

Fake Marriage 911

Chapter 911: If You Love Her, You Have to Support Her (1)

The gap between the Long family and the Bo family was not an ordinary gap. Long Feilei had investigated for many days, but he could not find anything. Before Mu Huan could finish her meal, Bo Junyan had already found some clues.

"I suspect that that group of people came from the same organization as your master. They were also the ones who built the survival camp in the wilderness."

"They're related to my master? Which master?" Mu Huan had had too many masters.

"Which master do you think is most likely?" Bo Junyan asked instead of answering.

Mu Huan thought for a moment. "The one from the pet shop next to my granny's outpatient clinic?"

"Yes."

"What kind of organization is my master from? Does he even have an organization? Isn't he just a pet seller?" Mu Huan asked curiously. Her master was so ordinary that he was especially calculative when he sold pets. Sometimes, he would not give in even for a single yuan. She had asked him how he could have such skills when he sold pets for a living, and he said that they were passed down from generation to generation.

Bo Junyan: "..."

She had such a formidable master, yet she thought that he was just a pet seller.

"What's wrong?" Mu Huan asked as she stopped eating.

"You said that those traps were testing you to the limit," Bo Junyan continued.

"Yes." After Mu Huan said that, she continued without waiting for Bo Junyan to say anything, "Did my master leave behind a huge organization for me to inherit? Will I be able to become the sect leader after passing the test?"

Bo Junyan: "..."

"Is there really such a possibility?!" When Mu Huan thought of this possibility, she became excited. F*ck! What kind of good luck did she have?! And she could become the successor for nothing!

Those people surrounding her were all outstanding. If she had a group of people under her, she could do whatever she wanted in the future!

"There couldn't be such a possibility. Back then, your master had betrayed the organization. Perhaps they were testing you because they wanted to test how much you had learned and how much you knew. They wanted to see if they needed to clean you up."

Bo Junyan's next words instantly sent Mu Huan falling from the clouds.

What the f*ck! Was there a mistake?! She wasn't going to be the sect head but something to clean up instead!

Looking at her dejected face, Bo Junyan reached out and caressed her head. "Don't be afraid. I'm here. I've already sent someone to look for their master."

"Find him and kill him, then I'll be the boss!" Mu Huan said viciously.

"Alright."

He would help her achieve whatever she wanted.

Mu Huan was just joking, but when she saw how serious her husband looked and how he seemed to take it seriously, she quickly said, "Hubby, I'm just joking! I don't want to kill anyone to be the boss!"

"You can be the boss. If he wants to harm you, we should kill him first." No matter what the other party did to his wife, they had to pay the price!

"I like that! But if the other party is a tough nut to crack, let's talk to him first." Mu Huan had always been a person who could be absolutely harmonious. If she couldn't, then she would beat him to death!

Bo Junyan said lightly, "It would depend."

"Okay." Mu Huan nodded. She was about to lower her head to continue eating when she suddenly thought of something. She looked up at Bo Junyan and said, "Hubby, do you know why my master betrayed the organization? What was his position in the organization in the past?"

"I'm not too sure about that at the moment. I'll get someone to investigate further." Her master came from a very mysterious organization. If it weren't for the fact that he had some connections with this organization, he probably wouldn't have been able to find clues so quickly.

Chapter 912: If You Love Her, You Have to Support Her (2)

"Oh." Mu Huan lowered her head and continued to eat.

Having expended too much energy, she was starving!

It would be an exaggeration for others to say they could eat a cow when they were hungry, but it was not an exaggeration in her case.

She ate so well that Bo Junyan ate a little more. Just as he was thinking that if he continued eating, he would have to exercise more...

Suddenly, a voice rang out behind him. "Xiao Huan, every time I see you eating, I feel especially hungry."

Bo Junyan frowned when he heard this. Every time?

Mu Huan looked up. "Best Actor Liu, have you been very free lately?"

Why did she meet him so often?

"Recently, I haven't been idle. I've been trying to convince you to go to NST. Hence, I often appear in front of you." Liu Changfeng smiled and sat down before they invited him.

