

Fake Marriage 1211

Chapter 1211: Who's Abusing Whom? (7)

Sen Nalin shouted as she pulled the bow in her hand. Recalling how Mu Huan had hit the wild boar's head under similar circumstances, she thought she could have done it too!

Mu Huan, who was about to shoot, retracted her arrow because of her words.

She wasn't afraid of death, so why should Mu Huan be a hero in vain?

She had always liked to help others court death.

Hence, she stood there and watched the wild boar charge toward Sen Nalin.

Sen Nalin felt that she could definitely do it, but...

She didn't know if she was too nervous or something.

Her arrow missed!

The arrow brushed past the boar's face and fell to the ground.

This provoked the wild boar even more. It charged at her at an even faster speed, making her unable to even pull the bow a second time.

Although the wild boar in front of her was smaller than the previous three, it was still more than a hundred kilograms. It was so ferocious that Sen Nalin, who had never encountered danger before, could not even run.

If it weren't for the bodyguards around her pulling her toward Mu Huan...

She was afraid that she would have been sent flying by the wild boar.

The wild boar was really too fast.

When Mu Huan saw them running toward her, she didn't want to be unlucky. Just as she raised her bow and was about to shoot, the wild boar jumped in front of them and pounced on the two bodyguards.

Sen Nalin screamed in fright.

The boar heard her scream and pounced on her.

Perhaps it was her strong desire to live that had caused her potential to explode. The moment the boar pounced on her, Sen Nalin ran behind a big tree and dodged the boar's attack.

The wild boars were all rather tough. When they became irritable, even if they were injured, they would not retreat. They would only charge forward single-mindedly. After Sen Nalin ran away, it pounced on Mu Huan.

At such a close distance, it was impossible to shoot an arrow.

Hence, Mu Huan threw away her bow and took out her dagger. When the wild boar was charging at her, she took a few steps back, then rushed forward and kicked the wild boar that was charging at her!

It wasn't a problem for Mu Huan to kick a 100-kilogram tall and strong man, and a 100-kilogram wild boar wasn't a problem either. Furthermore, she was very close to Sen Nalin, so the impact of the wild boar wasn't that great. She could still stabilize herself after kicking the wild boar.

Then, she rushed forward and ended the wild boar's life with a slash.

From her flying kick to her ending the wild boar's life, it took less than a minute. The speed was so fast that the people rushing forward to help were stunned!

Especially when such a delicate-looking girl had kicked a wild boar!

One had to know that wild boars were extremely ferocious animals. It was like they were made of steel, and even leopards and the like wouldn't dare to fight them head-on. Wild boars were also famous for their strength. Although it wasn't far from Mu Huan just now, the impact of it pouncing on her was also very strong. However, not only did Mu Huan kick it down, but she was also fine.

She even killed this boar the next moment.

She was really...

It had surprised them and made them feel that it was impossible!

When Sen Nalin saw Mu Huan killing the wild boar that way, she walked out from behind the tree with a complex expression.

Seeing that she had walked out from behind and was looking at her like that, Mu Huan wiped the dagger in her hand and looked up at her. "Don't be afraid that I've snatched your prey. This isn't mine. It's still yours. It's fine if I give you a lot."

She didn't care about this wild boar, so the woman shouldn't think too much.

A look of embarrassment flashed across Sen Nalin's eyes when she heard her words.. She clenched her fists tightly.

Chapter 1212: Who's Abusing Whom? (8)

She didn't know why things had turned out this way!

She was in a bad mood and wanted everyone to see that Mu Huan was inferior to her. That Mu Huan could not compare to her.

She'd wanted to torture Mu Huan and make her lose face.

That was why she'd wanted to compete with her in hunting.

Unexpectedly...

Now.

It was her who was revealed to be inferior to Mu Huan in every way, it was her who was incomparable to Mu Huan!

Yes, there was no comparison!

She had always felt that her archery was already very good. It was only today, when she saw Mu Huan's archery, that she realized what it meant by the saying, there's always someone better!

This was not her abusing Mu Huan, but Mu Huan abusing her!

This was really...

Thinking about what she had said before, now...

