

Fake Marriage 831

Chapter 831: Sudden Strike (3)

Mu Huan had poured out all the goods she had brought out today and given them to the two bodyguards protecting her granny.

“What the f*ck! Then aren’t we going to die?!” Long Feiting said as he knocked down one of them.

There were too many enemies! And they were all very skilled!

He was already struggling!

Mu Huan scanned the situation before her and said, “We’ll run towards the six o’clock direction in a while. There are the fewest people there. If we work together, we’ll probably be able to fight our way out. When the time comes, you run first and look for reinforcements. If I die, remember to take good care of my granny for me! Don’t tell her that I’m dead. Just tell her that I went overseas to study!”

These people who suddenly attacked them were too vicious. She felt that they really dared to take her life!

If things went wrong, she might really die here today! She didn’t know who sent these people, but she felt that Ling Wei or the Old Master wouldn’t send such people to kill her. But besides them, she hadn’t offended anyone recently.

“What are you talking about! Am I, Young Master Long, the kind of person who needs a woman to protect me?” Why would he need her to protect him as he left?

“It’s not that I want to protect you, but these people are clearly here for me. Look, they’re all here to attack me and not you. If you run, they won’t chase after you. If I run, they’ll definitely chase after me!” Mu Huan said.

Long Feiting: “...!!!”

He was touched again for nothing!

“I’ll count to three. Let’s do our best to run in the six o’clock direction!” Mu Huan said with a vicious look in her eyes.

“Yeah.”

When Mu Huan counted to three, both she and Long Feiting dashed toward the six o’clock direction ahead of them.

They were ruthless toward the people who were charging toward them.

Mu Huan was even more ruthless! She used all of her vicious moves, and every move she made was enough to knock someone down.

Long Feiting was a little scared! In the past, she had never revealed her true strength. When faced with a life-and-death crisis, what she unleashed was her true strength!

Although Long Feiting appeared to be a hedonistic second-generation heir and did not have much actual combat experience, he had been diligently practicing martial arts ever since he was kidnapped and sold back when he was young. He was also very skilled. Otherwise, he would not have been able to charge out properly and would have died long ago!

However, just as they were about to rush out of this relatively weak area, a group of black-clothed people rushed up!

Their numbers were really scary!

“F*ck!” Just as they were about to succeed, the Life Gate became the Death Gate!

“Hold on a little longer. My men should be arriving soon!” There was an emergency device on the watch on Long Feiting’s wrist. Just now, he had felt that something was amiss, so he had pressed the button on the emergency device. His big brother would receive this signal immediately and save them based on their location.

“How much longer will it take?”

“It should be around ten minutes.” Long Feiting spat out a mouthful of blood as he spoke.

In an instant, Mu Huan’s eyes were red with bloodlust. She dealt with the person in her hand even more ruthlessly. She grabbed the person who was about to attack Long Feiting again and flung him away.

That person could no longer get up to fight.

“Let’s jump into the river! Hurry up and catch up!” Mu Huan said as she ran toward the river beside them. She would ruthlessly knock down whoever charged at her.

Although seven to eight minutes was not long, Long Feiting could not withstand such a fierce attack!

Long Feiting also knew that his stamina was running out, so he didn’t say much. He assisted her against the remaining people and quickly caught up with Mu Huan.

They were less than ten meters away from the river.

Chapter 832: Sudden Strike (4)

She did her best to break out of the encirclement. When they reached the river, Mu Huan first pushed Long Feiting into the river. She then knocked down two people who followed her before jumping down.

She had chosen to jump into the river because she had wanted to take a shortcut to school. Thus, she had chosen a remote construction site where there was no one at night. On the other side of the river was a small district. As long as they swam to the opposite side, there would be people passing by. No matter who these people were, they would not dare to kill anyone on the streets.

Moreover, not all of these people could swim. In this way, some people would be removed. Also, since the other party had chosen to wear masks, it meant that they did not want others to know their identities. In the water, they could no longer wear masks. This way, they might be able to stop them from chasing after them. Also, they could not be so ruthless in the water. She was more agile in the water and could protect Long Feiting better. She could stall for more time until help arrived.

