

Fake Marriage 301

Chapter 301: The Surprise He Gave (3)

“Let me give a brief introduction. This is Mr. Bao, who’s specially appointed by our school to temporarily take over the teaching of this term’s Biochemistry!”

It was only when the Director of Education spoke that the students realized there was another person at the lectern!

It wasn’t that the Director of Education did not have any presence, but he had become a mere shadow next to the very outstanding Bao Junyan, and everyone’s brain just failed to register the man.

The moment the Director of Education had said that, the classroom was set abuzz with commotion again.

This unrivaled hunk was their new Biochemistry teacher! This was explosive! Really explosive!

“Woah! Seriously!” Li Meng was beyond stunned. She had thought that the man was in the school to look for Mu Huan, but unexpectedly, he was actually here to teach them Biochemistry!

However, wasn’t Bao Junyan a very busy CEO? Why did he have time to be a teacher at their school?!

Suddenly, she thought of something and grabbed Xiao Huan, whispering, “Xiao Huan, does your husband have a twin brother?”

Could this be an identical twin rather than Bao Junyan?

Mu Huan replied, “I don’t think so...”

Although Mu Huan had been married to Bao Junyan for some time, she knew very little about him. She knew he had a cousin, and that was about all. So she couldn’t be sure that he didn’t have a long lost twin brother or whatever.

“That means there’s a possibility that he has one, right? Then is this man before our eyes his twin brother?”

“I can’t be sure if he has a twin brother, but I can be sure that the man at the lectern is my husband...” Mu Huan could definitely recognize her own husband.

“But didn’t you say he’s very busy? Why would such a busy CEO come to our school to teach?” Li Meng did not understand.

“I don’t know either...” Mu Huan really had no idea. Bao Junyan had not mentioned this to her at all, and she was completely clueless that he was coming to her school to teach Biochemistry!

The Director of Education gave the students a simple introduction and left.

It was only through the Director of Education that she now knew that her husband held so many Ph.D. degrees. He was simply capable in every way!

After the Director of Education left, the students became uncontrollably excited. Many of them took out their cell phones as they wanted to take a picture of their new teacher to post and show-off on the internet.

But before they had the chance to take any pictures, they heard...

“There is only one rule in my class: no pictures and videos. Anyone flouting the rule will be expelled from the school.”

When the students heard his frosty voice, those hands holding out the cell phones to take pictures froze in mid-air. Even those girls who had only wanted to take a picture of his unrivaled good looks to keep for themselves did not dare to hit the shutter button.

“Woah... he’s indeed the God Bao. Just one word and everyone is scared stiff!” Li Meng now believed that the person at the lectern was Bao Junyan. Only God Bao would have such a strong presence.

There wasn’t even a need to say much, and people naturally would not dare to flout his rules.

Mu Huan: “...”

Why did he come here to teach if he didn’t want his pictures or videos taken?

What was her husband thinking?

Why did he come to her school to teach?

Her husband had become her teacher all of a sudden...

This felt...

Mu Huan was tempted to ask Bao Junyan what was going on, but even when their eyes met, she was unable to make out any useful information from his pair of deep and dark eyes. Feeling absolutely defeated, she flopped herself onto the tabletop. She did not know what this was about. Why had he suddenly become their Biochemistry teacher?!

Chapter 302: The Surprise He Gave (4)

Bao Junyan had always been a man of few words. He went straight into the lesson without giving the students much time to attune to the situation.

As Mu Huan was trying hard to figure out why her husband had suddenly become her Biochemistry teacher, she was distracted and continued to lay slumped over the table, puzzled.

Until.

“That female student who is slumped over the table, please come up here.”

Mu Huan didn’t realize she was being referred to, and she did not move from her position.

Until Li Meng nudged her and, trying not to be obvious, said, “Professor Bao is calling out to you.”

Mu Huan bumbled, “What?”

“He’s asking you to go up there to answer a question!”

“What? Me?” Mu Huan looked at Li Meng, and then at Bao Junyan.

Bao Junyan said, “That’s right, you, come up here.”

Mu Huan: “...”

“Wow, this... this is like what they call role play! My god... no, I can’t take this...” Li Meng, who knew they were a married couple, found it too much to take when she looked at them now, trying to act like strangers with each other.

“...” Mu Huan looked at her and was speechless for a moment.

