

Fake Marriage 791

Chapter 791: So It's That Important (7)

"Isn't it said that when one reaches middle-age, it's a joyous occasion? A promotion, a fortune, and a new wife? This middle-aged man is about to make a fortune, so he hid his married status and wants to move on to a new wife!" Long Feiting snorted coldly.

Gu Chenyi added, "That's possible! A man is concerned about things' freshness. Xiao Huan, you must have exceeded your shelf life. He wants to replace you before your expiration date!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Aren't you guys men? You're already slandering all men.

She did not say anything. She lowered her head and continued eating. She quickly ate her fill and left.

That was because the surrounding students were already looking at their table.

Although she had found a corner and told others that she did not like being surrounded by so many people and that there were no other classmates around her, the two of them rushing over like this attracted too much attention. It was hard not to notice their table.

She did not want anyone to know that she and Bo Junyan were husband and wife at this point in time, as it would attract more attention.

"Why are you..." Long Feiting wanted to say, "Why are you still in the mood to eat?!" However, he realized that she was in the mood to eat because she did not care! It was only because she did not care that she was in the mood to eat even after seeing such news!

At the thought of this, his mood brightened.

"Let's go get food!" he said as he wrapped his arms around Gu Chenyi's neck.

Gu Chenyi seemed to have thought of this too. He did not say anything else and followed him to get food.

The two of them had wanted to continue chatting with Mu Huan after getting their meals, but when they returned, they realized that Mu Huan had disappeared.

The two of them were no longer in the mood to eat. However, they still had to eat. Hence, they sat at the table where Mu Huan was sitting earlier.

Long Feiting suddenly sighed and said, "Sigh, you really can't judge a book by its cover."

Thinking that he was referring to his uncle, Gu Chenyi replied, "Yes."

"What the f*ck are you saying? I'm lamenting that you have a human face but a beast's heart!"

"You're the one with the heart of a beast!" Gu Chenyi rolled his eyes at him.

"Look at you. Your uncle treats you so well, yet you're trying to poach something of his while he's busy. You're so immoral and have let your uncle down. Doesn't your conscience hurt? If your behavior isn't beastly, what's it called?" Although Long Feiting didn't want Mu Huan to be with Bo Junyan, he didn't want her to be with Gu Chenyi either!

Gu Chenyi, this rotten grass, was not worthy of Mu Huan.

Hence, he wanted to dig deeper into Gu Chenyi's guilt and make him feel guilty!

But who knew...

"Xiao Huan is mine to begin with!" He was not trying to poach her. He just wanted her back!

"D*mn, who gave you such a misconception? Why do you think Xiao Huan is yours to begin with?"

"Why do you care what I think? You don't even like her, so why are you being so nosy?" Gu Chenyi asked.

"Mu Huan and I are good friends now. Her matters are my matters. A rotten weed like you is not worthy of her. I advise you to give up on her and stop having any thoughts about her!" Long Feiting snorted coldly.

"Heh..." Gu Chenyi gave him a cold smile. "Xiao Huan hasn't divorced my uncle yet, and you're already attacking your love rival. Aren't you taking action a little too early?!"

Before crossing the river, he wanted to tear down all the bridges. Was he stupid?

Chapter 792: So It Was That Important (8)

"I'm just advising you out of goodwill to give up on those thoughts that you shouldn't have. You won't stand a chance!"

"You don't have to worry about whether I stand a chance or not!" Gu Chenyi snorted.

Just a moment ago, the two of them had been very cooperative. Now, they had fallen out with each other again. Nothing could end faster than their friendship!

After Mu Huan left the canteen, she went to the laboratory to write an experimental report. This was written late into the night.

During this period, she looked at her phone many times, but there were no calls or messages she wanted to see.

The television program at the canteen was not a live broadcast. In other words, Bo Junyan had already attended the summit and banquet yesterday. Was he still so busy that he did not even have time to make a call today?

Realizing that she was thinking that way again, Mu Huan stopped herself in time.

Just as she was about to take back her phone and return to the dormitory to sleep...

Her phone rang. This made her so excited that she almost threw her phone out, but...

