

Fake Marriage 1261

Chapter 1261: The King (4)

He could not help but think about how well his uncle had treated him.

Also, she was lying here in a coma. If he were to do anything to her, what would happen? He felt that if he were to do this, he would be worse than a beast!

This way, he could only possess her...

However, if he didn't do it now, what if it wasn't as he thought? What if, with his uncle's intelligence, he thought of something very quickly? What would he do then? At that time, not only would he have spent all his efforts, but his life would also be completely ruined. Forget about having another chance to have her.

He...

He was in a dilemma.

It was driving Gu Chenyi crazy!

He felt that he would not be able to breathe if this continued!

This made him turn around and run out. He needed fresh air.. He needed to leave this struggle. Otherwise, he would really go crazy!

He ran to the deck in one breath.

The spring night sea breeze was a little cold, but this cold air made him suck in big gulps greedily to calm down. His head was about to explode!

After a while, the feeling of being about to explode disappeared.

His breathing slowly returned to normal.

Right at this moment...

"Why? You can't do it?"

The sudden voice stunned him for a moment before he slowly turned around. "Uncle Yu."

"Here, have a drink." Uncle Yu handed him a glass of wine.

Gu Chenyi took the glass and finished it in one gulp.

"Do you want to drink more and relieve yourself?" Uncle Yu raised an eyebrow.

Gu Chenyi tightened his grip.

"Do you want another glass?" Uncle Yu raised the bottle in his hand.

Gu Chenyi deserved it. Once he was drunk, he would no longer have any burden in his heart. What he did when he was drunk would be the outcome.

However, he couldn't bring himself to take the wine glass...

The hardest thing for a person to deal with was their bottom line.

Uncle Yu could clearly see his struggle and the pain that was about to make him go crazy. He could also understand his struggle at this moment. He had once been like this.

In this world, the hardest choice to make was during this situation. When you wanted to let go, wanted to possess, but you couldn't.

It was neither left nor right. It was painful on both sides.

At the end of the day, it was still because a person wasn't evil enough. If a person wanted to do bad things, they should be bad to the end. If they were bad, they should be thorough and have no morals or conscience. Only then would they be able to do it. If a person with a conscience did bad things, not only would they not be able to do it, the person who would suffer the most would be themselves.

"If you really can't bear to do it or step out of the pit in your heart, then let go! Call your uncle and tell him that you and Mu Huan are fine. You'll send her back safely. Let go."

If he really couldn't bear to do it, then he must let go and return to his normal life.

"By doing this, you will have saved your uncle and Mu Huan. Furthermore, you'll prove yourself willing to let go of Mu Huan. With your uncle's love for you, not only will he forgive everything you've done, but he'll also love you even more. At the very least, you'll have a family. Don't end up with nothing."

One had to choose one thing at a time. One had to let go of one's conscience and use any means to have what he loved, or one had to completely let go and have a family.

Don't keep struggling. In the end, he wouldn't have gotten the woman and would have been hated to death by his uncle. In the end, he would have been tortured to death.

"Uncle Yu, I understand what you're saying, but..." He still couldn't do it.

He couldn't do anything to Mu Huan, but he couldn't let her go like he said.

Chapter 1262: The King (5)

He had spent so much effort to get to this point. He couldn't let go just like that!

Uncle Yu was about to say something.

"Uncle Yu, I just can't do anything to Xiao Huan, who's still in a coma. When she wakes up, she'll love me. Once we're in love and she's awake, I'll definitely do it!" Gu Chenyi vowed.

He told Uncle Yu this and told himself that he could definitely do it!

He really could not do such a thing because Mu Huan was still in a coma.

He was really like that!

When Uncle Yu heard this, he didn't continue this topic. "Let's have another drink."

He asked for the glass of wine from Gu Chenyi and poured some more wine for him.

Other than the fact that Gu Chenyi had saved his life, the most important factor to Uncle Yu was that Gu Chenyi was too much like how he was back then. In the past, he was also trapped in such a relationship, struggling and in pain. He did not want Gu Chenyi to end up in pain like him and wanted to help him.