“Long Feiting, just keep swimming forward and don’t look back. Your stamina is really weak! If you don’t get away, you’ll die in vain!” Mu Huan said as she caught up with Long Feiting.

Long Feiting knew that he really did not have any stamina left. Just swimming over would consume all his stamina, not to mention hitting someone in the water. If he stayed, not only would he not be able to help her, he would also distract her.

“I can hold on for a little longer. You can leave now!”

Long Feiting glanced at her and did not say anything else. He swam toward the opposite shore with all his might.

Just as Mu Huan had expected, not everyone who surrounded them knew how to swim. In addition, perhaps because they did not want to expose their identities, there were not many people who chased after them. After Long Feiting left, she pressed down a person who was chasing after them and pushed him into the water. He could not lift his head.

When another person wanted to press her head down, she retracted her hand in time and dodged.

She swam to the side.

She was like a mermaid in the water, slippery and hard to catch.

Mu Huan had thought that they would fight for a while longer. However, for some reason, those people who had been chasing after her in the water suddenly turned around. This made her surface and look behind her.

Then she saw a tall man standing under the big moon with a white cat in his arms, looking down at her from above.

Although there was moonlight, Mu Huan could not see the man’s face clearly due to the distance. She could only feel the noble, cold, and powerful aura emanating from him.

That aura stunned Mu Huan.

Just as she was about to swim over and take a closer look at the other party’s appearance, she raised her head and realized that there was no one on the shore. Even the person she had knocked down earlier had disappeared.

Everything was quiet, as if nothing had happened.

She couldn’t help but feel that what she had just seen was an illusion.

Just as she was in a daze, she suddenly heard Long Feiting’s shout.

“Mu Huan...”

Mu Huan turned around and saw Long Feiting struggling in the water.

She hurriedly turned around and swam toward Long Feiting.

She grabbed Long Feiting’s sinking body in time.

As they had jumped into the river in a hurry, they did not have time to take off their heavy coats. Furthermore, Long Feiting did not have much energy left, so he did not have the energy to swim to the opposite shore.

After Mu Huan had hold of Long Feiting, she helped him remove his heavy coat and carried him to the opposite shore.

As she was carrying a tall and strong man, coupled with the fact that Mu Huan's stamina was almost depleted, she could not swim fast.

Chapter 833: Sudden Strike (5)

Actually, when she told Long Feiting to just swim forward, she was already prepared to die here. Even if there weren't many people chasing after them, she, who had already given it her all on the shore, didn't have much energy left to deal with those people. She could only use her last bit of energy to stop these people from chasing after Long Feiting and give him the greatest chance to live.

Therefore, when those people, who clearly had a chance to kill her, suddenly all turned back, she was shocked. She didn't know why they were so desperate to kill her, but in the end, when they had a chance to kill her, they turned back.

Fortunately, the river was not very wide, so Mu Huan was able to hold on until she reached the shore. After dragging Long Feiting ashore, she collapsed to the side, panting.

"Xiao Huan, I can't take it anymore..." Long Feiting closed his eyes and stopped moving.

This made Mu Huan jump in shock. She did not let him choke on the water just now. At most, he shouldn't be unable to take it. Why was he not doing well? Could it be that he had suffered serious internal injuries? At the thought of this, Mu Huan was shocked. She hurriedly reached out to feel his pulse. When she felt that he still had a pulse and that his heartbeat was not particularly weak, she realized that he might have just passed out from exhaustion. Only then did she relax.

Just as she was about to relax and lie down on the side to rest, she heard footsteps approaching from afar. She instantly sat up and instinctively wanted to hide Long Feiting. However, there was no place to hide on the bare shore. Even if she wanted to stand up, she could not.

So she simply lay down again. If it was an enemy approaching, she could only wait for death.