When she saw the caller ID, her excitement instantly froze.

It wasn't Bo Junyan. It was Liu Changfeng.

She stared at her phone for a few seconds before answering.

“I’m sorry. I forgot that it’s late at night in China. Sorry for disturbing you. Go back to sleep. We’ll talk tomorrow.” When Liu Changfeng’s call was picked up, he realized that they were in different timezones. It was already late at night in China.

“No, I’m not asleep yet. I was just writing something,” Mu Huan replied.

“I asked about the test for you. You’re only in your first year of university, so you definitely don’t have enough knowledge. Even if I asked you to study ahead, you wouldn’t be able to finish reading so many books in a short period of time. Therefore, the director said that the test for you doesn’t require too much professional knowledge. He wants to test your intelligence, as well as your talent in pharmaceutical studies. I’m not too sure about the details, but in short, you don’t need to read books. It’s a test of your personal ability.

“Oh right, the director also said that because you’re Song Zhiwen’s granddaughter and you’re still young, as long as you score 25 points, you can enter NST! When the time comes, he’ll get someone to groom you.”

Over the past few days, Liu Changfeng had found a group of people who were good at Chinese medicine. However, the suitable ones belonged to the national treasure league of professors. They could not be dug up, and it was useless to dig out the unsuitable ones. Therefore, Mu Huan was the most suitable candidate at the moment.

He had already met her husband. If she could pass the assessment, he should be able to convince them to migrate.

Mu Huan: “...”

Twenty-five points was enough... How difficult was this test? How high was the value?

“When is the assessment?”

“Because your situation is special, they still need to prepare the questions. When the director is done preparing the questions, I will inform you.” In the past, the NST entrance examination required very professional questions, so the questions in the question bank were all professional-level questions. As for her, if she was not required to test in a professional capacity, she would have to answer another set of questions.

“Okay.”

Just as Mu Huan was about to hang up...

Liu Changfeng smiled and said, “I saw your Moments yesterday. You dance really well. If you can’t get into NST, you can contact me anytime if you want to enter the entertainment industry. With my connections, I can definitely make you famous!”

“Thank you for your kind intentions, but I want to become a handsome woman in the scientific research field. I won’t go to the entertainment industry to steal food.”

“If you enter the scientific research world, you will really become its idol!” Liu Changfeng had seen experts and professors before. Most of them were middle-aged or old. Even if there were exceptionally talented young scientists, none of them were particularly good-looking.

Chapter 793: So It's That Important (9)

If Mu Huan could enter NST, with so many old professors teaching her, her improvement would definitely be rapid. This would also bring forward the age of her achievements by a lot. She might even be able to win an international award before the age of 30. When that time came, she would stand with a group of middle-aged and elderly scientists to receive an award. She would definitely be the most handsome person in the scientific research field!

If Mu Huan knew that he was comparing her looks with the middle-aged and elderly scientists, she would probably vomit blood.

As he did not know if Mu Huan could pass the assessment, Liu Changfeng did not say anything else.

The next day...

Mu Huan was woken up by her phone ringing. She reached for her phone and saw that it was her father.

“What’s wrong...” As she was woken up, her tone was full of sleepiness.

“Why are you still in the mood to sleep?!” Mu Dongsheng’s anxious voice came through the phone.

“Why should I not be in the mood to sleep?” She had stayed up late last night to finish writing the experiment report and was about to die from exhaustion. Why wouldn’t she sleep?

“You’re about to lose your husband, yet you’re still capable of sleeping!” Mu Dongsheng was really worried for his daughter.

“Hubby is mine and can’t run away. If he’s not mine, it’s useless even if I insist on keeping him.” Mu Huan thought that he had called because he had seen the television report yesterday.

“How can you say it so lightly! You have to do something! Especially since it’s your fault this time! I’m not criticizing you, but no matter how much you dislike Ling Wei and think that she wants to snatch your husband, you can’t go to the company to cause trouble! Don’t you know that men hate it the most when women go to their company to cause trouble? You used to be so smart, but why have you become so stupid now?!”

