

Fake Marriage 211

Chapter 211: To Catch the King Before the Robber

“Inviting me with open arms?” Mu Huan’s gaze as she looked at him was getting colder.

“Don’t worry too much, the chance of you winning is still quite high. The speed at which a crocodile swims isn’t that fast, and weren’t you the champion of the 200-meter swimming competition?” When Long Feiting went to research on Mu Huan, he found out that she was the champion of the swimming competition when she was in high school. Her speed was so fast, she could have competed in the Olympics and won something.

When the Imperial Capital saw her results, they’d wanted to give her special treatment, but they were rejected by her.

Instead of answering, Mu Huan suddenly ran toward the platform Long Feiting was on.

Although everyone saw her running over, no one stopped her. They allowed her to run until she was in front of Long Feiting. It might be that because she looked too small and harmless, that they were in their own territory, or that they had a hostage on their hand, no one thought about stopping her.

“What, do you want to beat me up? Let me tell you...” Before Long Feiting could finish speaking, he suddenly felt a sharp pain on his skin, and then, he felt giddy.

He turned his head and saw that Mu Huan had stuck a needle into his arm.

He widened his eyes in shock!

He never expected that!

He never thought that Mu Huan would be so daring!

He never thought that she would dare to run over and attack him when he had a hold over her and also had Li Meng in his hands!

And she didn’t say anything at all!

All the bodyguards were also stunned. They never thought that Mu Huan was so vicious that she would attack without saying anything.

Mu Huan had never liked to say redundant stuff. It was because when she was young and watched television dramas, she recognized a pattern. It was that regardless of whether the person was good or bad, at the critical moment, the ones who talk the most die.

Thus, ever since she was young, whenever she met an opponent, she wouldn’t say much unless she had to speak to distract whoever it was. She would immediately take action and take the person down!

This was to catch the king before the robber.

When the bodyguards returned to their senses, they hurriedly pounced on Mu Huan.

“Don’t come over! If you come over, I’ll kill him!” As Mu Huan spoke, she took out a sharp surgical knife and put it closely to Long Feiting’s throat.

Long Feiting, who was injected with something unknown by Mu Huan, felt really dizzy. His whole body felt weak and he couldn't move. He had no ability to resist at all.

Under the sunlight, the surgical knife was gleaming with a menacing shine. It scared the bodyguards until they took a few steps back subconsciously.

Their young master was the most precious one in his family. If anything happened to him, they were all done for!

Long Feiting had never been threatened by someone in this way. He was furious as he said, "Don't be scared of her, she wouldn't dare to kill me! Let the crocodile into the water and kill that Li Meng!"

He didn't believe that Mu Huan would dare to kill him!

"Yes, you're right, I don't dare to kill you. However, I definitely dare to hurt you!" Mu Huan was mimicking the way Long Feiting was speaking to her just now.

She wanted to let people know that although she didn't dare to kill Long Feiting, she'd definitely dare to draw a few lines on him using a knife!

"Mu Huan, if you dare, come and try it!" Long Feiting was still very arrogant.

If she dared to touch him, she's done for!

To everyone's surprise, the next second, the surgical knife in Mu Huan's hand drew a line across his neck. Instantly, fresh red blood surged out of his neck!

Long Feiting was shocked. How dare she?! She really dared to lay her hands on him?!

"In all these years, you're the first person who's invited me to hurt you. I'd feel bad rejecting you." Mu Huan sighed.

Long Feiting was struck dumb on the spot.

Chapter 212: Wasn't It Good to Stay Alive and Well?

All the bodyguards were speechless.

Long Feiting already thought that he was someone really arrogant. Little did he expect that there was someone more arrogant than he was!

This Mu Huan made him really excited!

"Let my friend go now, or else, I will draw countless lines on him with the knife. When that happens, he would have injuries all over him and they'll leave scars. What will you all do then?"

Long Feiting was the treasure of the family. Everyone knew that if anything were to happen to him, those bodyguards who were tasked to protect him would all be done for!

"No, you're not allowed to let her go. Release the crocodile to bite her now! If she dares to continue drawing on my body, then let her do it. I want to see how daring she is!" As the craziest Young Master Long of the Imperial Capital, Long Feiting was still acting crazy despite having a knife at his throat!

All the bodyguards were speechless.

What exactly should they do?

All of Mu Huan's actions told them that she was a person who'd definitely dare to act extremely!

