

Fake Marriage 651

Chapter 651: Sudden Change (7)

Bai Xuexian received the order and immediately looked at Meng Yueman. “Madam Bo, please don’t be deceived by that b*tch Mu Huan! She may be young, but she’s a scheming and devious woman!”

Mu Dongsheng hurriedly looked at Meng Yueman and said, “She’s a vicious stepmother. She has disliked Xiao Huan since she was young and even chased her out of the house. In-laws, you mustn’t believe her words! You can’t even believe a single punctuation mark!”

“I admit that I’m not a good stepmother. I’m bad! But just because I’m bad, doesn’t mean she’s a good person! She has done everything for money since she was young. The man in the photo is a bartender she met at the bar. When she was with this bartender, she even hooked up with the young master of the Gu family, Gu Chenyi. Just as she was about to dump this bartender and be with Gu Chenyi, the Bo family happened to be holding a matchmaking session for Bo Junyan.

“In order to increase the chances of the Mu family being selected, my mother-in-law used Mu Huan’s granny to force Mu Huan, who had always wanted to be with Gu Chenyi, to attend the matchmaking event. Who knew that she would coincidentally be selected? And I definitely didn’t want this stepdaughter who’s against me to become the daughter-in-law of the Bo family.

“Hence, after Mu Huan was selected, I sought out this bartender and gave him money to persuade Mu Huan not to marry. However, Mu Huan rejected him and I got the bartender to drug Mu Huan. Then, I took such a photo and threatened Mu Huan to not marry. However, my mother-in-law found out about this. Under her coercion and the temptation of benefits, even though I was very unwilling to let Mu Huan marry Bo Junyan, I had no choice but to give up. I even helped Mu Huan undergo a virgin repair surgery with my mother-in-law!

“Initially, I didn’t want Mu Huan to marry into the Bo family. Later, I heard from my mother-in-law that Mu Huan was selected because my mother-in-law saved Mr. Bo’s life. We then thought that we could let my daughter, Kexin, replace Mu Huan. Hence, we forced Mu Huan to think of a way to allow Kexin to marry Bo Junyan.

“Mu Huan, who’d succeeded in becoming Mrs. Bo, would definitely not be willing to do this. Hence, I was angry and punished her granny. I wanted to use this opportunity to make her listen to me. Unexpectedly, she found a gigolo to harm my daughter’s and my reputation. My mother-in-law gave up on my daughter and took away my position as the director.

“I was definitely indignant about this. Hence, at my mother-in-law’s birthday banquet, I asked Lin Qingya to invite Gu Chenyi over to my house. I even drugged Mu Huan and Gu Chenyi. I wanted Bo Junyan to know about Mu Huan and Gu Chenyi’s relationship and see the scene of them being together. Following that, he’d no longer want Mu Huan. However, Lin Qingya had schemed against me! She used this opportunity to be with Gu Chenyi, and I was sent to a mental hospital by Bo Junyan!

“I know that I’m a bad, disgusting, and mean person. I deserve it! But Mu Huan is really not a good person!” Bai Xuexian pointed at Mu Huan as she spoke.

What kind of words were the easiest to believe? It wasn't pure words, nor was it pure lies, but rather words that were 70% true and 30% false. Such statements were too realistic, and they were easier to believe than the whole truth!

This was especially so since Bai Xuexian had gone all out to bribe the bartender, drug Mu Huan, and take pictures of her. Furthermore, she had framed Mu Huan at the birthday banquet and used her granny to threaten Mu Huan. Now that she had confessed to such a crime, it made her even more convincing and made everyone feel that everything she said was true!

Meng Yueman believed her words as well. However, this couldn't be blamed on her. Under such irrefutable evidence, it was hard for anyone to not believe her.

Chapter 652: Sudden Change (8)

Besides, even if Mu Huan wasn't a bad person, she was a scheming person. All of this was a trap set up by her stepmother, but she was also someone who had been fooling around with others and wasn't clean. For such a daughter-in-law, she...

It was still the same saying. In this world, all mothers wanted their children to have the most beautiful things in the world. Naturally, she wanted the one who would spend the rest of her life with her son to be a good and worthy person.

