

Fake Marriage 1321

Chapter 1321: Talk Is Easy (8)

"If there's such a drug, why didn't you take it out earlier? Why did I have to be so careful to please him?!" Ling Wei said angrily.

"Before, this drug hasn't been developed yet. It's just been developed," the man said.

Ling Wei thought that there was no need for him to lie to her. Besides, if he'd had such a drug long ago, he would have been even more anxious to use it than she was. This was because she knew how much he wanted to stand at the top and wash away the humiliation he had suffered since he was young.

"Then inject him and find a reasonable opportunity to let me be found out with him." Although things didn't go the way she wanted them to, it wasn't a bad thing to get Sen Tai to listen to whatever she said from now on.

"It's been hard on you." The man reached out and pulled her into his embrace.

"As long as it's successful, it's not hard to do anything."

"After we succeed, I'll give you whatever you want!" the man swore.

"As long as you don't kill the donkey after it has done the plowing, that's fine. I don't ask for much, and you should know that." After experiencing so many things, Ling Wei no longer thought so beautifully when she thought about things. She wanted him to know that things in this world were not something he could easily control, especially since she had given herself to Sen Tai for him. This way, there would be no possibility between her and him in the future.

Even if he was willing to have her, he would be asking her to be his secret lover. She, Ling Wei, didn't want to live such an unbearable life anymore!

She didn't need a man in her future life! She only wanted a career!

She had sacrificed so much and done so much for him. She only wanted him to give her the career she wanted after he succeeded! She only wanted money and power!

"You're really too smart and sensible. Don't worry, I'll definitely give you the future you want!" The man was really satisfied with Ling Wei. A person like her, who was smart, scheming, knew when to retreat, and had beautiful means, was too useful.

He had not misjudged her!

"I believe you." Ling Wei looked up and kissed him.

Since she had already fallen into a quagmire and was already in such an unbearable situation, so what if things became even more unbearable?

Her pride had long been broken. Now, she needed to use all means to climb up!

When she thought that Mu Huan was the one who had caused her to end up like this, Ling Wei's gaze turned frighteningly vicious!

After the kiss.

"By the way, we have to get rid of Mu Huan and Bo Junyan first! Otherwise, once news of Sen Tai and me getting rescued is released, the two of them will definitely think of a way to take revenge! This will ruin your plan." Ling Wei knew that if she asked the man to deal with Bo Junyan and Mu Huan because of her, he wouldn't go.

Just like last time, when she said that, he wanted her to wait.

Hence, even if it wasn't for her sake, he still had to deal with Mu Huan for his plan.

When the man heard this, he frowned. It was indeed as she had said. Mu Huan and Bo Junyan had almost been killed by Ling Wei. Once they got the news that she was still alive, they would definitely not let her off! This would naturally affect his plan. Now, it was obvious that he didn't have the time to operate on another woman and turn them into Ling Wei. Hence, he could only protect Ling Wei and had to deal with Bo Junyan and the rest.

However, if the two of them did not die under such circumstances, it was going to be too difficult to deal with them.

At the thought of this, he suddenly felt a little frustrated. If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have let Ling Wei deal with Mu Huan, causing her identity to be exposed!

But now, it was useless even if he regretted it.

After a moment of silence, he said, "The Liu father and son have been very active recently. The effect of their actions is not bad.. The two of them can still be used."

Chapter 1322: Joint Siege (1)

Ling Wei nodded. "Yes, that Mr. Liu is a good person."

Mr. Liu was scheming and ruthless. He had connections as well. Country Y was not Bo Junyan's territory. There was a chance of winning if he was used to deal with Bo Junyan and the rest.

"This time, we have to discuss a foolproof plan. We have to ensure the success rate before we take action."

"Yes."

In the Imperial Capital...

"Dingjing, what kind of person is Mu Huan? Why did she divorce Junyan previously? Is there something wrong with her? If there's something wrong with her, should we let them remarry like this? Is it..." Meng Yueman became a little worried after her initial happiness.

