

Fake Marriage 601

Chapter 601: A Big Move (3)

Gong Zeye raised an eyebrow. He knew Long Feiting well, so he was a little surprised that he would protect a hired thug.

“Don’t hit him. I want to hit that last person!” Yang Ning insisted as she pointed at Mu Huan.

She felt that the person who had beaten her up was the leader of this group of people. Long Feiting actually said that he was only someone he had hired. Why would he protect a person he’d only hired so much that he would rather take a beating than hand him over?

When Gong Zeye heard this, he walked forward and whispered to Long Feiting, “It’d be so embarrassing to hit you. Just let that person be beaten up. Don’t worry—after I’m done, I’ll give him more money as compensation. I won’t let my fiancée be too ruthless.”

Long Feiting: “...”

This wasn’t a matter of money...

Also, of course she was going to be ruthless!

“Alright, it’s settled,” Gong Zeye said as he turned to pull Mu Huan over for Yang Ning to vent her anger.

Long Feiting hurriedly grabbed Gong Zeye to stop him from approaching. Gong Zeye shook Long Feiting off, and Long Feiting grabbed him again. The two of them started fighting.

“What are all of you still standing there for? Hurry and go bring that person over!” Yang Ning said, ordering Gong Zeye’s men to capture Mu Huan.

When the bodyguards heard this, they immediately surrounded Mu Huan.

“What do we do?” Li Meng had met Gong Zeye before. It was not only Mu Huan who was afraid of being recognized—even she could not be recognized. Once she was recognized, Mu Huan would not be far from being exposed.

But if this continued, they would definitely be recognized.

“I’ll count to three. All of you hold your breath and cover your mouth and nose! I’m going to use my ultimate move!” Mu Huan whispered into her earpiece.

The four of them were wearing wireless earphones, so Wu Xingye and Long Feiting had heard Mu Huan’s words.

When Mu Huan whispered “three,” the four of them instantly held their breaths and covered their noses.

When Gong Zeye saw Long Feiting suddenly covering his mouth and nose, he felt that something was amiss. He instinctively covered his mouth and nose, but it was already too late!

Mu Huan's ultimate move had been modified by her. It was a super smoke-bomb knockout drug. After it was thrown to the ground and exploded, the smoke that blew out could knock out all the normal humans within a radius of ten meters. Furthermore, they would collapse in seconds!

She always liked to be prepared!

No matter what mission it was, they had to leave a backup.

When Gong Zeye fell to the ground, he only had one thought, and that was to capture this person who'd dared to put him down!

Apart from Mu Huan and the rest who did not collapse because they did not inhale the gas, there was still Yang Ning, who was born with a special constitution. She did not collapse. However, her legs also swayed weakly.

When she felt that the gas had almost dissipated, Mu Huan released her grip and took the jewelry from Wu Xingye's hand. She picked them up and looked at them.

Then, she handed those things to Long Feiting and said in a low voice, "The things are real. We've completed our mission. You can just transfer the money to me next year. Don't be in a hurry to give it to me. We'll be leaving first. You deal with the aftermath!"

Long Feiting: "..."

At this point, she still remembered the mission! She still remembered to ask for money!

Just as he was about to say something...

Mu Huan made a gesture.

Wu Xingye and Li Meng immediately followed her, and the three of them quickly hopped onto the motorcycle.

"Hey..." Seeing that they were about to leave, Long Feiting instinctively wanted to chase after them.

However, Mu Huan and the rest had already dashed out.

Gong Zeye's car had blocked the entry of other cars, but it could not block a motorcycle that was much smaller than a car. This was also the reason why Mu Huan and the others had to split into two teams when out on a mission. Sometimes, it was very inconvenient to drive, and a motorcycle could get into narrower places. Sometimes, it was more convenient to escape on a bike than in a car.

Chapter 602: A Big Move (4)

Mu Huan and Wu Xingye sped especially fast and soon disappeared.

Long Feiting was left alone, looking at the people who had collapsed on the ground.

"..." Somehow, he felt a little desolate.

If it were anyone else, he would have driven a car to chase after them, but Gong Zeye was here!

If anything were to happen to Gong Zeye and his fiancée here, he would have to bear the consequences. Hence, he could only stay where he was.

