

Fake Marriage 1311

Chapter 1311: Let Go (6)

Bo Junyan's heart tightened, but he did not say anything.

However, even so, Mu Huan still sensed that something was amiss with him. Hence, she went up to Bo Junyan.

"Hubby, don't you want me to remember everything from the past?"

Bo Junyan was silent for a while. "I'm afraid you won't be as happy as you are now if you remember."

Right now, she only remembered the beautiful things between them. She was so happy that he wanted more time.

"If I'd wanted to use forgetting to escape from the pain, then it must be a serious matter. I know that when I think about it, I definitely won't be able to be as relaxed as I am now. But no matter if it's good or bad, I have to remember it. Only then can my life be complete. Otherwise, I'll keep feeling empty in my heart. I have this feeling that I can't grasp. I don't like this feeling. I want to remember. Anyway, the two of us can already be together. As long as we can continue to be together, no matter what, I'll be fine. I can bear it!"

Ever since she woke up from the hypnosis, she'd had a feeling that she could not grasp. This feeling made her feel very insecure, and her heart felt very uneasy. It made her...

She didn't know how to describe that feeling.

In short, she wanted to regain her memory.

Whether it was happiness or pain, she had to remember it!

"Alright." Although Bo Junyan wanted her to be happier, if she wanted to remember, then so be it.

"Hubby, I love you!" Mu Huan tiptoed and kissed his face.

Bo Junyan reached out to hug her. "No matter what, we have to stay together."

Although the reason for her leaving him was no longer there, he was still a little afraid...

Bo Junyan, who had always been fearless, was afraid of only one thing: for her to leave him.

"Of course we have to be together forever! My husband is so good!" Mu Huan tiptoed and kissed him again.

Although he did not say it out loud, she knew how he felt. No matter what she remembered, she would not separate from him. She would be with him forever!

Bo Junyan did not speak and lowered his head to kiss her.

This kiss...

Eisen, who was standing next to them, felt that he shouldn't be here. He should disappear. Disappear silently.

But just as he was about to disappear...

Bo Junyan released Mu Huan. "Go."

"Hubby, I love you!" Mu Huan kissed him again before turning around to leave.

As Bo Junyan's presence would affect Mu Huan, he did not follow Mu Huan and Eisen in.

He waited outside.

It did not take long for Eisen to remove the hypnotic command, but even in such a short period of time, Bo Junyan felt that it was unbearable. He had never been so nervous before.

Every second was exceptionally slow.

Bo Junyan didn't want Mu Huan to regain her past memories. Apart from wanting Mu Huan to be happier, he was also afraid that Mu Huan, who had regained her memory, wouldn't be able to overcome the hurdle in her heart and be unable to be with him.

He could think of a way to resolve anything except the past.

The pain that had already been caused was irreparable.

Even the slowest time would pass.

It was Eisen who came out first.

When Bo Junyan, who was waiting by the window, heard the sound of the door opening, he immediately turned around and asked, "How was it?"

"How else would it be? We removed the command, of course!" Eisen said.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Why? Are you nervous?" Eisen raised an eyebrow.

A person who had always been high and mighty, who had a cold and stoic expression, was so anxious that it was as if he was a patient's family waiting outside the emergency room. It was really out of the ordinary!

Chapter 1312: Let Go (7)

Instead of answering, Bo Junyan asked, "When will Xiao Huan wake up?"

"The shortest is half an hour, the longest is an hour," said Eisen.

Bo Junyan did not speak further and walked straight in.

Eisen wanted to tease him a little, but seeing him like this, he thought about it and did not say anything else. The scenery here was not bad. He'd better go out and take a look!

After Bo Junyan entered, he sat next to Mu Huan and quietly looked at her sleeping face.

She was sleeping like an angel.

As time passed, he became increasingly nervous.

Although he told himself not to be nervous and not to think too much...

He couldn't help but feel nervous for the first time in his life.

Nervous. What would she be like when she woke up?

When he saw her long eyelashes fluttering as she was about to wake up, he held his breath.

Then, unprepared, he met her open eyes.