He could help him do other things, but he couldn't make a decision for him.

Gu Chenyi did not speak and reached out to hand the cup over. He had already been asked to drink some more wine earlier, but he had been unable to pass the cup over then. Now, he handed it over easily because this was not about getting drunk and boosting one's courage. It was purely about drinking.

Uncle Yu looked at him and seemed to be able to see his final choice.

The two of them stood on the deck and slowly drank, not noticing that someone was peeping at them from the corner.

It was none other than John.

After confirming that Gu Chenyi and Uncle Yu would not be going to Mu Huan's room for a while, he left quietly and turned around to go to Mu Huan's ward.

He wanted to secretly inject Mu Huan with the drug.

This drug was the drug that he had told Gu Chenyi about, the one that could make Mu Huan forget everything. However, the side effects of this drug were not just a little damage to the memory center. Instead, it was to be a huge irreversible injury. It would make Mu Huan unable to be smart anymore, and she would become very ordinary. In fact, her intelligence would be a little lacking.

That day, when Gu Chenyi came looking for him to do this, his beloved goddess happened to be at his house. When she found out that he was going to hypnotize Mu Huan, she made him take the opportunity to destroy her.

Mu Huan was too smart and talented. She was only 23 years old, but she had already achieved so much. Her existence had overshadowed too many people in the pharmaceutical industry, making those who had always been considered geniuses unable to take it.

They had researched things for so many years, but they had never been able to figure it out. Mu Huan had only used three years to figure it out. This was really...

She was too unbearable to look at.

She should have died.

There shouldn't be someone like her in this world.

Sometimes, even if you didn't do anything and were only outstanding, to some people, that was all wrong and shouldn't be the case. Envy could turn people into the most terrifying demons, making them capable of anything.

Although Gu Chenyi was not in the room, there were still bodyguards guarding outside Mu Huan's door.

It took John a while to fool the bodyguards outside.

John, who had wasted a lot of time with the bodyguards, was afraid that he wouldn't have enough time. When he arrived at Mu Huan's room, he quickly took out a syringe and walked toward her.

Just as he reached the bed and lifted Mu Huan's sleeve to inject the drug into her...

Suddenly, a hand grabbed his wrist that was holding the syringe.

His eyes widened in shock.

Then, he saw Mu Huan, who was lying motionless on the bed and should still be in a coma, sitting up.

Chapter 1263: The King (6)

Her other hand quickly snatched the syringe from his hand.

"You... you..." John looked at Mu Huan, who was sitting up, and was so shocked that he couldn't speak.

Shouldn't she still be in a coma? Why did she suddenly wake up?! She still had the strength to grab him and snatch the thing in his hand!

This... this was impossible...

Even though he had seen it with his own eyes, John still felt that it was impossible!

"You're the John who's inferior to Eisen in every aspect and stole his thesis, but you tell everyone that you're stronger than Eisen and that he plagiarized you?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow, her eyes full of sarcasm.

John couldn't stand it when others say that he was inferior to Eisen, so he instinctively retorted, "I didn't steal his paper! He plagiarized me!"

After saying that, he suddenly realized that something was amiss.

"How do you know all this?!"

"Eisen told me. He said that you were talented, but your jealousy was too strong and you were sick.. You expended your thoughts on the wrong things, so you're inferior to him." Mu Huan told him again that he was inferior to Eisen, deliberately provoking him.

"He's spouting nonsense! He's a despicable person through and through! He's too jealous! It's him..." John's thoughts suddenly stopped. No, now wasn't the time to argue about this.

"I've already hypnotized you. How can you still remember what happened in the past?!"

Gu Chenyi and Uncle Yu had insisted that he hypnotize Mu Huan. Thus, he could only hypnotize her. When a person's consciousness was weak, it was the easiest for them to be hypnotized. The effects of hypnosis would also be the strongest then. Hence, he had hypnotized her while she was unconscious but not completely awake.

After the hypnosis, she should have slept even longer and forgotten everything after she woke up.