He went to look for a few people who were good at traditional Chinese medicine, but the superintendent and the rest felt that they would not do. He could only persistently appear in front of the two of them to make them change their minds and let Mu Huan follow him to NST.

His father had said that as long as he could find a truly useful person to give to NST, he would not bother him and would let him do whatever he wanted in the future. Hence, he had to be thick-skinned and not give up.

“You don’t have to appear again. Xiao Huan won’t go.” Bo Junyan rejected him outright.

“Mr. Bo, I know you’re very capable. Your family doesn’t lack money at all. However, Mr. Bo, you can’t ruin Xiao Huan’s future because of this. She was originally a big boss who could have left her name in the pharmaceutical industry and save patients from suffering. By doing this, you’re breaking her wings and treating her as an accessory.”

Apart from the fact that his father’s conditions had moved him, he knew how important this research project was. That was why he was working so hard.

This research project had been going on for many years. His father had invested a lot of money and time into this project. If the project did not succeed, then all the money would go to waste.

He knew that many research and development projects would fail no matter how much money they invested.

However, there was still room for him to work hard on this project. Mu Huan might become a variable in this. Hence, he had to be braver the more he failed.

“Especially since Xiao Huan really wants to go to NST. She said that she would laugh even in her dreams if she thought that she could go there!” Liu Changfeng said as he looked at Mu Huan.

At this point, Bo Junyan was also looking at Mu Huan.

Mu Huan met his deep and dangerous eyes. “...”

She had said this before. To be able to study with so many super big shots, she would indeed laugh in her dreams. Hence, she could not deny it. Even if she did, Bo Junyan would see through it.

“Mr. Bo, I think that loving someone means supporting everything she has. Only someone who doesn’t love or doesn’t love enough would want to confine her.” It’s true that NST needed her talent now...

However, to Mu Huan, entering NST was also a good opportunity.

Mu Huan frowned and was about to say something.

Bo Junyan said seriously, “You’re right. If you love someone, you should support everything she wants.”

Mu Huan widened her eyes in shock. What did her husband mean by this? Did he want her to go to NST because of Liu Changfeng’s words?

Liu Changfeng was also very surprised that Bo Junyan would say that. He thought that a domineering person like him would rather die than let Mu Huan leave him to study, but he said that...

Just as Liu Changfeng was about to ask something...

Bo Junyan said, "I'll discuss the collaboration with your father later. You don't have to come looking for my wife again."

He did not like any man approaching Mu Huan.

"Discuss cooperation?" Liu Changfeng was slightly stunned.

"Yes." Bo Junyan hummed in acknowledgment before looking at PA Wang.

PA Wang immediately stepped forward. "Mr. Liu, please. Our CEO wants to have a meal alone with Madam."

Since he was asked to leave, Liu Changfeng would not continue to stay here. He did not say anything else and stood up to leave.

After he left...

"Hubby, what collaboration do you want to discuss with his father?" Mu Huan asked curiously.

"You don't really want to go to NST." Bo Junyan had thought of this before and had already started to prepare.

"I really want to go, but I want to be with Hubby even more!" In the past, Mu Huan couldn't bear to part with Bo Junyan, and now, she was even more reluctant. Now, she felt that the happiest thing in the world was to be with her husband!

She could take things slowly, but she couldn't leave her husband to the side. Life was short, and being with her husband was the most important!

To women in love, love came first. No matter how big a matter was, it couldn't be bigger than her husband.

Mu Huan's words made Bo Junyan very happy. He reached out and pulled her into his embrace, then lowered his head and kissed her.

After a while...

"I'll give you the detailed list of the professors in NST later. Whoever you want to learn from first, we'll transfer them over, and after that, transfer another batch," Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan was stunned. "What do you mean, Hubby?"

"The people from NST are all researching there. If you want to enter NST, you don't have to go to Y Country. We can also build a research laboratory in Yun Cheng. When the time comes, all the data will be synchronized with the headquarters. Now that video communication is so advanced, and with most of the professors transferred over, it'll be no different than if you went there."

Mu Huan was wholeheartedly thinking about Bo Junyan, so naturally, Bo Junyan was also thinking about Mu Huan. His wife had talent, so he would definitely not tie her down for his own selfish reasons and stop her from spreading her wings and flying high. He would only send her to whatever heights she wanted to reach.

