

Fake Marriage 951

Chapter 951: A Sudden Loss (2)

He did not sleep for long. He'd spent the entire morning thinking about what decision to make.

Before he went downstairs, he had made up his mind to separate from her. Just as she had said, even if it wasn't for the fact that they had grown up together, he had to let go of her on account that her grandfather had saved his life. If he didn't love her, he should let them both be free.

After the divorce, he could still keep his promise and continue to take care of her.

But now, seeing her like this, he thought that if he were to divorce her, she would definitely belong to another man. At that time, she would be like how she was to him, washing other men's hands and making them soup, looking at other men with such loving eyes, and even...

He couldn't even think about it, let alone see it happen!

This made his hard-earned decision collapse again!

He was unwilling to let her leave or accept letting her go.

Fu Siye had never been so hesitant and uncertain in his life.

Just as he was about to turn around and head upstairs to buy some more time to make his final decision...

Shangguan Yu turned around. "You're awake."

Under her gaze, Fu Siye could no longer turn around and go upstairs. "Yes."

"Wait a minute, dinner will be ready soon." Taking care of him was her habit. No matter what the situation was, she was used to taking care of his needs first.

"Okay." Fu Siye looked at Shangguan Yu with a complex expression and struggled.

When it came to his wife's status, he had nothing to be picky about. In fact, she was perfect. Whether it was in terms of their married life or in other aspects, she was very compatible with him.

If she had not plotted for him to marry her, he would have been very satisfied with her.

However, she had used his trust in her to plot against him.

After dinner, Shangguan Yu looked at Fu Siye quietly.

Fu Siye knew what she was waiting for, but he said, "I still have work to do. Let's talk when we get back."

Shangguan Yu had known him since they were young, and he was the only one in her eyes, so she naturally understood him. "Siye, it won't take long to tell me your decision. It'll only take a few seconds."

Fu Siye: "..."

It would only take a few seconds to say it, but it would take longer to make it.

“Siye, I really don’t want to wait anymore. You either give me an answer now or let me leave.”

Fu Siye was about to say something.

“After you left, I sat on the sofa and waited the entire time,” Shangguan Yu said lightly.

Fu Siye: “...”

Shangguan Yu did not speak again, but her gaze told him that if he did not give her an answer now, she would leave.

“Why do you want an answer now?” He didn’t understand why she had to force him to make a decision now.

“Because I don’t want to wait any longer.”

Fu Siye recalled what she had said before and mocked, “Didn’t you say that you would love me forever and wait for me forever?”

After a long pause, Shangguan Yu said, “I overestimated myself. My life is too long. I can’t last that long.”

“Shangguan Yu, don’t you think you’re being very selfish? When you love me, you insist on forcing me to marry you. When you don’t want to love me anymore, you insist on forcing me to make a decision. What do you take me for?” Fu Siye’s gaze turned colder.

Shangguan Yu lowered her gaze and said, “I’m very selfish. I’m sorry.”

In the past, whenever he mentioned how she forced him to marry her, she would always explain.

Chapter 952: A Sudden Loss (3)

But now, she didn’t want to explain anymore. No matter how much she tried to explain, he wouldn’t believe her. It was useless no matter what she said. He could think whatever he wanted and say whatever he felt comfortable with.

Fu Siye saw that Shangguan Yu no longer tried to explain as she did in the past, saying that she had never thought of forcing him to marry her, and that she had never schemed against him. Instead, she directly admitted that she was selfish, and his gaze turned even colder.

Because only when a person really wanted to let go would they no longer care.

He reached out and pinched Shangguan Yu’s chin. “Shangguan Yu, this marriage isn’t something you can just give up if you want it!”

Shangguan Yu was about to say something.

Fu Siye continued, “Back then, you did such a thing and ruined Gu Lingyin’s life, depriving her of her right to be a mother. You should pay the price for this. No matter what she wants to do to you, you can only bear with it. You can’t resist, let alone leave!”

“I didn’t ruin her life! I didn’t ask someone to kidnap her! The loss of her child has nothing to do with me!” If it was Shangguan Yu who did it, she would never deny that she had to bear the responsibility. However, she would never admit to anything she didn’t do, much less let anyone bully her.

