

Fake Marriage 1191

Chapter 1191: Even If You Can't Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (1)

“For money?” Gu Chenyi narrowed his eyes.

“I won't hide it from you anymore. Actually, someone has taken a fancy to Bo Junyan and wants to get him. They gave me huge benefits, which is why I spent so much effort to design all of this. And you just happened to want Mu Huan. Hence, strictly speaking, I'm not helping you. I'm just giving you a favor,” the woman said.

“Who likes my uncle?” Gu Chenyi asked instinctively.

“You don't have to know who it is. You just have to decide if you want this opportunity. If you want it, then take the drug and leave. If you don't, then put down the drug and walk away. Anyway, I don't need you. My plan can still succeed without you,” the woman said.

“If you don't tell me who it is, I'll go to my uncle and tell on you,” Gu Chenyi said.

The woman looked at him. Not only was she not afraid, but she even smiled sarcastically. “You're clearly someone who wants something so badly, yet you're so timid. You have so many worries. It's no wonder Mu Huan chose Bo Junyan and doesn't even want to look at you.

“If it were me, I wouldn't fancy a man like you either! If you're willing to tell Bo Junyan, then go. Anyway, the one who loses the most is you, not me.”

“If my uncle found out that you were scheming against him, he would definitely not let you off! The one who would suffer the greatest loss would be you!”

“Are you naive or stupid? Or did you not hear my plan clearly just now? I can make such a plan and mobilize so many people. Do you still think that my identity is only that of a tarot card reader? Also, don't forget that this is Country F, not your country. Even if Bo Junyan can cover the sky in your country, he can't touch me in Country F!” The woman's face was said she had no fear.

“If you can’t make up your mind, then leave. Don’t waste my time!” As the woman spoke, she stood up, looking impatient.

Gu Chenyi looked at the woman before him for a while before saying, “You overplayed it.”

The woman was stunned.

Gu Chenyi continued, “You might really have a high status and can mobilize a lot of people, but the most important part of the entire plan is to drug them. Because of my uncle and Mu Huan’s cautiousness, the two of them won’t easily be drugged by outsiders. And I’m their relative, so they won’t suspect me. Only if I did this can the success rate be guaranteed.

“So, you’re not doing me a favor. You’re using me!

“From the start, you were just trying to get close to me on purpose, weren’t you? Back then, you didn’t coincidentally get saved by me because you were in trouble. That was just a plot you’d designed!” Gu Chenyi met this woman in front of him in Country Y. At that time, she was being chased by a group of people. He saved her. To express his gratitude, she treated him to a meal and the two of them exchanged contact details.

Because the topics she talked about were always interesting, he slowly became familiar with her. There was one time when she asked him why he didn’t have a girlfriend. He was depressed at that time. Under her coaxing, he told her about the person he liked becoming his aunt.

She was good at counseling and had all sorts of ideas. Although those were useless against Xiao Huan, he felt that her plans were very good. Hence, he told her more and more about his relationship with Xiao Huan.

A few days ago, she’d told him that she had thought of a plan to let him have Xiao Huan. She wanted him to come to Country F with her and his uncle.

Chapter 1192: Even If You Can’t Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (2)

Actually, when she suggested for him to come to Country F, she had already told him about the chance she could give him to have Mu Huan. And when he asked her what kind of chance it was, she said that he would know when he came. He suspected that at the start, when she was saved by him, she wasn't really in trouble. Instead, she had deliberately planned it. She wasn't helping him now. She wanted to use him. However, because he wanted Mu Huan too much, even though he knew that he could get used by someone as a pawn, he still followed her.

After coming here and hearing her plan, asking her such a question, and seeing her current performance, he was even more sure that she had spent so much effort to get close to him just to use him.

The woman looked at him and suddenly laughed. "I've always thought you were a very stupid person. It looks like I've underestimated you. You actually found out the truth."

Gu Chenyi's expression darkened instantly.

No one liked to be looked at as a fool and played as one.