While their young master's life would definitely not be in danger, still... his injuries would put their lives in danger!

"Young Master..." The bodyguards looked at Long Feiting and hoped that he would let Li Meng go. Their young master was just bored and wanted to find someone to play with. It wasn't like he had a deep grievance against them and couldn't let her go. Why must he go to such lengths!

"Whoever doesn't heed my words and lets her go is dead meat!" Long Feiting narrowed his eyes, and his murderous gaze instantly shot around the surroundings.

The bodyguards didn't dare to speak much less let Li Meng go!

Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan and said crazily, "Mu Huan, if you have the guts, then go ahead and cut me once more on my throat with the knife, and this time, make it deeper!"

What did it matter if she made such a shallow cut? If she had the guts, she could cut him deeper on his neck. If she dared to, he would give it to her!

Mu Huan replied, "Is there something wrong with your brain? Isn't it good to be alive and well?"

He wanted her to cut him deeper on his neck!

Even if he wasn't scared of death, she didn't want to get her hands dirty, alright?!

"If you don't dare, then you should give in to me and follow my rules to save her. If not, your friend is done for!" With such a hostage in his hands, how dare she still fight crazily with him?!

Ever since he was young, no one could beat him at being crazy!

Mu Huan seemed to have something up her sleeve, and her lips curved into a smile. "Really?"

"Of course!" Long Feiting was sure.

They were in his territory and she dared to threaten him! She's really too arrogant!

"Then you should look. Take a good look — is your bargaining chip still there?" Mu Huan said, asking him to look down.

Long Feiting looked over and realized that Li Meng was no longer at her original spot.

Three people who were donning masks and caps to hide their faces had saved Li Meng while the bodyguards' attention was on Mu Huan and Long Feiting.

When Long Feiting looked over, they were already at the wall. They gave an "OK" hand sign to Mu Huan and then climbed over the wall and escaped.

Long Feiting could only watch them escape so easily before his eyes!

He was so furious!

Why were someone else's men so useful and yet he had a bunch of useless things working for him?!

Mu Huan was also someone working for an agency. Although her colleagues were poor, they were capable.

While Mu Huan distracted everyone's attention, they were able to take the chance to save Li Meng and run away with her. To them, that was such a simple job!

"Mu Huan, don't forget that I still have the video from the surveillance cameras in my hands! Wait until I hand it to Bao Junyan — you'd be done for!" Long Feiting said viciously. Ever since he was young, he had never been so embarrassed!

Chapter 213: Poison

"It's such an important matter. why would I forget about it?"

"Then you should be obedient and go compete with the crocodile. If you give in now, I can still spare your life!" Based on her abilities as well as how fun the task was, as long as she made him happy, he would not bother with her about the cut she had given him just now!

Alas, after he finished speaking...

Mu Huan suddenly stuffed something into his mouth, pulled his head back, and forced him to swallow it!

"What did you make me eat?!" Long Feiting hollered angrily.

This damn Mu Huan! Earlier, she'd suddenly injected some unknown medicine into him and that was enough for her to earn a death sentence! And now, she actually fed him something unknown!

"Poison."

Long Feiting was struck dumb on the spot.

All the bodyguards were speechless.

Ms. Mu, please stop scaring us! You, you don't seem like such a vicious person! Why did you even use poison?!

"You'd have to take an antidote every half a month. If you stay obedient, both of us will live well. But if you let Bao Junyan know that I fight and I get in trouble, you'd also be in trouble!" Mu Huan knew that if she were to have asked him for the recording that day, he would rather die than hand it over.

But she couldn't let him threaten her with such a thing!

Long Feiting was entertained by her. "Mu Huan, are you joking with me? Poison, and it needs an antidote every half a month?!"

Did she watch too many martial arts stories and got too into it?

"I'm not joking with you; you should be feeling the effects soon," Mu Huan said seriously.

“What feeling? Am I going to get killed by the poison suddenly?” Long Feiting mocked coldly. He didn’t believe that she had dared to give him poison.

“This poison doesn’t take lives, but it will make one feel really itchy. And the more you scratch, the itchier it gets! It gets itchier as you scratch! When that happens, this beautiful skin of yours, your handsome face, would be scratched by you until it bleeds, and you would get disfigured!”

He didn’t know if it was only due to Mu Huan’s words, but Long Feiting felt his body start to itch.