Not only did she wake up so early, but she also remembered everything!

“If I didn’t want to be hypnotized, even Eisen wouldn’t be able to hypnotize me, let alone you.” Mu Huan sneered disdainfully. He had the cheek to say that he was better than Eisen with his little ability.

“Impossible! You can’t resist such hypnosis without being fully conscious!” John felt that it was impossible!

He had studied hypnosis for so many years and had seen all sorts of brains. He had successfully hypnotized many geniuses. No matter how strong her self-awareness was, under such circumstances, it was impossible for her to have resisted his hypnosis!

“Since it’s impossible, then I must have been fully awake when you hypnotized me,” Mu Huan said with a smile.

If she had not been completely awake and had a consciousness but was very weak, she might indeed have been successfully hypnotized by him. However, when she was carried to the ship, she was already awake. It was just that she was weak and could not move. Hence, she had been pretending to be unconscious.

John stuttered again in shock. “You... you...”

She... she had been pretending to be unconscious?

“How is this possible?!” How could she have woken up so early under such circumstances?!

John felt that this was impossible. In fact, if it were anyone else, they wouldn’t have woken up so early.

No, even if Mu Huan hadn’t been drugged, she wouldn’t have woken up so early.

When Mu Huan found out that the butterfly fragrance would cause the two of them to eventually faint, she had divided all the medicine in her pocket with Bo Junyan. Although none of those medicines could cure the butterfly fragrance, she’d felt that they would eventually have an effect.

Chapter 1264: The King (7)

And these drugs were indeed effective, allowing her to wake up so quickly.

After John had injected her with the antidote to the butterfly fragrance, her stamina had slowly been recovering. Although she wasn’t in her usual state and couldn’t deal with the bodyguards outside, she could still deal with John.

Mu Huan shook the syringe in her hand and said, “This drug of yours is actually an NC that can cause irreversible damage to a person’s brain and turn them into a fool, right?” The name of this drug matched the properties of that particular one. NC was a retarded abbreviation.

“It’s not that serious,” John said as he tried to snatch the drug from Mu Huan’s hand. However, Mu Huan pushed him down onto the sofa by the bed.

Fortunately, John wasn't a tall person. He was only about 1.7 meters tall and wasn't strong. Otherwise, with her current stamina, she probably wouldn't have been able to hold him down.

As John's purpose in coming in was to destroy Mu Huan and could not be discovered by outsiders, he did not dare to shout when he was restrained.

"It's not that serious?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow and smiled wickedly as she held the syringe.

Just as John felt that something was amiss and was about to shout to attract people over, Mu Huan picked up a towel by the side and covered his mouth. Then, she quickly injected the syringe into John.

John widened his eyes in horror and struggled desperately!

He couldn't! He couldn't be injected with such a drug!

He didn't want it!

He didn't want to become an idiot!

Perhaps his strong desire to live had made his potential explode, causing him to push Mu Huan away forcefully, but...

Mu Huan had already injected the drug in her hand. It was too late!

John looked at the empty syringe and broke down! He rushed toward Mu Huan like a lunatic.

"You vicious woman!" How dare she inject such a drug into him?! How dare she?!

Mu Huan dodged his attack and then kicked his leg hard, causing him to fall to his knees. She picked up the towel that he had thrown on the ground and covered his mouth again, lest the people outside heard the commotion and barge in.

Then, she picked up something and tied him up, making him unable to move.

"Wu wu wu..." John mumbled as he glared at Mu Huan angrily.

"I'm evil? You're the one who's evil! I have no feud with you, but you want to inject me with such a drug to destroy me. What? Can't I destroy you too if you can?" Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

John, who was gagged, could not speak, but he became even more furious.

"Let me tell you, not only can I destroy you, but I can also destroy you even more thoroughly!" Mu Huan sneered. Usually, if someone treated her well, she would return the favor tenfold. If someone treated her badly, she would return it tenfold!

But now, she had more important things to do. She searched John's body for his phone, then took his hand to unlock it and called PA Wang.

