

Fake Marriage 1281

Chapter 1281: Who Is the Lead (5)

At this thought, Bo Junyan's thoughts stopped. This...

Could it be his wife's work?

It was obvious that someone had been protecting his cousin and sister-in-law, preventing them from finding out about this matter. But now, they suddenly found out...

Realizing that this might have been done by Mu Huan, for the first time since he lost track of Mu Huan, Bo Junyan calmed down a lot.

In the afternoon, he received another gift.

Uncle Yu had got someone to deliver the antidote.

However, Uncle Yu did not get anyone to pass on what Mu Huan had said. Something like her forgetting or her saying not to look for her could too easily be exposed. He got someone to merely give the antidote to Bo Junyan and tell him that this was the antidote that Mu Huan had asked him to give. As for Bo Junyan, he could believe it or not. He could decide whether he wanted to use it or not.

Anyway, Mu Huan only wanted him to give the antidote to Bo Junyan.

He did not even ask anyone to tell Bo Junyan that his face would really be ruined if he did not use the antidote.

He thought wickedly that if Bo Junyan's face was really ruined, he would like to see what Mu Huan would choose to do and whether she could continue to love Bo Junyan so persistently.

Bo Junyan looked at the medicine that had been sent over and calmed down even more.

The medicine that his wife had on her had been soaked by the flood. It was impossible for her to have created a new antidote at sea. Hence, this antidote could only have been made by her after she went ashore. This meant that after she went ashore, she was still sober and free. In fact, she had reached some sort of agreement with Gu Chenyi or that other person to make the antidote for him.

Uncle Yu had also thought about this point at that time. If the antidote was given away, it would more or less expose their current situation. However, he was ultimately convinced by Mu Huan.

Mu Huan was really good at talking.

Previously, in the research laboratory, everyone said that she was so good at talking that she shouldn't do research and should be in sales.

"Get someone to investigate this wrapping paper thoroughly and analyze it..." Bo Junyan got someone to take those things for analysis, hoping to find some clues from them.

Although Uncle Yu did not ask anyone to tell Bo Junyan that his face would really be ruined if he did not take the antidote, Bo Junyan knew that too.

Because Mu Huan had told him before.

He thought about how his wife was still thinking about his face under such circumstances.

Bo Junyan, who was initially in no mood to use the antidote, used it. He had to maintain whatever his wife liked.

The antidote was external. It could be used three times a day. In two days, it could make his face even smoother and more tender.

...

As Gu Chenyi was already worried that his parents would break down and not be able to take it if they found out about his accident, he paid extra attention to the news in the country. Hence, after his mother thought that something had happened to him and had a breakdown, resulting in hospitalization, he immediately found out.

This made him anxious and uneasy.

He had to tell his parents that he was fine. If he didn't tell his parents, he...

"Uncle Yu, what should I do?" Unable to make up his mind, he asked Uncle Yu for help.

He would definitely think of a better way and be more thoughtful...

"If you don't want anything to happen to your mother, you can only tell her that you're okay, that you're fine now."

"But now that things have come to this, if I tell my mother that I'm fine, she'll definitely want to come over to see me! At that time..." Gu Chenyi thought about the series of troubles that would follow and could not bring himself to tell his mother.

"Don't tell me you want to see something happen to her after she's unable to take such a blow? Or even..." Uncle Yu deliberately stated the worst that could happen.

Chapter 1282: Who Is the Lead (6)

Although Uncle Yu did not finish his sentence, Gu Chenyi knew that with his mother's body, she would not be able to withstand any turmoil. If she were to believe he had died, she would not be able to survive.

But...

"Why is Uncle Yu like this? Why... I just want to be with Xiao Huan. I just want to lead a normal life. I just..." Gu Chenyi hugged his head in pain.

Uncle Yu could not bear to see him like this. After a while, he said, "You can only tell your mother that you're fine. You can video call her and let her see you with her own eyes to ensure that you're fine. Don't let her come over. Also, keep your mouth shut and don't say anything related to what's happening now."

Gu Chenyi let go of his head first, then he said, "But if my mom learns I'm fine, my uncle will definitely suspect something. Once he suspects something, he'll definitely investigate us. Then..."

