

Fake Marriage 1341

Chapter 1341: A Resurrection from a Desperate Situation (4)

On the screen, Meng Yueman looked anxious and helpless.

“Mom, don’t be anxious. Tell me slowly. What happened?” Bo Junyan was still as indifferent as before.

“I... I... This...” Meng Yueman hesitated for a while, not knowing where to start.

Bo Dingjing, who was sitting beside her, spoke when he saw this.

“It’s like this. A woman suddenly came today and said that she’s your mother’s and your Aunt Ying’s biological sister. She also said that your mother and Aunt Ying aren’t your grandfather’s biological daughters. Your mother and sister are the daughters of your grandfather’s friend...”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

What was her father-in-law saying? Her mother-in-law wasn’t Old Master Meng’s biological daughter? This... this... this...

Mu Huan’s heart suddenly became so excited that it was about to explode!

This sudden feeling stunned her so much that she didn’t know what to say. She could only stare blankly.

“I know about this. I was the one who’d sent that person to look for you,” Bo Junyan said.

After he said that, Meng Yueman and Mu Huan, who was beside Bo Junyan, shouted in shock, “What?!”

Even Bo Dingjing, who had always been calm, widened his eyes in shock.

“What did you say? You knew and you sent that person to look for us?”

“Yes,” Bo Junyan said calmly.

Mu Huan: “...!!”

Bo Dingjing: “...!!”

Meng Yueman: “...!!”

It was such a big matter, yet he still looked so indifferent!

After a long silence...

Meng Yueman stuttered, “Junyan... This... What’s going on?”

“Did the other party ask you to visit her mother in Sweden?” Bo Junyan asked.

“Yes, she also said that... that was my mother... She said that she is seriously ill and is about to die. She heard that your grandfather was gone, so she came to look for us...” Meng Yueman couldn’t accept this. This was because she had lived in a single-parent family since she was young. Her father had doted on her so much, and she and her sister had lost their mother when they were so young. Why did they suddenly become not biological children? Their mother was still alive? This...

How was this possible?

This... really overturned everything she had ever known! Her whole worldview! This made her feel like she was dreaming! However, the things that the other party took out seemed to be real, especially since the other party's appearance was somewhat similar to hers and her sister's.

That was why she was so flustered and confused!

Hence, the first thing she did was to call her son. She wanted to hear him say that this was all fake and that the other party was a liar. However, her son said that he had long known about this matter. And he had even asked the other party to look for her? These words...

In other words, there was a 90% chance that this matter was true!

This... This... This made Meng Yueman even more flustered. She didn't know what to do.

She felt that her life was about to be overturned like this. She felt that her past life was no longer hers. She also felt like she didn't know what else in this world could be believed and what was real.

She really, really wanted this to be just a dream...

"Junyan, this isn't true, right? That woman is a liar, right? If your grandfather wasn't your biological grandfather, why would he have adopted me and your Aunt Ying? Why would he have treated us so well? If my mother was still alive, why would she not want us? Besides, why don't I have any memories? This... is absolutely impossible!"

Chapter 1342: A Resurrection from a Desperate Situation (5)

Even though what her father did later made Meng Yueman very sad and he had passed away, she didn't want her father to become someone else.

"Mom, go to Sweden with her and do a paternity test there. You can confirm if it's true," Bo Junyan said.

"No! I'm not going!" Meng Yueman refused vehemently. She was very agitated.

She didn't want to do a paternity test. She didn't want to become someone else's daughter! She didn't want to!

"If you don't want to go, then don't. Mom, don't be too agitated. If you don't want to admit it, you can ignore them..." Bo Junyan comforted her.

His words, coupled with Bo Dingjing's gentle voice, calmed Meng Yueman down slowly.

"Why didn't you tell me and ask her to come over?" He should have at least sent her a message to make her mentally prepared! Why did he suddenly send someone over?!

"I just found out about this yesterday. I have a certain degree of certainty. When I got someone to contact the other party to take a step forward, I realized that they have already arrived at the Imperial Capital."