That pair of clear and bright eyes, even though she had just woken up...

They looked at each other for a long, long time...

"Go out for a while. I want to be alone," Mu Huan said.

Bo Junyan's heart tightened. Indeed...

He was about to say something.

"Don't worry too much. I just want to be alone for a while and settle down this sudden surge of memories." Just now, when she was looking at him in a daze, Mu Huan's memories returned.

Those real memories that suddenly surged up and the pain of losing her family made her unable to snap back to her senses for a moment. She didn't know how to face such a fact and how to face Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan wanted to say something again.

Mu Huan said, "I really just need some time. To think quietly. I won't make you wait too long. Can you give me a little bit of time?"

Her almost pleading voice rendered Bo Junyan speechless. He could not bear to reject her request, so he stood up and left without a word.

As she looked at his lonely back, Mu Huan's heart ached so much that she almost called out to him. However, she did not say anything in the end.

Now, her mind was really in a mess. She needed to be quiet and stay alone for a while.

When Bo Junyan came out, he felt that the time was even more unbearable than before Mu Huan woke up. He was like a criminal waiting to be sentenced to death. He was so anxious and afraid.

Because he didn't know what he would do if she chose not to be with him in the end.

He couldn't bear to use force on her, nor would he use force on her. But no matter what, he couldn't give up on her...

Every second was more unbearable than the last. It was so unbearable that Bo Junyan found it difficult to breathe.

It was only a few minutes, but he felt like a century had passed.

Another few hours passed.

The closed door opened.

When he heard the door open, his body froze and his breathing stopped. He was afraid... he was really afraid...

But even though he was so scared that he couldn't breathe, he still slowly lifted his head and looked over.

Mu Huan, who was standing at the door, met his gaze and slowly smiled sweetly at him. "Hubby..."

When he saw her smile and heard her sweet call, Bo Junyan's heart finally returned to normal.

He strode forward and pulled her into his arms, hugging her tightly.

"Hubby, I love you!" After her memory had stabilized and she recalled the nervousness and fear in Bo Junyan's eyes, Mu Huan suddenly knew how she should face such a matter and how she should face him.

Chapter 1313: Let Go (8)

No matter what had happened in the past, the one in the wrong was not her husband. Her husband was innocent.

Nothing would change even if she separated from him.

He shouldn't have to bear the consequences of someone else's mistake. Besides, his grandfather had already paid the price for his own actions. His death was already a punishment from the heavens...

"I love you..." Bo Junyan hugged her tightly. This was the first time he, who had never said anything about love and had never talked about feelings, had said anything about love.

Mu Huan smiled and raised her head to kiss him.

Initially, they wanted to leave this place after settling this matter, but in the end, they stayed here for five days before leaving.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder...

Although Mu Huan, who had completely regained her memory, was not as pure and happy as before, there was more confidence between her brows than before.

There were some things that one had to let go of themselves. Using hypnosis to make others forget wasn't a solution to resolve things. If a person didn't remember the past and had a blank mind, then she would have a very serious sense of insecurity. After all, if a person didn't even understand themselves, how could they feel at ease?

Mu Huan had originally thought that if she could live, she would definitely torture Ling Wei to death. After regaining all her memories, the new hatred and old hatred made her want to torture Ling Wei to death even more.

“How is Ling Wei now?” She remembered that Ling Wei and Sen Tai had been washed away by the mountain torrent.

“She and Sen Tai haven’t been found yet.” Bo Junyan had been busy looking for Mu Huan these past several days and didn’t get anyone to look for Ling Wei.

“It’s said that a scourge will live for a thousand years. I don’t think she can die so easily. Get someone to investigate and find her whereabouts with all their might!” Ling Wei had to die in her hands!

“Okay.” After Bo Junyan found Mu Huan, he had already gotten someone to investigate Ling Wei’s whereabouts.

Just as Mu Huan was about to say something, Bo Junyan’s phone rang.

It was Meng Yueman.

Bo Junyan did not speak after that. Meng Yueman’s urging for him to get married and have children came out in succession.

After a while.