Mu Huan: "...!!"

Was he asking the facility to move since she couldn't?

How much money would it cost to build a research laboratory?! Alright, let's not talk about money. He had plenty of money and didn't care about it. Let's just talk about which big shots could be transferred over just because someone wanted to ask them to. Which awesome but temperamental genius could even be influenced by money...?

"Hubby..." Just as she was about to say that there was no need to put in so much effort for her...

Bo Junyan continued, "It's nothing difficult."

Mu Huan: "..."

"Is there anything difficult for you?" He didn't think it was difficult at all!

"Yes."

Mu Huan asked instinctively, "What is it?"

"You leaving me," Bo Junyan said in a slightly aggrieved tone.

Mu Huan: "..."

This kind of powerful and omnipotent man, the occasional grievance he exuded was really too lethal! It made one's heart instantly explode!

"Hubby, I was stupid and foolish in the past. Now that I'm smarter, I'll never leave you again!" Mu Huan said as she hugged him tightly.

"Be good." Bo Junyan lowered his head and kissed her.

In the western suburbs of Yun Cheng.

Seeing Long Feiting return, Mu Kexin immediately greeted him with a smile.

Chapter 914: If You Love Her, You Have to Support Her (4)

Last time, Long Feiting had suddenly asked so many questions. Although she felt that she had fooled him, he still left in the end. His departure made her feel uneasy. Hence, these last few days, she was even more eager to do something with Long Feiting. As long as they made substantial progress, it would be worth it no matter what happened in the future.

"Feiting, I'll give it to you..."

Before Mu Kexin could finish speaking, Long Feiting pulled her up!

Long Feiting was tall and strong. With one hand, he lifted Mu Kexin into the air. His face looked so sinister that Mu Kexin screamed in fright!

That scream attracted Long Feilei, who was working upstairs.

He hurriedly ran down and saw his little brother holding Mu Kexin in his arms, looking like he wanted to tear her apart.

Long Feilei hurried forward and asked, "What happened?"

"It's none of your business!" Long Feiting said as he dragged Mu Kexin out.

"Feiting, what are you doing? Also, what's wrong with your leg? Why is it injured?!" Long Feilei saw that his walking posture was not right and followed anxiously.

Long Feiting carried Mu Kexin out of the door and threw her out harshly. Then, with a look of disgust, he said, "If it weren't for the fact that I don't hit women, I would have killed you! How dare you lie to me!"

Although Mu Kexin was very afraid of Long Feiting, she was not willing to be chased out just like that. Hence, she mustered up her courage and said, "What did I lie to you about?"

"What did you lie to me about?" Long Feiting sneered.

"That's right, what did I lie to you about?! What did I lie to you about from the start to the end?!" Mu Kexin felt that she had not said anything at all. No matter what, she could not have lied to Long Feiting!

"Mu Kexin, do you really think that just because you didn't say anything, others won't know about it and you'll be fine?" Long Feiting felt that she was too naive. She thought that it would be fine as long as she refused to admit it.

But when he thought about how he had been deceived by such a stupid person like her, he felt even more stupid!

This made his expression turn even uglier!

Just as Mu Kexin was about to say something...

Long Feiting looked at his brother and said, "Brother, get someone to torture her to death. The more miserable she gets, the better! Make it so she's especially miserable!"

Long Feilei: "..."

What had gotten into his little brother? He was so ruthless!

"Long Feiting, you can't do this! You were the one who wanted to woo me and make me your girlfriend! Everything started because of you! But now you're saying that I lied to you and that you want to mess with me. How can you do this?!" Mu Kexin didn't know if it was because she was so afraid that she wanted to resist or something, but she got up and still dared to shout.

“Yes, I was the one who wooed you. But so what even if you didn’t lie to me? I just want to torture you to death, alright?” Long Feiting couldn’t be bothered to say anything much to her. His expression was full of arrogance. So what if I want to torture you to death?

Mu Kexin: “...!!”

This was possible!

...