Just at this point, she had wanted to ask Bao Junyan what was going on. Hence, she got up and walked toward the lecturing platform.

As he walked toward Bao Junyan, her eyes were obviously inquiring, Hubby, what is going on? Why are you teaching us Biochemistry?

Bao Junyan shot back with an expression that simply said, We’ll talk about this after class.

Mu Huan knew she wasn’t going to get an answer right now. She looked at the question on the board.

The moment she did...

What the f*ck!

A schematic diagram of the TCA cycle!

She couldn’t help but shoot Bao Junyan a look... Are you really my husband?

Bao Junyan: You should have been paying attention in class.

Mu Huan: You made a sudden appearance like that and you expect me to pay attention in class?!

“You don’t remember the details?” Bao Junyan raised an eyebrow and looked away.

Mu Huan: “...!!!”

With her own husband was making life difficult for her, how was she to live the rest of her days?!

“Go back to your seat if you don’t remember.”

“I remember!” What sort of joke was this?! How could she, Mu Huan, possibly forget such an important knowledge point?!

It was just that this schematic diagram was too exhausting to draw!

A half-smile played on Bao Junyan’s lips when he looked at her tiny angry face.

Coming here to teach Biochemistry was a last-minute decision, but now, he felt that this was indeed a good decision!

Everyone in the pharmaceutical faculty knew that Mu Huan was married, but they didn’t know to whom. Hence, when they saw this scene playing out, they only thought about how fortunate she was to be able to go near their god-like teacher. They didn’t think of much else.

However, Li Meng and Long Feiting knew that they were a married couple, and no matter which way they looked at this, it felt like this was the couple's alternative excitement!

As Li Meng looked on, it started to feel like her eyes were pulsating with large peachy hearts, and she felt herself crumbling! She could sense that Mu Huan was becoming increasingly important to Bao Junyan, but even then, she wouldn't have thought that he'd come to their school to teach for her sake!

Good heavens! This man couldn't be more perfect!

On the other hand, Long Feiting's expression turned uglier. For some odd reason, he just couldn't stand seeing Mu Huan and Bao Junyan being together. Especially how she would unconsciously display her coyness in front of the man.

Also, now that Bao Junyan was their Biochemistry teacher, didn't that mean that he would no longer be able to make life difficult for Mu Huan at school?!

At this point, Bao Junyan, who was initially standing beside Mu Huan, suddenly walked up and stopped behind her, making it look very much like he was about to embrace her from behind!

Around the classroom, everyone sucked in their breaths!

Chapter 303: The Surprise He Gave (5)

Feeling Bao Junyan's approaching presence, Mu Huan, too, sucked in a breath of air. Freaking hell! What was he doing?! He wasn't about to embrace her in public, was he? It wasn't like they were at home. If he were to embrace her like this in class, how would she ever bring herself to come to school ever again?!

As he neared, Mu Huan became more and more nervous.

Then, Long Feiting suddenly stood up for no reason.

He opened his mouth to speak but instantly realized, why should he say anything? What had these two got to do with him?

He sat down again in a huff.

Then, as he looked at Bao Junyan, he felt that the man was increasingly becoming an eyesore!

He was a big boss CEO, a busy man, so what was he doing? He came to the school to teach! He was plainly ignoring his own proper occupation!

Just as Bao Junyan was a hair's breadth away from Mu Huan and she was so nervous that she thought her heart was going to stop beating at any moment, the man simply reached out for the blackboard duster overhead.

Mu Huan: "..."

All the students: "..."

We were holding our breaths! Professor, that's only a blackboard duster! If you just wanted the duster, did you have to reach for it in such a suggestive manner?!

Li Meng, who knew the inside story, bit her thumb, looking completely obsessed. Wow, this was really bursting with tension!

The girl sitting next to her looked equally obsessed, although she didn't know the inside story. Woah, how she wished she was Mu Huan!

She did not envy Mu Huan for being pretty, and neither did she envy the girl for being academically inclined. But she did envy her for having gotten so close to their male idol teacher! She was terribly envious!

Mu Huan wrote at great length for a while and finally completed the schematic diagram.

Bao Junyan saw that her handwriting was neat and there wasn't a single mistake in her work. Most satisfied, he almost reached out to stroke her head, but suddenly realizing something, he instead reached for the chalk on the lecturing platform. He said, "Not bad. From now on, you can be the subject assistant for this class."

Mu Huan: "..."

