

Fake Marriage 361

Chapter 361: God of Fortune's Favor (3)

When Mu Huan received his call, she was overjoyed. "Hubby, you're busy! Don't worry about me. I'll be fine!"

The God of Fortune had really favored her! Her plan today would definitely succeed!

Bo Junyan: "..."

Every time he heard his wife being so happy that he wasn't going home, he wanted to go back immediately and make her unhappy.

But... forget it.

"Be good."

"Mmm, I'll be very obedient, very obedient!"

Bo Junyan: "..."

He could not believe that she would be obedient.

After hanging up the phone, Mu Huan immediately started to put on makeup. "Today, we'll pretend to be from Y Country. There are a lot of men in Y Country who are shorter. I won't be suspected if I disguised myself as a man from that country. You'll put on makeup as a woman from Y Country and be my girlfriend. When I'm almost done winning, you can leave to find K. Prepare your car and wait for my call."

Mu Huan felt that the place where Wu Xingye was locked up would not be too far from the entertainment city.

"Okay."

Mu Huan's makeup skills were comparable to plastic surgery. Now, her wig and cosmetic contact lenses were coming together more and more, making it easy for her to pretend to be a man.

It was a bustling city in T Country.

When Mu Huan and Li Meng arrived at the entertainment city, there were more people there than there were in the morning. It could be described as bustling.

Mu Huan and Li Meng played for a while before going to the betting house.

Although she heard it very clearly every time, she would intentionally make the wrong bets. After all, if one won hard from the start and made the right bets, it would attract attention very quickly. Perhaps if she didn't win enough to get people to take her money, something else might happen to her.

This was because there were times when she would lose as well. Furthermore, after she won a few rounds, she would go to another table and occasionally play some other games. Once she was done counting, she would get Li Meng to exchange the small chips for bigger ones. It would not be too conspicuous, so no one noticed her at the start. By the time others had noticed that she was good at playing, she had already won a lot.

After Li Meng left to find K, Mu Huan felt that she had won enough. When it was time to leave, she went to the front desk to exchange the chips for money, but she was stopped halfway.

“Our manager saw that you played well and wanted to play a few rounds with you. This way please.” The security officer invited Mu Huan over.

Mu Huan looked in the direction that the other party was looking at and saw a blonde, blue-eyed beauty. When the other party saw her looking over, she made an inviting gesture. However, Mu Huan had already achieved her goal today. She did not want to waste any more time here, so she rejected the other party. “My girlfriend is still waiting for me at the hotel. I’m in a hurry to go back and play another day!”

If she insisted on leaving, the security officers could not stop her openly.

However, after Mu Huan left, the blonde, blue-eyed beauty gave the security guard a look.

Mu Huan exchanged the chips for money and saved it on her Know-All Agency account. When she left the entertainment city, she felt that someone was following her. This made her heave a sigh of relief. She was not afraid of being followed, but she was afraid that they would not follow her!

In order to ensure that the other party could successfully detain her, Mu Huan took a more remote path.

Finally, at a dead-end under a street lamp, the other party suddenly jumped out and covered her nose with a handkerchief from behind. Mu Huan, who was already prepared, held her breath before the other party covered her.

When the other party felt her go still and let go of her hand, she collapsed.

Fifteen minutes later, she was dragged into a room.

Chapter 362: God of Fortune’s Favor (4)

As Mu Huan had expected, they were not far from the entertainment city.

It was a resting place for the security personnel of the entertainment city. Due to the shift schedule, the people who did not need to work were resting here. Hence, there were more than ten security officers in the place.

Mu Huan was thrown in while Wu Xingye was taking a nap. When he sensed someone coming in, he pretended to be in a deep sleep and did not move. After the person who had thrown Mu Huan in had left, he opened his eyes and looked at Mu Huan, who was lying on the ground.

Mu Huan was dressed as a man today and her makeup skills were excellent. This coupled with the dim lighting in the room made Wu Xingye unable to recognize Mu Huan, who was lying on the ground. He thought that she was another unlucky person.

Wu Xingye was happy as he looked at the unlucky person who had just entered. This was because the other party must have been caught because he’d won a lot of money. A person who could win a lot of money was definitely a smart person. If he could join forces with him, he would have a chance to escape!