Previously, he was only guessing and wasn't sure of such a fact. Hence, he didn't tell his mother about it after confirming it yesterday. When he got PA Wang to contact the other party, the other party had already reached the Imperial Capital.

When he heard the conversation between Yu Hansheng and Mu Huan last night and saw how much pain Mu Huan was in, he had felt anxious to confirm this matter so that Mu Huan would no longer feel that guilty. Hence, he did not inform his mother and even got PA Wang to immediately arrange for the other party to meet his mother.

He had confirmed this fact.

"You found out about this? Why did you investigate this for no reason?! Why did you want to investigate this?!" Meng Yueman had lived for more than fifty years and had never thought that she was not her father's biological daughter. Before Mu Huan appeared, the mother and son had had a good relationship with her father. Other than when her father had done something wrong regarding Mu Huan, he had never...

Her father had treated her and her sister so well that he was better than all the other fathers. How could they not be biologically related?

How was this possible?!

Meng Yueman refused to believe that she wasn't his biological daughter!

She could not understand why Bo Junyan would investigate this. Why would he want to investigate this?!

Although this wasn't caused by Bo Junyan's investigation, Meng Yueman, who was in a chaotic mood, blamed Bo Junyan for investigating this matter.

"Mom, regardless of whether I had investigated or not, the person would have still come looking for me," Bo Junyan said.

Meng Yueman, who still wanted to say something, was instantly speechless.

After a while.

"Let's hang up!" She hung up immediately. Her thoughts were too chaotic, and she didn't know what to say.

Meng Yueman's voice was cut off. The dining room instantly became so quiet that one could hear the sound of someone's heartbeat.

After a while...

Mu Huan then looked at Bo Junyan and asked, "Hubby, do you think... it's true?"

"I'm almost sure. To be 100% sure, we have to do a paternity test. If Mom doesn't go, I'll collect other samples to do it," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: "..."

After a while.

“Hubby, although it’s not appropriate for me to say this, if he wasn’t your grandfather, I’d be very happy! I’d be so happy that I’d want to cry!” Mu Huan said as she choked up.

There were many times when the harder you tried to suppress it, the more it would bounce back. Although she did not show it, it felt really torturous...

If that man wasn’t his biological grandfather, she wouldn’t need to feel so guilty.

What she couldn’t let go of was gone just like that...

She no longer needed to struggle, feel constricted, and suffer.

Chapter 1343: A Resurrection from a Desperate Situation (6)

There was no need to think about it anymore. It hurt.

She...

Really.

She was so happy that she wanted to cry. She was so happy that she was about to explode!

“There’s nothing unsuitable about it. This is a very good thing. I’m happier than you are!” Bo Junyan reached out and pulled her into his embrace.

It didn’t matter if she said that he was cold-hearted or anything. That wasn’t his biological grandfather. It made him like her, so happy that he wanted to cry!

He could not change what had happened in the past no matter what. It was as if she could not let it go no matter what. This was a dead end. A dead end.

Since his grandfather wasn’t related to him by blood, everything would be easily resolved!

His wife would no longer be in pain and would no longer have to worry.

He was happier than she was.

“Hubby...” Mu Huan hugged him tightly.

She knew that his relationship with his mother and with Old Master Meng was especially deep. Suddenly, they became not related. His mother was so unwilling to accept it, so he must have certain feelings in his heart.

Hence, she felt that her happiness was unsuitable, but she was really, really happy!

This way, from now on, she could live happily with her husband without any burden. She could have a happy baby and live happily every day!

Her child would not have the blood of her enemy. She...

Although Mu Huan had always been determined to be with Bo Junyan and tried her best to be as normal as she was in the past, only wanting the two of them to be loving, just as Yu Hansheng had said, she had the same feeling as him in her heart. She was a doctor and knew more. It was just that she had never shown such pain and torture. She had always been suppressing them. If she wanted to be with Bo Junyan, there was only to be happiness.

However, such deep pressure made her heart ache every time she calmed down.

Now, all the problems were gone.

“I’ll get someone to collect the samples. The results will be out soon.” Bo Junyan reached out and gently caressed her head.

Once the results were out, she could completely let go.