Could it be that everyone in love would have zero IQ? His daughter was such a smart person, yet she did such a thing!

Mu Huan narrowed her eyes. “How did you know that I went to Bo Junyan’s company to cause trouble?” She did not tell him about this! He could not get in touch with the Bo family, so how did he know?

“I’m not the only one who knows about it. The entire upper-class circle in Yun Cheng knows about it now! At such a critical time, you went to Bo Junyan’s company to create a ruckus and even attacked Ling Wei. You went too far and caused all the employees of the Ling Group to go on strike. If Ling Wei hadn’t looked at the bigger picture and insisted on working, Bo Junyan would have been finished this time!”

Mu Huan did not need to ask around to know how this matter had reached him. The person who had sent the news to him was currently sitting at his house, listening to his call.

Mu Huan's eyes turned colder. It seemed that someone had deliberately spread the news. Just as she was about to say something...

Mu Dongsheng continued, "However, you said that Bo Junyan doted on you so much in the past. He didn't hesitate to believe you when it came to your bed photos. He even went to deal with his grandfather because of you. Why would he be angry at you and chase you out of the Bo family?"

"I wasn't chased out. I've been staying at the campus for a few days because of the experiment." Rumor had it that she was chased out of the Bo family. Ha...

"Why are you still thinking of experimenting at a time like this?! Are your brains fried?!" Mu Dongsheng did not know what she was thinking. Why was she still in the mood to experiment at this time?!

Mu Huan: "..."

Mu Dongsheng continued, "Oh, right. I also heard that Bo Junyan was angry with you before you went to the office to cause trouble. He hasn't been home for a few days and said that he might not want you anymore. That's why you went to the office to cause trouble. What happened between the two of you? Weren't things so good previously?"

Chapter 794: Conflict (1)

Mu Dongsheng had no idea that Bo Junyan had found out about Mu Huan beating up people.

"You don't have to worry about this." Mu Huan did not want to tell him too much.

"What do you mean by that?! I'm your biological father! How can I not care about you?!" he retorted angrily.

Mu Huan mocked, "You can even ignore me when I was still young, but now I'm already so old. You really don't have to care about me anymore."

"You child, how can you speak like that? Although I..." Mu Dongsheng choked on his words.

Mu Huan felt a headache coming on when she heard this. Just then, Mu Dongsheng added, "If you don't tell me the reason and don't let me think of a solution with you, I'll go to school tomorrow to look for you. I'll stay by your side until you're willing to tell me!"

Mu Dongsheng could not allow Mu Huan to divorce Bo Junyan no matter what, because the Mu family's hospital was currently being managed by Bo Junyan's men. He did not need to care about anything and only had endless money to spend every day.

If Bo Junyan were to divorce his daughter, no one would be able to take care of the hospital. The Mu family's hospital might be finished by him before Mu Zixuan grew up. Hence, he had to know the reason and think carefully about what to do!

No matter what, he had to keep Bo Junyan as his son-in-law!

Mu Huan knew that he was someone who would really come if he said it out loud. She did not want him to bother her so much, so she simply told him about how she was discovered by Bo Junyan when she saved Li Meng that day.

“What?! You actually let Bo Junyan discover your true colors and know that you’re not a docile and obedient person! No wonder Bo Junyan was so angry with you all of a sudden. No wonder he trusted you when it came to bed photos, but because of this, he doesn’t want you anymore!

“You actually let him see your true colors! He wants a docile and obedient wife, but you’re that kind of person. How can he still want you when you’re like this?! Why are you so careless?!” Mu Dongsheng reprimanded.

Mu Huan tightened her grip on the phone. “If there’s nothing else, then I’m hanging up!”

She did not want to hear such words again!

“What do you mean by you’re hanging up if there’s nothing else?! How can you act like nothing happened after something like this happened?! You have to do something!” She was about to become an abandoned woman, yet she was still in the mood to sleep!

“I’ve done all I can do. All I can do is wait.” She’d done all she could.

“Wait? Let me tell you, if you just wait, the only thing you can wait for is to be kicked out of the house!” She actually didn’t want to beg for forgiveness and just slept here!

