

Fake Marriage 571

Chapter 571: The Treasure Thief (3)

“I’m not their accomplice. I have nothing to do with them. Quick, check the surveillance cameras at the entrance and get someone to chase after them. I reckon you’ll be able to find some leads,” Mu Huan said.

“Of course you’d say that you’re not an accomplice! There’s no bad guy who’d admit he’s a bad person!” the counter employee said.

Mu Huan felt that it was normal for someone to suspect her under such circumstances. Hence, she did not get angry. Instead, she took out two of her cards and handed them to the manager. “You can swipe any of your things and look at the balance in my card. See if I need to do such a thing!”

The manager of such a well-known jewelry store must have seen everything before. Hence, he was able to recognize the black card in Mu Huan’s hand at a glance. It was a top-notch black card. Usually, someone who could hold such a card would be able to swipe a few airplanes!

However, because the other party was a suspected expert forger, the manager still took her card to confirm. Of course, he did not swipe it to do so. Instead, he went to the side and called the bank directly.

Due to the huge transaction sum of the jewelry company, he had a good relationship with the bank. After this investigation, he broke out in a cold sweat!

Bo Junyan! This black card was actually Bo Junyan’s secondary card!

Someone who could casually swipe the card of the Bo Group’s CEO was definitely someone close to him. This was someone they could not afford to offend!

There was no way such a person would come here to exchange these items only to be stopped by them!

After coming out, the manager respectfully returned the card to Mu Huan with both hands and bowed as he apologized profusely, “I’m sorry, distinguished guest. We misunderstood you! I’m really sorry!”

“It’s alright. It’s normal for you to misunderstand me under such circumstances. There’s no need for you to apologize. Those things were all top-notch and were worth a lot of money. Hurry up and get someone to chase after them. Also, the other party is targeting you. I think you should check all the jewelry and see if there are any other losses,” Mu Huan said as she took back her card.

It was highly possible that this was not the first time someone had done this.

It was just that they had been discovered this time. After all, someone had seen what they were doing. Other things could also be fake!

Just as the manager was about to say something, the person who was investigating the case came over.

Hence, he got the counter employee to tell the police about the details and personally sent Mu Huan out.

When Mu Huan reached the door, she turned around and glanced at the crying counter employee. A look of reluctance flashed across her eyes. She had worked at a jewelry store before and knew that under such circumstances, if those diamond necklaces could not be found, the counter employee would definitely be responsible for compensation.

Those three necklaces were worth tens of millions...

If there were people in the company who felt for her, she might lose a little less. If the company was not humane, the counter employee would probably go bankrupt.

Especially since the other party was able to make the necklace exactly the same. Furthermore, the three items that they had exchanged were brought out by the counter employee. This made it easy for the company to suspect that this was an internal employee colluding with those people. If they were to pin the blame on her for collusion, the counter employee would be in trouble.

Furthermore, she felt that the chances of finding the necklace were not high, because even she did not notice that there was something wrong with the two of them earlier. They had changed three necklaces at once, but she did not notice it. This showed how fast their hand speed was! Their composure did not reveal any flaws, indicating that they were very capable and were experts in this area.

Such a person would never fail. Once they left this place, the chances of the authorities finding them were almost zero!

Chapter 572: The Treasure Thief (4)

Furthermore, the fact that they were able to copy items meant that they were not the only ones in this gang. There were also other people in the industry who were not to be trifled with.

It was a turbulent time for her, so it was better for her to behave herself. Just as Mu Huan was about to turn around and leave...

Long Feiting walked toward her and asked, "Why are you here?"

"I was shopping."

"Why didn't you buy anything? Are you unable to buy anything you like?"

Mu Huan rolled her eyes at him. She couldn't be bothered with him. He knew that Mu Huan was rich, yet he still said that she couldn't afford such things. What was the point of this provocation?!

"Young Master Long, do you know this distinguished guest?" the manager asked.

"Yes." Long Feiting continued, "What's going on inside?"

"Three diamond necklaces worth tens of millions have been swapped," the manager said with lowered head.