Mu Huan did not speak and only hugged him tighter.

After a while, her emotions finally stabilized.

She looked up at Bo Junyan and asked, “Hubby, why did you want to investigate this?”

He had just said that he had just found out about this and confirmed the truth of the information before he went to look for the person. She had the same question as her mother-in-law. Why did he suddenly investigate this? Why did he feel that his grandfather was not biological?

She could understand her mother-in-law’s filial piety because Old Master Meng was famous for being good to his two daughters. After they grew up and got married, he had even distributed his assets to them equally. He had never used them to exchange for any benefits and had never remarried.

He shouldn’t have suspected that she wasn’t a biological daughter.

“When I was young, I accidentally heard something. After recalling it a few days ago, I felt that there was something wrong, so I got someone to investigate it.” Although Mu Huan had never shown it, Bo Junyan had always known that this was a pain in her heart that could not be removed.

He had watched Yu Hansheng walk over and knew that he could not let go of such pain.

Back then, when he had chosen to let Yu Hansheng take Mu Huan away and take care of her, it was also because Yu Hansheng had the same pain as Mu Huan. After experiencing such a struggle and pain, Yu Hansheng could help Mu Huan settle that pain faster.

After that incident, he had been thinking of ways to resolve this matter.

Over the past three years, he had thought of countless ways, but he couldn’t find anything that could solve the problem.

Chapter 1344: A Resurrection from a Desperate Situation (7)

He had always known that if he wanted to resolve this matter fundamentally, the only solution would be if his grandfather was not biologically related. But he had never actually thought that his grandfather was really not related by blood. He had merely considered lying about how his grandfather was not his biological grandfather to make Mu Huan let go.

However, he eventually gave up on this idea because what was a lie was ultimately a lie. If she were to discover the truth in the future, she would only be in even more pain.

Until a few days ago, when he went to his grandfather's study to look for something, he suddenly recalled that time when he was very young. The words he had heard were probably from when he was three or four years old. Hence, when he recalled the memory, it was only a flash of the past. However, the more he thought about it, the more he felt that there was a problem.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that his grandfather might really not be related.

He hurriedly got someone to investigate in the direction he wanted.

Just yesterday, he had confirmed that there was a 90% chance that what he had suspected was true. When he got someone to contact that mother-daughter pair, his daughter had already arrived at the Imperial Capital.

Hence, when Yu Hansheng asked him if he had any solutions and said that he was the same as Mu Huan, that if Bo Junyan could resolve the worries in Mu Huan's heart, he would definitely be able to resolve his, Bo Junyan had said that they were different.

This was a fundamental solution. There was no other way.

As for Ouyang Xiaoxiao, no matter what, she was the biological daughter of the Ouyang couple.

"But how can she not be his biological daughter? Is she the daughter of a friend? Your grandfather is such a person who values profit. Why would he raise someone else's daughter? She's so close to him, and he even split the family assets after they got married, right? Although I hate him very much, I can't deny that he had treated his daughters well." How could they not be his biological daughters?

"My grandfather and my biological grandfather were good friends as close as brothers. The two of them worked hard overseas when they were young. After my biological grandfather passed away, his wife wanted to remarry, but she had two children with her. It was not easy to marry. Furthermore, my grandfather had lost his ability to produce children because of his injuries when he was young. He had always treated my mother and Aunt Ying as his biological daughters. Hence, after learning of the situation, he adopted my mother and Aunt Ying, turning them into his biological children. He even forbade their biological mother to look for them.

"In order to prevent their biological mother from getting close to them, he had even brought them back to the country by force. To the public, he'd said that his wife had passed away in an accident overseas, so he brought the two children back. The information technology at that time was not advanced, so no one had ever suspected that my mother and Aunt Ying were not biological."

To Old Master Meng, Meng Yueman and Meng Yueying were his biological children. Hence, when Meng Yueman was injured, he subconsciously thought that she was his biological daughter. His heart ached for her.

When she made him angry, one would think that if she wasn't his biological daughter, he would have thrown her away long ago and wouldn't want this daughter anymore!

