Chapter 111

Jalen felt that he was innocent. He had nothing to do with it, right? Elaina was speechless. Nitzan was probably too old and confused. Could it be that he had forgotten the fact that she and Jalen had already divorced?

After a long time, Nitzan carefully put away the vase. He glanced at Alisha and her friend beside her and snorted, "It's a vase with the pattern of jonquil. It's worth several dozen million dollars. Are you looking down on it? People will misunderstand that you are the richest one in New York."

Although Nitzan said this to Alisha's good friend, Alisha's face also turned red. She wanted to find a hole to hide in.

Several dozen million dollars?

Just an old vase?

And where did Elaina get the money? How could she send such an expensive vase so easily? What was her relationship with Nitzan?

For a moment, everyone was curious.

Some people even began to suspect that Elaina was Nitzan's illegitimate daughter. After all, the value of other people's gifts tonight was not comparable to Elaina's at all. If Elaina was just an ordinary guest, why should she send such an expensive gift?