"What were you doing?!" Long Feiting reprimanded.

"Why, is this your store?" Mu Huan looked at Long Feiting.

"Yes," Long Feiting said unhappily.

"If it's your family's, then you don't have to pursue compensation from the counter employee since you're so rich. I was here earlier, and they were picking things with me. The two of them were very skillful, and I didn't even notice that they had swapped the items, let alone that counter employee," Mu Huan said as she looked at the counter employee who was already choking.

The manager did not expect Mu Huan to speak up for that counter employee since she had wrongly accused her.

"You're here as well and you didn't notice?" Long Feiting asked in surprise.

"Yes."

"Since when did you become so stupid? You only know how to be lovey-dovey. Have you become stupid from love?!" Long Feiting said disdainfully.

Mu Huan: "..."

He didn't get a beating for the entire day. Could he be asking for it now?

"Come in with me and tell me what's going on." Long Feiting grabbed Mu Huan's arm and pulled her in again.

After Long Feiting asked about the details, he checked the surveillance cameras again. When he saw that it was a man and a woman, he narrowed his eyes.

"What's wrong? Have you met them before?" Mu Huan looked at him.

"Their figures are similar to those in the Imperial Capital, but their looks are different." Long Feiting was in charge of the jewelry business under the Long family.

Although he was usually childish like a kindergartener, he was only childish in front of Mu Huan. In front of outsiders, no one dared to provoke Young Master Long.

"She had thick makeup on." Mu Huan had noticed the woman's thick makeup at the time, but she had never been a nosy person. She would not pay much attention to anything that had nothing to do with her. Hence, she did not think too much about it.

"Are you the same as before?" Long Feiting looked at her.

"I still have something on, so I'll take my leave first. You take your time to study it!" Mu Huan shot him a cold glance and got up to leave.

Long Feiting knew that she didn't want anyone to know that she used to work at Know-All Agency and hurriedly followed her.

It was only when there was no one around that he grabbed Mu Huan and said, "Didn't you want me to let that counter employee off just now?"

Mu Huan looked at him silently.

“If you want me to let her off, then catch those two men with me! Two audacious people actually dared to commit crimes in Young Master Long’s shop time and time again! See if I don’t catch them and skin them alive!” Long Feiting said with a malicious and insidious look.

“Go ahead and catch them yourself. I have something on.” Mu Huan shook him off.

“You don’t want me to let that counter employee off?”

“If you want to let her off, then let her off. If you don’t want to, then so be it.” In any case, she had tried her best to help the other party. Right now, Ling Wei was eyeing her like a tiger eyeing its prey. At this time, she couldn’t find trouble no matter what. It was better for her to obediently conduct her experiment.

Chapter 573: Luck and Fortune (1)

“Those two obviously made use of you and wanted to make you their scapegoat. Fortunately, you have such a status now. If it were you in the past, do you think you would be able to prove your innocence? Even if they couldn’t find anything from you, and even if you refused to admit it, you could still be detained for 24 hours to cooperate with the investigation. Are you willing to tolerate them using you like this and harming you?”

Mu Huan: “...”

“Help me catch them! I’ll keep it a secret for you! Also, I won’t let you do it for nothing. As long as you can catch those two thieves who’ve stolen many things that’s worth a lot, when the time comes, I’ll give you a lot of money!”

Mu Huan was tempted.

Initially, she was indignant, but now, she had money as motivation.

And she really wanted to find those two people who dared to make use of her and beat them up...

But...

“They’re not just two people. They’re probably a group of people. Look at how realistic those fake necklaces are. If you don’t look closely, you won’t be able to tell. This gang is definitely not to be trifled with.”

“No matter how bad they are, I’m here!”

Mu Huan glanced at him with a look of suspicion.

Long Feiting: “...!!!”

“I’ll think about it first. I’m leaving now!” Mu Huan said and was about to leave.

Long Feiting grabbed her again and said, “By the time you’ve thought it through, they’d be long gone!”

“Don’t worry, they won’t be able to escape any time soon.”

