

Fake Marriage 801

Chapter 801: Conflict (8)

Just as she was about to move.

“You’d better not act rashly. I’m not as soft-hearted as your grandma. If my men touch your granny, she’ll definitely be in a miserable state! Your granny has finally recovered after much difficulty. Don’t tell me you want her to lie on the bed and never wake up?”

“Don’t touch my granny. Return the phone to me. I’ll leave immediately!” Mu Huan reached out to ask for the phone from the butler, but he had no intention of giving it to her. She looked at Old Master Meng.

“You’re too immoral. I don’t think you have any integrity to speak of. That’s why I can’t believe you.” Old Master Meng looked at her as if he was saying, “Do you think I’m stupid? If I returned your phone to you and released your granny, you could kill me in an instant!”

“Then what do you want me to do?” Mu Huan asked with a dark gaze.

“Gu Chenyi, who is drugged, is upstairs right now. I’ll get someone to send you up later. After that, you’ll leave the country with him. You’ll have to cooperate with me and make it seem like you were disappointed with Junyan because of what happened at the company. You don’t want to be with him anymore, so you returned to Gu Chenyi’s side. However, you’re afraid that the Gu family won’t agree to you two being together, so you eloped with Gu Chenyi.

“Don’t worry, I’m not a ruthless person. I’ll give you enough money to live the rest of your life extravagantly. After everything is settled, I’ll send your grandmother over to reunite with you.”

“Here, take this drug. This is the strongest one available. After you’ve taken it and I see it taking effect, I’ll send you upstairs. So, don’t think of anything else. Be good and don’t make me hurt your granny!”

Mu Huan suddenly laughed when she saw the drug in Old Master Meng’s hand. This laughable person had said he wasn’t someone who was ruthless in his actions. In what way was he not ruthless?

He was holding on to her granny for fear that Mu Huan would be disobedient. He was afraid that after her granny was safe, Mu Huan would come back, so he was going to force her to have that sort of encounter with Gu Chenyi. This was because only once she really had something going on with Gu Chenyi would she not care about how this matter ended in the future. She would never be able to be with Bo Junyan again.

He even wanted her to create the illusion that she was willing to elope with Gu Chenyi.

He didn’t leave any room for negotiation, yet he claimed that he wasn’t ruthless! If he wasn’t ruthless, who was?

“Why are you laughing?”

“I’m laughing at you people. You think you’re noble, upstanding, and have had a good upbringing, yet you can do such a shameless thing! Using so many people to force your own granddaughter-in-law to make a cuckold of your own grandson. Such morals, such principles, and such shamelessness, it really makes one sigh. If one is shameless, they are invincible. This saying is simply too true!”

Old Master Meng’s face darkened at her sarcastic smile. “I’m doing this for Junyan’s own good! The two of you are not suitable for each other!”

“For Bo Junyan’s own good? For his own good, you’re going to make him a cuckold?” Mu Huan laughed even more harshly.

“Grandpa, Junyan is your biological grandson! You even said that you raised him. How can you treat your biological grandson like this? You should know how he feels about you. Do you know how much you’ll hurt him if you do this? If you do this, you’ll lose him forever!”

Her heart ached for Bo Junyan to be treated like this by a family member he respected so much!

An indescribable emotion flashed across Old Master Meng’s eyes, but he did not say anything else. “Do you want to take the drug yourself, or do I have to force you to take it?”

Chapter 802: Conflict (9)

Seeing that he knew that it was useless to say anything else, Mu Huan suddenly attacked the butler without any forewarning. She wanted to snatch her phone back and call Bo Junyan first to let him know the current situation so that he could convince Old Master Meng to back down.

Even if Mu Huan could not tolerate people using her granny to threaten her, she still thought that this was her husband’s maternal grandfather and did not want to get into a big fight with Old Master Meng.

Unexpectedly, although the butler looked ordinary, he was very good at dodging and counterattacking. Before Mu Huan could take him down, he had completely broken Mu Huan’s already slightly damaged phone!

