

Fake Marriage 1391

Chapter 1391: The Last Battle (26)

Ouyang Xiaoxiao was playing the most beautiful music in the world on the garden lawn.

David and Ouyang Chen were playing chess on the picnic mat.

The family of three was harmonious and beautiful like a painting.

Ever since he saw Ouyang Xiaoxiao at the banquet and knew that she was still alive, after Yu Hansheng's shock, he was conflicted about whether he should acknowledge Ouyang Xiaoxiao or not. If he were to live a happy life with the mother and son, wouldn't he be letting his parents down? He had been struggling over such sins.

He had never considered how she already belonged to someone else.

It was just as Mu Huan had said. He was thinking too much. He didn't have to worry about those things at all. This was because even if he wanted her, she didn't want him!

With such a blissful life, why would she have to return to his side and suffer?

Back then, when he heard Mu Huan's words, he only felt that her words were too vicious.

Now, seeing this scene...

He finally had a real feeling. It was a really heart-wrenching and unbearable pain!

Yu Hansheng was so conflicted and in pain. He was struggling crazily in his guilt. It was all because of love. It was because of such deep love that he was so conflicted and in pain.

Now...

The more he loved her, the more it hurt.

The person he couldn't let go of despite the pain was no longer his. She was another man's...

He thought about how everything he once had belonged to another man.

He...

He couldn't think about it! Just thinking about it made him want to rush forward and torture David to death!

It was as if she had sensed something.

When the song ended, Ouyang Xiaoxiao stood up and asked David to bring Ouyang Chen in first to wash his hands and prepare to eat.

David glanced at Yu Hansheng from the corner of his eye and went forward to kiss Ouyang Xiaoxiao's face.

The moment he kissed her, he immediately felt that murderous gaze piercing through his back.

If looks could kill, he would be dead by now.

Unfortunately, they couldn't.

Feeling a little smug, David kissed Ouyang Xiaoxiao's other cheek before leading Ouyang Chen to the main house.

After they entered...

Ouyang Xiaoxiao looked in Yu Hansheng's direction and said lightly, "Come out."

Yu Hansheng was stunned. How did she know that he was here?

No, she must be calling someone else, not him! She didn't know martial arts, so it was impossible for her to have sensed his presence!

Just as he was thinking this...

Ouyang Xiaoxiao said, "Yu Hansheng, come out!"

Yu Hansheng: "...!!"

How was this possible?! How could she feel his presence?!

Although he felt that this was impossible, he had come to look for her. Now that he had been discovered, there was no reason for him not to go out.

Hence, he walked out of the flowers and approached Ouyang Xiaoxiao.

Under the sunlight, she stood. That face that was untouched by time shone beautifully under the sunlight, making him unable to look away...

He looked at her like that. Step by step, he approached her until he was close enough. "How did you know I was there?"

He found it strange that she, who did not have any martial arts training, could sense his existence.

"Your murderous aura is so strong that everyone can feel it." Ouyang Xiaoxiao smiled, but her smile was clearly mocking.

This sarcasm pierced Yu Hansheng's heart like a needle. There was no blood, but it hurt so much that he could not take it.

Chapter 1392: The Last Battle (27)

She could feel his murderous aura. She knew that he cared about her a lot and that he could not bear to see that scene earlier, where she was so happy with another man that she wanted him to kiss her...

Thinking about what had just happened, Yu Hansheng clenched his fists tightly. The veins on the back of his hand bulged horribly.

Just as he snapped back to his senses and was about to say something, Ouyang Xiaoxiao turned around and walked toward a big tree. "It's hot here. Let's talk over there."

Yu Hansheng did not suspect her and followed her to the big tree until he got close.

“Stop. Just stand there and talk. Stay away from me.” Ouyang Xiaoxiao asked him to stop and not get too close to her.

Yu Hansheng looked at her and could not help but feel his heart ache.

In the past, she would never have talked to him like this. In the past...