“Don’t doubt my words. When you investigated me, you should have found out that my grandfather’s family was from the medical industry! The prescriptions passed down from my grandfather’s ancestors are famous in the country! Besides those that can heal illnesses, there are actually still some that can cause people to fall ill. The one that I’ve used on you can only be understood by me. No matter which doctor you visit, they wouldn’t be able to help you! If you don’t believe me, we can try it out! Let’s see who can stop your itch!”

The people of the Song family had all along been gifted in medicine. As people say, medicine and poison were from the same family. Thus, among the prescriptions of the Song family, other than those that could heal illnesses effectively, there were also many that could make people ill and cause them to suffer.

Until now, there weren’t any families whose medicine could compare to those from the Song family. Thus, there wasn’t anyone who could find the remedy to the medicines of the Songs!

Long Feiting had heard of the Songs’ medicines before. However, he had never heard of their poisons. Even so, it felt as if his body was starting to itch even more!

That itch made his eyes turn dark and dangerous. “Mu Huan, do you want to die?”

One could see that he was really furious!

“Why would I want to die?” Mu Huan sighed. “To be honest, Long Feiting, I just want to live my life peacefully and normally. I don’t want to go against you at all, and I really don’t want to do such things.

“However, that’s only if you don’t force me. What else can I do when you are riding on my head? I can only be more vicious and harsher than you!”

Chapter 214: Does He Not Want His Face?

“We don’t have a deep grievance between one another, and now, you know what kind of a person Mu Kexin is. She was always the one who’d come to me looking for trouble. If she bites me once, it makes no sense if I don’t retaliate. But tell me, why must you do this? If you have nothing better to do and find life boring, you can tell me and I can find something to entertain you. But can we not be like this?

“I really dislike finding trouble. I only want to study well and improve myself. As long as you’re willing, we can let everything that had happened pass. I can pass you the remedy right now, and in the future, we can be good brothers. Both of us would be well and it’ll be good for everyone!”

If it was possible, Mu Huan wanted to live in peace with Long Feiting. This was because he was someone who was so powerful and unpredictable — someone who had no morals and was so hard to deal with. And since she had won against him this time, he would definitely be harsher next time.

She was really busy right now. She didn't have time to defend against him.

She just wanted to study well!

With this secret prescription of the Song family, she had already played the card she was good at, and it could save her half the time in achieving her goal. In no time, she would be able to be independent and not be controlled by anyone. She could fly as she pleased and swim as she wanted. She really had no time to waste on him!

When the bodyguards heard her words, they all looked at Long Feiting. They really wanted the two of them to dissolve all their grudges and become friends.

Not only was she Bao Junyan's wife, which meant she had such a huge backing and they couldn't be vicious when laying their hands on her, but she was also someone who was already hard to deal with on her own!

Aside from her being able to fight, she could even poison!

She was really too scary!

Their becoming brothers would be good for everyone!

Long Feiting could see the sincerity in Mu Huan, but he was Young Master Long, and he was played with so badly in his own territory. Did he not want his face anymore?

Becoming brothers? Becoming brothers, her head! As a woman, how could she be his brother?!

But his body was starting to itch even more. The itch was so bad, he wasn't able to take it any longer and subconsciously lifted his hand to begin scratching.

"It's very itchy and hard to bear with, right? If you continue scratching, it would itch even more!" Mu Huan kindly reminded.

As Long Feiting looked at her, he got even angrier!

Patch up? Be brothers?! She could dream on! If he, Long Feiting, didn't torment her to death, he would change his surname to hers!

He seemed to have thought of something, and Long Feiting said, "It's not possible to forget our previous grudges and be brothers! Give me the remedy and I'll give you the surveillance video from that day. I'd just take it that we tied!"

"Can your words be trusted? What if you still have many copies in your hands even after giving me one?"

"Yes, I have only one copy!" After he said that, he asked for someone to bring over the surveillance video from that day.

The bodyguard immediately took out the flash drive from the laptop and passed it to Mu Huan with both hands.

Mu Huan was a straightforward person. She immediately gave Long Feiting the remedy.

Not long after Long Feiting took the remedy, his body stopped itching.

Just as Mu Huan was about to leave...

Long Feiting's lips curved into a cold and vicious smile. "Catch her!"

Although he agreed to give her the surveillance video, he didn't say that she could leave this place safely!