"Since you've seen through it, then this is how it is. If you're willing to cooperate, then so be it. If you're not, then forget it." The woman's expression was indifferent as she said, "However, I want to remind you that you should know that this is your only chance. Other than this chance, you won't have another one to get Mu Huan!"

She knew how much he wanted Mu Huan. This desire made him jump into this trap even if he knew that she had been using him all along.

"You've been lying to me all this time. How would I know if this opportunity is just a big lie? If I did this, not only would I not be able to get Xiao Huan, but I would also cause her and my uncle's death." Gu Chenyi was sure that this woman was lying to him. He could not trust her even more. He felt that such an opportunity might be a scam. In the end, not only would he not be able to get Xiao Huan, but he would also commit a huge mistake. However...

Even with such concerns and such fear, he still could not control the desire in his heart. This was because he knew that, just as she had said, apart from this opportunity, he really had no chance of getting Mu Huan.

He had waited for so many years for this opportunity that only seemed attainable.

Even though this was very risky, he couldn't let go of this opportunity.

Hence, he kept being suspicious as he asked more about it, wanting to confirm the success rate of this opportunity step by step.

"I'll say it again. Since you distrust me so much, then let's not work together," the woman said.

"Don't keep using these words to gamble with me just because you know how much I desire and want it. If I really left, would you still be able to proceed?" Gu Chenyi said coldly.

He quickly added, "The mastermind behind this matter should not be you."

The woman was stunned again.

Did she underestimate Gu Chenyi? He could actually guess this.

Women indeed looked down on Gu Chenyi. In high school, he was sunny, kind, and gullible. But these past years, he was no longer the same person as before. His thoughts had also become much deeper. He had participated in many dealings, but he was not discovered by Bo Junyan and Mu Huan.

“I really want Xiao Huan and I really don’t want to give up this opportunity, but I also think all of you really want this plan to succeed. And in this plan, the most important part is using the drug on them. Hence, in this plan, I should be the one in charge, not someone who can only do whatever you say,” Gu Chenyi said forcefully.

If he could figure out the truth, then everything else would depend on who wanted this more, and he couldn’t give up.

Chapter 1193: Even If You Can’t Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (3)

Right now, it looked like he didn’t want to give up on this plan. They probably wanted this plan to succeed even more.

And he was the most important part of the entire plan. Even if he couldn’t take the lead, he had to know the entire plan. He had to have a certain amount of control to increase the chances of this matter succeeding.

Before the woman could say anything...

Gu Chenyi continued, “I want to know who the mastermind is and what their identity is. I want to talk to them personally. I also want to confirm the safety of the drug. Also, if I used the drug and the plan succeeded, I want to know that I can leave with Xiao Huan with 100% certainty!

“If you give me these, I’ll agree to do it. If not, I’ll leave! This is my bottom line. There’s no room for retreat!”

Without the greatest safety and certainty, Gu Chenyi would not do such a thing no matter how tempted he was.

After all, this concerned his uncle and Mu Huan’s safety.

If he did this, not only would he not get Xiao Huan, but he would also cause trouble for the two of them. If that happened, he wouldn't have to live.

Through this period of interaction, the woman knew that Gu Chenyi was telling the truth. If she could not satisfy his request, he would give up this opportunity no matter how reluctant he was.

She really did not expect that not only was Gu Chenyi not stupid, but he was also smart enough to probe the truth.

She was at a disadvantage.

Just like what he had said, if he did not participate, then they could not complete this plan successfully. Initially, they'd thought that with Gu Chenyi's persistence and obsession with Mu Huan, even if he had doubts, he would do as they said.

In the end...

They could not easily give up on this plan.

She was silent for a while before saying, "I'll go ask for instructions."

"I'll wait for you." Gu Chenyi showed his sincerity. He really wanted the plan to succeed. As long as they were sincere enough, he would definitely cooperate.

The woman went outside to ask for instructions.

"Madam, Gu Chenyi has guessed that I'm using him and that there's someone behind me. He wants to see the person behind me and ensure the safety of this matter."

