how poor a country is, a person in power is still rich. Life is as luxurious as it can be.”

“Yes.” Bo Junyan agreed with this point.

Mu Huan was about to say something when she saw Lin Tai walking toward them. She did not speak further.

Lin Tai walked over and said, “Junyan, Madam Bo, let’s go sit over there. We’ll talk to the leader halfway through the banquet after he’s done speaking.”

“Okay.” Bo Junyan hummed lightly as he walked over with Mu Huan and Lin Tai.

Just as they reached their seats and sat down, the leader brought his men up the stage.

Bo Junyan had met the leader a few times and was not unfamiliar with him. Hence, he did not look at the leader. Instead, he looked at the people who looked like a married couple standing beside the leader.

When Lin Tai saw that he was looking at the person beside the leader, he said, "That's the leader's younger brother. Standing beside him is his newlywed wife. I heard that because this young wife looks almost identical to his first love, he dotes on this delicate wife very much. Not only did he wantonly build a palace for her, but he also chased his two sons out of the house for her."

When Bo Junyan heard this, his gaze landed on the little wife of the leader's brother. For some reason, he felt that there was an indescribable familiarity in that woman's eyes.

However, he was very sure that he had never seen this woman before.

When Mu Huan saw that he was looking at the little wife of the leader's brother, she went up to him and whispered, "Why? Do you find her too beautiful to look away?"

Bo Junyan retracted his gaze and looked at her. "No. In this world, other than my wife, there's no other woman who's so beautiful that I can't take my eyes off of her."

Mu Huan was only teasing him. She didn't expect him to say no to her so seriously. His appearance was so adorable that she almost couldn't resist kissing him. "Hubby, you're so obedient."

Bo Junyan: "..."

"However, it's no wonder you wanted to take a few more glances at her. It's no wonder that the leader's younger brother would chase his own sons away for her sake. This person is indeed very beautiful and good-looking," Mu Huan said as she looked at the woman standing on the stage.

Just then, the woman's gaze met hers.

This glance made her feel a little strange.

However, she couldn't tell where this strange feeling came from. She couldn't help but take a few more glances at the woman.

Sensing her abnormality, he asked, "What's wrong?"

"I feel that that woman is a little strange, but I don't know why," Mu Huan said.

Was it an inexplicable sense of familiarity? Bo Junyan was about to say this.

Then he heard her speak.

"It's been fixed! Her nose must have been fixed!" That was why the more she looked at it, the weirder she felt.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Mu Huan continued, "Although she's an artificial beauty, she's indeed beautiful."

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Why were you looking at her like that just now? Could it be that you could tell that she's had work done on her?" Although Mu Huan knew that he was definitely not the kind of man who would look at other women and be fickle-minded, he was definitely not someone who would just stare.

However, he had really spent too much time looking at that woman.

She really wanted to know why he had looked at her for so long.

"I find her strangely familiar," Bo Junyan said.

Chapter 1185: Strangely Familiar (3)

Strangely familiar? Mu Huan frowned. "Don't tell me you've also lost some memories?"

Otherwise, if he had seen her before, he wouldn't just feel that she was familiar but not know her.

"No."

"Then, could it be that she's your lover from your previous life?" And that's there was an inexplicable sense of familiarity when they met in this life.

Bo Junyan: "..."

The two of them were conversing in Chinese. Lin Tai, who was beside them, didn't know what they were talking about. He only thought of something and said, "Junyan, let's go and greet Lord Sen Tai later. Although I'm the one who'd closed the pharmaceutical factory, I'm not in charge of the medical department. The medical department is under Sen Tai."

What he meant was that he would chat with Sen Tai later and nurture their relationship so that it would be more convenient for them in the future.

"Okay." Bo Junyan hummed lightly.

After the leader had finished speaking on the stage and the banquet officially began, Lin Tai led Bo Junyan and Mu Huan to Sen Tai.

Sen Tai was the leader's younger brother, and Lin Tai was the leader's wife's younger brother and the next leader's uncle. The family held great power.

The two of them were on par with each other in Country F, so Sen Tai was very polite and valued Lin Tai's VIP guests.

Furthermore, the life-extension medicine that Mu Huan had developed was something that everyone wanted, especially people like Sen Tai, who was old. Hence, after learning Mu Huan's identity, he chatted with them enthusiastically.

He even introduced his newlywed wife to them. "This is my wife, Yu Ling."

Because of his formal introduction, Mu Huan and Bo Junyan's gazes once again landed on the woman they had been paying attention to.