She was so embarrassed that she wanted to find a hole to hide in!

This slap in the face made her really too ashamed to face anyone!

The more she thought about it, the more embarrassed she felt. She suddenly clutched her chest and looked very uncomfortable. The bodyguards around her were so frightened that they hurriedly went forward to support her.

Mu Huan was about to approach her to see what was going on.

Sen Nalin's bodyguard said, "Don't worry, Madam Bo. This is Miss's old problem... She'll be fine after resting for a few days..."

Mu Huan: "..."

In the information she had gathered about the leader's family, nothing was mentioned about Sen Nalin's illness.

Besides, her illness came too timely.

It made one instinctively feel that she was pretending to be sick so that she could avoid the fact that she had lost.

After all, Sen Nalin had suddenly fallen ill.

This meant that this match could not continue.

The hunt would be over before the end of the competition. Later, Sen Nalin would definitely find all sorts of excuses to say that she did not lose. If not for her suddenly feeling unwell, she would definitely have won!

Furthermore, now that the competition was over, the conditions that they had agreed on were void.

However, even though Mu Huan felt that Sen Nalin was probably pretending 99.9%, she did not expose her even though she knew that no conditions would be honored if the competition ended this way.

After all, such was Sen Nalin's identity. Even if Mu Huan didn't want to, she had to give her face.

Otherwise, everyone would lose face.

After all, this was someone else's territory.

...

Just as Mu Huan had thought, the competition stopped because of Sen Nalin's sudden illness.

Even so, everyone felt that Mu Huan had won this match. She was much stronger than Sen Nalin.

Especially when she could actually knock down a wild boar with a kick!

She was really...

Everyone in the audience turned to look at Bo Junyan.

He was indeed a formidable figure. He was even so good at finding a wife!

Not only was she an expert in medical research, but she was also so strong...! She was all-powerful!

Indeed, talented people would only find talented people. No matter what, they had to match up.

However...

When they thought of Bo Junyan's face, everyone could not help but feel a sense of pity.

Indeed, God would not let a person be too perfect. He would be too good at everything.

Actually, it wasn't just Mu Huan. Most people felt that Sen Nalin was pretending.

...

Sen Nalin was indeed pretending. She really couldn't. No matter what, she couldn't lose to Mu Huan in front of so many people. Previously, she had arrogantly said that she would definitely win. If she lost just like that...

From now on...

She really wouldn't be able to come out to meet anyone!

Hence, it didn't matter even if everyone felt that she was pretending, or that Mu Huan was better than her.

She pretended.

Anyway, she couldn't lose to Mu Huan with certainty! She couldn't be laughed at so openly!

Chapter 1213: Did She Have Plastic Surgery? (1)

The leader doted on his daughter, Sen Nalin. Naturally, he could guess what she was thinking. Hence, after getting someone to send Sen Nalin, who was pretending to be sick, back, he looked at Bo Junyan and Mu Huan and spoke in a kind tone.

"Madam Bo, although we can't confirm that you've won against my daughter because of the interruption of the competition, as long as you appease the people at the pharmaceutical factory, you can immediately resume operations."

This was what Mu Huan had expected. Hence, she was not displeased and thanked the leader with a smile.

Although there were many people attending the hunting party, they were all relatives of the leader. Hence, even if everyone knew that Sen Nalin was pretending that Mu Huan had won, no one would say anything. If the leader said that Mu Huan didn't win, then it meant that she didn't win.

Ling Wei was very happy that things had developed to this point.

Although she had not spent a long time with Sen Nalin and had underestimated her in the past, she was very sure of one thing about her. She was especially arrogant and proud. The reason she wanted to compete with Mu Huan today was that Bo Junyan had been disfigured. She was in a bad mood and found Mu Huan an eyesore, so she wanted to find trouble with her.

If Mu Huan were to be tortured badly, Sen Nalin would be happy. Not only would she not find trouble with Mu Huan in the future, but she might even be in a good mood and guess that Ling Wei wanted to deal with Mu Huan.

