

Fake Marriage 781

Chapter 781: Moving Out (2)

Whenever the president called her, she would leave voice messages saying that she was in the laboratory and that she would call him back after she was done.

Now that she was back, she said there was no need for the president to reply to her.

At that moment, Gong Zeye, who had been dragged over to help, was done with all the things he could do. He opened his precious phone that he hadn't had the time to touch for the entire day. When he saw that his WeChat messages were about to explode, he hurriedly opened it to see if there was any important news.

When he saw that most of his friends were having a boring conversation, he opened his Moments and saw Mu Huan's post: "I was so high last night! When I get handsome, I even fall in love with myself!"

He clicked on the video and saw Mu Huan dancing so handsomely. She looked really high!

He cast a worried glance at the busy Bo Junyan.

Gong Zeye also found out about what happened at the company that day. He heard that after his sister-in-law left the company, she did not return to the Bo family residence that night. The next day, she packed her things and went to school to stay. Now, she was even having so much fun!

This was a sign that she did not care about his Brother Bo!

He was suddenly worried about his Brother Bo!

Initially, he had wanted to find some time to show this Moments to Bo Junyan. However, he realized that he could not let Bo Junyan be distracted at this point in time. After all, the deadline was almost up. If he could not complete the mission, it would not be a joke and he would lose money!

Hence, he did not show Bo Junyan this Moments post. Instead, he asked each of his brothers who had added Bo Junyan to post a few more posts on his Moments, so that Mu Huan's Moments could be refreshed.

However, he was thinking too much. Bo Junyan did not have the time to look at WeChat and check his Moments.

The next morning, Mu Huan received a call from Bo Junyan in a daze.

"You're staying at school?" The reason Bo Junyan had called Mu Huan was that Meng Yueman had gone to the company. Although Mu Huan's words made her feel at ease, she still felt that it was all her fault. If anything happened to her son and daughter-in-law, she would have personally ruined her son's happiness. Therefore, the more she thought about it, the more she felt that it was impossible.

Although she knew that her son was very busy, she still made a trip to the company and briefly told Bo Junyan about this matter.

She told him not to be angry with Mu Huan. She was the one who'd asked Mu Huan to come to the company, and she even told him that Mu Huan had moved to the school.

“Yes, I want to finish my experiment while you’re busy. I can’t delay the submission of the report any longer!” Mu Huan had moved out of the Bo residence because she did not want to sleep alone in the empty room and let her imagination run wild. However, she also wanted to finish her experiment as soon as possible.

“Alright.” Bo Junyan also knew that the deadline for her experiment report was almost up. While he was busy, she would concentrate on her experiment. The two of them would be busy with their own work. When they were free, they would be free. This way, they could sooner hug their spouse and sleep.

She didn’t say anything else and hung up.

Even though Bo Junyan was shocked to discover that side of Mu Huan, he had never thought of abandoning his wife for even a second. He was just too shocked and hurt, and he even suspected that he needed time to rebuild his shattered world view.

He also needed time to confirm her feelings for him. And now, he had enough time. Mu Huan was so angry and jealous because of that matter, and it soothed the doubts and anxiety in his heart.

If she didn’t like him, why would she be so jealous and possessive?

He had been so busy these past few days that he didn’t have the time to talk to her properly or hug her, and he’d let her leave after being wronged. He missed her a lot, but he couldn’t let her come.

Chapter 782: Moving Out (3)

Because once she came, he would not be able to control himself.

Now, the project was reaching its deadline. It was a critical moment and he could not leave his post.

This project was not about losing money.

The Bo Group had plenty of money. If it was only about compensation, he would not be so busy that he would not have time to bother about his wife no matter how much money he had to pay. However, this...

Mu Huan woke up completely when she heard him say “alright.” By the time she’d sat up, Bo Junyan had already hung up.

Just as she instinctively wanted to call back and say something, she suddenly felt that she had nothing to say now. Furthermore, he was definitely still very busy.