People were like this. They felt that there was no time when they especially desired something. After they had it, they would think about other things. For example, when Meng Yueman's son was not yet married or did not yet have children, she yearned for it. No matter what, as long as the other party was a woman and could give birth to her son's biological child, it would be fine.

Now, her son had said that he wanted her to have a grandson at the end of the year. After she was happy, she couldn't help but think about what kind of person this wife was and why she had separated from her son previously.

After being hypnotized, Meng Yueman had no memory of Mu Huan. She only knew that this was her former daughter-in-law.

After Meng Yueman said this, she felt a little upset. "Tell me, why did I forget about this daughter-in-law when I remember everything else well?"

Bo Dingjing looked at Meng Yueman silently for a while. "Wifey, to be honest, you didn't lose your memory and forget Junyan's marriage. You were hypnotized into forgetting."

"What?" Meng Yueman was stunned. She... she was hypnotized?

"Back then..." Bo Dingjing felt that there was no need for Mu Huan to hide her past from Meng Yueman, so he told her the truth.

Otherwise, since she was so unfamiliar with Mu Huan, she would have to nurture her feelings again. If she felt that there must be something wrong with Mu Huan for divorcing her son previously, this would only cause more trouble. After she learned the truth, she would no longer need to nurture her feelings. Furthermore, she owed Mu Huan in her heart. It would make her treat Mu Huan better. This way, the relationship between the mother and daughter-in-law would be good. In the future, their family would be more harmonious.

After Meng Yueman heard what he said, she was stunned for a while.

"Xiao Huan has never done anything wrong. It's all our fault. We owe her too much. She's an especially good daughter-in-law. It's our great fortune that she can continue to be with Junyan. From now on, we have to treat her like our own daughter," Bo Dingjing said as he held her hand.

Meng Yueman, who had suddenly realized this fact, was still in a daze. After being in a daze for a while, she said, "I want to regain my memory!"

When she heard him say such things, she couldn't put herself in his shoes to think about it. She wanted to remember everything from the past!

"I'll arrange for someone."

"Yes."

Previously, when Meng Yueman heard Bo Junyan say that they would give birth to a grandson for her by the end of the year, she was so excited that Bo Junyan had to bring Mu Huan home first no matter how busy he was.

Hence, after the medical conference, Mu Huan returned to the Imperial Capital with Bo Junyan.

She did not feel anything when she was far away. When she returned to the country and returned to this familiar place, Mu Huan's heart involuntarily tightened.

It had clearly been more than three years since she'd lost her granny and her father, but when she thought about that pain, it felt like it had just happened yesterday.. It hurt so much that she couldn't breathe.

Chapter 1323: Joint Siege (2)

"What's wrong?" Sensing the change in her mood, Bo Junyan lowered his head in concern.

Mu Huan raised her head and smiled. "Nothing."

Bo Junyan's eyes darkened, but he did not say anything. He only reached out to hold her hand.

"Hubby, I'm really fine! It's just that I can't control my emotions when I think about some things, but I'm fine." Mu Huan looked up at him, her eyes filled with love.

There were many times when one had to let go of something after choosing another thing. When one couldn't let go of both, one had to choose what one couldn't let go of the most and make such a choice. No matter how much one couldn't let go, one had to suppress it!

She suppressed it to the deepest part of her heart and refused to think about it. Even if it hurt sometimes, she would just let it hurt.

Bo Junyan's eyes were dark with pain, depression, and self-reproach. He didn't know how to comfort her and how to take her pain away.

Seeing this, Mu Huan reached out to hold his face. "Hubby, I'll slowly let go. For the rest of my life, I only want to be with you. Nothing else is more important than you!"

It wasn't his fault that such a thing had happened. He shouldn't be blaming himself, and he shouldn't have been punished and made unhappy.

Bo Junyan did not speak and only hugged him tightly.

"Hubby, I'm really fine. Don't think too much. From now on, we'll live the happiest days in this world together!" Mu Huan patted his back lightly.

She was clearly the one who was hurt and in pain, but she was the one comforting him.

This made Bo Junyan, who was already not good with words, unable to express his overflowing feelings. He could only say, "Love you, Wifey. Love you!"