Wasn't it a little too obvious that he was promoting his personal interest under a professional guise?

All the girls: "...!!!"

We know how to draw the diagram too! And we could have done it just as perfectly! Won't he give us a chance?!

Every subject teacher in Yun University would select a subject assistant to be in charge of collating the student's information, assignments, and experiment statistics, among other things. No matter, this was a position that would come into contact with the subject teacher the most often.

This was a much-coveted position among the students because, if they were familiar with the teacher, it would be beneficial to their postgraduate studies.

This position was already highly sought after to begin with, and now, with this god-like teacher, every female student wanted to be in this position!

However, their god-like teacher made Mu Huan his assistant, just like that!

This was a bit much...

One of the girls stood up to speak, but when Bao Junyan swept his gaze in that direction, she automatically sat down again in silence.

She had no idea what made her do that.

Obviously, the teacher was good-looking like an immortal, but when she looked into his eyes, the fear she felt was reflexive.

After Mu Huan was done, she returned to her seat and started to pine for the class to end. Half an hour had never felt this long in her life. She really wanted to know why Bao Junyan was here to teach!

As though he knew how anxious she was to know, after Bao Junyan had dismissed the class...

“Student Mu Huan, please come with me to the office.”

On hearing this, Mu Huan immediately stood up and followed Bao Junyan.

When all the female students saw Mu Huan leaving, they couldn't get any more envious.

She was good in her studies and pretty. It was enviable enough that she was married to a wealthy man, but now, she had even come into favor with their immortal professor!

However, when they thought of the fact that Mu Huan was already married, the girls suddenly felt that it wasn't such a bad idea after all that she was selected to be the subject assistant! At the very least, the professor wouldn't take an interest in her!

Chapter 304: The Surprise She Received (1)

Bao Junyan had his own office. Hence, once Mu Huan got in, she could not hold herself back any longer and asked...

“Hubby, how did you end up being our Biochemistry teacher?”

“Professor Feng, the Biochemistry teacher who was supposed to take over, can only start next term. And it so happens that I'm not too busy recently,” Bao Junyan said rather nonchalantly.

Mu Huan: “...!!!”

It so happened that he's not too busy? Ignoring the fact that there was never really a time that he wasn't busy, even if it were true, he didn't have to be teaching in a school!

And how did he know that their Biochemistry teacher could only start next school term?

“Didn't you say before that you were doing an LAI experiment? There's no need for Professor Meng to oversee this experiment. I'll be guiding you and we'll complete it this term.”

Mu Huan was a first-year student, so even if she had been the one to come up with the research study's thematic theory, and even if the experiment were to be successful, she would only have been the second author, and the professor, the first author. The credit that she would have gotten would be much less than the professor's. After all the painstaking efforts and sleepless nights she had put in, Bao Junyan was most reluctant that all the credit would go to the professor.

Since his little wife cared so much about her school work, and in any case, he had wanted to take some time out to nurture his relationship with her, he thought he could be her Biochemistry teacher for half a term to give her some guidance on her school work. That way, her path forward would be smoother.

When Mu Huan heard this, she hesitated and asked, “You came here to teach for my sake?”

“Uh-huh.”

Mu Huan was stunned. She wouldn't have thought, really wouldn't have thought, that Bao Junyan, who was always busy and never liked to make public appearances, would come to the school to teach for her sake!

Even in her dreams, even if she dared to think about the end of the world, she would never have dared to think he'd do such a thing!

Hence, she was at a complete loss now as to how she should react, or what she should think.

After a while, she thought she should say something. So she asked a question regarding something she was really curious about: "Hubby, why didn't you mention it to me?"

"Don't all girls like surprises?" Bao Junyan asked her back.

Initially, he had planned to tell her, but Gong Zeye had told him to keep it a secret. He said all girls liked surprises. And so, he thought she would surely be surprised, happy, and excited to see him appear before her!

Alas...

He saw no hint of any of those emotions spoken of by Gong Zeye in his wife's expression.

Mu Huan: "...!!!"

He did all this only for the reason of making her happy!

He was a big boss CEO! A busy man! A man of such great status, and yet he had come to the university to teach just for her sake!

Freaking hell...!!!

She felt her heart racing to the limit, so fast that it would explode!

Just as he frowned, thinking that she didn't like this arrangement...

Mu Huan suddenly lunged toward him. Reflexively, he reached out to hold her in his arms.