“Your uncle already knows that you were the one who took Mu Huan away. His men have already traced us back to the ship we were on. Hence, you don’t have to be afraid of this,” Uncle Yu said.

“What?” Gu Chenyi was shocked. After a while, he said, “I... My uncle... didn’t think that Xiao Huan and I had been washed away by the mountain torrent?”

“No.”

Gu Chenyi: “...”

His uncle really couldn’t be more formidable.

In fact, Gu Chenyi knew deep down that things would not play out as well as he thought. This was because imagination was always beautiful, and reality was always cruel.

When he snapped back to his senses, he said worriedly, “Uncle has already found out that we were on a cruise ship. Will he follow the traces and find us?”

“As long as we don’t leave any traces, he won’t be able to find this place for a year and a half.”

Gu Chenyi heaved a sigh of relief.

“You know that your uncle is a very capable person, so you have to hurry up. Just find a way.” Although Uncle Yu had told Mu Huan something else, how could it be enough if she just pretended to give herself? Only by truly having her would GU Chenyi no longer have any regrets.

However, Gu Chenyi was hesitant. Uncle Yu could only help him if he became heartless. Otherwise, he would not be able to overcome the hurdle in his heart. When that time came, he might suffer even more and be unable to live.

“You don’t have to worry about your uncle. No matter how capable he is, I can protect you.” Although Bo Junyan was very capable, he was still young after all. The connections and strength Uncle Yu had accumulated in his lifetime were incomparable to that of Bo Junyan, who was only in his thirties.

Gu Chenyi knew what he meant and nodded.

“I’ll say the same thing again. We have to hurry up so that we don’t cause trouble,” Uncle Yu said again.

“Yes...”

“When your mother wakes up, I’ll arrange for a video call. Don’t worry too much.” Uncle Yu had arranged for someone to be by Gu Chenyi’s parents’ side.

“Thank you, Uncle Yu.” Gu Chenyi was touched by Uncle Yu again.

No one had ever understood and supported him like Uncle Yu did.

“Silly child.” Uncle Yu patted his shoulder and did not say anything else.

Gu Qianru woke up at night. Worried that her body would not be able to take it and she would faint again, the moment she woke up, the person Uncle Yu had arranged to be by Gu Qianru’s side asked her to video call Gu Chenyi.

Gu Chenyi was in a room surrounded by white walls. He would not expose his current location.

“Chenyi... Chenyi...” Gu Qianru initially thought that this stranger was lying to her. When she turned on the video and Gu Chenyi really appeared, she got up agitatedly and clutched her phone tightly.

“Mom, I’m fine. Don’t worry.” Gu Chenyi told her not to worry.

Chapter 1283: Who Is the Lead (7)

“What... what’s going on? Where are you now? What happened? Why...” Gu Qianru was so agitated that she was incoherent.

“It’s a long story. Anyway, I’m very safe now. Quite well! I’m fine. Mom, you don’t have to worry about me. You just have to be fine!” Gu Chenyi said.

“Don’t worry about you? How can I not worry about you?! You’re my life! I have only you as my son! If anything happens to you, I...” Gu Qianru started crying as she spoke. “Do you know that when I heard that something has happened to you and I couldn’t find you, I thought that you... I really! I really couldn’t live anymore! Do you know...”

Gu Qianru was a person with weak tolerance. When she found out that her only son had met with an accident, her emotions instantly collapsed. If she became sure that Gu Chenyi was really gone, she really wouldn’t have been able to survive.

“I’m sorry, Mom. I made you worry so much about me...” Gu Chenyi knew that his mother was weak. He had really let his mother down, but...

His life shouldn’t be like this. It really shouldn’t be like this!

If not for the fact that Matriarch Mu and Mu Huan’s stepmother were already living a life worse than death, Gu Chenyi really would have wanted to find them and kill them a thousand times to vent the hatred in his heart. If not for them, his life would not have come to this point!

If it weren’t for them, he could have had Xiao Huan and kept his mother well.

The more he thought about it, the more he wanted to get them out and kill them!

If possible, he really wanted to transmigrate back and stop everything from happening...

Unfortunately...

There were no such ifs.