She did not know who'd sent those people. They were clearly vicious and wanted her life, but they did not want her life at the critical moment. Now, if the people surrounding them were that group of people, did they want to capture her alive, or did they simply want to see her struggle desperately before she died? They did not enjoy watching her in the water, so they did not kill her in the water and instead wanted to kill her on the shore?

Also, who was that man standing under the moon? Was he in cahoots with those people who were chasing her?

Thinking back to what she had just seen, she was still a little shocked.

For some reason, she felt that the man must be very good-looking, because the way he stood under the moonlight with the cat in his arms made her feel really good! If it was an ugly man, the shocking scene she saw before she died would be disgusting...

She realized that she was still in the mood to think about these things.

Mu Huan felt that she was probably the calmest person in history to accept death.

She wondered what would happen if Bo Junyan returned and found her dead...

She had saved a lot of money for her granny's household needs and arranged for bodyguards to stay by her side. There would be someone to take care of her for the time being, so there was no need to worry. When the time came, Bo Junyan would probably take care of her granny on account of the fact that they were once husband and wife. Besides, if she were to die, no one would threaten or harm her. Her granny's life would be fine.

The most unfortunate thing was that she would not be able to take the exam the next day. Initially, she had thought that if she really reached the stage where she would leave Bo Junyan, she would enter NST and become the most awesome big shot in the pharmaceutical field. When she returned, she would dazzle everyone and make those people who looked down on her feel that she was not worthy of anyone or anything like that.

But such an accident suddenly happened...

She was right.

Tomorrow or an accident. You never know which one will get there first.

Chapter 834: Sudden Strike (6)

However, there was no need to be so pessimistic. What if the person coming would save them?

Thinking about it this way, she felt that her chances of survival were higher because she did not look like someone who'd have a short life. With this thought in mind, Mu Huan felt even more reluctant to move because she really did not have any strength left. She could only randomly think about it in her mind and not face the fear of death approaching. She did not want to be overwhelmed by that fear.

People who wanted to live a good life were afraid of death because there were too many things they could not bear to part with.

Just as Mu Huan was thinking about what else she could eat...

Lights from flashlights swept toward them.

Soon after, the footsteps got closer.

As Mu Huan listened to the approaching footsteps, she could not help but smile.

She'd told herself she didn't look like someone who'd have a short life.

When the light swept over, she knew it was a rescuer.

Because the person who wanted her life would not be so open and conspicuous.

The feeling of surviving a calamity was really too good. She couldn't help but feel happy, and the smile on her face grew bigger and bigger!

Mu Huan was more afraid of death than anyone else because she wanted to live well.

Long Feilei, who had rushed over with his men, was stunned when he saw Mu Huan smiling so happily and Long Feiting lying motionless on the ground.

However, he quickly regained his senses and rushed forward to help Long Feiting up to check on his condition.

"Don't worry, he's probably just unconscious from exhaustion," Mu Huan said as she lay on the side.

"Yes." Long Feilei was not very nervous, either. This was because the watch that Long Feiting was wearing was a very high-tech product. Not only was it waterproof and equipped with emergency equipment, but it also had a GPS function. It could also monitor the vital signs of the person wearing it at all times.

On the way, he had been observing his brother's vital signs. Although he was very weak, he was still alive and his life was not in danger.

But his brother was lying here unconscious. What did Mu Huan mean by smiling like that?

"What happened?" He looked at Mu Huan.

"I don't know where that group of people came from. They wanted our lives the moment they showed up. There were many of them, but they suddenly disappeared for some reason. We probably won't be able to catch them now. We fought on the opposite shore. Get someone to search and see if there are any traces of their identities."

When Long Feilei heard her words, he gave her a look and asked the second son of the Long family to lead his men to investigate.

The Long family had always treasured Long Feiting. He would only press down on the emergency device on his watch when it was very dangerous. Therefore, just in case, the Long family's medical team had followed after.

Mu Huan, who was really weak, was placed on a stretcher and carried to the ambulance.

The moment they got into the ambulance, the doctor rushed to give Long Feiting a thorough examination.

Mu Huan lay on the stretcher and continued to rest.