Suddenly, Yu Hansheng realized that he couldn't even think about the past. Just thinking about it made his heart ache. It was so painful that he felt like he was having a heart attack.

“Why are you here?” Ouyang Xiaoxiao knew what he was here for, but she pretended not to know.

“I wanted to capture you. Do you think you don't need to take responsibility for what you did to me?” Yu Hansheng had come to protect the mother and son, but the words he said were for revenge.

Ouyang Xiaoxiao looked at him and smiled. She raised her beautiful eyebrows. “How do you want me to take responsibility?”

Yu Hansheng: “...”

How was she going to take responsibility? After what she had done to him, even if he didn't want her life, he should want to torture her alive. But previously, not only did he not shout that he wanted her captured, but he even wanted to protect her!

What was going on?

As time passed, people's feelings for each other would become fainter and fainter. A person who had been dead for five years as far as he knew should have long been forgotten about. How could this be...

He became even more reluctant than before?

Did he only know how to cherish something after losing it?

Ha...

He almost despised himself.

“Come back with me. You'll know then how I want you to take responsibility.” No matter what, he should capture her first. There was no hurry to give an answer now.

“Yu Hansheng, your vigilance is getting worse. I really wonder how you managed to survive until now with your vigilance,” Ouyang Xiaoxiao said with a smile.

By the time Yu Hansheng heard her words and realized that something was amiss, a metal net had already fallen from the tree. Just as he was about to escape, the ground beneath his feet suddenly sank. He fell into the trap Ouyang Xiaoxiao had set up.

Yu Hansheng: “...”

He, Yu Hansheng, had traveled the martial world for so many years and had taken on all sorts of dangerous missions, but he had never failed. Now, he had been captured by her.

He was really... as she had said, his vigilance was getting worse!

In fact, whether it was Yu Hansheng or Ouyang Xiaoxiao, they knew deep down that it wasn't that Yu Hansheng was low on alert. It was just that he had subconsciously felt that Ouyang Xiaoxiao wouldn't hurt him. He wasn't on guard against her, so he got knocked down by her again and again.

"There's no need to go through so much trouble. Just use the S fragrance on me." Yu Hansheng looked up at Ouyang Xiaoxiao.

She just stood there. Even when she was looking down at him, her face was still flawless.

Yu Hansheng felt that he had probably gone crazy. At this moment, he was still in the mood to admire her beauty.

"I'd used it long ago when you entered this castle, but you were still fine. What drug did that drug genius Mu Huan develop for you to cure your constitution?" Ouyang Xiaoxiao raised an eyebrow.

Chapter 1393: The Last Battle (28)

Yu Hansheng: "..."

She had used it long ago? Why didn't he smell that fragrance?

As if she could see through his doubts, Ouyang Xiaoxiao kindly explained, "I fused it with the flower fragrance in the courtyard. Furthermore, your attention wasn't on that, so you easily ignored it."

Yu Hansheng: "..."

Hatred could also stimulate a person's IQ? In the past, she was clearly innocent and cute, but now, she was so smart and scheming.

"How did you know that I would come today?" No matter how smart she was, she shouldn't have predicted that he would come today. This was because even he didn't know that he would come today. This was his last-minute decision. When he came, the people around him didn't know that he was coming.

"I've prepared in advance. It doesn't matter when you come." Ouyang Xiaoxiao really didn't have the ability to guess that he would come today. She could only guess that he would definitely find her.

"So, you didn't deliberately arrange for me to see that scene just now. Instead, you do this every day?" If Ouyang Xiaoxiao had deliberately arranged for him to see that scene and agitate him, Yu Hansheng would have felt better. But if it wasn't, then he...

It was really heartbreaking. It wasn't a show of love. They were simply so warm and happy every day that he wanted to kill someone!

Ouyang Xiaoxiao was stunned. She didn't expect him to ask this. His focus seemed a little peculiar, but she still nodded. "Yes."