However, she did not torture Mu Huan. On the contrary, she was tortured by Mu Huan! Although she had pretended to be sick to escape the outcome of losing, everyone understood. Furthermore, this process was so embarrassing in front of so many people!

The arrogant Sen Nalin would never be able to take this!

This way, in the future, even if she didn't have to look for Sen Nalin, she would deal with Mu Huan herself and make Mu Huan suffer.

In fact, she might even come looking for her and work with her to deal with Mu Huan.

This way, her plan could still be used.

Ha...

This plan of hers was really full of twists and turns. At the start, she thought that there would be a problem with the outcome, but she thought that it could still work. In the end, there was a problem again. She was almost exposed. She thought that there might be a tough battle ahead, but she didn't expect things to turn out this way.

Did the heavens finally decide to stand on her side and let the two of them die here?

Just as she was thinking that this should work...

She felt an abnormal gaze on her. Instinctively, she looked up and happened to meet Mu Huan's gaze. Her gaze stunned her, making her unable to understand why she was looking at her like that. Did she see something?

But she shouldn't be able to tell.

When Sen Nalin was talking to Mu Huan in the forest, no one outside knew that they had turned off their microphones.

In other words, Ling Wei still didn't know that Sen Nalin had already told Mu Huan about how Ling Wei wanted to deal with her. Although her identity hadn't been completely exposed, a corner had been exposed. Hence, she didn't know why Mu Huan was looking at her like this.

Mu Huan was still a student when Ling Wei first saw her, but she's already felt then that Mu Huan's eyes were too sharp, as if she could see through everything. Now, she felt even more so.

When she met the current Mu Huan, she couldn't take it anymore and instinctively looked away.

With her current state, it was impossible for Mu Huan to tell anything. However, her gaze made her feel like she knew something.

Chapter 1214: Did She Have Plastic Surgery? (2)

This made her a little frustrated. She was afraid that something would go wrong with her plan again. If she couldn't make Mu Huan and Bo Junyan die here, it would be difficult for her to take revenge in the future!

It could be said that there would be no more chance.

Ling Wei knew Bo Junyan very well. Furthermore, she felt that there must be a problem with Bo Junyan's face being ruined too strangely. If that was the case, they might very likely withdraw from Country F after resolving the crisis in front of them. At that time, her current identity would be useless.

Hence, she had to make the two of them die here.

Seeing Ling Wei look away, Mu Huan felt even more that there was something wrong with her.

Seeing where his wife was looking, Bo Junyan lowered his head and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Sen Nalin told me in the forest that Sen Tai's wife wanted to harm me."

Bo Junyan frowned and looked at Ling Wei.

"Have you found out anything from investigating her?" Mu Huan asked.

"We haven't found anything wrong yet." There was nothing wrong with her background, identity, and life experiences.

Ling Wei had changed her name to Yu Ling not just for the sake of changing her name but also because there was really someone called Yu Ling in this world. That person really looked like Ling Wei did now.

In other words, Ling Wei had used the name, face, identity, and everything else of hers in the world.

She had become a completely different person. This was also why Ling Wei felt that Mu Huan shouldn't be able to tell anything.

"Did I accidentally offend her or is she the daughter of some enemy of mine?" Mu Huan didn't remember Yu Ling, and neither did Bo Junyan. But if the woman wanted to deal with her, it was very likely that Mu Huan had been hated without her knowledge.

There were many such people in society. You didn't even know them, but for some reason, they would be jealous of you and hated you.

Hence, sometimes, Mu Huan found it funny when she heard words like it took two hands to clap. In this world, there were too many things that could be slapped one-handed!

Bo Junyan looked at the woman not far away. His frown deepened.

This was because he felt that inexplicable sense of familiarity again. However, he couldn't tell what exactly it was that made her feel familiar.

Even though he was once engaged to Ling Wei, Bo Junyan did not take a close look and pay attention to her. It was only because they had grown up together that there were many things between them and many feelings. There was a tacit understanding between them without needing to say anything. Hence, there was a sense of familiarity.

However, since he had never looked at Ling Wei carefully since he grew up, he only felt that she was familiar, but he didn't know which part and why it felt so familiar.