Hence, he crawled toward her, wanting to use the self-defense medicine that Mu Huan had given him to wake her up so that they could discuss how they could escape.

However, as soon as he approached her, she sat up.

This made him feel like he had seen a corpse. He was so frightened that he retreated several steps. After a while, he asked, "Are you a ghost?"

"You're the ghost!" Mu Huan snapped.

Mu Huan had used her original voice to speak, so Wu Xingye could immediately tell that it was her. He was stunned for a moment before he went up to hug her excitedly. "Xiao Huan, I knew you would come to save me... I knew it..."

He knew that his Xiao Huan would try her best to save him after finding out that something had happened to him!

"Are you scared?"

"I'm so scared! I was so scared that I'll never see you again!" Wu Xingye was really scared this time!

"I was afraid that you'd continue to gamble! Don't you know that gambling isn't something you can touch?! What did your grandpa tell you?! Aren't you afraid that you'll lose your money and lose your life?!" As she spoke, she gave him a few hard pinches!

Wasn't he afraid that he wouldn't be able to see them again? Wasn't he afraid that they wouldn't be able to see him again? He was in trouble and didn't seek her out to discuss it. He actually took the chance to gamble when he came out with his client! Seriously, he was asking for a beating!

There were some things that couldn't be touched! Wasn't it good to live a peaceful life?

Because of her father's love for gambling, Mu Huan hated it when people gambled. She felt that even if she had the talent to win, that might not necessarily be a good thing. Just look at how Wu Xingye and his grandfather ended up!

Back then, how did his grandfather become such a crippled and poor person?

"I know I'm in the wrong. Xiao Huan, I really know I'm in the wrong... Don't pinch me, I'm already covered in bruises..." Wu Xingye said, aggrieved.

When Mu Huan heard this, she sized him up from head to toe, her eyes burning with anger!

"If they ask you to spit out the money, then throw it up! Of course you'll be beaten up otherwise!"

"I was afraid that if I spit out my money, I'll be killed!"

Thinking that this was highly possible, Mu Huan did not say anything else. "Can you stand up?"

"I can barely make it," Wu Xingye said pitifully.

Mu Huan's gaze turned increasingly vicious as she looked at his miserable state.

"Xiao Huan, are you the only one here? We have to think of a way to escape as soon as possible. Otherwise, if they ask you for the money tomorrow, it's hard to say what will happen if you give it to them. If we don't give them the money, you'll end up like me! They have a lot of people!" Wu Xingye said.

Chapter 363: God of Fortune's Favor (5)

"Xiao Meng and K are waiting near the entertainment city. I'll inform them now." Mu Huan took out a small smartwatch from her pocket and sent a message to Li Meng.

Before Mu Huan went to the entertainment city, she had specially bought an ordinary cell phone and placed it in her pocket for a search. She had even applied on herself a type of medicine that would give off a foul smell. On her arms and legs, she had also used some medicine to create some swollen bumps, making people think that she had contracted some contagious illness. Hence, they were disgusted and searched only her pockets without searching her body.

Things came about just as she had expected. The person who had captured her found only a cell phone in the pocket of her coat. He wanted to search her body, but he saw that her arms and legs were full of disgusting blisters.

At the thought that this could be some kind of infectious disease, the security officer threw her into the small dark room. Anyway, when she woke up, all the good things on her would be theirs!

After informing Li Meng, Mu Huan took out a bottle of medicine from her pocket and asked Wu Xingye to roll up his pants. She helped him apply some medicine to stop the bleeding.

Wu Xingye rolled up the back of his pants. The injury on his leg made Mu Huan's gaze turn even darker and more vicious. "I will make all of them need to lie in bed for a month!"

He was beaten to such a state!

"Xiao Huan..." Wu Xingye was so touched that he wanted to cry.

"Next time, if you don't tell me anything and come here to gamble, I'll make sure you stay in bed for half a year!" Mu Huan looked up with an even more vicious expression.

Wu Xingye: "..."

He was still not her good friend! He'd need to be bedridden for half a year!

Soon, Mu Huan received a reply from Li Meng. After confirming the time and location, she removed the tie clip on her tie and went to pry the lock.