“Who was that person just now?” the strong Yang Ning asked Long Feiting.

“What kind of diamond do you want when your family already has a wealthy son-in-law? Why are you doing such a thing?! Are you crazy?!” Long Feiting said disdainfully.

“Let me ask you, who was that person just now?! What were you talking about?!” Yang Ning said unhappily upon seeing that the person had run away. If she hadn’t been drugged and needed some time to recover, she would definitely not have let them run away!

“Crazy! Who do you think you are?! I don’t have to answer anything you ask me! If you weren’t Gong Zeye’s fiancée, I would definitely kill you!” Long Feiting, who was left behind and was already in a bad mood, got into an even worse mood. Whenever he was in a bad mood, he’d dare to argue with anyone, let alone Yang Ning.

“Try killing me if you dare!”

“Are you stupid?! I already said that if you weren’t Gong Zeye’s fiancée, I’d kill you! Are you right in the head?!” Long Feiting’s face was full of disbelief.

“You’re the f*cking idiot! You were abandoned by your hired employee who ran away! I’ve never seen such a useless and embarrassing master like you!” Yang Ning felt that the person who’d run away just now did not have an ordinary identity. He was definitely not who Long Feiting had described him to be. After all, who would treat their employer like this?

He’d dared to treat Long Feiting that way, but Long Feiting wasn’t afraid of Gong Zeye. That person shouldn’t have been afraid of Gong Zeye, but he was obviously afraid of him. After knocking down everyone, he couldn’t wait to run away. There must be something else going on here. This made her want to capture that person even more. She wanted to know who he was!

“What do you know?! You...” Long Feiting, who was about to say something, suddenly realized that this might be the other party’s provocation. She wanted him to say something about Mu Huan, so he stopped in time.

When she saw that her provocation had been seen through, Yang Ning’s mood worsened. “That person is a woman. Could it be that she’s your girlfriend? Is that why you’re so protective of her? Or could it be that she’s Gong Zeye’s ex-girlfriend?”

Yang Ning knew that her fiancé had many ex-girlfriends. Hence, when she thought about how the other party had been afraid of Gong Zeye, another possibility had come to her—that that woman was her fiancé’s ex-girlfriend. Now that she was with Long Feiting, she was afraid that her fiancé would find it awkward.

However, on second thought, this possibility seemed a little small!

“What woman? What nonsense are you spouting?!”

Seeing him like this, Yang Ning became sure at least that the person who had beaten her up was indeed a woman.

Although Mu Huan had deliberately lowered her voice to speak—and although her voice, which was similar to a man's, was so vivid that ordinary people wouldn't be able to tell it's not genuine—Yang Ning wasn't an ordinary person. However, she didn't suspect that Mu Huan was a girl because of her voice. After all, there were many sissy men nowadays. She came to suspect that Mu Huan was a woman through Mu Huan's hand.

No matter how skinny and short a man was, his hands would be different from a woman's. The hand that was strangling her neck just now definitely belonged to a woman! Hence, she'd felt that he was a woman.

Chapter 603: A Big Move (5)

How could a woman be so formidable?! She'd used such a fast speed to knock down two of her capable subordinates, and she was really ruthless and capable! She could race so fast, command people, and quickly turn the situation around to be advantageous for her. She could even run away so successfully!

She couldn't let her off! She wanted to compete with her!

"That person is your girlfriend, right? Even if she's not your girlfriend, she must be very familiar with you. How about this? I won't hit her. Tell me who she is. I just want to have a good competition with her!" Let's see how formidable that woman could be without using medicine!

"You better shut up! Otherwise, I'll knock you out!" Long Feiting was annoyed by her nagging! He really wanted to punch her unconscious.

"Long Feiting, right? Let me tell you..." Yang Ning did not manage to finish speaking.

Long Feiting, who had had enough of her, knocked her out with a knife hilt. In any case, the responsibility of knocking Gong Zeye unconscious would definitely fall on him. He was not afraid of also shouldering the crime of knocking his fiancée unconscious!

Coincidentally, Long Feilei was in Yun Cheng. When he heard that his younger brother had mobilized everyone to rescue the driver, he, who had always cherished his younger brother, quickly rushed over with his men. When he arrived, he saw the people lying on the ground. Only his younger brother was standing there.