“There’s no point denying what happened back then!”

Fu Siye’s words made her want to say something, but she stopped herself because it was useless.

“Shangguan Yu, only I can decide whether or not this marriage will continue!”

“Yes, only you can decide. So, do you want to continue or end this?” This was all she wanted to ask. If he wanted it, she would continue being married to him. If he didn’t want it, she wouldn’t force him to stay. She would give him her blessings.

Fu Siye suddenly realized that there was no need for him to make a decision now. “When I want to end this, I’ll naturally tell you, but you have no right to interrogate me!”

Shangguan Yu was about to say something.

“Don’t even think about finding another man. If you dare to have such thoughts and show such behavior again, I’ll lock you up!”

“Fu Siye, you...”

“It’s settled then!” With that, Fu Siye turned around and headed upstairs.

Shangguan Yu looked at his back and didn’t know if she had gotten an answer or not. Because he didn’t want a divorce despite having such a good opportunity.

All along, he had thought of all sorts of ways to get her to take the initiative to divorce him. Now, she had helped him, but he didn’t want it.

Did this mean that his feelings for her had changed? Although she got disappointed over and over again in the past, Shangguan Yu still had hope.

Because she really loved him so much. This love surpassed her life and everything about her.

She really wanted to be with him...

Even if it was a one in a million chance, she wanted to grab hold of it and not give up.

At Yun University...

“Xiao Huan, what do you want for lunch?”

“Let’s go out and eat, I...” Mu Huan’s next words were cut off by her phone.

It was from Xue Yun.

“Xiao Huan, come over quickly. Your granny is being treated at the hospital!”

After she suddenly received such a call, without any warning, Mu Huan’s mind went blank. It took her a few seconds to regain her senses. “What happened? What happened to Granny?!”

“Your granny got into a car accident,” Xue Yun said in a choked voice.

“I’ll be right there!” Mu Huan said as she dashed out.

After hanging up, she called Bo Junyan.

Chapter 953: A Sudden Loss (4)

Bo Junyan asked her to wait at the school field; they'd travel by helicopter. Not long after Mu Huan ran to the field, rumbling sounds came from the sky. In order to save time, she did not ask the helicopter to stop. Instead, she asked Bo Junyan to throw down the soft ladder and climbed up.

At the hospital in the Imperial Capital.

After arriving at the hospital, Bo Junyan went straight into the operating theater.

"Why did Junyan enter the operating theater?" Xue Yun asked in shock.

"He's the best surgeon. With him around, nothing will happen to Granny!" Mu Huan looked at the door of the operating theater and clenched her fists.

Xue Yun: "..."

She did not expect Bo Junyan to be a doctor!

...

Bo Junyan was the best surgeon, but with Mu Huan's granny's current situation, even a god wouldn't be able to save her. Her injuries were serious, and she was old...

No matter how good his medical skills were, there was nothing he could do.

When she saw Bo Junyan coming out, Mu Huan's heart, which had been hanging tightly in her chest, dropped. Because her husband was so formidable, her granny would definitely be fine!

However, when she met his eyes, her heart, which had just calmed down, stopped beating.

She was about to step forward to ask Bo Junyan about the situation when she froze.

The color instantly drained from her face. Very quickly, her face turned frighteningly pale.

No... It can't be what I think... It can't be...

Bo Junyan stepped forward and reached out to hug her tottering body. "Xiao Huan, Granny has something to tell you."

Mu Huan was at a loss for words. Her already pale face was now frighteningly pale as she trembled.

Bo Junyan picked her up in heartache and carried her in.

Granny did not have much time left. If she could not see the old lady one last time, she would definitely not be able to take it.

"Xiao Huan..." When Xue Hua saw Mu Huan, she smiled at her.

Mu Huan's tears instantly blurred her vision. She couldn't speak or move.

She knew that with her granny's age, she would eventually have to leave her. However, she did not expect that this day would come so suddenly that she could not take it.

“Xiao Huan, don’t cry... This is a good thing... Granny can finally meet your grandfather...” Xue Hua smiled weakly.