Yu Hansheng: "..."

He was like a criminal waiting to be sentenced to death.

At this moment, he didn't know what else he could say because he didn't know what to think.

He could only look at Ouyang Xiaoxiao in a daze.

That little girl who used to be obsessed with him...

He had destroyed her innocence and beauty with his own hands. The previously happy world had made her like this.

Ha...

After a while, after a while...

"What do you want to do by capturing me? You didn't take my life last time, but you want my life this time?" Yu Hansheng raised an eyebrow.

"You should know that I didn't want your life last time. How does it feel to be drenched in the sewer water? Thinking about it, I still feel that you're very smelly now." Ouyang Xiaoxiao lightly fanned the air in front of her nose as she spoke, looking like she really found him smelly.

Yu Hansheng: "...!!"

Being drenched in the sewer water was something that he could not fail to recall. The moment he thought about it, he felt disgusted and wanted to vomit. He felt that he was unbearably smelly!

She really knew how to grab hold of his weakness and stab him where he could not take it.

"Then how do you want to deal with me this time?"

"You'll know soon enough." Ouyang Xiaoxiao smiled.

Her smile made Yu Hansheng have a bad feeling.

"Can't you be a little more straightforward?" When a woman became ruthless, she was indeed the most terrifying existence in this world. She could do anything.

"When have you ever made me happy?" Ouyang Xiaoxiao said with a faint smile.

The torture and pain he gave her were the thinnest and longest pain in the world. It was like a nail that had been pierced into her heart. It would hurt every day, and the dull pain that was slowly twisting was indescribable.

"Why don't you let me up and I'll give you a quick death?" Yu Hansheng looked up and smiled wickedly.

His face was already crazy and good-looking. When he deliberately tried to seduce her, very few women could resist him. His charm was devilish.

Chapter 1394: The Last Battle (29)

However, when a woman only had nothing but hatred for him, no matter what he did, it would only elicit disgust. It would no longer move her.

"I'll snatch a good chance when you give me such a chance." Ouyang Xiaoxiao smiled and turned to leave.

When Yu Hansheng saw her turning around to leave, he hurriedly shouted, "Ouyang Xiaoxiao, you'd better not cross my bottom line!"

He was only letting her get what she wanted because he had tolerance for her. She'd better not push her luck!

However, his response was the sound of Ouyang Xiaoxiao's footsteps leaving.

Yu Hansheng clearly liked Ouyang Xiaoxiao's innocence, but now, he admired her ruthlessness.

She didn't drag things out and didn't say much. She knew what he was thinking and then used his thoughts to attack him again and again.

Just as he was admiring Ouyang Xiaoxiao, the ground beneath his feet suddenly opened. He instantly fell down and followed a slide-like slope into a dark and unclear underground tunnel. Why did he say it was an underground tunnel? It was because he smelled smelly water.

Also...

That chirping sound was from a mouse?

Yu Hansheng instantly felt disgusted and had goosebumps all over his body!

Yu Hansheng was a clean freak. A clean freak would have many disgusting and unbearable things they could not bear.

The smelly water and rats in the underground passage were the most disgusting things to him!

This was because when he was young, he had once gone on a mission. He'd had to hide in the underground waterway. The few hours he hid there had left him with a lifetime of psychological trauma. Under such an environment, not only would he vomit from disgust, but his bodily functions would also decrease. Other than his master, only Bo Junyan and Ouyang Xiaoxiao knew about this.

She clearly knew how disgusted he was with this environment, but she still threw him in such a place!

"Ouyang Xiaoxiao!" he shouted angrily.

He'd had enough! The smelly water that he had been drenched in before was already unforgivable. Now, she had actually thrown him into the sewers and had placed so many rats there! Was she trying to disgust him to death?

She'd better not go overboard! Otherwise, he would definitely not let her off this time!