She could not deny his love for his two daughters...

“At that time, my mother was only two years old, and my Aunt Ying was only half a year old. Hence, they didn’t have any memories.”

Mu Huan was stunned for a while after hearing this. “Then your grandfather is really good...”

Even if he was infertile, he was still a father. He was better than many biological parents.

No matter what his grandfather did later, he was really good to them.

It was undeniable...

A person’s good points could not be erased just because of that person’s mistake.

“Yes, my grandfather, when he got old, he became muddle-headed...”

Chapter 1345: A Resurrection from a Desperate Situation (8)

The kinship between people was not completely dependent on blood relations. The most important thing was the nurturing of feelings. Human hearts were made of flesh. No matter how bad Old Master Meng became later on, he had given the most genuine and best feelings to Bo Junyan and the rest.

He had forgotten that they were not related by blood. Subconsciously, he had felt that they were his biological daughters and grandson.

Hence, even if he wasn’t his biological grandfather, Bo Junyan’s feelings wouldn’t disappear.

To his knowledge, that was still his grandfather.

Hence, since his mother did not want to acknowledge that mother, he did not force her to do so. Initially, he was anxious to confirm this matter. But though there was a need to let his parents know about this matter, it would depend on their choice. Hence, he got PA Wang to arrange for that person to meet his mother. Now that his mother had chosen not to believe it and could not accept it, he only needed to have a 100% confirmation of this matter.

“Hubby, you can be grateful to him and have feelings for him in your heart. You don’t have to suppress such feelings. You don’t have to feel that this will affect me. You should be grateful for the kindness he had given you. The enmity between him and me is only between us... I don’t know what to say. Anyway, you can still have your feelings. Don’t be afraid that I’ll mind anything!”

Humans were not plants and trees, so how could they be heartless? There were many things in this world that were either black or white. If one could let go, one could let go. If one said they could break, one could break.

Old Master Meng was only her enemy. It was enough for her to hate him alone. Besides, he was dead.

Although she did not know how to express her feelings, Bo Junyan understood what she meant.

“I know, I understand.”

“Love you, Hubby...” Mu Huan hugged him even tighter.

After a while...

“You said that you’re not his biological grandson, yet you still look a little similar to him.” When Mu Huan first met Old Master Meng, she had felt that Bo Junyan looked a little similar to him. Hence, she had guessed his identity immediately.

“There are many people who are not biological children. After they are adopted, they become more and more like their adoptive parents.” There were many such examples in reality.

“That’s true.” Mu Huan thought about it and nodded.

Because of the atmosphere of one’s family life and the nurturing of one’s temperament, people who lived in the same family would look more similar to each other in terms of temperament and aura. This was also why no one had ever thought that they weren’t biological.

“No wonder you said that I’m different from her. I’m really different!” Yu Hansheng, who had woken up and thought that Bo Junyan definitely had food here, laughed bitterly when he heard their conversation.

His voice made Bo Junyan and Mu Huan look over at the same time.

“Bo Junyan, you’re really lucky in life.” Yu Hansheng mocked him jealously.

He, Bo Junyan, had actually been able to be fine after walking into such a hopeless situation. Just like that, he could be happy with the woman he loved from now on.

And now, he didn’t know what to do.

He wanted that woman, but he couldn’t let go of that hatred. Despite this, he couldn’t bear to see her with another man.

If he were to be ruthless to her again, it would be over...

Five years ago, he couldn’t even be ruthless. If it weren’t for that accident that made him think that she was dead, she would still be alive and well.

At that time, he couldn’t even bear to do it, let alone now.

Chapter 1346: True and Fake (1)

“Yes.” Bo Junyan nodded in agreement.

He was really a lucky person.

In life, although hard work was important, luck was the most important. Like this matter, for instance. No matter how hard he tried, it was useless. It could not be resolved. But now, there was no need to resolve anything. This was luck...

“You really make me want to kill you!” Yu Hansheng wasn’t joking. In that instant, he really felt jealousy and hatred.

However, people could be called humans because they had rationality and could control their sudden evil thoughts.

“Unfortunately, you can only think about it,” Bo Junyan said lightly.