On this empty street, under the illumination of the car lights, Long Feiting stood there alone. The ground beneath his feet was littered with people. That scene was extremely spectacular! Hot blood!

Long Feilei was stunned!

The bodyguards behind him widened their eyes in shock, their mouths agape. Since when had their Young Master Long become so formidable?! He had killed so many people by himself!

Long Feilei was stunned for a while before he snapped back to his senses. Then, he said in disbelief, "Baby, are these the people you killed?"

Long Feiting: "..."

“Baby, when did you become so powerful?! Why didn’t Big Brother know?!” There was no one else here except Long Feiting. Although Long Feilei found this unbelievable, who else could have done this but his younger brother?

“Call me Baby again and you’ll no longer be my brother!” Long Feiting said through gritted teeth.

Long Feilei: “...”

Was this the point?! The point was, how did he suddenly become so powerful that he could kill so many people at once?!

However, he quickly said, “I was wrong! I was wrong! Let me take a good look at you and see if you’re hurt...”

As he spoke, he walked toward Long Feiting, wanting to see if he was injured. After all, no matter how he suddenly became so powerful, he must have been injured more or less after dealing with so many people.

As he was walking toward Long Feiting, he was so anxious to see if his precious younger brother was injured that he did not notice his feet. He tripped over the person who had fallen to the ground and almost fell. He was so angry that he steadied himself and kicked him!

When Long Feiting saw who he was kicking, he hurriedly shouted, “Brother, don’t...!”

However, he shouted too late. Long Feilei had already kicked him.

When he heard his brother stopping him, he looked over and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Long Feiting was sweating profusely. “That’s Gong Zeye.”

Long Feilei was stunned and then lowered his head to take a look. It was really Gong Zeye!

Instantly...

“...!!”

Freaking hell! He actually kicked Gong Zeye! Given this guy’s vengeful nature, he would definitely not let Long Feilei off!

However...

He looked up abruptly. “How could it be Gong Zeye?! How did you knock him out?! How is this possible?!”

Chapter 604: A Big Move (6)

Long Feilei felt that no matter how outstanding his younger brother was, it was impossible for him to have defeated Gong Zeye and so many other people!

“That’s not right. He doesn’t look like he was beaten down...” Long Feilei said as he approached Gong Zeye. After carefully inspecting him, he asked, “He was drugged?”

Long Feiting: “Yes.”

Long Feilei looked at the other people on the ground and asked, "Are those people the same?"

"Yes."

Long Feilei: "..."

He was happy for nothing! He thought that his brother had suddenly become awesome!

So they were all drugged!

However, to be able to knock out so many people, it was still very impressive!

As expected of his younger brother!

No! That's not the point!

The point was!

"Why did you knock Gong Zeye out? It's not like you don't know Gong Zeye's personality! What kind of conflict did the two of you have? Why didn't you tell me what's going on and got me to come over to communicate with him and resolve it?" It would be very troublesome if Gong Zeye were to find trouble with them!

Long Feiting: "..."

Just as he was racking his brains to think of a way to justify what had happened tonight to his brother and to get his brother to help him with the matter tonight...

Long Feilei said proudly, "But you're too awesome! You were able to make Gong Zeye and his men faint! Under the circumstances where he had so many people, you didn't suffer at all! Very good!"

No matter how much trouble he got into, that would be a matter for the future!

As long as his younger brother did not suffer a loss!

All the bodyguards: "..."

Boss, is this the time for you to be proud?

These are Gong Zeye and his men!

Long Feiting: "..."

He wasn't the one who'd made them faint...

"But what medicine did you use to knock them out? What medicine could be so powerful?" Long Feilei felt that no matter which medicine his brother had used, he should not have been able to knock them out completely, especially Gong Zeye. He was definitely stronger than his brother!

"Also, why did you get into a conflict with Gong Zeye?" Long Feilei's question came back.

"Let's talk about this when we get back. I'll get someone to get them up and send them to the hospital, especially Gong Zeye. I wonder what he'll do when he wakes up..." Long Feiting's anger at having to face Gong Zeye when he woke up gave him a headache.

Long Feilei thought so too. He quickly ordered his men to carry everyone on the road to their private hospital. This matter had to be done quietly.