His shout frightened the rats hiding in the dark. They started to run around. There were so many that many rats stepped on his feet.

When Yu Hansheng felt that sort of thing, his entire body instantly froze. He felt nauseous.

Then, he couldn't help but vomit...

The scene that followed was indescribable...

In the castle...

Ouyang Xiaoxiao stood in front of the French window with a glass of red wine in her hand. She looked at the maple tree in the yard that was gradually turning red.

“Why are you so depressed? Shouldn’t you be happy that your plan has succeeded?” David walked up to her and raised his glass.

“How can I be happy when I think of the past?” Ouyang Xiaoxiao laughed at herself.

Everything she did to Yu Hansheng was actually revealing her own scars.

Back then, in that sea of fire, she could live because she had found the entrance to the underground tunnel and jumped in. Then...

At that time, she was still that naive, weak, and fearful girl. Now that she thought about it, she didn’t even know how she had climbed out of that path.

It was probably the power of motherly love.

If it were only her, just that heartache and despair would have made her willing to die in that sea of fire. But she had a child. She was so happy that he had come.. No matter what, she could not let her child die with her.

Chapter 1395: The Last Battle (30)

Hence, she tried her best to escape.

At that time, what she had experienced was far more than what she had meticulously planned for him...

Ouyang Xiaoxiao’s hand trembled as she recalled that dark moment.

Seeing this, David reached out and pulled her into his embrace. “Don’t think about it. It’s all in the past.”

Ouyang Xiaoxiao did not speak further.

If only she could go back, she would no longer be in pain.

At this moment, Ouyang Chen ran downstairs.

“Mommy, look. Look at the painting I drew just now. Isn’t it super good-looking?!”

Ouyang Xiaoxiao turned around and saw her son glowing like a small sun as he ran down the stairs. The darkness in her heart was instantly dispelled.

Suddenly, she felt that she shouldn’t hate Yu Hansheng so much. No matter how much pain he had given her, her son could cancel out that hatred.

Despite everything else, he had given her such an adorable son, Xiao Chen.

With this thought in mind, she thought that after Yu Hansheng escaped and they had a chat, they would be even!

If he stopped looking for her, she would let go of her past hatred.

She would let him off if he also let her off.

She wanted to let go of the past and live a happy life with her son from now on too.

When she snapped back to her senses, she took the painting from her son.

Ouyang Chen had drawn the scene from when they were in the courtyard just now. She was playing the piano and he was playing with David. He drew very beautifully, making her feel full of happiness when she looked at this painting.

"It's really good. It's really good!" Ouyang Xiaoxiao lowered her head and kissed his little face.

David reached out and picked Ouyang Chen up. "Xiao Chen drew Daddy so handsome!"

The secret guards, who had been waiting for their master for a long time, quietly sneaked into the castle. Through the French window, they saw such a harmonious and happy scene of a family of three.

Then...

"Boss, where's our master?" Didn't their master come in to catch her?

Why did their master disappear while the family of three was so happy?

"He's probably locked up," the team leader said with a frown.

They waited outside but did not see their master. It was peaceful inside. Something must have happened to their master.

"Do they have that ability?" They didn't even hear any movements outside. How could they have knocked down their master? Their master was no longer afraid of the smell of incense. With their master's capabilities, this would have been impossible.

"Could it be that Master couldn't take the excitement and ran away?" He felt that it was very possible!

"No," the team leader said.

"Then how do you think they had the ability to lock our master up without making a move?"

"Our master doesn't guard himself against Miss Ouyang. It's too easy for her to deal with Master. During past encounters, wasn't Master also easily knocked down?" the team leader asked.

All the brothers: "..."

That seemed to be the case...

After a while.

"We have to capture Miss Ouyang and interrogate her. Where is Master now?"

"You dare?" The team leader rolled his eyes at him.

Master would not lay a hand on her even after being humiliated time and time again. And this one wanted to interrogate her!

"So you don't care about Master?"