After she regained consciousness, she was very worried about Bo Junyan's safety. This was because before she fell unconscious, she saw him being washed away by the mountain torrent. Later on, through Gu Chenyi and John's conversation, she knew that her husband had been rescued and sent to Sen Nalin.

Her worry had eased then, so she didn't show any emotional fluctuations. Hence, she didn't get exposed that she was pretending to be unconscious.

It was just that although her husband was fine, she thought that her husband would definitely be very worried about her after he woke up. She'd been waiting for a chance to tell her husband that she was safe so he would send something. He would send death!

As Bo Junyan was on the verge of losing control, the people under him were under a lot of pressure. The one under the greatest pressure was PA Wang.

Chapter 1265: The King (8)

Hence, when he received Mu Huan's call, he felt that he had really heard the sound of salvation!

"Madam... you... you..." He was so excited that he could not speak.

"Are you with my husband?"

"Yes... Yes..." PA Wang was still very excited.

"Then tell him immediately after you hang up that I'm fine and safe. My stamina is also recovering. I'm now on a cruise ship. I'll use this phone to check the location for you later. I have something to deal with here. Time is tight, so I won't say much." With that, Mu Huan hung up.

When PA Wang heard this, he became even more excited. He knew that his CEO's wife was a king! A true king!

Now that they were at sea, it would be dangerous for Mu Huan to be discovered, and she had yet to fully recover her stamina. Even if she had fully recovered, she would not be able to kill the people that Gu Chenyi had found to ensure her safety. Hence, she had to pretend to be unconscious for the time being. Hence, she had to deal with John before Gu Chenyi returned.

She used a map to send her location to PA Wang.

Mu Huan squatted down to search John's body. As a hypnotist, he definitely had a habit of carrying a hypnosis device with him. Indeed, in the next second, she found a hypnosis device on him.

When he saw Mu Huan looking at him with the hypnosis device, John seemed to have realized something. He shook his head and struggled to move back, but he couldn't move much. Furthermore, the drug that Mu Huan had injected earlier had taken effect.

In the end, he was successfully hypnotized by Mu Huan.

Mu Huan let go of him and tidied his clothes before letting him leave. "You've seen me. I'm fine. Now, you have to go back to your room to sleep."

John, who had just been hypnotized, was like a puppet. He would do whatever Mu Huan asked him to do. He walked out expressionlessly.

After he left the room, Mu Huan nimbly arranged the things that had been messed up in the room according to their original positions. She then lay on the bed and continued to pretend that she wasn't awake.

It took less than ten minutes from the time John came in to the time he left. Mu Huan did not cause any commotion, so the bodyguards outside did not suspect anything.

When John left, although the bodyguards felt that his expression was a little strange, they did not think too much about it. After all, he was only a person transferred over and not protecting his master. It was fine as long as nothing happened.

Due to his conflicted feelings, Gu Chenyi drank a lot. Furthermore, Uncle Yu wanted him to drink more, so in the end, he got drunk and was supported back by Uncle Yu.

Although Uncle Yu said that it would depend on Gu Chenyi himself, he still wanted Gu Chenyi to drink more. Then, he sent him to Mu Huan's bed and the two of them lay together. Whether or not they could succeed depended on him. If he couldn't do it, he would help him. However, he would only help this much and not more. Otherwise, he was afraid that Gu Chenyi would be in great pain when he woke up.

Mu Huan had been pretending very well. As a doctor, John did not notice that she was actually awake when he examined her.

However, she was lying there alone pretending. Furthermore, she was very weak at that time, so she could not move at all. But now that she had recovered a lot of her strength, she could not accept Gu Chenyi's touch. Uncle Yu supported Gu Chenyi and made him lie next to Mu Huan.

Chapter 1266: The King (9)

Just as he was about to ask him to embrace Mu Huan, she kicked Gu Chenyi down.

Uncle Yu: "..."

Didn't they say that she would only wake up in the morning after the hypnosis?

This Mu Huan was really...

She was too good at switching things up!

"Uncle Yu... Uncle Yu, what's wrong..." Gu Chenyi, who had been kicked to the ground, asked groggily.