These words, which were like a mantra, became the words with which he could express his feelings the most.

"Love you, Hubby!"

PA Wang, who was standing not far away, watched the two of them being so loving.

He felt that he should go home immediately.

When Bo Junyan and Mu Huan reached home, Meng Yueman had already regained her memory.

Previously, when she had lost her memory, Bo Dingjing had told her that Mu Huan had done nothing wrong. They were the ones who were in the wrong. In the future, they should make it up to her and treat Mu Huan like their biological daughter. She had still been thinking before, how could Mu Huan not have done anything wrong? After all, with many things, it takes two to tango. This was especially so since Meng Yueman's father wasn't someone who was unreasonable and willful. He wouldn't have done such a thing just because he didn't want the two of them to be together.

It was precisely because she had had such a thought that she didn't have any memories or feelings from the past. That was why she wanted to regain her memory so that she wouldn't do anything wrong. When she regained her memory and recalled everything from the past, she deeply felt that Bo Dingjing was right!

They owed Mu Huan too much. She had endured and sacrificed too much.

Given her son's deep feelings for her, if Mu Huan couldn't let go of that hatred, her son would probably go crazy...

From now on, she would be a daughter-in-law who was closer to her than her own son. She had to treat her better than her own son!

"Xiao Huan..." She stood up and walked toward Mu Huan.

Their eyes met. Mu Huan knew that her mother-in-law had recalled something from the past.

"Xiao Huan..." Meng Yueman grabbed Mu Huan's hand and wanted to say something, but she didn't know what to say.

"Mom, do you have food? I'm hungry..." Mu Huan smiled.

Meng Yueman looked at her smiling face and her eyes instantly reddened. She quickly said, "Yes... Yes! I got someone to make your favorite dishes!"

Chapter 1324: Joint Siege (3)

"Let's go eat, then." Mu Huan held her arm.

"Alright." Meng Yueman's voice was a little choked.

The two of them walked toward the dining room.

Bo Dingjing looked at Bo Junyan. "Junyan, you can't do anything to let Xiao Huan down in this lifetime, not even a little. Otherwise, I'll be the first person to not let you off!"

She was such a good daughter-in-law that even his own son must not let her down!

Bo Junyan: "..."

Why would he do anything to let his wife down?! He would do everything he could to dote on her!

Mu Huan had always been a talkative person. Although she had not spoken to her in-laws for more than three years and they hadn't eaten together in all that time, she had made the atmosphere so lively that it was as if they had never separated and those things had never happened.

If Old Master Meng had not done such a thing, their happiness would have been purer and would not have been mixed with such pain.

Although Mu Huan had replied that way to Liu Changfeng back then, Liu Changfeng's words had affected her to a certain extent.

People were like this.

Sometimes, even though she knew that people were up to no good and that she shouldn't think this way, she still couldn't help but feel the pain that she shouldn't.

It was just that she had been hiding it well.

Such pain, such injuries, and such guilt all needed time to fade and recover. She didn't know when she could completely let go, but just like what she had told Bo Junyan, she would slowly let go.

Just as Mu Huan and the Bo family were having a happy reunion...

The Liu father and son were also in full swing.

Not only did they want to empty Rui Hui, but they also wanted to destroy Mu Huan. This was because only by destroying her would she not be able to take revenge on them after finding out the truth.

A week later...

Many authoritative professors in the NST research laboratory had jointly reported to the most famous Shell Award committee in the medical world that Mu Huan had forcefully taken their research results. They requested the panel to cancel the award that Mu Huan had won.

They said that they had jointly developed the life-extension medicine. Initially, they had agreed that it would be signed by NST and that the credit would belong to everyone. However, because Mu Huan was the successor of Rui Hui, Rui Hui wanted to push Mu Huan out into the industry. Hence, Rui Hui had deceived them and made them give up their signatures and give this research and development lead to Mu Huan, making everyone think that she had developed it alone.