“If that’s the case, then that’s the only way.”

“What do you mean it can only be like this?! Hurry up and go find Bo Junyan. No matter what you do, you have to take him down!”

Mu Dongsheng continued, “I told you before not to do so many things! Don’t do it. The most important thing for you is to quickly give birth to a child for Bo Junyan. Only then will your position be stable. After you give birth, even if your true colors are revealed and Bo Junyan doesn’t want you anymore, you’ll still get a large sum of alimony.”

“With a child as your bond, you’ll be able to get benefits from Bo Junyan for the rest of your life! You refused to listen and insisted on doing these things yourself. How much money can you earn from those part-time jobs of yours? For those things, you let Bo Junyan discover your true colors! You’re so stupid!”

Mu Dongsheng was so angry that he started cursing.

He felt that his daughter was really stupid sometimes!

Chapter 795: Conflict (2)

“I don’t need to get money from him! I can rely on myself! I’m not like you, who would exchange a child for money!” Mu Huan said coldly.

“You don’t need to get money from him? You can depend on yourself? Mu Huan, why did you marry Bo Junyan? Have you forgotten so quickly? You can’t even earn enough money for your granny’s surgery, yet you’re telling me that you can rely on yourself? Don’t make others laugh!”

Mu Huan's hand turned even whiter.

"Bo Junyan's status is that of a man who's busy with his career, and he only got a wife so that she can give birth to a child obediently. Firstly, you don't want to give birth now, and secondly, you're disobedient! A person like you wouldn't be wanted even by a normal man, let alone by Bo Junyan!

"Let me tell you, you're making even more mistakes now. You have to use all your skills to beg for his forgiveness!"

"You don't have to worry about me!" Mu Huan said as she hung up the phone. She did not want to hear his words anymore.

After she hung up the phone, Mu Dongsheng quickly called again, but Mu Huan did not pick up. If he called again, her phone would be turned off.

When Mu Dongsheng could not get through to her on the phone, he came to school to look for her. As he had never cared about her, he only knew what faculty she was in and which class she was in, so he stopped a boy and asked if he knew about her.

When the boy heard that Mu Dongsheng was Mu Huan's father and had come to school to look for her, he immediately brought Mu Dongsheng to Mu Huan's class enthusiastically. When they reached the door, he shouted, "Mu Huan, your father is here for you!"

Instantly, the entire class looked up, wanting to see what kind of person Mu Huan's father was. Mu Dongsheng was a very handsome person, and this made Mu Huan's classmates instantly have a good impression of him. The girl sitting behind Mu Huan even tugged at her arm. "Xiao Huan, your father is so handsome!"

"What's so handsome about him? He's an actual son of a b*tch!" As she spoke, she put down the book in her hand, stood up, and walked out. She dragged Mu Dongsheng to a hidden corner. "I've already said that you don't have to bother about my matters! Why are you still looking for me?!"

Mu Dongsheng dared to put on airs as a father over the phone and dared to say anything he wanted. When he faced Mu Huan directly, his arrogance could not help but disappear. "Xiao Huan, Dad is doing this for your own good."

"Cut it out. You're so concerned about whether Bo Junyan and I can continue. It's not because you want to get benefits from Bo Junyan, but because you're afraid that if no one takes care of the Mu family's hospital, you'll lose it all!" Mu Huan sneered.

Mu Dongsheng broke out in a sweat. "Dad is thinking for your own good. It's good for you and Bo Junyan to continue being together. It's good for everyone!"

Without waiting for Mu Huan to say anything, he smiled apologetically and said, "Dad knows. Dad's words were too harsh. I was too anxious just now and expected better from you! I know my daughter is very capable!"

"If it weren't for your grandma, you wouldn't have ended up like this. Besides, you're still so young. Other children, like you, don't do anything at home. Their parents serve them well. All that's asked of them is to focus on their studies and get into university. You've already been taking care of your granny for three years. With such a family dragging you down, and with you being young, you won't be able to do anything no matter how capable you are...

"At the end of the day, it's all Dad's fault for being useless! If I had been more useful, you wouldn't have had such a tough life!" Mu Dongsheng said with a look of self-reproach.

