

Fake Marriage 701

Chapter 701: Be Good (3)

Just as he finished speaking, he received two murderous gazes. He hurriedly made a gesture that said, "I'm spouting nonsense, I'll shut up!"

"I've met Sister Shangguan a few times when I was young. She's really a very good and kind person," Mu Huan said.

Wu Xingye spoke again. "You used to say that Lin Qingya was a good person."

"What the f*ck! Wu Xingye, are you courting death?!" Mu Huan said as she kicked him.

"Wu Xingye, I think you're crazy..." Li Meng kicked him.

Just as the three of them were fooling around, Mu Huan suddenly grabbed Li Meng and took a few steps back. Then, they heard a thud.

A flower pot fell over where Li Meng was standing just now. If Li Meng had still been standing at the same spot, she would probably have been smashed by it and ended up bleeding.

Wu Xingye looked at the broken flower pot on the ground and was instantly furious. He looked up and said, "Who the f*ck wants to die?!"

A mother on the second floor immediately stuck her head out and said, "Sorry, my child accidentally touched a flower pot and it fell down."

"Be more careful in the future! If this was any higher, it would have smashed someone to death!" Wu Xingye shouted loudly. What was so bad about this? Why did she let the child play with the flower pot on the balcony? Was this flower pot something a child could accidentally touch? It must have been deliberately pushed down by the child!

"I'm sorry! I'm really sorry! I'll be more careful from now on!" the young mother apologized profusely.

Since she had already apologized and the perpetrator was a child, even if what had happened earlier was very dangerous, the three of them could not rush up and find someone to settle scores with. They could only say a few words to that mother and ask her to be more careful in the future. Such objects up high were too dangerous!

Then, they left.

After they left, the young mother on the second floor looked at the man standing across the street. The two of them looked at each other and confirmed the message.

The man did not follow them. Instead, he took out his phone and sent a message.

"Mu Huan's height matches. She's agile and sharp. She's the leader of the three and is the most suspicious."

After the three of them got into the car...

Wu Xingye thought about Jin Tianheng, whom Mu Huan had previously asked him to investigate. “Xiao Huan, you said that your grandfather left you billions of assets to inherit, but why didn’t he leave you a way to contact your great-grandfather? He didn’t specify who he was or what company he was from. He only left a name. If you can’t even find this person, how are you going to inherit from him?”

“That’s right. There are so many people alive. It’s too difficult to find someone with just a name, especially since there are too many people from our country with the same name!” Li Meng also knew about this.

“According to my grandfather’s letter, my great-grandfather was a big shot. My grandfather was afraid that I would be in danger, so he didn’t let me inherit it. He only left a name. He must have been afraid that I would be in danger. He thought that if I didn’t even have the ability to find someone, I shouldn’t inherit such a legacy, lest I lose my life.”

Wu Xingye thought about it and said, “That’s possible. After all, there’s such a huge inheritance and the whereabouts of the heir is unknown. As long as the heir doesn’t appear, such a huge sum of money will be his. This guard will definitely not allow the heir to appear! It might really be life-threatening!”

“Yeah.” Mu Huan felt that her grandfather’s concerns were very reasonable. If she didn’t even have the ability to find out who it was, then there was no need for her to inherit it.

Wu Xingye added, “Then we really have to get Bo Junyan to investigate this matter.”

He had to investigate this quietly. It would be best if he could figure out the truth and make full preparations before killing his way over to the inheritance.

Chapter 702: Be Good (4)

“Yes.”

“I hope this great-grandfather of yours has more assets than the Bo family. This way, Bo Junyan’s grandfather wouldn’t want him to be with Ling Wei and you wouldn’t have any family conflicts.” Li Meng put her palms together and prayed that Mu Huan’s great-grandfather was a formidable figure.

“That’d be nice!” Mu Huan had a headache over Bo Junyan’s grandfather. If he simply didn’t like her, there was still a way to resolve this. But it wasn’t that he didn’t like her, nor did he like Ling Wei too much. What he wanted was that kind of career map. No matter how hard she tried to make him like her, it was useless.

If it was really as Li Meng had said, and her great-grandfather was a super-rich person, then this problem could be perfectly resolved!