Later on, after Mu Huan became famous in one fell swoop, not only did she not fulfill the promises she had made to them back then, but she had also been persecuting them, wanting them to disappear from the pharmaceutical world. This way, she would be able to monopolize the honor brought by this achievement for the rest of her life!

With so many authoritative and well-known researchers reporting Mu Huan together, the entire pharmaceutical industry was shocked!

"I knew it. Mu Huan is so young. How could she have developed a life-extension drug in just three years?! You have to know that this drug had been researched by humans for thousands of years without it ever being developed! But she had developed it in three years. No matter how talented she is, she can't be so talented!"

“That’s right! That’s right! This drug must have been jointly developed by so many well-known experts. It must have taken decades to develop!”

“Back then, when it was revealed that it was her, I’d felt that it was impossible. She was so young, so it was impossible for her to have developed such a drug! Indeed...!” The person who spoke had a look on his face that said, It’s obvious how accurate my feeling was from back then!

Chapter 1325: Joint Siege (4)

“I’ve long heard that Mu Huan’s character isn’t good. Previously, not only did she destroy the famous psychological specialist, John, but she also played with the well-known surgical specialist, Mason, in public. Now, such a thing has been exposed. It looks like her character is really bad!”

“From the looks of it, her persona might have been hyped up by Rui Hui. Actually, she doesn’t know anything!”

“That’s very possible! There are too many fake geniuses in this world!”

These were the voices of professionals in the pharmaceutical industry. The evaluations of these professionals were still polite.

In the developed West, there were already people who looked down on the Orient. Once this matter was exposed, there would be overwhelming media news and the entire country would be ridiculed. That would be terrible!

The netizens’ evaluation of Mu Huan was also extremely difficult to hear. They all said that she had lost face overseas. If they were her, they would have long found a place to end their own lives and not embarrass their compatriots.

This early summer was burning hot! All of them were scolding Mu Huan!

No one wanted to verify anything. Just because of this piece of news, they were convinced that Mu Huan had taken over someone else’s achievements.

This was because she was too young and too outstanding. Most people would be jealous if they saw her like this. They wished that she could fall from the sky and into a mud pit. Then she would be worse off than them!

In this world, the most terrifying thing was jealousy. Hence, people often said that the human heart was scarier than a ghost.

In the Imperial Capital...

Mu Huan looked at the beautiful scenery outside the window and suddenly sighed. “Hubby, why do you think people are so lacking?”

Although the Liu father and son had indeed sacrificed a lot for Rui Hui, Rui Hui did not belong to them. Back then, it was Mr. Liu who had forced her great-grandfather to make such a will. She had ignored the past and gave him so many shares, making him the second-largest shareholder of Rui Hui. She had wanted to win with him.

But he...

Every step he took was worse than the last.

Didn't he know that a man's heart is insatiable?

"Some people's hearts are like bottomless pits. No matter how much you give him, he feels that it's not enough. He feels that the entire world should be his." Bo Junyan stepped forward and reached out to pull her into his embrace.

"Sigh..." Mu Huan sighed. "Now, the rumors are saying that I'm a peerless bad person..."

"Don't be sad..." Bo Junyan moved to comfort her.

But the corners of Mu Huan's lips curved up slightly as she smiled sinisterly. "Since that's the case, then I'll let them see how evil I am! They didn't say that about me in vain!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

"I'm the first person in history to be scolded by so many people!" Mu Huan said proudly.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Hubby, do you think I'm awesome or not?!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Why aren't you saying anything? You should praise me for being awesome! Praise me for being awesome!" Just a while ago, he was so good at talking, but now, he was silent again!

"You're the best..."

This situation could even become her capital for narcissism.

Really!

"Of course!" Mu Huan became even more proud after receiving the praise.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Just then, Mu Huan's secretary called.

"CEO Mu, it's bad. We've received a lot of complaints for breach of contract..." The secretary was so anxious that he felt like he was about to explode.

Usually, things were fine, but the more critical things became, the more problems there were!

"Don't worry," Mu Huan said.

"CEO Mu, it's not just these contracts. There's also..." If it were just the contracts, he wouldn't be like this. The most important thing was...