The team leader was silent for a while before saying, "Let's search in the dark first. We'll talk when we can't find Master."

As soon as he finished speaking, he waved his hand and the group of people quietly dispersed.

Their movements were as light as a falling leaf.

No one could sense their existence.

Chapter 1396: The Last Battle (31)

They were all so capable, let alone Yu Hansheng. If he didn't want to be discovered, no one would be able to discover him.

He didn't know when his feelings had deepened. By the time he realized it, he was already unable to extricate himself.

Country F...

The effective treatment plan that Mu Huan and the experts had jointly developed to control the illness would definitely not only be used by Bo Junyan and the rest. Instead, they had hurriedly sent this treatment plan to all the hospitals. This was because, in a short period of time, the mortality rate caused by the virus had become so high that everyone panicked. If it could no longer be suppressed, the mortality rate would increase steadily.

Sen Da naturally knew about this wide-scale use.

He immediately got someone to experiment with this treatment plan and realized that this treatment plan was already close to the medicine he had developed that could control this illness.

With such a pandemic happening, he definitely could not provide medicine that could completely treat this illness.

Hence, the medicine he had developed to treat this illness was divided into two stages. The first was primary treatment. First, they had to control the development of the illness. Then, they would pretend to use time to develop something further. During this period, he would release the vaccine. Finally, he would develop a medicine to treat this illness and completely cure it.

And now, Mu Huan and her specialist team had already developed a drug that was close to the effects of his basic medicine. He couldn't wait any longer. If he waited any longer, he was afraid that everything would really be over just as Ling Wei had said.

Compared to Ling Wei, who was so crazy about wanting Mu Huan and Bo Junyan to die...

Right now, Sen Da really wanted his two half-brothers to die. Perhaps he had been infected by Ling Wei, making him feel that if they didn't die, all his efforts would have been in vain. No matter what, even if things didn't go as smoothly as he had planned in the end, if the two of them died, he wouldn't have lost this round. He wouldn't have suffered for nothing!

Hence, he got the people who had been hiding around his two half-brothers to take action on their medicine. This way, they would no longer be a barrier for him to advance. He could also make people think that the two of them had died from Mu Huan's team's new treatment plan. He could make her become a target of everyone and no longer believe in her treatment plan.

At this time, he could use his basic medicine.

Although Mu Huan's treatment plan had effects that were close to that of his primary medicine, it was only close. It was not as good as his. Once something had happened to her medicine, his medicine would appear out of nowhere and instantly control the situation. Once this was done, it would be better than his previous plan!

At the thought of this, Sen Da's worries instantly turned into excitement. He immediately ordered everyone to take action.

Mu Huan's team's new treatment plan was used on Bo Junyan. Very quickly, they controlled the development of his illness. Furthermore, Bo Junyan's usual constitution was good. He even showed signs of improvement. This made Mu Huan, who had been tensed up, finally heave a sigh of relief.

As long as they could control their illness, they would have more time.

The endless stream of good news made everyone in the laboratory heave a sigh of relief.

"Go and have a good sleep in a while." Professor Sam patted Mu Huan's shoulder. These days, they had taken turns to rest. Everyone guaranteed that they would have at least four hours of sleep a day. Mu Huan couldn't sleep for so long. At most, she would sleep for an hour or two when she was extremely tired.

"Yes, I'll have to trouble all the big shots next." Mu Huan looked at everyone gratefully.. She was grateful that they were not afraid of the pandemic and had flown over to work so hard.

Chapter 1397: The Last Battle (32)

"Don't stand on ceremony with us," Professor Sam said with a smile.

They had worked with Mu Huan for more than three years. No matter what, she had given them a lot of help. Besides, as doctors, they should be the first to get involved in a fight when such a thing happened.

A real doctor had a kind heart and a will to save lives. When they stepped into the medical industry, this first lesson was also the most important.

Mu Huan did not stand on ceremony with them and went to rest.