Mu Huan looked at her phone, which had been flung to the ground and shattered into pieces, and was instantly enraged. She grabbed the butler’s hand and broke it! Wasn’t his hand speed fast? She would make it impossible for him to get up in this lifetime!

The butler was in so much pain that he broke out in a cold sweat. However, he could bear it and did not shout.

Seeing this, Old Master Meng stood up angrily. “Mu Huan, if you dare to move again, your granny will be finished!”

She looked at him.

At this moment, the television screen that was originally showing the news changed to the scene of her granny being violently pulled out of bed. This made Mu Huan lose her rationality instantly. She quickly rushed toward Old Master Meng and instinctively wanted to strangle him. However, her rationality returned in time and she endured it.

“Grandpa, let my granny go. As long as you let her go, I’ll leave Bo Junyan! I really will! I can swear! I definitely will! I’ll definitely keep my word!”

Mu Huan had just said firmly that as long as Bo Junyan did not leave her, she would never give up. She did not expect reality to slap her face so quickly!

She would not allow Bo Junyan's grandfather to hurt her granny. If he hurt her granny, she would definitely hurt him. Once she hurt him, her filial mother-in-law would definitely feel terrible and think that this was unacceptable.

How was she going to live in the future?

Hence, she could not hurt Bo Junyan's grandfather and could only agree to leave for now.

"If you want me to let your granny go, take this drug obediently." Old Master Meng stretched out his hand to let her take the drug.

Mu Huan clenched her fists tightly. No matter what, she could not accept the fact that something would have to happen between her and Gu Chenyi!

"I'll count to three. If you don't take this drug, my men will take action." Old Master Meng started counting. "One, two..."

Just as he was about to count to three and the bodyguards were about to capture Mu Huan's granny...

Mu Huan suddenly pushed Old Master Meng to sit down. The next second, a sharp knife was placed on his neck.

"My granny is my bottom line. It's also my bottom line for nothing to happen between me and Gu. I've already said that I'll leave Bo Junyan if you want me to! I can swear that I'll really leave! If you insist on forcing me to take the drug and do that, I'll hurt you twice as much as you hurt my granny!"

If there was any room for negotiation in this situation, or if Old Master Meng only wanted to hurt and humiliate her, it would be like how Bai Xuexian had threatened Mu Huan with her granny.

Bai Xuexian only wanted to humiliate her. The things that she had forced Mu Huan to do would give Mu Huan the leeway to think of other ways and counterattack after suffering such humiliation. Therefore, Mu Huan would not want to stand up and perish together with Bai Xuexian. However, there was no such thing now.

If she did not take the drug, Old Master Meng would hurt her granny. However, she could not accept something like that happening between her and Gu Chenyi!

Chapter 803: Conflict (10)

If she had already said so, she would definitely leave. If Old Master Meng still insisted on forcing her to do such a thing, then she could only hurt him! Even if she knew that once she hurt Old Master Meng, this matter would become big and there would be no way to resolve it, she had no other choice.

"Don't you dare touch me, Mu Huan!"

If it had been anyone else, Mu Huan would have let that person see blood. However, this person was Bo Junyan's biological grandfather, so she endured it.

“You’re Bo Junyan’s grandfather. I don’t want to hurt you. How about this? Tell your men not to move. Follow me to my granny’s place. As long as my granny is safe, I won’t hurt you. I’ll also leave Bo Junyan! I really will! Believe me, I can swear on everything I have. I’ll definitely do what I say!”

She tried persuading him again and swore that she would use her most sincere heart to tell him that as long as he let her granny off, she would definitely not hurt him and would definitely leave!

“I don’t believe you. If you want your granny to be safe, you can only look for Gu Chenyi after taking this drug! Only then can I be sure that you will never return to Junyan’s side! You’d better let go of me and take this drug. Otherwise, look!”

“I definitely can’t do that! You...” Before Mu Huan could finish her sentence, she saw the black-clothed bodyguard on the television pick up a knife and cut her granny’s neck. Blood instantly flowed down!