This possibility made Mu Huan, who initially didn’t pay much attention to this inheritance, decide to put her heart at ease.

“Of course it would be. Hurry up and get Bo Junyan to investigate. Who knows, it might be true! After all, if there isn’t one in the country, the super-rich people overseas are also very rich!” Wu Xingye said excitedly.

“Yes, yes. When he returns, I’ll get him to investigate. His business trip this time is urgent, so it must be something that’s giving him a headache. Let’s not cause trouble for him for now,” Mu Huan said.

“Goddess Mu, if you become a super-rich person, I don’t want my dignity anymore. Give me a lifetime’s worth of money! I want to be cooped up at home every day after graduating and do nothing but have fun!” Li Meng hugged Mu Huan’s arm, looking like she was begging for a sugar daddy.

“Look at you!”

“That’s all I’ve got!” Li Meng wanted to be a good-for-nothing who only knew how to eat and play.

“Alright!” Mu Huan said with a smile.

“I love you! I love you! I’ll only love you in this lifetime!” Li Meng expressed her love madly.

Wu Xingye: “...”

Although Mu Huan no longer felt like she was being followed after leaving that street, she still asked Wu Xingye to be more careful when they separated. He had to inform her immediately if anything happened!

On the way back to school, Mu Huan and Li Meng saw two cars crashing into each other. Both cars were overturned on the spot!

A car was hit at the fuel tank.

Seeing this, Mu Huan pushed open the car door and ran toward the car that had been knocked over.

There was no need for Li Meng to ask anything given the tacit understanding she had developed with her over the years. After parking the car, she followed Mu Huan and ran toward the overturned car.

“This model was reported to have caught on fire after a car accident a few days ago. Now, it’s even more dangerous as its gas tank has been hit. Just in case, we’ll save whoever’s convenient to be saved! Our lives are the most important!” Mu Huan said as she ran.

If it was an ordinary car accident, she would save whoever she could. But this car was at risk of self-ignition, and her safety was more important than anything else.

“Yes!” Li Meng nodded.

They ran up to the front and realized that the driver in the front seat had died on the spot. In the back seat were a woman and two children. Mu Huan had broken the cracked glass and was about to pull the woman out when...

“Save... save my child first...” The woman turned around with all her might and passed the child in her arms to Mu Huan, letting her rescue the child first.

Mu Huan quickly reached out to take the child and passed it to Li Meng.

By the time Mu Huan was helping the woman with the second child, the car was already on fire.

After getting the second child out, Mu Huan carried the child with one hand and grabbed the woman with the other. “Use more strength, hurry up!”

However, the woman’s legs were pressed down by the seat, and she could not get out no matter how hard she tried.

Chapter 703: Be Good (5)

Just as Mu Huan was about to pull the car door open to help the woman...

“Quick... Hurry up and carry the child away... In the back of the car is... petrol. It... it will explode...” The woman pushed Mu Huan forcefully, not letting her in to save her.

She wanted her to carry the child and run.

The car owner and his wife were secretly operating the unbranded petrol in the village. This time, they came to Yun Cheng to purchase goods. There were several cans of petrol in the back of the car.

When Mu Huan heard this, her expression instantly changed. Even if she wanted to save the woman, it was too late.

She could only hurriedly carry the child, turn around, and run away. She even shouted at the other car owners who wanted to surround them to save her, “Hurry up and disperse! Her car is full of petrol!”

When everyone heard this, they immediately turned around and ran.

Although there shouldn't be such an ordinary truck that could transport petrol, no one thought about it at this point. They only wanted to run!

The gas would explode when it came into contact with a raging fire!

Just as Mu Huan finished speaking, the cars behind them started to explode.

Mu Huan, who did not have the time to run further, carried the child and ran to the side of the road toward a water canal. Then, she rolled down and lay on top of it to protect the child in her arms.

Fortunately, the car owner and his wife were doing a small business, and there were only a few barrels of gas inside. Furthermore, as this was a car road with little traffic, it did not cause a huge explosion...

Mu Huan was also hiding at a relatively far distance. There weren't any splashes on her body. Fortunately, she wasn't injured.