Putting her arms around his waist and looking levelly into his eyes, she was so happy that even her wisps of dancing hair were laughing.

"Hubby, I love you so much! Love you too much!" As she said this, she madly planted a few kisses on his face.

Bao Junyan: "..."

It looked like women really do like surprises.

He lifted Mu Huan, sat down, and took off his glasses. Then, with one of his hand pressing up against the back of her head, his light and fleeting kisses became a deep French kiss.

Just as things were heating up and their breathing was becoming shallow and desperate...

There was suddenly a knock on the door.

"Mr. Bao..." With that greeting, someone turned the doorknob.

When Mu Huan recognized the voice to belong to the Director of Education, she slid down reflexively and hid herself beneath the desk.

Because there wasn't very much space under the desk, she could only press herself up against Bao Junyan.

Chapter 305: The Surprise She Received (2)

The Director of Education's presence in the room made Mu Huan, who was crouching under the desk, extremely nervous.

"Mr. Bao, this is the information you wanted." The Director of Education placed the documents on Bao Junyan's desk and looked as though he wanted to speak.

Bao Junyan interrupted, however, in a commanding tone, "Get out!"

The Director of Education was stunned. After he got over the shock, the man did not dare to say anything further and walked out of the room.

Although Bao Junyan was a specially-appointed professor, he was here to be a substitute teacher for half a term. Being a CEO was his real status, and he wasn't a person under the school's management.

After the Director of Education left, Mu Huan came out from under the desk. Bao Junyan lowered his head again to kiss her.

Mu Huan quickly reached out to place her fingers on his lips, saying, "No, Bao Junyan."

This was the first time that Bao Junyan had heard her addressing him by his name and he found it exceptionally pleasing to his ears. "Say that again."

"What?"

"Say that again, my name." Strangely, although she would always very sweetly call him Hubby, he would many a times feel a certain distance in that address.

But not when she called him by his name.

Mu Huan: "..."

It was just a name, what was the fuss?

At the same time, Bao Junyan suddenly got onto his feet and said, "Let's go home."

The students in the class were all anticipating Mu Huan's return so that they could ask questions about their immortal teacher. Unexpectedly, Mu Huan did not make a reappearance.

Word had it that something had come up at home suddenly.

All the students: "..."

Why did they somehow feel that that wasn't the case?

But even then, no one thought that there was anything going on between Mu Huan and the new teacher Bao Junyan. After all, Mu Huan was married and her husband was a wealthy man. Later on, it had been rumored that based on the man's figure from the back, one could tell he was an extremely dashing person. Given this, Mu Huan wouldn't stupidly betray her husband so that he'd have a cause to abandon her.

But those who knew the truth of the matter easily guessed what had happened.

Long Feiting thought of a certain possibility and fell into a foul mood. He picked up his satchel and walked off.

Bao Junyan was truly annoying. It wasn't enough that he pampered his wife at home, he had to oversee her school work! He had so much free time!

As he approached the school entrance, he spotted Gu Chenyi coming his way.

Gu Chenyi looked at him as he strode over. He said, "I heard that my uncle is now the Biochemistry teacher for your class. Is that true?"

"Uh-huh, and now he has gone missing with your aunt. It's probable that they've gone home!" Long Feiting honestly felt that Bao Junyan had lost all his god-like dignity. He was a real legend in the eyes of the elites in the Imperial Capital's upper-class society! And now, because of this woman, he'd done such a thing!

Gu Chenyi: "..."

"Not that I want to make this an issue, but how was it that you were so moronic as to give up Mu Huan for Lin Qingya?" It was typical of Long Feiting to look for trouble whenever he got into a foul mood. Right away, he rubbed salt into Gu Chenyi's wound.

Since he liked Mu Huan so much, why did he break up with her? Now that she was with Bao Junyan, she was virtually untouchable!

"No matter how moronic I am, I can't catch up to you. You actually like a girl like Mu Kexin and fell in love with her at first sight. I really question your eyesight! I suggest you see an eye specialist for a checkup. Don't be fooled by your own blindness!" Gu Chenyi retorted icily.

Long Feiting reacted at once. "Who says I like Mu Kexin? If it weren't for her..."

...being his Star, he wouldn't have given her a second look.

"...her what, exactly?" Gu Chenyi asked, given that the man had trailed off halfway.