"What's wrong? Do you find her familiar again?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

"Yes."

"You think she's familiar, but you don't know this person. And you didn't lose your memory, so... did she undergo plastic surgery? She doesn't look like the previous her at all! That's why you don't remember her!" Under such circumstances, it could only be that the other party had undergone plastic surgery too harshly and had completely changed into a different person. That was why Bo Junyan only felt that this person was familiar and couldn't remember who she was.

"I'll get someone to investigate her identity further." Bo Junyan had found out that Yu Ling was someone he didn't know at all. Yu Ling had grown up to be about the same as she was now. Hence, if she was Yu Ling, she wouldn't have undergone plastic surgery. However, if she was Yu Ling, he shouldn't have a sense of familiarity with her.

Unless, of course, she wasn't Yu Ling.. She had undergone plastic surgery to look like Yu Ling and used her identity to live.

Chapter 1215: Did She Have Plastic Surgery? (3)

"I think she must have undergone plastic surgery. Furthermore, it was done by an expert. It was a perfect plastic surgery. If one wasn't a professional, they wouldn't be able to tell that she had undergone plastic surgery." Pharmaceutical companies studied all kinds of drugs, and it was the same in the NST that Mu Huan was a part of. There were also drugs for the side effects of plastic surgery. Many people who developed these drugs were proficient in plastic surgery and she often had academic discussions with them. Hence, she was considered a professional in plastic surgery.

"Do you want my senior brother to investigate as well?" Mu Huan didn't like enemies who were hiding in the dark. Once she discovered such a person, she wanted to know their reason as soon as possible, along with the other party's strength, so that she could decide how to deal with them.

“I’d asked your senior brother to investigate it previously.” The Star Sect’s intelligence was top-notch. Most of the things that Bo Junyan had had investigated were done by Yu Hansheng.

“I feel that your relationship with my senior brother is exceptionally good. But you keep saying that you’re not close with him...” Mu Huan snorted.

The two of them were so close, but he kept saying that they weren’t!

“We’re indeed not close with each other.” Indeed, Bo Junyan had never chatted much with Yu Hansheng.

Mu Huan: “...”

Could it be that the two of them were having an affair? Was that why he was resisting her saying that they seemed close, afraid that she would discover something?

Images of the two of them standing together involuntarily surfaced in her mind. That compatible appearance, those god-like looks, that picturesque scene.

Mu Huan instantly felt like she was a little weed by the roadside...

If Bo Junyan knew what she was thinking right now, his expression would probably darken.

“I heard that wild boar meat is very fragrant. Let’s get wild boar to roast and eat!” Mu Huan suddenly said.

Bo Junyan: “...”

Why did she suddenly think about food?

“I want the smallest one. It’s smaller and tender.” In the country, wild boars were protected from being eaten. And here, wild boars were everywhere and could be eaten at will. It would be a waste not to eat them. “That’s not right. Only suckling pigs can be roasted. Nothing else can be roasted whole. Furthermore, the meat will be old. It’s better to braise it!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

Right then, Sen Tai hugged Ling Wei’s waist and walked toward them.

“Mr. Bo, Madam Bo, we have something on, so we’ll take our leave first. See you tomorrow.” Initially, he had invited them for a meal and wanted to ask Mu Huan to prescribe medicine for him, but he was intercepted.

“See you tomorrow,” Mu Huan said with a smile. Then, she looked at Ling Wei and said, “Madam Sen, see you tomorrow.”

“See you tomorrow,” Ling Wei said with a smile.

Every time he saw Madam Sen Tai’s gentle smile, Bo Junyan had a feeling that the familiarity he had with her was an illusion. This was because she was completely unfamiliar.

Mu Huan had specially greeted Sen Tai’s wife to test her. However, during this exchange of glances, she did not see any useful information from her eyes.

She was an expert.

Bo Junyan's money and food delivery were very effective. Two-thirds of the people protesting outside the factory that night had disappeared.

No matter what had happened in the past, to the poor, the future was the most important. With food to eat and money to spend, none of them would protest anymore.

Mu Huan was very happy to hear that two-thirds of the protesters had left.

