

Falling 134

Chapter 134

Hearing Jalen's words, Saul shrugged indifferently and said with a bit of pride, "I can't afford to offend that young master of the Becker family."

"Aren't you fearless?" Jalen was surprised as if he had encountered something rare.

Saul raised his eyebrows, crossed his arms over his chest, and said to Jalen, "Well, I admit that I am. not afraid of him. I just think that no matter who pursues Elaina, you will feel unhappy. In that case, why should I cause trouble?"

Saul had already seen through Jalen and Jalen's feelings for Elaina.

Jalen looked at Saul coldly and turned to leave. Jalen was afraid that if he continued to stay, he would want to beat Saul up.

Seeing him like this, Saul smiled even more happily. "Are you angry?"

Jalen did not say anything and walked towards his car.

Saul followed behind and said as he walked, "Elaina probably did not tell you. She has already agreed to cooperate with me to deal with the Lory family. It won't be long before the Lory family disappears in New York. I am very curious. Will you help your childhood sweetheart?"

Jalen frowned when he heard this, but he did not say anything.

like that? You should at least say a few words." Saul refused to give up. He turned to look at Saul. "Fortunately, you are a man. Otherwise, with your concern for me, Saul was speechless.

lot this morning and almost vomited when he

of disdain and said, "My taste is not as kinky as yours. I'm not it is true," Jalen sneered coldly, got into the car, and left. Saul watched the car disappear, and the

he would help the Lory family, helped the Lory family, Saul and Theodore might not be able to bring down thinking for a while, Saul called to remind Theodore so that Theodore would face was sullen. He had been in a bad mood, but Lory family?" The Lory family and the Halton family had always. been on good terms. The two families were not only old friends, but they also cooperated a lot. If the Lory family really collapsed, the Halton family-would at Graham, who was

“Well, Mr. Judson...”

don't know anything. Do you back. He immediately

was very