Wu Xingye saw that Mu Huan had managed to pry open the lock that he had been pondering over for three days.

He was impressed.

Wu Xingye asked, "Xiao Huan, is there anything you don't know?"

"Yes."

"What?"

"I don't know how to be as foolish as you!"

Wu Xingye: "..."

Sister, I really already know my mistake!

After opening the door, Mu Huan looked at Wu Xingye and said, "Stay here and don't move. I'll break their legs and come back to pick you up."

Wu Xingye was instantly moved to tears! His Xiao Huan was so dashing!

He obediently stayed inside without moving. No, he could not move even if he wanted to. The only thing he could do was to stand up and walk.

Wu Xingye's legs were seriously injured, so Mu Huan was very angry. She had the medicine on her, and she had intended to spray it on them so that they could fall to the ground before leaving with Wu Xingye.

However, she could not take it lying down if she did not return Wu Xingye's vicious beating!

Mu Huan had always been a protective person. She believed that no one was allowed to hurt her own people!

Hence, she decided to use the medicine after beating them up.

After waiting inside for quite a while, Wu Xingye, who had yet to hear any cries of agony, was a little worried. He was afraid that Mu Huan would be knocked down instead of knocking those people out. Hence, he climbed out to see what was going on.

Just as he was about to reach the door, the door was suddenly pushed open.

He instinctively lay on the ground and pretended to be asleep. He thought that if they were enemies, he could attack them by surprise.

"Alright, stop pretending. It's over." Mu Huan bent over to help him up.

Wu Xingye opened his eyes when he heard her voice. "Why didn't I hear a scream?"

Didn't she say she was going to break their legs?

Chapter 364: God of Fortune's Favor (6)

"This is a residential area. If a scream gets out at such a late hour, it'll definitely attract attention." Therefore, she had covered their mouth as they fell to the ground.

When Wu Xingye came out and saw the people lying motionless on the floor, his eyes widened in shock. "Xiao Huan, you... you..."

“It’s just that the spray has made them pass out. Otherwise, they’ll be screaming non-stop. Besides, it’ll be bad if they saw the two of us going out together and found out my real identity. This time, Bo Junyan came with us.” Mu Huan had run out of the room just before the last person fainted, making the others think that she was running away alone.

This way, even if they saw the next day that Wu Xingye was gone, they would not associate the two of them together. They would only think that Wu Xingye had taken the opportunity to escape.

As such, when Mu Huan came back to save Wu Xingye, she’d even put on a pair of shoes to ensure that no traces would be left behind.

“Bo Junyan is here as well?” Wu Xingye was shocked.

“Yes, he’s on a business trip to T Country.”

“Aren’t you two really fated?” Last time, in the Imperial Capital, it was another such coincidence.

“We must be fated. Otherwise, how could we be husband and wife?!” Mu Huan snorted.

Wu Xingye narrowed his eyes. “Looking at the change in your attitude, I see you’ve decided to stay with Bo Junyan forever, huh?”

Although he knew less about Mu Huan than Li Meng, he knew a lot about the big matters.

Mu Huan was about to say something when...

Wu Xingye frowned and broke out in a cold sweat.

“What’s wrong?”

“Nothing, let’s go!” Wu Xingye shook his head.

“Does it hurt so much that it’s hard for you to walk?” Mu Huan frowned.

“I can hold on, I...” Before Wu Xingye could finish speaking, Mu Huan had picked him up.

Yes, she had to carry him!

He, a 1.8-meter tall man, was being carried on Mu Huan’s shoulder like a bag of noodles!

Wu Xingye: “...”

He knew that she was strong, but he did not expect her to be this strong!

“Mu Huan, what did you eat growing up?!” Did she grow up eating Strength Pills?

“I ate five grains.”

Wu Xingye: “...”

Li Meng and K’s car was parked right outside Wu Xingye’s locked door. When they saw Mu Huan carrying Wu Xingye out, K’s eyes widened to the extreme!

Holy f*ck! Is she a monster? Is she a monster?!

Such a petite person could actually carry a man out like this!

If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would never have believed it!