"How did you let him guess?" Ling Wei said unhappily.

“I’m sorry, Madam. I was incompetent,” the woman apologized immediately.

Thinking that she still had many uses, Ling Wei’s voice softened. “Forget it. He’s not a stupid person. Even if he could guess it, it might not be because your performance was bad.”

She was too careless. She only thought that since Gu Chenyi could not let go of Mu Huan, he would definitely not be willing to give up this opportunity. She forgot that Gu Chenyi was no longer the gullible youth from before. He could do many things without batting an eyelid.

“Then, Madam, what do we do now?”

“Tell him that the plan has been suspended and that something has changed. If we can carry out the plan the day after tomorrow, I’ll meet him tomorrow night to talk.” If he wanted to meet the mastermind, she could just find someone else to meet him.

“Something has changed? What’s wrong?” the woman asked instinctively. She had worked so hard to incite those people, and now they couldn’t proceed?

“The leader’s daughter intercepted. She asked the leader to invite Bo Junyan and the others to participate in tomorrow’s hunt.”

At the mention of this, Ling Wei’s eyes darkened. What she wanted was Bo Junyan and Mu Huan’s lives. Initially, she’d wanted to make use of Gu Chenyi to drug the two of them tomorrow. Then, she would take them to the people who were protesting against Mu Huan and against the factory’s restoration of production. She wanted to incite those people to charge towards Bo Junyan and Mu Huan and kill them, who would be powerless to resist, during the chaos.

Chapter 1194: Even If You Can’t Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (4)

Unexpectedly, the leader’s daughter suddenly invited Mu Huan and the rest to participate in the hunt tomorrow, ruining her entire plan.

“Why would the leader’s daughter invite Bo Junyan and the rest to participate in the hunt? This is the annual spring hunt for the leader’s family,” the woman said in confusion.

“From what Sen Tai said, it seems like the leader’s daughter has taken a fancy to Bo Junyan,” Ling Wei said.

Bo Junyan was so outstanding that he would attract peach blossoms wherever he went.

When the woman heard this, her eyes suddenly lit up. "Madam, actually, Gu Chenyi only guessed that there's someone behind me. He doesn't know what the real truth is. Just now, in order to make him believe me, I told him that someone had taken a fancy to Bo Junyan and wanted him. That I created this plan because that person gave me huge benefits.

"Now, if the leader's daughter really likes Bo Junyan, then can't we push the blame for this matter on her?"

"This way, if the plan doesn't succeed, the mastermind will appear to be the leader's daughter. We'll still be behind the scenes and have a new chance." Once the plan failed, the risk of them getting exposed would be huge. If they failed to kill Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, those two would definitely do everything they could to kill them.

Madam had two big shots protecting her, so she might be fine.

But as for herself, she could not say for sure.

Hence, she had to think about self-preservation. If she could push all the blame to the leader's daughter, then they wouldn't be exposed. Even if the matter failed, Bo Junyan and the rest wouldn't dare to do anything because that was the leader's daughter!

"This is really a coincidence! Even God is on our side!" Ling Wei's originally gloomy mood instantly turned bright when she heard her words!

It would be great if the leader's daughter could become the mastermind of this matter!

It's true that Ling Wei really didn't want her current identity and didn't want to be a living dead person.

But being a living dead person was still better than a being dead person! Especially since her current status was also something that she'd wanted in the beginning. Although the man she married wasn't as perfect as she wanted, she would slowly make this old man useless and turn him into a puppet. Then she would control all his wealth and power!

As long as she did well, her future would still be beautiful. Hence, it was naturally good to have less risk!

It must be that the heavens felt sorry for her and gave her such a coincidental opportunity!

Things that were originally very bad became a good thing.

"Yes, Madam." The woman's voice became lighter.

"For Gu Chenyi's part, you have to do as I said earlier. As for those protesters, appease them first. I'll talk to the leader's daughter and let you know after I've confirmed it."

