Chapter 109

Elaina's face turned cold. She glanced at the two people who had just talked. Just as she was about to speak, she heard Nitzan, who was sitting in front of her, snorting coldly. Nitzan said, "Everyone here is my guest. Social status is not important. Everyone who attends my birthday banquet should be treated equally.

"Anyone who dares to talk nonsense will pay the price."

Instantly, the place quieted down. No one dared to say anything else.

When Alisha saw this, she stepped forward to ease the atmosphere. "Mr. Halton, come and take a look at what gift Ms. Wallace sent you. She must be very attentive."

Nitzan looked at Alisha. Alisha hurriedly explained, "I happened to meet Ms. Wallace on the day I picked the gift for you. At that time, Ms. Wallace's friend said that she knew what you liked, so I was quite curious."

"Is that so, Ms. Gainsford?" Alisha looked at Elaina. "You did say that you knew what Mr. Halton liked, didn't you?"

Immediately, Elaina attracted everyone's attention. She had no choice but to stand out.

"We will see whether Mr. Halton likes it. Just let Mr. Halton look at the gift." Elaina smiled and ignored Alisha's provocation.

He looked at Elaina with a very gentle gaze. "Did you choose