Chapter 1326: It's Great to Have a Hubby (1)

After hearing the secretary's words, Mu Huan frowned slightly.

She knew that Mr. Liu had secretly transferred and emptied Rui Hui's assets. She also had other plans, but she hadn't known about these things that didn't conform to the rules at all. Naturally, she wasn't prepared.

These investigations were indeed a big problem. If this continued, Rui Hui might go bankrupt.

"CEO Mu, what do we do now?" The secretary felt that there was nothing she could do now.

"You first..." After a moment of silence, Mu Huan arranged for him to do something first. "I'll fly over later. I'll be there tonight."

"Alright, CEO Mu."

After hanging up, Mu Huan frowned and said, "I completely missed all these problems. I didn't expect that if this goes on, Rui Hui will probably go bankrupt..."

In the end, she had underestimated Mr. Liu's ruthlessness. Previously, she'd thought that Mr. Liu had always been the one managing Rui Hui. If anything happened to Rui Hui, he would not be able to escape responsibility. Hence, not only did she not have the time to investigate, but she also did not think in this direction.

She didn't expect him to destroy her even if it meant breaking his own limbs!

Mu Huan was still a newbie in the business world. Even though she had done very well under Bo Junyan's guidance, there were still times when she made mistakes.

"I've already gotten someone to prepare things. Nothing will happen." Bo Junyan smiled and caressed her head.

Mu Huan hadn't been prepared. She hadn't known about those practices that didn't conform to the rules, but Bo Junyan, this old fox in the business world, had long been prepared.

Having been in the business world for so many years, while Mu Huan was bent on winning against the Liu family, he had already expected that Mr. Liu would take this step in the future. Hence, he had long been preparing.

"What?" Mu Huan was stunned. Then, she said, "Hubby, why would you be prepared? I didn't even have the time to find out about these unconventional things!"

How did her husband know?!

"When I found out that you were going to inherit Rui Hui, I got someone to investigate these hidden dangers," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

So early? How did he think of this?

"It's just like how it's easy to go from being frugal to being extravagant but it's difficult to go from being extravagant to being frugal, a person who has climbed up to a high position would not be able to come down and be put in a lower position. Furthermore, he has always treated Rui Hui as his. This is a case where he won't be satisfied with anything no matter how much you give him. If he's not satisfied, he'll definitely do something. If he does it, he'll naturally be afraid that you'll take revenge. This way, he'll have to go all out and destroy it directly." This was a business habit.

"Hubby, you're really thoughtful and far-sighted!" Mu Huan said with admiration.

"You're just young and don't see much." Although the time of their separation had been years, she was still a young lady in her early twenties. Although she was smart, she had too little experience in the human world. Whenever she thought about things, she would always want to get along with others and make money. If she really couldn't take it anymore, she would deal with them.

However, sometimes, if one really couldn't take it anymore after the other party had gone overboard again and again, it would be too late to deal with them by then. One had to plan and prepare earlier.

Mu Huan threw herself into his embrace and hugged his neck happily. "Hubby, I love you!"

Such a worrisome matter was resolved without any effort. It was really great to have a hubby!

"Hubby, did I ever say that I'd leave Rui Hui to you to manage?"

"Yes."

"Then, after we get through this difficulty together, I'll leave Rui Hui to you. I'll relax my body and mind and go play. Then, we can prepare for pregnancy!" Once pregnant, there would be many things that couldn't be eaten, drank, or played.

Chapter 1327: It's Great to Have a Hubby (2)

She wanted to be chill and carefree before she got pregnant!

"Alright." All along, Bo Junyan had wanted her to live happily under his wings.

Mu Huan was about to kiss him when she suddenly thought of something. "This way, I won't be able to carry a grandchild by the end of the year..."

"Even if you don't play, you won't be able to carry them before the end of the year." It was already summer.

Mu Huan: "..."

That's true...

"Sigh, I'm this age and still this stupid. I even calculated such a simple timing wrongly." Even if she didn't play around and was already pregnant now, she wouldn't be able to give birth by the end of the year. Yet she actually said that she wanted her mother-in-law to carry a grandchild by the end of the year! She must be stupid!