"How are your injuries?" Long Feilei asked.

"They should all be superficial wounds." Although Mu Huan did not have any strength now and felt that the place where she was hit hurt, she did not feel any internal injuries.

Also, now that she thought about it, although those people were vicious, they didn't seem to really want her life. Otherwise, if everyone had taken out a knife or a stick, they could have killed her in a moment.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt like those people were testing her true strength.

Why did the other party suddenly turn around and leave when they could have killed her? If her suspicion was the case, this made sense.

Chapter 835: Sudden Strike (7)

Perhaps the other party felt the limits of her ability and knew that if they continued, she would die.

However, who could it be that wanted to probe her strength? They even used such ruthless methods to probe her, making her feel that she was about to die.

“It looks like my brother really likes you. He put his life on the line to protect you!” Although Long Feilei really didn’t want his brother to like Mu Huan, his brother had already put his life on the line for her. What else could he do? “As the saying goes, if someone saves your life, you should devote your life to that person. Aren’t you going to divorce Bo Junyan? After you divorce him, you should get together with Feiting!”

Mu Huan: “...”

Did she miss something? When did his brother protect her so desperately?

“Our family doesn’t believe in family backgrounds. There’s no evil mother-in-law, bad father-in-law, and no bad grandfather who is against you and is trying his best to deal with you. There’s no pressure on Feiting to always be busy at work and he has endless money to spend. Once you’re with my brother, you’ll just have to eat, drink, and enjoy life with him!”

If he could convince Mu Huan to be with his brother before he woke up, he would definitely be very happy!

Mu Huan: “...”

Holy shit!

Were all the members of the Long family clowns governed by monkeys? His younger brother was still unconscious, and he, who had always treasured his younger brother, was still in the mood to think about such things!

And...

“It wasn’t Long Feiting who saved me, it was me who saved him!” She did not owe him anything!

Long Feilei was stunned. “No way!”

His brother was inferior to Mu Huan?

He had heard that Mu Huan was very good at fighting and that she had shocked Bo Junyan. He knew that that was how the two of them had gotten to where they were today, but he still thought that she, who looked so petite, would not be much better than his younger brother since she had only managed to knock Gong Zeye and the rest down using drugs previously.

In this way, they had been able to escape unscathed. She was only superficially wounded, and his brother had fainted from exhaustion. It must be because his brother did his best to protect her that she was fine.

What did she say just now? She was the one who'd saved his brother?

"It's the truth."

Long Feilei: "..."

How could his little brother be so weak...

However, after suffering a blow for a while, he said, "A life-saving favor is more important than reaching heaven. Feiting has nothing to repay you with. Let him devote his life to you!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Holy shit!

Damn!

Just then, the second son of the Long family returned.

Long Feilei immediately looked over. "How is it?"

"We only found two phones. Other than the traces of a fight, we didn't find anything else." Long Feijun took out two phones.

"This looks like our younger brother's phone."

The corner of Long Feilei's mouth twitched slightly. "It doesn't just look like his, it is his! How can you call yourself a brother? You can't even recognize your brother's phone!"

Long Feijun: "..."

Mu Huan looked at the other phone in Long Feijun's hand. "That phone is mine."

To put it simply, only the phone that she and Long Feiting had dropped during the fight was left at the scene. There was no trace of the other party.

"Why are you using such an ugly phone? Your sense of beauty is terrible," Long Feijun said as he handed the phone to her.

Mu Huan: "..."

They were indeed brothers.

Long Feilei said, "It's quite ugly. Don't use it anymore. I'll get someone to bring you a new one."

Chapter 836: Sudden Strike (8)

As he spoke, he reached out and snatched Mu Huan's phone away. He would get someone to bring over a new one later. It was a couple's phone with his brother.

Mu Huan: "..."

Was he bullying her while she didn't have the strength to move?

"How's Little Brother?" Long Feijun looked at the doctor.

The doctor had just finished checking on Long Feiting. "Although there are many injuries, it's not enough to make someone faint. Hence, it must be a coma due to exhaustion."