Chapter 796: Conflict (3)

"If I had prevented you from worrying about your life and allowed you to focus all your energy on your studies, you would have soared into the sky..."

Mu Dongsheng tried to put in a good word for her.

"That's enough. You don't have to worry that no one will care about the Mu family's hospital when the time comes. If Bo Junyan and I really reach that stage, I'll take over the Mu family's hospital and not let you worry. You don't have to be afraid that I won't return it to your son when the time comes. I, Mu Huan, will definitely not want anything that I say I don't want. When he comes of age, I'll hand the hospital over for him to manage."

"It's not that I don't believe you, but you're still so young. You..."

"I understand. I'll do my best. You can go back now!" Mu Huan did not want to say anything more to him.

"You have to do your best, especially when Bo Junyan comes back. You have to do everything you can to beg for his forgiveness. Otherwise, I'll come and bother you every day!" Mu Dongsheng's face was full of determination. If you don't work hard, I'll come and bother you!

The corner of Mu Huan's mouth twitched at the sight of him. If it had been anyone else, she would have beaten him until he wouldn't dare appear in front of her again.

Suddenly, Mu Dongsheng thought of a solution and said, "Xiao Huan, when Junyan comes back, apologize first and then swear that you'll be obedient from now on. You won't do what he doesn't like you to do. You'll do whatever he wants you to do!

"If he wants a gentle and obedient wife, you'll become a gentle and obedient wife going forward! Having money that can't be spent in a lifetime is the most important. Don't be so stubborn! Also, regarding Ling Wei, don't pick a fight with her anymore. As long as Bo Junyan doesn't divorce you, he can do whatever he wants with her.

"A man, especially if he's a rich man, is never in want of a wife. Most of the time, he has a few other women on the side. Even if he doesn't have one now, he will definitely have one in the future. You have to learn to turn a blind eye to it. Don't be so jealous and take it seriously. Take care of him, especially. You're not allowed to cause trouble at the company in the future!"

"Mu Dongsheng, you'd better leave immediately. Also, don't come to school to look for me again. Don't test my limits! I can do anything now!"

He was her biological father, but he could actually say such words! If she heard him say another word, she would not be able to control the urge to throw him out!

“You child...” Mu Dongsheng still wanted to say something, but under Mu Huan’s dangerous aura, he turned around and ran away with his tail tucked!

Mu Huan felt a headache coming on as she watched him leave. She pinched her brows before getting up to return to the classroom.

When she arrived at the classroom, her classmates were all discussing something.

Just as she moved closer to see what they were talking about, Li Meng stopped her. “Xiao Huan, let’s go out and buy something to eat!”

Mu Huan turned to look at her. “Class is starting soon. What are you going to buy to eat?”

“I’m a little hungry, and next period isn’t an important class. Let’s not attend. It’s been a long time since we went shopping. Let’s go shopping!” Li Meng said as she hugged her, wanting to go out with her.

“What’s the matter? Can’t I see what they’re looking at?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow.

Li Meng: “...”

Was she that obvious?

As if reading her mind, Mu Huan smiled and said, “Your behavior is indeed very obvious.”

Li Meng: “...”

At this moment, a classmate said, “I don’t understand! I don’t understand! Professor Bo clearly said that he has a wife and it’s not Professor Ling. Why is he getting married to Professor Ling now?”

Chapter 797: Conflict (4)

“That’s right! Back then, Professor Bo said that his wife was even better and prettier than Professor Ling. He said it so sincerely. How is he suddenly marrying Professor Ling?”

“Could it be that Professor Bo said that in order to avoid arousing suspicion? Actually, Professor Ling is his wife. However, they haven’t held a wedding yet, so they haven’t announced it to the public. Now that they’re about to hold a wedding, they’re telling the public that the wedding is coming?”

“That’s possible. After all, Professor Bo had just arrived and Professor Ling came right after! If Professor Bo didn’t come for Professor Ling, how could there be such a coincidence? It must be because Professor Bo knew that Professor Ling was coming to the school for a project, so he followed her here to be a teacher for a semester.”