“You don’t have to apologize to me. It’s fine as long as you’re fine... as long as you’re fine...” After her emotional breakdown, Gu Qianru now only wanted her son to be fine.

“I’m fine, Mom. You don’t have to worry at all. I’m really fine now. I couldn’t be any better!” Gu Chenyi repeatedly emphasized that he was fine.

Gu Qianru talked to him for a while more. After she heard things like “I’m fine,” her emotions slowly stabilized. “Where are you now?”

“I’m at a very, very beautiful place. I can’t go back now, and it’s not convenient for me to ask you to come over. After a while, I’ll go back to visit you.” Gu Chenyi directly stopped her from asking him to go back or from coming to visit.

“What good and beautiful place? Why can’t you come back now? Why didn’t you call your father and me immediately after such a thing happened to you? What are you doing? Are you like this? Do you know that you almost scared us to death?” After being afraid, it was fine as long as he was fine.

As long as he was fine, everything would be fine in the future. But she couldn’t help but blame the child. Why didn’t he tell them about it for no reason, making them so worried and afraid?

She almost collapsed!

“I’m doing something that’s the most important to me. I can’t tell you yet, Mom. This needs to be kept a secret. Also, don’t tell my uncle about my video call with you. Don’t tell him anything!”

“Why?”

“There’s no reason. Anyway, you know that I’m fine. I’m fine. This matter has to be kept a secret. Mom, I’m still busy. Let’s talk next time!”

“What important thing are you doing? What important thing are you doing? You’re so mysterious, you’re...”

“Mom, I’m hanging up,” Gu Chenyi said as he hung up.

“Chenyi, tell me clearly what you’re doing...” Before Gu Qianru could finish speaking, Gu Chenyi hung up the video call. If she called again, she would not be able to get through.

The stranger who had called her earlier had long disappeared, leaving her alone in the room.

As she looked at her phone, she couldn’t help but wonder if she was dreaming.

Just as she was about to call him again...

Bo Huaiyun and Bo Junyan pushed open the door and walked in.

Chapter 1284: A Child Should Not Teach His Father (1)

When Gu Qianru saw Bo Junyan, she instinctively hid her phone.

Although for a moment, she felt that her video call with her son was an illusion, she only thought about it in a daze. She knew that it was true. Her son was really fine! She really video-called her son!

At the thought of her son asking her to keep the video call a secret, she instinctively hid her phone.

Even though she found it strange that Gu Chenyi did not want her to tell Bo Junyan about it, she instinctively listened to her son.

It was just that her obvious desire to not expose herself was even more suspicious.

Even though Gu Qianru had now become someone confused, she was still someone who did not know how to hide her feelings.

“Qianru, who were you video-calling just now?” Bo Huaiyun had heard her voice at the door just now. Although he did not hear it clearly, she must have spoken. Now that he saw her hiding her phones, he knew she must have been video-calling someone before they came in.

She had just woken up, so why would she be in the mood to video call someone? He was afraid that she would pass out again because she couldn't take it anymore, so he specially called Junyan over and asked him to find the best specialist for him, just in case.

“What? What video call? I didn't! I didn't video-call anyone!” Gu Qianru was especially agitated because she was nervous due to lying.

Bo Huaiyun: “...”

She was already so obvious. If she said that she didn't, how could anyone believe her?

“Sister-in-law was video-calling Chenyi earlier, right?” Bo Junyan asked.

Bo Junyan's words shocked the couple!

Gu Qianru, in particular, was so shocked that her eyes were wide open. How did you know?

Even if he suspected that she was on a video call with someone, he shouldn't have guessed it was with her son at once!

“Qianru, were you really video-calling Chenyi just now? How is he? What happened? If he's fine, why didn't he call us? Where is he now?”

Bo Huaiyun asked a series of questions excitedly. He had only one son, and since he was middle-aged, he definitely couldn't bear the pain of losing his son. Now that he heard that his son was fine, he was instantly excited and blurted out a series of questions.

Gu Qianru looked at the agitated Bo Huaiyun and couldn't say a word. Not to mention that she didn't know how to answer the questions he asked, but now, even if she were to answer, she wouldn't be able to say whether or not her son was doing well. Because once she answered, it would be equivalent to admitting that she was video-calling her son.