When Long Feijun heard this, he looked at Mu Huan and said, "It looks like my brother really likes you. He, who has always been afraid of pain, tried his best to protect you!"

Mu Huan: "..."

It looked like they were all confident in Long Feiting.

Long Feilei coughed awkwardly.

"What's wrong?"

"Mu Huan saved our little brother."

"Ah, that means Mu Huan saved his life!"

"Yes."

"Then he shall repay you with his life! Mu Huan, don't stand on ceremony with him!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Suddenly, Mu Huan's phone rang. Long Feilei could only return the phone to Mu Huan.

It was a call from Li Meng, asking why she had not returned.

Mu Huan simply told her about the ambush and asked her to bring Wu Xingye over.

Right now, she really needed to rest. She also needed someone to take care of her tonight. It was too dangerous to be taken care of by the Long family. Although Long Feiting might not be able to wake up by tomorrow, they might be able to get her onto his bed while she was sleeping.

When Li Meng heard this, she was shocked beyond words. She did not expect that there would be someone who could hurt Mu Huan so badly that she could not move. Indeed, one should not pass through alleys at night! After getting the address, she hurriedly called Wu Xingye and asked him to pick Mu Huan up with her.

In order to facilitate contact with Mu Huan and the rest, Wu Xingye moved to live near Yun University. After receiving a call from Li Meng, he drove to the school to pick Mu Huan up with Li Meng.

But after they found Mu Huan, the Long family refused to let them go no matter what. They insisted that Mu Huan go to the hospital for a detailed checkup.

Mu Huan thought that with Li Meng and Wu Xingye guarding her, nothing would happen.

She did not have the strength to move, so she did not argue with them. In the end, the group went to the hospital.

Then, she was admitted to the hospital.

Mu Huan actually had more injuries than Long Feiting, and she merely did not faint.

When Li Meng went back to get the ointment and came back to apply it on Mu Huan, she saw the shocking injuries on her body and almost cried. "Who the f*ck was that person? He's too vicious!"

"Yes, I almost thought I was going to die. I even regretted not bequeathing to you all my game equipment," Mu Huan said.

Li Meng's hand froze in mid-air.

It was a situation that made Xiao Huan feel like she was about to die. It must have been very serious back then. This made her heart ache so much that she could no longer hold back her tears. "When we find out who it is, we'll kill them!"

"Everyone who gets killed was once alive. If they're dead, they can't be killed," Mu Huan said with a smile.

Li Meng: "..."

Only she would be in the mood to say such things right now!

After Li Meng had applied the medicine for her, Mu Huan could not take it anymore. "I'm going to sleep. There's an important test at 7 am tomorrow. Call me at 6:30 am."

"Yes."

After Mu Huan fell asleep, Li Meng called Wu Xingye in.

"I wonder who beat Xiao Huan up so badly." Li Meng had known Mu Huan since junior high.

Chapter 837: Sudden Strike (9)

She had never suffered such a serious injury before.

"Xiao Huan hasn't offended anyone recently." Wu Xingye frowned. Then, he asked, "Could it be Ling Wei?"

"That third party is really despicable! She's like a poisonous snake that only bites in the dark!" Li Meng became furious when Ling Wei was mentioned. God Bo and Xiao Huan had come to this point because of that third party!

"Is Xiao Huan really done with Bo Junyan?"

"I don't know, but Xiao Huan's attitude toward God Bo is getting colder and colder. Last time, when she saw the photos of God Bo and Ling Wei holding hands to attend the banquet, she wasn't angry at all. She really wasn't angry! She wasn't just pretending!" Li Meng emphasized.

"Actually, I think it's good that they're separated. Our Xiao Huan was originally such an outstanding and competitive person, but every day, she was being compared to someone like Ling Wei, and it's being said that she had nothing to her name. Even I feel my heart ache when I see this. They were born at different heights. Besides, there are still ten years to go before people can say that Xiao Huan can't do anything. Why don't they compare Ling Wei to a newborn child instead? A child can't be weak at all, right?" Wu Xingye snorted coldly.