Bo Junyan: "..."

This age?

"Being twenty-something is different from being 18 or 19." Perhaps because she had experienced too many things in the past three years, Mu Huan recalled her life in school. It felt like a lifetime had passed.

Actually, she was supposed to be in her fourth year and still a university student, but she had already become so old.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Sigh, time really flies," Mu Huan said with a sigh.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Mu Huan looked up at him and asked, "Hubby, why aren't you saying anything?"

"I don't know what to say. After all, I'm ten years older than you." She was already lamenting her age. How much more would she lament that he was old...?

Mu Huan couldn't help but reach out to hold his face. "My husband is so handsome that I often forget that you're an uncle!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

Uncle...

"Let's go pack up and tell Mom that we're going to Country Y." Mu Huan looked at her watch. It was time for them to set off for Country Y.

"Okay."

Meng Yueman naturally knew that Mu Huan had been made into a big deal by someone who had jointly reported her for stealing the fruits of others' labor. Now that she heard that they were in such a hurry to go to Country Y, she instinctively guessed that something had happened to Rui Hui.

Hence, she asked with concern, "Xiao Huan, do you have a plan?"

"Yes, Junyan has already prepared a countermeasure. He'll go over and take command. We'll be back soon," Mu Huan said.

When Meng Yueman heard this, she felt relieved. If her son was prepared, it would be the other party who'd suffer a tragic death. "Don't be in a hurry to come back. Don't be in a hurry. You'd be too tired."

"Okay."

"Also, I heard that those professors have posted that the research data you had during the research was used to prove that the life-extension drug was developed by you guys together. This..." Meng Yueman believed that this drug was definitely developed by her daughter-in-law. However, she had developed it in NST. Furthermore, it was impossible for her to have completed such a research project alone. Hence, the people who had researched the data with her as her assistants definitely knew that if those close to her who knew all the data were on the opposing side, it would be difficult for her to prove her innocence.

"Mom, don't worry. I was prepared for this." Mu Huan had long thought of this. Hence, she was prepared.

"I'm relieved. You guys go ahead!" Meng Yuelan knew that her son and daughter-in-law were capable. They were prepared and confident, so she didn't have to worry.

"Yes."

Country Y...

After Liu Changfeng poured a cup of tea for his father, he sat down and asked, "Dad, how do you think Mu Huan will retaliate under such circumstances?"

"I don't know."

Liu Changfeng was stunned. "You don't know?"

How could his father not know?

Chapter 1328: It's Great to Have a Hubby (3)

"I can't think of a way for Mu Huan to escape safely under such a situation where the evidence is conclusive. She can't even retaliate against us, especially when it comes to the matter of the professors jointly reporting her for forcefully taking the experiment results. This is something that can't be solved at all. No matter what she says now, others will think that she's taken it by force. She won't be able to resolve this matter at all! However, I feel that with her and Bo Junyan's capabilities, they'll definitely be able to retaliate. It's unlikely that we can completely destroy her."

Because these two possibilities were completely opposite, he felt that it was possible. Hence, for a moment, he didn't know how they would counterattack.

"I think she can resolve the matter of the professors jointly reporting her for forcefully taking credit for the life-extension medicine. This is because everyone knows all the experimental data of this medicine in the early stages. However, only she herself knows the secret formula that she added in the later stages. If she asks the professors to take this out and confront them, the professors won't be able to show anything. This..." It would be awkward.

Back then, Liu Changfeng did not agree with his father to get someone to do this because the most important secret formula for the life-extension pill was in Mu Huan's hands. This was the most direct evidence that she had developed the life-extension pill. No one could steal her honor.

"The most important secret prescription is in her hands. The professors can't hand it over. That's why I asked them to say that this life-extension drug was developed by everyone. Mu Huan is in it too!"

"Everyone knows how to hide something. Hence, isn't it normal that the professors don't know that she hid the most critical secret formula?"

Liu Changfeng: "..."

That made sense.