After getting someone to drag Mu Kexin away, Long Feilei looked at his younger brother and asked, “What’s the matter?”

“Nothing!” Long Feiting did not want to tell anyone about such an embarrassing thing, not even his own brother!

But...

“You flew into a rage because you realized that Mu Kexin isn’t your Little Star. Were you cheated?” Long Feilei asked.

Long Feiting: “...!!”

How did he know?!

Long Feilei seemed to have seen through his thoughts and said, “I already knew about such an obvious matter.”

Long Feiting: “...!!”

“Didn’t I tell you before? This Mu Kexin is definitely not your Little Star.” Long Feilei’s face was full of disbelief. I already knew that she wasn’t, but you were so stupid that you didn’t believe me.

Chapter 915: If You Love Her, You Have to Support Her (5)

Long Feiting: “...!!”

If this continued, he would start to doubt his life!

“Did you just suddenly realize that she’s not your Little Star? Or did you find your real Little Star? Who is it? Is there really such a brave and smart girl in this world as you say?” Long Feilei had been searching for a person he could not find for years, and it made him suspect that Little Star was fabricated by his younger brother.

“I’m going upstairs to rest.” With that, Long Feiting headed upstairs.

He didn’t want to say anything more to his brother. Once he said something, it meant that he was admitting to his brother’s guess. Once he admitted it, it meant that he was admitting that he was stupid.

“Little brother, it’s fine even if you’re a little stupid. Don’t take things too hard!” Long Feilei shouted as he looked at his back.

His little brother had been protected by them since he was young, so it was normal for him not to think of some things.

Long Feiting's body froze in mid-stride.

"By the way, what happened to your leg? Do you need me to call the doctor over to take a look?"

"No need!" With that, Long Feiting went upstairs angrily.

The next day at Yun University...

"Mu Huan, come up and answer this question."

Just as Bo Junyan shouted, Mu Huan stood up and walked toward the podium.

When she was answering the question, Bo Junyan was standing very close to her. When he realized that she had drawn the wrong diagram, he went forward and grabbed her hand, telling her how to draw this diagram.

All the boys: "...!!!"

They all felt that Mu Huan and Bo Junyan's love was even more romantic than an idol drama. It was full of twists and turns!

Previously, the two of them had a hidden marriage and then got a divorce. Now...

They were almost unable to stay in the classroom any longer!

They really wanted to shout, "Professor Bo, why don't you give us a break during our lesson? You guys can't show off here!"

He could do whatever he wanted elsewhere!

Showing off in front of us like this... is too inhumane!

The girls, on the other hand, were mesmerized. When they first saw Professor Bo's stunning looks, they could not help but fantasize about all sorts of beautiful things. Many girls had fantasized about this scene before. While they wrote on the blackboard, Professor Bo would grab their hands from behind to tell them the correct answer.

It was such a wonderful feeling that the young girls' hearts were about to explode!

Although they didn't have the chance to experience this feeling themselves, it was still very good to be able to see the scene they were fantasizing about!

This logic was similar to how girls loved to watch idol dramas. Although the female lead wasn't them, it could still make their young hearts beat wildly.

Feeling that this was a little inappropriate, Mu Huan lightly patted Bo Junyan's hand and told him to stay away from her. They were in the classroom!

Bo Junyan smiled and did not speak.

Seeing the dotting smile on Bo Junyan's face, the girls instantly exploded!

Heavens! This was too unbearable!

It was no wonder that there was such crazy jealousy in this world. Such a perfect and desirable man was right in front of you. You could touch him, but he was so high up that you could not reach him. Yet, someone had him right in front of you.

This was really driving one crazy with jealousy!

After class, Bo Junyan called Mu Huan to his office as usual.

“Let’s go to the Imperial Capital tonight and attend Ling Wei’s engagement banquet tomorrow.”

“What?” Mu Huan was stunned.

“We’re going to attend Ling Wei’s engagement party tomorrow,” Bo Junyan repeated.

“Ling Wei is getting engaged? She’s giving up just like that?” Mu Huan found this unbelievable.

Chapter 916: Who Is She? (1)

“She’s a smart person. She knows that she can’t force things, so she’ll choose the most beneficial option for herself,” Bo Junyan said.