In this age of information where every little thing that happened could be known by the entire country...

By the time Mu Huan had finished her checkup and returned home after recording her statement, the Bo couple had already found out about this matter.

“Xiao Huan, how are you? Are you hurt?” When Meng Yueman saw her return, she hurriedly pulled her and sized her up.

“There's no injury!” Mu Huan hurriedly shook her head. It was almost winter now, and she was wearing very thick clothes. When she rolled down from above, there wasn't even a scratch. If it were summer, there might have been a scratch.

After confirming that there were no injuries on her body, Meng Yueman heaved a sigh of relief. “You child... when you see such things in the future, stay away from them! Why are you always moving forward when you see danger?!”

Last time, she jumped into the river to save someone, but now...

“That’s right. Listen to your mother. If you see such dangerous things in the future, run away. It’s so dangerous!” Bo Dingjing said.

The two of them had seen the live video. The situation had frightened the two of them, who had seen the world. They were especially frightened when, as she had just turned around to run with the child in her arms, the car behind had exploded. If she had been a step late, the consequences...

It was unimaginable!

“I didn’t expect that there would be petrol in the car...” Mu Huan thought that the most dangerous thing would be self-ignition. If the car had simply self-ignited, there would still have been time to run while it burned. It wouldn’t look as exaggerated as it did on television. It would explode in an instant. Hence, she felt that there would have been no problem at all. No one would have known that she had saved someone. Who would have known that there was petrol in the car?! With this explosion, everyone knew!

“Regardless of whether it’s true or not, you should stay away from such a thing. You’re just a young lady...” Meng Yueman was really afraid that her son would go crazy if something happened to her.

“Dad, Mom, don’t worry. No matter what, I cherish my life the most! To me, nothing is more important than my life! I’ll never do anything that can hurt me! I’ll definitely be more careful in the future!”

Chapter 704: Be Good (6)

Mu Huan knew that they were saying this for her own good, but when she saw that there was no danger and that there was a way to save someone, she couldn’t just stand by and do nothing!

Furthermore, she was a medical student. When she saw such a situation, she instinctively wanted to rush over to save people. After all, resuscitating a person during the golden period was very important! A minute earlier might have saved them, but a minute later, a living person would have died.

Meng Yueman was about to say something when Mu Huan’s phone rang.

“Mom, it’s Junyan calling...” Mu Huan showed Meng Yueman her phone.

“Hurry up and pick up! He must have found out about this!”

When Mu Huan heard this, she suddenly didn’t want to pick up the call. Last time, her husband had told her that she had to be obedient. In the end, this happened again. He would definitely say that she was always like this...

However, she still had to pick up the call because he’d said that she was concerned about her, worried about her, and loved her.

“Hubby...”

“Are you hurt?” Bo Junyan was about to explode when he saw that scene!

He had repeatedly reminded her to take a detour when she saw danger, but she just loved it whenever there was danger anywhere and she would personally crawl there!

Mu Huan hurriedly said, “No! No! There aren’t any abrasions on my body at all! There aren’t any injuries! Mom is right beside me. She can assure you that I’m fine! I’ve just undergone a full body checkup at the hospital!”

As she spoke, she brought the phone to Meng Yueman and asked her to prove that what she’d said was true.

“Indeed, Xiao Huan isn’t injured at all,” Meng Yueman said.

When Bo Junyan saw the video of the incident, he knew that she wouldn’t be seriously injured. However, when he thought about what would have happened if she’d been a step late, he was so frightened that he was about to explode!

“Mu Huan...” He was about to say something.

“Hubby, I didn’t go back on my promise to you. At that time, I thought it was just an ordinary car accident. I saw that the car had been knocked over and stopped moving, so there’s no danger anymore. I’m a medical student, so how could I leave the passengers in the lurch? If I’d left them in the lurch, I’d feel guilty for the rest of my life. Also, I...” Mu Huan was afraid that Bo Junyan would bring up the matter of getting someone to follow her again. Hence, she said all sorts of nice things to him, making her mouth dry.

Bo Junyan’s expression became better.