Mu Huan’s tears fell even harder, but she still couldn’t say a word.

If it weren’t for Bo Junyan hugging her, she wouldn’t have been able to stand steadily.

“Xiao Huan... promise Granny... you’ll be fine...” Although Xue Hua had been living a happy life and did not want to die anymore, she was not afraid of death because she had long made preparations.

However, she knew that Mu Huan wasn’t prepared, especially since this day had come so suddenly.

Mu Huan wanted to say something, but she couldn’t make a sound. She couldn’t help but tremble.

“Xiao Huan... don’t let Granny leave uneasily. You... know that Granny has been waiting... for this day for a long time...” One would die sooner or later, but when one died suddenly, it would be very unacceptable, especially when her granddaughter regarded her so highly.

Mu Huan wanted to speak, but the sound she made was that of indescribable crying. It was so sorrowful that Bo Junyan hugged her tightly.

Xue Hua also shed tears. “Xiao Huan... Granny, I don’t want... to see you like this... Let Granny... leave happily... alright?”

Mu Huan grabbed her granny’s hand and cried even harder.

“Xiao Huan... if you do this, Granny... will not be able to rest in peace...”

Mu Huan didn’t want her granny to feel uneasy about leaving. She didn’t want her to worry about her in the last moments of her life, but she couldn’t say anything and could only nod tearfully.

Chapter 954: A Sudden Loss (5)

“Good child...” Xue Hua’s smile became even weaker.

She thought of something and said, “Xiao Huan... don’t... blame your mother... especially your brother...”

Mu Huan looked up at her granny, not knowing why she was saying this.

“Granny doesn’t have... no time... Answer... promise... Granny...” Xue Hua used her last ounce of strength to grab Mu Huan.

Mu Huan’s tears fell even harder. When she nodded her head while crying, Xue Hua closed her eyes forever.

The last thing a person could bear was losing their loved ones.

Especially when she was still fine the day before.

Just like that, she closed her eyes forever and never woke up again.

Just like that, she left her forever.

Mu Huan knelt in front of Xue Hua’s bed and cried her heart out.

When Xue Yun snapped back to her senses and realized what Bo Junyan meant by his words, she rushed in. When she saw that her mother had passed away, her vision darkened and she fainted a few times. In the end, she held on to the wall and barely managed to stand. She stumbled over to Xue Hua and knelt there like Mu Huan, wailing.

Ling Group...

“You said that she’s dead?” Ling Wei frowned. She’d asked him to use Ling Xiao to make the old lady go missing. Why did he let her die?!

“Yes.”

“What did you do? Why did you let her die?!” This old lady was Mu Huan’s only weakness. If she’s dead, Mu Huan would be even more difficult to deal with. Furthermore, the old lady had a very important role in her plan. Now that she was dead, everything would have to be overturned and redone.

The assistant lowered his head and said guiltily, “I’m sorry, CEO Ling. The accident happened too quickly. I didn’t have time to react.”

Ling Wei was about to say something else when she suddenly realized that it was good that the old lady had died. Mu Huan cared so much about her granny, and now that the old lady was dead, she must be in great pain! Furthermore, the old lady could be said to have been killed by Ling Xiao. This way, Mu Huan would definitely not be able to forgive Ling Xiao. This way, when the time came...

Ling Wei, who thought of her new plan, did not say anything else to the assistant.

It was only after she had investigated the cause of her granny’s car accident that Mu Huan realized why her granny wanted her to not blame her mother and Ling Xiao.

Because her granny could be said to have been killed by Ling Xiao.

That day, Xue Yun brought Xue Hua and Ling Xiao out to play. When Xue Yun went to the washroom, Ling Xiao pushed Xue Hua away angrily because Xue Hua had said a few words to him. Xue Hua, who was weak, stumbled a few steps back and retreated to the road. Coincidentally, a drunk car jumped out and ran her over...

This was an accident, but it wasn’t an accident. This was because Ling Xiao had pushed Xue Hua.

It could be said that he had caused Xue Hua’s death.

After Mu Huan found out the truth, her eyes reddened with anger. She reached out and picked up Ling Xiao, who was beside Xue Yun.