"Come, come, drink!" She raised her cup. Such a good thing had to be celebrated.

Lin Tai raised the cup in his hand.

Bo Junyan, who was pretending to be disfigured, could only watch them drink.

When he saw Mu Huan and Lin Tai getting more and more drunk, his eyes darkened.

Chapter 1216: Did She Have Plastic Surgery? (4)

Suddenly, he recalled what Mu Huan had said in the past. If she were to drink again, she would chop off her hand.

He thought to himself that her hands should have all been chopped off after how much she had drunk.

Suddenly realizing that she had neglected her husband, Mu Huan hugged his arm and looked up. She asked delicately, "What are you thinking about, Hubby?"

"I'm thinking that you once swore that if you ever drank again, you'd chop off your hand. Given the number of times you've drunk now, even if you were the Thousand-Hand Guanyin, all your hands would have been chopped off already," Bo Junyan said as he looked at her fair and tender hands.

Mu Huan: "..."

Was he angry?

He wanted to chop off her hand!

"Hubby, look!"

"What am I to look at?"

"Look at my eyes!"

"Why should I look at your eyes?"

"Because you're the only one in my eyes!" If the husband is angry, deploy the words of love!

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Hubby, you're especially annoying today!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Which part of him was especially annoying?

"I can't get tired of looking at you!"

Bo Junyan: "...!"

"What are you doing?" Her words were cut off.

"Can't you tell that I'm just coaxing you and saying sweet nothings to you?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Were these sweet nothings?

The second half... was kind of...

"Hubby, do you know what you don't have right now?"

Bo Junyan instinctively asked, "What do I not have?"

"You don't have a kiss from me!" Mu Huan said before kissing his forehead.

Lin Tai: "..."

He felt that he shouldn't be here. He should disappear instantly...

With this thought in mind, he stood up and quietly left.

"Wifey, do you know what you should be doing now?" Bo Junyan suddenly asked.

"What should I be doing?"

"You should be sleeping." With that, he bent down and picked her up.

Mu Huan, who was immersed in his eyes, smiled and let him carry her back to the room...

At night, the moon was bright and the stars were sparse.

When Sen Nalin returned home, she was so angry that she smashed everything in the room. Even though she did not lose to Mu Huan explicitly today, everyone had eyes. Under such circumstances, they knew that Mu Huan had won.

She had never been so embarrassed in her life!

Although the people participating in the hunt today were her family...

There were also the bodyguards and the other staff. They did not dare to say it openly, but they would definitely say something about her behind her back.

When she thought about how they would spread the news that she was inferior to Mu Huan, she was so angry that she wanted to kill someone!

How could that damn Mu Huan be so strong?!

She knew that Mu Huan was a very formidable person, but didn't most scientific researchers not like to exercise and always stay in the laboratory?

Why was she so skilled?!

A kick from her could knock down a wild boar that weighed more than a hundred kilograms, and she even took the life of that wild boar so quickly!

The more she thought about it, the angrier Sen Nalin became. She stood up and walked out to find her father.

"Daddy, you're not allowed to revive Mu Huan's pharmaceutical factory!" If she made her look so embarrassing, she would not have a good life either!

The leader immediately refused. "How can I do that? I have spoken in front of so many people. I can't go back on my words!"

"Then we'll secretly make things difficult for her. In short, we can't let her have an easy time!" Sure, he could restore the factory, but he had to do something else!

"That Bo Junyan's face is ruined. If you don't want him anymore, why are you still going against him?" the leader asked in confusion.

"I just don't like them!" Sen Nalin said willfully.

Chapter 1217: Join Forces (1)

"Nalin, you can't do this," the leader said with a frown.

"Why not? She embarrassed your daughter like that!" Sen Nalin pouted.

"You didn't know the other party's strength, yet you just had to compete with her. You were in the wrong in the first place." Although the leader doted on this daughter, he didn't dote on her so much that he couldn't differentiate right from wrong.

He would save his daughter's face in public, but in private, he would teach her a lesson.

"Daddy!" Sen Nalin was already furious to begin with. Now that he had said that, she was even angrier.