Could he have had some other reasons for being with Mu Kexin?

Chapter 306: The Surprise She Received (3)

"What business is it of yours?!" In the past, Long Feiting would go on about how good his Star was. The people who were helping him to locate Star were hopeful that he would find her, as they wanted to see what sort of girl she was. He had sung high praises of her, and many of them felt that he had turned his memory into an ideal. They said that he'd be disappointed when he finally found her, for she wouldn't be what he wanted her to be.

Gu Chenyi was one of those people.

Hence, Long Feiting was not willing to let him know that Mu Kexin was the Star that he had been looking for. He didn't want to be laughed at by the guy for the years he'd spent obsessing over her, because those beautiful memories were merely idealized by himself!

The fact was, even Long Feiting's family had no idea why he had fallen in love with Mu Kexin. But because they had never really meddled with his love life, they did not bother to interfere this time.

"Tsch! I won't be bothered even if you wanted me to. You can be with that moron all you want!" Gu Chenyi snorted icily.

"Who are you calling a moron?! You're asking to be walloped!" Long Feiting said as he gave Gu Chenyi a hard shove.

He was in a foul mood and this guy was looking for trouble!

"Yes, I'm looking for a fight! Let's have a one-on-one, then!" Gu Chenyi was in a bad mood himself and was looking to vent!

He hadn't thought... he really hadn't thought... that his uncle would go all this way for Mu Huan! He'd thought initially that his uncle had gotten married because he was at an age where he had to do so. He'd thought that his uncle didn't have any real feelings for Mu Huan, that she would just be a decorative piece for the home, and that he would continue to be busy with his great career!

But who would have thought that his uncle would...

Come to school to teach, for Mu Huan's sake?!

He would never have dared to imagine that a man like his uncle would do something like that for Mu Huan!

This behavior from his uncle shocked him, but it also...

He felt something weigh down on his heart. It bore down heavily, so heavily that he almost couldn't breathe!

"Let's fight, then! See if I don't beat you until you're flat on the floor!" Long Feiting said as he threw a punch!

He threw Gu Chenyi a punch, and the latter instantly made a move to return it.

Then, the two men started to fight in the schoolyard, where people were coming and going!

The students were stunned!

Long Feiting was the campus hunk, and Gu Chenyi was no worse. Both were influential figures in the school. Now, they were having a fight in public!

So they didn't quite know if they should keep watching, or do something to break up the fight, or tell one of the teachers!

Both Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi were young and pampered at home, so it wasn't as though they had weathered any storms in their lives. Neither had life ever dealt harshly with them. Hence, they were relatively simple people.

And their thinking was rather uncomplicated.

Meanwhile, in the Imperial Capital...

A man in his seventies, still full of energy, was in his garden, playing with his canary.

At this point, a middle-aged-looking man walked up to him and respectfully greeted him, "Old Master."

"Ummm," he replied casually.

"Eldest Young Master has taken up a teaching post at Yun University."

The Old Master's hand froze midway through teasing the little creature as he said, "He's become a teacher?"

"Yes."

"This child... he's becoming increasingly inappropriate!"

The middle-aged man by his side did not dare to agree. That was the elderly man's grandson; only he had the right to say these things.

The Old Master kept silent for a moment, then said, "Get in touch with Ling Wei, ask her if she has decided. Any later and she will have lost the opportunity."

"Yes." The middle-aged man left after being given that instruction.

Chapter 307: Even If He Killed Her Ten Thousand Times

The fight between Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi had alarmed the Director of Education, but because both of them did not wish to pursue the matter, the Director of Education only reprimanded them before letting them go.

The students had thought that there was great enmity between the two of them given their vicious fight. They thought that, for sure, they would be hostile toward each other from now on. Unexpectedly, the moment they left the office of the Director of Education, they put their arms around each other's back and headed for a drink.

All the students: "..."

What was that all about? Now they were like brothers after the fight and were headed out for a drink!

If they were on such good terms, why did they even fight?

It was nighttime...

A very drunk Gu Chenyi returned to his apartment near the school.

“Chenyi, what’s the matter?” Lin Qingya, who had been sitting on the sofa and waiting for his return, hurried toward him to hold him steady. She saw that he wasn’t only drunk, but there were also injuries on his handsome face.

“Go away!” Gu Chenyi shook her off.