Ling Xiao, who was lifted into the air, looked at the terrifying Mu Huan and started crying in fear.

“Mom... Mom...”

Xue Yun hurriedly said, “Xiao Huan, quickly, put Xiao Xiao down. He’s your brother!

“Besides, that was just an accident! Xiao Xiao didn’t do it on purpose! He didn’t expect that! He’s only a child!”

Ling Xiao was born when Ling Feng was old, so he naturally doted on Ling Xiao. Xue Yun also doted on Ling Xiao and let him do whatever he wanted. She let him do as he pleased, and he developed a personality where he could not accept criticism from others. Once others said something, he would get angry and attack.

“He’s already eight years old! He’s not a three-year-old kid who doesn’t know anything! How could he push Granny?!” Mu Huan said angrily.

Chapter 955: A Sudden Loss (6)

“I know that Xiao Xiao is too insensible! I will definitely educate him well from now on! I will definitely not let him be so willful and rash again! He really knows his mistake!” Xue Yun looked at Ling Xiao as she spoke.

Ling Xiao hurriedly looked at Mu Huan and begged with tears, “Sister, I know I was wrong! I really know I was wrong! Sister... I beg you... Sister...”

“Xiao Huan, I will really teach Xiao Xiao well. I really will! Put him down first...” Xue Yun went forward and grabbed Mu Huan’s hand, getting her to put Ling Xiao down first.

“Just educating him?” Mu Huan asked with reddened eyes.

“I’ll beat him up! I’ll give him a good beating!” Xue Yun said in a serious tone.

“He killed Granny... your biological mother!” How could she only want to protect him and not be angry with him?!

“Xiao Huan, I know. I have already beaten him up badly, but he’s still a child! He still doesn’t know anything. He didn’t expect such a serious consequence either. For the past two days, he has been having nightmares. He’s already very scared and regretful! Xiao Huan, what else do you want to do with him?” Xue Yun cried.

Even in the eyes of the law, he was just a child and did not need to be responsible. Furthermore, he did not do it on purpose. He did not expect that just a slight push would result in this. He really did not expect it!

“You want him to pay with his life? Then you should take my life! It’s because I didn’t educate him well that he’s so insensible!”

Mu Huan tightened her grip on Ling Xiao’s hand, and the veins on the back of her hand bulged.

Sensing the strength in her hand, Ling Xiao cried even harder in fear. “Mom, save me... Mom, save me...”

When Xue Yun heard his cries, her heart ached so much that she could hardly breathe. “Xiao Huan! Let go of your brother! Let go of him!”

“If you want to hit me, then hit me. If you want someone to pay with their life, then let me do it!”

Mu Huan looked at Xue Yun with bloodshot eyes and tightened her grip. This was her mother, her biological mother...

After a long while...

Mu Huan threw Ling Xiao away.

She didn't use a lot of strength, but he still fell so heavily that Ling Xiao cried his heart out.

"Mu Huan!" Xue Yun glared fiercely at Mu Huan, her gaze as though she wanted to eat her up.

"How could you throw him away?! How could you?! He's your brother!" How could she throw him out?! How could she?!

"I don't have a brother." She didn't have a brother! No matter who gave birth to him, she didn't!

"Why do you deny him even though I'm your mother?!" Xue Yun's heart ached when she heard Ling Xiao's heart-wrenching cries!

Mu Huan looked at Ling Xiao, who was wailing like a ghost and howling like a wolf. She tried her best to resist the urge to kill. With bloodshot eyes, she said, "You'd better take him away immediately. If you want him to stay well, don't ever let me see him again!"

If she wasn't her biological mother and if Ling Xiao wasn't her biological son, she wouldn't have cared if this was an accident or not. No matter if he was a child or not, she would have made him pay with his blood!

"You..." Xue Yun, who was about to say something, was so frightened upon meeting Mu Huan's bloodthirsty eyes that she forgot what to say.

When she was young, Mu Huan was a tender and sweet little girl. After she reunited with Xue Yun, because she yearned for this lost and regained motherly love, she treated her mother so well that it was indescribable. This made Xue Yun surprised that she could be so vicious.