“Are you praising her?” Mu Huan narrowed her eyes.

Bo Junyan: “...”

He was only stating the facts.

“Even if you’re just speaking the truth, you can’t say that. You can say that she’s tactful! She knows when to retreat!” Mu Huan said.

“Alright.” Bo Junyan looked like he would do whatever his wife said.

Seeing this, Mu Huan couldn’t help but kiss him. Her husband was really too good!

Just as she was about to leave, Bo Junyan hugged her.

The two of them were at their most intimate moment.

“However, Hubby, although Ling Wei is someone who retreats in the face of difficulties, she’s such a competitive person. Is she giving up just like that?” Mu Huan felt that this was a little impossible.

After all, in the truest sense of the word, Ling Wei had not done anything. It was really unreasonable for a person like her to give up without doing anything.

“She has no choice but to give up,” Bo Junyan said.

Mu Huan: “...”

Perhaps it was really as her husband had said. Ling Wei was a smart person. She knew that if she couldn’t have it, she wouldn’t waste her efforts.

Hopefully, that was the case.

After all, a beauty like her would have a good future.

Mu Huan was always more forgiving toward beauties.

With this thought in mind, Mu Huan began to think about the good things.

“It’s great that she can give up like this. She’s such a beauty, so she doesn’t need to force anyone into not letting her go. There are so many fresh meat celebrities in this world, and with her qualities, she can pick whoever she wants!”

Bo Junyan: “ ... ”

The next day in the Imperial Capital...

Although Ling Wei and the second son of the Pei family only recently got together, their engagement party was still very grand. All the guests were celebrities and politicians.

Ling Wei, who was shuttling among the guests, smiled happily as if she got engaged today because of love.

The second young master of the Pei family was also someone with outstanding looks. The two of them looked rather compatible standing together.

Mu Huan looked at the two of them standing together and said, “I hope this Second Young Master of the Pei family is Ling Wei’s true love. She can be loving with him until the end of her life.”

Bo Junyan looked at the two of them silently.

Mu Huan was about to say something when she suddenly saw a figure. This figure instantly made her forget everything!

She could only stare at him in a daze. Bo Junyan called her several times, but she did not respond.

Bo Junyan followed her line of sight and saw that it was Ling Feng and his wife. “What’s the matter? Do you know them?”

Mu Huan regained her senses and stammered, “That... that... woman, who is she? Do... do you know her?”

How... how...

How could there be such a similar-looking person in this world?!

How could this be...

But...

She couldn’t help but rub her eyes. However, that person was still there. It wasn’t that she was dreaming, nor was it anything else. The person with that face was still there...

“She’s Ling Feng’s wife, Ling Wei’s stepmother. What’s wrong?”

Mu Huan: “What... what’s her name?”

Why did they look so alike?

It was so realistic that it made her shiver. Despite knowing that it was impossible, she still thought so.

“Xue Yun.”

Mu Huan was supposed to heave a sigh of relief that it wasn't the name she thought it would be. However, at this moment, her nerves had tensed up again after hearing “Xue.”

Was it a coincidence that her surname was Xue?

“What's wrong? Do you know her?” Bo Junyan asked as he looked at her strange expression.

“Although this is very impossible... she really seems... seems...” As Mu Huan spoke, Xue Yun looked over at them from a very clear angle.

Chapter 917: Who Is She? (2)

When Mu Huan saw her face clearly, she was stunned as though she had been struck by lightning. This... How could this be... How could this be...

“What's wrong?” Bo Junyan frowned.

“She... she looks like my mother... She's just a little older than the mother I remember...” Mu Huan said in a daze.

Bo Junyan looked over.

“My mother and I don't look alike, but if you look closely, you should be able to tell that my face shape is very similar to hers.”

Bo Junyan rarely paid attention to other women. He only had an impression of the other women he had met before. When he saw her again, he would know her identity, but he would not look at her carefully. He would not let her appearance occupy his mind.

Hence, he knew about the existence of Ling Wei's stepmother, but he had never taken a closer look at her. Now that his wife had said so, he took a closer look and realized that the other party's face shape was very similar to his wife's.