So in the end, she didn’t call back.

Then, she sat on the bed and stared blankly. She didn’t know what he meant by “alright.”

Was it better for her to move out or what?

It was only when Li Meng shook her that she regained her senses.

“What happened to you?”

Mu Huan returned to her senses and smiled. “Nothing.”

Li Meng did not ask her further. "Let's have breakfast at the canteen. Or would you rather eat outside?"

"Eat at the canteen! Don't want to run outside."

"It's not suitable for you to run outside now. You've become the most popular person in this university town. Now, students from other schools come to our school to see you whenever they have nothing to do. They really want you to dance again.

"In our school alone, didn't the street dance club send their cutest little sister to follow you?" When the street dance club saw Mu Huan's capabilities that night, they insisted that Mu Huan join them. It was useless even if she refused. They seemed to know that Mu Huan was helpless against girls, especially pretty and soft girls. They made their club's most beautiful and cute little girl follow Mu Huan whenever she had the time. It was as if they would not stop until they'd pulled her into the street dance club.

"Aiya, I really can't tell you... Alcohol is indeed not a good thing! I was wrong! I shouldn't have broken my precepts! If it weren't for the fact that my fingers are very useful, I would have really chopped off my hands!" At the thought that she would be surrounded by a group of people wherever she went, and that she could only hide in the laboratory to find silence, Mu Huan was so depressed that she sprawled on the bed with a look of hopelessness!

"It's all my fault. First, I served you wine to break your precepts, and then I asked you to go dance!" Li Meng blamed herself.

At that time, she only wanted Mu Huan to relax and be happy. Who knew that her dance would be so sensational?

"It's your fault. So, how are you going to make it up to me?"

"How about I treat you to a month's worth of food?"

"It's too little. At least three months. Otherwise, I won't be able to recover from my psychological trauma."

Li Meng retorted, "Do you have to be so evil? You're a rich woman, after all!"

"Haven't you heard that the richer you are, the stingier you are?"

"Hehe, who was the one who was admiring herself in the video yesterday? She's so narcissistic! What are you saying to me now? Trauma?"

"Times have changed! Back then, I didn't realize that I would be hurt like I am now," Mu Huan said seriously.

Li Meng broke out in a cold sweat. She felt that there was no way she could win against her!

While Mu Huan was eating, a good-looking male classmate ran up to her.

He was very nervous and looked as if he was at death's door. "Mu Huan, I like you! I really, really like you! I know you're already married, but I still like you. I'll always like you! If you get a divorce one day, please tell me! You must give me a chance!"

Chapter 783: Moving Out (4)

"I will always be the person who loves you the most in this world!" The boy placed roses on her table and ran away.

Mu Huan: "..."

As if influenced by the boy who had just confessed, many boys in the canteen stood up and looked at Mu Huan. As they did not dare to walk up to her and say anything, they shouted from their seats, "Mu Huan! If you get a divorce one day, please tell me! Please give me a chance!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Shit...

The feeling that the whole world was looking forward to her divorce was indescribable. She really wanted to curse!

She didn't want to respond to anything, but if she didn't, it would feel like she was really about to get a divorce.

Hence, she stood up and said, "I'll never get a divorce! My husband is my true love, my true love forever!"

The boys who had just confessed: "..."

Long Feiting: "..."

Gu Chenyi: "..."

Hadn't she completely fallen out with Bo Junyan by moving out of the Bo family residence?

Why was she saying that now?

Were they happy for nothing?

Thinking that they might have been happy for nothing, their faces that had been full of smiles for the past two days darkened.

Both of them knew about the conflict between Mu Huan and Ling Wei in the company. Bo Junyan had asked Mu Huan to apologize, compensated Ling Wei, and even scolded his wife. Under those circumstances, she must have been so utterly disappointed in Bo Junyan that she moved out!

Why was she still so confident that they wouldn't get a divorce?

"It looks like the hopes of some rotten grass are going to be dashed," Long Feiting said sarcastically as he looked at Gu Chenyi.