She did not expect the weather to change after she woke up.

...

After Ling Wei asked Sen Tai where the seal was, she went to get it and mobilized his men to attack Mu Huan's laboratory. However, everyone in Sen Tai's team was from their own country.

Many of their family members had contracted this illness. Mu Huan and the specialist team she had invited were the hope of their family. This was especially so when they heard that Mu Huan's new treatment plan could effectively control the illness.

This made them resist such an order and be unwilling to do it.

Destroying Mu Huan was the same as destroying their family's hope and life. They couldn't do such a thing.

Besides, even if their family wasn't sick, this medical team was fighting for the people and at the front line. How could they destroy them?

This was especially so since they knew that Sen Tai was also sick. The person who gave this order was not their proper superior.

Hence, they did not take action even after receiving the order.

This made Ling Wei furious!

Didn't they say that if they saw the seal on an order, it was equivalent to seeing the person's order? Didn't they have to take action? How could they dare to disobey an order?!

Just as she was about to push Sen Tai to order them to take action...

When Sen Tai's vital signs suddenly decreased. Even though the experts guarding him tried to save him in time, they could not.

This made Ling Wei feel that something was amiss. This was because after receiving a new treatment plan, Sen Tai's condition had been improving. He shouldn't have suddenly passed away.

When she heard that the leader had passed away that night, she confirmed her guess. She immediately found an opportunity to call Sen Da.

"Was it you?" He must have done something to the two of them!

"Just do your job well. Don't ask anything you shouldn't ask. Mind your own business." Sen Da was still very angry with Ling Wei from when they separated last time.

Ling Wei laughed when she heard him. "You're really capable! You killed two of them at once!"

If she wanted him to kill Bo Junyan and Mu Huan, he would have all sorts of excuses. Ha...

Indeed, he had never realized that killing Bo Junyan and Mu Huan was also his business and not just hers.

"Don't contact me again until the situation is stable." With that, Sen Da hung up.

Ling Wei looked at the phone that had been hung up and thought of what he had said before. She instantly felt disgusted.

When did the things that she thought she would definitely be able to control become like this?

It was Mu Huan!

At the thought of this, her eyes turned red with hatred! Red! It didn't matter if she couldn't find Bo Junyan. She had to kill Mu Huan!

Just as she was fretting over how to mobilize Sen Tai's men to kill Mu Huan...

Originally, Sen Tai and the leader's deaths had been kept a secret. For some reason, everyone suddenly knew about it.. They even blamed Mu Huan and the new treatment plan.

Chapter 1398: The Last Battle (33)

During this period, news of Mu Huan's team's new treatment plan, the people's passing, or the illness worsening kept coming.

Then, very quickly, news came from Country Y. A research team had developed a drug that could really control this virus. There were already many patients in danger who had used this drug to turn their lives around.

Ling Wei knew that this was Sen Da's doing.

And this wave of operations was too useful for her!

Actually, Ling Wei knew that those people had resisted the order previously because many of their families had contracted this illness. Mu Huan was their hope, so they naturally couldn't destroy their hope. But now, not only was Mu Huan no longer their hope, but she was also the person who had killed their master. She might have even killed one of their families. This situation was completely different!

This was especially so since they had a drug that could effectively control this illness. They no longer needed Mu Huan.

Hence, she gave the order to kill Mu Huan again.

Just as she had thought, they took action this time!

...

Mu Huan was woken up.

"Xiao Huan, wake up! Wake up!" Professor Sam shook Mu Huan to wake her up.

Mu Huan opened her eyes. After being in a daze for a few seconds, she immediately sobered up. When she saw Professor Sam's anxious expression, she asked nervously, "What's wrong? Did something go wrong with the experiment?"

"It's not that there's a problem with the experiment, it's..." Sam said as he pulled Mu Huan up. "There's no time to explain. Let's run! Otherwise, it'll be too late!"