Mu Huan's heart sank when she saw the change in Meng Yueman's gaze.

Matriarch Mu looked at Bai Xuexian angrily and said, "Bai Xuexian, don't spout nonsense!"

It was hard to tell that she was in cahoots with Bai Xuexian.

"I'm spouting nonsense? What are you afraid of if I'm spouting nonsense?! Mom, I used to listen to everything you said, and I was so filial to you, but what did you do to me? Don't blame me after all that you've done to me! If there's no going back for me, then all of you can just go down with me!" Bai Xuexian was not putting on an act. Her hatred for Matriarch Mu was real!

She had done so many things for this old woman and even gave birth to a precious grandson for her. But now that something had happened to her, not only did she not care about her, she did not save her and even hit her when she was down!

No matter what the outcome would be this time, she, this old woman, would not have a good life!

Bai Xuexian's intense hatred for Matriarch Mu made it even more difficult to tell that Matriarch Mu was also involved in this matter.

"You..." Matriarch Mu was speechless with anger.

"Matriarch Mu, please give me a reasonable explanation!" Meng Yueman looked at Matriarch Mu.

She had sent her granddaughter, who had a messy private life, to the Bo family using such a surgery. Did she think that the Bo family was easy to bully and easy to deceive?

"In-law, I can explain this..." Matriarch Mu said anxiously.

"Alright, explain!"

"I..." Matriarch Mu was at a loss for words for a long time. In the end, her face was full of irrefutable evidence. She could not explain herself no matter what. "I'm sorry... I was muddle-headed. I... I..."

Her apology was tantamount to admitting to all these crimes, including Mu Huan's indecent private life. Meng Yueman's expression darkened.

Bo Dingjing picked up the photo on the table and took a closer look. He confirmed that it wasn't a composite photo. In other words, no matter what the reason was, Mu Huan had had something to do with this man in the photo. Even if nothing had happened, under such circumstances... his expression darkened.

When Old Master Meng saw this, he looked at Mu Huan angrily and said, "I will never let my grandson spend the rest of his life with a woman like you! You'd better divorce my grandson immediately and leave with nothing!"

Mu Huan's heart sank further, but she remained silent.

Just then, Bo Junyan walked in from outside.

"Junyan, you're here just in time. Quick, take a look at what kind of woman you're doting on!" Old Master Meng pointed his walking stick at the photo on the table for Bo Junyan to see.

The photos were thrown on the table by Meng Yueman. They were scattered, so it was obvious at a glance.

Although none of the photos were very revealing, they clearly showed that Mu Huan had an intimate relationship with the man in the photo.

What had just happened?

Not only were there intimate photos of them sleeping on the bed, but there were also intimate photos of them at the bar.

This made Bo Junyan's eyes turn darker. After scanning through the photos, he looked up at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan clenched her fists tightly.

Chapter 653: I Believe (1)

Their eyes were locked for a long time.

Mu Huan, who had been silent since the beginning, finally said, "If I said that the man in the photo is actually a woman, would you believe me?"

After she said that, the entire place fell silent.

A woman? The man in the photo was a woman? She had been keeping silent all this while, and this was what she was doing? Did she have nothing else to say? Forcefully?

"Besides, that woman isn't a lesbian. Nothing happened between us. I was drugged that day and couldn't open my eyes. I was conscious. We were wearing clothes under the blanket, and the clothes that were scattered on the ground were posed."

Mu Huan was, after all, Matriarch Mu's biological granddaughter. Although the old woman didn't like Mu Huan, she wouldn't really destroy her own granddaughter. Furthermore, she also wanted to have a chance to turn the situation around if there were any accidents in the future. Hence, the medicine she had given Mu Huan back then wasn't the kind that was strong enough to make one go crazy. She had only drugged her. As for Mu Huan, she had a certain level of resistance to such medicine. Hence, she didn't completely lose consciousness and was aware of the entire process.

Regarding Bai Xuexian's accusations, she could explain and prove her innocence. Those were not issues.

She knew that it did not matter if she was the scheming woman that Bai Xuexian had mentioned. The only thing that mattered was whether she had done anything with the man in the photo.