Her eyes turned red!

The next second, she made Old Master Meng see blood!

Two wounds!

“I’ve said it before. If you dare to hurt my granny, I’ll do double the damage to you!” she said viciously.

If she was not ruthless enough, she would not be able to suppress him. If she did not make him afraid, he would still dare to make others lay hands on her granny!

“You actually dared to hurt me! You actually dared to hurt me!” Although Old Master Meng had done it to anger Mu Huan, he did not expect her to really hurt him! She even hurt him twice!

“Someone! Someone!” the butler shouted.

Mu Huan was a few centimeters shorter than him. After she pulled him up, she could no longer place the knife on his neck. Hence, she had Old Master Meng under her control with one hand and held the knife against him with the other. If anyone dared to move, she would stab them!

Her ruthlessness just now and the danger she was emitting made the people surrounding her not dare to move.

With a pale face, he said, “Mu Huan, let go of me quickly. It’s very dangerous for you to do this. Let me go! I’ll get someone to release your granny immediately!”

However, how could Mu Huan, who had just seen her granny’s neck being slit, believe his words?!

“I must see with my own eyes that my granny is safe!” Mu Huan could only believe his words if she saw with her own eyes that her granny was safe.

“Alright, I’ll get someone to send your granny over immediately!”

“No, I want you to go with me to my granny’s place! No one is allowed to follow you!” There were so many people here, so Mu Huan definitely could not let her granny come here. If she let her granny come here, she would be even more trapped.

Chapter 804: Conflict (11)

“Alright, I’ll go with you to your grandmother’s place, but if you move your knife slightly, it’ll be too dangerous!” Old Master Meng said.

Mu Huan was about to drag him away when she suddenly thought of something. Hence, she got Old Master Mu to sit down again. She then looked at the butler and ordered, “Get someone to bring me a phone!”

The butler did not move.

“What? Do you want me to scratch him again?” Mu Huan’s eyes suddenly turned frighteningly vicious.

“Quick, get her a phone!” Old Master Meng shouted angrily.

After he handed the cell phone over, Mu Huan got someone to retrieve her SIM card from her smashed cell phone. She then had it placed into the new cell phone that the butler had brought over and had it thrown onto the sofa beside her.

Because Old Master Meng was in her hands.

The butler didn’t dare to disobey. He got someone to fix the phone and threw it to Mu Huan.

Mu Huan picked up the phone that was still on the sofa and called Bo Junyan. She wanted him to know about this so that he would not blame her. If he had other solutions, she would listen to him.

However, when she called Bo Junyan, his phone was switched off, and so was Assistant Wang’s.

She called Bo Dingjing, but neither Bo Dingjing nor Meng Yueman picked up. No one answered even when she called the Bo family home!

Too many coincidences were not coincidences!

“Old Master, you’ve really put in so much effort just to deal with me!” He had cut off all possibilities for her to let him go. She could not let him go. If she did not let him go, she would be blamed by everyone later on. Because this Old Master had said that if she let him go, he would let her granny go.

But she did not believe his words! What if she let him go and he did not let go of her granny? Also, if these people were to rush in with electric batons, start fighting, knock her out, and feed her the drug, when she woke up, it would be too late! She could not take such a risk!

Only with Bo Junyan or her in-laws' guarantee could she trust him and release him!

However, she could not contact them right now!

"Xiao Huan, believe me! You must really believe me. I'll really let your granny go! I'll make her absolutely safe! I don't really want to hurt her!" Old Master Meng only looked at her with a pale face, wanting her to believe him.

The bodyguards could not bear to see him like that.

"Ms. Mu, please release Old Master immediately!"

After much consideration, Mu Huan decided to bring Old Master Meng to her granny. "All of you, get out of the way. He's my husband's maternal grandfather. As long as he doesn't hurt my granny, I definitely won't hurt a hair on him. I just need to bring him to confirm that my granny is safe. I'll definitely send him back safely!"