"You don't have to think about these useless things. Don't worry about how she'll retaliate. You just have to continue with what you're doing," Mr. Liu said.

Since he couldn't think of how she would counterattack, he didn't have to think about it. He just had to deal with whatever came his way.

"How can you say that it's useless? Let's discuss how she might retaliate so we'd be prepared," Liu Changfeng retorted. He didn't like his father ordering him around. It was as if he didn't know anything and was just a puppet who listened to orders.

His retort made Mr. Liu frown, but he didn't say anything.

Liu Changfeng did not continue this topic. He changed the topic and said, "Dad, what did Country F say?"

It was only after he had completely decided to make Mu Huan regret her choice that he found out that his father was collaborating with a big shot in Country F to destroy Bo Junyan and Mu Huan. After all, destroying Mu Huan alone would not do.

"We're still discussing the plan."

"Dad, if the plan succeeds in the end, I think..." Although Liu Changfeng was so ruthless that he wanted to destroy it if he couldn't get it, he still wanted the chance to get it.

For example, say they had destroyed Mu Huan and Bo Junyan to the point of no return. If he had the chance to have Mu Huan, he still wanted to have her and let her be well.

"We'll talk about this after the matter is settled." Although he didn't say it out loud, Mr. Liu knew what he meant.

However, he felt that this was impossible. If someone like Mu Huan were to be destroyed, she had to be killed. Otherwise, she would counterattack and kill them the moment she had the chance.

His son would never have her.

"How can we wait until the matter is settled? This isn't our family's plan, it's the plan of the people from Country F. What if they plotted and caused Xiao Huan's death?"

Chapter 1329: It's Great to Have a Hubby (4)

Liu Changfeng felt that this matter had to be discussed beforehand.

"Don't think too much. It's still uncertain whether we can kill Mu Huan or if Mu Huan will kill us. It's useless to think too far ahead."

Liu Changfeng: "..."

"Mu Huan and Bo Junyan are not easy to deal with. You'd better focus on how to deal with them now!" Mr. Liu reached out and patted his shoulder.

After a moment of silence, Liu Changfeng said, "I heard that Xiao Huan will be back tonight. If she returns at this time, she should be taking action tonight."

"Yes. Let's see what she'll do first," Mr. Liu said.

Bo Junyan and Mu Huan were in a hurry. When they arrived in Country Y, the lights were just turning on.

After getting off the plane, Mu Huan simply washed up and changed into a gown before being brought to a banquet by Bo Junyan.

The host of this banquet was the highest-ranking person in charge of Country Y's medical and health department.

Although Mu Huan had been in the research laboratory for the past three years and did not have many connections that weren't due to her drugs, all of which were now ruined, Bo Junyan did! Furthermore, their relationship was very strong! When they arrived, the host of the banquet even personally came out to welcome them.

This was the benefit of having a strong husband. No matter what happened, when it came to him, it would feel so easy!

After a round of enthusiastic greetings, the host went to greet the other guests.

"Hubby, although you have a pharmaceutical factory under you, it hasn't developed in Country Y yet. Why are you so familiar with this minister?" Mu Huan was very impressed with Bo Junyan's strong network of connections. He didn't have to have any dealings with benefits and didn't have to have to make deals with people.

"Because of you." After learning that his wife was the heir of Rui Hui, he started to make all sorts of connections. Between people, even if there were no interests or work-related interactions, they could still have other interactions. With more interactions, there would be friendship.

"Hubby, you're really too good to me..." Mu Huan was so touched that she hugged his arm tightly.

"You're my wife." If he didn't treat her well, who would he treat well?

Mu Huan was about to say something when she was suddenly stunned.

"What's wrong?" Bo Junyan followed her gaze.

Then, she saw a handsome little boy. He was extremely good-looking, but this didn't make her dumbfounded...

"Hubby, this child... this child..." Mu Huan stuttered.

Bo Junyan: "..."

"What's wrong with this child?"

"He looks exactly like my senior brother when he was young! Could it be that someone developed a drug like the one Conan uses to become smaller, and this made my senior brother smaller?!" Otherwise, how could they be so similar?!