“You’d better be good for the next few days. If you do anything dangerous again, don’t blame me for not giving you any freedom and having you followed wherever you go!” Bo Junyan felt that no matter what he said to her, she would be able to find a reason to retort and convince him otherwise. Hence, he didn’t want to say anything more to her and directly gave her an ultimatum.

“Hubby...” Even though Mu Huan and Bo Junyan could no longer keep secrets, she didn’t like it when people followed her everywhere she did. It was as if she was a prisoner.

“It’s useless no matter what you say!” Bo Junyan said firmly, not wanting to listen to her and be swayed by her again.

“Hubby, actually, I...” Mu Huan wanted to say that she wasn’t actually very weak. She was confident in whatever she did, so he didn’t have to worry about her.

But...

Before she could finish speaking, she heard someone on the other end of the line say that the political figure was here and wanted Bo Junyan to go over.

She missed the chance to say those words again.

“Be good! Don’t make me worry again! Understood?” Bo Junyan said.

“Alright...” Seeing that he was busy, Mu Huan did not say anything else.

“Be good...” Bo Junyan said before hanging up.

Mu Huan looked at the phone that had been hung up and decided that when Bo Junyan returned, she would let him have a look at her capabilities at the first instance and completely dispel his thoughts of having someone follow her.

It was just that plans could not keep up with changes. Reality would always catch people off guard.

Chapter 705: Worldview Collapse (1)

Two days later, at Yun University.

Mu Huan, who was recording the experiment data in the laboratory, received a call from Wu Xingye.

“Xiao Huan, hurry up and come to Dingfeng Pavilion. Xiao Meng and I were meeting Boss Meng here. We don’t know how those people recognized us, but they’ve captured Xiao Meng..”

Mu Huan was about to ask something when she heard the sound of a phone falling to the ground and Wu Xingye’s cursing.

Without thinking, she grabbed her bike keys and ran out.

As she could ride her motorbike to school whenever Bo Junyan was not home, Mu Huan had done so today.

Dingfeng Pavilion that Wu Xingye was talking about was a famous retro Chinese restaurant in Yun Cheng. It specialized in palace cuisine and was not far from Yun University. It was less than 20 minutes away.

Bo Junyan had settled his business overseas, and there was an urgent matter that needed his attention in the country, so he rushed back overnight. As he was very busy after his return, he did not tell Mu Huan that he had returned. He planned to pick her up at school after he was done with his work and give her a surprise.

Just as Mu Huan was racing toward Dingfeng Pavilion...

Bo Junyan was currently signing a contract with a very important foreign client in Dingfeng Pavilion’s private room. When foreigners came to China, they always liked to eat authentic Chinese food.

Just as he was about to head to the school to pick up Mu Huan after signing an important contract and sending off the guests, Gong Zeye dragged him upstairs.

When he went upstairs, he saw Fu Siye and the rest. Ling Wei, Yang Ning, and some others were all there. “Why are they all here?”

“What do you mean? It’s your brother’s birthday today. Have you forgotten?!” Gong Zeye looked hurt.

Bo Junyan: “...”

He had really forgotten.

Just when Gong Zeye thought that Bo Junyan had forgotten something and needed to make up for it...

Bo Junyan said, "Tell PA Wang what gift you want. I'm going to pick up your sister-in-law at school now."

A day apart felt like three years. Right now, he really missed his little cutie and couldn't wait to see her. He wanted her to jump into his embrace and sweetly call him Hubby.

Gong Zeye: "...!!!"

What did he want to tell PA Wang?! Did he think he was a three-year-old?! That his birthday was just an excuse for a present?!

He wanted company! Didn't his boss see so many people celebrating his birthday here?!

"Brother Bo, you're already here and this place isn't far from Yun University. Why don't you give Sister-in-law a call and ask her to come over as well? We can celebrate Zeye's birthday together," Yang Ning said.

"That's right, Brother Bo. You can't leave just like that. It's his birthday today!"

Bo Junyan felt that there would be no surprise if he called Mu Huan. But when he saw Gong Zeye's hurt and expectant face, he could not say ok in agreement.

Hence, he took out his phone and called Mu Huan to ask her to come over.