“Didn't your mother pass away long ago?”

“Yes... My mom died when I... was nine years old...” When she was ten, her father remarried, and when she was 11, she was chased out of the house.

Bo Junyan was about to say something.

“My mom doesn't have a twin sister. She's been an only child since she was young. I'm very sure about this.” It was precisely because of the passing of his only daughter that her grandfather's health became worse and he left the world so early.

Bo Junyan asked, “You think she might be your mother?”

Mu Huan didn't speak, but her body started to tremble. Her mother had passed away, so it couldn't be her mother. But if it wasn't, why did they look so similar? It could be said that they were identical.

But if she was her mother, why did she become Ling Wei's stepmother? If she was alive, why didn't she come back to look for her and her granny?

Seeing her like this, Bo Junyan pulled her forward.

"Where are you going?" Mu Huan snapped back to her senses and refused to move forward.

"Aren't you suspecting that she's your mother? Let's go take a look and ask." It was useless to be so nervous.

"I don't want..." Mu Huan, who had always been clear and decisive, was now afraid and didn't dare to go forward.

She thought that this lady was her mother, but she was also afraid.

For a moment, she couldn't tell what was going through her mind. She just didn't dare to go forward and confirm it.

This was the first time Bo Junyan had seen Mu Huan like this, so he did not force her to go.

When Xue Yun looked over at them, she saw Mu Huan as well.

The person who had appeared in the newspaper a few days ago suddenly appeared in front of her, making her body tremble uncontrollably.

She was afraid that Mu Huan would recognize her, but if she couldn't, she would feel upset.

This feeling was indescribable.

"What's wrong?" Ling Feng asked when he sensed her strange behavior.

"N-nothing..." Xue Yun shook her head after regaining her senses.

Ling Feng felt that she did not look like it was nothing. Hence, he followed her line of sight. However, as Mu Huan had pulled Bo Junyan away, he did not see anything.

He felt that Xue Yun had been acting a little strange recently, but he had a lot of things to do during such an occasion. Hence, he did not probe further.

Mu Huan pulled Bo Junyan to the side and took a few deep breaths to calm herself down.

Bo Junyan: "..."

Although he did not understand why she was pulling him to hide and why she was so nervous, he would let his wife do whatever she wanted.

Chapter 918: Who Is She? (3)

"How much do you know about her?" Through the potted tree, Mu Huan secretly looked in Xue Yun's direction.

“Ten years ago, Ling Feng went on a business trip to Country F and saved Xue Yun by the sea. Xue Yun had lost her memory and didn’t remember who she was. Because she knew how to speak Chinese, she felt that she must be Chinese. When Ling Feng saw that she was alone and had no one to rely on, he brought her back. Later, the two of them got together. Ling Feng even married her. She gave birth to a son for Ling Feng. Ling Xiao is now eight years old.”

Mu Huan clenched her fists tightly.

Country F...

Back then, her mother had jumped into the sea in Country F.

Initially, Matriarch Mu had treated Mu Huan’s mother quite well. However, when Mu Huan turned five, her grandma used the excuse that her mother couldn’t give birth to a son to secretly abuse her mother mentally.

This caused her mother to suffer from depression. When her family went to Country F to play, she jumped into the sea in order to commit suicide.

At that time, when Mu Huan’s maternal grandfather received the news and rushed to Country F, he used all his connections to search for her for an entire month, but he didn’t manage to find Mu Huan’s mother. The area from where her mother jumped into the sea was also the area with the most sharks. Song Zhiwen, who thought that his only daughter was already gone, fell sick when he returned. Then, his body became worse and worse, and he finally passed away.

After Song Zhiwen died, the Mu family, who had been working closely with the Song family, took the opportunity to swallow the Song family.

Back then, Mu Huan, who was only nine years old, only knew that her mother had passed away. She could no longer see her mother.

All these years, life had been tough. It made her recall the days she’d spent with her mother less and less. She had never thought that her mother was still alive. Hence, when she saw Xue Yun, she was so shocked and felt that it was impossible. It was unbelievable.

But now that she heard this, she increasingly felt that this Xue Yun was her mother...