Long Feiting instinctively asked, “Why?”

“That’s because the most impressive jewelry demolition master in the country is in Yun Cheng. Jewelry that has been modified by him only loses fifteen percent of material. Even the original jewelry designer can’t recognize it. Many people bring questionable jewelry to be modified at his place. After his modification, not only will those unidentified jewelry be easier to deal with, but they will also be very expensive. Many of them have gone through proper channels to be sold. Your jewelry store may even have items modified by him.

“The majority of the people in the country with unknown backgrounds, especially the ones with high-end pieces of jewelry that they need modified to reduce their losses as much as possible, are here to find him so he could take the jewelry apart. Since they are in Yun Cheng, they must be looking for this master as well. That master is very busy, so they won’t be able to leave in a short time. But if their team has a very powerful leader, then they’ll be gone by now and you won’t be able to find them. So no matter what, there’s no need to worry.”

“How did you know that?”

“Because I know.”

Long Feiting: “...!!!”

“I’ll give you an answer tomorrow.” With that, she turned around and left.

Long Feiting did not pursue her any longer. He knew that if he did, she would not agree to anything.

After Mu Huan left, she went to the jade shop. As the items in the shop were exquisite and good-looking, and she was rich now, she picked a few more items. Just as she was about to pay and leave, she received a call from Bo Junyan.

“Dad will be back tonight.”

Mu Huan’s hand froze as she instinctively asked, “What’s Dad’s favorite gift?”

“He should want a grandson the most.”

Mu Huan: “...”

She wouldn’t be able to give this to him any time soon.

“I’m just teasing you. He loves to drink tea, especially the tea brewed by the old tea shop on East Street. You can just go back and buy some tea,” Bo Junyan said with a smile.

PA Wang: “...”

CEO, you even know how to tease people now?

“Okay, Hubby, I love you. Muacks!”

Chapter 574: Luck and Fortune (2)

“Don’t stay too long in the laboratory after school. Come back early. You should be back before dinner,” Bo Junyan instructed.

“Yes!”

After Mu Huan left the jade shop, she went to East Street and bought her father-in-law's favorite tea before returning to school.

After school in the afternoon, she packed her bag and walked out.

When she reached the door, she received a call from Bo Junyan saying that he was waiting for her at the school entrance.

"Didn't you say that you were busy today?" He had called earlier and said that he might be busy tonight and might come home late.

"Things have been settled earlier than expected," Bo Junyan said.

PA Wang: "..."

It was obvious that he was afraid that his wife would be nervous and at a loss when facing the old CEO alone, so he cowed all those urgent matters and settled them!

"Then I'll be right there!" Mu Huan flew out like a happy little bird.

Long Feiting's expression was complex as he looked at her figure. He was frustrated.

In the car...

"Hubby, take a look and see if Mom will like these." Mu Huan showed Bo Junyan the jade accessories she'd bought today so that he could check them out.

"They're all pretty good," Bo Junyan praised.

"Do I have good taste?!" Mu Huan said proudly.

"Yes, it's especially good."

PA Wang: "..."

Mrs. CEO, you are really as narcissistic as always!

"What kind of person is Dad?" To be honest, Mu Huan was a little nervous.

This was the first time she was meeting her father-in-law. There was no one who would not be nervous.

"Don't be nervous. He's already very satisfied with you. As long as you act normally, he'll like you a lot." Bo Junyan caressed her head.

"Is he already satisfied with me because of his relationship with the Mu family?" Mu Huan recalled that Bo Junyan's father had a special relationship with her grandma.

"That's one of the reasons. The main reason is that you're very outstanding. That's why he's very satisfied with you." Last night, Mu Huan had said that Bo Junyan didn't have a high EQ and that's why he wouldn't praise her. Today, he especially went online to search for a way to compliment his wife.

"Hubby, why are you so good at talking today?!" Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan, her eyes sparkling. Usually, when she spoke to him, he would only reply with a yes. Today, he had been praising her!

“Don’t you like to be praised?”