Seeing that he was about to get up and see the situation, Uncle Yu knocked him out with a karate chop.

This made Mu Huan narrow her eyes. Who was this Uncle Yu? What did he want to do? Why did he attack Gu Chenyi?

After Uncle Yu settled Gu Chenyi down, he looked at Mu Huan and said, "You're so outstanding. No wonder Chenyi can't let you go no matter what."

Mu Huan remained silent.

Just now, she had hypnotized John to find out who wanted to harm her. After all, she had no feud with him. He shouldn't have wanted to inject such a drug to destroy her.

She thought that there was a mastermind behind this matter, but who knew...

John was only jealous on his goddess' behalf because he couldn't bear to see Mu Huan being better than her. He felt that because of her life-extension medicine, his goddess didn't win awards. Hence, he wanted to destroy her.

He said, "Who asked you to be too outstanding and dazzling? You should die like this."

Now, Uncle Yu also blamed her for being outstanding.

In the past, when she still had a poor background, she had worked all over the place. Sometimes, when she encountered wealthy people who would bully her, the other party would say, "Who asked you to be useless? You deserve to be bullied for doing such a job!"

An outstanding person deserved to die, a good-for-nothing deserved to be bullied.

Freaking hell, she was too difficult!

Uncle Yu instantly changed the topic. "Chenyi saved your life. How do you plan to repay him?"

Mu Huan: "..."

Before she could say anything...

"Chenyi's drug didn't work on you, so strictly speaking, he didn't harm you. Instead, he saved you and Bo Junyan's lives. If it weren't for him, with the two of you being poisoned, the two of you would have long been drowned by the mountain torrent!" No matter what Gu Chenyi's original intention for doing these things was, he had saved the two of them.

"You can just say what you want to say. There's no need to beat around the bush. I know what's going on." His words made Mu Huan a little confused. Was he really doing this for Gu Chenyi's own good, or did he want to use Gu Chenyi to achieve something?

However, Uncle Yu was not direct.

"Look at you. You remember nothing and haven't lost your memory. This means that John's hypnosis failed and you completely woke up before you were hypnotized."

Mu Huan remained silent. After being with Bo Junyan for so long, she had become less talkative, especially when facing an unknown enemy.

"During this period, you've been awake. You knew Chenyi's every move, and you know that I asked him to attack you while you were unconscious."

Mu Huan said, "What are you trying to do by making use of Gu Chenyi like this? Which one of us has offended you? Do you not want us to have a good life?"

She could not tell if this Uncle Yu was Gu Chenyi's true friend or if he was using Gu Chenyi. It was also because of this that he made Gu Chenyi force himself on her, who was still in a coma. If he was really a good person to Gu Chenyi, he should not have advised him to do this. This was because most true friends advised others to be kind.

“I’m not using Chenyi for anything. There’s no enmity between us. I was only advising him that way for his sake.” He knew that Mu Huan was a person who could turn things around too much. Things would not be as Gu Chenyi thought. If Gu Chenyi wanted to have no regrets with Mu Huan and not have his efforts wasted, he could only strike first.

Chapter 1267: The King (10)

That was his only chance, but... he still missed it.

“If you really did it for his own good, why would you advise him to do such a thing that would destroy his morals? I’m his aunt!” Mu Huan said.

“The most important thing for a person to live in this world is himself. If he’s ruined himself, is there a need to care about anything else?” Uncle Yu raised an eyebrow.

“Humans are born to do whatever they can. The reason why humans can stand at the top of the food chain is that they can control themselves and have a conscience and moral bottom line. They’re not like animals who can do anything just to satisfy their stomachs. No, there are some animals who have a bottom line.” As a person, the most important thing was to do things for the sake of oneself. However, there were some things one should not do. If they did those things, one would really be worse than a beast.

“The most important thing in life is to be happy. What moral bottom line do you need?!”

“Since you think so, then why are you still using Gu Chenyi’s act of saving your life as an excuse? How can you not want anything and have others be loyal to you?” Wasn’t he just being a person who had double standards, such that everything he said would be right?