"What's going on? Why are we escaping? The experiment..." Before Mu Huan could finish speaking, she was pulled to the door by Sam.

"Professor Sam, don't run yet. Tell me why we're running!" They had developed an effective treatment plan, so they were not far from developing a plan that could completely cure this illness. Her husband was still lying on a bed. How could she leave everything in the laboratory and run away?!

It would take a lot of effort to redo these things! If the virus mutated during this period, all their previous research would be wasted!

Seeing that she didn't know the truth and wouldn't run, Sam hurriedly explained the general situation. "Right now, Sen Tai's men are coming over. They have heavy weapons in their hands. They can destroy our place in an instant! Let's run!"

This wasn't a joke, and it wasn't something she could withstand just because she could fight. They had to run immediately!

Mu Huan frowned. "This shouldn't have happened."

"Indeed, this shouldn't have happened. Before we gave the treatment plan to the patients, we had already done so many experiments. It's definitely impossible for it to cause such damage to the patients! I think it's very likely that it was done by someone. Also, the new medicine for treating this illness appeared too timely!" Professor Sam paused.

"We're not arrogant at all. We, who are researching this virus in the laboratory, are already top-notch in this area. It's impossible for anyone to have developed an effective drug earlier than us when they are completely unfamiliar with this virus. Unless this drug had been researched long ago and was only waiting for the opportunity to be taken out!"

After Professor Sam received the news, he thought that it was impossible for such a situation to happen. In the end, he thought that this was the only possibility.

Although there were many things in the scientific research world that Sam wouldn't do and he wouldn't cross the bottom line, it didn't mean that he didn't know about such things.

Chapter 1399: The Last Battle (34)

Mu Huan's eyes darkened. Before Professor Sam said anything about this, she had thought of this as well. This was because, as Professor Sam had said, their laboratory had gathered all the top experts in this area. It could be said that they had worked tirelessly to develop such an effective plan.

It was impossible for others to have developed a more effective drug faster than all of them combined in such a short period of time when they were completely unfamiliar with this virus.

There was only one possibility left. The drug had been developed long ago.

The spread of this variant super virus was not an accident but man-made!

"Who in Country Y has this drug?" Mu Huan asked.

"According to reliable sources, it came from CEO Liu." After Professor Sam said that, he said anxiously, "We can leave now, right?! If we don't leave now, it'll be too late!"

"Professor, you can leave first. I'll contact someone," Mu Huan said.

"Xiao Huan, I know you don't want to give up on this laboratory. It'll take time to restore the data in the laboratory, but no matter what, life is the most important. Besides, even if you lose your life, you won't be able to protect this laboratory! With one shot, we'll lose both our people and the laboratory!"

Sam grabbed her and insisted on retreating with her.

Seeing this, Mu Huan did not say anything else. As she retreated with Professor Sam, she took out her phone and called the leader's eldest son, Sen Sun.

"Professor Mu, you guys evacuate to the underground safe room for the time being. I already know everything, and I also know who did it when my father and second uncle passed away. This has nothing to do with you. I'm taking action now. You guys stay in the underground safe room and don't come out. After everything is over, I'll inform you. Don't worry, I'll do my best to protect the laboratory.

"You don't have to worry about Mr. Bo. No matter if it's my third uncle or anyone else, they won't be able to find him." The leader's eldest son was a very smart and capable person.

"Thank you." Mu Huan did not say anything else. She knew that they were all busy.

After hanging up, she followed Sam and the others to the underground safe room.

Although everyone had been transferred to the underground safe room and there were no more experimental equipment, they did not idle around. They discussed some other matters.

They were all experienced people, so they did not feel uneasy or afraid.

After the discussion.

"CEO Liu is really..." When Sam mentioned Mr. Liu, his expression was indescribable.

He had entered NST long ago and had known Mr. Liu for more than ten years. He didn't expect him to do such a thing now.