Chapter 956: Sudden Loss (7)

She was stunned.

When she snapped back to her senses, she hurriedly helped Ling Xiao up and left with him.

After they left, Mu Huan turned around to look at her granny's profile. She seemed to have suddenly lost all her strength as she slumped to the ground, her tears falling again.

When Bo Junyan returned, he saw her slumped there, crying so sadly.

Heart aching, he strode forward and pulled her into his embrace.

As Mu Huan looked at her granny's profile, more and more tears welled up in her eyes. "I don't have a granny anymore... This is how it is now, I don't have a granny anymore... Just like this, I won't be able to see her again... Just like this... I can't do anything... Just like this..." Mu Huan clutched her chest, feeling so terrible that she was about to explode.

"You still have me... Hey, you still have me..." Bo Junyan hugged her tightly and comforted her gently.

"If I hadn't acknowledged my mother, my granny would still be alive and well..."

"If you hadn't acknowledged your mother, something else might have happened." Bo Junyan didn't want her to blame his granny's death on herself. This wasn't her fault.

“What could have happened...” There was always someone protecting her granny when she’s in the Bo residence. It was her mother who’d felt that it was inconvenient to bring along someone to the Ling residence and said that she would definitely take good care of her granny. She felt that that was her biological mother and that she would definitely be fine with her. Hence, she did not let anyone follow her. If someone had followed her, such a thing would definitely not have happened.

“Xiao Huan, this isn’t your fault. You can’t think like this. If you do this, Granny will be worried and upset in the sky.” Bo Junyan didn’t believe in ghosts and gods, but at this point, he could only use these to comfort her.

“Does heaven exist? Is there a cycle of good and evil in this world? If there is, why would my granny die?”

“My granny was the best person in the world. She had never done anything bad. We had such a tough life in the past. Whenever someone from a poor family fell sick and came to us, she would check them and give them medicine for free. She’d saved so many people and did so much good. Why did she die just like that? Why?”

“Sometimes, death isn’t a punishment but a release. Granny went to reunite with your grandfather. She was very happy when she left.”

“Happy? Do you think she, who’s living happily, had wanted to die...?” In her granny’s eyes, there was only reluctance. She had worked hard and suffered for the rest of her life. Now, she had finally gotten a good life and her health was getting better. With her daughter and granddaughter accompanying her, she was living so happily, but she suddenly passed away.

Bo Junyan: “...”

He was never good at comforting people. This kind of pain of losing his family was not something any words could comfort.

He could only hug her tighter.

Mu Huan did not speak further. She only cried in his embrace. Her cries were so sorrowful and heart-wrenching.

Although Bo Junyan’s heart ached, he did not say anything else. He only hugged her. It was a good thing that she could cry. Only by crying could she vent her sorrow.

Mu Huan sent Xue Hua’s body back to Yun Cheng for burial and informed Mu Dongsheng.

When Mu Dongsheng received the news, he rushed to the mourning hall.

He didn’t expect his ex-wife’s mother to pass away so suddenly.

When he arrived, Mu Huan, who was dressed in mourning clothes, was kneeling in front of the mourning hall. She was holding a wooden stick and flipping through the paper money in the brazier to make them burn even more vigorously.

After crying for a few days, she could no longer cry. Her expression was as numb as a robot’s.

Seeing her like this, Mu Dongsheng walked forward with heartache.

Chapter 957: A Sudden Loss (8)

He knew how important Mu Huan's granny was to her. He came up to Mu Huan and was about to say something when he saw Xue Yun kneeling beside Mu Huan.

He was so shocked that he forgot what he was doing.

Why... why...

How... how...

Mu Huan did not have a good relationship with Mu Dongsheng. Furthermore, Xue Yun clearly did not want to be involved with the past. Hence, she did not tell Mu Dongsheng that Xue Yun was still alive.

Mu Dongsheng was stunned to see a dead person appear here.

Sensing something amiss, Xue Yun looked up.

When she saw Mu Dongsheng's stunned face, her expression became complex.

After all, they were married for so many years.

However, she quickly lowered her gaze and stopped looking at Mu Dongsheng.