“Why aren't you saying anything? Say something! Was it Chenyi or not? How is he now?!” Bo Huaiyun asked anxiously.

Gu Qianru remained silent.

When she did not say anything, Bo Junyan said, “Don't worry, Cousin. Chenyi is doing well right now.”

Bo Huaiyun knew that if Bo Junyan said that he was fine, then he was definitely fine. This made him completely heave a sigh of relief. After regaining his senses, he asked, “What happened?”

What happened? Why did his son suddenly disappear? Now, though he had video-called his wife, she wouldn't admit that she was on a video call with him.

“Chenyi, he...” Bo Junyan summarized the entire matter.

Bo Huaiyun was stunned!

He didn’t know what to think now. His mind was blank!

No matter how he thought about it, he would never have thought that his son would do such a thing!

Xiao Huan was his aunt...

Him!

Bo Huaiyun felt like he was about to collapse. He was really about to collapse...

Chapter 1285: A Child Should Not Teach His Father (2)

He could not bear to see his son in trouble earlier, but now, he could not wait to find Gu Chenyi and beat him to death!

Bo Huaiyun and Bo Junyan had a good relationship. All his life, he had only wanted to be good for Bo Junyan. He thought about the kindness of his uncle’s family, and Bo Junyan treated his son so well. Now...

This...

When Gu Qianru heard that Gu Chenyi had brought Mu Huan away with his men, she broke down and was furious. “No wonder he told me just now that he was doing something important. He can’t let me know because he wants to keep it a secret! This b*stard!”

Gu Chenyi knew that if he video-called his mother, Bo Junyan would definitely find out that he was fine and that his mother would soon find out what important thing he wanted to do. However, he still did not tell Gu Qianru about this. He still asked Gu Qianru to keep the call a secret for him. If he wanted it to be known later, it would be later.

He did not expect Bo Junyan to come in right after he hung up.

Gu Qianru had thoughtlessly hated Mu Huan, especially after Gu Chenyi had not been able to let go of her and refused to have a girlfriend for the past three years. This made her hate Mu Huan even more and feel that she was a huge scourge! Now, she had actually caused her son to do such a thing!

She said angrily, “I knew it. That person is a scourge. That person deserves to die!”

Bo Huaiyun thought that Gu Qianru was talking about Gu Chenyi and angrily added, “He’s a scourge! He deserves to die! When I find him, I’ll kill him with my own hands!”

Gu Qianru was stunned. Kill her personally?

Why would he say that? Shouldn’t he say that she was in the wrong?

Suddenly, she realized who Bo Huaiyun was talking about. She instinctively said, “This isn’t our son’s fault. Why do you want to kill him?!”

“If it’s not his fault, then whose fault is it? He’s already done such a thing, yet you’re still saying that he’s not in the wrong!” To his own aunt-in-law... Bo Huaiyun could not even think about it. The moment he thought about it, he wished he could immediately capture Gu Chenyi. He would kill him first and then apologize with his death!

It was all his fault for not educating his child!

“Of course it’s Mu Huan’s fault! It’s all her fault! If it weren’t for her, why would so many things have happened?! If it weren’t for her, our family would still be fine!” Gu Qianru said.

“What are you saying?! Are you... Are you...” Bo Huaiyun really wanted to say that she was sick. What was she thinking? How could this matter be blamed on Mu Huan? Did she want this to happen? Seriously...!

It was just that this was the wife he had always doted on. He couldn’t bring himself to say those nasty words.

He could not bear to say it, but Bo Junyan could. “Sister-in-law, is there something wrong with your brain? Are you sick? How can you blame Xiao Huan? What did she do?! It’s all Chenyi’s fault from the start to the end! What did she do wrong? Yet you blame her!”

“She... she...” Gu Qianru, who had never been treated this way by Bo Junyan, was frightened by him. She was speechless for a long time.

“If Chenyi did anything to Xiao Huan, I’ll definitely kill him myself!”

Bo Junyan’s vicious look frightened Gu Qianru so much that she shuddered. She instinctively said, “It’s not Chenyi’s fault! It’s all Mu Huan’s fault. If it weren’t for her existence, all of this wouldn’t have happened... It’s all her...”