That's not right. If the man in the photo was a real man, the Bo family would not be able to accept it even if nothing had happened between her and this man.

Fortunately, the person in the photo was not a man but a woman. As long as she could prove that the person in the photo was a woman, nothing could have happened between them. She could fight back and remain safe. Unfortunately, she could not prove that the man in the photo was a woman!

This was because the person in the photo was already dead and the corpse had not been preserved. They couldn't even open the coffin for a genetic test.

"I can't prove that the man in the photo is a woman, but she's really a woman! I can use my life, my dignity, and everything I can swear on!" Mu Huan raised her hand as she made a vow.

After she was left with these pieces of evidence, she tried her best to find a way to resolve it, but she couldn't find a way to do so. People often say that everything would leave traces. As long as it wasn't true, there would definitely be evidence. However, this matter didn't leave any evidence behind. It was a coincidence that couldn't be solved. Hence, she couldn't produce any evidence. Now, she could only see if Bo Junyan would believe her.

If he believed her, they could still continue...

If he didn't believe her, then...

He might...

At the thought of that possibility, Mu Huan's heart suddenly ached so much that it felt like she was having a heart attack and would die the next moment...

This was the reason why Mu Huan had never dared to express her true feelings to Bo Junyan and had always wanted to leave. She didn't have any evidence to prove her innocence. Just by relying on an oath, could she make people believe her? This was too weak. Even she couldn't guarantee that she would believe in the same thing.

What more, Bo Junyan.

This was especially so for Bo Junyan, who was especially concerned about the relationship between a man and a woman. He was so angry that he wanted to kill someone who'd only hugged her or pinched her face, let alone someone who'd been photographed on the bed with her.

She wasn't confident. She really wasn't confident that he would believe her.

Hence, the more she loved him, the more painful it would be when she left.

Chapter 654: I Believe (2)

But even though she had repeatedly warned herself that she could not use her feelings for him, she still used it. And after she felt that there was no threat to those things being destroyed, she gave her all. In the end...

She could not imagine the life she would have after leaving him. She could not imagine that she could not call him Hubby again. She could not be hugged by him again. She could not see his handsome face the moment she opened her eyes. If she could not kiss him, he could kiss someone else. In the future, there would be other women who would take him and do these things to him...

Mu Huan couldn't think about it. She really couldn't think about it... Just thinking about it made her want to kill someone!

It was unknown when the love had been planted, but when it was discovered, it was already so deep that it could not be pulled out.

...

It was only a few seconds after she said those words, but Mu Huan felt as though a few centuries had passed.

She was like a person waiting to be sentenced to death.

It was an indescribable feeling. It felt like a long, long time...

Just as she could not take this suffocating feeling anymore and was about to say something...

"I believe you."

That low and familiar voice was like the sound of nature, pulling her, who was about to fall into hell, up. Instantly, she was in heaven!

It also made her widen her eyes in shock. Even though the end of the world had suddenly arrived, it was not as shocking as his statement!

He believed her, he actually believed her! He actually believed her!

He believed her so easily without any evidence!

He actually believed her just like that! She...

The scene was completely silent...

He believed her? He believed her even though she was so stubborn? It was so obvious that this supposed woman was a man. But if she said she was a woman, he would believe her! Was he blind or stupid?!

Amid the silence...

Bo Junyan continued, "Is this the little secret between you and your grandma?"

He had asked her several times why she was being controlled by her grandma.

Bo Junyan had been waiting for Mu Huan to believe him enough to tell him such a secret. He didn't expect that he would find out in this way.

Her so-called little secret was this...

Those photos made him want to kill those who'd dared to treat her this way!

Mu Huan did not respond to him. It seemed like she had yet to recover from the shock of his words. Her eyes were still wide open and filled with shock.

Bo Junyan laughed when he saw this. He strode forward and reached out to gently pinch her little face. "Is it that unbelievable?"

Mu Huan snapped back to her senses at his pinch. She reached out and grabbed Bo Junyan's arm excitedly. "Do you believe me? Do you really believe me?"

"Yes."