“Also, look at the newspaper. Their posture is so intimate! They look like a happy couple about to get married!” a girl said, pointing at the newspaper.

Upon hearing this, Mu Huan went forward to read the girl’s newspaper. Li Meng tugged at her to stop her from reading it.

“I’ll be fine.” She smiled at her, then withdrew her hand and went to borrow the newspaper from the girl.

Seeing that she wanted to read it, the girl hurriedly passed the newspaper to Mu Huan. Yesterday, Long Feiting had shown Mu Huan the newspaper of the foreign media. Today, it was a domestic newspaper. Today, the headline of the newspaper was about Bo Junyan and Ling Wei. The cover photo was of Ling Wei holding Bo Junyan's arm as they walked the red carpet to attend the banquet.

This photo was taken very well. It was a photo of the two of them laughing at everything the other said. It looked even more exciting than yesterday's news report! The two of them looked so compatible with each other. Their smiles were so loving that even Mu Huan felt like they were a couple.

"I think there's no smoke without fire. There are so many newspapers and media outlets reporting about their wedding date. It must be about their wedding. Otherwise, why would they be reporting about it like this?!"

"Also, think about it. Previous reports have said that this or that celebrity was together with someone. After the reports came out, the parties denied it. In the end, those celebrities still got together. If there were rumors of divorce, in the end, the parties definitely got divorced! For such reports to come out, there must be such rumors!"

"Yes! Yes, yes! That's what happened. Otherwise, why would all the major websites and media be reporting about this?! Also, they said that after the two of them get married, the Bo and Ling families will merge. With such huge benefits, they must be getting married!"

Just as Li Meng was about to say something, Mu Huan stopped her.

"Xiao Huan!" Li Meng looked at her worriedly.

Mu Huan, on the other hand, didn't think much of it. This kind of trick, once, twice, thrice, was always used. Even if they weren't annoyed, she was. So what if the whole world felt that Bo Junyan and Ling Wei were getting married? Not to mention that it might not be true, even if it was, she wouldn't be able to stop Bo Junyan from marrying Ling Wei, nor would she block it.

This man, if his heart was with you, no matter how the rumors spread, no matter how they reported it, you don't have to care because he will eventually return to your side.

If his heart was no longer with you, whatever you say or do would be useless. It was better to sleep than to have so little time.

She no longer wanted to panic, be afraid, worried, and anxious.

That'd just make you stupid. As a person, you just have to work hard and do your best.

"Don't talk about this. Let's go to class," Mu Huan said as she returned to her seat and sat down, continuing to read.

Chapter 798: Conflict (5)

Seeing that her reaction was completely different from before, Li Meng whispered, "Xiao Huan, are you really going to give up on Master Bo?"

“No. I’m just a little tired. I don’t want to focus on any of this anymore.” What was the point of worrying and feeling uneasy because of all this anxiety? It didn’t help anything. She might as well read more books and learn more.

Li Meng: “...”

After school in the afternoon, Mu Huan and Li Meng were stopped by two bodyguards in black on their way back to the dormitory.

“Ms. Mu, Old Master wants to see you.”

“What old man?” Mu Huan looked up.

The bodyguard in black was stunned, as if he did not expect her to ask such a question.

“Mr. Bo’s grandfather.”

“Oh.” Mu Huan looked at Li Meng. “Go back first. I’ll be back soon.”

“Okay.” Li Meng returned to the dormitory first.

Mu Huan was brought to a villa not far from Yun University by the men in black. When she entered, Old Master Meng was sitting on the sofa watching television. The news of yesterday’s global summit was playing on the television.

“Come, sit here and take a good look.” Old Master Meng patted the seat beside him for Mu Huan to take a look.

Without a word, Mu Huan walked over and sat down.

After she sat down, a maid came over with tea. When she placed the teacup on the coffee table next to Mu Huan, she accidentally spilled tea on Mu Huan. The other party hurriedly picked up a napkin and wanted to help Mu Huan wipe it, but Mu Huan did not let her wipe it. Instead, she took the napkin and wiped it herself.

