

Falling 121

Chapter 121

“Nevertheless, I am still very grateful that you saved him,” the young man thanked Elaina again. “My name is Jaydon Becker. The old man inside is my father.”

“Elaina Gainsford.” She had a good impression of Jaydon, and the operation was a great success, and therefore she was at ease.

“Ms. Gainsford, I wonder if I can trouble you to tell me more about my father’s situation,” Jaydon said in embarrassment.

Elaina nodded and motioned for him to follow her. “Sure. Come with me to the office,” she said.

She was the doctor, and she had the obligation to explain the patient’s situation to the patient’s family members.

Elaina and Jaydon walked to her office, while she took the lead. Jalen, who was aside, was completely ignored.

Up ahead, Elaina only realized that something was wrong after walking for a while. She thought, where is Jalen?

Jalen was nowhere to be found. She thought, little confused. He didn’t back to her senses and shook her the car door and sat in.

is Mr. Becker? Was he rescued?” Graham started the

was obviously that Elaina was the one who had performed the surgery for Zayden, he was certain that Jalen’s gloominess had everything to do trace of hesitation flashed across Graham’s eyes. In the end, he made up his mind and said, “Mr. Halton, you things were too comical to be real. Jalen did not answer Graham. Instead, he looked up at Graham, who terrified. “You and Ms. Gainsford were married for two years, yet that still didn’t make you fall in love with her. And now you’ve just gotten

“Of course not.”

It wasn’t because he didn’t want to. It was simply because he didn’t dare to. He had already sensed the sense that I don’t know her. But you are my assistant. Are you acting like a beginning, maybe there would have been