“Be careful of this woman. She’s Gong Zeye’s fiancée...” Long Feiting said, instructing his men to treat Gong Zeye’s fiancée more carefully.

“When did Gong Zeye have a fiancée?” Long Feilei asked instinctively.

“I don’t know.”

Long Feilei: “...”

“What happened tonight? What happened?”

“Let’s talk at the hospital later. I need to organize my words,” Long Feiting said.

Long Feilei: “...”

Was he thinking about how to fool him?

...

Mu Huan and Wu Xingye avoided the main road that had surveillance cameras along the way. They took a small path and arrived at the repair shop that would definitely keep it a secret for them. They wanted to dismantle these two motorcycles into parts.

“Must we tear them down? Can’t we just modify them?” Wu Xingye was a little reluctant to part with his capable partner.

“Gong Zeye was the one who’d fainted this time. He’s the one who cares the most about his face! He definitely won’t let this matter rest after I knocked him out like that. He’s going to investigate thoroughly. If he finds me through these two motorcycles, we’ll be exposed! We have to dismantle them into parts!” Mu Huan had some understanding of Gong Zeye.

Chapter 605: Special Constitution (1)

“Alright...” No matter how reluctant Wu Xingye was, he could only tear down his beloved bike.

“Help Master Meng to tear it down. Hurry up.” Mu Huan had always done things cleanly.

“Yes.”

“Then Xiao Meng and I will take our leave first.” Seeing that it was already 10 PM, Mu Huan had to return home as soon as possible.

“Yes.”

Mu Huan had just left the repair shop when she received a call from Long Feiting.

“Are you done?” He was rather quick at dealing with the aftermath.

“My brother came not long after you left.”

“Your big brother?”

“Yes.”

“Be careful. Don’t let your brother get any information out of you!” Mu Huan felt that his brother was much smarter than he was.

“I know. That’s why I want to ask you what medicine you used just now to deal with Gong Zeye.”

“The more details you know, the easier it will be for you to expose yourself. Don’t say anything—just say that it was your hired friend who did it. If he asks who your friend is, you can just beat him to death and not say anything!”

Mu Huan continued, “No, that’s not right. You have to take the blame for drugging Gong Zeye on yourself. You have to admit to whatever he’s angry about. He can hit or scold you however he wants. You have to do your best not to let him investigate me!”

“Are you asking me to be your scapegoat?”

“Look at how nasty your words are. What did you say when you asked me to do this? You said that you would definitely keep it a secret!”

Long Feiting: “...”

Alright! He was the one who said that! He could only be a scapegoat.

“When will Gong Zeye wake up? Is this medicine harmful to his body? Do you need to use any medicine to undo the effects?”

“There’s no need for that. This is something that I’ve meticulously modified. It’s harmless to the body. After it’s run its course and the person wakes up, there’ll be no trace of it,” Mu Huan said.

“You’re really capable.” Long Feiting was still shocked when he thought about how she had thrown that thing and the others instantly fainted.

“It’s my ancestor who’s formidable. I only made some improvements.” Mu Huan felt that there were some really good things among the Song family’s secret prescriptions.

That smog she’d used today, for instance—after being modified by her, it became simply a top-notch medicine that was necessary to carry around during a group assignment. Once it exploded, she could take down so many, so she wouldn’t be afraid of more people ganging up on her!

Long Feiting suddenly felt that Mu Huan was a rather terrifying existence. Not only was she strong in combat, but she also knew how to use medicine!

She had taken down so many people in one shot!

It was no wonder that even though there were so many people surrounding her, her expression only changed a little. She was not afraid.

However...

“Didn’t you always dislike spouting nonsense? If you had that thing, why did you try to convince Gong Zeye’s fiancée to let us off at the start and even wanted to use her as a hostage to escape?”

“You have to figure out who the other person is before you can decide what move to use. A big move can’t be used casually.” The so-called big move was to be used at the end. There was no other way to use it. One had to ensure that one move could win the battle and it was absolutely safe to use it. Hence, if she could use another move first, she would not use the last big move. It would save her the trouble of having no other choice!

Also, the smoke was only effective within ten meters. It wouldn’t work if those people were far away from her. She could only use it when they were closer.