But the people surrounding her were not willing to give way easily.

"Old Master, get them to make way. Don't force me to make a move again!" Mu Huan said in a low voice.

"Mu Huan! You're the first person who dared to threaten me like this! Also, I've already told you that I'll let your granny off, yet you're still doing this! Don't regret it!" Old Master Meng seemed to have recovered from his fear and became even more daring.

"Even if I regret it, I still want to be 100% sure that my granny is safe. Don't make me resort to violence. If you do, I'll treat you extremely well!" Mu Huan said coldly, wanting him to cooperate with her.

Old Master Meng's face darkened for a while. "Get out of the way! I want to see how far she dares to go!"

Chapter 805: Conflict (12)

She looked at the butler and ordered, "Go, drive a car to the entrance of the main house. Immediately!"

The butler looked at Old Master Meng, waiting for instructions.

"Hurry up and get someone to drive! What are you looking at me for!" Old Master Meng shouted angrily.

The butler hurriedly got someone to drive.

Just as Mu Huan dragged Old Master Meng out of the door and was about to step down the stairs.

A scream of terror pierced the sky! "Xiao Huan! What are you doing!"

Mu Huan looked up and was stunned to see her in-laws standing not far away. Her mother-in-law looked terrified and her father-in-law frowned.

The two people who did not pick up the call just now appeared here coincidentally and saw her holding the knife at Old Master...

When she came back to her senses, Mu Huan looked up at Old Master Meng, who sneered. How dare she hurt him? Let's see if she won't regret it!

As someone who had been in the business world for so many years and was also a ruthless person, Old Master Meng would not always use small tricks. His vicious moves would only be used when the situation was favorable, and now was the perfect time.

This time, he blocked Mu Huan's path horizontally, front, back, left, right, and up. No matter how she walked, she would die!

If Mu Huan had obediently taken the drug after being threatened, Old Master Meng would have waited for the drug to take effect and sent her upstairs. Gu Chenyi would have been waiting for her there, and the rest would have proceeded as he had said.

If she had been disobedient and threatened him with his life, her in-laws would have seen her injuring him with a knife! She would have really hurt him! Since she had not gone upstairs to look for Gu Chenyi, he was now no longer around. As for her grandmother, there was another explanation for that.

By then, even if Mu Huan told the whole truth, it would be useless. And even if he did this, nothing would happen to him.

With some things, even if you told the truth and the truth was that you felt wronged, you would still be the one in the wrong.

There was such a thing.

"Xiao Huan! What are you doing! Why are you pointing a knife at your grandpa? Let go of him!" Meng Yueman shouted as she ran toward them.

Mu Huan only came back to her senses when she saw Meng Yueman running over. She retracted the knife in her hand and let go of Old Master Meng.

At this moment, she was certain that her granny was fine.

Perhaps Old Master Meng didn't really want her to do those things with Gu Chenyi from the start. He didn't really want to hurt her grandmother. He just wanted to force her to hurt him and have her in-laws see her hurting him.

Or, perhaps, he really did have plans for her to do those things. However, he had thought everything through thoroughly. He had planned for her to be able to attack or retreat. But no matter how she chose, she would die!

It had to be said that Mu Huan thought things through very quickly and her guess was very accurate.

However, the older the ginger, the spicier it was. Old Master Meng hadn't lived this long for nothing!

Besides, she had never thought of scheming against others and treated them as family. She was caught off guard and fell into a trap.

In this world, the only people who could hurt you were your family, friends, and people you didn't want to hurt.

Because she believed them, because she didn't want to hurt them, she was hurt without warning.

Meng Yueman ran closer and saw that the two wounds on Old Master Meng's neck were still bleeding. She was so agitated that she almost fainted.

Luckily, Bo Dingjing, who had followed closely behind her, reached out to support her in time so she didn't fall.

Chapter 806: Conflict (13)

After Meng Yueman regained her balance, her eyes turned red. She could not help but sob, "Dad, what happened... Why are you injured..."