When Mu Huan saw how he was so quiet and hardworking about learning to praise her, she happily spread her arms wide and hugged him tightly. “Hubby, I love you!”

Bo Junyan smiled and lowered his head to kiss her.

It’s good that this young lady knows how to act cute!

In the past, he felt that when their CEO and Ling Wei stood together, they were like a perfect match made in heaven. Both of them looked very compatible in terms of appearance and family background. He felt that no other woman could match up to their CEO.

Now, he felt that Mu Huan was more compatible with their CEO.

Just the thought of this cold and aloof male coupled with the cute lolita was enough to make the scene feel good!

When Bo Junyan and Mu Huan returned home, the living room of the Bo family was bustling with activity. Bo Huaiyun and his family had come over because of his relative’s return.

Bo Huaiyun had initially planned to bring Gu Qianru and Gu Chenyi overseas after the funeral. However, after the funeral, Gu Qianru’s health was poor and she was basically lying in bed every day. Hence, he could only push the plan back and wait for her to recover.

However, although Gu Qianru was not in good health, she had come along today.

After they entered, the group of people who were chatting happily in the living room looked over.

Chapter 575: Luck and Fortune (3)

Gu Chenyi was no longer the sunshine boy he used to be. The way he looked at Mu Huan now was so deep that it was hard to tell what he was thinking.

Gu Qianru only glanced at Mu Huan for a moment before lowering her head. She was afraid that she wouldn’t be able to control her emotions.

Sometimes, when a person hated someone, there was really no reason and no way to explain it.

She simply hated Mu Huan more and more. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that if Mu Huan had not existed, everything would not have happened. No matter what, even Lin Qingya had been summoned because of Mu Huan. She was the culprit!

Gu Qianru hated Lin Qingya as well. It was just that Lin Qingya was too easy to deal with. If she said she was done, she would be done for.

Mu Huan, on the other hand, had always been a thorn on her side.

Bo Dingjing was already in his sixties, and his body was worse than that of his peers due to the car accident he’d been in. He had been recuperating overseas for the past two years. However, regardless of the vicissitudes of time or the slight sickness, his innate dominance could not be diminished. Even sitting among the crowd, he was the king.

Compared to Meng Yueman's cold attitude toward Mu Huan during their first meeting, Bo Dingjing was like what Bo Junyan had said. He liked Mu Huan to begin with. Hence, when he saw the two of them return, a smile formed on his usually dignified face. He took the initiative to greet them, "You're back."

Bo Junyan patted Mu Huan lightly and signaled for her to come forward to greet him. Even though Mu Huan was mentally prepared on the way, she could not help stammering when she called out to him. "Da-Dad—"

After all, Mu Huan was still young. She had never thought that she would get married so early and address someone else's parents as her parents.

"How filial." Bo Dingjing looked at her with a satisfied smile and then took out a red packet for Mu Huan.

Mu Huan took it from him. "Thank you, Dad."

Although Bo Dingjing had been overseas all this time, he knew everything that had happened in the family. Hence, he had some understanding of Mu Huan. Because of his relationship with the Mu family, he liked the Mu family's daughter a lot. Mu Huan had performed so well after marrying into the Bo family. Furthermore, Mu Huan looked likable. Naturally, the more he looked at her, the more he liked his daughter-in-law. "How obedient!"

Mu Huan lowered her head shyly. Then, she suddenly thought of something and hurriedly looked up. "Dad, Mom, this is a gift I bought for you. I hope you like it."

With that, she looked toward Bo Junyan.

Bo Junyan strode forward and passed the things in his hand to Mu Huan.

Mu Huan passed it to the two elders.

Bo Dingjing was even more satisfied when he saw the tea leaves that he liked.

Meng Yueman looked at the exquisite jade jewelry in her hand and smiled. It was obvious that she liked this gift.

"Alright, the two of you go upstairs to change and get ready to eat." Bo Dingjing was a man of few words. Now that he had given them a red packet, he did not know what else to say. Hence, he asked them to go up first.

"Okay." Mu Huan nodded obediently.

Bo Junyan hugged her and went up.