"That's true, but those idiots don't understand!"

Because Mu Huan had asked them to guard against the Long family, Li Meng and Wu Xingye did not sleep.

In order to not feel sleepy, the two of them nestled themselves on the sofa and started to play games.

As Li Meng was playing the game, she suddenly recalled Mu Huan's words. "Xiao Huan was in danger this time. She felt like she was about to die and regretted not giving me all her equipment before she died. Thinking about it, it would be a pity if her equipment was wasted."

"It's fine. If anything really happens to her, I can even steal her game account. Her equipment won't be wasted," Wu Xingye said.

"That's true. I've forgotten about your capabilities."

Long Feilei, who had come over to take a look at Mu Huan's current situation, broke out in a sweat when he heard their conversation.

Mu Huan was worried about letting the Longs take care of her, so she got these two to do it instead. But the people taking care of her were thinking about getting her gaming equipment after she died?

Seeing that Mu Huan had fallen asleep, he did not go in.

The next day, Li Meng woke Mu Huan up punctually at half-past six.

Mu Huan lazed around on the bed for a while before accepting Li Meng's help to go down and wash up.

"What kind of test do you have? Can you even take the test like this?" Li Meng felt that she had to rest in bed for at least two to three days.

"It's a video test for NST. You don't have to go out," Mu Huan said.

"Oh," Li Meng replied casually. After a while, she reacted. "What did you say? NST?"

"Yes."

"Is that the top research laboratory that you've been paying attention to?"

"Yes."

"F*ck! How did you get your hands on its video test?!" Li Meng knew what kind of existence NST was because Mu Huan was very interested in it.

"Last time, wasn't it..." Mu Huan briefly explained the matter to Li Meng. For the past few days, she had forgotten to tell Li Meng these things because she was in a bad mood.

"Then are you planning to go to NST if you can pass the test?"

Li Meng instinctively added, "NST is in Y Country. Would your husband let you go?"

“Right now, I’m only making two preparations. I’ll take the test first. Having such a capital is also an additional way out.” Mu Huan had always planned this.

Li Meng was shocked. She had to be prepared. “You also think that you and God Bo can’t make it? That he’s going to be with Ling Wei?”

“I don’t think he’s going to be with Ling Wei. I won’t be defeated by those news.”

Chapter 838: Sudden Strike (10)

“It’s just that after this incident, I realized that there are many problems between us. The most important problem is his grandfather. I haven’t had the chance to tell you about that... I’ll tell you after I’m done with the test.” Mu Huan looked at her watch. It was almost time.

At this moment, Liu Changfeng called and asked her why he couldn’t get through to her through the video call.

It was only then that Mu Huan recalled that she had yet to install a WeChat account on this phone. Hence, she used Li Meng’s phone to log into her account and sent the details to Liu Changfeng.

“Why are you in the hospital?” Liu Changfeng was stunned when he saw her surroundings.

“I suffered some injuries last night.”

“Then how about we do the test another day?”

“No need. It didn’t hurt my head,” Mu Huan said.

“Alright.” Liu Changfeng did not say anything else and handed the home field to the research institute’s director.

The director brought along two professors, so there was a total of three examiners.

“There’s no need to be nervous. We’re just testing you on some simple questions,” the chief said.

Although Li Meng was also studying medicine, she realized that she could not understand what they were asking... And this was just a simple test...

It wasn’t that Li Meng was stupid, but her standard was that of a freshman. Mu Huan had learned a lot from her grandfathers since she was young. Furthermore, she was indeed very talented. She could remember all the books she had read in one go.

Logically speaking, a talented person like her should be able to enter university at the age of 14 or 15, which was a newsworthy achievement, and would then be able to study overseas at the age of 20. However, her granny’s health had started to deteriorate three years ago, and she did not have much time to study.

Everyone had to first satisfy their hunger and survive before they could pursue anything else.

The examination did not take long. It ended in an hour.

Perhaps it was because they wanted to hire someone who was good at Chinese medicine, so they mostly asked questions related to Chinese medicine.