Not expecting to be shaken off, Lin Qingya stumbled back a few steps. As she recovered, she clutched her belly in fear and became careful to avoid the man.

Just as she thought that today wasn’t an appropriate time to be around and got ready to leave...

Gu Chenyi suddenly grabbed her by her shoulders forcefully. His eyes were bloodshot as he hollered, “Lin Qingya, are you taking me for a fool? Are you?!”

Lin Qingya was frightened by the drunk man and replied, “What are you saying, Chenyi...? I don’t know... Chenyi let go of me, don’t hurt the baby...”

The child inside her was her golden ticket. Nothing bad must happen to it!

“Don’t hurt the child?” Gu Chenyi looked at her belly and suddenly started to laugh in a frightening manner.

Lin Qingya shuddered involuntarily but forced herself to remain calm. She said, “Chenyi, Grandfather and Mom both look forward to this child. Nothing bad must happen to it.”

She knew that Gu Chenyi was a filial child, and no matter what, he wouldn’t let his grandfather and mother suffer.

“Lin Qingya, you are very intelligent. I was really blind! So blind! And so stupid! And it’s no wonder you would play me like a fool! Because I am one!”

Seeing him like this, she immediately thought of a way to deal with him. A girl so composed and scheming. To think that he had taken her to be a weak and kind angel!

He was so blind that he deserved to die!

“Chenyi, you’re drunk...”

“Drunk? I wish I were! I wish I were so drunk I’d forget everything! But I couldn’t get myself drunk enough, I’m still sober!” Gu Chenyi laughed.

But this laughter made him look worse than his crying.

“Chenyi, I don’t know what the matter is, but I want to say...” Before Lin Qingya could finish, Gu Chenyi interrupted.

“Lin Qingya, do you have any idea how much I want to kill you? Do you?!” She had ruined his life! Completely ruined it! He really, really wished he could kill her! And even if he killed her ten thousand times over, it wouldn’t get rid of the hatred he felt!

Lin Qingya was scared stiff by that look of extreme hatred in his eyes, but she said, “Chenyi, you’re really drunk. Don’t be like this, I...”

“I’ve gone to talk to those bosses from before! They said it was Matriarch Mu who gave them money to provide fake accounts that Xiao Huan had indeed worked for them!” Gu Chenyi suddenly revealed.

Prior to this, he had been unwilling to believe Mu Huan. He wouldn’t have been able to accept having made such a low-down mistake, if he should find out that Mu Huan was speaking the truth. It was he who’d pushed away the woman he loved most from his own life!

Chapter 308: Going the Opposite Way (1)

Prior to this, he had been unwilling to believe Mu Huan. He wouldn’t have been able to accept having made such a low-down mistake, if he should find out that Mu Huan was speaking the truth. It was he who’d pushed away the woman he loved most from his own life!

Hence, he had been firm in his belief that Mu Huan was lying. But after that day, he could no longer hold firm his own belief.

He also thought, if Mu Huan was really the sort of girl who would become a hostess for money, if she were such a bad girl, then why would his uncle, who was such a shrewd man, still want her and love her?

He could no longer lie to himself, so he had gone to look for those bosses who had initially given false accounts. Then, he was forced to accept the truth that he had been unable to deal with...

Actually, the truth had always been simple and one only had to investigate to uncover it. Only, he had been unwilling to accept his own foolishness and didn’t want to investigate.

In reality, he should have investigated the matter — to confirm that Mu Huan was wrongly accused, to confirm that, at a point where the girl whom he loved had come to dire straits, he not only doubted her, he had viciously plunged the knife deeper.

He wanted to die! He had no idea how to face the future, he had no idea how to face her. He also had no idea how he was going to bear this agony of having pushed her away.

He liked her so much...

So much, so much...

He had never wanted anything more than he wanted her.

That unbearable pain made him want to kill Lin Qingya so much!

It was her! She ruined his life! It was her!

Lin Qingya wanted to say more, but she froze.

She had wondered if Gu Chenyi had found out anything, but she had not expected him to have investigated the matter, to have looked for those bosses!

He had completely unearthed the truth of the past!

“From now on, my life is hell, and you will come to hell with me! You will never get whatever it is that you’ve always wanted! I will make your life as Madam Gu more painful than being in jail!” Didn’t she dream of marrying him? Good, let her. Let her be Madam Gu!

He wanted to ruin all her dreams, he wanted her to live a life of misery!