“Shut up!” Bo Huaiyun roared angrily.

At this point, she was still blaming Xiao Huan for her existence! Could people not simply exist? Was this their world, so there couldn’t be others in it?!

Gu Qianru was stunned by his shout. “You... you... you shouted at me...”

“I was just... I...” Bo Huaiyun turned to look at Bo Junyan after a while.

Chapter 1286:A Child Should Not Teach His Father (3)

“I was just... I...” Bo Huaiyun turned to look at Bo Junyan after a while.

“Junyan, you go out first. Don’t worry, I know what you want.” Bo Huaiyun was a smart person. He knew some things without Bo Junyan saying it.

Bo Junyan did not say anything else and turned to leave.

Gu Chenyi and Gu Qianru should be grateful that they had a father and a husband like Bo Huaiyun. It was because he had always been upright that Bo Junyan had tolerated them.

“Bo Huaiyun, are you crazy?! You’re shouting at me!” Gu Qianru said agitatedly after Bo Junyan left.

He actually shouted at her!

Being married for so many years, Bo Huaiyun had indulged Gu Qianru in everything. He had never spoken loudly to her, let alone shouted at her. Hence, she could not accept this.

"I didn't want to shout at you either. But look at what you've become!" Bo Huaiyun looked at Gu Qianru with disappointment and heartache.

His gaze was so cold that it frightened Gu Qianru.

"What have I become?! I..."

"You are no longer pure and kind, but how can you be so unethical? How can you keep blaming others for no reason? Can you really push all the blame onto others? Is Dad's death Xiao Huan's fault? No! He was sick! Is it Xiao Huan's fault that Chenyi is like this now? No! Initially, it was his own stupidity that made him make such a mistake. All these years, hasn't Xiao Huan rejected him thoroughly? She has never kept Chenyi hanging. It's his own dark thoughts that he can't let go of. It's him..." Bo Huaiyun didn't know what to say.

"You guys are really...!"

"If it weren't for her, how would things have turned out this way?! If it weren't for her..."

"So what if she exists? Does this world belong to you? Why don't you say that if it weren't for you, your father wouldn't have had to suffer alone for the rest of his life and wouldn't have fallen sick from working so hard! If it weren't for the fact that she gave birth to you, your mother wouldn't have died so early!" Bo Huaiyun's words were very serious. This was because Gu Qianru's mother had suffered a serious injury after she gave birth to her. That was why she passed away not long after.

Because his father loved her mother deeply, he did not remarry. In order to give his daughter the best care, Old Master Gu had worked overtime at night and accompanied her during the day.

Although Gu Qianru had been pampered since she was young, there were times when Old Master Gu couldn't shield her from envious, jealous, and hateful people who didn't like her. They would run to her and say that she had killed her mother.

This was the injury she had hidden in the deepest part of her heart.

It was the most untouchable.

Usually, Bo Huaiyun would carefully protect her and not let her think in that direction. But today, he had ruthlessly poked the deepest wound in her heart.

He wanted her to know how wrong she was to push the blame onto an innocent person and how much harm she would cause.

This was the same as her situation. It wasn't that she had wanted her mother to bleed profusely for the sake of giving birth to her, it wasn't that she had wanted her father to work so hard for her, but he blamed all of this on her. He said that she had caused her parents to die and be in so much pain and hurt.

His words made Gu Qianru's face turn pale instantly! She never thought that one day, her lover would use her most painful wound to attack and hurt her.

Bo Huaiyun could not bear to see her like this. But right now, he did not know what else he could do to wake her up.

Chapter 1287: A Child Should Not Teach His Father (4)

It was all his fault. He had doted on the mother-and-son pair too much and protected them too much. No matter what happened, he couldn't bear to blame them. He made them think that the world revolved around them. After they got into trouble, they would only blame others. They had never thought of finding fault with themselves.

It was his fault. It was all his fault.

A child should not teach his father about his mistakes.

"Bo Huaiyun, are you crazy?!" Gu Qianru shouted agitatedly when she snapped back to her senses.

