Chapter 103

Jalen did not speak, but his sullen face was self-explanatory.

Based on his understanding of Elaina, she would agree. What was more, she would be very proactive.

“See you tonight, Mr. Halton. I hope you won’t tip off the Lory family.” Saul waved at Jalen, got into the car, and left.

Jalen watched as Saul’s flashy red sports car disappeared. His eyes were cold when he looked back at the floor where Elaina was. Then he turned to leave as well.

Elaina went back to sleep again until noon. Only then did she stop being so drowsy. She got up the bed and habitually checked her phone.

Joyce sent her a message, telling her that it was Nitzan’s birthday party tonight and asking her if she wanted to come together.

Elaina replied to Joyce and then checked the texts others had sent her.

Jenica also texted Elaina, telling Elaina that she wouldn’t make it to Nitzan’s birthday party tonight. She wanted Elaina to wish Nitzan a happy birthday on her behalf.