In this world, no one could be safe after offending him!

The bodyguards instantly surrounded Mu Huan.

They had been in charge of protecting Long Feiting for many years and they knew him very well. He was the kind of person who could only be the one bullying others. Now that he had suffered so much, he would definitely not be kind and let Mu Huan go.

Even if she was Bao Junyan's wife.

When Young Master Long was angry, he wasn't scared of anything.

Chapter 215: There's No Limit to His Protection (1)

"Ms. Mu, please don't resist. We don't want to hurt you," the leading bodyguard said.

Although their Young Master Long wasn't afraid of Bao Junyan, they were afraid! If they hurt Mu Huan, they'd be done for! However, if they didn't catch her, their young master wouldn't let them off!

It was really hard to survive in a job at times like these!

Mu Huan said, "Why don't you all let me go obediently?"

Why would she not resist and obediently allow them to catch her? And torture her?

"Ms. Mu, please don't make life hard for us!" the bodyguards said as they moved forward.

"Then why can you make life hard for me?" Mu Huan's gaze became colder.

Just as war was about to break out...

"What are all of you doing?" a confused voice was heard saying.

That voice made everyone look over subconsciously.

Mu Huan also looked over.

Then, she saw Bao Junyan standing with an unknown man not far away!

It made her widen her eyes in shock!

As she thought of how she almost started fighting with them and got caught red-handed by Bao Junyan...

Her heart skipped a few beats!

Bao... Bao Junyan, why... why was he here?

Unless it was Long Feiting's plan? That he wanted Bao Junyan to watch her fight in front of him?

She instantly looked at Long Feiting, her eyes cold. If he really was so despicable, she couldn't be blamed for being brutal with him!

Amazingly, Long Feiting could tell what her gaze meant. He hurriedly shook his head and said, "It's not me!"

To invite Bao Junyan here to watch him bully his wife — was he that stupid?!

Given Bao Junyan's protective nature, no matter what big mistake his wife had committed, he was the only one who could scold her. No one else could. If Bao Junyan found out that he had done that to his wife, he was definitely dead meat!

Mu Huan thought so too. She withdrew her gaze and turned to look at Bao Junyan. She sweetly called out, "Hubby, I'm here!"

All the bodyguards were speechless.

The person who was so fierce and murderous the previous second had become an innocent and harmless one in the next!

Did she know the art of face-changing?!

Bao Junyan walked toward them with the man with a tall build.

"Young Master, Eldest Young Master is here. What should we do?" the leader of the bodyguards said softly.

A few days ago, their Eldest Young Master had asked Little Young Master to go and apologize to Mu Huan again and told him to get along with her well in the future. However, he went to find trouble with her. What should they do now?

Long Feiting had a depressed gaze. Why did his eldest brother come at this timing? And he even brought Bao Junyan along!

While they were talking, Bao Junyan and Long Feilei had already walked over.

"What were you doing just now?" Long Feilei looked at his youngest brother, his gaze threatening and seemingly saying, "You better not have been finding trouble with other people's woman!"

Although Long Feilei really doted on his youngest brother, he would not allow him to do whatever he wanted without control.

When Mu Huan saw Bao Junyan, she immediately walked to his side.

Bao Junyan came forward and sized her up. After ensuring that she wasn't injured, he hugged her.

But his gaze was still extremely cold.

It was obvious that no matter who had bullied his little wife, he would not let them off!

“Big Brother, you said that I was wrong and that I should apologize to her formally, right? So I invited her here and apologized to her.” Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan, his gaze slightly threatening.

She better cooperate with him! Or else, if the matter was exposed, she was dead meat too!

“Really?” Long Feilei looked at Mu Huan. Although the atmosphere just now didn’t seem like his brother was apologizing, he hoped that this matter could be settled peacefully.

Chapter 216: There’s No Limit to His Protection (2)

As long as Mu Huan said that nothing had happened, Bao Junyan would be alright and everyone would be fine too.

“He was apologizing to me, but I don’t accept this kind of apology from him! When I wanted to leave, he asked his people to block my way and stop me from leaving!” Mu Huan didn’t cooperate with Long Feiting at all.

This made Long Feiting narrow his eyes. Written in his eyes was: Mu Huan, don’t tell me that you’re not worried that Bao Junyan would find out that you know how to fight?