K was stunned. It was only when Li Meng bumped into him and asked him to get out of the car to help that K snapped back to his senses and hurriedly got out of the car to help Mu Huan.

After Mu Huan carried Wu Xingye out, her breathing quickened.

The moment they got into the car, Li Meng pinched Wu Xingye a few times. "Shanye, you damn bastard! Do you know how much danger we risked to save you?!"

They did not use their real names at Know-All Agency. Wu Xingye was called Shanye, while Li Meng was called Xiao Qing. Mu Huan's new name was Lemon.

Knowing that he was in the wrong, Wu Xingye could only beg for mercy. "I know, little ancestor. I won't do it again!"

Seeing that he was full of injuries, Li Meng could not do anything else.

"Quick, reformat all the surveillance cameras around here." Mu Huan threw Wu Xingye a laptop.

That's right. Since they were on this topic, Mu Huan didn't know how to do this. Her computer skills were average, unlike Wu Xingye, who was able to come and go as he wished.

Chapter 365: There's Someone More Outstanding

Wu Xingye knew that the entertainment city was very powerful and they had to escape without leaving any traces. Otherwise, they would be in big trouble.

Wu Xingye was really strong in the field of black surveillance. In less than ten minutes, he had successfully edited all the surveillance cameras, leaving no traces behind.

K saw how capable they were. He had always been someone else's child and was a smart person. This was the first time he felt so weak!

He finally understood the phrase, "A mountain is higher than a hill, and there's always someone better than you."

Wu Xingye was seriously injured and needed to be taken care of somewhere closeby. Hence, Mu Huan decided to arrange for him to stay near the hotel they were staying in. Although this place was also very close to the entertainment city, the more dangerous a place was, the safer it would be. Furthermore, when they were playing in the entertainment city, they'd had makeup on. Even Wu Xingye had dressed himself differently than usual. After he was arrested, he had nothing on him except for a phone. The people in the entertainment city did not know his identity. Furthermore, in the eyes of foreigners, Asians were almost identical in appearance. Hence, it was not easy for people in the entertainment city to find them.

Before arranging for Wu Xingye's stay, Mu Huan first went to where Wu Xingye used to live. After packing up his documents and belongings, she changed her attire and bought a wheelchair.

"His injury looks serious. Do you need to send him to the hospital?" K asked worriedly.

“No need,” Mu Huan said.

“If we don’t send someone with such a serious injury to the hospital, there might be repercussions.”

“My little... Lemon is a doctor. You don’t have to worry,” Li Meng said.

Although Mu Huan was only in her first year of university, she was born into a family of medical practitioners. When she was young, her family would always end up ill-fated. She had memorized the books on traditional Chinese medicine, and after her granny had taken her away, she often helped out in her granny’s clinic. In addition, she had the formula for the Song family’s secret medicine, so she was already better than most doctors.

Because their work often left them full of injuries and Mu Huan was especially good at treating them, they never needed to go to the hospital at all.

K looked at Mu Huan. Although Mu Huan had not used her real appearance in front of him the few times they’d met, he could still feel that she was very young. Such a young lady not only dared to use such a plan to save someone, but she was also very powerful. He could even see now that she had such a serious injury on her leg!

Also, she’d really managed to win so much money in the entertainment city!

What else could she not do?

After K left, Wu Xingye could no longer hold back his curiosity and asked, “Xiao Huan, how come you were caught? Did you win a lot of money too?”

“Yes.”

“How did you win?”

“Guessing big or small.”

“How much did you win?”

Mu Huan held up five fingers to show him.

Wu Xingye: “...!!!”

“You actually won so much just by relying on this alone! If I’m talented, what does that make you?!” Wu Xingye felt that Mu Huan was more talented than he was in this aspect!

“Why don’t I teach you something else? Let’s not work so hard and just earn money in the entertainment city in the future! With your skills, we don’t have to be afraid of anything!”

When Mu Huan heard this, she slapped him on the head and said, “I almost lost my life. You’re still thinking of using such a method to earn money?! No matter how skilled I am, I’m still human. This time, I took advantage of someone’s carelessness to save you. Try fighting with so many people openly! Now, try it with weapons! They could have taken your life in seconds!”