“It’s fine if you don’t want to get married. As long as you give me a grandson, you can do whatever you want in the future!” Most of the elderly in the world had a common problem. They especially wanted children to get married and have children.

When Mu Huan heard Meng Yueman’s words, she smiled and looked at Bo Junyan. She whispered, “Tell Mom that we’ll work hard and try to let her have a grandson by the end of the year!”

When Bo Junyan heard this, he suddenly hugged her tightly. Following her words, he said to Meng Yueman on the other end of the line, “Mom, Xiao Huan said that we’ll work hard and try to let you have a grandson by the end of the year!”

Meng Yueman, who was about to say something, was stunned when she heard his words. Then, she said, “What did you say?”

“We’ll work hard and try to give you a grandson by the end of the year!”

“You... Who are you working hard with?” Meng Yueman had been hypnotized, so she had no memory of Mu Huan.

“With my wife. I actually didn’t divorce her. I...” Bo Junyan couldn’t explain it clearly over the phone.

“Mom, I’ll tell you in detail when I get back. All you need to know now is that you have a daughter-in-law and you’ll have a grandson soon!”

“No... No... That...” This happiness came too suddenly. It was so sudden that Meng Yueman couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

Her son, who had never wanted to get married, not only had a wife, but he was also going to give her a grandson soon!

“Mom, I have something on. I’ll hang up first,” Bo Junyan said.

“No... No, you have to make yourself clear. Otherwise, I won't be able to eat or sleep!”

Chapter 1314: Talk Is Easy (1)

During the days when Mu Huan was missing, the outside world thought that she had died in that earthquake.

Hence, when she returned to Rui Hui headquarters, the entire place was in an uproar.

“CEO Liu! CEO Liu, bad news. Mu Huan is back!” After Mr. Liu's confidant received the news, he ran all the way to his office.

When Mr. Liu, who was working, heard this, he frowned and stopped what he was doing. “She's back?”

“Yes! She's alive and well...”

“Indeed, a scourge will live for a thousand years. After such a thing had happened, she actually didn't die.” Mr. Liu snorted and put down the pen in his hand.

“What should we do now?”

“What should we do? Continue,” Mr. Liu said.

During the days when Mu Huan was in trouble, he had been slowly transferring Rui Hui's assets. If he could not own Rui Hui openly, then he would dig out Rui Hui until it was an empty shell and create another company! Plotting against him and making him give her a wedding dress for nothing? Dream on!

“It will take some time before our plan succeeds. If she finds out...” Not only would their plan fail, but they might even end up in jail.

Transferring assets to empty a company was a financial crime.

“Then have her be too busy to notice.” Mr. Liu sneered.

The confidant knew that he had a plan and did not say anything else.

“Let's go and show some concern for our CEO Mu.” Mr. Liu stood up and walked out.

When Mr. Liu arrived, Mu Huan's office was already filled with executives and directors from various departments. However, when they saw Mr. Liu coming in, they automatically made way.

“Xiao Huan, where have you been these past few days? Why couldn't I find you despite sending so many people to look for you?” Mr. Liu had indeed sent many people to look for Mu Huan, but they were all trying to take the opportunity to kill her instead.

“It's a long story. I'll tell Uncle Liu another day,” Mu Huan said with a smile.

Mr. Liu looked at Mu Huan in front of him and felt that she had changed a little from before. It was as if she had returned to the time when she had not lost her memory.

The Mu Huan who had not lost her memory had had such a painful experience. This pain made her mature a lot. As for the Mu Huan who had lost her memory, because she had never experienced the pain of life, there was still a hint of innocence between her brows. Although it was only a slight difference, a smart person like Mr. Liu could tell.

Especially when he saw Bo Junyan standing next to Mu Huan.

He knew that Bo Junyan was fine. It was also because Bo Junyan had not been able to find Mu Huan that he thought that Mu Huan had already died. He did not expect that she was so lucky that she did not die.

After Mr. Liu had been polite with Mu Huan for a while, they went to the meeting room together.

In the afternoon, Liu Changfeng, who'd found out that Mu Huan had returned alive, came to the company.