Not to mention that the timing was just right and the location was the same, even if her mother didn’t have twin sisters, she looked exactly like her mother!

“You mean... she... lost her memory?” Was that why she was still alive and did not go back to find them?

“Ling Feng said that she lost her memory.” Bo Junyan wasn’t sure about this because he had never cared about this matter and had never investigated it.

“She must have lost her memory!” Mu Huan said.

Otherwise, why would her mother not return to look for them?!

“Let’s go over and say hello,” Bo Junyan said.

It would be easy to find out if she had lost her memory or not.

"I... I wouldn't dare..." This was the first time in her life that Mu Huan was so nervous, so scared, so... surreal.

She didn't know why she was afraid, nor did she know what she was afraid of, but she was.

Bo Junyan: "..."

She had always been very brave, but now...

"Hubby, what should I do? I'm really scared and nervous... I don't know what's wrong with me." Mu Huan grabbed Bo Junyan's arm tightly.

She was so nervous that her breathing became unstable.

Because she increasingly felt that that was her mother.

Her mother who had died many years ago.

A person whom she had thought had been dead for many years was suddenly standing right in front of her. This feeling was really, really hard to describe.

Bo Junyan wanted to say that there was no need to be nervous, but when he thought about how this person might be her biological mother who had been dead for many years, and how she had suddenly met her without warning, he realized that her emotions must be very complex right now. He didn't know how to deal with it, so he reached out to pull her into his embrace and lightly caressed her back.

Chapter 919: Who Is She? (4)

"Don't be nervous. I'm here for you."

His firm and warm chest slowly calmed her down.

After a while.

"Let's go say hello." No matter what, escaping was not a solution.

"Okay." Bo Junyan let go of her and reached out to hug her waist as he walked out.

Just as Xue Yun was about to say that she was feeling unwell and wanted to go back first, she saw Bo Junyan and Mu Huan walking toward her. This made her body freeze. She wanted to say something, but she couldn't.

She did not hear what Ling Feng said to her.

This made Ling Feng frown. He didn't know what had happened to her recently. She was always distracted.

This time, he followed Xue Yun's line of sight and saw Bo Junyan and Mu Huan. He recalled the last time when Xue Yun looked at Mu Huan's photo in such a dazed and strange manner. Ling Feng felt that she might know Mu Huan.

Just as he was about to say something...

Their eight-year-old son, Ling Xiao, walked over under someone's lead.

“Mom, look at me...” Ling Xiao seemed to have gotten some treasure as he showed it to Xue Yun proudly.

When Xue Yun saw him, she immediately snapped back to her senses and bent down. She smiled at her son and praised him for being awesome.

When Mu Huan and Bo Junyan walked over, they happened to see this scene.

This made Mu Huan feel a little conflicted.

Mu Huan’s memories of kinship and pampering from her parents were from before she was nine years old. At that time, she was the only daughter and the most pampered one. No matter what her father thought in his heart, on the surface, he doted on her so much. Her mother doted on her even more. She doted on her so much that she did whatever she wanted. All the love was hers alone.

Later, her father had another child, and now...

If this was her mother, she now had another child.

This feeling...

It was really complicated.

“Mom, I want to go to the yard outside. There are a lot of fun things there.” An eight-year-old child loved to play.

“Sure.” She took Ling Xiao’s hand and was about to walk out. Just as Xue Yun was about to leave...

Bo Junyan and Mu Huan had already arrived in front of her.

Seeing Bo Junyan and Mu Huan blocking their way, Xue Yun was stunned once again.

Mu Huan and Bo Junyan were both extremely smart people. There was no need for them to ask anything else. They could tell just by looking at Xue Yun’s stunned and complicated eyes.

Although Xue Yun quickly snapped back to her senses and the complex look in her eyes was gone, they had all seen it and had a judgment in their hearts.

“Junyan, you’re here.” Ling Feng greeted Bo Junyan with a smile.

“Yes,” he replied nonchalantly.

“Wifey, let me introduce you. This is Junyan’s wife, Mu Huan.” Ling Feng made the introductions.