Chapter 366: Can’t Take Such a Shortcut

“Also, do you think everyone else is stupid? You win once, and people in this industry don’t pay attention to you. But you’ve won so much that everyone in this industry came to know about you. Do you think you can continue to win? Your grandfather was so glorious back then, and even though he’s in this state now, you still don’t learn your lesson!” Mu Huan slapped him again as she spoke.

Wu Xingye clutched his head, aggrieved.

“In the future, don’t think of taking such shortcuts. It’s best for a person to live a peaceful life and earn money through proper channels!” Even if Mu Huan had such capabilities, she would never rely on such skills to earn money. Besides the entertainment city, other places also wouldn’t let a person win so much. The more dangerous it was for one to win, the more she hated gambling. This was because her father became completely crippled after taking a gamble.

Li Meng slapped Wu Xingye on the head. “Let me tell you, don’t even think about it in the future! Things won’t turn out how you think they would!”

Because Li Meng’s father was addicted to gambling and had ruined their family, Li Meng hated gambling as well.

“Wu Xingye, I’ll only give you a serious warning this time. From now on, you’re not allowed to make a bet with me. Otherwise, forget anyone else doing it, I’ll personally cripple you!” Mu Huan said coldly.

“I understand...” Wu Xingye lowered his head.

When Mu Huan was treating Wu Xingye’s wound, she accidentally exposed her arm.

Seeing the bumps on her arm, Wu Xingye shouted in shock, “Xiao Huan, what happened to your arm?!”

“It’s because of the medicine,” Mu Huan said in an unfriendly tone. She cherished her skin so much, and in order to save him, she had put all these disgusting things on herself. Yet he still let his imagination run wild and wanted to get into the entertainment city!

Wu Xingye recalled that she had always doted on her skin and said guiltily, “I’m sorry, Xiao Huan. I definitely won’t have such thoughts anymore...”

“Alright, let’s forget about the past. Don’t think too much and focus on recuperating. After all, this isn’t Yun Cheng. You have to get better quickly and go back.” Seeing that he had truly realized his mistake, Mu Huan didn’t say anything else.

“Yes.”

After dealing with Wu Xingye’s wounds, Mu Huan asked Li Meng to stay behind to take care of him. She would return home. After all, she was married and it was not appropriate for her to stay here to take care of Wu Xingye.

After returning to the hotel, Mu Huan took a shower and changed into her pajamas. She took out the medicine she had prepared and proceeded to apply it on herself.

Mu Huan had always been a person who planned well. She had not yet arrived in T Country nor had gone to the entertainment city to take a look before deciding to use such a method to save Wu Xingye.

She had thought of this plan before she came to T Country. Hence, when she arrived, the preparations were already well in place.

It was very convenient for her to make medicine in the laboratory. Hence, she had made a lot of secret medicine from the Song family. The bumps on her body were caused by the use of such secret medicine.

As she had said before, some of the Song family's secret medicines could help people resolve their pain while others could inflict it. Since ancient times, there had been no distinction between poison and medicine.

Of course, when she decided to apply the medicine, she had also prepared the antidote, and that was what she needed to apply now. The antidote could heal her skin after a few applications.

Mu Huan lifted her sleeves and looked at the bumps on her arms. Her legs and arms felt like a toad's skin — she was so disgusted by herself!

"I've made a huge sacrifice this time. I have to get Wu Xingye to treat me to a month's worth of food!" This medicine was really poisonous. The goosebumps that it made were not ordinary!

A voice suddenly sounded in the quiet room. "What sacrifice did you make for him?"

Chapter 367: Do You Know How Shennong Died?

This voice frightened Mu Huan so much that she almost fell off the sofa and spilled quite a bit of medicine.

"What did you do that made you so afraid?" the tall man said as he walked toward her.

In the past, he thought that she was timid like a little rabbit and was easily frightened. Later, he realized that she wasn't timid — she was guilty because she had done something that he couldn't know about. That was why she was so frightened by his sudden appearance.

Mu Huan: "...!!!"

F*ck! Why did he always go back on his words?! Didn't he say that he was going on a business trip for a week and that he wouldn't come back early? Didn't he say that he wouldn't be coming back tonight? Now, he's back!