Even if Yu Hansheng could not control himself, he could only think about killing Bo Junyan.

His words made Yu Hansheng clench his teeth in hatred and turn to leave.

Mu Huan looked at his back that was about to explode. “Hubby, don’t agitate my senior brother from now on. He’s so pitiful.”

Bo Junyan: “...”

In the Imperial Capital...

When Meng Yueying received the news, she hurriedly rushed back from overseas.

“Sister, what’s going on?” She didn’t quite understand what was going on over the phone. She only knew that her father might not be her biological father. “How can Dad not be our biological father? How is this possible?!”

When her father was young, he would always say that if they were not biological his, he would have long ignored them. Her father was so good to them, so how could such a father not be their biological father?

This was impossible! Absolutely impossible!

Like Meng Yueman, Meng Yueying could not accept that they were not biological children.

It felt like if they weren’t biological, the world would collapse.

“I don’t think it’s possible either. That woman must be a liar! I’ve already chased her away!” No matter what, Meng Yueman wouldn’t acknowledge them as her family. She didn’t believe those words. Even if her son had said so, she wouldn’t believe it!

Meng Yueying suddenly thought of something and said, “Could it be that Junyan did this because Xiao Huan could not let go of her hatred? Did he find someone to say that on purpose?”

Meng Yueman’s eyes lit up. “You’re right. This is very possible! It must be!”

But then she wilted and said, “But... that... that woman is a little similar to the two of us.”

“Xiao Huan is such a smart and capable person. If Junyan wants to deceive her, he has to make it appear as if it’s real! Besides us looking like her, if we were to do a paternity test, it would definitely give a result that we’re related!”

“What you said is true. It makes too much sense! Xiao Huan is a smart child, and Junyan has always done things flawlessly! He can make something fake look more real than the real one!” Meng Yueman knew her son’s capabilities very well.

“So, Junyan must have done such a thing. It’s impossible that we’re not our father’s biological children!” Meng Yueying refused to accept anything else. She was her father’s biological daughter!

“Yes, yes!” Meng Yueman nodded repeatedly.

People's hearts change. Old Master Meng was really good to them and doted on them. If he really treated them as his own daughters, they could only accept such a father as biological.

Meng Yueying thought for a moment and said, "If that's the case, let's not expose him. Let's just take it that this is the case! Dad was really in the wrong when he did that. No one can change the past, but we still have to continue living. If this can make Xiao Huan let go of the hatred in her heart and live well with Junyan, that's good."

"Yes, what you said makes sense!" Meng Yueshan, who was previously unable to accept it and felt that the world had changed, suddenly accepted it after hearing her sister's words.. She felt that this was actually not bad.

Chapter 1347: True and Fake (2)

Huo Zhendong looked at Bo Dingjing.

Bo Dingjing gestured for him to go out so they could speak.

"Let's go outside for a smoke," Huo Zhendong said.

"Go ahead, but don't smoke too much," Meng Yueying said.

"Yes."

After arriving outside...

Huo Zhendong asked impatiently, "Is father-in-law really not related to them by blood?"

"Junyan has already sent someone to do a paternity test. We can soon confirm that they're not biologically related," Bo Dingjing said.

"This is really..." Huo Zhendong didn't know what to say.

"Sigh, it's really hard to predict the truth. Anything can happen when you've lived for a long time." Bo Dingjing sighed.

"However, it's obvious that the two sisters can't accept it. They think that way... that way..." They were deceiving themselves by thinking that they were related by blood, and they even felt that Bo Junyan had gotten those people to lie to Mu Huan.

"If they want to think that way, then let them think that way. Anyway, he's already dead. I heard that the mother over there is about to die. She just wants to see the two of them one last time. But back then, she could even throw the children to someone else to raise in order to remarry. It's fine if she doesn't see them for the last time." Bo Dingjing had asked Bo Junyan in detail later.

He had always doted on his wife. He thought about his mother-in-law, whom he had never met. This woman had felt that bringing her two children to a new marriage was a burden. She had given away her children and refused to see them for the rest of her life. Now that she was about to die, she felt regretful and guilty. She wanted to see them, but all she did was disturb their lives and destroy their worldview. He felt that it was good that his wife did not believe her and did not want to see her.