Long Feiting wanted to say something else.

“Alright, I’ll leave the rest to you. I have to hurry home. I hope you won’t be too stupid!”

“What are you saying?!” Long Feiting said angrily.

Mu Huan ignored him and hung up.

Long Feiting looked at the call that had been hung up and was furious. She actually called him stupid! Right at this moment...

Chapter 606: Special Constitution (2)

“Was the person who called you the one who drugged Gong Zeye today?” It wasn’t even his younger brother who did it! And the other party was making his younger brother the scapegoat! Who was so capable as to make his younger brother a scapegoat?!

His sudden voice startled Long Feiting!

“Brother... you... why are you walking so quietly?!”

Long Feilei: “...”

He must have felt that there was something wrong with him and wanted to figure out what was going on. That was why he had secretly come over to eavesdrop. Why did he walk out just so he wouldn’t hear it?

Just as Long Feiting was about to say something, Long Feilei took the opportunity to snatch his phone over. He wanted to see who he was talking to.

“Big Brother, what are you doing?! I’m getting angry!” Long Feiting’s expression darkened.

Long Feilei knew his password to unlock the phone, so he ignored him. He was busy looking at the caller ID on his phone. Then, he saw that it was an online call, and when he called the number, a busy tone answered him.

Long Feilei: “...”

How cautious!

“Who is it?” They had to use an Internet phone number to contact each other! If they could be traced back through normal methods, they couldn’t use that!

Mu Huan was a cautious person to begin with, and now that it was a time of trouble, she naturally had to be more cautious. Hence, although they had called Mu Huan's phone this time, the number that they were contacting was the Internet number that Wu Xingye had come up with. It could be used once, and each person had three chances to call. When they were on a mission, it was also a source of internet connection and communication.

It had to be said that Wu Xingye was an absolute genius in this aspect. He had talked about Traceless, but no one had been able to find anything through the communication.

"If I can't say it, then I can't say it. Big Brother, no matter how you ask me, I won't say it! One has to be honest! When I hired that person, I'd said that I would keep it a secret. I had promised that I would bear all the consequences, so I have to bear it! I can't let all the blame to be pushed on them after something had happened. What would I have become then?! Big Brother, didn't you say that the most important thing in life is honesty?" Long Feiting's expression was that of a man who could hold up the heavens and earth. He had to keep his word!

Long Feilei: "..."

That was true.

If one had hired someone to do a task and something had happened, the employer should take responsibility. There was no reason for him to be pushed out to die, but...

"Is your relationship with the other party purely that of an employer? Why do I feel from your tone that that's not the case?!" From his brother's voice, he seemed to be very familiar with the other party!

"No matter what, I was the one who drugged Gong Zeye, and I was the one who knocked out his fiancée! Don't ask me about it!" It was him anyway, so Gong Zeye could do whatever he wanted with him when he woke up!

"I don't have to ask who they are. All you have to do is tell me if they are bad people and whether they will lead you astray!" Long Feilei was afraid that his brother would make bad friends.

After all, to be able to knock out a group of people and make them unable to find out where the medicine came from was too scary. If such a person was a bad person and had brought along his younger brother to do something evil, his old man would definitely be anxious about allowing his brother to follow him.

"Brother, do you take me for a three-year-old?" He was already so old, yet his brother was still afraid that he would make a bad friend!

Also, if he really made a bad friend, would Long Feiting admit that they're bad? Was he stupid?!

"You're still young and hot-blooded. If you're not careful, you might take a wrong turn. Let me tell you..." A freshman was at a hot-blooded and impulsive age.

"Don't worry, he's definitely a good person!" Long Feiting didn't want to listen to his brother's lecture anymore.

Chapter 607: Special Constitution (3)

“Really?”

“It’s true! Absolutely true!”

“It looked like he’s really familiar with you...” Long Feilei said, looking at his expression.

Of course, Long Feilei knew that if he asked his younger brother if his friend was a bad person, his younger brother would definitely say that he was a good person. He mainly wanted to see his younger brother’s expression and reaction and make a judgment based on that.

Long Feiting: “...”

At the Bo residence...

When Bo Junyan reached home, Mu Huan was reading a medical book and was so focused that she did not notice that he had returned.