Fortunately, her plan was completed successfully. If she hadn't completed it and he couldn't find her when he returned, wouldn't that mean it's... over?!

"I... I don't feel guilty... I was scared by you! Don't you know how scary you are?!"

"You've never done anything wrong in your life. You're not afraid of ghosts knocking on your door in the middle of the night. If you..." Before he could finish his sentence, he saw the bumps on her arms and legs and instantly frowned.

"What's going on?"

Realizing that he had seen the goosebumps on her body, Mu Huan quickly rolled up her sleeves and pants to prevent him from seeing such a disgusting scene.

Unexpectedly, Bo Junyan strode toward her. Unable to resist, he rolled up her sleeves and asked, "What's going on? What happened?"

"I don't know... I don't know what I ate. I'm allergic..."

"You don't look like you're allergic," he said with a frown.

"No matter what, I'll recover soon after I apply the medicine," Mu Huan said as she tried to cover herself with her sleeve.

No girl would ever want the person she liked to see her bad side. Some girls didn't even want their boyfriend to see a pimple on their faces, let alone Mu Huan given what her arms and legs looked like at present. Even she found it disgusting.

"Let's go to the hospital to have it looked at." With that, he picked her up and was about to take her to the hospital.

With such a serious skin reaction, how could she casually use just medicine?

"No need! No need!" Mu Huan shouted repeatedly. She had the best antidote in her hands, so why would she go to the hospital?

"You don't look like you're simply having an allergic reaction. You have to go to the hospital for a check-up!" Bo Junyan said firmly.

"No need! Hubby, you really don't have to..." If she was sent to the hospital like this, she would definitely be given an injection since it looked so serious!

"We have to go," Bo Junyan said as he walked out.

"This is because of the poison that I made myself. I'll use the antidote that I made myself. It'll be much better tomorrow! There's really no need to go to the hospital!" Mu Huan shouted anxiously.

"What?" The man stopped in his tracks.

"I... I..." Mu Huan hesitated for a long time before continuing, "Didn't I get my grandpa's recipe? There are many prescriptions for treating illnesses and poison in there. Out of curiosity, I got it out and wanted to see if it would have such an effect, so I used it on myself..."

She had initially thought that he would only be back tomorrow. Tonight, she had used the medicine twice in the morning. Furthermore, she had secretly used it once in the afternoon the previous day, and it would almost have been gone by tomorrow night. It would have been fine even if there were some traces. Who knew that he would return tonight and even see it in its worst state?!

Bo Junyan: "..."

After a while.

"Do you know how Shennong died?"

Chapter 368: Not Disgusting (1)

"He died from trying the poison." Mu Huan lowered her head.

“So, you want to become Shennong?”

Mu Huan: “...”

“There won’t be a next time. Otherwise, you can forget about learning medicine!” he snapped.

Mu Huan: “...”

“Did you hear me?”

Mu Huan lowered her head. “Yes.”

“Don’t play dirty tricks with me. Otherwise, even if you cry in regret, I won’t be soft-hearted.” Now, not only did Bo Junyan no longer think that his wife was a timid and obedient little white rabbit, but he was increasingly becoming convinced that she was a crafty little fox.

“Absolutely not.” How could she dare to do that when he was so powerful?!

“Be good.” He reached out and caressed her head. She could be a crafty little fox, but she had to listen to him.

Mu Huan was probably crazy. Now that she was especially sensitive to the word “good,” she could not help but roll her eyes at him.

“What’s with that attitude of yours?” Bo Junyan narrowed his eyes, and a dangerous aura immediately swept over him.

Mu Huan quickly lowered her head. “It’s the appropriate attitude when admitting one’s mistake.”

Seeing that she did not say anything else, he carried her to the sofa and put her down. “Is the antidote the medicine in your hand?”

“Yes.”

“Go ahead.” He sat down opposite her.

The way he looked at her made her feel a little helpless.

“What’s wrong?” Bo Junyan asked when he saw that she was not moving.

“I can’t apply the medicine when you’re looking at me like that.”

“Why can’t you apply the medicine?”

“My disgusting arms and legs — if you see them, you’ll be traumatized. Can’t you go and do something else for now?”