"You're the one who's disappointed, aren't you? Look at your darkened face. You can't express your true feelings!"

"F*ck! I have a girlfriend! Stop talking nonsense!"

"Heh, everyone knows that you have a girlfriend. That's why they call you a jerk!" Gu Chenyi snorted.

“Gu Chenyi, do you dare to fight me?!”

“Why wouldn’t I dare?!” Gu Chenyi said as he stood up.

“Let’s go!” the two said and left.

Li Meng said, “The two silly sons of the landowner went out to fight.”

Mu Huan: “...”

Other than receiving a call from Bo Junyan in a daze that morning, Mu Huan did not receive any other news from him.

Whenever she had the time, she would think about what he meant by “alright.” Did he mean that it was good that he knew about it, or did he think that it was good for her to move out of the Bo family residence?

She really wanted to ask Bo Junyan about it, but he did not call her again. She did not want to call him again either, because a few days ago, she had called him once even though he was busy. She was afraid of calling him again. Anyway, there would be a day when he would come back to settle things with her after he was done with his work. She would wait for him to finish his work first.

Perhaps it was because she was lost in love that she started to feel proud over her career. Or perhaps it was because she had spent the past few days in the laboratory that the final problem of her experiment was successfully solved by her!

Next, as long as she submitted the experiment report and the professor passed it, her experiment would be completed and she could enter the review stage.

Initially, she had planned to give this new drug to Bo Junyan’s pharmaceutical company to produce. However, she did not know if she would have the chance to do so now. She did not want to think about the worst, but sometimes, she just could not control herself.

Mu Huan and Bo Junyan were married right from the start. All this while, Bo Junyan had always been the one at the top, while Mu Huan was the one who carefully curried favor with him.

Chapter 784: Moving Out (5)

This unequal start allowed them to have feelings for each other, but they were not like normal couples. Because they understood each other and fell in love with each other, the foundation of their feelings was deep.

That was why they were unable to contain their fear, doubt, and worry.

For the past few days, Mu Huan was either in the classroom or in the laboratory. Hence, she did not have time to eat outside. She ate in the canteen. After the experiment was successful, she still ate in the canteen as she was in a hurry to write the experimental report.

“Are you saying that your experiment was a success? You succeeded in that kind of experiment now?” Li Meng widened her eyes in shock. Could she be any more amazing?!

“Yes!” Mu Huan’s face was full of praise for herself! Praise me! Aren’t I super awesome?!

Li Meng immediately said, "You're really awesome! You're awesome! I'm so impressed!"

Just as Mu Huan was about to say something...

All she heard was...

"Gosh! Look!"

"What are you looking at?"

"Quick, watch the TV. Isn't the entrepreneur attending the global summit our Professor Bo?!" The girl pointed at the TV in the cafeteria excitedly.

Because of her loud voice and the fact that almost all the girls in Yun University liked Professor Bo, they immediately looked up when they heard that Professor Bo was on television.

Mu Huan instinctively looked up as well. Then, she saw that her husband was really there! This global summit was this year's biggest international event, and the people attending this summit were all from all over the world...

Such an official broadcast, such a grand international event, and so many important figures, yet it gave her husband a full minute of screen time. It was clear how important he was.

"D*mn! Isn't Professor Bo our teacher? How did he become the president of the Bo Group?!"

"He only teaches one class, and he'll only be around for half a year of classes. Yet he drives a luxury car. The school treats him so special. Do you really think that he's just an ordinary teacher? You're too naive!"

"I've long said that Professor Bo comes from an extraordinary background. He's definitely a rich man! You might not even be able to afford a watch on his wrist even if you spend your entire life earning money, but you still don't believe me!" Back then, they had thought that Bo Junyan was a super-rich person. Now, they could finally hold their heads high!

Others did not believe them when they said that back then. They even doubted themselves when others retorted! Now, the facts proved that they were right!

One look and one could tell that Professor Bo was a rich man who had been in power for a long time!