"It's all because of her, this good daughter-in-law of yours! She wants my life!" Old Master Meng was trembling with anger.

"Xiao Huan, did you hurt your grandpa?" Bo Dingjing looked at Mu Huan with a frown.

"Grandpa was the one who got someone to capture my granny first. He was the one who injured her first." Although Mu Huan knew that explanations might not work, she still explained.

Although Meng Yueman felt that no matter what, Mu Huan shouldn't have hurt her father, she was still a rational person. She also knew that Mu Huan wasn't someone who would hurt others just because. Therefore, she endured her heartache and asked, "Dad, did you really hurt Xiao Huan's granny after capturing her first?"

If Xiao Huan could get married because of her granny, one had to know that she really cared about her granny. Her granny was very important to her.

For Meng Yueman, her father was her father, her family, and for Mu Huan, her grandmother was also her family. Although her heart ached for her father, she could understand Mu Huan!

"I didn't really hurt her. Do you think I would do something like that? I just sent someone over and used a prop to scare Mu Huan. Who knew that she'd cut me twice in retaliation without any warning?!" Old Master Meng said angrily.

What Old Master Meng had just said meant he had another trick up his sleeve regarding Mu Huan's granny. That was, the knife that he had gotten someone to take out to hurt her granny with, as well as the blood that she could clearly see, was all super lifelike props used for filming television dramas.

Even if someone had seen it with their own eyes, they would not be able to tell if it was real or fake. Furthermore, Mu Huan had seen it through the video. At that time, she could only clearly see that it was her granny's face. When her granny, who was in a coma, had been sliced by someone, her entire body had moved. The knife had really slashed down and blood had instantly appeared!

There was no need for Mu Huan to seek confirmation. She knew that what Old Master Meng said was true. This was because he would not be so foolish as to lie at a time like this when he could verify the truth with a single statement.

Instinctively, she heaved a sigh of relief. That was because she had been worried ever since she saw her granny get injured. She did not know if her injuries were serious.

She knew her limits when dealing with Old Master Meng, but those bodyguards didn't know how to deal with her granny. Hence, when she heard Old Master Meng's words, the first thing she did was heave a sigh of relief. She was glad that her granny wasn't injured.

When Meng Yueman heard her father's words, her face darkened. Her father did not hurt anyone, but as a junior, Mu Huan had hurt her father!

Even if Mu Huan had set aside the fact that the old man was already in his seventies, she should still have taken into account that he was Meng Yueman's biological father. And despite what he did, instead of getting a confirmation, she did not give her father a chance to speak. She only cut him, and even did it twice!

Mu Huan's face turned a few shades paler when she saw how angry her mother-in-law was.

Just as Meng Yueman was about to say something about Mu Huan...

Only then did Meng Yueman realize what she should have done first. She hurriedly supported Old Master Meng and shouted at the butler, "Hurry up and call the doctor over!"

The butler hurried off.

"Dad, does it hurt..." Meng Yueman looked at the wound on her father's neck. The more she looked at it, the more her heart ached. Her tears fell instantly.

Chapter 807: Conflict (14)

"Alright, stop crying. I won't die," said Old Master Meng.

"If you die, I won't be able to live either! How many times have I told you not to cause trouble for Xiao Huan! Don't look for trouble! Why did you do such a thing?! Look at how you've hurt yourself!" His loved ones, who were too heartbroken, could not help but blame him when they saw him injured. They blamed him for hurting himself.

"I didn't know she would be so ruthless! I'm Junyan's biological grandfather, your biological father! She actually did it without any hesitation!" Old Master Meng was furious.

The only thing that he had miscalculated this time was that Mu Huan would really dare to hurt him. His plan had gone smoothly after the first plan had failed. He had made his daughter see Mu Huan holding him hostage, but he had not expected that he would really get hurt!

However, although he was really angry and surprised that Mu Huan actually dared to hurt him, these two small wounds had a better effect than he had expected!