When he reached the parking lot, he happened to see Mu Huan sending Bo Junyan off. The two of them were kissing and couldn't bear to part.

This made his eyes turn red.

It was probably because the more he couldn't get her, the more he wanted her. It was also probably because he had remained unmarried for so many years just to wait for this heir. And she happened to be this heir. She should have been his wife. This made Liu Changfeng, who originally only liked Mu Huan a little and felt that she was not bad, sink deeper and deeper into wanting such an impossible relationship.

It made him want to destroy it if he couldn't get it.

After Mu Huan sent Bo Junyan off, she turned around to return to the company. Liu Changfeng strode forward and reached out to hug Mu Huan, but Mu Huan dodged him.

"Xiao Huan!" he shouted excitedly as he looked at Mu Huan.

Chapter 1315: Talk Is Easy (2)

No matter what he wanted, he was happy to see Mu Huan return alive.

When Mu Huan saw that it was him, she smiled faintly and said, "Best Actor Liu, long time no see."

"Xiao Huan, I'm so glad you're fine!" he said as he grabbed Mu Huan's arm agitatedly.

However, Mu Huan cleverly dodged his outstretched hand again.

Her avoiding him again and again made Liu Changfeng's eyes darken. She was not even willing to be touched by him.

"I saw Bo Junyan just now."

"Yes." She had felt that someone was looking at them just now. It was him.

"Are you going to be with him again?" Liu Changfeng asked.

Initially, this was a private matter and Mu Huan did not want to answer this question. However, when she thought about his feelings for her, she felt that it was better to say it so that he would give up.

“Yes.”

Liu Changfeng was silent for a while before he suddenly said, “Do you know why you lost your memory?”

Initially, he’d felt that it was a good thing that Mu Huan had forgotten about Bo Junyan. Hence, he’d kept his mouth shut and did not tell her that she had not lost her memory from the car accident but was instead hypnotized. Now, it looked like he had to tell her about the past. There was such hatred between her and Bo Junyan. Perhaps, after knowing about the past, she would no longer be able to be with Bo Junyan.

“I know,” Mu Huan said.

Liu Changfeng was stunned for a moment before he sized Mu Huan up carefully. “Have you regained your memory?”

“Yes.”

“You still want to be with Bo Junyan after regaining your memory?”

“Yes.”

“How can you say that so simply?! How can you still choose to be with him?! He’s your enemy who killed your father! The enmity caused by your father’s death is irreconcilable!” How could she continue to be with Bo Junyan so calmly?!

Shouldn’t she be in so much pain that she couldn’t be with Bo Junyan anymore?

That was the bad blood caused by the murder of her father! It wasn’t any other small conflict!

“How can you be with your father’s murderer like this?! You’re simply...” Liu Changfeng had a look on his face. He didn’t know what to say to her. How could she be so unfilial and have no morals?!

Before Mu Huan could say anything, Liu Changfeng continued, “Your father died to save you. Given this, how can you continue to be with Bo Junyan? Won’t your conscience hurt if you do this?”

Mu Huan clenched her fists tightly. Although she had made such a choice, it did not mean that she had completely let go of the pain. She had only suppressed the pain.

Usually, it wouldn’t affect her, but when it was mentioned, the pain would disturb her emotions.

However, no matter how much her heart ached and how much she cared, she would not reveal it in front of outsiders, especially people with ulterior motives. “It won’t hurt.”

“How can you do this to your father?!” Liu Changfeng said sternly.

“Before my father died, he especially wanted me and Bo Junyan to lead a good life. If I do this, he will only be happy,” Mu Huan said.

“...!!” Liu Changfeng didn’t know what else to say.

After a while...

“Xiao Huan, there are thousands of good men in this world. Why do you have to choose someone with whom you have a grudge after your father was killed?”

“Firstly, my husband is not the enemy who killed my father. Secondly, even if there are thousands of good men in this world, the only one I want and like is my husband!” Mu Huan knew the purpose of Liu Changfeng’s words.

Hence, what she said was very tough and absolute. In fact, it was true!