"It's good to see you," the woman said with a smile.

Bo Junyan was very sure that he had never heard of Yu Ling. When he leaned closer to take a closer look, the inexplicable sense of familiarity in her eyes was gone. This made him frown slightly, not knowing why he had such a strange feeling.

Mu Huan met Yu Ling's eyes again. The woman's sixth sense made her feel that there was something wrong with the woman in front of her, but she couldn't tell anything.

She could only smile politely at her.

Ling Wei, oh no, she was now called Yu Ling, looked at Bo Junyan and Mu Huan. The two people she hated the most were standing right in front of her, so close to her!

If she had not known that they would come and had not mentally prepared herself, she might not have been able to control the hatred in her heart!

It was them. They were the ones who'd ruined such a good life that she, Ling Wei, had. They made her life, which was supposed to be a glorious one, become like this. With someone else's face, she became an old man's wife. She was really...!

How hateful! How hateful!

She couldn't wait to step forward and kill the two of them!

However, on the surface, she did not show any hatred at all. She remained gentle and talked to them generously as if she did not know them at all.

Not only did Ling Wei's face change, but even her voice had changed. Even Bo Junyan, who had grown up with her, could not tell that they were the same person.

However, it wasn't a mark against Bo Junyan that he couldn't tell.

Even Ling Wei herself would occasionally be frightened by her own voice, not knowing whose it was.

The only thing similar was that pair of eyes.

Although plastic surgery could also open the corners of one's eyes and make them look different from before, the irises were still the same. Furthermore, one's aura would not change, so one could see a trace of similarity.

It made Bo Junyan feel an inexplicable sense of familiarity toward her.

Chapter 1186: Untitled

However, as they got closer, Ling Wei retracted her gaze. Her charm made it impossible to tell that she was similar to before. Hence, when they got closer, Bo Junyan could not tell the similarity and no longer had that feeling.

Meanwhile, Sen Tai was also cozying up to Mu Huan. Now that Mu Huan had come to Country F and her factory was within his scope of responsibility, he definitely wanted Mu Huan to move his ranking up to the first place. However, it was not appropriate to say such things on such an occasion. Hence, he arranged for Mu Huan and Bo Junyan to go to his residence tomorrow.

Mu Huan wanted to build a good relationship with Sen Tai, so she naturally agreed to his invitation.

After a polite conversation, Lin Tai felt that it was about time, so he brought Bo Junyan and the rest to look for the leader.

After they left...

Ling Wei heaved a sigh of relief. Even now, her biological father could not recognize her. Only the doctor who'd operated on her knew that she was Ling Wei, and he would definitely not betray her. However, she was still a little worried that Bo Junyan would notice something and affect her plan.

Now, it seemed that they did not sense anything amiss and did not associate her with Ling Wei.

This made her heave a sigh of relief, but at the same time, she felt terrible!

She and Bo Junyan had grown up together, and Bo Junyan was such a sharp person. Yet he actually did not notice any abnormality in her.

This meant that she, Ling Wei, had completely disappeared.

She, Ling Wei, was clearly still alive, but she had disappeared from this world. No one knew that she was Ling Wei anymore. She... had become a living dead. No matter what happened in the future, she was no longer her!

This should have been something that made her feel very successful, but it also made her feel uncomfortable, made her feel pain, and made her want to destroy the ones who had forced her to this point!

Ling Wei had been arrogant since she was young. She had always been proud that she was Ling Wei. She felt that there was no woman in this world who could compare to her. But now, she could no longer be Ling Wei.

Her good life had turned to this!

Bo Junyan, Mu Huan! Since you've come here, don't even think about leaving alive!

She didn't want them to suffer a fate worse than death. She only wanted them to die here!

"What's wrong?" Sensing the change in her mood, Sen Tai, who was beside her, looked down at her.

"I'm angry," Ling Wei said.

"Baby, what's wrong? Why are you angry?" Sen Tai immediately said nervously. He was an old man in his fifties, and he had married such a young wife. More than that, this little wife looked almost the same as his first love, whom he couldn't get no matter how much he'd yearned for her. It made him feel like he was holding her in his hands and he was afraid that she would fall. He was afraid that she would melt in his mouth, so he dug out all his heart and soul to please her.

"Is Mu Huan the person in charge of the pharmaceutical company that was conducting illegal drug testing?" Ling Wei asked.

"Yes, what's wrong?"