Overall, he was satisfied!

“Mu Huan!” Meng Yueman could not help but turn around and call out to her fiercely.

No matter how rational she was, this was her biological father, her biological father whom she cared a lot about. Her biological father, who did not allow anyone to touch her, was now injured to this extent!

Looking at that wound, she wanted to kill someone!

If it were anyone else, she would definitely make them pay with their family’s destruction!

However, this was her daughter-in-law.

“How could you be so cruel to your own grandfather?! How could you do this?!” She looked at Mu Huan and could not help feeling hurt and disappointed.

She was so good that Mu Huan really liked her, cared about her, and was very grateful to her mother-in-law.

Mu Huan, who had always been treated well by her, wanted to return the favor. When she met Meng Yueman’s disappointed eyes, the blood drained from her face bit by bit. Her face turned ghastly pale.

She wanted to explain, but at this moment, any further explanation would be futile.

“I’m sorry, Mom.”

“Don’t call me Mom! I can’t afford to be your mom!” Meng Yueman turned her head away after saying that, ignoring Mu Huan.

At this moment, Bo Dingjing patted her shoulder lightly. “Your mother lost control for a moment, don’t feel too bad. I know it’s not your fault.”

He knew that Mu Huan was an absolutely sensible child. She would not hurt his father-in-law unless she’d been forced to a certain extent. Besides, even if his father-in-law had not really hurt Mu Huan’s granny and had only used a prop, the kind of prop that could make Mu Huan take it for real was definitely very realistic. His father-in-law wanted her to take it for real.

This was not much different from directly hurting her grandmother. It was just that this was not real, making his father-in-law the victim and not the perpetrator.

A smart person like Bo Dingjing might not know what was going on, but he could guess what his father-in-law was planning.

Mu Huan remained silent, her eyes turning red uncontrollably.

Her in-laws treated her extremely well.

Especially her father-in-law, who chose to believe her at a time like this.

Mu Huan was very careful, so Old Master Meng only had two shallow cuts.

The doctor came to do a simple cleaning then apply some medicine. Initially, he thought that there was no need to bandage the wounds, but when Bo Dingjing saw how anxious Meng Yueman was, he signaled the doctor to cover the wounds with a piece of gauze to save his wife the trouble of seeing such small wounds.

Chapter 808: Conflict (15)

After the doctor left, Meng Yueman calmed down.

Bo Dingjing looked at Mu Huan. "Xiao Huan, tell me what happened and why you hurt your grandpa!"

Although the way Meng Yueman looked at Mu Huan was not as cold and ruthless as before, her expression was still very ugly.

"No matter what, you shouldn't have hurt your grandfather!"

Mu Huan bit her lip. She wanted to say something, but she did not know what to say. No matter what she said, it would not change the fact that she had hurt Old Master Meng.

"Listen to the child first. I know you feel sorry for your father, but Xiao Huan is not such an insensible child. Let's hear what's going on first, alright?" Bo Dingjing coaxed.

Meng Yueman did not say anything else, but her expression was still very ugly.

"What are you talking about? What's there to talk about? It's just that I still want her to break up with Junyan, so I used her granny to threaten her and make her leave Junyan." Old Master Meng snorted. He didn't hide it at all. He was the one who'd started the trouble first.

"Grandpa, not only did you use my granny to force me to leave Junyan, but you also insisted that I take a drug and have an affair with Gu Chenyi! You were forcing me to elope with him! If you only wanted me to leave Junyan, I had already promised you that I would definitely leave! Yet you were also forcing me to do that!"

Mu Huan had hurt him and felt that she had let Meng Yueman down, but she did not feel that she had let Old Master Meng down.

He had gone too far. If it were someone else, she would definitely not be like this! She would make him pay an even greater and more painful price!

"What? Dad! You even forced Xiao Huan to do that!" Meng Yueman's face was filled with shock and disbelief. No matter what, Mu Huan was still her son's wife, his biological grandson's wife. How could he force her to do such a thing?! This was simply...!!!