“I can be like this if I’m a bad person, but you’re different. You’re not bad enough.” Mu Huan could be ruthless, but she wasn’t bad enough. She was also very loyal.

Mu Huan: “...”

What else could she say?

Uncle Yu pulled back the topic. “Facing such a good opportunity, he could have had you as long as he stepped up. But Chenyi didn’t do that. You should know how much he yearned for you. At that time, he was struggling and was conflicted. Under such a situation where he could have easily gotten it, he restrained himself from hurting you. It can be seen that he’s not bad enough. He can still walk back to his sunny and beautiful life. He’s your family and your benefactor. Shouldn’t you do something for him?”

Uncle Yu’s words made Mu Huan feel that he might really be doing this for Gu Chenyi’s own good.

“What do you want me to do?”

“Only after you have it will you no longer desire it, no longer be so persistent regarding it, and no longer have any regrets.” Since there was no longer a chance to get it, then she should think of a way to make him completely let it go.

Mu Huan: “...”

Uncle Yu did not beat around the bush anymore. "I want you to pretend that you had been successfully hypnotized into loving Chenyi and make him feel that he has you. However, after he has you, things won't be as good as he thinks. This will allow him to completely let go of you."

Mu Huan: "..."

She knew that Gu Chenyi was not bad enough. She was also willing to give him a chance to return to a sunny and beautiful life, but she really could not pretend to love him and do anything intimate with him!

Mu Huan was a tough person. With someone she loved in her heart, she could not tolerate the intimate approach of another man.

"You can hypnotize him and make him forget such feelings completely," Mu Huan said.

"The person who was hypnotized will remember it sooner or later. When he remembers it, it will be even more painful. Hence, hypnosis only treats the symptoms and not the root. We have to let him really let go so that he can find happiness that really belongs to him." Uncle Yu had also been hypnotized and had forgotten back then. When he woke up, the pain made him wish he was dead!

He did not want Gu Chenyi to be like him.

"That's probably why Bo Junyan didn't hypnotize Chenyi. Instead, he used all sorts of methods to make him let go of his obsession with you."

Without waiting for Mu Huan to say anything, he continued, "I know what you're worried about and what you can't accept, but I believe that with your intelligence and wisdom, as long as you want to do this, not only can you do it, but you can also do your best to avoid any intimate contact that you don't want."

Chapter 1268: The King (11)

Mu Huan: "..."

Let Gu Chenyi believe that she had been successfully hypnotized into loving him, but not let him get close to her? Gu Chenyi was not stupid...

Uncle Yu looked at her and suddenly said, "Do you want to die or live?"

This wasn't something that she had a choice over.

Uncle Yu had always been both soft and forceful.

Mu Huan: "..."

She obviously wanted to live...

"If you want to live, then do as I say," Uncle Yu said.

Mu Huan: "..."

"If you're disobedient and want to die, I'll get someone to drag you out, chop you up, and feed you to the sharks," Uncle Yu said with a smile.

However, Mu Huan knew that he wasn't joking. He would really get someone to chop her up and feed her to the sharks.

This kind of smiling tiger was the most frightening.

"You should know that with your current stamina, you can't deal with my men. We are also at sea. You don't have any chance of winning." Judging by her current situation, her stamina should not have completely recovered.

Mu Huan remained silent and sized up Uncle Yu quietly.

"You don't have to think about how to knock me down. To catch a thief, you have to first catch the leader. Not to mention that you haven't fully recovered your stamina, even if you have, you won't be able to deal with me without the medicine," Uncle Yu said.

Mu Huan: "..."

From his tone, it seemed like he knew her strength very well, but she didn't know him.

It was as if he could see through her thoughts.

Uncle Yu said, "Even your master couldn't beat me, and you had at most learned 80% of your master's skills."

Mu Huan: "..."

What the f*ck! Who was he? How could he not even be beaten by her master?! In that case, he must know her master. Why had she never heard of him?

How did Gu Chenyi know such a person?!