"Madam, I'm rather familiar with the leader's daughter, Sen Nalin. Besides, she trusts my fortune-telling. After you confirm her intentions, I think it's better for me to convince her to do this. This way, you won't have to expose yourself and ruin your image," the woman said.

Ling Wei now had a kind persona. If she were to encourage Sen Nalin to snatch Bo Junyan away from Mu Huan, it would more or less make Sen Nalin suspicious and reduce the chances of success.

It would be easier for this woman to convince Sen Nalin, who had always believed in fortune-telling.

When Ling Wei heard this, she felt that her arrangement was better. "Lily, you're really smart and useful! Do it well. After this matter succeeds, you'll definitely be rewarded!"

"Thank you, Madam!" Lily immediately thanked her happily.

Chapter 1195: Even If You Can't Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (5)

After hanging up, Ling Wei looked at the night sky outside the window and lightly knocked on the window sill.

She had just said that she would reward Lily after the matter was settled.

But now, she had to think of a way to get rid of this Lily.

She was too smart and capable. She had her own way of thinking.

If such a person was purely loyal to her and was her person, she could still be useful for a while and would not betray Ling Wei. However, Lily was not her loyal subordinate.

She was that man's loyal subordinate. It was because that man wanted Lily to listen to Ling Wei that she was working for her.

When Mu Huan returned from outside, she said impatiently, "Hubby, Hubby, I've gotten someone to investigate. The reason why the leader suddenly invited us to participate in tomorrow's hunting activity is that his daughter, Sen Nalin, strongly requested it.

"Do you think that Sen Nalin has taken a fancy to you?"

Bo Junyan frowned slightly.

“At the banquet, I felt that the way she looked at you was a little too enthusiastic. You didn’t do anything to make people misunderstand that you have feelings for someone, right?” The woman clearly knew that he had a wife, yet she still made such an obvious move.

“No!”

“That’s true. You’ve always been cold to women and have no feelings of pity. You don’t know what it means to be a gentleman. You couldn’t have inadvertently done anything to make her misunderstand,” Mu Huan said as she stroked her chin. Then, her gaze landed on his face.

She was wrong! She shouldn’t have thought about whether he had done something that would cause misunderstandings. With his face, he didn’t need to do anything at all to make women become like moths to a flame! She reached out and pinched Bo Junyan’s face. “Tell me, why do you have such a good-looking face? You’re so attractive!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“This leader’s daughter is not easy to deal with. If things go wrong, even if we can leave Country F, the factory here will be completely finished. Why don’t I destroy your face tonight?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Bo Junyan said, “As long as you want it, anything is fine.”

He had never cared about his face. On the contrary, she cared a lot about and had feelings for him because of his face.

When she heard his words, Mu Huan pinched his face with her hand. After carefully admiring it for a while, she said, “To be honest, I’m a little reluctant!”

With such a face, even if there were only pimples on it, she would feel that those would destroy its beauty. What more if it was disfigured!

Just thinking about it made her feel extremely reluctant.

Bo Junyan snorted. He knew that she couldn't bear to part with his face! He knew that she cared about his face the most!

When God Bo got jealous, he wouldn't give even his own face a pass!

"But even if one can't bear to, one has to be ruthless. I don't want you to keep being pestered by troublesome people!" No matter how reluctant Mu Huan was to lay her hands on his face, she had to be ruthless.

This leader's daughter was really troublesome. She couldn't kill her. She couldn't do this and that. She could only make her give up.

But her husband had such a good-looking face. It was really too difficult to give up on it, especially when the other party was the leader's daughter. She was a person who could get whatever she wanted.

It was even more difficult for her to give up.

Unless her husband was no longer what she wanted, or even something that made her feel disgusted and afraid.

Bo Junyan raised an eyebrow in surprise. Was she really going to attack his face?

"Hubby, I have to make the other party disgusted with you. Hence, I will have to ruin your image. Are you sure you can let me do whatever I want?"

Chapter 1196: Even If You Can't Bear to Do It, You Have to Do It (6)

After Mu Huan thought about what drug she should use, she also thought about the side effects of that drug. Then, she couldn't bear to do it anymore. She wondered if she could think of another way, so she quickly said, "Hubby, you're so smart. Let's think of another way!"