“Even you find it disgusting?”

“Yes, yes. Even I find it disgusting! So, hurry up and do something else!”

Bo Junyan did not move.

“What’s wrong with you...? Don’t you find me disgusting? Why do you have to look at me?! You...”

Bo Junyan suddenly said, "I don't find it disgusting."

Mu Huan: "..."

She felt disgusted at herself, but he didn't feel disgusted?

Mu Huan had been staying in the clinic with her granny ever since she was picked up by the latter. Her granny was a well-rounded doctor who looked at all kinds of illnesses. Among them, her knowledge of skin conditions was the best. Hence, when she was young, she had come into contact with a lot of skin diseases. Some of them were really disgusting, and Mu Huan, who was a clean freak, couldn't stand it. There were also some conditions that weren't related to dermatology yet could still make the skin undergo a very disgusting change. Hence, when she was young, she decided not to be a doctor. She didn't want to come into contact with these things.

As such, even though she was talented in medicine, she chose to focus on pharmaceutical studies. She wanted to learn more about diseases and illnesses so that she could study medicine better.

No matter how hard she tried, Mu Huan could only pretend that Bo Junyan did not exist as she applied the medicine.

However, because of the trauma she had suffered from skin diseases when she was young, she did not want to look at the bumps on her arms and legs. She had no choice but to do it, so she could only endure the feeling of nausea as she applied the medicine.

This won't do! It's unfair if she made Wu Xingye treat her to meals for only a month! Two months! A meal for at least two months!

Seeing how she was suppressing her disgust in order to apply the ointment, Bo Junyan frowned and asked, "Since you can't bear to see something like this on your body, why did you think of testing the medicine on yourself?"

Mu Huan: "..."

After a while...

"My head hurts. I'm sick. I was being impulsive."

Bo Junyan: "..."

What else could he say?

Chapter 369: Not Disgusting (2)

Seeing how disgusted Mu Huan was, Bo Junyan suppressed his own reluctance to apply it and reached out for the medicine in her hand. "I'll help you do it."

"No!" Mu Huan refused.

"Give it to me," he ordered.

"You don't mind...?"

"It's not disgusting," Bo Junyan said again.

Mu Huan: "..."

After a while.

"Don't you have mysophobia? Don't you find germs disgusting?"

"When it comes to you, I'm not a clean freak," Bo Junyan said as he forced her hand away. He took the medicine and squatted down to help her apply it.

Mu Huan looked at him. He was someone who's so high up in the air, and now he was stooping down in such a demeaning manner to apply medicine to her disgusting arms and legs. He did not seem to mind at all.

An indescribable feeling surged in her heart. That feeling was so ferocious that it almost drowned her!

She used a lot of self-control to suppress the urge to pounce on him.

Then, she quietly looked at his gorgeous face until a long while had passed.

"Hubby, do you like me a lot...? Is that why you're so nice to me and don't find me disgusting? Is that why you're not a clean freak with me?"

Bo Junyan looked up at her but did not respond.

Mu Huan: "..."

Didn't he like to say yes? Why didn't he say yes this time?

Well, it was a simple pronunciation! Why didn't he agree? Why didn't he respond?!

As a girl, she had taken the initiative to confess to him and even thickened her skin to ask him those questions, yet he refused to reply!

She was so touched just now and was filled with passion for him. But because he did not respond to her, in an instant, she was filled with disappointment and pain.

Then, she felt a little annoyed.

She suddenly pulled back her arm that he was applying medicine to.

He frowned. "What's wrong?"

"Your clumsy hands are hurting me. I'll do it myself."

Frowning, he pulled her arm forward again. "I'll be gentler."

This child was too delicate. His movements were already very light, yet she still felt pain.

As she saw that he was being even gentler and was carefully applying the medicine for her, the anger in Mu Huan's heart suddenly subsided. With a little tenderness and a little resentment, she said, "Can't you just say yes?"

"What?" Bo Junyan lifted his eyes and looked at her in surprise. Sometimes, his wife's thinking was too fast.

“I said, say yes!”

“What’s wrong?”

“Just do it!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

Finally...

“Yes.”