Mu Huan exerted force with the hand she had in her pocket and broke the flash drive. Then, she looked at Long Feiting’s challenging expression and goaded him mentally: Say it now if you dare! If you dare to say it now, I will also risk everything and tell them how you made life difficult for me today.

Let’s see who dies!

If Bao Junyan hadn’t appeared here today, Mu Huan would have been worried that Long Feiting would approach him and tell him about her. But now that her husband was here and had seen the bodyguards crowding her, if Long Feiting dared to say anything, she would drag him into the waters as well!

With no surveillance video, even if Long Feiting told Bao Junyan how she had fought with the loansharks, there would be no proof. Even if her husband found out about this matter, he wouldn’t be able to see the scene and he wouldn’t be able to imagine how well she could fight. Furthermore, who wouldn’t risk their lives to save their fathers? It wasn’t like she had gone to pick a fight over nothing. In this case, he would at most just nag at her and ask her to tell him when she gets involved in such troubles and not risk herself.

He would definitely not ditch her for this.

But Bao Junyan had witnessed it personally that Long Feiting was causing trouble for her. There was the factor of him seeing it himself. Bullying Mu Huan was equal to bullying Bao Junyan. In this case, who would be in deeper trouble?

Long Feiting was struck dumb on the spot.

This damn Mu Huan! She’s really so arrogant, she made him want to bite her!

But he also realized that if he spoke about the incident now, it would be disadvantageous to him. Thus, he could only resist the urge and keep quiet.

Hearing her words, Long Feilei turned his head to look at Long Feiting. He scolded him angrily, "Feiting, I told you to apologize to Mrs. Bao properly, you..."

Before he could finish speaking, he saw the injury on his neck as Long Feiting had lifted his head up. Long Feilei's expression immediately changed!

"Baby, how did you get this injury?! Who hurt you?!" The members of the Long family still treated and doted on Long Feiting like a little baby.

When Mu Huan heard such a big man like Long Feiting still being addressed as "Baby," she couldn't resist it and let out a "pfft" in laughter.

Long Feiting was struck dumb on the spot.

The two nicknames, Little Fatty and Baby, were the biggest shame he had in his life!

"Brother!!" he shouted in anger.

Long Feilei realized that he had called him wrongly in that moment of panic and hurriedly changed his words, "Feiting, why are you injured? Who injured you?"

"It's Mu Huan!" Long Feiting looked at Mu Huan in anger. Sure, he could not mention her fighting, but now, let's see how she'd explain about hurting him! He then continued, "She injected some unknown medicine into me, and I'm still feeling very weak all over and I can't move!"

Mu Huan was speechless.

F*ck! He used this tactic!

Long Feilei looked at Mu Huan in surprise. It was as if he couldn't believe that this soft, cute, and small girl had not only hurt his brother but also injected an unknown substance into him!

But under such a circumstance, his brother couldn't be lying. It could only be that this young woman had hurt him.

So then, was it that his brother had sincerely apologized but Mu Huan hurt him?

This made Long Feilei feel slightly more confident. Thus, he lifted his head up and looked at Bao Junyan. "Uncle Bao, you see, this..."

Chapter 217: There's No Limit to His Protection (3)

"It's not my brother who bullied your wife. It's your wife who hurt my brother. You see how this should be settled, right?!"

Bao Junyan looked at Mu Huan and asked, "You hurt him?"

"Yes. He forced me here and there are so many bodyguards around. It seemed as if he wanted to bully me. I was very scared, so I decided to take action first. I used the anesthetic I was originally using for experiments and injected him with it, then I used a surgical knife to threaten him to let me off, but he still refused to do so and asked those people to catch me. He even challenged me to hurt him. In order for them to see my determination in leaving and make them scared of me, I cut him lightly. Then, he continued challenging me to cut him deeper if I dared. I didn't even cut him with force!

"Look at his wound, it had already closed!" Mu Huan's expression showed that she was at her wit's end and that she's already really obedient by not hurting him badly.

"Good job!" Bao Junyan said, commending her.

Not only did she not panic in danger, but she took the first move to stop him. His little wife was really awesome!

Long Feilei was speechless.

Did he get something wrong?! Just now, when they didn't know what exactly had happened and felt that the atmosphere was a little off, Bao Junyan already had on a harsh expression that warned and said that if his younger brother had hurt his wife, he would want his younger brother's life.