The Uncle Yu standing in front of her was elegant and refined like a professor. However, his words left Mu Huan without a doubt. This was because a person's aura would not lie, especially that of a strong person.

"I'll send the two of you to a place Bo Junyan won't be able to find for a while. You can't secretly let Bo Junyan know that you weren't really hypnotized. You have to make him anxious and make him really think that you left with Gu Chenyi. Make him think the two of you are together, such that he would lose control and go crazy."

Although Gu Chenyi had said that he could not do it because Mu Huan was unconscious, he knew that there was a big reason why he could not do it.

He had deep feelings for his uncle.

But like this, when he saw Bo Junyan losing control and going crazy, it would be beneficial for him to let go.

Mu Huan understood Uncle Yu's intentions. This surprised her because this Uncle Yu was too considerate of Gu Chenyi.

However, even if she were to pretend to be hypnotized successfully, she would not be able to avoid a certain degree of intimate contact. It would be too late to say that she did not want her husband to know because she had already informed him.

“Have you already contacted Bo Junyan?” Uncle Yu suddenly asked.

Although Mu Huan’s expression did not change, she was shocked. F*ck! Did he know how to read minds? He always knew what she was thinking!

Uncle Yu continued, “Although you’ve tidied up the room, you can still see traces of movement in the things in the room.”

Mu Huan subconsciously swept a glance at the things that she had moved earlier. She felt that she had already arranged them into their original positions based on her memory. Furthermore, this Uncle Yu had not stayed in her room for long. He could even see traces of movement. His observational skills were too subtle!

Chapter 1269: The King (12)

“It must have been John who came in to inject the drug into you, and you killed him instead. You used his phone to contact Bo Junyan.”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

What the f*ck! Was there a hidden camera in this room that she had not discovered?

She scanned the room again seriously, but she did not find anything suspicious.

“There’s no camera in the room. There’s a strand of short golden hair on the ground. It wasn’t there just now. It should be John’s.” Mu Huan couldn’t hide her shock this time. Uncle Yu could guess what she was thinking now and kindly explained it to her.

“As for why I knew that John wanted to come in to inject the drug for you, it was because John had convinced Chenyi to let him use the drug to make you forget everything. I felt that there was something wrong with him, so I got someone to investigate him. Before helping Chenyi back, I had just found out that the drug has been developed by John. It’s very harmful to the brain. It can turn a genius with high intelligence into a fool.”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

This Uncle Yu was really formidable!

“I’ve already sent someone to catch him...” Before Uncle Yu could finish speaking, there was a knock on the door.

Uncle Yu asked him to come in.

The person who came in reported, “Uncle Yu, John is sleeping very soundly. He can’t wake up no matter what. It’s strange.”

“Alright, get out.” Uncle Yu waved him out.

After the other party left and closed the door...

"You know hypnosis?" She didn't have any medicine on her.

"A little."

"Ha, you're really capable." No wonder people wanted to destroy her. With such capabilities, she brought low those who thought highly of themselves and felt that they were top-notch geniuses. There shouldn't be anyone in this world who was more formidable than them. How could they bear it?

Mu Huan: "..."

She wasn't that capable. Otherwise, why would she end up in this state? First, she was almost drowned by the flood, and now, she was in danger of getting chopped up and fed to the sharks.

"Since you're so capable, then you have to be on guard. Here, take this medicine." Uncle Yu took out a packet of medicine from his pocket and handed it to her.

Mu Huan: "..."

She wasn't sick. Why would she take medicine?

"You have to make a choice now. If you want to live, take this bag of medicine and do as I say. If you want to die, I'll immediately fulfill your wish."

If Uncle Yu wasn't her enemy, Mu Huan would have liked this person. He was straightforward enough! If they could have a good talk, then so be it. If they couldn't, then she would just kill him. There would be no room for negotiations.

Unfortunately, this was her enemy and she couldn't like him.

At this moment, in Country F...

PA Wang quickly called Bo Junyan after hanging up.

"CEO, Madam called me just now and said that she's fine and safe. She even sent me her location! I'll send you the location immediately!" PA Wang hung up after saying that.