Mu Dongsheng stood there in a daze for a while before he snapped back to his senses. He excitedly reached out and grabbed Mu Huan's arm. "Xiao Huan, look! There's a ghost! There's really a ghost! Your mother's ghost is kneeling beside you!"

Mu Huan: "..."

Xue Yun: "..."

Before anyone could say anything, Mu Dongsheng added, "No! She has a shadow! She's not a ghost!"

As he spoke, he reached out to touch Xue Yun's chin. When he felt that she had a chin and that she was warm, he said, "Song Ning, you're actually not dead!"

Xue Yun's real name was Song Ning.

Just as Xue Yun was about to say something...

Bo Junyan got someone to invite the two of them out and let them catch up outside.

He went to Mu Huan's side and knelt down beside her. He reached out for the wooden stick in her hand and said, "Xiao Huan, go eat something."

"I'm not hungry."

"You haven't eaten for two days." His wife, who was always so hungry that she'd panick when it was time to eat, had not eaten for two days.

"No appetite." Mu Huan couldn't eat anything now. She didn't feel hungry at all.

Bo Junyan did not speak further, but he signaled for someone to bring a bowl of porridge. At this point, she had to eat even if she couldn't eat.

After someone brought the porridge over, he fed it to Mu Huan.

"Eat even just a bit. We still have to send Granny up the mountain later. If you don't eat something, you won't have the energy to bury her and send her on her last journey."

When she thought about her soft and weak body, Mu Huan knew that he was right. Even if she didn't want to eat, she had to eat a little.

However, after she forced herself to finish that bowl of porridge, she suddenly felt nauseated and vomited everything out...

She wasn't pregnant. It was just that her stomach couldn't take food...

Bo Junyan frowned in worry.

Outside the mourning hall...

"Song Ning, you're actually not dead!" Mu Dongsheng was still in shock.

"Are you very disappointed that I didn't die?" Xue Yun really didn't want to recall the past. She didn't want to see the Mu family again, especially Mu Dongsheng!

Mu Dongsheng instinctively said, "How could that be?! How could I be disappointed?! I couldn't be happier!"

He really liked her and loved her. Her death had directly extinguished his last struggle. His heart that had wanted to fight against his mother had completely died and turned him into a good-for-nothing.

Now, seeing that she was still alive, he was really overjoyed.

"You don't have to be happy or disappointed. I'm no longer Song Ning. I'm Xue Yun. There's nothing between us anymore!"

Mu Dongsheng was so happy that he was about to step forward to grab her when his hand froze in mid-air.

After a while.

He laughed at himself. "That's true. No one wants anything to do with someone like me."

Chapter 958: One Has to Look Ahead (1)

Fu Siye and Shangguan Yu also came to send Xue Hua off.

Shangguan Yu's parents had passed away early. It was her grandfather who had brought her up, and her grandfather had passed away. After experiencing the pain of losing the only family she had left to rely on, she could especially understand and sympathize with Mu Huan's current pain.

Bo Junyan knew this. Furthermore, Mu Huan liked Shangguan Yu very much. He'd asked Shangguan Yu to accompany Mu Huan, comfort her, and counsel her.

After the funeral, Mu Dongsheng, who knew how Mu Huan's granny had passed away, called out to Xue Yun.

"There's nothing to talk about between us," Xue Yun said coldly as she looked at him from afar.

"There's nothing to talk about between us, but I have something to tell you. It's about Xiao Huan," Mu Dongsheng said.

"What do you have to say? Speak." Xue Yun remained far away.

Seeing her like this, Mu Dongsheng could not help but mock, "Why? Are you afraid that I'll do something to you? Don't think too much. Don't forget that I've already had an affair and don't care about you anymore."

At the mention of the past, Xue Yun's expression darkened. "In this world, there's really no one more trashy and disgusting than you!"

"Then shouldn't you be honored to spend such a long time with me, the trashiest person in the world?" Mu Dongsheng smiled.

Xue Yun did not know how he could have the face to say such things. She did not want to know either. She turned around and left.

"I heard that your son killed your mother," Mu Dongsheng said.

He had never thought that she was still alive, and he especially never thought she'd have a son with another man.