Now that it turned out his wife was the one who had hurt his younger brother, not only did he not lecture his wife, he even praised her for doing well!

Long Feilei himself was already really protective of his brother. Little did he know that Bao Junyan was even more exaggerating!

All the bodyguards: "..."

It was indeed true, beautiful women can't be trusted! Look how innocent she made herself look, but...

Something wasn't right...

If you give it a thorough thought, Mu Huan didn't lie.

What she had said was actually the truth.

It was just that... she had emphasized the facts that benefited her more perfectly!

"Mu Huan, can you be even more shameless than this?!" Long Feiting was so angry that he was about to burst. She got praised for landing him in such a pathetic state!

"How am I shameless? Did I not speak the truth?" Mu Huan's expression said that she was just speaking the truth, so how was she shameless?!

"You..." Long Feiting really felt like exposing all the truth and letting Bao Junyan know Mu Huan's real self, but... after giving it a thought, he could only swallow the urge.

Long Feilei looked at Mu Huan and said, "No matter what, you've hurt Feiting. You still should..."

Before he could finish speaking, he was interrupted by Bao Junyan.

"What, your own brother is useless and you need others to apologize for that?"

In the Long family's territory and with so many bodyguards protecting him, how was it that he was still injured by his wife, a girl who was so weak and young? If Bao Junyan had such a useless brother, he would've kicked him out of the family long ago. How would he have the face to ask someone else to apologize?!

Long Feilei was stunned speechless until he almost vomited blood. F*ck!

Even in a situation involving a three-year-old kid who, for some reason, had scratched someone else's child, the parents would apologize first before talking about other things.

His wife was already so old, and she not only injected anesthetic into his younger brother but also hurt him. How could she not apologize at all?!

And how could his younger brother be blamed for being useless?!

Bao Junyan's protectiveness was really setting a new record!

But the person was Bao Junyan and he could only divert his anger onto the bodyguards. "How did all of you even protect your young master?!"

They let Mu Huan get close to his younger brother, inject medicine into him, and hurt him!

As he thought so, Long Feilei suddenly realized that this didn't make sense. His younger brother was personally taught by him; he was the one who knew best about his ability. Long Feiting was so strong that even if there weren't any bodyguards protecting him, he shouldn't have been hurt by a young girl!

Thus, he looked at Mu Huan.

Chapter 218: There's No Limit to His Protection (4)

"Feiting had so many people protecting him, how did you hurt him?" That would only be possible if that young lady was not as harmless as she looked.

Bao Junyan was also very curious as to how his little wife had hurt Long Feiting. The bodyguards of the Long family were decently strong. Given that these ones were in charge of protecting Long Feiting, they were the elites among the bodyguards.

Mu Huan explained the flow of the situation. "I simply approached him then used the anesthetic used in the laboratory for big animals to inject him with. When he softened, I put the surgical knife to his throat. He asked me to try and cut him, and thus, I did so."

Long Feilei: "..."

Bao Junyan: "..."

So simple.

"Are my family's bodyguards useless? Did no one stop you?" Long Feilei didn't believe that no one stopped her from going forward to hurt his brother.

"Indeed, no one stopped me."

Long Feilei looked at all the bodyguards.

All the bodyguards: "..."

They really didn't block her way!

"We... we didn't expect that Ms. Mu would take action."

Long Feilei was speechless.

He then looked at Long Feiting again. "Did you not expect it either?"

Long Feiting had an unsightly expression on his face as he replied, "Who'd expect her to suddenly come forward and stab me with a needle without saying anything?!"

Long Feilei was speechless.

Who would tell you, "Hey, I'm going to hurt you, be careful!" when they are going to hurt you?

"Not bad." Bao Junyan stuck out his hand and patted Mu Huan's head in praise.

A weak girl didn't cry despite being scared in such a circumstance. Instead, she took such actions and attacked the unprepared.

His little wife was smarter and more courageous than he thought.

When Long Feilei heard his words, he had a stronger urge to vomit blood.

This was like two kids were fighting, and although both parents didn't want their child to be the bullying party, they also didn't want their child to be the one getting hurt.

Especially when his own child had been hurt and the other parent didn't scold his child, even praising her!

It really made one want to vomit blood so badly!

Long Feilei seemed to have thought of something as he asked further, "Why did you bring anesthetic along with you?"

Who would bring this everywhere they went? Did she prepare this beforehand? Did she intentionally want to hurt his younger brother?