Just as he was about to press Mu Huan's number, Yang Ning, who was standing by the window, suddenly pointed downstairs and shouted, "Brother Bo, look, is that Sis-in-law?"

When Bo Junyan heard this, he instinctively strode forward and looked down from the window.

The others also gathered around the window.

Dingfeng Pavilion was a retro Chinese restaurant. The buildings here were all retro, just like the ancient courtyard houses. Behind the window of the private room they were in was a small courtyard with artificial mountains, small bridges, and flowing water.

At this point, in the courtyard downstairs, a girl in sportswear was fighting with someone, and it was even one against five! Those fierce moves knocked down one person after another, and very quickly, all five of them collapsed. This made their eyes widen!

Chapter 706: Worldview Collapse (2)

Although the girl did not look up, Bo Junyan could tell from her figure and side profile that she was his wife!

The others also quickly recognized her. Because Mu Huan had been in a hurry to rush over today, she did not put on a disguise.

Bo Junyan was so shocked that he forgot that he was on the phone!

Until Mu Huan's voice came through the phone.

"Hubby?" Mu Huan's voice was a little hesitant as he did not speak.

Bo Junyan snapped back to his senses and stared intently at the figure downstairs, who had clearly run to a remote corner to answer the call. "Where are you?"

Mu Huan hesitated for a moment. "At school!"

She had just been reprimanded by him for saving people in a car accident. If she were to say that she was fighting now, her husband would definitely blow her up! Hence, even if she couldn't wait to see how capable Bo Junyan was after he returned, she couldn't say that she was fighting right now and make her husband worry about her.

"At school?"

"Yes, I'm at school! What's the matter, Hubby?"

Whenever Mu Huan had to make a move, she would wear a wireless earpiece. When she said this, a person who was originally on the ground suddenly got up and attacked her. When she realized this, because she was afraid that her husband would hear her, she kicked him. Then, she used her hand to cover the other party's mouth since he was about to scream in pain. At the same time, her other hand took out her spray and sprayed it on the other party's nose, causing him to completely collapse.

From the moment the man got up to sneak an attack on her to the moment she knocked the man down, only a few seconds had passed. During this time, she was still on the phone with Bo Junyan and had even said in that same tone, "Yes, I'm at school! What's wrong, Hubby?"

In his mind, that scene was really a stunning one!

This scene made Bo Junyan forget again that he was on the phone.

His delicate little cutie... the little cutie that he felt would break with just a touch...

She had so valiantly and nimbly knocked down a strong man...

At the same time, she'd used such a tender voice to tell him that she was at school. What's wrong, Hubby...?

If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would never have imagined such a scene! He would not believe it even if he was beaten to death!

Until...

Mu Huan, who did not get a response from him, asked, "What's the matter, Hubby?"

Bo Junyan snapped back to his senses and said, "Turn left and look up straight ahead."

Mu Huan was stunned. "What's wrong..."

Why did he ask her to turn left and look right above her?

"Hurry up!" Bo Junyan's voice turned colder.

Realizing that something was amiss, Mu Huan instinctively turned left and looked up.

Then, she saw a row of familiar people standing in front of the window on the second floor, looking at her. Her husband was standing in the middle, and he was talking to her on the phone.

Mu Huan was instantly stunned!

Freaking hell! Freaking hell!

It was as if ten thousand horses were galloping across her heart!

What the f*ck!

Freaking hell!

She... she...

Just as both of them were stunned and speechless, someone suddenly jumped over from somewhere else and attacked Mu Huan. Just as he was about to punch her on the head...

Bo Junyan instinctively grabbed the railing of the window and jumped down from the second floor to save Mu Huan.

But just as he landed...

Mu Huan, who was still in a state of shock, instinctively grabbed the other party's fist without even looking at it. Then, she flung the other party away!

A 1.8-meter tall, bulky man who was about 200 kilograms was thrown down by her...

She had thrown him down so easily...

Chapter 707: Worldview Collapse (3)

Can you imagine the scene of a small, cute, and adorable little cutie grabbing a two hundred-kilogram fatty and tossing him out?

This made Bo Junyan, who had jumped down, feel that his worldview had collapsed as the burly man crashed into the rockery!