However, he had no right to say anything to her because he was too much of a scum. A scum like him had no right to say anything to her.

"Xiao Xiao didn't kill my mother! He didn't want that to happen either! He didn't know that things would be so serious! He didn't do it on purpose! You're not allowed to say that about him!" Xue Yun couldn't bear to hear others say that Xue Hua had been killed by Ling Xiao.

He was such a young child, and he didn't do it on purpose! How would he know that such a thing would happen if he pushed her?!

He really didn't know that! He was innocent!

Because of this matter, he had nightmares every day. In just a few days, he had lost a few kilograms. He was still a child! Why did he have to bear such a sin?!

"Even if he didn't know that the matter would be so serious, should he have pushed his own granny? Besides, I heard that they were on the side of the road at that time. Didn't he know that you can't fight and push people on the side of the road? Is eight years old really that young? Even a three-year-old knows that you can't run around and hit people on the side of the road!"

"Yes, he's insensible! He's not well-behaved! But that is all my fault! It's my fault!" How could Xue Yun not be in pain after losing her biological mother? She was also in pain and blamed herself, but it was all her fault! It was all on her! If she had to say who had killed her mother, it was her! She was the one who had killed her mother! It wasn't her son's fault... It really wasn't...

He was still such a young child...

Mu Dongsheng did not want to talk to her about whether or not Ling Xiao had killed Xue Hua. Seeing her like this, he immediately changed the topic. "You should know how important Mom is to Xiao Huan."

Xue Yun remained silent. She knew that to Mu Huan, her granny was much more important than her mother.

She knew that losing her granny was a heavy blow to Mu Huan. Recently, she had lost a lot of weight.

She knew that Mu Huan was suffering, but she was also suffering!

Chapter 959: One Has to Look Ahead (2)

It was her biological mother who had passed away! Her biological mother!

"From your performance just now, I know that you dote on your son a lot. It's only right for you to dote on him. However, don't forget that Xiao Huan is also your biological daughter. You should have treated her well in the first place. After such an incident, you should treat her well unconditionally. In the future, don't do anything to hurt Xiao Huan. You have to be especially careful and not let your son appear in front of Xiao Huan. Regardless of how you think that this matter was just an accident, that your son didn't want this to happen either, that he's innocent and he's afraid..."

"Xiao Huan's granny still died because of him. Xiao Huan can do anything for her granny. If this child wasn't your biological son, she would definitely make him pay a heavy price! It would make things better if she could take revenge on this person, but now, she couldn't do anything because of you."

"Her granny passed away just like that, but she couldn't do anything. I don't know how much she wants to explode in her heart, how unbearable it is! You have to be more careful with her and comfort her more."

It had to be said that Mu Dongsheng knew Mu Huan very well. He knew that nothing could be done, which made her feel even more pain and discomfort.

"Are you accusing me of treating Xiao Huan badly?" When Xue Yun heard his words, the fire in her heart soared. "Mu Dongsheng, how dare you say such things?! How are you qualified to say such things?!"

"If it weren't for you, how would things have come to this?! What's so good about you to Xiao Huan?! You're not even worthy of her calling you Dad! You actually have the face to ask me to treat Xiao Huan better?!"

"You're a scumbag who cheated on your wife and has an illegitimate daughter who's only two months younger than Xiao Huan. You're a scumbag who chased your daughter out of the house after marrying a third party and you forced her to marry at such a young age. How dare you have the cheek to say that about me?!"

Xue Yun felt that Mu Dongsheng was the last person in the world who had the right to say anything about her. This was because it was all his fault that the two of them had become like this! If he had not cheated on her and wasn't so cowardly, he would not have been unable to protect the two of them. How could things have become like this then?!

Also, she had lost her memory and was unable to take care of her daughter for the past ten years.

But he had his memories and was living a good life, yet he did not take care of his daughter. He actually had the cheek to say that about her!

"Yes, I have no right. I'm not blaming you. I just want to tell you to treat Xiao Huan better from now on."

Mu Dongsheng knew that he had no right. He was the most trashy person in the world. No matter what, he had no right to criticize her.