Bo Junyan: "..."

This possibility was zero.

“There are tens of thousands of people in this world, and there are always a few people who look alike.” Although Bo Junyan had known Yu Hansheng for a long time, he had not known him since he was young. Hence, he had never seen Yu Hansheng when he was young. From his looks now, although this child looked a little similar to Yu Hansheng, they were not exactly alike.

“Let me show you. What you said can’t be the case!” Mu Huan took out her phone and showed Bo Junyan the photo of Yu Hansheng when he was young.

“Why do you keep a photo of him when he was young on your phone?” Bo Junyan frowned. Although he was her senior, he was also another man!

Mu Huan: “...!!”

Was this the point? The point was that this child and her senior brother practically looked the same at this age!

Chapter 1330: It’s Great to Have a Hubby (5)

Mu Huan pointed at the photo and said, “Look, don’t they look alike?!”

“A little similar, but I can’t say that it’s the same.” Bo Junyan was sometimes very straight...

Mu Huan: “...”

Alright, she was exaggerating, but it really seemed like it!

Just as she was about to take a photo of the boy’s face and send it to her senior brother to see if this child was her senior brother’s wandering son...

An elegant and beautiful woman walked toward the boy.

“Mommy!” When the little boy saw the woman, he happily pounced over to call her.

The woman lowered her head and kissed the little boy. Then, she pulled him toward the host of the banquet and she hugged the other party’s arm intimately. The little boy that she was pulling raised his head and called out “Daddy.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Daddy...!

Was this really just a coincidence?

However, this was not possible. This was because the host of the banquet, David, was a pure Y countryman. Even if the boy’s mother was an Asian, she could not have given birth to a child that did not look like her, nor did he look like David. He only looked like her senior’s child.

Just as she was about to say something to Bo Junyan, she saw him staring intently at the little boy’s mother.

“What, an acquaintance?” She raised an eyebrow.

"I'm not familiar with her. I've only met her before." Bo Junyan shifted his gaze and looked at the little boy holding the woman's hand. His lips curved into a teasing smile.

"You've met her before?" Mu Huan felt that there was a hidden meaning in his words. Just as she was about to ask something...

She only heard, "The two of you haven't given me the search and rescue fees from last time. Since we've met today, I'll have you give me everything along with the interest."

Mu Huan looked up and saw Yu Hansheng in a white tuxedo walking toward them.

Although people often called some men Prince Charming, there were very few of them who could wear a white tuxedo and look as good as Yu Hansheng did.

That white tuxedo, coupled with his cold and beautiful face, made one feel that he was a cold and aloof Exalted Immortal.

But...

"Your words are ruining your image," Mu Huan said disdainfully.

She still remembered how she was chased and tested by his men in Yun Cheng. He stood under the moonlight with the cat in his arms. That shocking scene, that aura was really invincible! At that time, she felt that he might be some otherworldly expert! The second time, he walked out of the dark night. That cold and noble aura was also superb!

After they got to know each other, he...

It could only be said that some people were really not how they appeared!

Yu Hansheng was about to say something.

But Bo Junyan said, "Look behind you."

"What?" Mu Huan instinctively turned to look behind her.

"It's Yu Hansheng who should look behind him." Bo Junyan reached out and pulled her head back.

"What will I be looking at?" Yu Hansheng raised an eyebrow.

Bo Junyan smiled and said, "You'll know when you look over."

Yu Hansheng looked at the smile on his lips and felt that what he wanted him to see was definitely not something good. However, he still turned around.

And then...

He was so stunned that he instantly forgot about the existence of the entire world. There was only that red shadow in his eyes.

Mu Huan had known her senior brother for three years. No matter what happened, she had never seen him so shocked. What was going on now?

She followed her senior brother's line of sight and saw the little boy's mother.

She thought of something and looked at Bo Junyan. "Could it be that the little boy's mommy is the woman my senior brother used to like?"

"Yes."

Mu Huan: "...!!"

What the f*ck! What a big gossip!

No...
