

Falling 135

Chapter 135

Theodore and Saul were very fast. As soon as the cooperation was confirmed, they quickly began to attack the Lory family. They did not give the Lory family a chance to react.

In the president's office of the Lory Group, Alisha stood respectfully in front of the desk and looked at the middle-aged man sitting opposite her. Even though the man was scolding her, she did not dare to retort at all.

"Alisha, you are my daughter. You should know how much pressure I received after promoting you to your current position. The people under me are secretly saying that I gave you special treatment. You should work harder." The middle-aged man who was speaking was Ernesto Lory, Alisha's father.

Alisha nodded repeatedly and apologized. "I'm sorry, Dad. I let you down."

"I am indeed very disappointed." Ernesto stared at her coldly for a long time before saying, "But it's not because of the problem that the Lory Group is facing now. It's because of your marriage."

"Dad..." Alisha bit her lip, knowing what he was going to say.

"I think that kid from the Stein family is not bad. You should try dating him," Ernesto said.

lowered her head, not letting the man opposite her see

have someone

not the only one who much time on him. Now that our family is in trouble, I think you at her father in disbelief. "Dad, although our family is Although our family is strong, we have to be vigilant." He looked at his daughter with "The Stein family said that if you married their son, they would help us deal with the two families. With the help of the Stein family, our family may take this opportunity to devour

this, but she was still

Was she being treated as a commodity? She had always thought that as long as she worked hard, she

that plan,

will let him die and see how that she did not speak, his noded and did not

was the daughter he wanted. "It's good that you can understand.