Chapter 117

The banquet was coming to an end, and Elaina could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

This kind of occasion was indeed not suitable for her, so she should avoid it as much as possible in the future.

However, didn't Theodore say that he was also coming to participate? Why did she not see him?

She searched around for Theodore and Andrew, but she did not find them. Just as she was about to retract her gaze, she saw a familiar face.

Her eyes darkened, and she got up and walked over.

When Jenica was caught by Elaina, she was carefully avoiding the crowd. It seemed that Jenica was doing her best to keep people from noticing her, so the moment she was caught, she was still in disbelief.

Jenica thought she was so careful, but she was still discovered.

Elaina did not know what Jenica was thinking. She patted Jenica's shoulder and said in an angry tone, "Jenica Gansburg, please give me an explanation."

Jenica was helpless. Elaina must be angry.