"You believe me just like that? You don't need me to say anything else and you believe me so easily?" After Mu Huan had guessed what was in the file, she'd started to think about what she had to say to make him believe her. She had thought about a lot, a lot. Although she felt that even if she said everything, it might not be useful, she still had to give it her all because she didn't want to lose him like this.

However, she did not say anything. She only told him the most basic truth and he believed her!

He believed her just like that!

He...

"Yes."

"Can't you say a few more words?! You're only saying yes! It doesn't feel real when you're saying yes like this!" It was usually fine with Mu Huan when he was saying only yes to her, but at such a critical moment, when she felt that he could destroy her, he was still just saying yes!

She could not control her anger.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Then, he reached out and pulled her into his embrace. "You're my wife. No matter what happens, I'll believe only you."

Chapter 655: I Believe (3)

He believed whatever his wife said.

Mu Huan: "...!!"

What did she do in her past life? No! She had to have been a good person for ten lifetimes, no, a hundred lifetimes before she met him!

“Hubby...” Mu Huan wanted to say something else, but the moment she opened her mouth, she choked up. Her tears instantly gathered in her big eyes and were about to fall.

Although she had always appeared calm, she was actually very afraid. She was very afraid that she would be separated from Bo Junyan just like that. She was afraid that she would lose him just like that.

During the time she had been waiting for him, the agony and fear she had suffered were countless times worse than anything else she had endured until now!

She was so scared, so scared... so scared...

But he believed her just like that.

And just like that, that calamity dissipated...

She really didn't know how to describe her current feelings...

This feeling was indescribable!

“Be good and don't cry.” Bo Junyan hated seeing her tears the most. He didn't even want to see her fake crying, let alone when she was really crying.

“Hubby...” Mu Huan didn't know what to say and could only hug him tightly.

“Be good.” Bo Junyan reached out and gently caressed her back to comfort her.

She was still so young, yet she had experienced so much. She shouldn't have experienced this.

He suddenly thought of something and looked up at Matriarch Mu.

This look frightened Matriarch Mu so much that her legs gave way and she lost control of herself and fell back onto the chair.

She did not expect this! She did not expect that Bo Junyan would believe Mu Huan so easily!

How could he believe her just like that?

Under such ironclad evidence, he...

“Bo Junyan, are you stupid? How could you believe her just like that?!” Seeing that Bo Junyan believed Mu Huan just like that, Bai Xuexian was about to go crazy!

When he saw the photos of his wife in bed with another man, not only did he not want to kill Mu Huan in anger, he even believed her nonsense words that this man was actually a woman!

Was he really stupid?!

Bo Junyan retracted his gaze and looked at Bai Xuexian. Initially, she'd been so agitated that she wanted to rush forward and pry open Bo Junyan's head to see if he was really a fool. However, when he looked at Bai Xuexian, she was so frightened that she took a few steps back.

Because Mu Huan was around, Bo Junyan had been suppressing the anger in his heart, afraid that he would scare her.

But Bai Xuexian's reckless behavior made him unable to control his anger. Someone who dared to hurt his wife like this deserved to die!

"Take her away," he ordered coldly.

The bodyguards standing at the door immediately rushed in and grabbed hold of Bai Xuexian.

Bai Xuexian hurriedly said, "Old Master Meng..."

He said he would protect her!

When Old Master Meng saw that not only did Bo Junyan believe Mu Huan so brainlessly, but he also didn't give him any face and wanted to arrest the witness he had brought, he was so angry that he used his walking stick to knock hard on the floor.

"B*stard! Do you still consider me as your grandfather?! You even believed that woman's absurd words!" Mu Huan was lying through her teeth like that. He even believed that this man was a woman! He really... he didn't know what to say about him!

"It's because you don't see me as your grandson," Bo Junyan said coldly.

Because he was his grandfather, he had always pampered him and tolerated him. But did he treat him as his biological grandson? He had repeatedly hurt his wife and ruined his marriage.

"If I didn't have you in my eyes, would I have been so worried about you? Would I have been so afraid that you'd been cheated that I'd come over after confirming such news? If someone else had been cheated, I wouldn't have said anything!"