It was only when he’d approached her that she felt his presence.

She looked up and smiled brightly. “Hubby, you’re back!”

As he looked at her smiling face, Bo Junyan’s fatigue was swept away. He could not help but lower his head and kiss her.

The moment he got home, he could see her sitting there obediently and smiling at him. It felt so good.

The current Mu Huan was no longer the same as before. She used to only passively accept his approach. Right now, she and Bo Junyan were like a couple who had just started dating, and it was the kind of time where he’d panic after not seeing her for a day.

When he liked someone, he would unconsciously want to give her everything she wanted.

Until... after a while...

“Hubby, why do you smell like disinfectant?” Mu Huan had grown up with the smell of disinfectant, so she was very sensitive to this smell. Even if it was faint, she could still smell it.

“Your nose is so sharp.” Bo Junyan reached out and pinched the tip of her nose.

Compared to the tall Bo Junyan, Mu Huan was a soft and adorable little cutie. She was small, fair, and had delicate skin. He couldn’t help but want to treat her carefully and couldn’t help but want to protect her with his hands.

It was the kind of feeling where one was afraid of something melting when one held it in one’s mouth, afraid of it falling when one held it in one’s hand—a feeling of only wanting to keep it by one’s side and watch it carefully.

“Hubby...”

“You smell like disinfectant.”

“Okay, I’ll go take a shower.”

“Did you go to the hospital? Are you feeling unwell or something?” Mu Huan had seen him suffering from gastric pain recently and was worried that he might have had a stomach attack.

“It’s not that I’m feeling unwell. I went to visit Gong Zeye before I came back.”

Mu Huan: “...!!”

If she had known, she wouldn’t have asked!

Since she had already asked this question, should she continue or what?

After some thought, she said, “Hubby, I...”

However, before she could finish speaking, Bo Junyan kissed her again.

“Hubby...”

“He’s fine. You just have to think about me now...”

After that, Mu Huan really didn’t have time to think about anything else.

The next afternoon.

Bo Junyan picked Mu Huan up from school.

“Why do you have time to pick me up today? Aren’t you busy today? If you’re not, why don’t we go on a date for dinner?”

As he did not inform her beforehand that he was coming to pick her up today, she’d received a call from him after school. Mu Huan, who was waiting for him at the entrance, was very happy to see him once she got into the car.

“After visiting Gong Zeye, let’s go out for dinner.” Bo Junyan lowered his head and kissed her.

Mu Huan: “...”

Just as she was about to say something, Bo Junyan received an important call and received it all the way to the hospital.

When they arrived, Fu Siye and the rest were already there.

Mu Huan did not say anything when she saw so many people.

Bo Junyan spoke for a while more before hanging up. Then, he looked at Fu Siye. “Is he awake?”

“He just woke up.”

Chapter 608: You Should Thank Her (1)

“You... you’re all here. Is Gong Zeye... in a serious condition?” Mu Huan stuttered. He should have woken up long ago from that smoke bomb. Did Gong Zeye just wake up?

And so many people were here...

Could it be that something had happened after she'd left? Should she have waited for Long Feiting to finish speaking before hanging up?

Freaking hell!

Just as Mu Huan was letting her imagination run wild...

Bo Junyan said, "It's not serious. He just took some medicine and was unconscious for a long time."

"Why was he unconscious for such a long time?" Her smoke bomb was highly effective, but it should have worn off sooner than an animal tranquilizer. Gong Zeye, who came from a good background, should have received drug resistance training and should have woken up earlier than an ordinary person. He should have woken up after midnight. Why did he only wake up now?

"Gong Zeye is sensitive to drugs and such things. Once he takes in such drugs, he will collapse faster than others and be unconscious longer than others."

Mu Huan: "..."

Gong Zeye's fiancée was not sensitive to drugs. She would not collapse even if she was tranquilized with medicine meant for large animals. On the other hand, Gong Zeye was more sensitive to these kinds of medicine. He was unconscious twice as long as a normal person...

Was this a good match?

"Then why are all of you here?" If there was nothing else, why were all of them here?

When Jin Chen heard that, he said, "Our Master Gong has always been a healthy baby since he was young. He has never been sick, and he has never had the chance to feel the worry and concern of others. Hence, he especially instructed us that if he accidentally got drugged one day, we have to show him some concern. It's best if we come together. It'll be more grand."