Bo Dingjing frowned. He knew that his father-in-law must have gone overboard to make Xiao Huan hurt him.

To put it bluntly, his father-in-law was really courting death!

"I was just trying to make it look more realistic. I wasn't really going to do that. I didn't even capture Gu Chenyi, so why are you so shocked?" Old Master Meng rolled his eyes at Meng Yueman.

“No, Dad, you... you... you’re really too much...” Meng Yueman stuttered. Was it just to make it more realistic?

How could she tolerate this!

“Didn’t she go even more overboard than me? She’s not even sure if her granny was really injured or if Gu Chenyi was really up there, but she still hurt me!” Old Master Meng made use of this point to get Meng Yueman to blame Mu Huan.

“How could I be sure? You were using my granny to force me to take the drug before I could go up. If I had taken the drug, could I have guaranteed that she’d still be fine? You’re just lying now. If I could have guaranteed it first, you wouldn’t have made that kind of demand, and by now, I might’ve been done for!”

How could she be sure at that time? Her granny was in the neighboring city. What if something happened to her granny while she was on her way there? As for going upstairs to confirm if Gu Chenyi was there? He had taken her granny and was forcing her to take the drug and wait for it to take effect before she could go upstairs. Now, he wanted her to have confirmed it first? Ha...

“What? Are you saying that I really intended for something to happen between you and Gu Chenyi?” Old Master Meng sat up straight in agitation.

“You’re the only one who knows best!” Mu Huan did not think of going upstairs to look for Gu Chenyi at this time because he was definitely not around anymore.

Chapter 809: Conflict (16)

Old Master Meng would not wait for them to discover Gu Chenyi’s presence.

“What do I know? I only know that I didn’t really want to hurt you, but you’re really ruthless! I’m Junyan’s biological grandfather! How could you hurt me without hesitation?! Why don’t you just stab me to death!” Old Master Meng shouted.

Mu Huan was about to say something when she heard Meng Yueman’s voice breaking down.

“Can you not do this?! You’re making me suffer, do you understand?!”

“Do you not want me to live anymore?”

Her biological father and daughter-in-law were both her flesh and blood. What should she do? What should she do?

“You guys are really making me suffer...” Meng Yueman covered her face with her hands while speaking. She broke down and started sobbing.

No one should be blamed, but everyone was at fault.

“Stop arguing about this matter and let this matter pass. No one on Junyan’s side is allowed to say anything!” Bo Dingjing wanted to settle this peacefully.

“How can we just let it go like this?! She hurt me this much!” Old Master Meng wouldn’t allow the matter to pass just like this. He had spent so much effort, so how could he just let it go like this? He had to stir up a huge storm!

“Father, you were the one who went overboard first. Besides, Xiao Huan didn’t hurt you too badly, just two shallow wounds...” Before Bo Dingjing could finish his sentence...

Two fierce gazes were shot at him. One was Old Master Meng’s and the other was Meng Yueman’s. Then, both father and daughter said at the same time, “How ruthless did you want her to be? Did you want her to make the kill directly?”

Bo Dingjing: “...”

“And me? How was I going overboard?! I just wanted to scare her! It’s not like I really wanted to do that! Did I say that I really wanted something to happen between her and Gu Chenyi?” Old Master Meng asked agitatedly.

“Dad, that’s not what I meant...”

“No! I have to prove my innocence!” In agitation, Old Master Meng asked the butler to bring him his phone.

Although he was injured, the butler behind him immediately went to get Old Master Meng’s phone.

Then, Old Master Meng took out his phone and made a video call to Gu Chenyi in front of the couple.

Gu Chenyi quickly accepted the video call. When he saw Old Master Meng, he asked in surprise, “Sir, why did you suddenly want to video call me?”

“Nothing. I suddenly remembered you and wanted to ask you what you were doing,” Old Master Meng said with a straight face.