"In the afternoon, I was going to go to the zoo with a veterinary professor to conduct an operation on a bear. As I was afraid that something unexpected might happen, I prepared a syringe of anesthetic on me, to prevent accidents."

"Aren't you studying medicine?" Why was she going to conduct an operation on a bear with a veterinary professor?! And end up using the anesthetic meant for the bear on his younger brother?!

"There is a need to have foundational medical knowledge in medicine. Because the animal protection organizations have protested, there are fewer and fewer chances for a hands-on experiment with live samples. Thus, I went to minor in veterinary as well and follow the vets to cure animals. I can learn more in these than in lessons taught in class."

Long Feilei: "..."

Why was she still working so hard after marrying into a rich family?!

“Uncle Bao, I want to bring Feiting to the hospital for a checkup. You leave as you please!” No matter how angry he was, he couldn’t pick a fight with Bao Junyan.

“Let PA Wang follow you.” Bao Junyan meant that he would fork out the doctor’s fees.

Long Feilei was speechless.

Was the Long family in need of money?! Were they short of that bit for the doctor’s fees?!

What they needed was an apology! He was so protective, he didn’t even allow her to apologize!

When Mu Huan heard that they were going to the hospital, she hurriedly said, “You don’t have to be too worried, the amount of anesthetic I used to protect myself was a small dose. When it is used on a body mass like his, it will just make him weak for a period of time. Nothing much will happen after.”

Chapter 219: There’s No Limit to His Protection (5)

Long Feilei looked at her unhappily. Just because it was a small dose, she could inject the anesthetic meant for animals on his younger brother?

“Ms. Mu, if there’s any problem between you and Feiting in the future, please call me immediately. Regardless of whether it’s his fault or not, I will definitely lecture him well. But I hope that in the future, you wouldn’t lay your hands on him again, or else, even if it’s at the cost of Uncle Bao’s face, our family wouldn’t let it slide!”

Bao Junyan narrowed his eyes and said, “Who are you threatening? And what do you mean, Ms. Mu? She’s my wife — you have to address her as ‘Aunt’ because she’s an elder!”

They wouldn’t let this off? He wanted to see just how the Long family wouldn’t be able to let this off!

Long Feilei was speechless.

Not only was he not allowed to lecture her, but he also wasn’t allowed to speak harshly to her!

“In the future, if that youngling from your family finds trouble again out of nothing and you can’t teach him well, I wouldn’t mind teaching him for you!” That young brat from their family had found trouble with his wife and was useless enough to get injured. Not only did he not reflect on himself, he even came to scare his wife!

Long Feilei was speechless.

Long Feiting was speechless too.

This Bao Junyan was really the most protective person ever!

On the way home...

“In the future, if that lad Long Feiting finds trouble with you again, feel free to irritate him. Even if the sky falls, I’m here.” Bao Junyan was worried that because of what Long Feilei had said, she would bear with it when Long Feiting finds trouble with her again.

“Hubby...” Mu Huan snuggled into his arm, super touched.

Ever since she was young, even when she was being doted on, no one had ever supported her so strongly. Whenever she fought with someone and hurt the person, she would get scolded. No matter why she fought, she must apologize. When it came to him, though, he supported her so willingly. No matter who she had hurt, he allowed her to act as she wanted and retaliate as she pleased. He would be there for her.

Bao Junyan rubbed her head gently, then he thought of something and said, “Why did you go and minor in veterinary as well? You’re just in Year 1 and you’re so busy already. Can you cope?”

She entered the research department of the school, and medicine was one of the hardest subjects. Now, she even took up veterinary medicine as a minor. Would her small body be able to cope with so much work?

“Yes!” Her time was really tight. She had to make good use of it to be efficient!

Bao Junyan looked at her and suddenly recalled an article that mentioned how a parent was so worried that her child enjoyed only studying.

Now, he strongly agreed with it.

“Being eager to learn and study well is good, but you don’t have to work so hard.” His little wife loved to study too much and was too eager to learn.

Upon entering university, other people had started to play. However, she was so busy studying that after he had completed his work every day, she’d still be studying.

“I must work hard, Hubby. You’re so outstanding, so I cannot be too lousy or I wouldn’t be compatible with you...” She wasn’t lying when she said that. Although she had planned to leave, she had also yearned to be strong enough to be on his level. At the point when she no longer had to be controlled by others, if she would be able to independently and willingly be together with him, she’d like to have a relationship with both of them being of equal status.