He wasn't really trying to. He was only telling her how tolerant Xiao Huan was being and how upset she was, all so that Xue Yun would treat her better in the future.

He wanted her to recover from the pain of losing her granny as soon as possible.

"What right do you have to make me treat Xiao Huan better? Why don't you treat her better?!" Xue Yun felt that even if it wasn't an accusation, he had no right to say such things!

Mu Dongsheng: "..."

He didn't know how to treat his daughter well. Besides, it wasn't appropriate for him to treat her well now.

After a long silence...

He said, "I'm a scumbag and a bad father, but do you think you're a good mother? If you want to be a good mother, you have to treat Xiao Huan better. It won't do to blindly think of yourself as the only one who's good."

"I know what I should do. You don't have to say anything about me! From now on, don't appear in front of me!" Xue Yun said fiercely and turned to leave.

Chapter 960: One Has to Look Ahead (3)

Mu Dongsheng looked at her back with a gloomy expression.

Yes, it was all his fault. It was all his fault that everything had turned out this way.

If he had not been so cowardly back then and had summoned up the courage to resist, the two of them would not have had such a tough life...

He wasn't good.

He was the least qualified person in the world to live well.

In the following days, Mu Huan had been like a soulless person. She did nothing every day and stayed in the room where her granny had stayed. No matter how Bo Junyan tried to counsel her, no matter how Shangguan Yu tried to persuade her, no matter how Xue Yun cried, no matter how Li Meng and Wu Xingye teased her, it was useless.

Days passed. Just as Bo Junyan was about to find a professional psychiatrist to treat Mu Huan...

Mu Huan suddenly appeared in front of him without warning and smiled at him. "Hubby, let's go eat something good tonight, alright?"

Bo Junyan looked at her smiling face and was stunned.

It had been a long time since he had seen her smile like this. Seeing it suddenly made him think that he was hallucinating because he really missed his wife's smile.

Mu Huan was stunned when she saw Bo Junyan like that. He was the same man whose expression remained unchanged even when Mt. Tai was about to collapse. She reached out to hug him and raised her head. "I'm sorry, Hubby. I've made you worry about me these past few days. I won't be like that from now on. I'll only be happy going forward!"

Humans had to look forward. No matter how unbearable it was, what was lost was lost.

No matter what, she could never get it back. She could never have it again.

If she could not walk out of the pain, she would be swallowed by it. Her granny would not want to see her like this. She'd want her to live happily. No matter what happened, as long as she did not die, she would get up and continue living with a smile!

Bo Junyan did not speak and only hugged her tightly.

Mu Huan was a person who was good at self-regulating. Soon, she was like before, full of energy, confidence, cheerfulness, and positivity.

Because Shangguan Yu had been visiting her almost every day recently, Mu Huan and Shangguan Yu's relationship had improved.

On this day, Mu Huan came to Shangguan Yu's coffee shop to have afternoon tea with her.

After Mu Huan sat down, Shangguan Yu had something to do and sent someone a message. Mu Huan casually flipped through the newspaper that was on the shelf beside her and found that Fu Siye and Gu Lingyin had attended a charity banquet. The report even said that the two of them were about to rekindle their old feelings.

After reading the report, she could not help but look at Shangguan Yu. "Sister Yu, may I ask what's going on between you and Fu Siye? Why are you letting him off like this?"

Although her Sister Yu was gentle, she did not have the personality of a doormat. How could she tolerate Fu Siye under such circumstances?

Naturally, Shangguan Yu had already read the newspaper placed in the coffee shop. Hence, she knew why Mu Huan suddenly asked this.

She lowered her eyes and smiled self-mockingly. "Because I love him. I can't give up completely on him."

Mu Huan: "..."

“Then, what about Gu Lingyin? Why do you have to tolerate her like this?”

“Although I wasn’t the one who got someone to kidnap Gu Lingyin, the whole thing started because of me...”

Everyone knew that Shangguan Yu liked Fu Siye. Ever since she was young, she had only had eyes for Fu Siye, but Fu Siye clearly didn’t like her. Her grandfather had tried all sorts of ways to make her like someone else, but she couldn’t manage to.