Mu Huan: "..."

There was such a weird person...

"Sister-in-law, do you find him weird?" Jin Chen asked with a smile.

Mu Huan: "..."

"But this can't be blamed on him. When we were playing together when we were young, his head was hit by a door. After that, his thinking became a little weird. It's my fault for not bringing him to the doctor," Jin Chen said with a look of self-blame.

Mu Huan: "..."

His humor made her want to laugh, but... he seemed to be telling the truth...

Just then, Long Feilei walked out.

"Uncle Bo, you're here. The doctor has just finished his checkup and said he is fine. You can go in and take a look!" Long Feilei was under a lot of pressure when facing Bo Junyan and the rest.

These people, led by Bo Junyan, had grown up together and were very close to each other. There were five of them, but he only had two brothers with him at present. If he had known earlier, he would have asked his third brother to come back! No matter what, at least there wouldn't seem to be so few people on their side!

Bo Junyan hummed in acknowledgment and walked in. Everyone followed him in.

A few tall and stunning men walked in together, looking rather imposing!

Mu Huan stood among them, looking exceptionally petite.

When he saw them coming in, Long Feiting and his second brother, who were sitting inside, stood up. Mu Huan felt like she was about to disappear as she stood among them.

It was also fortunate that Gong Zeye was staying in a super luxurious suite in a private hospital. If this was a normal hospital ward, the room would have been filled with several tall men.

Gong Zeye looked at the scene of them entering together and sighed. "I've been waiting for this day!"

Mu Huan: "..."

When he was young, he really must have been caught between the door...

"Thank you, brothers!" Gong Zeye cupped his fists.

Mu Huan: "..."

Chapter 609: You Should Thank Her (2)

"You don't have to thank us. You're so eager to let us see you make a fool of yourself. How can we not come?!" Meng Lichuan said with a smile.

Jin Chen added, "You were so useless that you were knocked out! You even invited us to take a look. You're the only weirdo in this world!"

"What do you mean I got knocked out?! I don't know what that person used, but he didn't get close to me. I didn't smell anything strange, so I fell in seconds! How can any person guard against the air?!"

Gong Zeye refused to admit that he was useless. It was all because his constitution was too special! He fell just because he smelled that drug! If he had a constitution like Yang Ning's, he would have caught that person immediately!

But at this point...

He gritted his teeth and said, "I must catch the person who'd dared to use medicine to put me down! I'll feed him a ton of medicine!"

Although this incident gave Gong Zeye the chance to enjoy the care and concern of his brothers, that person had actually dared to use medicine on him, Gong Zeye! He had lost face! Let's see if he won't catch him and torture him to death!

Mu Huan: "..."

A ton of medicine...

What the f*ck...!

Long Feiting: "..."

Would he really dare to catch her?

"Feiting, who did you hire? From where? Where did you get the drug he used?" Gong Zeye looked at Long Feiting as he spoke.

Everyone looked at Long Feiting.

They all knew that it was Gong Zeye's fiancée who had gone to Long Feiting's store to steal something. Long Feiting had led his men to chase after her, and then there was a conflict. Gong Zeye had brought his men to rescue her, but before they could even fight, they were knocked down by someone with a drug. It was so strong that everyone he had brought with him went down!

They did not find out the composition of the medicine, nor did they find out its source. There was no medicine on the market that could have such an effect.

Hence, since it wasn't a big deal to begin with and Long Feiting had admitted his mistake and accepted all sorts of punishments, they couldn't pursue the matter further. After all, Gong Zeye's fiancée was in the wrong first. However, they were all very interested in such medicine. After all, if they could have such medicine, it would be a very good self-defense weapon in the future!

It was especially so for people like them who often met with danger. It was good to think about it! Very good!

Hence, they all wanted to find out who had used it and what the source of the medicine was.

Long Feiting: "..."

Everyone present was someone who had been in a high position for a long time. When they looked at him in unison, he really could not take it!

Mu Huan looked at him and signaled him to hold on! He had to hold on no matter what!

Long Feiting: "..."

After a while...