Thinking about that scene, she really couldn't bear to do it!

Her husband was so good-looking!

“Hubby, you’ll really be ruining your appearance!” Mu Huan emphasized.

“It’s alright.” As a man, Bo Junyan relied on his own capabilities to survive, not his face. He didn’t care about ruining his appearance.

Besides, the more unwilling she was, the more he wanted this.

Why did she care so much about his face?!

Mu Huan thought of something and took out her phone. “Come, let me show you the effects.”

Bo Junyan took a look and said, “No problem. That’s it. Very good.”

Mu Huan: “...!”

Very good?! Indeed, those who had been favored were fearless. He didn’t even know how precious he was!

“Come on!” Bo Junyan’s expression said, “Don’t hesitate. That’s it. Come on!”

“What?”

“Aren’t you going to ruin my face tonight?” Bo Junyan raised an eyebrow.

“It was a slip of the tongue just now. If it’s going to be destroyed, it’ll be destroyed tomorrow morning. If it’s destroyed tonight, I’m afraid I’ll have a nightmare and kick you out,” Mu Huan said.

After a while.

“If my face was really ruined, what would you do?”

“How could that be?! How could I let your face be ruined?! Don’t worry, we don’t have to destroy your face. Even if we use a drug, it won’t leave any traces. It’ll only make your face look smoother and prettier than before! Your wife is very good at this! Rest assured!” Mu Huan patted her chest.

“I’m not afraid that your drug will ruin my face. I’m asking you, if my face was ruined by an accident, what would you do? Would you have nightmares every day after seeing me and kick me out?” Bo Junyan’s eyes darkened when he thought of that possibility.

Mu Huan: “...”

He was afraid. If he were ugly, would she not want him?

Uh...

He was a CEO, a man, and a big shot, yet he was asking such a question...

Seriously...

Too cute! So cute that she wanted to kiss him!

She tiptoed and kissed his face. Then, she cupped his face with both hands and smiled. "Hubby, do you think I love only your face?"

"Hmph..." Bo Junyan snorted.

"How can that be?! How can I love only your face?! I love everything about you! I love every strand of your hair!"

"Ha..." She could really exaggerate.

"Don't be like this. I can swear to God! I like everything about my husband. I love everything! I love my husband the most in the world!" Mu Huan said as she kissed his face again.

Although he knew that she was exaggerating, Bo Junyan was still overjoyed.

He lowered his head and was about to kiss her.

However, Mu Huan stopped him. "Let's discuss if there's any other way."

She could not bear to destroy his face, and she did not want her husband's face to leave an imperfect impression.

It was just that Bo Junyan felt that this was the fastest way. Hence, in the end, Mu Huan still had to be ruthless with him.

Hence, the next morning, Mu Huan applied a drug to his face.

Chapter 1197: Wearing a Mask, You're as Beautiful as a Fairy (1)

When the drug took effect, Mu Huan looked at his good-looking face and...

After just a glance, she covered her face with her hands, unable to continue looking.

She couldn't look! She really couldn't look! It ruined his beauty! It made her want to chop off her hand! She actually did such a crazy thing to such a perfect face!

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Hubby, hurry up and take a look in the mirror. Once you do, you'll know how precious you used to be. From now on, you must cherish your face!" Mu Huan said as she covered her face.

Bo Junyan looked at the mirror beside him.

Then...

"..."

Although he really felt that there was no need for a man to have a good-looking face...

Men relied on strength.

However...

After looking at his face...

He couldn't take a second look...

"Do you think it's better to look good?" Mu Huan asked.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"It's not too late for you to regret it now." If she let him go out with such a face, it would really destroy his image and other people's beautiful memories of him!

"No need." When he saw his face, he was so disgusted that he didn't want to look at it anymore, let alone Sen Nalin.

If he quickly settled this matter, he could return with his wife and speed up the progress of getting a child. He didn't have the time to waste on unimportant people.