After the maid bowed and apologized repeatedly, she left.

Mu Huan accompanied Old Master Meng as he watched the summit to see Bo Junyan and Ling Wei attend the banquet.

In the end, the image of Ling Wei holding Bo Junyan’s arm and the two of them smiling so beautifully was captured.

Mu Huan raised an eyebrow. She knew that the old man would not let go of such a good opportunity.

When she heard that all the major media outlets in the country were reporting that Bo Junyan and Ling Wei were getting married, she knew that the Old Master was behind this. Now, he even stopped the video here. Was he afraid that she would not know that he had manipulated the media?

“How did you feel when you saw the last scene?”

“I feel that you’re too boring, Grandpa. From the very beginning, you’ve been using such photos to attack me. In the middle, you used them again, and now, you’re using them again. Once, twice, thrice.

You're always using these photos that are taken from angles. This is very boring. I don't even feel anything when I look at them." This was how Mu Huan felt after looking through all these.

Old Master Meng: "...!!!"

"Shouldn't you feel inferior and think that you're not good enough for Junyan after seeing such news?"

Mu Huan lowered her eyes, her long eyelashes hiding her thoughts. "I don't feel that way at all. I'm such a young and beautiful girl. She's so old, so I don't feel like I've lost out."

"Shallow! Youth and appearance are only temporary! Only talent is eternal! Look at yourself compared to Ling Wei. How can you compare to her?"

"I think I can even compare to that."

"Who gave you such confidence?"

"Born with it."

Old Master Meng laughed in anger. "This is the first time I've seen someone like you in my life!"

Mu Huan did not say anything. If she were to criticize others, she would criticize them because she didn't know them in person. However, he was an elder. Even if he did not treat her as family, he was still her husband's family.

Old Master Meng felt that it was impossible to make her feel inferior, so he said, "Now that you know the importance of this project, don't you think you should do something?"

Chapter 799: Conflict (6)

"Do what?" Mu Huan's face was filled with confusion.

"Leave Junyan! A woman like you who doesn't see the big picture is not worthy of Junyan!"

"I can't do that." She knew that this was what he wanted her to do.

Old Master Meng said, "You can't do it? You almost destroyed the company and the livelihood of so many people. If I were you, I would be so ashamed that I couldn't live on! You still have the cheek to want to continue being with Junyan!"

Mu Huan remained silent.

"Don't tell me that you don't blame yourself or feel guilty at all for almost ruining such an important incident?"

Her hands clenched at her sides. "No remorse. No guilt."

"I've never seen someone as heartless and shameless as you!" Old Master Meng slammed his walking stick angrily.

"However, it makes sense. Why would someone like you, who is with Junyan for money, care about the life and death of the Bo Group? At most, when the Bo Group falls, you can use your body and your youthful beauty to find other rich people," Old Master Meng said with disdain.

“Grandpa, is there anything else? If there’s nothing else, I’ll be going back to the dormitory,” Mu Huan said as she stood up and walked out.

“I knew someone like you, who comes from a humble family, has no manners. You stood up and left before your elders finished talking.” Old Master Meng became even more disgusted.

“Yes, I’m quite uneducated,” Mu Huan admitted with a nod.

Old Master Meng was speechless.

“Do you have any sense of shame?” She admitted that she was uneducated and was not ashamed at all! It was as if she was proud of her lack of manners!

“No.”

Old Master Meng: “...!!!”

The butler standing beside Old Master Meng was speechless.

“Mu Huan, do you know who you’re talking to?!” Old Master Meng knocked hard on the floor.

“I’m talking to you, Grandpa.” Mu Huan’s face showed that she knew who she was talking to.

“Have you revealed your true colors and completely given up on yourself?” Previously, she had been so respectful and ingratiating to him. She clearly knew that he did not like her and wanted to deal with her, yet she still tried to get into his good books. No matter how he said things, it was as if she couldn’t understand him. It was as if she could not hear him. Now, she was acting like a dead pig that was not afraid of boiling water!

“Yes, I’ve completely given up on myself.” Some people won’t like you, no matter what you do. She was tired.