"Sigh..." The other experts belonging to NST sighed.

When Mu Huan became the heir, Mr. Liu had come to poach them away. Because their ideals were different, they chose to continue staying in NST. However, they had worked together for so many years after all. Now, they couldn't help but sigh.

"I wonder who on CEO Liu's side developed this virus. I feel that the people he poached shouldn't have been able to develop such a super virus and effective suppressant in such a short period of time after going with him."

Back then, Mr. Liu had poached many people, but they had worked together for many years. Everyone knew each other's capabilities very well. Hence, Professor Sam did not expect anyone to have developed such a powerful super virus in such a short time.

Chapter 1400: The Last Battle (35)

After all, it hadn't been long since CEO Liu and Mu Huan officially split up.

"It wasn't developed by him. It must have been developed by Sen Da's people," Mu Huan said.

"Sen Da?" Everyone was stunned, not knowing who he was.

“He’s Sen Tai’s half-brother. He must be a very formidable plastic surgeon. It’s just that I’ve never heard of him in the medical world. Logically speaking, someone like him should be very famous...” Mu Huan said.

Just by looking at how perfectly Sen Da had fixed Ling Wei’s face, she couldn’t tell that she had undergone plastic surgery. His ability was almost as god-like as that of the Face Changing Master in a Japanese drama that she had watched. Someone with such ability should be very famous in the industry, but even after she had investigated all the awesome people in the plastic surgery world, she could not find him.

“Do you have a photo? Let me see,” Professor Sam said.

Professor Sam looked at the photo on Mu Huan’s phone. After looking at it for a while, he put on his glasses and looked at it carefully. Then, he took out his phone and showed it to the person beside him. “Minnie, look at this person. Doesn’t he look like that student of Mayer’s?”

Minnie took the phone and looked at it for a while. “It’s definitely him!”

“Mayer, is it that super famous Mayer?” Mu Huan asked.

“Yes, that’s the big shot who hasn’t appeared in a hundred years. This student of his is also very formidable. Like you, he’s young and talented. It’s just that he’s too ambitious and has bad intentions.” Professor Sam had some relationship with Professor Mayer before and knew of his only proud student.

“Then why haven’t I heard of him in the medical world?” Mu Huan asked curiously.

“You must have heard of Project X.”

Mu Huan asked, “He’s Project X?”

“Yes.”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

She had read a few of Project X’s papers, and the opinions he raised could open the door to a new world!

What a pity...

In this world, there were many people and many things that would go astray.

A day later, Mu Huan and the rest were informed that they could return to the laboratory. When they arrived, the leader’s eldest son, Sen Sun, had his confidant waiting for them. He was holding a drug that he had taken from Country Y that could effectively suppress this virus.

The man respectfully handed the drug to Mu Huan and said, “This drug has already been crazily purchased by every country’s medical structure.”

Mu Huan took it and took a look. “I’ll get someone to analyze this composition.”

“The laboratory is more or less affected. Take a look and see if there are any machines that are damaged or that can’t be used. We’ll bring replacements over as soon as possible.”

“Alright, thank you.”

“You’re welcome, Madam Bo.”

The damage to the laboratory was very small, and the equipment here were all top-notch. The quality was very good, and they could all be used after a power test. This made everyone heave a sigh of relief. After all, even if they used the fastest speed to transfer new equipment, it would still be a waste of time.

Before Sen Sun’s confidant left, he said to Mu Huan alone, “This group of people was ordered by Mr. Sen Tai’s wife to attack. She has already escaped. However, Madam Bo, don’t worry. Our men are chasing after her. After we catch her, we will hand her over to you for you to deal with.”

“Okay.” Mu Huan felt that Bo Junyan was right. The leader’s eldest son was very capable. Not only was he capable, but he was also a very meticulous person. He did things very well and considered everything. There was no need for anyone to say anything else. He did things perfectly.

After all the experiment procedures had returned to normal...