"Yes, I'm crazy!" Bo Huaiyun also felt that he was crazy. "Uncle and his family treated us so well, and Junyan treated Chenyi so well! But he did something that even an animal wouldn't have done! And you're blaming Xiao Huan! I... I'm really going to go crazy because of you!"

"You're actually doing this for an outsider..."

Before Gu Qianru could finish speaking, Bo Huaiyun interrupted, "She's not an outsider! Mu Huan isn't an outsider! She's Junyan's wife! If we follow your logic, you'd also be an outsider to me!" Bo Huaiyun didn't understand. He didn't understand why, no matter what he said, she simply felt that Mu Huan was an outsider, that they shouldn't treat Gu Qianru like this because of an outsider.

If Junyan could treat his grandfather like that for Xiao Huan's sake, what was she, his sister-in-law, worth?! If you didn't respect someone else's wife and didn't treat them as family, why would they treat you as family? Why should they treat you well?!

"You've watched Junyan grow up. You should know that whatever he says is the truth. If Chenyi really did something, he would really kill him with his own hands! When that happens, the two of us can forget about living. Let's slit our own throats and commit suicide to atone for our sins!" Bo Huaiyun knew that she would not reveal any information about Gu Chenyi in her current state, so he spoke harshly.

Gu Qianru knew how ruthless Bo Junyan could be, but she felt that no matter how ruthless he was, he couldn't be more ruthless. Her husband, who had slept beside her for so many years, first hurt her like that, and now, he wanted to apologize with her with his life.

What did they do wrong? Why did they have to apologize using their deaths? It was clearly Mu Huan's fault. She had caused their lives to become like this. It was obvious that as long as she alone disappeared, everyone else would be fine. Why did they have to apologize using their deaths if it wasn't their fault?

Why should they appease her?! She was in the wrong!

"Alright, you can die with me now!" she said as she looked up.

She wanted to see if he could really do it!

If he really had the capability, he should kill her right now and make her apologize!

“There’s no need to be anxious. It’s not the time yet. When we find Chenyi, Junyan won’t have to touch him. I’ll end him myself,” Bo Huaiyun said with a deep gaze. He was not frightened by Gu Qianru’s words at all.

She looked at her husband, who usually coaxed her and was always afraid that something would happen to her. Now that she was about to die, not only was he not afraid at all, but he even told her not to be anxious. It was as if he really wanted the family of three to die as an apology.

This made Gu Qianru, who had been very arrogant just now, panic...

Sometimes, some people go through such troubles. When asked to live well, they’d feel that they couldn’t live anymore. When asked to die, they didn’t want to die no matter what.

“If you’re willing to tell me about Chenyi, then tell me. If you’re not, then wait for the big mistake to become irreversible. Let’s go together as a family of three.” With that, Bo Huaiyun turned around and left.

Chapter 1288: A Child Should Not Teach His Father (5)

His determination made Gu Qianru panic even more. She instinctively shouted, “I don’t know anything else. I only know that he’s fine now! He didn’t tell me anything. He’s in a room with nothing. Other than knowing that he’s still alive and well, I don’t know anything!”

“If it weren’t for Junyan, I wouldn’t have known that he took Mu Huan away!” Although Gu Qianru was a little afraid now, she still gritted her teeth in hatred when she thought of Mu Huan. She couldn’t help but think how good their family would have it without her!

“Let me take a look at your phone.” Bo Huaiyun turned around and walked toward her, reaching out for her phone.

Although Gu Qianru was a little reluctant, she still gave him the phone in the end.

Bo Huaiyun did not find anything useful on her phone. “Who called you?”

She didn’t know how to find traces in a virtual world like this, so someone had to have helped her.

“I don’t know. I don’t know that person. I don’t know when he entered my ward or when he left.”

Just as Bo Huaiyun was about to say something, there was a knock on the door.

Then, Gong Zeye walked in with a person on his shoulder. “Cousin, Brother Bo told me to have Sister-in-law identify this person.”

Uncle Yu had arranged for someone to be by Gu Chenyi’s parents’ side. He thought that this matter could be done without leaving any traces.

However, when Bo Junyan found out that Bo Huaiyun and the rest had come to Country F, he got someone to secretly monitor them. This was because he knew that after such news was reported, Gu Chenyi would definitely contact his mother. He did not expect Gu Qianru to be able to tell him anything useful. He wanted to capture this person who had helped her contact Gu Chenyi.