"That kind of person who doesn't take human lives seriously and uses living bodies for experiments is too scary and evil. Hubby, why are you still being so polite to her?!" Ling Wei said angrily.

"She didn't do it. She'd just taken over this company. The first thing she did after taking over was to stop that kind of experiment. Also, she's also the researcher of the life-extension drug. I heard that she also has medicine that can make men feel better and there are no side effects..."

He wanted to become younger and stronger so that he could spend more years with her.

Most of the people who lived well in this world didn't want to grow old or die, especially those who had just entered the ranks of the elderly. They felt that they weren't old yet and especially wanted to catch the tail of youth.

Chapter 1187: Untitled

They wanted to be younger and stronger, but their health was deteriorating day by day. Hence, they urgently needed medicine to maintain their strong bodies.

A look of disgust flashed across Ling Wei's eyes when she heard this. However, that look of disgust only lasted for a moment. Furthermore, she hid it very well and was not discovered by Sen Tai.

"Those are just her excuses to get away with it. You said that she was the researcher of the life-extension drug. I heard that the researcher of the life-extension drug came from the NST research laboratory. NST can be said to be a research laboratory under Rui Hui Pharmaceutical. There are many illegal drugs that were also produced by the NST research laboratory.

"As a long-time member of NST's research laboratory, how could she not know about the illegal drug testing? But she has never exposed it to the public.

"What does this mean? It means that she's also someone who ignores the life and death of others and only cares about benefits!" Ling Wei's tone was full of hatred for evil.

She now had a kind persona.

"You have a point." Sen Tai felt that what she said made sense. However, he continued, "Even if she'd known about this before, she's just a small researcher. For her own future, she definitely wouldn't have dared to expose her big boss. The fact that she stopped such experiments after she took over her position proves that she's a good person.

"Besides, it's already not bad that she was able to develop such a drug, but she was also willing to pay a huge price to compensate those people after she took office. Also, it's just that Rui Hui was exposed. Other pharmaceutical companies that didn't get exposed might have other darker experiments." Sen Tai actually felt that this was nothing.

After all, many things were dark in the underworld. In comparison, Mu Huan could be considered a good person. Certainly not a bad one!

"Why are you always speaking up for her?! Do you have any thoughts about her because she's good-looking?" Ling Wei said unhappily.

"How could that be? Why would I think that she's good-looking? What do I think... I'm just stating facts..." Sen Tai hurriedly coaxed.

"Stating facts? Are you saying that I'm wrong?" Ling Wei narrowed her eyes.

"You're not wrong, you're definitely not wrong! I wanted to get that medicine from her, that's why I said this. It's my fault, it's all my fault!" Sen Tai apologized even more humbly.

After he'd coaxed her for a while, Ling Wei's expression improved a little, but it quickly turned into one of grievance.

Her aggrieved expression made his heart ache. "Baby, what's wrong with you? Don't be like this... My heart aches for you..."

"I married you because you saved me from disaster. It was because you were so good, but now, you're siding with a heinous person and even said that I was wrong because of her. This makes me..." Ling Wei choked.

Sen Tai's first love was a very, very kind and pure person. Just like an angel, she was all good and had no trace of evil. There was no evil in her at all.

Her kindness, innocence, and purity were what Sen Tai loved.

People in the dark always wanted and yearned for the light.

Hence, no matter how saintly Ling Wei acted, he would not feel that she was pretentious. He only felt that not only did she look like his first love, but she also had the same personality and was so kind. This made him want to dote on her even more.

He wanted to give her everything.

"I'm sorry, baby. It's all my fault. It's all my fault. You can punish me however you want. We can do whatever you want..." Sen Tai said repeatedly.

Chapter 1188: Untitled

"Can I really do whatever I want?" The grievance on Ling Wei's face disappeared and turned into sparkling anticipation.

"Yes, do whatever you want!" When he met her expectant gaze, he looked as if he'd do everything he could to pluck the moon from the sky if that was what she wanted!

"Sen Tai, you're too good to me..." Ling Wei reached out to hug him. She looked down and restrained the viciousness in her eyes.

Bo Junyan had met the leader a few times before, but he had never been treated so warmly like this. He knew that this was all because of his wife.

Since ancient times, emperors had never wanted to die. This one wanted the elixir of immortality the most.

Although the medicine that Mu Huan had developed did not grant immortality, everyone wanted and desired to be able to live for even a few more years. This was especially so for the leader, who was almost 60 years old and had a weak constitution. He yearned to live well for a few more years.

They had what their leader wanted. Naturally, everything went smoothly.