Regardless of whether his father-in-law had passed away or not, they would treat him as their biological father. In the future, they would live as they should and not need to get close to someone else.

“Yes, that’s right.” Huo Zhendong nodded in agreement.

His wife would not have a mother for the rest of her life. There was no need for that now that she had grown old. It would only bring more pain if she acknowledged a mother who was about to die.

Meng Yueman and her sister had married good husbands.

“But this way, there won’t be any problems with Xiao Huan. From now on, your family can lead a good life. Before long, you should be able to carry a grandchild,” Huo Zhendong said with a smile.

“Yes.” At the mention of his grandchild, Bo Dingjing’s mood became much better.

“Xiao Huan is really a good daughter-in-law. Look at how well she has nourished your body. The older someone is, the more their body can’t take it. The younger you are, the better your body is.” Huo Zhendong felt that Bo Dingjing’s body was much better than his previous one.

“Right?! I think so too! I feel that this year, my body is about to return to how it was when I was young! Xiao Huan, you’re really capable!” When Bo Dingjing mentioned Mu Huan, he only praised her and felt that she was good.

“Another day, when she’s not busy anymore, let her take a look at Xiao Ying and me. Let the two of us live younger and better,” Huo Zhendong said.

Who wouldn’t want to live a better life?

“Alright, wait for her to come back.”

After the two of them smoked and chatted for a while, Huo Zhendong sighed and said, “You’re about to have a grandchild. My daughter-in-law has still not materialized.”

“Why? Huo Li still can’t let go of Ling Wei?” Bo Dingjing knew that Huo Li liked Ling Wei wholeheartedly.

When he heard about Ling Wei’s death, Huo Li went crazy for a while.

“Sigh... I can’t mention it. If I mention it, I’ll be worried.” Huo Zhendong took a deep puff of his cigarette.

Bo Dingjing patted his shoulder. “Don’t think too much. Perhaps the opportunity is right at the turn.. Just look at Junyan and Xiao Huan. Who would have thought that something like this would happen?”

Chapter 1348: True and Fake (3)

“That’s true.” Huo Zhendong was comforted.

...

Although Meng Yueman and Meng Yueying insisted that they didn’t believe it, though they didn’t want to believe that it was the truth and felt that this was something Bo Junyan had concocted, they went to see that so-called biological mother, opposite of what Bo Dingjing had thought. In order to make Mu Huan believe this matter, they put down the hatred in their hearts and pretended to believe this matter.

They flew to Sweden to see that so-called biological mother. When they arrived, the other party was already unable to speak. Once she saw the two of them, she passed away that night.

Although the two of them did not believe that this was their biological mother, they still felt uncomfortable watching her pass away in front of them.

“Sisters, when Mom was alive, she missed you very much. She regretted her choice back then. She...”
The two’s half-sister wanted to convey the guilt and regret in their mother’s heart.

“We don’t want to hear it. We don’t want to know what happened in the past either.” Meng Yueman and Meng Yueying felt that the woman Bo Junyan had found was rather responsible. She even made up such things.

“Sisters...” The other party wanted to say something else.

Meng Yueman and Meng Yueying turned around and left.

It wasn’t until the funeral that the two of them returned. Although the sisters didn’t acknowledge their mother, the others knew about this matter and their relationship. Hence, Bo Junyan and Mu Huan came to attend the funeral.

After the funeral, they returned to the hotel.

Meng Yueman said, “Junyan, Xiao Huan, I don’t plan to acknowledge this family. I don’t want to acknowledge this mother. Hence, you can just pretend that nothing happened from now on.”

Meng Yueying added, “That’s right. We don’t acknowledge this family. For the sake of marriage, she abandoned us. We won’t forgive such behavior, and we don’t want to feel sad and upset over such a person. From now on, we’ll pretend that this never happened!”