Gu Qianru looked at the person who had been carried in and did not speak. However, her obviously shocked expression let the others know that the person who had helped her contact Gu Chenyi was this person.

Gong Zeye did not say anything else and carried the person away.

After he left, Bo Huaiyun left without saying anything.

He knew that this was all Gu Qianru knew.

Gu Qianru looked at the tightly shut door and couldn't help but blame Mu Huan. It was all because of her! It was all because of her that their family ended up like this... How good would it have been if it weren't for her...

After Bo Huaiyun left Gu Qianru's ward, he found Bo Junyan.

"Junyan, I'll definitely make it up to you for this matter. If Chenyi really did something to make him worse than a beast, I'll do it myself. You don't have to..." Dirty your hands.

Bo Huaiyun never thought that such a day would come.

Bo Junyan looked at Bo Huaiyun but did not say anything.

"What should I do?" Although Bo Junyan did not say anything, Bo Huaiyun knew that as long as his son did not do such a thing, he would let his nephew off. If he did anything, then...

Not only would Bo Junyan not let him off, but even his own father would not let him off!

Hence, now, it wasn't that Mu Huan was in danger. It wasn't that he wanted to save Mu Huan, but he wanted to save his son. He had to find him before the huge mistake was made!

The island...

The battle between Bo Junyan and Uncle Yu was a battle between kings. No matter how careful Uncle Yu was, his men were still caught by Bo Junyan. No matter how careful Bo Junyan was, Uncle Yu knew that his men had been caught.

If this continued, it wouldn't be long before he found out about this.

He'd initially thought that Bo Junyan would not be able to find their hiding place for at least a year and a half.. However, at this rate, he would be able to find this place very quickly.

Chapter 1289: A Child Should Not Teach His Father (6)

He looked up at Gu Chenyi and Mu Huan, who were not far away, and sighed inwardly.

...

This island was extremely beautiful. The seawater was so clear that one could see to the bottom. If she were on vacation here with her husband, Mu Huan would definitely have been very happy and would be enjoying herself. But... no...

She knew that the messages she sent were enough for Bo Junyan to know that she was doing well, but this could not make him not worry about her.

If Gu Chenyi had taken her away with such a motive, he would definitely be worried over Gu Chenyi's purpose for doing so.

Such anxiety could drive any man crazy.

"Sigh..." If only she could kill Uncle Yu, she wouldn't have had to make such an honest deal with him.

Gu Chenyi's desire and inability to let go were really a little tricky.

"Xiao Huan, look what good food I've made for you." Gu Chenyi brought a tray of good food over.

The sun, the sea, the beach, the delicacies, and the setting sun were all extremely beautiful.

Back then, Gu Chenyi had chosen this place because he had taken a fancy to the scenery here and found it mesmerizing.

When he chose this place, he had fantasized about this scene.

She'd be lying on the chair and facing the endless sea. She'd close her eyes and take a nap. He would carry her favorite food and come to her side. Under the sunset, they would look at this most beautiful scenery while he fed her her her favorite food.

That scene was so beautiful that he couldn't get out of it.

Now, everything was just right.

The beautiful scene that he had thought of was about to be realized!

Gu Chenyi's hand, which was holding the plate, trembled slightly.

He was excited.

Just then, Mu Huan opened her eyes and looked at him.

In the past, Gu Chenyi had always felt that Mu Huan's eyes were exceptionally beautiful. At this moment, when she looked at him, he was the only one in her eyes. This made him feel even more that her eyes were as beautiful as the most dazzling jewelry in the world!

Just as he was feeling dazed, Mu Huan said shyly, "There's so much good food."

Her shyness made Gu Chenyi, who had just snapped back to his senses, go into a daze again. Looking at Mu Huan like this, he had an indescribable feeling in his heart.

However, he quickly suppressed that feeling and reached out to feed Mu Huan a piece of delicious food. "Come and try."

Mu Huan: "..."

Was he going to feed her?

Freaking...

Just as she was about to find an excuse to reject Gu Chenyi, she saw Uncle Yu looking over at them. There was an order in his eyes that Mu Huan could decipher at a glance.