Then, he sent a message regarding Mu Huan's location.

When Bo Junyan saw the location above, he immediately got the people who were searching the sea to go over to that location.

He put on his clothes and walked out to go to the sea.

Now that he knew that she was fine and that everything was alright now, Bo Junyan's viciousness and craziness instantly dissipated by a lot. The cold and suffocating aura around him likewise dissipated.

It made one feel as though the dark clouds had parted and the sun was shining.

"Our sister-in-law is really amazing!" Gong Zeye praised.

"Yes, yes!" Jin Chen nodded in agreement.

Chapter 1270: The King (13)

"I've decided that I'll idolize Sister-in-law for the rest of my life!" Gong Zeye said.

"Haven't you idolized Sis-in-law for a long time?"

"That's true! I have such foresight!" Gong Zeye's face was full of admiration!

Jin Chen was speechless.

Fu Siye: "..."

He was so narcissistic that he was a little shameless.

As Bo Junyan walked to the door, he suddenly thought of Long Feiting. "Is there any news of Long Feiting?"

"We've found him. His brothers are here too," Gong Zeye said.

Bo Junyan was relieved when he heard this.. Just as he was about to leave, Sen Nalin walked over.

"Mr. Bo, what are you going to do?" She still wanted to nurture some feelings for him while he was injured. What was he going to do?

Bo Junyan did not speak and directly took off his mask.

As he had been soaked in the flood and had not taken the antidote, Bo Junyan's face was even more unbearable now. Sen Nalin could not hold it in on the spot. She covered her mouth and turned her head. Her stomach churned and she retched.

Gong Zeye: "..."

He did not expect that Brother Bo, who had always been exceptionally beautiful and obsessed over by women, would one day disgust him!

He had really lived long enough to see everything!

At the thought that his Brother Bo had become like this because Sen Nalin had taken a fancy to his Brother Bo, Gong Zeye walked up to Sen Nalin and asked concernedly, "Are you alright?"

Gong Zeye had an extremely handsome peach blossom face to begin with. He could easily move a woman's heart and make her willing to go through fire and water for him. Furthermore, under such a comparison, his face was thousands of times more handsome in Sen Nalin's eyes!

Furthermore, he was deliberately displaying his charm.

When Sen Nalin looked at him, not only did she instantly lose that feeling of disgust, but she also felt like there was a little deer bumping around in her heart. "It's n... nothing..."

This friend of Bo Junyan's was also handsome... and his family background seemed pretty good...

Gong Zeye looked at the change in her eyes and praised himself for being a good brother! He could even sell his looks for his Brother Bo!

In this world, there was no better brother than him!

...

After Uncle Yu and Mu Huan were done talking, he left her room. Just as he was about to return to his room to rest, he suddenly realized that since Mu Huan had contacted Bo Junyan, she must have thought of a way to give their current location to him.

At the thought of this, he immediately went to the captain's cabin and asked the captain to change the direction of the ship. Also, he wanted to hide their whereabouts.

Speaking of luck...

Long Feiting was a big shot. He had lost consciousness after the mountain torrent flushed him to the bottom of the river, alive.

When he opened his eyes and saw his brother, he instinctively asked, "Where's Xiao Huan? Where's Xiao Huan?!"

No matter what, the first person he cared about was Mu Huan.

Long Feilei's mouth twitched. He really wanted to punch him!

"You almost died, yet you still worry about her as soon as you wake up!" His younger brother always got into trouble whenever he was with Mu Huan. He had been injured several times and almost died. If he had gotten his goal, it would have been worth it. But he couldn't get anything, so he was really angry!

"How is Xiao Huan...?" Long Feiting grabbed his arm. He only wanted news of Mu Huan's safety and didn't want to hear anything else.

"It's fine, she's fine! A scourge will live for a thousand years. Even if you die, she won't die!" After Long Feilei said this, he realized that what he said was wrong. He hurriedly spat a few times and muttered, "Jinx, jinx!"

"You're not lying to me?"