Chapter 656: I Believe (4)

With that, Old Master Meng looked at Mu Huan and threw a photo of her and the bartender in front of her. "Look at this photo yourself. Do you really believe that he's a woman? Do you think we're all blind? Do you not see that he doesn't look like a woman no matter how you looked at him? He's a real man, so is that why you said you can't prove that he's a woman?"

Mu Huan was about to say something.

Old Master Meng got someone to push the photo in front of Mu Dongsheng. "Even if you show it to your biological father, he can't go against his conscience and say that this is a woman!"

Mu Dongsheng looked at the photo in front of him. From the photo alone, it was indeed hard to believe that this was a woman. This was because Mu Huan was already relatively tall among girls, and the other party was even taller than her by a head. The person was at least 1.75 meters tall, and their face was dark. Be it the facial features or figure, the person did not look like a woman at all.

However, if he had to go against his conscience and say that this was a woman, he could say it! Hence, he said, "Old Master, my daughter has never lied since she was young. She said that this is a woman, so this must be a woman! She just doesn't look like a woman!"

Everyone: "..."

Old Master Meng's expression darkened.

Bo Junyan glanced at his father-in-law.

At this moment, Mu Dongsheng had made Mu Huan feel as if she had returned to the past. It had always been like this when she was young. No matter what she did outside, no matter how the other party came looking for her, her father would always be like this. He would go along with whatever she said, and he would speak nonsense with confidence.

"A crooked stick will have a crooked shadow! Like father, like daughter!" Old Master Meng said with a darkened expression. "But the truth is that you're lying through your teeth!"

"If I couldn't guarantee that it's a man, would I believe such a thing so easily? Butler Xue, bring this person's grandfather in!" Old Master Meng was furious.

Butler Xue quickly went out and brought in an old man.

The old man cowered a little when he saw so many people.

"Old man, don't be afraid. Look at the person in this photo. Do you know him?" With Old Master Meng's signal, Butler Xue picked up a photo of Mu Huan and the bartender for the old man to see.

The old man took the photo and his tears fell. "This is my grandson... my precious grandson..."

"Are you sure he's a grandson and not a granddaughter?" Butler Xue asked.

"What are you asking...? Of course I can confirm that this is my grandson...! Look, this is my grandson's identity card. It says male..." As the old man spoke, he trembled as he took out the bartender's identity card. The gender tab was marked male.

"Did you hear that? Did you see that? His biological grandfather said that he's a grandson and not a granddaughter! And his identity card also makes him out to be a man!" Bai Xuexian shouted. Mu Huan had really dared to say that a man was a woman!

Meng Yueman added, "Junyan, we can't accept Xiao Huan saying that the man in the photo is a woman."

Putting aside the fact that there was a witness, even she herself could not believe that the man in the photo was actually a woman. This was because no matter how she looked at it, he did not look like a woman. Furthermore, Bai Xuexian had given Mu Huan medicine to destroy her. Why would she look for a woman to do the task?

She could not accept such a ridiculous excuse!

Although Bo Dingjing did not speak, he obviously needed a more reasonable explanation.

Bo Junyan looked at Mu Huan and said, "Explain to Dad and Mom."

Chapter 657: I Believe (5)

"But—!" She had no evidence.

“There’s no need for evidence. Just tell me the truth,” Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan understood what he meant. “Okay.”

To put it simply, this was the case.

After Mu Huan became an adult, in order to earn more money, she went to the bar to work part-time. There, she met the bartender in the photo. The two of them were in the same group. Once, the bartender skipped work for two days for no reason. The manager asked her, who lived not far from his house, to visit him. When she arrived at his rented place and realized that he was seriously ill, she wanted to bring him to the hospital. Unexpectedly, he refused to go to the hospital no matter what.

As she pulled, she realized that the other party was a woman.

Seeing that she couldn’t hide it from Mu Huan, she’d asked her to keep it a secret and even told her about her background.

The bartender came from a remote and isolated mountain village. Its culture was backward and the people valued boys over girls. She had three older sisters. When her mother was pregnant with her, her grandfather said that if she was born a girl, he would throw her away.