"Really?"

"Yes."

"Don't you think..." As Mu Huan spoke, she removed her hand. When she saw it, she immediately covered her face again.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"I'm sorry, Hubby. It's an instinctive reaction... an instinctive reaction. I've never been able to stand this kind of skin disease since I was young..."

As her granny often looked at skin diseases when Mu Huan was young, she had a shadow in her heart and could not bear to see such skin diseases, especially those that were so concentrated.

Bo Junyan said, "Then why did you develop such a drug?"

"In order to disgust others. But I didn't expect to disgust myself one day," Mu Huan said.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Now, he felt that he was wrong. He shouldn't feel that his face had taken away more of her attention. That good-looking face of his was quite good, making her infatuated with it.

"Hurry up and put on your mask," Mu Huan urged.

Bo Junyan picked up the mask on the table and put it on.

"Are you wearing it?" Mu Huan covered her eyes so tightly that she couldn't see anything.

"Yes."

"Look in the mirror and make sure you've covered them up." Mu Huan only applied medicine to his face under his eyes.

"It's all covered," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan only relaxed when she received his affirmative answer. She looked at him and clicked her tongue. "Now that you're like this, you're truly as beautiful as a fairy. If you take off your mask, you'll scare even an ugly monster to death!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

As if thinking of something, Mu Huan, who had wanted him to reconsider, excitedly hugged his arm. "Let's go, Hubby. Let's go and scare those people to death!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

The moment the two of them stepped out of the door, they bumped into Lin Tai, who had come over to ask if they could set off.

Seeing that Bo Junyan was wearing a mask, he asked with concern, "Junyan, what's wrong? Do you have a cold?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

"He's disfigured," Mu Huan said, looking upset.

Lin Tai: "..."

He was fine last night. Why was he disfigured today?

After regaining his senses, Lin Tai said, "I'll get the doctor to come over and take a look."

"There's no need. The two of us are doctors," Mu Huan said.

Chapter 1198: Wearing a Mask, You're as Beautiful as a Fairy (2)

Lin Tai: "..."

He had forgotten! The two of them were doctors! And they were top-notch doctors! Although Bo Junyan was a surgeon, Mu Huan was known as a miracle doctor. If even she couldn't treat it, then no doctor in Country F could.

"Why did he suddenly... get disfigured?" Lin Tai couldn't imagine Bo Junyan's face getting disfigured. If such an outstanding man had a disfigured face, this...

"It's all my fault. Last night, I insisted that he take me out for a walk. Then, when we came back, some bugs flew to his face and bit him. Then, many scary bumps quickly appeared on his face." As Mu Huan spoke, her eyes turned red.

Bo Junyan: "..."

His wife was really a capable actress.

"Bugs? Were they black bugs?" Lin Tai was stunned.

"Yes."

"If he was bit until he got disfigured. It could be... it could be... a rot insect..." As Lin Tai spoke, his expression turned ugly.

In Country F, there was a type of insect that could make people turn pale at the mention of it. It was a rot insect. Once a person was bitten, it would cause the injured area to quickly fester. It was very difficult to heal. Even if it was cured, it would leave a scar, making the place where the person was bitten unable to recover to its original state.

After some research by scientists, they found that when a rot insect bites someone, it would secrete a type of poison. This poison was still incurable.

However, the people of Country F had come up with a preventative drug, which they would spray when they went to grassy fields.

“I also suspect that it’s this kind of bug,” Mu Huan said with reddened eyes.

He was fine yesterday, but he was suddenly disfigured today. If there was no credible reason, it would make people feel doubtful and they would not buy the act. Hence, when she thought about destroying Bo Junyan’s face, she thought about this kind of bug. Recently, she had been researching the antidote for this kind of bug. Hence, she knew what kind of injury would appear after being bitten by this kind of bug.

Then, from the poisons she had, she picked out one whose effect resembled that type of injury and gave it to Bo Junyan.