"You're amazing! I admire you!"

"We were wrong! You're the best!"

"However, Professor Bo is so rich and has such a high status. Why did he come to our school to be a substitute teacher?"

"Who knows!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Her husband was here because of her. He was so busy, yet he was here because of her...

She recalled how much he doted on her, how much he trusted her, and how good he was. Even now, she didn't know that he was going to attend such an important summit. She actually needed someone to shout for her to see him through the television.

Previously, when they were separated by a glass, it was as if they were separated by a world. Now, they were separated by a world that she could not enter.

Mu Huan only knew that Bo Junyan was busy. He was working on a big project, a big project that would affect the rise and fall of the Bo Group!

For the past few days, she had wondered what kind of big project could affect the rise and fall of a company like the Bo Group. After all, the Bo Group was the strongest company in the country. It was really hard to imagine what kind of project could destroy such a strong company.

Chapter 785: So It's That Important (1)

And now, through the press reports, she knew.

She knew what kind of important project it was.

Bo Junyan attended such an important summit forum as an entrepreneur. On the forum, he displayed a new type of environmentally friendly energy. This new energy could replace many industries that required non-renewable energy. It could also save the greatest cost and make the world more environmentally friendly.

After the rapid development of the industrial society, the environmental pollution had become more and more severe. Everyone knew that they could not let the environment continue to deteriorate. Environmental protection was now highly valued in various countries, and waste products had to be strictly classified.

However, some industries needed the polluting energy to produce and maintain business. Without environmental protection, Earth's ecological environment was declining year by year. Environmental protection and closure of factories meant that many people could not survive.

Therefore, environmental protection was a tough battle. It was a problem that was a headache for every country. Although there were many renewable environmentally friendly energy sources, they had certain limitations and could not be popularized.

The new energy source developed by the Bo Group's biotech company had eliminated the shortcomings of the existing environmentally friendly energy sources. Not only was it environmentally friendly and cost-effective, but it could also be widely used and had high performance. It could completely replace most non-renewable or polluting energy sources.

The moment such a new energy source appeared on the summit forum, it immediately attracted the frenzied reporting of various countries' media!

As humans developed, industrial pollution became more and more severe, and some non-renewable energy sources became fewer and fewer. Now, with this new renewable environmentally friendly energy source, the energy that was originally lacking, that was even about to be lost, was no longer scarce and no longer needed to be fought over. This could definitely be described as a blessing for mankind!

(This new energy source is for the plot to highlight the importance of this project. Pure fiction.)

The Bo Group was in charge of the research and development of this new energy source. The G Group supported it and the Ling Group participated in it.

The Bo Group and the Ling Group used to be similar companies, and they had more than forty years of friendship. The biotechnology under the Ling Group was also very outstanding, so Bo Junyan chose to collaborate with the Ling Group back then.

This project wasn't a recent collaboration. They'd worked together years ago, and it would erupt into a busy period in the near future. It was all for this summit. They had to complete all the tests on this new energy source before the summit was held. They had to go through it again and again to be absolutely certain, one hundred percent certain, that nothing could go wrong.

If there was even the slightest mistake, it would not be a matter of losing research and development funds all these years, but...

There would be serious consequences!

Therefore, the closer the deadline was, the busier it would be.

All sorts of data, documents, approval, tests, all sorts of confirmation and relationships. In short, there were many things to do.

Over the past few days, Bo Junyan had been getting an average of one hour of sleep every day.

Ling Wei knew that they would be so busy during this period that Bo Junyan would not have time to care about Mu Huan. Under such circumstances, it was easy for misunderstandings to stack up. As the misunderstandings deepened, she allowed such incidents to erupt one after another.

Working closely with the Bo family, she knew that Bo Junyan's schedule was the best weapon for her.

As for Mu Huan, she did not know anything. It was not that Bo Junyan was not close to her.