Although Xue Yun had regained her senses, she did not know what to say for a moment. She was really not mentally prepared. Although it had been a few days since she’d learned that Mu Huan was Bo Junyan’s wife, she did not expect the two of them to meet so suddenly. This made her, who had not made a decision yet, not know how to react.

Mu Huan was a person who took action the moment she made a decision. Hence, without waiting for Xue Yun to think about how she should react, she said, “Auntie, I think you look familiar. You remind me of a very important person I know. I wonder if I can speak to you alone.”

When she met Xue Yun's complex gaze earlier, Mu Huan felt that she had recognized her.

But if she recognized her, it meant that she didn't lose her memory. If she didn't lose her memory, why didn't she return to Yun Cheng to look for them?

Chapter 920: Who Is She? (5)

Even if she felt that her past life was terrible and created a new identity, made a new family, and decided she didn't want to have anything to do with her, there was still her granny!

That was her biological mother. How could she not return to see her for so many years?

This...

No matter what, she wanted to talk to her and confirm it.

Initially, Ling Feng had felt that Xue Yun was being a little strange when she was facing Mu Huan. Now that Mu Huan was being so direct with her, he was even more sure that his wife had some sort of relationship with Mu Huan.

He looked at Xue Yun and asked, "Wifey, do you know Junyan's wife?"

Xue Yun bit her lip, not knowing how to answer this question.

Seeing this, Ling Feng said, "Go talk to Mu Huan first."

Xue Yun knew that it was impossible not to talk about it under such circumstances. Hence, she nodded.

"Let's talk upstairs." Mu Huan looked at Xue Yun with a complex expression.

She used to be her closest relative, but now...

Xue Yun was about to nod.

Ling Xiao said, "Mom, didn't you want to take me out to play?"

Why was she now going upstairs to talk?

Without waiting for Xue Yun to say anything, Ling Feng said, "Daddy will take you out to play."

Although Xue Yun had always been the one accompanying Ling Xiao, Ling Xiao liked his father more. Hence, when he heard Ling Feng's words, he immediately walked to Ling Feng's side with a bright smile.

From afar, Ling Wei saw Bo Junyan and Mu Huan talking to Xue Yun. After they left, she came to Ling Feng's side.

"Dad, what's going on? Does she know Mu Huan?"

"They must have a deep relationship," Ling Feng said.

"Didn't you say that she had lost her memory and doesn't remember anything? If she lost her memory, how could she still recognize someone?" Ling Wei had always felt that Xue Yun was pretending to have lost her memory and was just acting pitiful. She had taken a fancy to her father's identity and insisted on relying on him.

Unfortunately, her father had taken a fancy to her beauty and was obsessed with her. When he found out that she was pregnant with a boy, he had even married her.

“Back then, the doctor said that there was a possibility that she could regain her memory. Hence, it’s possible that she has only recently regained her memory.” Ling Feng recalled that Xue Yun had often been in a daze since this year.

“Ha...” Ling Wei sneered, her expression saying that only a fool would believe that woman’s words.

Ling Wei was dissatisfied with his remarriage. Ling Feng had always known about it. Hence, he did not mind her attitude. “No matter what, it would be great if she really has something to do with Mu Huan.”

In a situation where the environment was not good, the Ling Group’s profits would decrease every year, but the Bo Group would grow by the day. Especially with the emergence of new energy sources, the Bo Group’s reputation would soar. The orders from the various countries would be lenient. Originally, the Ling Group could have made a huge profit, but during a critical juncture of the new energy source project last time, the Ling Group’s employees went on strike. Now, the Bo Group had chosen another company for many cases that they could clearly have collaborated with the Ling Group.

If this continued, the Ling Group and the Bo Group would only grow further apart. If his wife had some deep relationship with Mu Huan, then they might be able to return to their former relationship.

He could tell that Bo Junyan doted on his little wife a lot, and she was a large part of the reason that he now refused to cooperate with the Ling Group.

Ling Wei thought of something and smiled. “Yes, if only they were really related.”

“Dad, aren’t we going out to play?” Ling Xiao was in a hurry to go out to play, but his father didn’t move at all, so he couldn’t help but urge him.