After they left, the few people in the living room continued to chat as though nothing had happened. However, there were actually some changes in their hearts.

They went upstairs.

“The red packet that Dad gave me seems to contain a card,” Mu Huan said as she touched the red packet in her hand.

“Yes.”

As soon as he said that, Mu Huan opened the red packet. It was really a card!

Other people’s wedding gifts would at most be a little bigger.

Her father-in-law gave her a card!

Chapter 576: I Choose My Wife (1)

“I feel like there’s a lot of money in this card!” Mu Huan felt that since her father-in-law had given her the card, the amount of money inside would definitely not be small.

“Yes.”

“Am I too lucky today?” Mu Huan, who had always been poor, felt that her luck today was even better than when she was daydreaming previously!

Indeed, one had to dream about beautiful dreams. What if they not only came true but also turned out to be even better?

Bo Junyan smiled and caressed her head.

“This happiness came too suddenly! It’s so sudden that I feel like I’m floating. I feel like I’m dreaming today,” Mu Huan said with a sigh.

For Mu Huan, who used to be so poor and live so hard, to suddenly become a billionaire, the happiness came too suddenly and too fiercely, making her feel a little dizzy.

Suddenly, Mu Huan thought of something. “The ancients say that things will change when they reach an extreme. If I suddenly become so happy, will I soon encounter misfortune?”

Bo Junyan: “...”

“Hubby, I’d better return the money to you! As a person, it’s better to be down-to-earth!” As Mu Huan spoke, she was about to return the card he had given her this morning.

Bo Junyan broke into laughter. “Don’t give it back to me. This money is yours as well. All the assets under my name are the assets of a married couple. Hence, it’s not all of a sudden that this came on. After you married me, you became a billionaire. The money in this card is only for your everyday allowance.”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

Fortunately, she had a good heart! If she had a bad heart, she would probably faint from the shock!

500 million...

It was only her allowance!

Seriously!

Buddha said that all living things were equal, but the difference between the rich and the poor was like heaven and earth!

Suddenly, Mu Huan's eyes lit up and she said, "Hubby, if you have an affair in the future, do you think I can let you leave with nothing and then I can take all the billions of assets for myself and live the rest of my life with it?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

This little brain of hers was too imaginative.

"Now that I think about it, the price of your affair is too great. From now on, you'd better be obedient!" Mu Huan had wanted to rub his head when he told her to be obedient, but because he was too tall, she couldn't reach it. Hence, she reached out and lightly patted his face.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Dinner...

Although the people present were not people who liked to chat, the atmosphere was rather lively as they chatted.

However, it was unknown if it was intentional or not. The topics that Gu Qianru had stirred up were all about Bo Junyan and Ling Wei in the past. People who were old loved to talk about the past. Hence, Meng Yueshan would always follow her words.

And Ling Wei would respond with a smile at appropriate times.

Occasionally, he would ask Bo Junyan a few questions.

The others at the table would also say something. Mu Huan was the only one who did not participate in their reminiscing of the past. Hence, she had nothing to talk about and could only eat in silence.

Bo Junyan noticed that Mu Huan could not cut in and lowered his head to talk to her about the recent progress of the experiment. The two of them chatted so intimately that those who were seated far away could not hear them. They thought that the two of them had a good relationship and had endless things to talk about.

As Gu Chenyi was arranged to sit far away from Mu Huan by Bo Junyan, he did not know that Bo Junyan and Mu Huan were discussing serious academic issues.

Chapter 577: I Choose My Wife (2)

All he saw was that his uncle, who was originally so quiet, was now chatting so enthusiastically with Mu Huan. Their relationship was getting better and better.

His expression darkened.

Gu Qianru, who had been paying attention to him, instantly felt heartache when she saw the change in his expression.

Her son! He was such a bright and cheerful son who only had happiness in his life, but because of Mu Huan, he had become like this! Not only was he being mocked behind his back for fighting with his uncle over a woman, but he also had to bear this kind of pain. Not only did he not get the woman he liked, but he also had to watch her happily being in love with another man!