They could pretend that this was the case for Mu Huan and not expose the truth, but they didn’t want to have another relative from here on. Even if they continued to act, this matter would end here! Whether they were close or not, she had already passed away. This was the end!

“Mom, you can say whatever you want.” Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had heard from Bo Dingjing about their current mentality. Hence, they did not say anything and expressed that they respected their choice.

The next day, they left without saying goodbye to their half-sister, pretending that nothing had happened.

Meng Yueman and Meng Yueying felt that this was a fake matter created by Bo Junyan. However, for Mu Huan’s sake, they were unwilling to expose this matter and were willing to cooperate with them. Bo Junyan and Mu Huan knew their mentality and knew that they could not accept it. They were unwilling to make them feel uncomfortable. No matter what they thought, they would not let them know the results of the test that they had secretly done. They would let them think that Bo Junyan had made all this up.

The old man had already passed away, so there was no need to make them sad.

In this world, there were many times when things were like this. Even if something was a lie, it was a white lie. Whether it was true or false, there was sometimes no need to make it too clear.

Without that struggle and pain, Mu Huan's expression was no longer gloomy. She was so happy that she felt like she was floating in the sky every day.

Even now, more and more people on the Internet were requesting for the Shell Prize committee to revoke her previous qualifications. Rui Hui's pharmaceutical factories that were indeed problematic had been sealed by the health department. But her good mood had never changed.

Chapter 1349: True and Fake (4)

On this day, she had just entered the office.

Mr. Liu knocked on the door and walked in.

"CEO Mu, this is my resignation letter. I'm not feeling well recently and can't serve the company anymore. Please approve."

Mu Huan looked at the resignation letter he handed over and curved her lips slightly. She smiled sweetly and said, "Uncle Liu, do you think that after the transfer, you can directly take over Rui Hui and push all the blame on me?"

Mr. Liu was stunned. He knew that Mu Huan had not only sensed it, but she must have been preparing a plan. However, he did not expect Mu Huan to be so direct.

She was so direct that he didn't know what to say.

He snapped back to his senses and asked, "What do you mean?"

Mu Huan smiled and said, "Uncle Liu will soon know what I mean."

Even at this point, he was still pretending. Mu Huan didn't want to waste her breath.

Mr. Liu was about to say something when he heard a knock on the door.

Then, Mu Huan's secretary brought a team in.

"Mr. Liu, we're from the Commercial Crimes Department. We have sufficient evidence now to prove that you've emptied the company's pockets and transferred Rui Hui's assets. Now, we want you to go back with us and help in the investigation. Please cooperate," the leader said as he stepped forward and asked Mr. Liu to come with them.

Facing such a situation, Mr. Liu wasn't afraid. He sneered and said, "You have sufficient evidence? What evidence?"

Before he did this, he had already made the best deal with the director of the Commercial Crimes Department. He didn't believe that they had any evidence against him!

"We'll show you the evidence when we get to the police station. Now, please cooperate with us!"

“Alright.” Mr. Liu sneered, his expression saying, So what if I’m going with you? When the time comes, all of you have to respectfully send me out!

Just as Mr. Liu turned around to leave...

Mu Huan leaned forward and said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, “Uncle Liu, the director of the Commercial Crimes Department was secretly investigated because of bribery. Now, there’s a new director. I know very well what evidence they have. I handed it over personally. From the moment you transferred Rui Hui’s assets, I’ve known.”

From the moment Uncle Liu had transferred Rui Hui’s assets, Mu Huan knew but she had not made a move. She was waiting for now so that she could have evidence to make him go to jail.

Mr. Liu’s expression changed.

“By the way, aren’t you someone who really did not want to benefit others? But everything you’ve done is benefiting others.” She had wanted him to transfer the company’s assets and leave behind evidence, but the money he transferred would not go into his pocket.

Mr. Liu was a very smart person. He quickly thought of something. “What do you mean?”

“Exactly what you think,” Mu Huan said with a smile.

In this world, there were very few people who could really be relied on. The people he trusted had been bribed by her with greater benefits.

Mr. Liu clenched his fists tightly. “Mu Huan, I’ve still underestimated you.”