He didn't stand up for her and was even scolding her like this!

"Nalin, you're not young anymore. You should be more sensible. You know that last year, there was a drought and many places had no harvests. Now, there are still many people who can't eat their fill. Bo Junyan and Mu Huan can bring about great benefits."

Although they were the owners of this place, this was a poor and backward place. He could not disregard the livelihood of the citizens.

Sen Nalin understood this logic, but she could not take it lying down.

“Those who went hunting are family. No one will laugh at you.” The leader understood his daughter’s thoughts.

“Of course they will! Right now, they might be laughing at me at home!” Those cousins would definitely take the opportunity to laugh at her!

“As long as they don’t laugh at you in front of you, it’s fine. You don’t have to worry about what others do behind your back.” In the dark, people would even curse him, their leader. This was something that couldn’t be controlled.

“I don’t want it!” Sen Nalin said willfully.

She didn’t want it. She couldn’t just let it go like this!

When the leader saw that she was still like this despite what he had said, his expression darkened in anger. “Even if you don’t want it, you have to!”

“Daddy!”

“Alright, go back to your room and rest!” the leader said as he walked toward the desk, indicating that he was going to be busy.

Sen Nalin knew that it was useless for her to say anything else when her father was like this. She could only leave angrily.

Just as she was about to turn around and leave...

“Don’t go looking for trouble with them. Don’t make Daddy angry!” The leader knew very well what his daughter was like. He was afraid that since she couldn’t get any support from him, she would go make a move by herself.

Sen Nalin wanted to say something.

But the leader warned her again, “Don’t make Daddy get angry and do anything to you.”

Sen Nalin had come here because she wanted her daddy to stand up for her. Who knew that not only would he not stand up for her, but he would even reprimand her? And now, he even threatened her!

This made her even angrier!

Her father had never said anything harsh to her in her life, and now he was threatening her!

This was all Mu Huan’s fault!

In this world, there were such people who pushed all the blame onto others. No matter how wrong one was, the person who deserved to die was someone else. She had done nothing wrong.

After returning to her room, the more she thought about it, the angrier she became. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that she could not let this matter rest. Suddenly, she thought of Ling Wei.

Hence, she called her.

“Count me in on how you plan to deal with Mu Huan!”

Ling Wei raised her eyebrows slightly. She had thought that she might come to find her, but she did not expect her to find her so quickly and say it so directly. “I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

“Don’t pretend with me. I’ve already seen through it. There’s no point in pretending like this!” Sen Nalin, who was in a state of frustration, was in no mood to listen to her hypocritical words.

Sen Nalin knew that she did not want to talk about this over the phone, so she said, “Where are you now? I’ll go look for you!”

Chapter 1218: Join Forces (2)

“We’ll talk about it another day. I’m planning to rest now.” Ling Wei’s words seemed to be rejecting Sen Nalin on the surface, but she was actually telling her that she was at home.

This was because she knew that with Sen Nalin’s overbearing personality, even if Ling Wei said that she wanted to rest, she would definitely come over.

Indeed...

“I’ll go look for you!” With that, Sen Nalin hung up.

Ling Wei looked at the phone that had been hung up and smiled. How could she not use it when it was given to her?

Just then, Lily called.

“Madam, two-thirds of the people protesting outside the factory have left. If we can’t take action tomorrow, we won’t have a chance to create such chaos again.”

“Why did two-thirds suddenly leave?” Ling Wei frowned.

With so many people leaving, they had to find more people. Otherwise, they wouldn’t be able to create such an effect.

“Bo Junyan and Mu Huan have given those people a lot of money and food. They also said that if they stop protesting, there will be more money and food in the future. No one will go against so much money. I’m afraid that if we can’t take action tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, not only will there be no protests against Mu Huan and the rest, but there will also be many supporters.” This way, they wouldn’t be able to use that situation to create chaos and cause trouble for the two of them.

Ling Wei knew that if she missed this opportunity, they wouldn’t have such a good opportunity again.

“Prepare for tomorrow. Sen Nalin will be here in a while. I’ll inform you immediately after I’ve talked to her.”