For Mu Huan, who had grown up surrounded by a pile of Chinese medicine knowledge, there were no problems at all. As for other topics, there were some that she could not answer.

As there were still a lot of issues to debate, the director said that he wanted to discuss the results with the other two professors before informing her. Then, he hung up the video call.

As Mu Huan had suffered the most from yesterday's beating, she could not sit for long. However, she could not lie down during the examination. It would have made her look unprofessional. Hence, she'd forced herself to sit for an hour. Once she ended the video call, she immediately lay on the sofa.

Then, she reached out with one hand as if she couldn't take it. "Quick..." She was about to starve to death.

"Here's some delicious food." Wu Xingye had gone out to buy food for her during her examination. Before she could finish speaking, he had already brought some good food to her.

At the same time, Li Meng brought her some water for her to wash her hands.

When Long Feilei pushed Long Feiting in, he saw this scene.

Although Mu Huan's two friends looked unreliable, they had a tacit understanding with her.

When Li Meng saw Long Feiting, she instinctively said, "Oh, the landowner's foolish son has woken up."

Long Feiting: "..."

Long Feilei: "..."

Although the analogy was a little nasty, it was quite appropriate.

If Long Feiting knew what his brother was thinking, he would probably vomit blood.

Mu Huan was surprised to see Long Feiting sitting in a wheelchair. "Your leg is broken?"

Long Feiting: "..."

"His leg isn't broken. It's because his stamina hasn't recovered yet," Long Feilei said.

"Then quickly rest," Mu Huan said as she continued eating.

Chapter 839: Return (1)

"Feiting is worried about you, so he came over to take a look."

"I'm fine," Mu Huan said.

Long Feilei: "..."

It was obvious that she could eat a lot.

Then, Long Feilei took the opportunity to educate his brother. "Look, this girl is more seriously injured than you are, so she must be in more pain, but she eats so well and wants you to eat something too. You keep saying that you're feeling too unwell and don't want to eat! If you don't eat, how can you recover?!"

Long Feiting: "..."

What was with his brother's tone of lecturing a child?

"I want to eat breakfast here."

Just as Long Feiting finished speaking, Mu Huan and the other two covered the breakfast in front of them at the same time, their faces full of fear that Long Feiting would steal their good food!

The three of them were very independent.

Long Feiting: "..."

Long Feilei: "..."

S Country.

After a few days of hard work, Bo Junyan's schedule was finally not as tight. After a good night's sleep, he took out his phone to check it while he was eating. For the past few days, he had not had the time to look at the WeChat messages his wife had sent him.

Although Bo Junyan had not replied to Mu Huan's WeChat messages, he had read every one of them.

But when he clicked on it, he found that he had read all the messages. There was not a single new message.

This stunned him.

This was because, in the past, even if she knew that he was busy, she would still send him a photo or a few words when she was eating or doing something. And these past few days, to be exact, she had not sent him any messages since that day.

After thinking for a while, he clicked on Mu Huan's profile picture and saw that the most recent post on her WeChat Moments was: "I was so high last night! When I became handsome, I fell in love with myself!"

He instinctively clicked on her video. Although it was only a few seconds, he could tell how high his wife was while dancing and how happy she was.

Especially when she had taken off her coat and continued dancing! There were so many people below the stage! Just from the screams in the video, one could imagine what had happened.

This video looked short, but Mu Huan had edited the most handsome few seconds of those videos online.

Hence, Bo Junyan's expression darkened.

Were all those words she'd said to him earlier just to coax him? What "I'm going to be like the fallen leaves of this autumn..."?

He then dialed Mu Huan's number.

Mu Huan, who was eating breakfast, saw that it was a call from him. Thinking that something had happened, she picked up the call. "What's the matter? What's the matter?"

Bo Junyan asked, "Can't I look for you if nothing's the matter?"

Mu Huan: "..."

He was fine. When did he ever call her? Especially since he had been especially busy these past few days, why did he call her for no reason?

Not getting a response from her, he asked, "What are you doing?"