Everyone in Country F knew about these bugs. They all knew that once they were bitten by these bugs, their faces would really be ruined. Hence, they only had to release the news that Bo Junyan had been bitten. Then, when they made him drink water during the spring hunt, Sen Nalin would accidentally see his face.

There shouldn’t be any follow-up.

There were thousands of ways, but it had to be said that this method was the fastest way to achieve the simplest effects.

Hence, although Mu Huan was reluctant, she still made a move.

“What... what... what should we do?” Lin Tai stuttered.

“I’ve applied all the medicine I have on him, but there’s no effect,” Mu Huan said with a heavy tone.

Lin Tai: “...”

It was definitely useless!

There was no antidote for this bug yet.

“This bug’s poison is too overbearing, making me helpless. I don’t know what else I can do...” Mu Huan said dejectedly.

Seeing her like this, Lin Tai could only say some comforting words. “Madam Bo, don’t be anxious. You’re an expert in developing medicine. Take your time. You can definitely do it!”

“I hope so.” Mu Huan’s expression could only be like this.

Lin Tai glanced at Bo Junyan and couldn't help but sigh in his heart. It was such a pity when he had such a good face.

Like this... Sen Nalin would probably not like Bo Junyan anymore.

Lin Tai also knew that Sen Nalin had insisted that Bo Junyan participate in the spring hunt that only the Sen family could participate in. She had taken a fancy to Bo Junyan.

Chapter 1199: Wearing a Mask, You Look as Beautiful as a Fairy (3)

Although Bo Junyan already had such a compatible wife, who wouldn't want a better one?

Hence, regarding the development between the two of them, he was doing them a favor and not doing anything to break the other up. However, he would help the other party if he could.

After all, if Bo Junyan were to get together with Sen Nalin, he would give them more resources in the future. This was an excellent thing.

But now...

There was probably no chance.

"Let's go. It's about time." Although this invitation would not be like what they had thought, they had already agreed on it. They still had to go on time.

"Yes."

The three of them arrived at the leader's exclusive back mountain.

It was said that Sen Nalin had taken a fancy to Bo Junyan. It was really rare to see such a rich and handsome man like Bo Junyan. It was too hard to resist him.

This was especially so for Sen Nalin, who had been beautiful since she was young and came from a good family. This made her think highly of herself. Having lived for so long, the person she liked the most was Bo Junyan. Hence, although she knew that he had a wife, she still tried her best to get close to him and get him.

She felt that with her status and her beauty, no man would not want her.

She would definitely get what she wanted!

Ling Wei saw that Sen Nalin would look at the entrance from time to time. Even though she knew that she was waiting for Bo Junyan, she pretended to be ignorant and asked, "Nalin, what are you looking at?"

"Nothing," Sen Nalin said arrogantly.

No matter what, Bo Junyan was now a married man. She couldn't tell others that she liked Bo Junyan and be seen as a third party. What she wanted was to let Bo Junyan know that she was interested in him. Then, he would take the initiative to divorce his wife and pursue her to be with her.

It wasn't that Sen Nalin was a moron who thought she was so beautiful and so great. It was just that her status made her feel that she should be able to get everything she wanted easily.

Ling Wei knew what she was thinking and did not expose her. Just then, Bo Junyan and Mu Huan walked in together. She immediately said, "That seems to be Bo Junyan, the CEO of the Bo Group."

"Okay." Sen Nalin could not take her eyes off of Bo Junyan as he walked in.

At this moment, Bo Junyan, who was wearing a mask, was really...

Just like what Mu Huan had said, he looked like a fairy wearing a mask!

That person must be very handsome!

"It's rare to see such an outstanding man like him," Ling Wei said further.

"Yes, yes, very rare!" Sen Nalin nodded repeatedly.

"It's just that him getting married so early and having such a wife... is a pity..." Ling Wei almost sighed. Then, she said, "A man like him should be matched with a more noble woman."

"Do you think so too?" That was what Sen Nalin was thinking. Hence, when she heard Ling Wei's words, she was pleasantly surprised that she had met a confidant.