His little cutie—his delicate, adorable, and soft little cutie!

Upstairs, Gong Zeye and the rest of the brothers' worldview had also collapsed!

In the beginning, Mu Huan gave them the impression that she was a gentle and quiet girl. Later on, although they felt that she was actually lively and not a gentle person, she was either sitting in Brother Bo's arms or hanging in his arms.

It made them feel that she was like a porcelain doll that needed to be carefully protected. She was so delicate that they subconsciously did not curse or speak loudly in front of her.

In the end... such a delicate, cute, and adorable girl was able to easily throw a burly man away!

Freaking hell!

What the f*ck! It felt like the end of the world had come, but it wasn't as shocking as this moment!

Freaking hell...

They didn't know what to say!

It felt like a dream! No, even in a dream, one wouldn't dream of something so unbelievable! Such a cute and adorable little girl, she was actually a mutated superwoman!

Freaking hell!

Collapse! Their worldview had really collapsed!

Ling Wei looked at Bo Junyan, who was stunned for the first time in his life downstairs, and the corners of her lips curved up slightly. Wasn't this impact big enough?

Yang Ning looked at Gong Zeye and said, "The thing that Sis-in-law used to spray people with just now was the same as what that woman disguised as a man used that night. From the things she used and her skills, she must be the one who knocked all of us down that night. The one you wanted to feed a ton of drugs to!"

Gong Zeye: "..."

What the f*ck...

After a while... after a while...

Gong Zeye snapped back to his senses.

"You asked about my schedule and my Brother Bo's schedule. When you found out that Brother Bo was going to sign a contract with a client here, you decided to hold my birthday banquet here. You even asked me to bring Brother Bo up after he'd signed the contract. Was it because you found out that Sister-in-law was that person that you arranged this for us and Brother Bo to see?"

Bo Junyan and the rest were not stupid. Although Gong Zeye was usually frivolous, he was also very smart. When he snapped back to his senses, he immediately figured out the whole matter.

"Yes," Yang Ning admitted readily.

She knew that even the slightest abnormality would be detected by Bo Junyan, let alone someone rearranging Bo Junyan's schedule. Hence, she decided to follow their schedule. This way, she wouldn't be exposed and would cause the effect she wanted!

She was very satisfied with the results right now. No, she was even more satisfied than she had imagined. She didn't expect Bo Junyan to call Mu Huan. Mu Huan still dared to pick up under such circumstances. She could even say that she was at school as if it was very true!

She recalled how Mu Huan had covered her face and said, "Yes, I'm at school." She's impressed

That scene was too impactful! The impact was so strong that they were shocked, let alone Bo Junyan!

"Why didn't you tell me before you did this...?!" Was she trying to kill him?!

Gong Zeye felt that today's incident had a huge impact on his Brother Bo!

What if something happened?!

Chapter 708: Worldview Collapse (4)

Although their Brother Bo rarely talked about him and their sister-in-law, every time they drank, they could feel that Brother Bo regarded their sister-in-law as a weak little cutie who needed protection. Now that they'd seen this scene, their worldview had collapsed, let alone their Brother Bo's!

"If I had told you, you would have told Bo Junyan in the next second. He wouldn't be so shocked!" Yang Ning snorted.

"Aren't you afraid of death?!" Gong Zeye said angrily.

Even he had already figured out what was going on so quickly, let alone his shrewd boss! His boss was still in shock and had no time to pay attention to them.

"I have you! I'm not afraid. You'll definitely protect me, right?!" Yang Ning said as she hugged his arm.

Gong Zeye: "...!!"

"Besides, this shouldn't make Bo Junyan so angry that he'd want to kill me, right? I'm doing a good deed! Look, all of you have been fooled by that Mu Huan! Especially Brother Bo. It isn't good to be deceived by her like that!" Yang Ning felt that she had done a good deed. She had exposed Mu Huan's true colors and made her unable to use her harmless appearance to deceive others and make them dote on her!

"Brother Bo and Sister-in-law could have settled the matter between themselves. Did you have to be so kind?" Gong Zeye was about to explode! It was fine if she was usually willful and reckless, but she actually dared to be so willful and rash over such a matter!