Freaking hell!

Mu Huan once again blamed herself for not practicing seriously and becoming strong enough.

Previously, Mu Huan had tried to fight Uncle Yu. The truth was as Uncle Yu had said. She couldn't beat him at all.

Mu Huan opened her mouth and ate the food that Gu Chenyi had fed her.

Uncle Yu took the opportunity to capture this extremely romantic scene.

He would get someone to send it to Bo Junyan later.

In any case, Bo Junyan had found those traces, so he might be able to find them very quickly. It was better to strike first and make him go even crazier. It would be even better if he could make Bo Junyan so angry that he would lose his footing!

After taking a few more intimate and romantic pictures of Mu Huan and Gu Chenyi together, he felt that they were like intimate lovers.

Uncle Yu got someone to change the background of these photos and edit them to have the exact same lighting as another seaside. He made the photos look like they had never been photoshopped. Then, he got a high-tech staff to confirm that they couldn't pinpoint this place from the angle of the photos. Only then did he get someone to remotely use hacker technology and send the pictures to Bo Junyan's phone.

Chapter 1290: They're Already Together (1)

Uncle Yu did this not only to anger Bo Junyan but also to mislead him. He wanted Bo Junyan to investigate Mu Huan's location according to the background of the photos and within the IP area where the photos had been sent.

To delay his search.

Thinking about what Mu Huan had said previously, he even got someone to send Bo Junyan such a message.

Xiao Huan had already forgotten you. She and Chenyi were now lovey-dovey. Don't bother looking for them. It's useless even if you find them. Why don't you let each other off on account that you were once family? It'd be good for both of you.

Uncle Yu was in a much better mood at the thought of Bo Junyan's furious expression when he saw the photos.

Since he treated Gu Chenyi as his past self, he naturally treated Bo Junyan as his former love rival. He would naturally not be polite to Bo Junyan when it came to things that he could not do to that person.

Nature's beautiful scenery was always the most beautiful. When the fiery red sun slowly reached the horizon, Mu Huan, who was in a bad mood, could not take her eyes off of it.

"Xiao Huan, isn't this place beautiful?" Gu Chenyi asked. Back then, he had chosen this place because of the beautiful sunset.

"Yes, it's beautiful." But when she heard his voice, all the beauty was ruined.

"Let's watch the sunrise and sunset together every day from now on, alright?" Gu Chenyi looked at her side profile in a daze. At this moment, it was even more beautiful than in his dream.

If he could live happily with her here and give birth to a son who was as beautiful as her, then his life...

Just thinking about it made him excited!

Mu Huan did not speak and only looked at him with a shy smile.

Her current persona was that of a person who liked him, but who felt that he was a stranger and wanted to keep a distance from him.

Gu Chenyi looked at her smile and felt that she was even more beautiful than the sunset...

She was so beautiful that he couldn't help but want to kiss her.

This was what he had desired for a long time. It was what he had wanted since a long time ago.

He looked at her face, which was approaching his own slowly...

Mu Huan knew what he wanted to do, but she did not dodge. She only smiled at him.

This made Gu Chenyi's heart flutter even more. He approached her closer and closer. When he was only one punch away from Mu Huan, Mu Huan did not dodge. Instead, Gu Chenyi suddenly stopped.

What he wanted so much was right in front of him. He just had to kiss her.

Right now, she wasn't unconscious either. She was very awake and was even looking at him with a smile. Not only did she not avoid him, but she might even be looking forward to it. But... he stopped just like that. He couldn't go forward, couldn't kiss her, couldn't do anything else...

Because his desire had suddenly vanished. At this moment, his mind was filled with his uncle.

Mu Huan's face, which had moved him so much just now, had turned into his uncle's face, making him unable to move.

Even if his rationality had clearly told him that she was not his uncle and that this was only an obstacle in his heart, that as long as he broke through this obstacle, he would be able to get what he wanted the most...

He had clearly come this far and was only one step away from possessing her. However, he was stuck at the critical moment and unable to make a move.

He wanted her, but he couldn't get over the fact that she was already his aunt. He couldn't get over this line that he couldn't touch...

This made him really want to go crazy!