Old Master Meng couldn’t stand her like this. “A person like you isn’t worthy of Junyan. You’d better leave him on your own!”

“I’m a very ignorant person.”

Old Master Meng: “...!!!”

The butler was speechless.

This Young Madam was really a thorn that was hard to deal with.

“Grandpa, to be honest, I’m really tired facing you like this. I know that you won’t like me no matter what, and I know that you want Bo Junyan and me to be separated, but it’s useless for you to do this to me. I can tell you directly that unless Bo Junyan doesn’t want me anymore, I won’t leave him of my own accord!

“So, if you really want us to break up, go look for Bo Junyan and ask him to divorce me. Don’t do such things again. I’m a person without any sense of shame or inferiority. No matter how many times you do this, it’s useless to me. Don’t waste our time, alright?”

Mu Huan, who had originally wanted to leave, decided to make things clear before leaving. She did not want to deal with such meaningless conversations anymore.

Chapter 800: Conflict (7)

“Are you mocking me for not having the ability to make Junyan abandon you?”

“No, I’m sincerely advising you.”

“Since you’ve already put it that way, I don’t want to waste any more time persuading you to leave on your own.” Old Master Meng felt that no matter how hard he tried, he could not arouse Mu Huan’s shame and make her leave of her own accord.

Since that was the case, then don’t blame him for being ruthless!

“Look outside.”

As soon as Old Master Meng finished speaking, Mu Huan looked outside. Through the row of floor-to-ceiling windows, she saw many bodyguards dressed in black waiting outside for orders. Despite having more people, they thought highly of her, so all of them were holding electric batons in their hands and wearing gas masks. They were well-prepared so that she could not use the drug. Even if she could hit them again, she would inevitably be electrocuted a few times. Even if she could not be knocked out with electric batons, she would still fall after a few hits.

She felt that the old master knew that she could not anger Bo Junyan and would not go overboard with anything, and even though she knew that Bo Junyan’s grandfather did not like her, Mu Huan subconsciously treated Bo Junyan’s relatives as her own. Hence, she thought that she had only been called over to be humiliated by him, so she came without any precautions. But from the looks of it, it was not going to be easy today.

After some thought, Mu Huan reached into her pocket for her phone, but unexpectedly, it was gone! She was very sure that her phone was still in her pocket before she came in... Suddenly, she thought of the maid who had spilled tea on her. Someone who could serve a wealthy family should not make such a low-level mistake of spilling tea on a guest.

However, she was clearly looking at her hands. It was impossible for her to steal her phone out of thin air. Then, she thought that the maid might be responsible for diverting her attention while someone else took the opportunity to steal her phone! To be able to make her feel that no one was near her and not have anything on her, that person was very powerful!

She turned to look at the butler standing beside the Old Master. The butler looked like an ordinary middle-aged man, but in this house, other than him, no one else could come to her side in such a short time to steal her phone.

The butler met her gaze without any change in expression.

“What is Grandpa trying to do?” Mu Huan raised an eyebrow. He actually asked someone to steal her phone.

Seeing that she wasn’t afraid at all, Old Master Meng actually admired her reaction. After all, there were very few young people who could remain calm and unafraid in such a situation. If it weren’t for the fact that the merger of the Bo and Ling families was his greatest wish, he would probably be satisfied with his granddaughter-in-law.

“Other than the people you saw, there’s also this.” Old Master Meng asked the butler to show Mu Huan the video call. The phone the butler was holding was Mu Huan’s phone. The person he was calling was Mu Huan’s maternal grandmother’s nurse. In the video, Mu Huan’s granny was lying quietly on the bed as if she had fallen asleep.

However, Mu Huan, who was well aware of her granny’s schedule, knew that this was not the time for her granny to sleep. It was obvious that her granny had been drugged, and there were two bodyguards in black standing by her granny’s bed.

“Your grandmother is in my hands now. Didn’t you marry Junyan because of your grandmother? Leave Junyan now for your grandmother!” Old Master Meng said.

Mu Huan’s eyes suddenly turned dangerous. The last thing she could tolerate in this life was someone using her granny to threaten her!