He shouldn't be suffering this kind of pain!

Mu Huan shouldn't exist in their world!

After dinner, Mu Huan went to the washroom.

When she came out, she saw Gu Qianru in the corridor, clearly waiting for her.

"Come with me. I have something to tell you." With that, Gu Qianru turned around and left.

Just as Mu Huan was about to follow her, she suddenly thought of something. Hence, she sent Bo Junyan a text message. "Sister-in-law wants to talk to me. In case things don't go well, you can wait nearby and come over when I give a signal."

Gu Qianru's health was not good. The last time she left the hospital, she looked at her with so much hatred. She did not even want her to attend Old Master Gu's funeral. Today, the way she looked at her did not improve at all. Mu Huan was afraid that something would happen if Gu Qianru talked to her.

By then, even if she didn't do anything, it would be a mistake. It would cause a rift between the two families because of her. Hence, it was necessary for Bo Junyan to appear at the right time.

"I'll be right there," Bo Junyan replied quickly.

"There's no need for that. I want to talk to Sister-in-law as well. We're family. It's best if we can resolve the knot in our hearts." Mu Huan knew that it was impossible to restore her relationship with Gu Qianru to how it was in the past. There would always be a crack if something had already happened. However, she wanted to try her best to make Gu Qianru no longer hate her so much.

Bo Junyan quickly replied, "Okay."

Mu Huan and Gu Qianru went to the garden outside.

The late autumn night breeze was a little cold. Mu Huan instinctively took off her coat and wanted to give it to Gu Qianru, but Gu Qianru rejected her.

"Let's talk inside the house, then." Mu Huan looked at her delicate body, which looked like it could be blown away by a gust of wind. She was afraid that she wouldn't be able to get up tomorrow if she were to be blown by the wind.

Gu Qianru definitely did not want to go back to the house to talk, but Mu Huan would leave immediately if she did not accept the coat or return to her room. Hence, she could only accept Mu Huan's coat.

"Mu Huan, you're clearly a kind person. Why did you hurt us?" Gu Qianru looked at Mu Huan with a hurt expression.

Mu Huan: "..."

She used the tone of a victim to accuse her, making her feel like she had targeted Gu Chenyi.

She had clearly done nothing, yet they were accusing her of hurting them.

How did she hurt them?

She asked the same question.

“Sister-in-law, what have I done to hurt you?”

“Existing.”

Mu Huan: “...”

What should she say? Her existence had hurt them...

“Xiao Huan, don’t you think that all these things started because of you? If it weren’t for you, Lin Qingya wouldn’t have spent so much effort to be with Chenyi. Chenyi would still be that sunny young man from the past, and my dad might not have been diagnosed with cancer! He wouldn’t have passed away so early. Without you, all of this wouldn’t have happened!”

Chapter 578: I Choose My Wife (3)

If it weren’t for her, all of this wouldn’t have happened! She had hurt them like this, yet she didn’t feel that she had hurt them!

“This is just what you think, Sister-in-law. There are no ifs in this world. Even if there are ifs, if it weren’t for me, your son would have fallen in love with another girl when he grows up. Other girls might not necessarily like your son. As for Uncle Gu, he was already in the late stage of cancer when he got a checkup. The late-stage diagnosis shows that his cancer had existed for a long time. In other words, before I appeared, Uncle Gu was already suffering from cancer. This means that even if I didn’t appear, the result would be the same.

“Also, Sister-in-law, don’t think about how good things would have been in this world without me. Everything in this world may seem chaotic, but there are rules and order. It’s like the butterfly effect. Without me, you might not even be Gu Qianru. The environment you live in wouldn’t have been like this!”

Sometimes, one really shouldn’t always pamper and indulge her. Her thoughts were already so extreme. She had to wake her up!

People tend to think too well of things, but reality is often cruel.

If only things were as good as she thought. If only she didn’t have such a grandma all her life. If only her mother didn’t die and her parents were still showering her love, how happy would their family of three have been?!

But there were no such ifs in this world!