Chapter 786: So It's That Important (2)

Instead, as far as Bo Junyan knew, Mu Huan was still very young. Her original life was already very tough, and she didn't understand these work-related matters. It sounded boring, so there was no need for him to tell her all this. As for the itinerary, he wasn't used to telling anyone about it. Even his parents didn't know.

After the television broadcasted the introduction of this new energy source, the cafeteria exploded.

"D*mn! This is too awesome! I know that the Bo Group's biotechnology is top-notch in the country, but I never expected them to develop such a novel renewable energy source! This is too f*cking awesome!" a student yelled in shock.

"It's amazing! If we can promote this new type of energy source, it will be as amazing as in the television shows. This is simply... I can't even describe it!"

“Oh my god! How can our Professor Bo be so amazing!”

“Didn’t they say that Professor Bo is so outstanding that he has a few PhDs? One of them is a PhD in biology!”

“D*mn! He’s so handsome, so rich, and so talented! Such a talented and beautiful person, such a legendary big shot, actually became our teacher! I’m so happy!”

“That’s right! That’s right! I’m so happy! I’m so lucky to be able to meet such a legendary character in such close proximity!”

“No wonder Professor Bo isn’t coming to class and has found someone to substitute for him. He’s actually busy with such an important matter!”

“But why haven’t I heard of such a big research project before? A research project like this should have been reported at the beginning! After all, this is beneficial to the country and the people. It’s the world’s top research project! Especially now that environmental protection is at its highest, this is the birth of a new energy source! This is such an important scientific research project!”

Just as the other students were about to say that they didn’t know, the news on television cleared up their doubts.

This project was a confidential project. All the participants had signed a confidentiality agreement. Not only did outsiders not know about it, but even their families did not know about it. In past cases, reports said that some wives did not even know what their husbands did. This was very common in the scientific research and development world. This was because many of the projects were very confidential. Not a single piece of information was leaked, and it suddenly appeared in one day.

In particular, although the Bo Group was in charge of the research and development of this project, it was also one of the important projects that the G Group was involved in. Back then, the Bo Group had issued a decree. If the project could not be completed by the deadline, or if the project was not perfect and had flaws, there would be some mistakes.

That would lead to serious consequences!

Hence, the senior executives of the Bo Group all said that this was a matter of life and death. If things were done well, the Bo Group would definitely rise to a higher level. If things went wrong, they would all lose their jobs and be done with it.

The more she listened to the reports, the more she realized the importance of this project. If they could not ensure that nothing went wrong before the summit, the consequences would be unimaginable! This was really not something she could bear...

She thought about how she almost delayed such a major event.

Her mood, which had just recovered a little, instantly sank to rock bottom.

At this moment, the camera switched back to the meeting and was pointed at Bo Junyan, who was standing on stage.

For the first time, Mu Huan truly felt the gap between them.

Chapter 787: So It's That Important (3)

The two of them lived in completely different circles. Their levels were worlds apart.

"Xiao Huan, isn't your husband amazing?!" Li Meng exclaimed as she watched the television.

After she finished speaking, she did not hear Mu Huan's reply for a long time.

This made her turn to look at Mu Huan strangely. Then, she saw an expression on Mu Huan's face that she had never seen before.

Mu Huan had always been an outstanding and confident person. Even when her life was at its most difficult, she was optimistic and confident every day.

And now, the expression on her face left her at a loss for words.

She stared blankly at Mu Huan for a while before asking, "Xiao Huan, what's wrong?"

She, who always liked to praise her husband, saw how awesome her husband's company was. This kind of global summit, this kind of novel renewable energy source, this was simply heaven!

Why wasn't she happy? Why wasn't she looking at how awesome her husband was? Why was she looking so serious?

"Wu Xingye must have told you that I did something stupid at Bo Junyan's company," Mu Huan replied.

Li Meng said, "Don't tell me that the stupid thing you did has something to do with this new energy source..."

She sighed. "I almost made him miss this summit."