As the village was located in a remote area, it would take a day and a night’s drive to reach the town. At that time, no one had ever gone to the hospital to give birth, and there was no prenatal checkup either. An ultrasound would have shown the gender of the child, but here, it was only after the child was born that one would know whether the child was male or female. In such a poor village, many girls had been thrown out to save food.

The bartender’s maternal granny was a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner. If she were to take a mother’s pulse and say that there was a high chance that it would be a girl, a mother who would be willing to give birth to the child would be thrown out themselves. This was especially so in their village. If they were thrown into the wilderness, they would starve to death. At that time, the bartender’s aunt was about the same month along as the bartender’s mother when she was pregnant. Her granny said that her aunt might be pregnant with a boy. Hence, just in case, when her mother was about to give birth, she went to her maiden home.

At that time, people didn’t really care about pregnant women, especially a pregnant woman who had already given birth to three children. Most of the villagers were born at home, and her granny happened to be a midwife in the nearby village. Hence, her mother had given birth at her granny’s house, but her paternal grandfather didn’t know.

It was only after the bartender’s aunt had given birth to a son that her mother sent someone back to inform everyone that she herself had given birth to a son. However, because the child was weak, she had to take care of him at her maiden home.

At that time, the families were both poor but her family was willing to spend money to support them. Naturally, her grandfather was happy. They only came over to take a look after receiving the letter. After confirming that it was a grandson, they went back. But the grandson that her grandfather went to visit was actually her cousin.

When she was two years old at her granny’s house, her grandfather and father had gone away to work.

Every year, they would only come back during the new year. When the bartender was young, her mother would bring her cousin to their house for a few days. When she grew up and started wearing pants, she would be the one to go back. Because her mother had been telling her that she was a boy since she was young, she had always thought that she was a boy. When she started school, she returned to the village. Her aunt was her teacher. In addition, she was tall and strong, so she had never exposed herself.

Later on, after her father had settled down outside the village, he opened a refiner factory in Yun Cheng and brought the family there. Because her maternal grandmother and maternal aunt's family treated them well, her mother brought her side of the family over and got them into the refineries to work.

Initially, her mother had intended to tell her father and grandfather the truth when she grew up. However, her mother did not manage to give birth to a son in the end. She could not tell the truth in the first place, but now, after her father had the family business, it was even more impossible to do so. If he did not have a son to inherit the family business, her father would definitely go out to find a third party. Hence, her mother hid the secret even more tightly.

Chapter 658: I Believe (6)

However, the bartender really wanted to regain her status as a woman. Hence, she decided to work at the bar behind her family's back. She wanted to save enough money if she was to leave the house completely.

After finding out her identity as a woman, Mu Huan and the bartender helped each other at the bar. Sometimes, when they met guests who were troublesome and easy to offend, she would say that the bartender was her boyfriend. Hence, her grandma and stepmother thought that the bartender was her boyfriend, so they approached her to drug Mu Huan and fake evidence so they could control her.

The bartender was so short of money and wanted to have her own life so much that when she heard that Mu Huan's grandma did not really want anything to happen between them, she agreed.

Because Mu Huan was marrying Bo Junyan, if this matter were to be known by others, it would be a disaster for the Mu family. Hence, only her grandma and Bai Xuexian knew about this matter. When the time came, they had asked the bartender to prepare herself and Mu Huan before they went in to take pictures. Only their arms and shoulders were exposed. Even if they were to change their positions, the bartender would use a sheet to cover her body. Hence, even Bai Xuexian and her grandma did not know that the bartender was actually a woman.

After the incident, Mu Huan recovered her strength and went to look for the bartender at once. She'd wanted to secretly leave behind evidence to prove that the bartender was a woman and make the evidence that her grandma had on her become useless.

But—!

On the day the bartender received the money, she returned to the refineries. The refineries exploded due to a security accident that day. Apart from her grandfather who was not in the factory, the rest of the family, including her granny and aunt, were wiped out.

The fire burned so hot that they couldn't even find any bones.