Gu Qianru was at a loss for words. That was because her rationality knew that Mu Huan was right. Even if Mu Huan wasn’t around, there would still be other possibilities. Things wouldn’t be as good as she thought.

But...

“Xiao Huan, you clearly know that Chenyi likes you so much. How can you bear to let him live such a painful life every day? How can you allow outsiders to say such things about an uncle and a nephew... This sort of thing is hard to listen to, isn't it? There are so many men in this world. Can't you leave Junyan and find someone else? Why must you stay by Junyan's side and make everyone suffer?”

“I heard from Chenyi that you married Junyan because you were in need of money. If you're in need of money, how much do you want? I'll give you half of the Gu family's assets, alright?” Gu Qianru pleaded.

She knew that it would be difficult for Mu Huan to leave Bo Junyan. Hence, she was willing to give up half of the Gu family's assets. She only hoped that she would stay far away from them and never appear in front of them again!

Mu Huan: “...”

She finally knew it was his mother's genes that Gu Chenyi had inherited. He did not resemble Bo Huaiyun at all!

“When you leave, as time goes by, people will gradually forget about this matter. But when you're with Junyan, people will always remember this matter. Also, if you leave, Chenyi will never be able to see you again, and he will slowly recover. It's like if you really want something, if you can't see it, you won't yearn for it so much. If there's something else that distracts your attention, you'll slowly forget what you first wanted. But if you can still see it every day, you won't be able to forget it no matter what!”

Gu Qianru felt that what she said was completely reasonable. There was no problem at all. Although what she had asked Mu Huan to do was a little forceful, it was something she should do for everyone's sake.

“Sister-in-law, you don't have to worry about those rumors anymore. Junyan has already gone to deal with them. Soon, those rumors will no longer exist. In the future, when people see our two families, they will only be envious and won't say anything bad about us.”

Chapter 579: I Choose My Wife (4)

“As for Chenyi, if he finds it uncomfortable to look at me, I can avoid him. From now on, I won't appear in any place where he is. This way, I'll be able to achieve the same effect as you asking me to leave.” In the future, if it was a family gathering or something like this, she could avoid it and not let them see her again.

“The relationship between you and Chenyi really happened in the past. Even if Junyan can use a forceful method to stop public opinion, it won't stop others from thinking about it!” The relationship between the two of them had been real. No matter how Bo Junyan dealt with it, people would still think that they were uncle and nephew...

“If Sister-in-law cares about what others think about you, then how are you going to continue living? How many people in this life show respect for you on the surface, but in their hearts, they wish for your Gu family to collapse sooner? They praise you in front of you, and behind your back, they say all sorts of things about you. And in this world, there are people who say that money is evil, let alone people! No matter how well a person does, there will always be people who'll say that she's not good!

“No... this...” Gu Qianru did not know what else to say for a moment. All along, her rationality had been telling her that she had no right to make Mu Huan leave. Otherwise, she would not have suggested giving Mu Huan half of the Gu family’s assets.

After a while, she really did not know what else she could use to convince Mu Huan to leave.

She could only grab Mu Huan’s arm and pleadingly say, “Xiao Huan, I know I’m possessed. I know I shouldn’t do this, but I just saw that Chenyi is in so much pain that I couldn’t help but want to blame you. The more I think about it, the more I feel that I’m not as good as you. If this goes on, I feel like I’m going to go crazy! So, please, please leave, alright? Don’t appear in front of me again, don’t let me see you again!”

“Alright. From now on, I’ll avoid going wherever Sister-in-law is.”

“You know that’s not what I meant!” Gu Qianru shouted uncontrollably.

“Those problems that Sister-in-law mentioned can be solved and patched up. Why does Sister-in-law insist on me leaving Junyan?”

“Because of your existence, Chenyi and I are in great pain. It’ll be good for everyone if you leave...”

“Sister-in-law and Chenyi feel pain because of my existence because the two of you are in the wrong. If I leave, you won’t be any better off!