Mu Huan immediately beamed. “Hubby, I love you so much! I love you the most! Muacks!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

Although he didn’t want to admit that there was a generation gap between him and his wife, he had to admit that there was. He often didn’t know what she was thinking in her little head, and her emotions were changing too quickly.

“Hubby, why did you come back tonight? Did things go smoothly?”

“Yes.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Just a while ago, she had asked him so many questions, but now, she didn’t want him to reply so quickly and simply. Couldn’t he say more?

Sigh...

Geniuses have low EQ.

“What’s wrong?” Sensing the change in her mood, he looked up at her.

“Nothing.”

Bo Junyan: “...”

He did not say anything else and continued to apply the medicine to her. After he was done, he wrapped a white bandage around her.

“Tell me, what sacrifice did you make for Wu Xingye?” Bo Junyan recalled what she had said a while ago.

Mu Huan: “...”

Why did he still remember to ask this question?!

Chapter 370: Punishment (1)

Before she could reply, Bo Junyan looked up. “Speak.”

Mu Huan did not know what to say. “This is a small secret. I don’t want to tell you!”

Bo Junyan: “...”

He felt that she had been spoiled rotten by him.

But he did not pursue the matter further.

With a serious expression, he requested, "You must keep a distance from a male friend."

Mu Huan hugged his neck and said delicately, "Don't worry, I'm close only to my husband!"

Mu Huan, whose arms were tightly wrapped in bandages, finally dared to hug him.

Bo Junyan knew that Mu Huan had a sense of propriety, so he did not say anything more about her.

He gave Mu Huan a lot of freedom and trust.

"Hubby, I'm a little hungry. Shall we have supper?" Because of Wu Xingye's emergency treatment, she had yet to eat properly after arriving in T Country.

"Okay." Bo Junyan was in a hurry to return and had not had dinner yet. He had initially planned not to come back, but after he was done with his work, he rushed back.

"What do you want to eat, Hubby?"

"Gong Zeye and the others are having supper downstairs. Let's go downstairs to eat. You go change your clothes," Bo Junyan said as he carried Mu Huan to change.

After she changed, he carried her to have supper.

Mu Huan: "Hubby, my leg is fine..."

He could still carry her back and forth in the room, but how could he still carry her when he went out? If he did this, people would think that she was a cripple.

"You've applied medicine on your leg. If you move back and forth, it'll be easy to get the medicine everywhere. If that happens, the effects won't be as good."

"They're all wrapped in gauze. The medicine won't rub off," Mu Huan said.

"So you can't walk around, right?" Bo Junyan raised an eyebrow.

Mu Huan: "..."

That was so exaggerated.

"Good."

Mu Huan: "..."

Every time he was being stubborn, it made her feel especially helpless. It also made her realize that it was useless no matter what she said. She could not resist him.

Hence, she did not say anything and just obediently lay in his embrace, letting him carry her out.

Her obedience pleased him greatly, and he lowered his head to kiss her.

Mu Huan: "..."

When Gong Zeye saw Bo Junyan carrying Mu Huan over...

“...”

They knew that the two of them were a loving couple, but they couldn't be so loving to that extent, could they?! How would they be able to go through a meal like this?! Did they not want to let the singles live?!

Sensing their gazes, Mu Huan wanted to get down.

It was so embarrassing to be hugged by him in public.

However, Bo Junyan had yet to put her down. She wanted to say something, but when she thought about how he was about to put her down at this point, she knew there was no need to say anything else.

Unexpectedly, after Bo Junyan sat down, he did not put her aside and let her sit within his arms instead.

“Hubby, don't you want to eat? I'll sit beside you.”

“It's fine.”

Mu Huan: “...”

How could it not be a problem? If he wanted to eat, how could she not be a problem held in his arms?

Everyone: “...”

Must they hug each other to eat during the day?

Mu Huan felt that she wouldn't be able to come out with their Brother Bo in the future. If she did, she would be overloaded with love!

...

The seafood in the country was very famous, and Mu Huan loved to eat seafood. Hence, when she saw all kinds of seafood on the table, she immediately stopped sitting there and reached out to eat.

However, he stopped her. “You can't eat these right now.”

“Huh?” Mu Huan was stunned.