He had already thought so highly of her, but in the end, he had still underestimated her. Not only did she touch the director of the Commercial Crimes Department, but...

When he thought of that possibility, the usually calm him could no longer stay calm.

“Yes.” On account of their past relationship, she had given him a chance again and again, but he had treated her like an easy target.

Mr. Liu was angered by her behavior. His emotions were extremely violent. He stepped forward and wanted to punch Mu Huan, but before he could do so, he was restrained by the person who had come to catch him.

Mu Huan looked at the disheveled him and smiled sarcastically. “Uncle Liu, don’t be agitated. Anger is bad for your body.”

Chapter 1350: A Ruthless One (1)

“Mu Huan, what right do you have to treat me this way?! What right do you have to have all of this?! If it weren’t for me, Rui Hui would have been gone long ago!” Mr. Liu felt that there was nothing wrong with him wanting Rui Hui. If it weren’t for him taking care of it, Rui Hui would have been gone long ago. She wouldn’t have gotten the chance to enjoy all of this!

“Because I’m the heir,” Mu Huan said.

“The heir can get all of this for nothing?” He had worked so hard and had been so focused that Rui Hui was able to prosper. Mu Huan had no right to enjoy the fruits of his hard work!

“That’s right. An heir can get everything for nothing.” Which family’s heir didn’t get the assets of the previous generation for nothing?

“If you say that Rui Hui would have been gone long ago without you, then without my great-grandfather, your life would have been gone long ago. How could all of this be yours? Besides, did it have to be you back then? My great-grandfather had even arranged for someone else to guard Rui Hui!”

He seemed to have forgotten that in the beginning, it was because her great-grandfather had saved their family that they followed him so loyally.

He had forgotten that he was only a manager. He had forgotten that he was the one who had destroyed another group of people that her great-grandfather had arranged to be in charge of Rui Hui. That was how he had obtained the right to be in power.

He had done all this with an ulterior motive. Why did he need someone to feel sorry for him?

“That’s the favor your great-grandfather gave us. If it weren’t for us, you wouldn’t have had the right to enjoy all this for nothing!” Mr. Liu still felt that Mu Huan didn’t have the right.

“Don’t you understand what it means to be the heir?” Mu Huan retorted.

Most people in this world, especially the Chinese, work hard all their lives for their children. This was the inheritance her great-grandfather had left for her. If she didn’t have the right to it, who did?

Mr. Liu was instantly speechless. That’s right. No matter how hard it had been for him while she didn’t do anything, she was still the heir, the most legitimate heir of Rui Hui. This was her family’s assets.

This world was so unfair. Some people could have everything without doing anything. They had worked so hard, but in the end, they could only benefit others...

When some people had crooked thoughts, they would go astray no matter what.

The family assets that her ancestors had worked so hard to get must belong to him if he wanted to get them. If it wasn’t his, then it was unfair. If it wasn’t his, then it was his hard work that benefited others.

Squatting in someone else’s house was a phrase that referred to someone like him, claiming that this was his home and that everything was his.

Mr. Liu snapped back to his senses and said coldly, “Don’t be too smug.”

He was also someone who had two backup plans. He had not lost!

Mu Huan did not speak further. He could do whatever he wanted.

In the afternoon.

Liu Changfeng came over angrily to look for Mu Huan.

“Mu Huan, my dad has worked so hard for Rui Hui. How can you treat him like this?!” He felt that Mu Huan was too ungrateful. Without them, she would still be nothing!

“He’s already about to stab me to death with a knife. What, can’t I retaliate?” Mu Huan said in amusement.

“Since you knew from the start that he was transferring Rui Hui’s assets, why didn’t you stop him? Instead, you deliberately dug a hole for him to jump into!” He had always known that Mu Huan was smart, but he didn’t expect her to be such a scheming person. She had actually known about this long ago and took the opportunity to harm his father!

“Because I’m a bad person! If someone wants to harm me, I’ll only dig a big hole and bury him!” She had given them such a chance, but they didn’t want it and even colluded with others to kill her. Why wouldn’t she kill them? If she’d kept them around and was careless one day, wouldn’t they kill her?