“Sen Nalin is going to look for you later? Didn’t you say that Sen Nalin’s plan can’t be used anymore?”

“That’s great!” Lily heaved a sigh of relief after hearing that. This way, she could make Sen Nalin the culprit again. If they were found out, they would only be following orders and would be able to escape.

“Yes.”

Lily thought about it and said, “Do you need me to go over?”

Previously, she had told Ling Wei that she would convince Sen Nalin.

“You don’t have to come over. Since Sen Nalin has already seen through me, there’s no need to expose you,” Ling Wei said.

“Alright, then, I’ll wait for your good news, Madam!”

After Ling Wei hung up, she changed her clothes and sat there drinking fruit juice while waiting for Sen Nalin.

Sen Nalin did not make her wait for long. When she saw her, she did not say anything else and said directly, “Don’t pretend that you don’t know or something. I’m not in the mood to listen to you. Just be direct and tell me how you plan to deal with Mu Huan!”

Initially, she felt that it was beneath her to work with a woman who only knew how to pretend. However, if her father did not allow her to do it, he would definitely get someone to watch over her. Then, there was nothing she could do. After Bo Junyan and Mu Huan were done with their work and left, she would no longer have a chance to deal with Mu Huan.

If she wanted to deal with Mu Huan, she could only do so before her factory was restored.

In such a short time, she could only work with this hypocritical woman.

“I plan to do this tomorrow when she goes to comfort the protesting crowd. This...” Ling Wei knew that at this time, retreating would only make her annoyed. Hence, she did not say anything else and directly told Sen Nalin about her plan.

“That sounds like a good plan.”

She was indeed scheming!

Chapter 1219: Join Forces (3)

“With you around, this plan will definitely be completed more perfectly!” Ling Wei said.

“Of course!” Sen Nalin agreed.

“The most important part of the plan is for Bo Junyan’s nephew to drug the two of them. Based on Mu Huan’s performance in the hunting ground, you should know that she has skills and is quite good. Bo Junyan is stronger than her. Only if we succeed in drugging her will this matter succeed,” Ling Wei said.

“That’s very important.” Sen Nalin nodded.

“What we told Bo Junyan’s nephew is that someone has taken a fancy to Bo Junyan and wants to get him. That’s why she’s doing this. And he wants to see this person. I wanted to find someone of similar status previously, but no one is suitable. Hence, when I felt that you were interested in Bo Junyan, I persuaded you to fight for him. Now, it’s up to you to meet Bo Junyan’s nephew. I believe you will definitely be able to convince him,” Ling Wei said.

“Of course I can!” Sen Nalin replied instinctively.

“I wish our plan to be a success.” Ling Wei picked up a glass of fruit juice and passed it to Sen Nalin.

After Sen Nalin took the fruit juice, she said, “Why are you doing this to Bo Junyan and Mu Huan? From what I know, you’ve never interacted with them before. There shouldn’t be any deep hatred between the two of you.”

Ling Wei was considered her aunt. Before her uncle got married, he had investigated her.

This woman called Yu Ling was born into an ordinary family in China. She shouldn’t have had any interactions with figures like Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, let alone have a deep hatred for them.

“No, we have an irreconcilable hatred!” Ling Wei said with a frighteningly dark expression.

“What irreconcilable hatred?”

“This is my personal matter. I don’t want to talk about it,” Ling Wei said.

“Forget it, I’m not interested anyway. I just want the couple to be miserable!” Sen Nalin had asked out of curiosity just now. She didn’t care if Ling Wei didn’t want to say anything.

“Thank you for your understanding.”

“From now on, be more straightforward with me. Just say whatever you want. Don’t pretend around me. I won’t expose anything about you, and you can continue to be with my uncle.” Sen Nalin didn’t care if the other party was good or bad. It’s fine as long as she didn’t pretend to be innocent in front of her and say those disgusting and hypocritical words.

“Alright!” Ling Wei was completely relieved when she heard this.

After being seen through by Sen Nalin, other than feeling depressed that her plan had been ruined again, she was most worried about what Sen Nalin would say to Sen Tai. She knew that Sen Tai liked her kindness and gentleness the most. If he found out that she was not kind or gentle, she would be a completely different person from his first love.