Lin Qingya turned pale instantly. Now she knew that all those things he’d done were done intentionally!

“Chenyi...” As Lin Qingya recovered from her shock, she tried to defend herself.

“Get out! Disappear from my sight right now! Scram!” While Gu Chenyi could tolerate her normally, the drunk man didn’t wish to look at her for even a second longer than he had to!

Given his state and knowing that whatever she said now was going to be useless, plus that it was really too dangerous to be around him, she decided not to say much more.

After leaving Gu Chenyi’s apartment, Lin Qingya walked to the garden outside. Suddenly, her legs were shaking and she couldn’t go any further. She quickly held on to the stone bench next to her and slowly sat herself down, taking deep breaths as she did so.

After a while, she felt herself calming down.

But when she thought of Gu Chenyi’s words, she suddenly became fearful again!

She did not understand how things came to this. Why did the heavens treat her this way?!

She only wanted to marry into a good family so that she wouldn’t have to suffer in the future. Why did she get such treatment?!

Mu Huan never had to do anything. She was even forced to marry into a wealthy family and had a husband who doted on her! Whereas she had spent so much effort and had been nothing but cautious — it had been like treading on thin ice, but things turned out this way!

It was unfair! It was really unfair!

Chapter 309: Going the Opposite Way (2)

The following day, at the morning meeting of Yun University’s Research Department...

Professor Meng said regretfully, “I’m very sorry to say that I’ll be unable to continue to lead the LAI experiment. This experiment will be handed over to Professor Bao’s team. There will also be some changes in the research team members. The detailed name list will be announced by Professor Bao.”

On hearing this, Mu Huan shot a provocative look at Long Feiting. You ousted me from the list, now I’ll change the whole team! Go on, then, oust me!

I have a wealthy local husband so I’m not afraid of you!

Long Feiting’s expression darkened after he received that look from her. He knew, now that Bao Junyan was here, he could no longer make her academic life hell!

That death-deserving Bao Junyan, was he that free?! Was the Bao Group going under?!

After the meeting.

Long Feiting caught up to Mu Huan.

“Mu Huan, don’t you be too smug too early. Bao Junyan can’t protect you every time!”

“Whenever he can protect me, I can be smug. People need to enjoy themselves during the good times, don’t you know that?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

“Well, be careful that too much pleasure won’t bring sorrow, then!” Long Feiting said with an icy snort.

“But that’s better than you who have no pleasure at all! At least I’ve had happiness!” Mu Huan gave him a haughty look before bypassing him.

As she did so, Long Feiting reached out and latched on to her arm firmly, saying, “Mu Huan, don’t say I didn’t warn you, you’d better be prepared! When Bao Junyan abandons you, I will torture you to the point that you’d go down on your knees and call me Daddy!”

“Oooohhh, I’m so scared...” Mu Huan clutched her chest and pretended to be frightened.

Long Feiting: “...!!!”

Look at her, in what way did she look scared?! In what way?!

At this point, Mu Huan snorted icily and shook off the grip on her arm.

“Don’t be so arrogant, Mu Huan. I believe that day will soon come!” The Long family were on good terms with Bao Junyan’s cousin, and that meant Long Feiting would naturally know quite a lot about the Bao family.

By coming to the school to teach, Bao Junyan had done something way beneath his status. The Old Master in the Imperial Capital would surely not take this sitting down.

Once the Old Master had made a move, it would be the end of pleasant days for Mu Huan!

At this thought, he suddenly felt that Bao Junyan coming to the school to teach wasn’t such a bad thing. Immediately, his gloominess vanished!

Haha, when that time should come, just watch how he would torture Mu Huan!

“When that time comes, you can torture me and make me call you Daddy. But for now, get out of my way. Your big sister here is very busy!” Mu Huan gestured with a wave, indicating that he should scam as far away as he could possibly go. Her husband had come to teach for her sake. She had to make use of this period of time that he was around to complete her experiment. She must not keep troubling him and have him worrying about her all the time.

“Fine. Wait and see!”

At the Gu family residence...

Lin Qingya might have sat in the garden for too long last night and caught a chill; she was unwell today.

Because of her pregnancy, it wasn't a small matter for her to fall sick. Everyone in the Gu family was nervous. Mrs. Gu had asked for Gu Chenyi's quick return.