Chapter 1316: Talk Is Easy (3)

The person who killed her father was Old Master Meng, and it had nothing to do with her husband at all. Strictly speaking, her husband was the biggest victim.

She knew that she was thinking this way because of love. She wanted to be biased, but in the face of choices, since he had chosen the one he could not let go of the most, then he was the best!

Liu Changfeng looked at her and was silent for a while. “I hope that in the future, you won’t regret your choice today.”

With that, he turned around and left.

As Mu Huan looked at his departing back, she suddenly recalled the first time she met Liu Changfeng in Country T. When she saw the idol she liked, she was really excited. The changes in the world were really unpredictable. In the beginning, no one would have thought that it would turn out like this...

The stronger a person was and the higher their status, the greater the responsibility they would have to bear. For example, Mu Huan had been busy with meetings ever since she returned.

After the Rui Hui meeting and the Chamber of Commerce meeting, she had to attend the grandest academic discussion in the pharmaceutical industry this year.

This meeting gathered all the well-known figures in the pharmaceutical research world.

During the intermission of the academic conference, a group of tall foreigners surrounded Mu Huan. The person standing in front pointed at her and said, “It’s her! She’s the one who destroyed John!”

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow. John? Was it that John who had been injected with a brain-damaging drug?

Among the group, the oldest and most authoritative Professor Booth looked at Mu Huan when he heard this. “You’re Mu Huan?”

“Yes.”

“You injected John with NC?”

“If the John you’re talking about is the John who has the same mentor as Eisen, then it is.”

“Did you know what this drug can do?”

“Yes.”

“Do you know why you did this? As the saying goes, a doctor should have the heart of a parent. How can you harm others like this?!” the person who first identified Mu Huan said angrily.

After he said that, the others echoed, “That’s right, how can you harm others like this?!”

“He wanted to inject me with that drug first,” Mu Huan said.

“Did he inject it into you? No, right? And you, despite knowing what kind of drug it was, actually injected it into him!”

“That’s because I was stronger than him. That’s why he didn’t succeed in injecting me!” If she hadn’t been able move, she would have been the one destroyed now!

“Yes, he was in the wrong first. But aren’t you stronger than him? In that case, once you could control him, why couldn’t you have given him a chance? Why destroy him like this!”

“You were already safe. There was no point in destroying him, but you destroyed him like that! As a doctor, how can you be so vicious?!”

“That’s right, how can you be so vicious?!” She actually destroyed a genius like that!

Mu Huan couldn’t help but laugh out loud when she saw how indignant they were about her being vicious. They were all so relaxed! They said nothing about how she could have been destroyed!

She should have forgiven that person for not killing her!

She should have tried forgiving him!

“What are you laughing at? How dare you laugh after doing such a thing?!” Was she a demon? How could she still laugh?!

“That’s right! How can you still have the cheek to laugh?! You’re simply crazy!”

The remaining few people who did not speak also felt that Mu Huan was a little crazy. After all, John was one of the top few people in the psychology world. Now that she had turned him into a fool, this was really...

“I’m crazy?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Chapter 1317: Talk Is Easy (4)

“If you’re not crazy, then what are you? You were already fine, but you still destroyed John like that! You made him go from being a genius to being someone who’s worse than an ordinary person. You’ve ruined so many improvements in psychology!”

Mu Huan was greatly accused of this crime. People always liked to stand on the moral high ground and criticize others.

“Yes! You’re already fine!” She was stronger than John and could control him. It would have been fine even if she had beaten him up and crippled him, but how could she inject such a drug into someone so viciously?!

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Yes, she was fine. If she was fine, could she not return a tooth for a tooth?

Ha...

She wasn’t a saint!

Mu Huan thought so, but she did not say anything. She only gave Lu Zichen a look. Lu Zichen immediately picked up a small syringe. Then, he accidentally bumped into the person who was the most aggressive among the group. The needle in his hand pierced right into the other party.

The other party immediately felt the pain. Then, he looked over at the source of the pain and saw the needle that had been pierced.

“Sorry! Sorry!” Lu Zichen immediately apologized!