"Breakfast."

"Oh," Bo Junyan replied and waited for Mu Huan to continue.

This was because, from the start until now, she had always been the one speaking and he would occasionally reply with an "mm."

He had nothing to talk about.

However, Mu Huan did not say anything to him like she did in the past. She did not ask him if he was done with his work and how he had the time to call her.

Just as Bo Junyan, who was waiting for her to say something, was about to say something...

"What's the matter? If you have something to say, say it. If not, then hang up. My breakfast is getting cold." She had only taken a few bites of her breakfast. Why was he so silent? Was he still busy on the phone?

Bo Junyan: "..."

"What's wrong? Why aren't you saying anything?" Should she eat or not?

Chapter 840: Return (2)

Bo Junyan: "..."

What did she say?

"If you're not going to speak, I'm hanging up!" With that, Mu Huan hung up.

Bo Junyan looked at the call that had been hung up.

PA Wang had been taking turns to work with another assistant these past few days. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been able to withstand such a heavy workload. Today, it was PA Wang who was on duty. When he came in to remind Bo Junyan about his next appointment, he saw Bo Junyan staring at his phone in a daze.

He widened his eyes in shock.

He then rubbed his eyes to see if he had seen wrongly. How could their CEO be in a daze?

However, when he looked over after rubbing his eyes, Bo Junyan was still staring at his phone in a daze.

His wife had hung up on him...

PA Wang walked forward and called out in confusion, "CEO?"

Bo Junyan snapped back to his senses and looked up, his expression returning to normal.

"CEO, you should go to your next scheduled appointment."

"Okay." Bo Junyan put away his phone and stood up to leave.

Looking at the usual CEO, PA Wang could not help but wonder if he had seen wrongly.

Until they got into the car.

Bo Junyan, who was looking at the document, suddenly put down the document in his hand. "PA Wang, have you seen Madam's Moments?"

PA Wang: "..."

What was the CEO asking him when he was so busy? Look at Madam's Moments?

"Well?"

PA Wang snapped back to his senses and said instinctively, "No."

Recently, after he had gotten off work, he had been rushing to sleep to catch up on it. He'd had no time to do anything else.

Bo Junyan wanted him to take a look, but after thinking about it, he did not say anything else. He lowered his head and continued reading the document in his hand.

PA Wang took out his computer to handle his work.

But Bo Junyan suddenly asked, "Did I overdo it when Madam gave Ling Wei a drug last time?"

PA Wang: "..."

Was the CEO asking about whom he had treated unfairly? Was he being too much to Madam or CEO Ling?

After a while...

"Is the CEO talking about Madam?"

"Yes."

"It can't be said that you did too much, but Madam will definitely feel very upset. Although Madam shouldn't have done such a thing when we're so busy, Madam didn't know what we're busy with. Madam must have been too angry and didn't want you to lose your interests because of her. That's why she did that."

PA Wang then saw Bo Junyan's expression darken.

He quickly added, "Of course, CEO, you're even more right. After all, under such circumstances, we can only appease the Ling Group's employees first before settling the scores later."

At that time, there was indeed no time. Otherwise, the CEO would not have given up ten percent of the profits.

Bo Junyan kept silent with a darkened expression.

She was cold to him because she felt wronged, unhappy, and didn't want to bother with him?

After a moment of silence, he said, "Take a look at the schedule for the next two days. Shorten it and remove unnecessary appointments."

PA Wang: "..."

The schedule was relatively relaxed last night. The CEO had had a good night's sleep, and now, it had to be shortened?

"Get someone to prepare some gifts that girls like," Bo Junyan said. "No, forget it."

Before going back, he'd take some time to pick one himself.

At the hospital...

"Who called you just now?" Long Feiting asked casually.

"Bo Junyan," Mu Huan casually replied.

Everyone: "..."

In the past, when she called Bo Junyan, she was as delicate as a flower. Sometimes, she was so sweet that it was unbearable. Now...

She's so strong? She even dared to hang up?

"What's wrong?"