"What do you mean by that? Didn't Mu Huan knock you and me out? She made us look so ashamed and embarrassed. Of course we have to expose her true colors! Let Brother Bo see what kind of person she is!"

"She may have embarrassed you, but you shouldn't have made the first move yourself!" Gong Zeye used Mu Huan's words to counter her.

"That's because it's her. That's why she said such words with twisted logic. You believed her even when she said something with such twisted logic. Are you stupid?"

"You...!"

"Also, think about it. She's so good at pretending. She was clearly the one who knocked you down, but she could still pretend to be innocent. It's fine. This kind of woman is too scary! Believe me, even though I exposed her, not only will Brother Bo not be angry, but he will also thank me!" Yang Ning felt that no man was willing to be fooled by a woman like this.

Not to mention someone like Bo Junyan!

"How is that scary? You're still putting on an act in front of my mom and in front of me every day. Compared to her acting, you're better at pretending, so aren't you even scarier?!" Mu Huan was Gong

Zeye's idol. When he saw Mu Huan's true capabilities, after his shock, he felt that she deserved to be his idol. She should be called very awesome! He didn't find her scary in any way.

However, the scene just now was really too shocking. He didn't expect it! This was his idol. When he snapped back to his senses, he only felt that she was formidable. If this were his girlfriend, he wouldn't be able to accept it if his soft, cute, and delicate girlfriend suddenly became a strong and valiant female warrior!

He would doubt his life and everything!

"How is that the same?" Yang Ning said unhappily.

"Why can't it be the same?"

"I did it for my dream!" That was why she was pretending to be obedient—to gain more freedom!

Gong Zeye recalled that Mu Huan used to be so short of money. "Little Sister-in-law must be doing this for a living. If that's the case, she's more forced by circumstance and helpless than you!"

Yang Ning: "..."

On second thought, that did seem to be the case...

Chapter 709: Worldview Collapse (5)

After all, everyone had a different side, and they all had things they wanted to hide.

If she was forced to hide for the sake of living, Mu Huan didn't seem to be such a scary and bad woman.

Thinking about it again, she suddenly could not understand why she had felt that Mu Huan was a scary and bad woman. That if she did this, Bo Junyan would be grateful to her.

In the beginning, she only wanted to find the woman who had knocked her down. She wanted to have a good competition with her and regain her dignity. Then, she wanted to buy her drugs and entice her with money to let the other party join her organization. With her joining, she would definitely be like a tiger that had grown wings, and she would be able to accomplish something big! Why did it change in the end? Having thought of something, she frowned and looked at Ling Wei.

Sensing her gaze, Ling Wei looked away.

Yang Ning looked at Ling Wei and couldn't tell anything. She thought about it carefully and didn't say anything. This made her, who originally wanted to say something, think for a while and not say anything.

She looked at Gong Zeye. "Anyway, everything has been done. Tell me, what should we do?!"

Gong Zeye: "...!!!"

How would he know what to do?! It all depended on Brother Bo's reaction!

As he thought about this, he looked downstairs at Bo Junyan.

At this moment, downstairs.

As Mu Huan looked at Bo Junyan, who was approaching her step by step, she was so nervous that her heart was about to race out of her chest!

No matter how she thought about it, she could not imagine that he would see such a scene under such circumstances!

Especially when she recalled that when he asked her where she was, she'd said that she was at school. She lied to him and got caught lying.

This...

Freaking hell!

If one were to walk by the river all the time, one would eventually get wet shoes!

Just as she was about to stop breathing due to her nervousness, she suddenly thought of what she was nervous about. She had originally planned to let him see how awesome she was! Now, although she was accidentally seen and was even panicking a little, it wasn't a problem for her to be caught! She'd said that because she was afraid that he would be worried about her, and it wasn't a malicious lie!

Hence, the nervousness on her face vanished and she smiled widely.

"Hubby, when did you come back?! Why are you here?!" As she spoke, she pounced toward him for a hug.

Bo Junyan looked at Mu Huan, who was pouncing toward him with a smile as if nothing had happened. Her small face was as harmless as usual, naive, and adorable.