His anxious apology made one instinctively feel that something was amiss.

Indeed, in the next second, Lu Zichen said, “There’s an AZ virus on this needle...”

His words made the expressions of everyone around him change. The one who was pricked turned pale!

Although Lu Zichen had won an award because he had developed a drug that could effectively suppress the AZ virus, there was still no way to completely cure AZ disease. That drug could only effectively suppress the development of the disease and reduce the patient’s pain.

Now, everyone’s expression changed when they talked about AZ.

This kind of needle with a virus, this...

There was a 90% chance that the victim would get AZ.

The blonde man’s face turned pale for a while before he snapped back to his senses. He grabbed Lu Zichen’s collar and said, “Damn bastard! I’m going to kill you!”

What was he going to do in the future when everyone found out about his illness?!

“Mr. Mason, calm down. Mr. Lu didn’t do it on purpose!” Mu Huan hurriedly reached out to stop him.

“So what if it wasn’t intentional?!” He deserved to die for giving him such a disease!

“Didn’t Mr. Mason say just now that people should be magnanimous when they make mistakes? Especially since Mr. Lu didn’t do it on purpose.

“Besides, it’s meaningless even if you killed Mr. Lu now. Why do you have to do this?” Mu Huan used his own words to stop him.

“I...” Mason was exasperated.

Mu Huan added, "Also, Mr. Lu is an authority in this area. If you beat him to death, there's no hope for you to recover from your illness in the future."

"You...!" After a long pause, Mason said, "Was it you?! Did you order him to do this on purpose?!"

"What are you saying? Why would I let him do this on purpose? This was purely an accident!"

"Damn it! Damn you all!" No matter how Mason looked at Mu Huan, he felt that there was something wrong with her. No matter how he looked at it, it didn't seem like an accident.

Hence, he was so angry that he wanted to rush forward and kill Mu Huan.

Mu Huan easily dodged his attack. This made Mason grow even angrier. Six to seven people could not stop him as he tried his best to take Mu Huan's life.

However, just as he was about to dash forward to hit Mu Huan, he was kicked down by her.

He wanted to get up, but he was in so much pain that he could not get up. At this moment, Mu Huan walked up to him and said condescendingly:

"It's not even certain if you'll get sick. This was just an accident. This has nothing to do with me. You think you can take my life just because you think it's me. What did you say to me just now? I'm evil? I'm crazy? If I'm evil and crazy, what do you call this?"

Chapter 1318: Talk Is Easy (5)

When something did not happen to anyone, they could stand on the moral high ground and talk about others. Only once things have happened to them would they know that some things were unforgivable!

Mason's face instantly turned green, red, and white. But after the embarrassment, he was even more sure that it wasn't an accident that he had been pricked. Mu Huan had done it on purpose!

He pointed at Mu Huan angrily and said, "You vicious woman. It's only that I can't stand your vicious ways, so you ordered him to do this! You'll go to hell!"

"Do you have evidence to prove that I asked him to do this?"

"It must be you!" Did he need evidence? She must have been so angry that she made Lu Zichen do this!

"Don't spout nonsense without evidence," Mu Huan said coldly.

However, although she said that, the way she looked at Mason was very obvious. So what if I asked someone to do it on purpose?

"Look at her! Look at her eyes! It's her! She's the one who made Lu Zichen do this on purpose!" Mason shouted angrily at Mu Huan's gaze. Then, he looked at the people around him and said, "She dared to do such a vicious thing in public and even refused to admit it so arrogantly. It's obvious how vicious she is! She deserves to die!"

Although no one had any evidence, looking at the situation, they felt that Mu Huan had deliberately gotten Lu Zichen to do that. After all, Lu Zichen was from Mu Huan's research laboratory. It was impossible for him to have acted alone. He could not stand steadily and be careless, especially at such a time.

Also, Mu Huan's gaze and expression were indeed too obvious!

So what if I did this? Too arrogant!

Her behavior was too vicious!

This made the people who were originally watching the gossip gather around Mu Huan.

"She's so vicious that she dares to harm people so openly! I don't think she's fit to be a member of the International Medical Organization!"