Although Gu Chenyi did not care much for Lin Qingya, he was worried about how his grandfather and mother would fret over Lin Qingya, and how that may impact badly on their health. Hence, he returned.

Mrs. Gu was alarmed when she saw his swollen face. "Chenyi, what happened to you? Why is your face injured? What happened?!"

"It's nothing, just a careless accident when sparring with Long Feiting," Gu Chenyi replied.

"This child! Why were you sparring with that Long family lad for nothing?!" Mrs. Gu was relieved to hear that it was Long Feiting.

It was someone they knew, so they would have held back a little. Hence, even injuries wouldn't be too serious.

"Just had too much time and too little to do."

"If you have too little to do then why don't you care a bit more about Qingya and keep her company?! She's bored while nurturing her pregnancy at home and you don't even come home to spend time with her. She went looking for you last night and you didn't even send her home. You let the girl come home on her own, and today she's sick!" Mrs. Gu berated.

Chapter 310: Going the Opposite Way (3)

"It's only a common cold. Don't over-worry, Mom," Gu Chenyi said.

"It's not that I'm over-worrying, it's you who should be worrying more! She's bearing your child!" Mrs. Gu chided.

Gu Chenyi avoided the topic and replied, "I'll go and see her now."

"Uh-huh, hurry!" Mrs. Gu did not speak further.

When Gu Chenyi entered the room, Lin Qingya was eating her porridge.

When she saw him, her hands tightened around the bowl.

He shut the door behind him, thinking about the night before. Since he had told her the truth in his drunken state, then there was no longer a need for him to hide his disgust. "It's useless to feign illness!"

Lin Qingya put down the bowl she was holding and smiled bitterly. "I know it's useless to feign illness."

"Lin Qingya, I have to take my hat off to you. You tell a lie like it's the truth. And now that you've been exposed, you act like nothing has happened!" Gu Chenyi noticed how steady she was, and more than ever, he felt he'd been blind before. Such a fool he was!

He actually took her to be a gentle and kind girl! And he had doubted Mu Huan!

The more he thought about this, the more he felt like stabbing himself with a knife!

Lin Qingya smiled in self-mockery and said, "Indeed, I'm fine, because what I was trying to hide has now been discovered by you. I no longer need to worry about being found out. I really do feel a lot more relaxed."

She had thought about it all night. Although she felt ill physically, she couldn't stop thinking about how she could resolve this matter. She had come this far, she wasn't going to give up now!

Until finally, she decided, she was going the opposite way!

Since Gu Chenyi had found out the truth, so be it. She wasn't going to ask to be spared, she wasn't going to ask to be let off. Let him do what he wanted with her!

In any case, she had the baby in her belly!

She had this bargaining chip, and on top of that, Gu Chenyi's grandfather was dying. Hence, in the next half a year, even if it were just to please his grandfather, he wouldn't be too merciless toward her.

In half a year, the child would be due. She would be so heavily pregnant that he wouldn't be able to do anything to her. After the birth of the child — a new lease on life — she would be the child's own mother, and this would only serve to deepen their ties, making it even harder to separate.

Hence, there really wasn't much he could do about her.

If he wanted her to suffer and didn't want her to have a life of luxury, then she'd pretend to suffer, and she would try to endure poverty for now. It wasn't as though she had never been poor. As long as she was Madam Gu, the mother of the heir to the Gu family estate, everything that belonged to the Gu family would eventually be hers!

She was best at enduring and waiting!

"You feel that I can't do anything to you just because you are bearing a child of the Gu family? Is that why you're so calm and composed?" Gu Chenyi said icily.

"What is a child? If you want a child, there are many women out there who would be willing to bear you one. The Gu family doesn't lack children. I'm calm because one has to eventually bear the consequences of one's own actions. Whatever I had feared has now gone. No matter what, I have to bear the punishment, so let it be, then. Do whatever you want to do.

"Even if I ask to be let off, it'll be useless, right?" Lin Qingya lifted her head to look at him. There was no fear in her eyes, only complete acceptance — since things had come to this, he could do what he wanted, and she would accept it.

Although the baby was her biggest bargaining chip, she made it seem as though it was worthless. Because she knew that although there may be many women out there who could bear the man a child, his grandfather had only half a year left of his life. There would be no time for any other child, only hers would be on time. If his grandfather made a hard enough effort, he could possibly have the opportunity to see the baby.

Hence, even if he could have many children, for now, he would have to keep hers!