Then, he looked at the six tall and strong men lying on the ground, especially the one lying on the artificial mountain...

The feeling in his heart was indescribable!

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that the world had collapsed!

He knew that Mu Huan was smart and talented from the start. After all, if a person wasn't smart, it was impossible for her to have such good results. It was impossible for her to have a good life after being abandoned by her family. He knew that Mu Huan wasn't an obedient and gentle person. He'd slowly found out. This made him feel that he had picked up a treasure. Hence, in terms of personality, Bo Junyan could easily accept that Mu Huan wasn't the gentle and quiet type he wanted.

But...

Now.

Just as Mu Huan had said, her appearance was really too deceptive. Sometimes, when she looked at herself, she felt that she should be a soft and adorable little cutie. When outsiders saw her, they would think even more so.

This was especially so when she often acted coquettishly in front of Bo Junyan. She was all sorts of delicate and tender, and she often complained that she was tired and sleepy. She couldn't withstand a little torment from him. This made him think that she was a delicate flower that needed to be carefully protected and taken good care of. He couldn't touch her...

Chapter 710: Worldview Collapse (6)

Now, suddenly, she was so strong and powerful.

He felt that her fighting skills were better than Jin Chen's.

Although Jin Chen was the weakest among them, his skills were not something ordinary people could match!

His tender and adorable wife had suddenly become like this...

This...

No one knew if anyone had watched this movie before. To put it simply, a person by the name of Chu Men suddenly realized that the town he lived in, his parents, his lover, his relatives, and his friends were all fake! His entire world instantly collapsed!

He didn't know what else he could believe and what he should believe!

Right now, Bo Junyan felt like he was in the same boat as the Chu family.

He had given Mu Huan all his trust. He had always believed whatever she said. He would let her do whatever she wanted.

He trusted her wholeheartedly.

Suddenly, he realized that she could lie to him without batting an eyelid.

Just now, while she was knocking that man down, she had used such a tender voice to tell him that she was at school. What's wrong, Hubby? The impact on Bo Junyan was too great!

He had always felt that he knew Mu Huan very well and knew what his wife was like. She had lied to him in the past, but he had seen through all of that. He didn't want to fuss over it with her, and that was why he felt that she wasn't someone who could lie and couldn't hide anything from him.

He thought so deeply.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes today, he wouldn't have realized that she was lying!

She would never have thought that she was doing such a thing instead of being at school!

As he looked at Mu Huan, who was pouncing toward him, he suddenly had the feeling that he didn't know her.

This feeling made Bo Junyan, who had lived for nearly 30 years, feel an indescribable sense of panic for the first time.

Just as Mu Huan was about to pounce into his embrace, he dodged to the side.

Mu Huan, who had thrown herself at him and wanted to hug him tightly, was so shocked that she forgot to retract her strength and fell to the ground.

After lying on the ground in a daze for a while, she snapped back to her senses and looked at Bo Junyan with her innocent and disbelieving eyes. “Hubby, what’s wrong?”

Bo Junyan looked at her.

He clenched his fists tightly.

“Hubby, what’s wrong?” Her husband had always liked it when she hugged him. Why did he suddenly avoid her this time? And why was he indifferent even when she fell to the ground?

Mu Huan was also spoiled by Bo Junyan. His avoidance had hurt Mu Huan, who was used to him treating her well. Hence, she was momentarily immersed in the shock of him avoiding her. She had forgotten what had just happened and forgotten that she should have explained herself when he saw this scene.

It was only when she saw Bo Junyan turn around and leave that she snapped back to her senses. She hurriedly got up from the ground and chased after him.

“Hubby, listen to me. I can explain!” She anxiously grabbed his arm, wanting to explain what he had seen.

Bo Junyan did not speak. He only stopped and looked at her coldly.

Mu Huan couldn’t help but shiver under his icy gaze. From the time they had gone on blind dates until now, he had never looked at her with such an icy gaze. This made her panic.

“Hubby, I... I...” She wanted to explain, but she suddenly didn’t know how to. There was nothing much to explain about what he saw. Finally, she said, “I’ve said before that I’m not such a weak person. I’m very strong!”