“You were born to be up to my standards, you don’t have to stress yourself.” Bao Junyan thought that his wife was already good enough.

“Hubby, you’re really so awesome! I will definitely work harder to become a better person so that I can always, always be with you!” Mu Huan hugged him and lifted her head up as she said that in a tone of promise.

She was born to be up to his standards — this sentence really made her heart explode with happiness!

“You don’t have to work hard to become better. You’re already very good now. As long as you stay obedient, you’ll always be Mrs. Bao. You don’t have to think about anything else.” Why did she always think that he would not want her and even work so hard so as to match up to him? He thought that she’s already really good now.

Chapter 220: There’s No Limit to His Protection (6)

Just now, all that Mu Huan had said about how well this man treated her, along with her determination to stay with him, died after she heard his words.

He was so nice to her that she had almost forgotten; he was good to her only because she was an obedient wife.

If she was no longer obedient and her true self was exposed, he wouldn't like her anymore, much less be good to her...

Sensing the change in her emotions, Bao Junyan lowered her head and asked, "What's wrong?"

Mu Huan couldn't resist but say, "Sometimes, I feel like I'm a pet dog of yours."

As long as she was obedient.

Bao Junyan couldn't help but break into laughter. "Why do you feel like this?"

"You shouldn't ask me why I feel like this. Instead, you should ask yourself why you make me feel like this!"

Bao Junyan: "..."

What did he do to make her feel like this?

The Long Family...

Long Feiting refused to go to the hospital for a checkup no matter what. Long Feilei had no choice but to invite the doctor over to their house to check on him.

Long Feilei only stopped worrying after the doctor had given Long Feiting a detailed check and was sure that there was nothing wrong with him.

After the doctor left...

He could no longer hold it in.

"Tell me, why are you so stupid? How were you so badly hurt by a weak woman? You really made our entire family lose face!"

"She's weak?" Long Feiting felt that Mu Huan would be a match to him if they fought. He really wanted to puke blood when such a strong woman as her was mistakenly called weak by others.

"Is she not weak?" Long Feilei narrowed his eyes in danger.

Long Feiting was worried that his brother would rush to look for Bao Junyan if he spoke the truth. Thus, he gave it a thought and lied, "She indeed looks weak but, she was really arrogant as she was Bao Junyan's wife! She knew that we wouldn't dare to hurt her, so she wasn't really scared at all and she was so despicable as to attack me secretly!"

His words made sense and Long Feilei was no longer suspicious of anything. "That lady looks really smart and full of ideas!"

"Yes, she's really smart!" Talking about Mu Huan was making Long Feiting clench his teeth in anger.

Today was the most shameful day of his life!

“Next time, don’t go find trouble with her again. If you can’t help it, it can only be her who is injured and not you!” After saying that, he realized that there was something wrong and he said, “Wait, no, even if you can’t bear with it, you must bear with it. She’s Bao Junyan’s wife. If you injure her, you’d be even more injured!”

If Mu Huan was anyone else’s wife, the Long family wouldn’t have cared, but she was Bao Junyan’s wife!

When Long Feilei saw that Long Feiting was keeping quiet, he decided to arrange for more people to be around Long Feiting so that he wouldn’t dare to find trouble with Mu Huan again.

At night, in Sheng Jing.

Although Mu Huan really disliked seeing Gu Chenyi and Lin Qingya, she wasn’t able to avoid seeing them.

Outside, they were in the same school, and at home, they were family.

Now, they even had to sit around the same table to eat.

Luckily, the delicacies in Sheng Jing were famous nationally, and they were indeed really delicious. They had greatly appeased her heart and stomach.

Mrs. Gu suddenly looked at Mu Huan and said, “Xiao Huan, you are in the same class as Qingya, right?”

“Yes.”

“Next time, I’d have to trouble you to take care of Qingya.” Mrs. Gu laughed, and it was really obvious that she was hinting at something.

“What happened?”

“Qingya’s pregnant and Chenyi wouldn’t always be able to be by her side. Both of you are in the same class and are both females. Please help me to take care of her more in times to come.”

“Aunt...” Lin Qingya held on to Mom Gu’s arm shyly.

Mu Huan was speechless.

Lin Qingya was actually pregnant!