"Not only is she not worthy, but she also has to pay the legal price!"

"That's right!"

Mu Huan swept a glance at everyone and raised an eyebrow. She did not speak and only smiled sarcastically.

Just then, Lu Zichen's assistant squeezed in. "Mr. Lu, I'm sorry. I took the wrong specimen for you just now. The needle I gave you didn't have the AZ virus on it. This is why..."

To put it simply, the needle that Lu Zichen had poked into Mason's body did not contain the AZ virus, so Mason would not have gotten an AZ.

When Mason heard this, he, who was about to stand up, instantly fell down again. He suddenly heaved a sigh of relief, and his legs went weak as he fell.

Those who had surrounded Mu Huan and said that Mu Huan was vicious and wanted Mu Huan to pay the legal price instantly didn't know what to say.

There was an awkward silence.

At first, Mason did not know what to say. However, he quickly understood that Mu Huan was playing with him on purpose! "You're playing with me on purpose, aren't you?!"

Mu Huan smiled and did not speak. However, her attitude clearly said, "That's right. I'm playing with you on purpose. What do you think?"

Those who could attend this meeting were all people with status. Naturally, Mason was the same. He, who had been in the limelight since he was young, had never suffered such humiliation! "I'm telling you, Mu Huan, you're finished!"

The International Medical Organization was their territory. She was an Asian, and he wouldn't even take a fancy to her even if she tried to please him. Yet she still dared to play with and humiliate him! He wanted her to have nowhere to go in the medical world!

Chapter 1319: Talk Is Easy (6)

"When someone maliciously tried to inject me with such a drug, you said that I shouldn't have retaliated. You said that I was vicious for doing so. And now, when you haven't even confirmed that you're fine or not, you already felt that I deliberately got someone harm you. It's fine if you wanted to kill me then, but now that you're fine, you still want me to be finished. A person like you still has the cheek to say that I'm evil. What kind of face do you have? Are you born with thicker skin than others or are you born with more face?" Mu Huan mocked.

"You...!"

"Do you see how when it comes to you, others deserve to die, but when it comes to others, others deserve to suffer? Do you know how disgusting it is to be a double standard dog who shouldn't retaliate?"

"If you want to be a saint, you have to be a true one!"

Mu Huan snorted and turned to leave.

When the people surrounding her saw her walking over, they involuntarily made way for her.

Although Mu Huan was very arrogant, through this matter, they felt that she was right.

Thinking about it from another perspective, if someone wanted to destroy them, they would definitely want to destroy the other party as well! Don't say that she shouldn't have done anything if she turned out fine. It was only because she was stronger than John that she was fine. What if she was weak? Then the person who would have become an idiot was her! She had no grievances with John, yet he went to destroy her. And she went to destroy John because he tried to destroy her. This...

She was indeed vicious!

Only God could unconditionally forgive someone who did bad things. Not to mention Mu Huan, no one else could do it.

Those who had come to find trouble with Mu Huan and wanted to seek justice for John now felt that they were in no position to seek justice from Mu Huan. This was because, in terms of viciousness, John was even more vicious than others. He was the first to have evil intentions. He had only himself to blame.

Just as Mu Huan was about to get through this crisis, a man standing in a hidden corner quietly disappeared from the scene. He went to a quiet corner and sent a message.

Mu Huan was fine.

When Mr. Liu, who was working, saw this message, he slammed the table lightly.

This Mu Huan was really capable. He had found a group of people to cause trouble for her and wanted half of the medical world to gang up on her, making her so busy that she wouldn't have the time to pay attention to him. However, she had resolved it so easily.

Seriously...

When he heard a knock on the door, he immediately put away his phone. "Come in."

Liu Changfeng pushed open the door and entered. "Dad."

“Why are you here at this time?” Mr. Liu looked at him.

“Dad, let me do whatever you need me to do,” Liu Changfeng said.

Mr. Liu raised his eyebrows. “Have you completely thought it through?”