"Yes."

"I think so too! This Mu Huan is not good enough for Bo Junyan!" Sen Nalin did not beat around the bush and was not afraid of anything. Hence, she spoke very directly.

"With Bo Junyan's status, and being such a talent..." The more Ling Wei spoke, the more she touched on Sen Nalin's heart.

It made her feel even more that she was the most compatible with Bo Junyan.

She should be with Bo Junyan!

Ling Wei smiled when she saw that Sen Nalin was getting more and more enthusiastic. Mu Huan, let's see how capable you are!

If Mu Huan could deal with a strong enemy like Sen Nalin, Ling Wei would really be convinced!

Chapter 1200: Wearing a Mask, You Look as Beautiful as a Fairy (4)

"But why is he wearing a mask today?" Sen Nalin frowned unhappily. She had been thinking about his handsome face all night, and now, it was blocked by a troublesome mask. She really wanted to rush forward and take off his mask!

Wearing a mask like this would affect his looks too much!

"Maybe he caught a cold and is afraid of infecting our distinguished persons," Ling Wei said casually.

"He actually caught a cold. What's wrong with that woman?! She can't even take good care of him!" Sen Nalin felt that Mu Huan was too useless. She actually made Bo Junyan sick.

"He needs someone to care of him when he catches a cold," Ling Wei said meaningfully.

“Yes, you’re right!” With that, Sen Nalin paused for a while before finding an excuse to leave.

When Ling Wei saw her walking toward Bo Junyan and the rest, she smiled slightly and lowered her head to take a sip of red wine.

She was waiting to see a scene where Mu Huan clearly didn’t want anyone to get close to Bo Junyan, but she couldn’t move, couldn’t do anything, and could only tolerate it.

She felt that no matter how formidable Mu Huan was, there was nothing she could do in Country F against a woman of Sen Nalin’s status.

Seeing Sen Nalin walking toward them, Mu Huan leaned toward Bo Junyan with an expectant look and whispered, “Hubby, what do you think will happen to her if she sees you like this?”

Bo Junyan: “...”

She continued, “If she doesn’t despise you even after this and still wants to be with you, then that’s true love!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“But the chances of meeting true love in this world are lower than meeting a ghost!”

“So, you don’t really love me?” Bo Junyan narrowed his eyes and his murderous aura instantly exploded!

“How could that be?! My love for you is more real than a pearl! I swear!” Mu Huan immediately raised her hand and made a vow.

Bo Junyan snorted.

At this moment, Sen Nalin approached them. The angle was just right.

“Hubby, come and have some water!” Mu Huan said as she picked up a cup for Bo Junyan to drink.

Bo Junyan took it obediently and took off his mask to drink some water.

Seeing that he was about to take off his mask, Sen Nalin was so excited that she wanted to pounce on him when she saw the densely packed...

Instantly.

“Ah...!!” She stood there in shock and screamed!

Ling Wei, who was waiting to watch a good show, instinctively looked over when she heard this sound.

Sen Nalin screamed for a while before pointing at Bo Junyan’s face. “You... you... you...”

She stuttered, unable to speak. This was too shocking and unimaginable!

Why... why did his face become like that?!

Bo Junyan seemed to have just realized that he had frightened someone. He reached out to put on his mask.

Wearing a mask, he only revealed a pair of starry eyes. Not only was the sight not scary, but it was also very tempting. It instantly healed Sen Nalin and calmed her down.

“You... what happened to your face?” How did his face become like that?!

Seeing that neither Bo Junyan nor Mu Huan had any intention of answering her, Lin Tai took the initiative to say, “It was bitten by a rot insect.”

“What?!” Sen Nalin was even more shocked.

Rot insects! Those disgusting bugs! There was no way he could recover from being bitten by such bugs! In other words, even if his face would not be as disgusting as it was now, it would still be full of bumps and hollows.

At this thought, Sen Nalin, who had been wanting to get close to Bo Junyan, took a few steps back for the first time.

She liked his face the most. If he was ugly...