Furthermore, what Mu Huan and Bo Junyan were offering was really too tempting...

On the way back.

Mu Huan received a list of all the drugs that had been secretly tested.

“Fortunately, those drugs didn’t cause any harm to those people. Otherwise, really...” It was only when Mu Huan was about to receive Rui Hui that she realized that Rui Hui Pharmaceuticals tested drugs this way.

The damage had already been done. The only thing she could do was to stop the damage and compensate those people.

The compensation she had given to those drug-takers was much more than what she had given to the leader. She even asked someone to be responsible for the health of their families well into the future.

Bo Junyan reached out and pulled her into his embrace. “This isn’t your fault.”

“But this company is mine now.” The mistakes it made were the mistakes of a responsible person like her. She had to take responsibility.

“You’ve already done very well,” Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan looked up and raised an eyebrow. "In your eyes, what have I done wrong?"

"You do everything well. My wife is the best person in the world." It wasn't that Bo Junyan was good with words. It was that this was what he truly felt. He felt that his wife was the best person in the world.

"My husband is also the best person in the world!" Mu Huan said coyly as she hugged him.

PA Wang was driving.

"..." CEO, CEO's wife, is it really okay for you to praise each other like this?"

Just then, his phone rang. Following that, his Bluetooth earpiece automatically picked up the call. On the other end of the line, his precious son's voice sounded.

"Daddy, when are you coming back? Little Dongdong misses you."

His childish voice melted his heart.

"Daddy will be back in a few days. Little Dongdong, you have to listen to Mommy obediently..." PA Wang, who had always been stern and calm, now had a voice so gentle that it gave people goosebumps.

As he was driving, he quickly ended his warm conversation with his son.

"PA Wang, weren't you single?" Why was someone calling him Daddy?

"I was single three years ago. Now, I'm the father of a two-year-old," PA Wang said happily.

As he spoke, he passed the phone to Mu Huan. "The screen saver is my son. Look, isn't he super cute?"

“Wow! He’s really cute!”

A two-year-old lad was at his prime. He had big eyes and a chubby little face. He was really good-looking and adorable.

“That’s right!” PA Wang was full of pride.

“Hubby, look, he’s so cute!” Mu Huan showed Bo Junyan the phone.

Chapter 1189: Untitled

Bo Junyan glanced at the young lad on the screen. He was indeed very cute.

“Isn’t he super cute?!”

“Yeah.” Bo Junyan hummed lightly.

Mu Huan returned PA Wang’s phone and was about to say something to Bo Junyan, but Bo Junyan’s phone rang.

It was Meng Yueman.

“What’s wrong, Mom?”

When Mu Huan heard that it was his mother, her mother-in-law, she instantly sat up straight.

Although she recalled some things from the past, she only recalled some memory fragments related to Bo Junyan. They were not coherent, and she had no impression of this mother-in-law at all.

“What’s wrong? You still have the cheek to ask me what’s wrong? How long has it been since you came home?!” Meng Yueman said angrily.

“I’ll go back after this,” Bo Junyan said lightly.

“How long has it been? A year or two? Or are you waiting for me to die?” Meng Yueman asked.

Bo Junyan: “...”

“Do you find me annoying and unbelievable?”

Bo Junyan wanted to say, “Mom, since you know you’re being unreasonable, why are you still saying such things?” But he did not say it out loud. He only remained silent.

“Do you want me to stop bothering you like this and stop being so unreasonable?”

Bo Junyan: “...”

He already knew what she wanted to say next.

“As long as you give me a fat, milky grandson, as long as he’s my biological grandson—no, biological granddaughter—it’s fine as long as they’re your child! If you give me a grandchild, I promise I won’t bother you anymore. Even if you don’t come home for eight to ten years, even if you never come back to visit me, it would be fine!” At Meng Yueman’s age, all her friends had become grandmothers. Every time she went out to play cards, grandchildren would be running around while they were playing. No matter where she went, they were all filled with little cuties.

It made her envious.

She had urged her son to get married, but he refused. Now, she didn’t want him to get married. All she wanted was a grandchild. No matter if it was a test tube baby or a child from a surrogate pregnancy, as long as he had a child, she could be a grandma!

Bo Junyan: “...”

Indeed.

Ever since his mother woke up and her body slowly recovered, she would call him every few days. However, she had never cared about him. She either wanted him to get married or give her a grandchild.

Mu Huan was very close to Bo Junyan, so she heard Meng Yueman’s words.