“I like Junyan very much, and Junyan likes me very much as well. If I were to leave, the two of us would be in great pain. Hence, my leaving won’t be better for everyone and would instead hurt more people. That’s why, Sister-in-law, don’t think about asking me to leave again. That’s impossible.”

Because Mu Huan treated Gu Qianru as her family, she was willing to speak nicely to her. If it were someone else who was being so crazy, she was afraid that she would directly agitate this person to death!

“Chenyi likes you so much, how can you bear to make him suffer so much?!” Gu Qianru felt that Mu Huan was too heartless. Her son was in so much pain, yet she could still live so happily!

“Junyan respects you so much and treats you like family. How can you bear to see him lose his wife? Can you bear to see him suffer?”

“You and Junyan have only been married for less than half a year, and we’ve been his family forever. We have an endless blood relationship. If he had to choose, he would definitely choose his family!”

Chapter 580: I Choose My Wife (5)

Gu Qianru felt that since Mu Huan had only been married to Bo Junyan for less than half a year, even if they had feelings for each other, it wouldn’t be deep.

After the two of them got a divorce, they could find their own happiness.

They could have other ways to find happiness, but why did they have to make others’ lives so miserable?

“Sister-in-law, you’re wrong. I’ll choose my wife,” a voice suddenly interrupted.

Mu Huan and Gu Qianru looked up at the same time.

At some point, Bo Junyan had walked up to them.

Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan, her big eyes full of wonder. Why did you come out before I even had the chance to make a move?

Bo Junyan took a step forward and lightly patted her back. “Go back to your room first. I’ll talk to Sister-in-law.”

“But...” Mu Huan was about to say something.

Mu Huan knew that he wasn’t going to accept any of her “buts.” Besides, she felt that Gu Qianru’s current mentality was already in a sick state. She needed to see a psychiatrist, and it wasn’t something that could be resolved with just a chat.

“Okay.” She left obediently.

“Was what you said earlier true?” If he had to choose between Mu Huan and them, he would choose Mu Huan!

“Yes.”

“Junyan, we’re family! How can you abandon your family for a woman?!” Gu Qianru said agitatedly.

“If we really reach that stage, it’s not that I want to abandon all of you, but that you don’t want to be my family anymore. My wife is also my family. She’s not just any other woman. Yet even though she didn’t do anything wrong, you’re forcing my wife to leave. Once you no longer consider my feelings and don’t treat me as family, you would no longer be my family.”

All feelings in this world were mutual.

“You’ve only been married to her for less than half a year!” How could she be more important than his family?!

“Feelings are not measured by time.”

Gu Qianru clenched her fists tightly. He actually liked Mu Huan more and doted on her more than she thought!

In fact, in the deepest part of her heart, Gu Qianru knew that whatever reason she had told Mu Huan to leave was just an excuse. The real reason she wanted Mu Huan to leave Bo Junyan was that she couldn’t bear to see Mu Huan so happy and couldn’t accept it. She and her son were living such a painful life, but Mu Huan was pampered and happy by Bo Junyan’s side.

She wanted Mu Huan to suffer and to be in pain! But... she had more than she thought!

As time passed, the night deepened.

By the time Bo Junyan returned to his room, Mu Huan had already washed up and was lying on the bed. When she heard him coming in, she immediately sat up. "How was it? How was the discussion?"

"I've hired a psychiatrist. He'll be treating Sister-in-law tomorrow."

Mu Huan: "..."

After a while.

"She was such a good person..." Now, it had become like this.

"Don't think too much. It's not your fault. It's just that she and Chenyi were protected too well, causing them to be unable to bear even a little setback."

"Looks like education is necessary for setbacks. If we have a child in the future, we can't just dote on her. We have to give her some setbacks from time to time!"

"Okay." Bo Junyan smiled and picked her up.

Their child.

Yes, very good.

The next day at Yun University.

Long Feiting had arrived at the school early. When he saw Mu Huan coming in, he immediately leaned over and said, "I've waited for you for so long. Remember what we agreed on!"

Mu Huan looked at him lazily and said, "I think you'll be more convincing if there's money."

"Alright, for the sake of money, you have to agree!"