When Bo Huaiyun saw Old Master Meng, although he was very surprised that he would suddenly video call Gu Chenyi, he still smiled and asked, “Old Master, have you eaten?”

Just as Bo Huaiyun was about to say something, he saw the white bandage on the Old Master’s neck and immediately asked with concern, “Old Master, what happened to your neck?”

“I almost died!” Old Master Meng said as he looked at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan clenched her fists and remained silent. Her mother-in-law would feel even worse if she said anything that would anger him.

“What’s going on! What happened?!” Bo Huaiyun’s face was filled with shock. Because he had a good relationship with Bo Dingjing, he had a good relationship with Old Master Meng, so he naturally cared about him.

Chapter 810: Conflict (17)

“The whole family is unfortunate. Junyan married a vicious woman! My life almost ended in her hands today!”

Bo Huaiyun was speechless.

It was Mu Huan who had hurt Old Master Meng? This... As it was Mu Huan who had hurt him, it was not appropriate for him to ask what had happened. The atmosphere instantly became awkward.

“Father, give me your phone. I want to talk to Huaiyun.” Bo Dingjing ended the awkwardness.

Old Master Meng gave a cold snort and passed the phone to Bo Dingjing. Look, the family of three was eating! Did he really do what he was being accused of?!

He was not that evil. He was just trying to scare Mu Huan, but she, on the other hand, was really that evil. She really hurt him!

“Uncle, is anything the matter?” Bo Huaiyun asked.

“Nothing much, I just wanted to ask where you guys are having your meal. How did it come about for your family of three to have a meal together today?” Bo Dingjing felt that since they had already made the call, he should ask more.

“I don’t have anything important to do today, so I brought Qianru to visit Chenyi at school. What’s wrong, Uncle?” Bo Huaiyun asked.

“It’s because I haven’t been paying attention to you guys recently. I wanted to ask how you guys have been doing these days.” If it was only Chenyi and Gu Qianru together, Bo Dingjing might have suspected something, but with Bo Huaiyun there, if he said that the three of them were together, then they were together.

Huaiyun was an upright child.

Mu Huan’s eyes darkened a little. Could it be that Gu Chenyi was really not upstairs and the old man only wanted this effect?

“It’s been pretty good. We’re doing pretty well now! Chenyi didn’t have any classes in the afternoon, and we even went to a nearby mall to shop for the whole afternoon. Qianru has been especially good recently.” Bo Huaiyun thought that he was concerned about Gu Qianru’s mental state, so he said that she was doing quite well. He even said that they had been having fun for the whole afternoon, which meant that his wife was feeling much better.

Gu Qianru’s condition had improved a lot recently, and she was smiling a lot more.

“Have I proven my innocence now?” Old Master Meng snorted.

“Father, I never doubted you.” Bo Dingjing smiled.

“Cut it out! If you didn’t suspect anything, why would you ask them how they had the time to have a family meal?” Old Master Meng mocked.

Bo Dingjing: “...”

He had always felt that such a matter was the hardest to deal with. It was so tricky that it gave him a headache. If only Junyan was here, he would be the one to handle it. He was also the best at appeasing his mother. However, he had been so busy recently that he was about to become useless. He still did not know which country he was in.

The thought of his father-in-law doing this while his son was busy and could not return made his head hurt even more.

Why couldn’t the Old Master just enjoy his retirement and instead still be so tormented?

At that moment, at a restaurant near Yun University...

“This Mu Huan, I’ve already said that she’s a bad person, but you didn’t believe me! Look, she even dared to hurt Old Master now!” Gu Qianru snorted.

“Alright, let’s eat.” Knowing the knot in her heart, Bo Huaiyun had always avoided talking about Mu Huan. He did not expect the Old Master to make a video call to his son and say that Mu Huan had hurt him.

However, she was indeed bold enough to hurt Old Master Meng.

This was bad.

After putting food into his wife’s bowl, Bo Huaiyun tried to change the topic. “By the way, Chenyi, why didn’t you buy any clothes? They’re all your mother’s and mine.”