“Junyan, it’s not that I’m urging you or forcing you. It’s just that you’re not young anymore. You’re already 33 after the new year. If you don’t have a child now, by the time your child goes to primary school, you’ll already be in your forties. Some others in their forties are already grandfathers!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“Besides, even if you aren’t worried about your age, think about your father and me, alright? One of us is almost 60, and the other is almost 70. If we don’t see our grandchild soon, we can only die with regrets.”

“Mom, don’t exaggerate...” After their health had improved, it wouldn’t be a problem for them to live for a few more decades with his wife’s medicine.

“I’m not exaggerating at all! I really long for my grandchild so much that I’m going crazy. I long for a grandchild so much that I feel that life is meaningless without one...” Meng Yueman felt that if she didn’t have a grandchild, she wouldn’t be able to live anymore.

Bo Junyan broke out in a cold sweat. “Mom, I have an important meeting to attend. I’ll hang up first.”

With that, he hung up without waiting for Meng Yueman to say anything.

“Your mother is right. You’re indeed not young anymore,” Mu Huan said as she looked at Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan: “...”

“The best age for a man to father a child is 25 to 38. You have to hurry.”

Chapter 1190: Untitled

Suddenly, Mu Huan leaned toward Bo Junyan and said coquettishly, "How about we catch up on the progress tonight?"

Bo Junyan's eyes lit up. "We must definitely catch up."

Mu Huan smiled and reached out to hug him. When she loved someone, she could not help but want to hug and kiss him and give birth to a child for him.

Although given her life plan, having a child should still be a distant matter, her husband had reached the age where he should have a child. From what her mother-in-law had said just now, she'd been urging him to have a child almost on the daily. Anyway, she was going to have a child sooner or later, so why make the elderly rush him every day and have them be so anxious?

When they returned to their place and was about to get off the car...

Bo Junyan said, "Let's get someone to investigate Sen Tai's newlywed wife."

"Why? Do you still find his wife strange?" Mu Huan asked.

"Yes."

"I also feel that there's something wrong with her gaze, but I can't tell what's wrong with her. Do you think it's possible that she looks awkward and strange because her eyes have been fixed?" Mu Huan said.

"Let's have someone investigate first." Bo Junyan could not say anything because he could not tell what was strange about that woman. He just felt that she was a little strange.

"Yes."

That night, the moon was dark and the wind was strong.

“These drugs are colorless and odorless. Put them into the water that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan will be drinking tomorrow. Then, keep your eyes on Mu Huan. After she falls, take her away. She’ll be yours from then on.”

The woman dressed like a gypsy passed a bottle of transparent liquid to Gu Chenyi.

Gu Chenyi received the liquid from her. His hands were trembling for some reason, and he almost lost his grip.

“What? Are you afraid to do it?” The woman looked at his trembling hand and smiled sarcastically.

“It’s not that I don’t dare to do it. It’s just that I don’t know if you’re a trustworthy person. After all, that’s my uncle. What if the drug you gave me killed him?” Gu Chenyi wouldn’t admit that he was indeed a little afraid and didn’t dare to do it.

However, he was really afraid that this drug was actually bad. After all, that was his uncle, and he would also be making Xiao Huan drink this drug.

They were people he didn’t want to hurt, especially his uncle.

He only wanted to get Xiao Huan back and did not want to hurt his uncle. Hence, he had to ensure that there was no problem with this drug. That it was really as she had said.

“Haven’t you already investigated whether I’m a trustworthy person?”

“Also, if you didn’t believe me, why would you come?” the woman asked with raised eyebrows.

“I’m here to take a look. This doesn’t mean that I completely believe your words,” Gu Chenyi said.

“Since you’re so afraid that there’s a problem with the drug, why don’t you try it yourself? I’ll pour you some water now. You can drink it and see what happens,” the woman said with a smile.

“I’m not going to try the drug. I’ll find someone to try it on.” Gu Chenyi did not care if this drug would only make one faint or collapse. He would not try it no matter what. He did not want to lose his consciousness here.

“Since you distrust me so much, why don’t you return the drug to me? Then, you can turn around and leave. It won’t be troublesome for either of us.” The woman made an inviting gesture.

“You sound like you’re playing hard to get. It makes me feel that there’s something wrong with your drug. Also, why would you help me snatch Xiao Huan back?” This was also the question he had been wanting to ask.

Why would she help him like this?

One who is unaccountably solicitous is hiding evil intentions.

“For money,” the woman replied frankly.