"It's all my fault! It's all my fault! It's all my fault! Uncle Gong, you can kill me!" Long Feiting said as he handed Gong Zeye a thick baseball bat.

He looked like he was asking for death!

Gong Zeye: "..."

The golden goose of the Long family didn't do anything wrong. No matter what, he couldn't kill him!

"I only want that person. Why are you begging me to hit you?"

"What's your relationship with that person? Why are you so protective of him?" Gong Zeye recalled how Long Feiting had been protecting that person before he fainted.

He was very curious about his relationship with that person. He didn't look like your usual employer at all!

"I was the one who hired that person, and I was the one who asked them to use the medicine. Uncle Gong, if you want to settle scores, you'll have to settle scores with me! You can punish me however you want! A man has to bear the consequences!"

Long Feiting had a look on his face that said, "I should be the one to bear the responsibility for what I've done!"

Just as Gong Zeye was about to say something...

Chapter 610: You Should Thank Her (3)

Suddenly, a voice rang out. "You're still so protective at a time like this. It looks like it's really possible that she's your girlfriend!"

Girlfriend? Mu Huan lifted her eyes and looked over. Although the other party's makeup was different, she could still recognize her at a glance. It was Yang Ning.

Did she think that Xiao Meng was Long Feiting's girlfriend?

That that was why Long Feiting refused to say anything?

"Girlfriend? It's that woman who used the drug?" Gong Zeye recalled that there was a long-haired woman standing beside Long Feiting.

"Girlfriend? Your girlfriend, Mu Kexin?" Long Feilei asked instinctively.

Was that why he was so protective of her?

But did his girlfriend have such capabilities? She clearly looked like an ordinary person.

Because his younger brother did not look like he was serious about dating, he had not probed further. If his girlfriend had such capabilities, then he would have to give her some advice!

After all, the person who had used such a drug to knock those people down was very formidable!

Long Feiting: "..."

Before he could say anything, Yang Ning looked at Gong Zeye and said, "It's not that long-haired woman. It's the short man who hit me. She's a woman disguised as a man!"

Gong Zeye: "..."

And she was even disguised as a man! No wonder she looked so weak!

Mu Huan: "..."

Freaking hell! I've been seen through!

She instinctively looked at Long Feiting. Did he reveal something?

Long Feiting: "..."

It was not because of him that Yang Ning suspected that she was a woman, but Mu Huan was sure that it was because of him.

“She was the one who used the drug on you. I saw clearly what she took out from her pocket and threw on the ground, causing it to explode and emit a faint white smoke. All of you then collapsed! My subordinates were also knocked down by her! Of course, it was because she had used drug that she could control the enemy so easily!

“Oh, right. She’s quite good at using hidden weapons. Two of my men said that they were caught by her using some unknown method. Suddenly, their legs went weak and they fell to their knees. Then, she took the opportunity to spray the drug on them!”

As Mu Huan could not be injured, she did not fight with anyone before subduing the other party. This made Yang Ning feel that Mu Huan had relied on chemicals to win and that her combat strength might be average.

“A hidden weapon?” Gong Zeye raised an eyebrow.

Yang Ning said, “Yes! She might have learned traditional martial arts!”

Mu Huan: “...”

She wasn’t good at using hidden weapons. She was very familiar with people’s acupuncture points, so she relied on it the most.

However, she did learn traditional martial arts.

“It sounds pretty impressive,” Gong Zeye said.

“It’s mainly because she has a lot of tricks up her sleeve. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have suffered at her hands.” Yang Ning was a very proud person. She couldn’t easily accept defeat, especially since that person wasn’t someone who had used all her true abilities to knock her down. Hence, she especially wanted to catch Mu Huan.

As they were talking, Bo Junyan had to go out because he had something on. He watched Mu Huan listening with great interest and left her inside to listen.

Bo Junyan was a very busy person. He cared about Gong Zeye, but he did not care about trivial matters like he did. He could handle such matters himself.

“No matter what, I have to catch her! Long Feiting, it doesn’t matter if you don’t give us the information. We will find her eventually!” Yang Ning said.

“That’s right, we’ll definitely find her!” When Gong Zeye heard that it was a woman, he could not let her off. If it got out that he was instantly knocked out by a woman before he and his gang could even start fighting, how was he going to face others in the future?!