The bartender's identification card, her school record, and her household registration booklet—everything that could prove her identity all declared her as male! Furthermore, she had been a healthy baby since she was young and did not leave behind any medical records. Mu Huan had run to the village where she was born and asked around. Everyone only knew that he was a boy, so she had no evidence to prove that the bartender was a woman.

Sometimes, things that one thought were unbelievable and impossible coincidences were no such thing! Such coincidences made her feel that she was making things up, but this was the truth.

After listening to Mu Huan's words—

“You're really good at making things up!” Bai Xuexian refused to believe that the bartender was a woman. This was her only chance to destroy Mu Huan. If this bartender was a woman, Bai Xuexian would have wasted her life!

This was especially since she was the one who did this! She was the one who did this, and if this was true, it meant she could not differentiate between men and women. She could not accept this!

But thinking back, the bartender's actions at that time were indeed a little abnormal. She had told him that it was fine as long as his upper body was exposed. When she went in, he had said that he had taken it off! But he had been wrapped in a sheet and refused to let go! It was just that at that time, she had only been concerned about photographing his entire body. It would have been better if he had taken it all off. This way, even if nothing had happened between him and Mu Huan, it would still be considered that she had been sullied, making it impossible for her to be clean. Hence, she did not think too much about it. Now that she thought about it, the more she thought about it, the more problematic it became!

But even so, she bit her lip hard. “He's a man! My mother and I clearly saw his upper body!”

“Mom, did you see it?!” Mu Dongsheng looked at Matriarch Mu. He was not stupid. From Matriarch Mu's performance just now, he could tell that she had joined forces with the others to harm Mu Huan.

However, he wanted her to see the situation clearly now and return to Mu Huan's side. This way, there would still be a way out.

After all, Mu Huan had Bo Junyan's trust! With his trust, she would definitely be fine. If she was fine, then the person who dealt with her would be in trouble!

Chapter 659: I Believe (7)

This matter had been exposed again. From now on, Xiao Huan had nothing to fear. Once Xiao Huan wanted to settle scores with her, would she have a good life in the future?

Even though Mu Dongsheng hated his mother for interfering with and controlling him in every way, he was already used to listening to her. He did not know what he would do if something were to happen to her. What he would do in the future was what he wanted to do. For now, he would rather she continued to control him than have anything happen to her.

Matriarch Mu was such a smart person. Naturally, she could think of what Mu Dongsheng could think of. However, she felt that it was too late for her to return to Mu Huan's side.

Not to mention that Mu Huan wouldn't have anything to fear in the future and would settle scores with her when the time came. Even if she didn't, Bo Junyan's glance just now had let her know that he wouldn't let her have a good life in the future!

Hence, she could not turn back. She could only burn her bridges!

"I... I..." Matriarch Mu lowered her head, not knowing what to say.

However, it was obvious that she had seen it too. It was a man!

Mu Dongsheng: "..."

His mother had always been smart. Why did she turn stupid this time...

Old Master Meng looked at Mu Huan and said, "Now, what else do you have to say?!"

Mu Huan: "..."

She had nothing to say, because she had been looking for evidence all this time and had not found it. Without evidence to prove everything, it was useless no matter what she said.

Some people might have thought that it was impossible. How could a person not expose herself in the process of growing up? It was impossible to hide such an identity in school. Hence, after the bartender went to primary school, she'd stopped attending. Later, after she came to Yun Cheng, her father wanted her to attend a technical school or something. However, because her mother was afraid she would expose herself, she said that she didn't like to study and didn't want to go to school.

But the bartender really wanted to study. When she was idle at home, she would study by herself. She wanted a free life and wanted to go out and interact with people normally. She didn't want to only be able to work at home or at the factory every day.

She was bound to herself every day and had to live in fear every day. However, when she thought about resisting, her mother did not beg her not to. Instead, she told her that she would definitely have a son in her next pregnancy. Once she had a son, she would let her regain her status and would no longer threaten her with her death. The bartender could only think of other ways.

In the second year after arriving in Yun Cheng, she tried to convince her mother that it was too easy for her to be discovered at home. There were a few times when she was almost discovered by her father, and her mother agreed to let her stay outside. She rented a house for her, and her free life outside made her want to completely stay away from home and restore her status as a woman to live a normal life. All of this required money. As her identity could not be exposed, she could only work odd jobs, short hours, and night jobs near her rented apartment.