Then he would definitely explode...!

Hence, she had been prepared to fight a tough battle. Who knew that things would turn around!

And now, she had even received such a guarantee from Sen Nalin.

Just as Sen Nalin was about to leave, she suddenly thought of something. Hence, she stopped in her tracks and turned around. “By the way, when I was at the hunting grounds...”

She had told Mu Huan about how Ling Wei wanted to deal with her.

Ling Wei: "..."

This meant that Mu Huan was looking at her as if she had seen through her because of Sen Nalin's words.

"Previously, I didn't know it would be like this. I didn't know that we would join forces to deal with her. I accidentally said it.. Do you think this will affect our plan?" Sen Nalin was afraid that this matter would affect the entire plan, so she went out of her way to tell Ling Wei.

Chapter 1220: Join Forces (4)

"It might have a little effect..." For people like Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, the chances of successful sneak attacks were the highest when they were unguarded. Once they were on guard, it would be very difficult to succeed.

Since Sen Nalin had told Mu Huan that Ling Wei wanted to deal with her, Mu Huan must now be on guard against her.

Now, she should have already gotten someone to investigate her life. If she was not careful, she might be destroyed, let alone succeed in her plan.

"Then what should we do?" Sen Nalin asked instinctively.

"She's guarding against me. Hence, it's not convenient for me to appear in this matter again. The matter will be handled by you and Lily. I believe that you can definitely do it since you're so formidable!" Ling Wei didn't want to expose Lily's relationship with her so that she could use her in the future.

For the time being, she would retreat behind the curtain and do nothing. It was more appropriate for the two of them to charge forward.

At first, Sen Nalin thought that this was a good idea, but she quickly realized that something was amiss.

"Are you trying to push me to the position of the mastermind and then do nothing?"

Was she trying to remove herself so that she would be fine if she failed?

Sen Nalin was no fool.

"How could that be? I'm on the same side as you. I'm the mastermind. I came up with everything! Besides, even if that's what I was planning, if something really happened, would you let me get away with it?"

Sen Nalin thought about it and eventually agreed.

"I just want our plan to have the highest success rate. That's why I asked you to lead," Ling Wei said again.

Sen Nalin knew that she was trying to say something nice, but just as she had said, if anything were to happen, she would never let her get away with it unscathed.

Hence, this was nothing much.

“Alright, let me know when you need me to meet Bo Junyan’s nephew.” With that, she turned around to leave.

Ling Wei suddenly thought of something and stopped her. “Wait a minute! I’ll call Lily now and see if I can arrange for you and Gu Chenyi to meet tonight. After all, the plan will be carried out tomorrow. We have to prepare everything tonight!”

“Alright.” Sen Nalin returned and sat down.

Ling Wei called Lily in front of Sen Nalin. She did not guard against her at all, making Sen Nalin more satisfied with Ling Wei.

After Ling Wei and Lily had discussed it, Lily quickly called Gu Chenyi and asked him out to meet her. She even said that the mastermind was the leader’s daughter, Sen Nalin.

Gu Chenyi knew that the other party must have a powerful background, but when he heard that she was the leader’s daughter, he was still stunned.

When he snapped back to his senses and thought that the other party was the leader’s daughter, with such status and position, she would definitely be able to give his uncle more and better things in the future. As he thought about this, the guilt in his heart instantly decreased a lot. He couldn’t wait to meet the other party there.

At dawn, a red light appeared in the eastern sky.

Bo Junyan, who was sound asleep, was woken up by a pair of hands. When he woke up, he wanted to grab the little hand that was touching his face and make her sleep obediently.

She suddenly kicked him hard at the waist.

Bo Junyan, who was caught off guard and sleeping by the side, was kicked off the bed...

The loud sound of him falling woke Mu Huan up.

She opened her eyes in a daze and saw Bo Junyan sitting on the ground. “Hubby, why are you sitting on the ground instead of sleeping?”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“Were you sleepwalking?” Mu Huan instantly sobered up.

Bo Junyan: “You were the one who kicked me down...”
