

Falling 124

Chapter 124

“In that case, shall we have dinner together tonight?” Jaydon invited Elaina again.

Though she turned him down the first time, he figured that the same thing wouldn’t happen again.

Sure enough, Elaina smiled and nodded, “Sure.”

She thought, I’m looking forward to seeing what you’re up to!

After Jaydon and Elaina agreed on the time and place to eat, Jaydon left the office and went to the ward to take care of Zayden.

After he left, the smile on Elaina’s face completely disappeared.

She picked up her phone and dialed a number. She said, “Andrew, I need you to look into someone.

“Jaydon Becker, from the Becker family in Boston.”

Jaydon walked into the VIP ward without a smile on his face.

against the head of the bed, closed face, Zayden asked, “What’s his head and walked

Elaina out for dinner,” he

then asked,

Zayden. “You

She knew at once I was lying when I said I had feelings for her.” Jaydon was helpless. It was the first time he had “Isn’t it good to be smart? Nowadays, those who aren’t smart looked at Zayden and could not help but ask, “So, why do you want Elaina.

simply grateful to woke up, he had been pressuring Jaydon to get along with Elaina. He even supported Jaydon someone I know.” Zayden pondered. It looked like he was lost in speechless. “Seriously? This is your isn’t she? She has excellent medical skills, and she is Mr. Dorthea’s last disciple. She is talented. You won’t lose anything, right?” Zayden rolled what Zayden was thinking. He couldn't see Zayden through at