Some people might not be able to imagine such a life, but in society, there were women who pretended to be men and cheated others of their money. Even after living with them for half a year, they did not realize that the other party was a woman, so there was nothing impossible.

In some places, there were indeed many pitiful people who were not allowed to go to school after attending primary school.

There were also many families who had given birth to one child after another, all for the sake of having a son. When one was in their forties, they still had to fight for a son. If they couldn't give birth to a son, they wouldn't stop.

In short, this world was so big that there were all sorts of strange things!

Just as Old Master Meng was about to say something...

Bo Junyan said, "She doesn't need to say anything else or prove anything. Because I believe everything she says."

"We don't believe you!"

Chapter 660: I Believe (8)

"She's my wife. It's fine as long as I believe her." Bo Junyan paused for a moment before continuing, "Besides, that's a woman. There's nothing between them. But so what if she's really a man? What's wrong with having a boyfriend before marriage in this era? Can't she be with me after having a boyfriend?"

"If that's the case, Grandfather, then it's even more impossible for me to marry Ling Wei, no matter how badly you want me to! I know there are at least two men whom Ling Wei has dated."

Proof? Why did his wife have to prove something? It wasn't true in the first place, but so what if it was? Anything that happened before marriage shouldn't be considered after marriage.

"So, Grandfather, it's meaningless for you to care about proof."

"You..." Old Master Meng was exasperated.

"Junyan, you can't say that," Meng Yueman said with a frown. "It's possible for her to have had a boyfriend before marriage. In this era, we can't be as demanding as we were in the past. However, she lost her chastity before marriage and did that sort of surgery to deceive us. This lie can't be tolerated. She said that a man is a woman, making her a liar. That is even more intolerable!"

Yes, young people nowadays were becoming more and more open-minded.

But openness was openness, and this was a matter of character!

Even if she didn't have anything to do with the bartender, she couldn't just come without any evidence.

"You must have seen through it too, Mom. Grandpa has also bribed Xiao Huan's grandma. Since that's the case, do you think the two of them have any credibility to have performed such a surgery for Xiao Huan?"

Meng Yueman: "..."

"Would I not know what my wife is like?"

Meng Yueman: "..."

"Mom, do you need me to elaborate?"

Meng Yueman: "..."

"Mom, I'll talk to my father-in-law about the wedding another day. You don't have to worry about it." He had wanted to keep Matriarch Mu around and wait for Mu Huan to graduate before cleaning up. Since the old woman was so anxious to die, he would send her on her way.

"Regarding whether the bartender is a woman or not, if Mom still has any doubts, I'll send someone to investigate. When the time comes, I'll give you an answer. If there's nothing else, we can go home." Bo Junyan thus ended this meaningless conversation.

Just as Meng Yueman was about to say something...

Bo Junyan looked at his grandfather and said, "Grandpa, I'll get someone to send you home. If there's nothing else, don't leave the house from now on."

When Old Master Meng heard this, he instantly exploded. "Are you going to put me under house arrest? You're actually putting me under house arrest for a woman who's lying through her teeth?"

"Yes." Since he had made it clear, Bo Junyan agreed even more directly.

"Yueman, did you hear that?! Your son is going to put me under house arrest!" Old Master Meng was so angry that he wanted to laugh!

He actually wanted to put him under house arrest!

And for a woman who was lying through her teeth!

"Junyan!" Meng Yueman frowned at Bo Junyan.

How could he say such things? He was brought up by his grandfather!

Bo Junyan said, "Mom, if there's nothing else, we'll take our leave."

As he spoke, he picked Mu Huan up and was about to leave.

Mu Huan grabbed his arm forcefully, indicating that he shouldn't do this. If he left just like that, she would never be able to get along with his mother again.

Bo Junyan frowned. He had never liked to waste time on useless things. Today's matter could already end here.

"Bo Junyan, just try and do it! If you dare to walk out of this door without my permission today, you'll no longer be my son!"