If the people from the Ling Group had continued to go on strike and the project had not been completed on time, he wouldn't have been able to showcase it like he did at the summit. This kind of scientific research project would get busier and busier as it progressed. When it was being developed, there would be all kinds of approval necessary, and the relevant departments of world-wide organizations would have to confirm it. There were all sorts of things to do.

He was so busy that he couldn't even give her a word or two. He was so busy that he couldn't comfort her or reason with her properly. She thought about how he hadn't rested for days and how she had caused that incident to happen, causing the employees of the Ling Group to go on strike.

This behavior of hers was really causing trouble!

She did... the last thing she wanted to do.

She...

Li Meng: "..."

No wonder she was in such a bad mood this time. It turned out to be such an important matter!

But...

No!

“Did you know that he’s busy with such an important project?” Given Xiao Huan’s sensibility, she would definitely not do anything that would delay that important matter!

“Although I didn’t know that he was busy with such an important project, I could tell that he was really busy. However, I couldn’t control myself.” Even if she didn’t think of it, she...

“If you can tell that he’s very busy, you definitely won’t have created trouble unless it’s something you can’t tolerate!”

Mu Huan: “...”

She could not tolerate it, but even if so, she should have.

“Is it related to Ling Wei? Did she provoke you on purpose?” Li Meng instinctively guessed when she heard that the Ling Group was also involved in this project.

Given Xiao Huan’s character, she would never do anything willful even if she saw Bo Junyan doing ordinary work, let alone if she saw him exceptionally busy. Unless someone provoked her and made her, who had never suffered a loss, unable to tolerate it.

Until now, Ling Wei was the one that she could not tolerate and the one that could make her lose control the most.

“Yeah.”

“You didn’t know the situation, and Ling Wei knew how busy and important the matter was. Yet she provoked you and made you unable to tolerate it. She made you lose control and retaliate against her. If this matter had been delayed, it’d have been her fault, not yours!”

Chapter 788: So It’s That Important (4)

“Perhaps she knew that Bo Junyan had been very busy recently and knew that provoking you under such circumstances would only jeopardize your relationship even more. That’s why she did this!” Li Meng said indignantly.

“Yes.” Mu Huan thought so too.

“In that case, it’s all her fault! Also, her goal is to make you blame yourself and feel bad. She wants to break up your relationship with Bo Junyan. No matter what, you can’t fulfill her wish!” Li Meng said.

“I know.” She knew. Everything.

“Then don’t be like this! This isn’t your fault! That woman is too cunning and despicable! She’s too shameless. She was still in the mood to scheme against you at such a critical moment! She’s too evil!” Li Meng became angrier as she spoke.

“I was in the wrong too. I knew that she had deliberately taken advantage of this opportunity to frame me and make me rash and create trouble, but I still did it on impulse. If I had only done what I did in the beginning, it wouldn’t have gone wrong. I would have continued to be stubborn after Bo Junyan talked to me like that...”

At that time, she had been too impulsive. She should have thought about it more. Perhaps she could have thought of a better solution.

“After he talked to you? After he told you how important things were?”

“Although he didn’t say what project it was, he did say that he was very busy and told me to wait until this project was over.”

“It’s all his fault! If he’d told you directly what was happening and how important it was, then no matter what, you definitely wouldn’t have done anything!” Li Meng knew Mu Huan too well, so she trusted her unconditionally and brainlessly.

“Our communication is really not on point. He doesn’t tell me anything. It’s often something that others know, but I don’t. Others would know his schedule and whereabouts, but I won’t.” The two of them really lacked communication. He didn’t tell her anything.

Ling Wei was able to create misunderstandings between her and Bo Junyan time and time again because she knew about Bo Junyan’s schedule or because she knew about it in advance. This way, she could arrange things in advance and catch Mu Huan off guard.

And Mu Huan knew nothing.

“This is the drawback of you guys suddenly becoming husband and wife. You guys got married before you even understood each other. There must be some friction between your temperaments. Everything will be fine after you slowly understand each other!” Li Meng comforted.