“Yes.” Mr. Liu did not hide anything from Liu Changfeng. He also wanted Liu Changfeng to do this with him. However, because of his feelings for Mu Huan, Liu Changfeng had not agreed to his father’s actions. He had even wanted a chance to be with Mu Huan.

Now, he knew that it was impossible between him and Mu Huan.

He wanted her to regret it.

Regret not choosing him! If he couldn’t get her, then he’d destroy her!

“Good son!” Mr. Liu stood up and patted him on the shoulder. “We father and son are now united in striking gold!”

“Yes.”

The early summer breeze was like the caress of a lover. It was so comfortable that one couldn’t help but close their eyes to enjoy it.

Mu Huan liked spring the most, followed by early summer. It was a time that was neither cold nor hot.

After dinner, she strolled into a world of roses. This place was so beautiful that she couldn’t help but feel that it was a pity that her husband wasn’t by her side.

Chapter 1320: Talk Is Easy (7)

Now that she had someone she loved, she wanted to eat delicacies and look at beautiful scenery with him. She wanted her husband to be by her side and admire this beautiful scenery with her.

However, although he wasn’t by her side, they could still enjoy the beautiful scenery together.

She took out her phone and called Bo Junyan.

As soon as she dialed, Bo Junyan picked up.

“Hubby, why did you pick up so quickly? Aren’t you busy?”

“I’m busy.”

“So why did you pick up so quickly?!”

“I was busy thinking about you, so I couldn’t wait.”

When Mu Huan heard his words, her eyes widened in shock. “Oh my god! Is this still my husband? He actually knows how to say sweet nothings!”

And they were even so romantic!

"I am your husband."

Mu Huan: "..."

She was starting to suspect that this was a fake husband. Her husband had always been cold and aloof. When he could just say yes, he would definitely not say another word. Now, he could even speak like this!

"What's wrong?"

"It feels like you're an imitation!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Didn't they say that women liked to hear sweet talk? Why did his sweet talk turn him into an imitation...

"Hubby, look! Isn't this place beautiful?!" Mu Huan pointed the camera at the sea of flowers.

"Not good. Not as good as you," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

No wonder women liked to hear sweet nothings. These sweet nothings were really nice by themselves, but they become as sweet as honey in their hearts!

"Hubby, I really want to hug you!" The more she thought about it, the more mushy Mu Huan felt. She really wanted her husband to be right in front of her right now, letting her hug and kiss him.

"Hug me if you want."

"How?" Mu Huan pouted. He wasn't here!

"Turn around and give me a hug." The tall man came up behind Mu Huan.

When Mu Huan heard the voice that was almost right above her head, she was stunned for a moment before turning around in disbelief. "Hubby, why are you here?!"

"I came over after I was done with work." After being separated for so long, he was unwilling to be separated from her again. Even if it was for a short period of time, he was also unwilling. If there was something he had to do, he would fly to her side once he was done.

Mu Huan smiled widely and threw herself at him. "Hubby, I love you!"

Bo Junyan hugged her tightly. "Love you."

Previously, he'd felt that Mu Huan's professions of love for her husband were a mantra without any sincerity. Now, he no longer felt that way and even learned to respond to her.

Country F...

"How is it?" Ling Wei looked at the man who had returned and now wanted to know how his plan went.

"It didn't go well," the man said with a frown.

“What’s going on? Sen Tai’s whereabouts are unknown now. Shouldn’t the leader hand over all the work that belongs to Sen Tai to you?” Ling Wei asked in confusion.

“He has been handed over to Lin Tai.”

“Why? You’re the leader’s brother too!”

“I’m from a different mother. I’m different from his biological brother, Sen Tai. He’d rather give his authority to a relative than to me,” the man mocked.

“Then what do we do now?” She had originally thought that after he succeeded, she wouldn’t have to be with Sen Tai and wouldn’t have to live such a disgusting life. Now, looking at the situation, it was probably... hopeless.

After a moment of silence, the man said, “I’ll inject a drug into Sen Tai. This will make him listen to you. We’ll manipulate him from behind the scenes. After we get his power, we’ll...”

His ultimate goal was to kill the leader and become the one standing at the highest point.