“Xiao Huan, don’t be like this. Don’t let Ling Wei, that shameless villain, get what she wants!” Li Meng could not bear to see her so listless. She was just perfect!

“I know.”

“Then cheer up!”

“I’m fine. I’m just feeling disgusted with myself. I’ll be fine in a while.” Mu Huan knew everything, but she couldn’t take it that she was feeling disgusted with herself. After all, even if someone were to plot against you, it would only be because you weren’t careful enough. In the future, she would have to be more careful when she encountered things.

“You don’t have to look down on yourself. Your starting point is different, and you’re ten years younger than Ling Wei. To put it bluntly, there are some things that you can’t compare to. It’s just like how she can never compare to your youth!” Li Meng was naturally able to say anything given her relationship with Mu Huan.

“I know.”

“If you know, then cheer up! We’re all unkillable cockroaches!”

“Why a cockroach when it’s so disgusting?” Mu Huan asked in disdain.

“Don’t people always describe strong people as unkillable cockroaches?”

Just as Li Meng was teasing her to divert Mu Huan's thoughts...

Chapter 789: So It's That Important (5)

The image on the dining hall television changed and started broadcasting. After the summit ended, Bo Junyan and Ling Wei attended the nation's highest-level banquet. Although the Ling Group was only a participant in this research and development project, they were considered partners. Hence, Bo Junyan and Ling Wei attended the banquet together.

Western etiquette required a female companion to hold her male companion's arm as they entered the banquet hall. The television was currently broadcasting the scene of Ling Wei holding Bo Junyan's arm as they walked the red carpet into the banquet hall.

There was another uproar in the canteen!

"Isn't that Professor Ling?!"

"It's Professor Ling!"

"Wow! I didn't expect Professor Ling to be so amazing! She also participated in developing this new energy source!"

"Isn't she a doctor? Why is she also the vice-president of the Ling Group? Can she be more outstanding?"

"As expected of my goddess! She's so outstanding!"

"Previously, I thought that Professor Bo and Professor Ling were a good match. Now, they look even better together!"

"That's right! That's right! How can they be so compatible? I think they're a match made in heaven. They're a perfect match made in heaven!"

"Previously, Professor Bo said that Professor Ling is not his wife but his relative. His wife is prettier and better than Professor Ling. However, I really didn't expect that there would be a woman more beautiful and better than Professor Ling in this world!"

"Yes, yes, I didn't expect it! I didn't expect it!"

"Even if she's prettier than Professor Ling, she's definitely not as outstanding as Professor Ling!"

"Yes, yes, yes! Professor Ling is the most outstanding and capable goddess I've ever seen!"

"I can only say that you are inexperienced!" Li Meng could not help but stand up and rebuke the other party loudly. What could one do when it was their imagination that was lacking!

"Fine, you've got a lot of experience!" The person who had been rebuked by her knew that her relationship with Mu Huan was especially good and that she was not to be trifled with. Hence, if she was willing to say this, then they'd let her say it. It didn't matter.

"You..." Li Meng was exasperated.

No matter what kind of person Ling Wei was, no one could deny that her appearance, background, and aura made her look like someone from the same world as Bo Junyan. They looked very compatible!

No matter how unwilling Li Meng was, she could not deny this.

Sometimes, things were like that. There were many outstanding people in this world.

It was just that there were some people who were even more outstanding. Some people were born good. But while God had given some of them many wonderful things, they would only become worse and worse.

It was as if someone could turn the tables and become a god while someone else could play the cards badly!

All of this stemmed from a person's heart, whether it was good or bad.

A good person would do many good things. Even if the people you helped did not repay you, very few people would harm you. However, if evil people did too many bad things, they would have many enemies. Retribution would eventually come.

"Xiao Huan..." Li Meng looked at Mu Huan worriedly.

She was already in low spirits and blamed herself for what she had done. Now that she saw this scene, she must feel even worse!

"I'm fine," Mu Huan replied with a faint smile.

"Don't force a smile. You don't have to do this with me." Li Meng's heart ached.

"I'm not forcing a smile. It's really nothing to me to see such a scene." After this incident, Mu Huan had thought a lot about it. Despite seeing this kind of etiquette-related interaction, she really didn't feel much anymore. She wouldn't let herself be so agitated and childish anymore.

Chapter 790: So It's That Important (6)

Again and again, as the enemy wished.

He was hers. Ling Wei couldn't take him away no matter what. If he wasn't hers, everything she did would be in vain.

When it came to relationships, as long as she gave her heart, she would not think about anything else. She really did not want to live such a day of fear, unease, and dread anymore!

She wouldn't let herself do that again.

After putting everything on the line, it was her fortune to have obtained it, but it was her fate if she were to lose it.

When Li Meng heard this, not only did she not heave a sigh of relief, she even said nervously, "Xiao Huan, are you going along with Ling Wei's plan and not caring about God Bo anymore and wanting to give up on him?!"

“No. As long as my husband still wants me, I will never give up on him. I just learned how to balance.” If she could not balance that strong emotion, it would only make her fall for provocations and be made to do stupid things.

Li Meng: “...”

“Alright, stop thinking about it. Let’s eat. After dinner, I’ll rush back to write the experimental report,” Mu Huan said.

Li Meng wanted to say something, but Mu Huan was smarter than her. She understood everything that Mu Huan said. Mu Huan could think things through and analyze them better than Li Meng could. Hence, whatever the latter said was useless, so she did not say anything else.

The two of them wanted to focus on eating.

Long Feiting and Gu Chenyi walked toward them.

Recently, the two silly sons of the landowner were often together.

“Xiao Huan, did you see that?” Long Feiting asked first.

Mu Huan looked up at them but did not say anything. She lowered her head and continued eating.

Seeing that she was still in the mood to eat, Long Feiting couldn’t help but say, “You’re still in the mood to eat at a time like this! You’re being blatantly made a cuckold of! Don’t you feel that even your breath is emitting green gas?”

Mu Huan: “...”

Why didn’t he just say that there were thousands of horses galloping on her head?

“Xiao Huan, can you tolerate my uncle and Ling Wei’s behavior?” Gu Chenyi asked.

“What’s to tolerate? Isn’t it just arm-holding? That’s just God Bo’s gentlemanly manners!” Although Li Meng thought that Long Feiting was not bad, she still sided with her idol, God Bo.

“Gentleman my ass! Let me show you this!” As he spoke, Long Feiting tossed a stack of newspapers to Mu Huan. They were foreign newspapers, and they were reporting on Bo Junyan and Ling Wei.

“Mu Huan, you can understand these English words, right?!”

Mu Huan: “...”

“Come, take a good look at these places that I’ve circled.” Long Feiting pointed at the place that he had circled with a red pen.

“Do you need me to translate it for you?”

“Do it. I can’t read it,” Mu Huan’s friend said.

Long Feiting: “...”

Was he talking to her?

However, he still said, "The general meaning of these words is that the reporters asked Bo Junyan if he had a wife. Bo Junyan said that his wedding date was approaching. He clearly got married a long time ago, so why did he say that his wedding date was approaching? He made these foreign reporters think that he was going to marry Ling Wei because there were reports in the past that Bo Junyan and Ling Wei were engaged! Look, these reports are all saying that Bo Junyan and Ling Wei's wedding date is approaching!"

"How can they say that? There's no cuckolding going on! God Bo didn't say that his and Ling Wei's wedding date was approaching! This was clearly written by those media outlets! Aren't the media best at writing such things?! They make up what they don't know to be true!" Li Meng felt that the media nowadays were too good at reporting blindly and would often start making things up without any evidence.

One picture could start it all, but the rest were all fabrications!

"That's because Bo Junyan gave them the wrong idea. I think that since he developed a new energy source, that made him even more impressive. That's why his thoughts have turned in a bad direction."
